(a) no reference were made to the third paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.48 and 1029.8.36.166.60.49;

(b) where section 1029.8.36.166.60.61 or 1029.8.36.166.60.62 applies to the corporation for the year of increase, the agreed proportion, in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period ending in the particular preceding year, were the same as that for the fiscal period ending in the year of increase; and

(c) any particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the second paragraph that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in that subparagraph reduced the amount of government assistance or non-government assistance.

The particular amount to which subparagraph b of the second paragraph refers is the aggregate of

(a) the total amount that would be determined under that subparagraph b if no reference were made to subparagraph c of the third paragraph; and

(b) the total amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year of increase under sections 1029.8.36.166.60.60 to 1029.8.36.166.60.62.

1029.8.36.166.60.65. Where, in relation to specified expenses of a qualified corporation or of a qualified partnership, in respect of a specified property, a person or a partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain a benefit or advantage, other than a benefit or advantage that may reasonably be attributed to the acquisition of the specified property, whether in the form of a reimbursement, compensation or guarantee, in the form of proceeds of disposition of a property which exceed the fair market value of the property, or in any other form or manner, the following rules apply:

(a) for the purpose of computing the amount that the qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under section 1029.8.36.166.60.48, the amount of the specified expenses is to be reduced by the amount of the benefit or advantage that the person or partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain on or before the qualified corporation's filing-due date for the year; and

(b) for the purpose of computing the amount that is deemed to have been paid to the Minister for a taxation year under section 1029.8.36.166.60.49 by a qualified corporation that is a member of the qualified partnership, the corporation's share, for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year, of the amount of the specified expenses, is to be reduced

i. by the corporation's share, for the fiscal period, of the amount of the benefit or advantage that the person or partnership, other than a person referred to in subparagraph ii, has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain on or before the last day of the six-month period following the end of the fiscal period, and

ii. by the amount of the benefit or advantage that the qualified corporation or a person with whom it does not deal at arm's length has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain on or before the last day of the six-month period following the end of the fiscal period.

2021, c. 14, s. 151.

DIVISION II.6.14.3

CREDIT FOR INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL CENTRES

2011, c. 1, s. 80.

1029.8.36.166.61. In this division,

"eligible contract" of a corporation for all or part of a taxation year means a contract of the corporation in respect of which a certificate is issued to the corporation for the year by the Minister of Finance for the purposes of this division, according to which the contract is an eligible contract for all or part of the year;

"eligible employee" of a corporation for all or part of a taxation year means an employee of the corporation in respect of whom a qualification certificate to the effect that the employee is an eligible employee for all or part of the year is issued to the corporation for the year by the Minister of Finance for the purposes of this division;

"qualified international financial transaction" has the meaning assigned by section 2.1 of Schedule E to the Act respecting the sectoral parameters of certain fiscal measures (chapter P-5.1);

"qualified wages" incurred by a corporation in a taxation year in respect of an eligible employee for all or part of the taxation year means the lesser of

(a) the amount obtained by multiplying $75,000 by the proportion that the number of days in the taxation year during which the employee qualifies as an eligible employee of the corporation is of 365; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of the wages incurred in the year by the corporation in respect of the employee, while the employee qualifies as an eligible employee of the corporation, to the extent that that amount is paid, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance attributable to such wages that the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount of a benefit or advantage in respect of such wages, other than a benefit or advantage that may reasonably be attributed to the duties performed by the employee in the course of the operations of the business carried on by the corporation in the taxation year that a person or partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain, on or before the corporation's filing-due date for that taxation year, whether in the form of a reimbursement, compensation or guarantee, in the form of proceeds of disposition of a property which exceed the fair market value of the property, or in any other form or manner;

"wages" means the income computed under Chapters I and II of Title II of Book III.

1029.8.36.166.62. A corporation operating an international financial centre in a taxation year that holds for that year a valid qualification certificate issued by the Minister of Finance for the purposes of this division and that encloses with the fiscal return it is required to file for the year under section 1000 the documents described in the third paragraph is deemed, subject to the second paragraph, to have paid to the Minister on the corporation's balance-due day for that year, on account of its tax payable for that year under this Part, an amount equal to 24% of the aggregate of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the qualified wages incurred by the corporation in the year in respect of an eligible employee for all or part of that year, where the qualification certificate issued in respect of that employee is in relation to the carrying out of qualified international financial transactions; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is 80% of the qualified wages incurred by the corporation in the year in respect of an eligible employee for all or part of that year, where the qualification certificate issued in respect of that employee is in relation to an eligible contract.

For the purpose of computing the payments that a corporation referred to in the first paragraph is required to make under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1027, or any of sections 1145, 1159.7, 1175 and 1175.19 if they refer to that subparagraph a, the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the aggregate of its tax payable for the year under this Part and of its tax payable for the year under Parts IV, IV.1, VI and VI.1, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the amount determined under the first paragraph for the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the year but before that date; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to this chapter, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under this chapter but otherwise than under the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

The documents to which the first paragraph refers are the following:

(a) the prescribed form containing prescribed information;

(b) a copy of any qualification certificate that has been issued to the corporation for the taxation year by the Minister of Finance for the purposes of this division.

1029.8.36.166.63. If a corporation pays in a taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year"), pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that was taken into account for the purpose of computing qualified wages incurred in a particular taxation year by the corporation in respect of an eligible employee and in respect of which the corporation is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.62 for the particular taxation year, the corporation is deemed, if it encloses the prescribed form with the fiscal return it is required to file for the repayment year under section 1000, to have paid to the Minister on its balance due-day for the repayment year, on account of its tax payable for that year under this Part, an amount equal to the amount by which the amount that it would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year in respect of the qualified wages under section 1029.8.36.166.62 if any amount of assistance so repaid at or before the end of the repayment year had reduced, for the particular year, the amount determined under subparagraph i of paragraph b of the definition of "qualified wages" in section 1029.8.36.166.61, exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.62 for the particular year in respect of the qualified wages; and

(b) any amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under this section in respect of an amount of repayment of that assistance.

1029.8.36.166.64. For the purposes of section 1029.8.36.166.63, an amount of assistance is deemed to be repaid by a corporation in a taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, if that amount

(a) reduced, because of subparagraph i of paragraph b of the definition of "qualified wages" in section 1029.8.36.166.61, the amount of the wages referred to in that paragraph b, for the purpose of computing qualified wages in respect of which the corporation is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.62;

(b) was not received by the corporation; and

(c) ceased in the taxation year to be an amount that the corporation may reasonably expect to receive.

2011, c. 1, s. 80.

DIVISION II.6.14.4

CREDIT FOR THE HIRING OF EMPLOYEES BY NEW FINANCIAL SERVICES CORPORATIONS

2013, c. 10, s. 123.

1029.8.36.166.65. In this division,

"eligibility period" of a corporation for a taxation year means all of the taxation year for which a certificate has been issued to the corporation for the purposes of this division or, if applicable, the part of that year specified in the certificate;

"eligible employee" of a corporation for all or part of a taxation year means an individual who meets the following conditions:

(1) the individual is an employee of the corporation; and

(2) the corporation obtains a certificate for the year in respect of the individual, for the purposes of this division, certifying that the employee is recognized as an eligible employee for that year or part of year;

"excluded corporation" for a taxation year means

(a) a corporation that is exempt from tax for the year under Book VIII;

(b) a corporation that would be exempt from tax for the year under section 985, but for section 192; or

(c) a corporation that carries on a personal services business in the year;

"qualified corporation" for a taxation year means a corporation, other than an excluded corporation, in respect of which all or part of the year is included in the period of validity specified in the qualification certificate it holds for the purposes of this division and that, in the year, carries on a business in Québec and has an establishment in Québec;

"qualified wages" incurred by a corporation in a taxation year in respect of an eligible employee means the lesser of

(a) the amount obtained by multiplying $100,000 by the proportion that the number of days in the taxation year during which the employee is recognized as an eligible employee of the corporation is of 365; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of the wages incurred by the corporation in its eligibility period for the taxation year in respect of the employee, while the employee is recognized as an eligible employee of the corporation, to the extent that that amount is paid, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance attributable to such wages that the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount of a benefit or advantage in respect of such wages, other than a benefit or advantage that may reasonably be attributed to the duties performed by the employee in the course of the operations of the business carried on by the corporation in the taxation year that a person or a partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain, on or before the corporation's filing-due date for that taxation year, whether in the form of a reimbursement, compensation or guarantee, in the form of proceeds of disposition of a property which exceed the fair market value of the property, or in any other form or manner;

"wages" means the income computed under Chapters I and II of Title II of Book III.

1029.8.36.166.66. A qualified corporation that holds, for a taxation year, a certificate issued by the Minister of Finance for the purposes of this division and that encloses with the fiscal return it is required to file for the year under section 1000 a copy of the certificate as well as the documents described in the third paragraph is deemed, subject to the second paragraph, to have paid to the Minister on the corporation's balance-due day for that year, on account of its tax payable for that year under this Part, an amount equal to 24% of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the qualified wages incurred by the corporation in the year and after 20 March 2012 in respect of an eligible employee.

For the purpose of computing the payments that a corporation referred to in the first paragraph is required to make under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1027, or any of sections 1159.7, 1175 and 1175.19 if they refer to that subparagraph a, the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the aggregate of its tax payable for the year under this Part and of its tax payable for the year under Parts IV.1, VI and VI.1, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the amount determined under the first paragraph for the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the year but before that date; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to this chapter, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under this chapter but otherwise than under the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

The documents to which the first paragraph refers are the following:

(a) the prescribed form containing prescribed information; and

(b) a copy of the following documents:

i. the qualification certificate issued to the corporation by the Minister of Finance for the purposes of this division, and

ii. any certificate issued to the corporation by the Minister of Finance for the year for the purposes of this division, in relation to an eligible employee.

1029.8.36.166.67. If a corporation pays in a taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year"), pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that was taken into account for the purpose of computing qualified wages incurred in a particular taxation year by the corporation in respect of an eligible employee and in respect of which the corporation is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.66 for the particular taxation year, the corporation is deemed, if it encloses the prescribed form with the fiscal return it is required to file for the repayment year under section 1000, to have paid to the Minister on its balance due-day for the repayment year, on account of its tax payable for that year under this Part, an amount equal to the amount by which the amount that it would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year in respect of the qualified wages under section 1029.8.36.166.66 if any amount of assistance so repaid at or before the end of the repayment year had reduced, for the particular year, the amount determined under subparagraph i of paragraph b of the definition of "qualified wages" in section 1029.8.36.166.65, exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.66 for the particular year in respect of the qualified wages; and

(b) any amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under this section in respect of an amount of repayment of that assistance.

1029.8.36.166.68. For the purposes of section 1029.8.36.166.67, an amount of assistance is deemed to be repaid by a corporation in a taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, if that amount

(a) reduced, because of subparagraph i of paragraph b of the definition of "qualified wages" in section 1029.8.36.166.65, the amount of the wages referred to in that paragraph b, for the purpose of computing qualified wages in respect of which the corporation is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.66;

(b) was not received by the corporation; and

(c) ceased in the taxation year to be an amount that the corporation may reasonably expect to receive.

2013, c. 10, s. 123.

DIVISION II.6.14.5

CREDIT RELATING TO NEW FINANCIAL SERVICES CORPORATIONS

2013, c. 10, s. 123.

§ 1. — Interpretation

2013, c. 10, s. 123.

1029.8.36.166.69. In this division,

"eligibility period" of a corporation for a taxation year means all of the taxation year for which a certificate has been issued to the corporation for the purposes of this division or, if applicable, the part of that year specified in the certificate;

"eligible activities" of a corporation for a taxation year means the activities that the corporation carries on in the year and that are specified in the qualification certificate issued to it for the purposes of this division;

"excluded corporation" for a taxation year means

(a) a corporation that is exempt from tax for the year under Book VIII;

(b) a corporation that would be exempt from tax for the year under section 985, but for section 192; or

(c) a corporation that carries on a personal services business in the year;

"qualified corporation" for a taxation year means a corporation, other than an excluded corporation, in respect of which all or part of the year is included in the period of validity specified in the qualification certificate it holds for the purposes of this division and that, in the year, carries on a business in Québec and has an establishment in Québec;

"qualified expenditure" of a corporation for a taxation year means the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an expenditure incurred by the corporation in the year, that is directly attributable to its eligible activities for the year carried on in an establishment of the corporation situated in Québec and is any of the following expenditures, provided it is wholly or partly attributable to its eligibility period for the year:

(a) the fees relating to the constitution of the initial regulatory file submitted to a recognized regulatory or self-regulatory organization of a financial market;

(b) the fees relating to the constitution of the initial file for participation in a stock exchange;

(c) the duties, dues and charges paid to a recognized regulatory or self-regulatory organization of a financial market;

(d) the duties and costs as a participant in a stock exchange;

(e) the connection and usage fees of an electronic trading solution for participation in a stock exchange;

(f) the subscription fees for a research or financial analysis tool or service;

(g) the fees relating to the constitution of a prospectus required by a recognized regulatory or self-regulatory organization of a financial market; or

(h) the fees paid to a compliance consultant to ensure compliance with the requirements of a recognized regulatory or self-regulatory organization of a financial market.

2013, c. 10, s. 123; 2019, c. 14, s. 366.

§ 2. — Credit

2013, c. 10, s. 123.

1029.8.36.166.70. A qualified corporation that holds, for a taxation year, a valid certificate issued by the Minister of Finance for the purposes of this division and that encloses with the fiscal return it is required to file for the year under section 1000 a copy of the certificate as well as the documents described in the third paragraph is deemed, subject to the second paragraph, to have paid to the Minister on the corporation's balance-due day for that year, on account of its tax payable for that year under this Part, an amount equal to 32% of the lesser of

(a) the corporation's qualified expenditure for the year, to the extent that it is paid; and

(b) the corporation's qualified expenditure limit for the year.

For the purpose of computing the payments that a corporation is required to make under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1027, or any of sections 1159.7, 1175 and 1175.19 if they refer to that subparagraph a, the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the aggregate of its tax payable for the year under this Part and of its tax payable for the year under Parts IV.1, VI and VI.1, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the amount determined under the first paragraph for the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the year but before that date; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to this chapter, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under this chapter but otherwise than under the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

The documents to which the first paragraph refers are the following:

(a) the prescribed form containing prescribed information; and

(b) a copy of the following documents:

i. the qualification certificate issued to the corporation by the Minister of Finance for the purposes of this division, and

ii. the agreement referred to in section 1029.8.36.166.72, if applicable.

2013, c. 10, s. 123; 2015, c. 21, s. 469.

1029.8.36.166.71. In this division, the qualified expenditure limit of a corporation for a taxation year is equal to

(a) if the corporation is not a member of an associated group in the year, $375,000; or

(b) if the corporation is a member of an associated group in the year, an amount attributed for the year to the corporation pursuant to the agreement described in section 1029.8.36.166.72 and enclosed with the fiscal return the corporation is required to file for the year under section 1000 or, if no amount is attributed to the corporation under the agreement or in the absence of such an agreement, zero.

For the purposes of this section and sections 1029.8.36.166.72 to 1029.8.36.166.74, an associated group in a taxation year means all the corporations that are associated with each other in the year and are qualified corporations for the year.

1029.8.36.166.72. The agreement to which subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.166.71 refers is the agreement under which all the qualified corporations that are members of the associated group in the year attribute for the year, in the prescribed form, to one or more of their number, for the purposes of this division, one or more amounts the total of which does not exceed $375,000.

If the aggregate of the amounts attributed, in respect of a taxation year, pursuant to an agreement described in the first paragraph and entered into by the qualified corporations that are members of an associated group in the year exceeds $375,000, the amount determined under subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.166.71 in respect of each of those corporations for the taxation year is deemed, for the purposes of this division, to be equal to the proportion of $375,000 that that determined amount is of the aggregate of the amounts attributed for the year under the agreement.

1029.8.36.166.73. If a qualified corporation that is a member of an associated group referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.166.71 fails to file with the Minister an agreement described in that subparagraph within 30 days after notice in writing by the Minister has been sent to any of the corporations that are members of that group that such an agreement is required for the purposes of any assessment of tax under this Part or for the determination of another amount, the Minister shall, for the purposes of this division, attribute an amount to one or more of those corporations for the taxation year, which amount or the aggregate of which amounts must be equal to $375,000, and in such a case, despite that subparagraph b, the qualified expenditure limit for the year of each of the corporations is equal to the amount so attributed to it.

1029.8.36.166.74. Despite sections 1029.8.36.166.71 to 1029.8.36.166.73, the following rules apply:

(a) if a corporation that is a member of an associated group (in this paragraph referred to as the "first corporation") has more than one taxation year ending in the same calendar year and is associated in two or more of those taxation years with another corporation that is a member of the group that has a taxation year ending in that calendar year, the qualified expenditure limit of the first corporation for each particular taxation year that ends in the calendar year in which it is associated with the other corporation and that ends after the first taxation year ending in that calendar year is, subject to paragraph b, an amount equal to the lesser of

i. its qualified expenditure limit for the first taxation year ending in the calendar year, determined without reference to this section, and

ii. its qualified expenditure limit for the particular taxation year ending in the calendar year, determined without reference to this section;

(b) if a corporation has a taxation year of fewer than 51 weeks, except in cases where paragraph c applies, the qualified expenditure limit of the corporation for the year is equal to that proportion of its qualified expenditure limit for the year, determined without reference to this paragraph, that the number of days in the year is of 365; and

(c) if the eligibility period of a corporation for a taxation year corresponds to a part of the taxation year, the qualified expenditure limit of the corporation for the year is equal to that proportion of its qualified expenditure limit for the year, determined without reference to this paragraph, that the number of days in that period is of the number of days in the taxation year.

1029.8.36.166.75. Where it may reasonably be considered that one of the main reasons for the separate existence of two or more corporations in a taxation year is to cause a qualified corporation to be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under this division for that year or to increase an amount that a qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division for that year, those corporations are deemed, for the purposes of this division, to be associated with each other in the year.

2013, c. 10, s. 123.

§ 3. — Government assistance, non-government assistance and other particulars

2013, c. 10, s. 123.

1029.8.36.166.76. For the purpose of computing the amount that is deemed to have been paid to the Minister for a taxation year by a corporation under section 1029.8.36.166.70, the amount of the qualified expenditure of the corporation referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of that section is to be reduced, if applicable, by the amount of any government assistance or non-government assistance, attributable to that expenditure, that the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive on or before the corporation's filing-due date for that taxation year.

1029.8.36.166.77. If, in respect of a qualified expenditure of a qualified corporation, a person or a partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain a benefit or advantage, other than a benefit or advantage that may reasonably be attributed to the qualified expenditure, whether in the form of a repayment, compensation or guarantee, in the form of proceeds of disposition of a property which exceed the fair market value of the property, or in any other form or manner, the amount of the qualified expenditure of the qualified corporation for a taxation year is, for the purpose of computing the amount that is deemed to have been paid to the Minister for that year by the qualified corporation under section 1029.8.36.166.70, to be reduced by the amount of the benefit or advantage that the person or partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain on or before the qualified corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year.

1029.8.36.166.78. If a corporation pays, in a taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year"), pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that was taken into consideration for the purpose of computing the qualified expenditure of the corporation for a particular taxation year in respect of which it is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.70 for the particular year, the corporation is deemed, if it encloses the prescribed form with the fiscal return it is required to file for the repayment year under section 1000, to have paid to the Minister on its balance-due day for the repayment year, on account of its tax payable for that year under this Part, an amount equal to the amount by which the amount that it would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year, in respect of the qualified expenditure, under section 1029.8.36.166.70 if any amount of such assistance so repaid at or before the end of the repayment year had reduced, for the particular year, the amount of any government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in section 1029.8.36.166.76, exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the amount that it is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.70 for the particular year in respect of the qualified expenditure; and

(b) any amount that it is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under this section in respect of an amount of repayment of that assistance.

1029.8.36.166.79. For the purposes of section 1029.8.36.166.78, an amount of assistance is deemed to be repaid by a corporation at a particular time, pursuant to a legal obligation, if that amount

(a) reduced, because of section 1029.8.36.166.76, a qualified expenditure for the purpose of computing the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under section 1029.8.36.166.70;

(b) was not received by the corporation; and

(c) ceased at the particular time to be an amount that the corporation could reasonably expect to receive.

1029.8.36.167. In this division,

"associated group" in a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.167.1;

"Canadian renewable and conservation expense in Canada" has the meaning assigned by section 399.7;

"eligible expenses" of a corporation for a taxation year or of a partnership for a fiscal period means expenses incurred, after 29 March 2001, by the corporation in the taxation year or by the partnership in the fiscal period and that consist of

(a) any Canadian exploration expense that is incurred before 1 April 2023 and that would be described in paragraph a or b.1 of section 395 if the reference therein to "Canada", wherever it appears, except in subparagraph iv of that paragraph b.1, were a reference to "Québec, but outside the northern exploration zone" and if, where the expense is incurred by the partnership, the partnership were deemed to be a taxpayer whose taxation year is the partnership's fiscal period;

(a.0.1*)* any Canadian exploration expense (other than that described in paragraph a.1) that would be described in paragraph c of section 395 if the reference therein to "mineral resource in Canada" were a reference to "mineral resource in Québec, but outside the northern exploration zone, other than coal," and if, where the expense is incurred by the partnership, the partnership were deemed to be a taxpayer whose taxation year is the partnership's fiscal period;

(a.0.2*)* any Canadian exploration expense (other than that described in paragraph a.1) that is incurred before 1 April 2023 and that would be described in paragraph c of section 395 if the reference therein to "mineral resource in Canada" were a reference to "mineral resource that is coal in Québec, but outside the northern exploration zone," and if, where the expense is incurred by the partnership, the partnership were deemed to be a taxpayer whose taxation year is the partnership's fiscal period;

(a.1*)* any Canadian exploration expense that is incurred after 20 August 2002 but before 1 January 2008 and that would be described in paragraph c of section 395 if the reference therein to "Canada" were a reference to "Québec, but outside the northern exploration zone," and if, where the expense is incurred by the partnership, the partnership were deemed to be a taxpayer whose taxation year is the partnership's fiscal period;

(b) any Canadian development expense that is incurred before 1 April 2023 and that would be described in paragraph a or a.1 of section 408 if the references therein to "Canada" and "Canada,", wherever they appear, were a reference to "Québec, but outside the northern exploration zone," and if, where the expense is incurred by the partnership, the partnership were deemed to be a taxpayer whose taxation year is the partnership's fiscal period;

(c) any Canadian exploration expense that is incurred before 1 April 2023 and that would be described in paragraph a or b.1 of section 395 if the reference therein to "in Canada", wherever it appears, except in subparagraph iv of that paragraph b.1, were a reference to "in the northern exploration zone" and if, where the expense is incurred by the partnership, the partnership were deemed to be a taxpayer whose taxation year is the partnership's fiscal period;

(c.0.1*)* any Canadian exploration expense that is incurred after 17 March 2016 and that would be described in paragraph c of section 395 if the reference therein to "mineral resource in Canada" were a reference to "mineral resource in the northern exploration zone, other than coal," and if, where the expense is incurred by the partnership, the partnership were deemed to be a taxpayer whose taxation year is the partnership's fiscal period;

(c.0.2*)* any Canadian exploration expense that is incurred after 17 March 2016 but before 1 April 2023 and that would be described in paragraph c of section 395 if the reference therein to "mineral resource in Canada" were a reference to "mineral resource in the northern exploration zone that is coal" and if, where the expense is incurred by the partnership, the partnership were deemed to be a taxpayer whose taxation year is the partnership's fiscal period;

(c.1*)* any Canadian exploration expense that is incurred after 20 August 2002 but before 1 January 2008 and that would be described in paragraph c of section 395 if the reference therein to "in Canada" were a reference to "in the northern exploration zone" and if, where the expense is incurred by the partnership, the partnership were deemed to be a taxpayer whose taxation year is the partnership's fiscal period;

(d) any Canadian development expense that is incurred before 1 April 2023 and that would be described in paragraph a or a.1 of section 408 if the reference therein to "in Canada", wherever it appears, were a reference to "in the northern exploration zone" and if, where the expense is incurred by the partnership, the partnership were deemed to be a taxpayer whose taxation year is the partnership's fiscal period;

(e) any Canadian renewable and conservation expense, to the extent that it is incurred in respect of work carried out by the corporation or partnership in Québec under a project related to a business carried on by the corporation or partnership in Québec;

(f) any Canadian exploration expense that would be described in paragraph c of section 395 if the reference therein to "mineral resource in Canada," were a reference to "natural resource in Québec, that is granite, sandstone, limestone, marble or slate, to the extent that the resources are used for the production of dimension stones, cemetery monuments, building stones, paving stones, curbing and roof tiles," and if, where the expense is incurred by the partnership, the partnership were deemed to be a taxpayer whose taxation year is the partnership's fiscal period;

"northern exploration zone" has the meaning assigned by section 726.4.17.18;

"qualified corporation" for a taxation year means a corporation that, in the year, carries on a business in Québec and has an establishment in Québec, other than a corporation

(a) that is exempt from tax for the year under Book VIII; or

(b) that would be exempt from tax for the year under section 985, but for section 192;

"qualified partnership" for a fiscal period means a partnership that, in the fiscal period, carries on a business in Québec and has an establishment in Québec;

"total taxes" of a corporation for a taxation year means the aggregate of

(a) its tax payable for the year under this Part; and

(b) its tax that would be payable for the year under Part IV if that tax were computed without reference to sections 1135.1 and 1135.2;

"unused portion of the refundable tax credit" of a corporation for a taxation year means the amount by which the total amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for that year under subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.168 to 1029.8.36.171 if the second paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.168 and 1029.8.36.169 and the third paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.170 and 1029.8.36.171 were not taken into account exceeds the amount by which its total taxes for the year exceeds the amount it is deemed to have paid to the Minister for that year under section 1029.8.36.171.1.

The expenses referred to in the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph do not include

(a) an amount included in the Canadian exploration and development overhead expense of a taxpayer, within the meaning of section 360R2 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1);

(b) an amount relating to Canadian exploration expense or Canadian development expense renounced by a corporation in respect of a share under this Act; and

(c) an amount relating to financing, including expenses incurred before the beginning of the carrying on of a business.

1029.8.36.167.1. An associated group in a taxation year means all the corporations that are associated with each other at any given time in the year.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the following rules apply:

(a) a business carried on by an individual, other than a trust, is deemed to be carried on by a corporation all the voting shares in the capital stock of which are owned at the given time by the individual;

(b) a partnership is deemed to be a corporation whose taxation year corresponds to the partnership's fiscal period and all the voting shares in the capital stock of which are owned at the given time by each member of the partnership in a proportion equal to the agreed proportion in respect of the member for the partnership's fiscal period that includes that time; and

(c) a trust is deemed to be a corporation all the voting shares in the capital stock of which

i. in the case of a testamentary trust under which one or more beneficiaries are entitled to receive all of the income of the trust that arose before the date of death of one or the last surviving of those beneficiaries (in this subparagraph c referred to as the "distribution date") and under which no other person can, before the distribution date, receive or otherwise obtain the enjoyment of any of the income or capital of the trust,

(1) if such a beneficiary's share of the income or capital of the trust depends on the exercise by any person of, or the failure by any person to exercise, a power to appoint, and if the given time occurs before the distribution date, are owned at that time by the beneficiary, or

(2) if subparagraph 1 does not apply and the given time occurs before the distribution date, are owned at that time by such a beneficiary in a proportion equal to the proportion that the fair market value of the beneficial interest in the trust of the beneficiary is of the fair market value of the beneficial interests in the trust of all the beneficiaries,

ii. if a beneficiary's share of the accumulating income or of the capital of the trust depends on the exercise by any person of, or the failure by any person to exercise, a power to appoint, are owned at the given time by the beneficiary, unless subparagraph i applies and that time occurs before the distribution date,

iii. in any case where subparagraph ii does not apply, are owned at the given time by the beneficiary in a proportion equal to the proportion that the fair market value of the beneficial interest in the trust of the beneficiary is of the fair market value of all beneficial interests in the trust, unless subparagraph i applies and that time occurs before the distribution date, and

iv. in the case of a trust referred to in section 467, are owned at the given time by the person referred to in that section from whom property of the trust or property for which property of the trust was substituted was directly or indirectly received.

1029.8.36.168. A qualified corporation for a taxation year, other than such a corporation referred to in the second paragraph of section 1029.8.36.170, that encloses the prescribed form containing the prescribed information with the fiscal return it is required to file for the year under section 1000, is deemed, subject to the third paragraph, to have paid to the Minister on the corporation's balance-due day for the year, on account of its tax payable for the year under this Part, an amount equal to the aggregate of

(a) 12% of the eligible expenses of the corporation for the year that constitute such expenses by reason of any of paragraphs a to b and f of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

(b) 15% of the eligible expenses of the corporation for the year that constitute such expenses by reason of any of paragraphs c, c.1 and d of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

(b.1*)* 18.75% of the eligible expenses of the corporation for the year that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph c.0.1 or c.0.2 of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

(c) 24% of the eligible expenses of the corporation for the year that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph e of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

(d) subject to the second paragraph, 30% of the eligible expenses of the corporation for the year that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph a.1 of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid; and

(e) subject to the second paragraph, 26.25% of the eligible expenses of the corporation for the year that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph c.1 of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid.

The total amount that the qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph and subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.169 and 1029.8.36.171 shall not exceed the amount by which its total taxes for the year exceed the amount it is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under section 1029.8.36.171.1.

For the purpose of computing the payments that a qualified corporation is required to make under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1027, or any of sections 1145, 1159.7, 1175 and 1175.19 where they refer to that subparagraph a, the qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the aggregate of its tax payable for the year under this Part and of its tax payable for the year under Parts IV, IV.1, VI and VI.1, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the amount determined under the first paragraph for the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the year but before that date; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to this chapter, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under this chapter but otherwise than under the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

1029.8.36.169. A qualified corporation for a taxation year that is a member of a qualified partnership, other than such a partnership referred to in the second paragraph of section 1029.8.36.171, at the end of a particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the year, and that encloses the prescribed form containing the prescribed information with the fiscal return it is required to file for the year under section 1000, is deemed, subject to the third paragraph, to have paid to the Minister on the qualified corporation's balance-due day for the year, on account of its tax payable for the year under this Part, an amount equal to the aggregate of

(a) 12% of its share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for the particular fiscal period that constitute such expenses by reason of any of paragraphs a to b and f of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

(b) 15% of its share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for the particular fiscal period that constitute such expenses by reason of any of paragraphs c, c.1 and d of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

*(b.1)* 18.75% of its share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for the particular fiscal period that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph c.0.1 or c.0.2 of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

(c) 24% of its share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for the particular fiscal period that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph e of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

(d) subject to the second paragraph, 30% of its share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for the particular fiscal period that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph a.1 of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid; and

(e) subject to the second paragraph, 26.25% of its share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for the particular fiscal period that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph c.1 of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid.

The total amount that the qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph and subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.168, 1029.8.36.170 and 1029.8.36.171 shall not exceed the amount by which its total taxes for the year exceed the amount it is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under section 1029.8.36.171.1.

For the purpose of computing the payments that the qualified corporation is required to make under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1027, or any of sections 1145, 1159.7, 1175 and 1175.19 where they refer to that subparagraph a, for the qualified corporation's taxation year in which the particular fiscal period of the qualified partnership ends, the qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the aggregate of its tax payable for the year under this Part and of its tax payable for the year under Parts IV, IV.1, VI and VI.1, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the amount determined under the first paragraph for the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the year but before that date; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to this chapter, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under this chapter but otherwise than under the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, a qualified corporation's share of an amount for a fiscal period of a qualified partnership is equal to the agreed proportion of the amount in respect of the qualified corporation for the partnership's fiscal period.

1029.8.36.170. A qualified corporation for a taxation year that is described in the second paragraph and that encloses the prescribed form containing the prescribed information with the fiscal return it is required to file for the year under section 1000, is deemed, subject to the fourth paragraph, to have paid to the Minister on the corporation's balance-due day for the year, on account of its tax payable for the year under this Part, an amount equal to the aggregate of

(a) 12% of the eligible expenses of the corporation for the year that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph f of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

(b) 28% of the eligible expenses of the corporation for the year that constitute such expenses by reason of any of paragraphs a to b and e of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

(c) 31% of the eligible expenses of the corporation for the year that constitute such expenses by reason of any of paragraphs c, c.1 and d of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

*(c.1)* 38.75% of the eligible expenses of the corporation for the year that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph c.0.1 or c.0.2 of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

(d) subject to the third paragraph, 10% of the eligible expenses of the corporation for the year that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph a.1 of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid; and

(e) subject to the third paragraph, 6.25% of the eligible expenses of the corporation for the year that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph c.1 of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid.

The qualified corporation for a taxation year to which the first paragraph refers is a corporation that does not operate a mineral resource or an oil or gas well and that is not, in the year, a member of an associated group a member of which operates a mineral resource or an oil or gas well.

The total amount that the qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph and subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.169 and 1029.8.36.171 shall not exceed the amount by which its total taxes for the year exceed the amount it is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under section 1029.8.36.171.1.

For the purpose of computing the payments that a qualified corporation is required to make under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1027, or any of sections 1145, 1159.7, 1175 and 1175.19 where they refer to that subparagraph a, the qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the aggregate of its tax payable for the year under this Part and of its tax payable for the year under Parts IV, IV.1, VI and VI.1, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the amount determined under the first paragraph for the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the year but before that date; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to this chapter, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under this chapter but otherwise than under the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

For the purposes of this section, the operation of a mineral resource or an oil or gas well shall be interpreted as such an operation carried out in reasonable commercial quantities.

1029.8.36.171. A qualified corporation for a taxation year that is a member of a qualified partnership described in the second paragraph at the end of a particular fiscal period of the qualified partnership that ends in the year, and that encloses the prescribed form containing the prescribed information with the fiscal return it is required to file for the year under section 1000, is deemed, subject to the fourth paragraph, to have paid to the Minister on the corporation's balance-due day for the year, on account of its tax payable for the year under this Part, an amount equal to the aggregate of

(a) 12% of its share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for the particular fiscal period that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph f of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

(b) 28% of its share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for the particular fiscal period that constitute such expenses by reason of any of paragraphs a to b and e of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

(c) 31% of its share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for the particular fiscal period that constitute such expenses by reason of any of paragraphs c, c.1 and d of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

*(c.1)* 38.75% of its share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for the particular fiscal period that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph c.0.1 or c.0.2 of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid;

(d) subject to the third paragraph, 10% of its share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for the particular fiscal period that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph a.1 of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid; and

(e) subject to the third paragraph, 6.25% of its share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for the particular fiscal period that constitute such expenses by reason of paragraph c.1 of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to the extent that the expenses are paid.

The qualified partnership to which the first paragraph refers is a partnership that does not operate a mineral resource or an oil or gas well and no member of which operates, or is, in the taxation year of the qualified partnership referred to in that paragraph, a member of an associated group one of whose members operates, a mineral resource or an oil or gas well.

The total amount that the qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph and subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.168 to 1029.8.36.170 shall not exceed the amount by which its total taxes for the year exceed the amount it is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under section 1029.8.36.171.1.

For the purpose of computing the payments that the qualified corporation is required to make under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1027, or any of sections 1145, 1159.7, 1175 and 1175.19 where they refer to that subparagraph a, for the qualified corporation's taxation year in which the particular fiscal period of the qualified partnership ends, the qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the aggregate of its tax payable for the year under this Part and of its tax payable for the year under Parts IV, IV.1, VI and VI.1, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the amount determined under the first paragraph for the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the year but before that date; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to this chapter, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under this chapter but otherwise than under the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

For the purposes of this section, the following rules apply:

(a) the operation of a mineral resource or an oil or gas well shall be interpreted as such an operation carried out in reasonable commercial quantities; and

(b) a qualified corporation's share of an amount for a fiscal period of a qualified partnership is equal to the agreed proportion of the amount in respect of the qualified corporation for the partnership's fiscal period.

1029.8.36.171.1. Subject to section 1029.8.36.171.3, a corporation that, for a particular taxation year ending after 20 August 2002, encloses the prescribed form containing the prescribed information with the fiscal return the corporation is required to file under section 1000 for the particular year, is deemed, subject to the second paragraph, to have paid to the Minister on the corporation's balance-due day for the particular year, on account of its tax payable for that year under this Part, an amount equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the unused portion of the refundable tax credit of the corporation for a taxation year, in subparagraph b referred to as the "original year", that is any of the ten taxation years that precede the particular year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount deemed to have been paid to the Minister by the corporation under this section or section 1029.8.36.171.2, in respect of the unused portion, on account of its tax payable for a taxation year preceding the particular year; and

(b) the amount by which the total taxes of the corporation for the particular year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is equal to the amount deemed to be paid by the corporation under this section, for the particular year, in respect of the unused portion of the refundable tax credit of the corporation for a taxation year preceding the original year.

For the purpose of computing the payments that a qualified corporation is required to make under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1027 or any of sections 1145, 1159.7, 1175 and 1175.19 where they refer to that subparagraph a, the qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the aggregate of its tax payable for the year under this Part and of its tax payable for the year under Parts IV, IV.1, VI and VI.1, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the amount determined under the first paragraph for the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the year but before that date; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to this chapter, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under this chapter but otherwise than under the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

1029.8.36.171.2. Subject to section 1029.8.36.171.4, a corporation is deemed, for a particular taxation year ending after 20 August 2002, if it encloses the prescribed form containing the prescribed information with the fiscal return it is required to file under section 1000 for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "subsequent year", that is any of the three taxation years that follow the particular year, to have paid to the Minister for the particular year on the corporation's balance-due day for the subsequent year, in relation to the unused portion of the refundable tax credit of the corporation for the subsequent year, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the unused portion of the refundable tax credit of the corporation for the subsequent year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount deemed to have been paid to the Minister by the corporation under this section, in respect of the unused portion, for a taxation year preceding the particular year; and to have been paid to the Minister by the corporation in respect of the unused portion of the refundable tax credit of the corporation for a taxation year ending before that time.

(b) the amount by which the total taxes of the corporation for the particular year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year under subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.168 to 1029.8.36.171 or section 1029.8.36.171.1, or under this section in respect of the unused portion of the refundable tax credit of the corporation for a taxation year preceding the subsequent year.

1029.8.36.171.3. Where, at any time, control of a corporation is acquired by a person or group of persons, no amount may, for a taxation year ending after that time, be deemed, under section 1029.8.36.171.1,

However, the corporation may be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, for a particular taxation year ending after that time, in respect of the portion of an unused portion of the refundable tax credit for a taxation year ending before that time that may reasonably be considered to be attributable to the carrying on of a business, if the corporation carried on the business throughout the particular year for profit or with a reasonable expectation of profit.

The amount that the corporation may be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year under section 1029.8.36.171.1 in respect of the portion referred to in the second paragraph must be determined as if the reference to the total taxes in that section were a reference to the portion of the total taxes of the corporation for the particular year that may reasonably be attributed to the carrying on of that business and, where the corporation sold, leased, rented or developed properties or rendered services in the course of carrying on that business before that time, of any other business substantially all the income of which is derived from the sale, leasing, rental or development, as the case may be, of similar properties, or the rendering of similar services.

However, the corporation may be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, for a particular taxation year ending before that time, in respect of the portion of an unused portion of the refundable tax credit for a taxation year ending after that time that may reasonably be considered to be attributable to the carrying on of a business, if the corporation carried on the business throughout the taxation year and in the particular year for profit or with a reasonable expectation of profit.

The amount that the corporation may be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year under section 1029.8.36.171.2 in respect of the portion referred to in the second paragraph must be determined as if the reference to the total taxes in that section were a reference to the portion of the total taxes of the corporation for the particular year that may reasonably be attributed to the carrying on of that business and, where the corporation sold, leased, rented or developed properties or rendered services in the course of carrying on that business before that time, of any other business substantially all the income of which is derived from the sale, leasing, rental or development, as the case may be, of similar properties, or the rendering of similar services.

§ 3. — Government assistance, non-government assistance and other particulars

2002, c. 40, s. 209.

(a) the amount of the eligible expenses referred to in any of subparagraphs a to e of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.168 or 1029.8.36.170, as the case may be, shall be reduced, where applicable, by the amount of any government assistance or non-government assistance attributable to the expenses that the qualified corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before its filing-due date for the year;

(b) the corporation's share of the eligible expenses of a qualified partnership, referred to in any of subparagraphs a to e of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.169 or 1029.8.36.171, as the case may be, for a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the taxation year, shall be reduced, where applicable,

i. by the corporation's share, for the fiscal period, of any amount of government assistance or non-government assistance attributable to the expenses that the partnership has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the day that is six months after the end of the fiscal period, and

ii. by the amount of any government assistance or non-government assistance attributable to the expenses that the qualified corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the day that is six months after the end of the fiscal period.

For the purposes of subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the first paragraph, a qualified corporation's share of an amount for a fiscal period of a qualified partnership is equal to the agreed proportion of the amount in respect of the qualified corporation for the partnership's fiscal period.

1029.8.36.172.1. For the purpose of computing the amount that a corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.171.1 for a particular taxation year in respect of the unused portion of the refundable tax credit of the corporation for a particular preceding taxation year, in relation to eligible expenses incurred by the corporation or a partnership of which it is a member at the end of the fiscal period of the partnership ending in the particular preceding year, the unused portion of the refundable tax credit of the corporation, otherwise determined, shall be reduced by the amount determined under the second paragraph where

(a) in the particular year or a preceding taxation year, an amount relating to the eligible expenses of the corporation, other than an amount reducing those expenses in accordance with section 1029.8.36.172 or 1029.8.36.177, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation; or

(b) in a fiscal period of the partnership ending in the particular year or in a preceding taxation year and at the end of which the corporation is a member of the partnership, an amount relating to the eligible expenses of the partnership, other than an amount reducing those expenses in accordance with section 1029.8.36.172 or 1029.8.36.177, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is the amount by which the unused portion of the refundable tax credit of the corporation for the particular preceding year, otherwise determined, exceeds the amount that would be the amount of the unused portion of the refundable tax credit of the corporation if

(a) any amount referred to in subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph that is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation were directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation in the particular preceding year; and

(b) any amount referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph that is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership were directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership in the fiscal period of the partnership ending in the particular preceding year.

If, in respect of the eligible expenses referred to in the first paragraph, a person other than the corporation, or a partnership other than the partnership of which the corporation is a member, has obtained, at a particular time after 21 April 2005, a benefit or advantage that would have reduced those expenses in accordance with section 1029.8.36.177 if the person or partnership had obtained it, had been entitled to obtain it or could reasonably have expected to obtain it on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the particular preceding taxation year, or on or before the day that is six months after the end of the fiscal period of the partnership of which the corporation is a member that ended in the particular preceding taxation year, the benefit or advantage is, for the purposes of the first and second paragraphs,

(a) if those expenses were incurred by the corporation, deemed to be an amount that is paid to the corporation at that time; or

(b) if those expenses were incurred by the partnership of which the corporation is a member, deemed to be

i. an amount that is paid to that partnership at that time, when that benefit or advantage has been obtained by another partnership or by a person other than the person referred to in subparagraph ii, or

ii. an amount that is paid to the corporation at that time, when that benefit or advantage has been obtained by a person with whom the corporation does not deal at arm's length.

1029.8.36.173. Where a corporation pays, in a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced, because of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.172, eligible expenses of the corporation, for the purpose of computing the amount that it is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.168 or 1029.8.36.170 in respect of the expenses, for a particular taxation year, the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister on the corporation's balance-due day for the repayment year, on account of its tax payable for that year under this Part, if it encloses the prescribed form containing the prescribed information with the fiscal return it is required to file for the repayment year under section 1000, an amount equal to the aggregate of

(a) the amount by which the amount that it would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year, in respect of the expenses, under subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.168 or 1029.8.36.170, as the case may be, if any amount of such assistance so repaid at or before the end of the repayment year had reduced, for the particular year, the amount of any government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.172, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year under subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.168 or 1029.8.36.170, as the case may be, in respect of the expenses, and

ii. any amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under this paragraph in respect of an amount of repayment of that assistance; and

(b) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that it would be deemed to have paid to the Minister, in respect of the expenses, under subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.168 or 1029.8.36.170, as the case may be, for the particular year, or under section 1029.8.36.171.1 or 1029.8.36.171.2 for another taxation year that precedes the repayment year, if any amount of such assistance so repaid at or before the end of the repayment year had reduced, for the particular year, the amount of any government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.172, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, in respect of the expenses, under subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.168 or 1029.8.36.170, as the case may be, for the particular year, or under section 1029.8.36.171.1 or 1029.8.36.171.2 for another taxation year that precedes the repayment year, and

ii. any amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under this paragraph in respect of an amount of repayment of that assistance.

1029.8.36.174. Where a partnership pays, in a fiscal period, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced, because of subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.172, a corporation's share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for a particular fiscal period, for the purpose of computing the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.169 or 1029.8.36.171, in respect of the share, for its taxation year in which the particular fiscal period ended, the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister on the corporation's balance-due day for its taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, on account of its tax payable for that year under this Part, if the corporation is a member of the partnership at the end of the fiscal period of repayment and if it encloses the prescribed form containing the prescribed information with the fiscal return it is required to file for the year under section 1000, an amount equal to the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.169 or 1029.8.36.171, as the case may be, for its taxation year in which the particular fiscal period ends, in respect of the eligible expenses of the partnership, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the particular fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, and

ii. any amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under this subparagraph for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in respect of an amount of that assistance repaid by the partnership, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the particular fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a particular amount that the corporation would be deemed, if the assumptions set out in the second paragraph were taken into account, to have paid to the Minister, in respect of the share, under subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.169 or 1029.8.36.171, as the case may be, for its taxation year in which the particular fiscal period ends, or under section 1029.8.36.171.1 or 1029.8.36.171.2 for another taxation year that precedes the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends exceeds the aggregate of

i. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister, in respect of the eligible expenses of the partnership, under subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.169 or 1029.8.36.171, as the case may be, for its taxation year in which the particular fiscal period ends, or under section 1029.8.36.171.1 or 1029.8.36.171.2 for another taxation year that precedes the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the particular fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, and

ii. any amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under this subparagraph for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in respect of an amount of that assistance repaid by the partnership, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the particular fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

The particular amounts to which subparagraphs a and b of the first paragraph refer shall be computed as if

(a) any amount of assistance repaid at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment reduced, for the particular fiscal period, the amount of any government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.172; and

(b) the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the particular fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

1029.8.36.175. Where a corporation is a member of a partnership at the end of a fiscal period of the partnership, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", and pays, in the fiscal period of repayment, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced, because of subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.172, its share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for a particular fiscal period, for the purpose of computing the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.169 or 1029.8.36.171, in respect of the share, for its taxation year in which the particular fiscal period ended, the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister on the corporation's balance-due day for its taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, on account of its tax payable for that year under this Part, if it encloses the prescribed form containing the prescribed information with the fiscal return it is required to file for the year under section 1000, an amount equal to the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.169 or 1029.8.36.171, as the case may be, for its taxation year in which the particular fiscal period ends, in respect of the share, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the particular fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, and

ii. any amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under this subparagraph for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in respect of an amount of that assistance repaid by the corporation, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the particular fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a particular amount that the corporation would be deemed, if the assumptions set out in the second paragraph were taken into account, to have paid to the Minister, in respect of the share, under subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.169 or 1029.8.36.171, as the case may be, for its taxation year in which the particular fiscal period ends, or under section 1029.8.36.171.1 or 1029.8.36.171.2 for another taxation year that precedes the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister, in respect of the share, under subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.169 or 1029.8.36.171, as the case may be, for its taxation year in which the particular fiscal period ends, or under section 1029.8.36.171.1 or 1029.8.36.171.2 for another taxation year that precedes the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the particular fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, and

ii. any amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under this subparagraph for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in respect of an amount of that assistance repaid by the corporation, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the particular fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

The particular amounts to which subparagraphs a and b of the first paragraph refer shall be computed as if

(a) any amount of assistance repaid at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment reduced, for the particular fiscal period, the amount of any government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.172; and

(b) the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the particular fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

1029.8.36.176. For the purposes of sections 1029.8.36.173 to 1029.8.36.175, an amount of assistance is deemed to be repaid, at a particular time, by a corporation or a partnership, as the case may be, pursuant to a legal obligation, where that amount

(a) reduced, because of section 1029.8.36.172, eligible expenses or the share of such expenses of a corporation that is a member of the partnership, for the purpose of computing the amount that the corporation or the corporation that is a member of the partnership is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under any of sections 1029.8.36.168 to 1029.8.36.171;

(b) was not received by the corporation or partnership; and

(c) ceased at the particular time to be an amount that the corporation or partnership may reasonably expect to receive.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the conditions that shall be met for a year of increase are as follows:

(a) paragraph b of section 1029.8.36.173 or subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.174 or 1029.8.36.175 applies for the year of increase to the corporation in relation to a particular amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment, made in the year of increase or in the fiscal period of a partnership ending in the year of increase, of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced, because of section 1029.8.36.172, the eligible expenses of the corporation for the particular preceding year or the corporation's share of the eligible expenses of the partnership for a fiscal period of the partnership ending in the particular preceding year; and

(b) the amount determined under the third paragraph exceeds the amount determined under the fourth paragraph.

The first amount to which subparagraph b of the second paragraph refers is the total amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular preceding year under subparagraphs d and e of the first paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.168 to 1029.8.36.171 if

(a) no reference were made to the second paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.168 and 1029.8.36.169 and to the third paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.170 and 1029.8.36.171;

(b) where subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.174 or 1029.8.36.175 applies for the year of increase to the corporation, the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular preceding year were the same as that for the year of increase; and

(c) any particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the second paragraph that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in that subparagraph a reduced the amount of government assistance or non-government assistance.

The second amount to which subparagraph b of the second paragraph refers is the aggregate of

(a) the amount that would be determined under the third paragraph if no reference were made to subparagraph c of that paragraph; and

(b) the total amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year of increase under sections 1029.8.36.173 to 1029.8.36.175.

1029.8.36.177. Where, in respect of eligible expenses of a qualified corporation or a qualified partnership, a person or a partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain a benefit or advantage, other than a benefit or advantage that may reasonably be attributed to work resulting from the eligible expenses, whether in the form of a reimbursement, compensation, guarantee, in the form of proceeds of disposition of property which exceed the fair market value of the property, or in any other form or manner, the following rules apply:

(a) for the purpose of computing the amount that the qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under section 1029.8.36.168 or 1029.8.36.170, as the case may be, the amount of the eligible expenses referred to in any of subparagraphs a to e of the first paragraph of that section 1029.8.36.168 or 1029.8.36.170 shall be reduced by the amount of the benefit or advantage relating to the eligible expenses that the person or partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain on or before the filing-due date of the qualified corporation for the taxation year; and

i. by its share, for the fiscal period, of the amount of the benefit or advantage relating to the eligible expenses that a person or partnership, other than a person referred to in subparagraph ii, has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain on or before the day that is six months after the end of the fiscal period, and

ii. by the amount of the benefit or advantage relating to the eligible expenses that the qualified corporation or a person with which it does not deal at arm's length has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain on or before the day that is six months after the end of the fiscal period.

For the purposes of subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the first paragraph, the share, for a fiscal period of a qualified partnership, of a qualified corporation that is a member of the qualified partnership of the amount of the benefit or advantage that the partnership, or a person referred to in that subparagraph i, has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain, is equal to the agreed proportion of the amount in respect of the qualified corporation for the fiscal period.

1029.8.36.178. For the purposes of this Part and of the regulations, the amount that a qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under any of sections 1029.8.36.168 to 1029.8.36.171.2 and 1029.8.36.173 to 1029.8.36.175, in respect of eligible expenses incurred before 13 June 2003, is deemed not to be assistance or an inducement received by the corporation from a government.

DIVISION II.8

CREDIT FOR THE REPAYMENT OF BENEFITS

1992, c. 1, s. 177.

1029.8.50. An individual who is resident in Québec on the last day of a particular taxation year and repays, in that year, all or part of an amount that is a benefit received by the individual under the Act respecting parental insurance (chapter A-29.011), the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan (chapter R-9) or a similar plan within the meaning of that Act, or under the Unemployment Insurance Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. U-1) or the Employment Insurance Act (S.C.1996, c. 23) and included by the individual in computing the individual's income for one or more preceding taxation years, is deemed to have paid to the Minister on the individual's balance-due day for the particular taxation year, on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year under this Part, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount determined, for a preceding taxation year that is an eligible taxation year of the individual, within the meaning of section 766.2.2, to which the amount so repaid relates, in whole or in part, hereinafter called the "taxation year to which the averaging applies", by the formula

A − B.

However, the first paragraph does not apply

(a) in respect of an amount repaid by the individual in the particular year under Part VII of the Unemployment Insurance Act or Part VII of the Employment Insurance Act; and

(b) in respect of an individual who deducts an amount for the particular year under paragraph d of section 336 as a repayment of a benefit referred to in the first paragraph.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the total of the tax that would have been payable by the individual, for the taxation year to which the averaging applies, under this Part and, if the taxation year to which the averaging applies precedes the year 1998, under Part I.1, as it read for that year, if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of an amount subject to an averaging mechanism, in relation to the individual for the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, that relates to the taxation year to which the averaging applies, except such an amount that is a repayment referred to in the first paragraph that the individual makes in the particular year, had been included or deducted in computing the individual's taxable income for the taxation year to which the averaging applies; and

(b) B is the total of the tax that would have been payable by the individual, for the taxation year to which the averaging applies, under this Part and, if the taxation year to which the averaging applies precedes the year 1998, under Part I.1, as it read for that year, if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of an amount subject to an averaging mechanism, in relation to the individual for the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, that relates to the taxation year to which the averaging applies, had been included or deducted in computing the individual's taxable income for the taxation year to which the averaging applies.

For the purposes of the third paragraph, "amount subject to an averaging mechanism", in relation to an individual for a taxation year, means an amount that is received or paid by the individual in the year and that is referred to in any of subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 766.2, or an amount paid by the individual in the year and in respect of which the first paragraph applies, except, in respect of a taxation year to which the averaging applies and that ends before 1 January 2003, such an amount received or paid in a taxation year that ends before 1 January 2004.

If the second paragraph of section 22 applies to an individual, the amount that the individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under the first paragraph shall not exceed such portion of that amount as is represented by the proportion determined in respect of the individual for the year under the second paragraph of section 22.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, if an individual dies or ceases to be resident in Canada in a taxation year, the last day of that taxation year is the day on which the individual died or the last day on which the individual was resident in Canada.

In addition, for the purpose of establishing the amount determined by the formula in the first paragraph in respect of a taxation year to which the averaging applies, the following rules apply:

(a) the proportion referred to in the second paragraph of section 22 for the taxation year to which the averaging applies is deemed to be equal to 1; and

(b) if an individual was resident in Canada outside Québec on the last day of the taxation year to which the averaging applies, the individual is deemed to have been resident in Québec on the last day of that year.

For the purpose of applying this Part to any taxation year,

(a) an amount that is otherwise deducted in computing an individual's taxable income or tax payable under this Part for a taxation year subsequent to the taxation year to which the averaging applies may not be taken into account for the purpose of establishing the amount determined in respect of the individual under subparagraph a or b of the third paragraph for the taxation year to which the averaging applies; and

(b) an amount that, under subparagraph a of the sixth paragraph of section 766.3.2, is deemed to be deducted in computing an individual's taxable income or tax payable under this Part for a taxation year to which the averaging applies, because it is deducted in that computation for the purpose of establishing the amount determined in respect of the individual under subparagraph a or d of the second paragraph of section 766.3.2 or subparagraph b of the third paragraph of that section for the taxation year to which the averaging applies, may not be taken into account for the purpose of establishing the amount determined in respect of the individual under subparagraph a or b of the third paragraph for the taxation year to which the averaging applies.

DIVISION II.8.2

CREDIT RELATING TO THE TAX DEDUCTED OR WITHHELD IN RESPECT OF AN INCOME-AVERAGING ANNUITY RESPECTING INCOME FROM ARTISTIC ACTIVITIES

2005, c. 23, s. 228.

1029.8.50.2. An individual resident in Québec at the end of a taxation year is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the individual's filing-due date for the year, on account of the individual's tax payable for the year under this Part, an amount equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount deducted or withheld, under the second paragraph of section 1129.68, in respect of an income-averaging annuity payment respecting income from artistic activities, as defined in section 1129.67, to the extent that each of the amounts referred to in the definition of that expression is included in computing the individual's income for the year under paragraph c or d.1 of section 312.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the following rules apply:

(a) if an individual dies or ceases to be resident in Canada in a taxation year, the last day of the individual's taxation year is the day of the individual's death or the last day on which the individual was resident in Canada; and

(b) if an amount is not deducted or withheld in accordance with the second paragraph of section 1129.68 in respect of an income-averaging annuity payment respecting income from artistic activities and the tax provided for in section 1129.68 is paid, in respect of the income-averaging annuity payment respecting income from artistic activities, by the individual referred to in the first paragraph of that section, or by the person referred to in the second paragraph of that section, the amount so paid is deemed to have been deducted or withheld in accordance with the second paragraph of section 1129.68 in respect of the income-averaging annuity payment respecting income from artistic activities.

For the purpose of computing the payments that an individual referred to in the first paragraph is required to make under section 1025 or 1026, the individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the individual's tax payable for the year under this Part, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the amount determined under the first paragraph for the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the year but before that date; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to this chapter, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under this chapter but otherwise than under the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

DIVISION II.8.3

CREDIT RELATING TO THE RETROACTIVE DETERMINATION OF CERTAIN BENEFITS

2005, c. 38, s. 277.

1029.8.50.3. If section 766.3.2 applies to an individual for a taxation year and the amount determined for that year by the formula in the first paragraph of section 766.3.2 is, without reference to section 7.5, less than zero, the negative amount so computed must be expressed as a positive amount that the individual is deemed to have paid, on the individual's balance-due day for that year, on account of the individual's tax payable for that year under this Part.

CREDIT FOR HOME SUPPORT FOR SENIORS

2013, c. 10, s. 124.

§ 1. — Interpretation

2000, c. 39, s. 190.

1029.8.61.1. In this division,

"dependant" of an eligible individual, at any time, means a person who is dependent on the eligible individual if, at that time, that person is, in respect of the eligible individual, a child or any other person related to the eligible individual by blood, marriage or adoption who ordinarily lives with the eligible individual;

"dependent person" at a particular time means a person who, at that time, according to a written certificate from a physician or specialized nurse practitioner within the meaning of section 752.0.18, depends and will continue to permanently depend, for a prolonged and indefinite period, on other people for most of the person's needs and personal care relating to hygiene, dressing, eating and mobility or transfers, or who needs constant supervision because of a severe mental disorder characterized by an irreversible breakdown in thought activity;

"dwelling unit" of an eligible individual means a self-contained domestic establishment or a room that is leased or subleased by the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse and that is the eligible individual's principal place of residence, other than

(a) a self-contained domestic establishment or a room situated in a public network facility;

(b) a room situated in a hotel establishment or rooming house, that is leased or subleased by the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse for a period of less than 60 consecutive days; or

(c) a room situated in a self-contained domestic establishment maintained by a person, or by the person's spouse, who is the owner, lessee or sublessee of the self-contained domestic establishment and who, in respect of the eligible individual occupying the room, is deemed to have paid an amount on account of tax payable, for the taxation year in which an eligible service is rendered or to be rendered in respect of the eligible individual, under section 1029.8.61.96.12, if the eligible individual is a person referred to in paragraph a of that section, or under section 1029.8.61.96.13;

"eligible expense" made by an eligible individual in a taxation year means, subject to section 1029.8.61.2, the portion of an amount paid in the year by the eligible individual or by the person who is the eligible individual's spouse at the time of the payment, that may reasonably be attributed to an eligible service rendered or to be rendered in respect of the eligible individual after the eligible individual has attained the age of 70 years, and that corresponds

(a) in the case of a service rendered or to be rendered by an employee of an eligible individual, to the aggregate of

i. the salary or wages of the employee in respect of the service,

ii. each of the amounts payable in respect of the employee in relation to the salary or wages referred to in subparagraph i under any of

(1) section 59 of the Act respecting parental insurance (chapter A-29.011),

(2) section 34 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec (chapter R-5),

(3) section 52 of the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan (chapter R-9), or

(4) section 68 of the Employment Insurance Act (S.C. 1996, c. 23), and

iii. the expenses paid for a payroll processing service for the payment of the salary or wages referred to in subparagraph i; or

(b) in the case of a service rendered or to be rendered by a person, other than a person who is an employee of the eligible individual, or a partnership, each of which referred to in this division as the "service provider", to the amount that is the cost of the service, including, where applicable, the goods and services tax or the Québec sales tax in respect of the service;

"eligible individual" for a taxation year means an individual, other than a trust, who, at the end of 31 December of the year, is resident in Québec and has attained the age of 70 years;

"eligible rent" for a dwelling unit for a particular month means an amount that is equal to the lesser of the rent attributable to the particular month and specified in the lease of the dwelling unit or, in the case of an oral lease, in the written document that must be given to the lessee, to which is added, if applicable, the additional rent attributable to that month and specified in the schedule to the lease of the dwelling unit—taking into account, if the lease was renewed, the changes made to the rent for the dwelling unit and, if applicable, the changes made to the additional rent—and the amount paid or payable by the lessee, for the particular month, as rent for the dwelling unit;

"eligible service" in respect of an eligible individual means a home support service that is

(a) a personal support service that is a service described in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.3, rendered or to be rendered in Québec to the eligible individual by a person or a service provider who is not

i. the spouse of the eligible individual,

ii. a dependant of the eligible individual, or

iii. a person, or the spouse of that person, who is deemed, in respect of the eligible individual, to have paid an amount on account of the person's or spouse's tax payable under section 1029.8.61.96.12 or 1029.8.61.96.13 for the taxation year in which the service is rendered or to be rendered to the eligible individual; or

(b) a maintenance or supply service that is a service described in the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.3, rendered or to be rendered in Québec by a person or a service provider who is neither the eligible individual's spouse nor a dependant of the eligible individual, in respect of a residential unit or dwelling unit of the eligible individual, or of land on which the unit is situated;

"eligible spouse" of an individual for a taxation year means the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4;

"family income" of an individual for a taxation year means the aggregate of the income of the individual for the year and the income, for the year, of the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year;

"private seniors' residence" for a particular month means a congregate residential facility, or a part of such a facility, in respect of which the operator holds, at the beginning of the particular month,

(a) a temporary or regular authorization granted under Division III of Chapter II of Title I of Part VI of the Act respecting the governance of the health and social services system (chapter G-1.021); or

(b) a temporary certificate of compliance or a certificate of compliance issued under subdivision 2.1 of Division II of Chapter I of Title I of Part III of the Act respecting health services and social services for the Inuit and Naskapi (chapter S-4.2);

"public network facility" means any of the following immovables:

(a) a facility in which a hospital centre, a residential and long-term care centre or a rehabilitation centre governed by the Act respecting the governance of the health and social services system or the Act respecting health services and social services for the Inuit and Naskapi is operated by a public institution or a private institution under agreement governed by either Act;

(b) a facility maintained by a hospital centre or a reception centre that is a public institution for the purposes of the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons (chapter S-5) or that entered into a contract or an agreement in accordance with section 176 or 177 of that Act; or

(c) a building or residential facility where are offered the services of an intermediate resource or a family-type resource within the meaning of the Act respecting the governance of the health and social services system or the Act respecting health services and social services for the Inuit and Naskapi, or the services of a foster family within the meaning of the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons;

"residential unit" of an eligible individual means a self-contained domestic establishment owned by the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse and that is the eligible individual's principal place of residence;

"salary or wages" means an amount that an employee receives for an eligible service rendered or to be rendered in respect of an eligible individual who is the employer of the employee;

"schedule to the lease" of a dwelling unit means the form that must be attached to the lease of the dwelling unit, in accordance with section 2 of the Regulation respecting mandatory lease forms and the particulars of a notice to a new lessee (chapter T-15.01, r. 3).

For the purposes of the definition of "eligible expense" in the first paragraph, the following rules apply:

(a) only the portion of an amount paid as rent that is determined in accordance with section 1029.8.61.2.1 or 1029.8.61.2.5 is an eligible expense made by an eligible individual in a taxation year;

(a.1) the amount obtained by multiplying the total of the amounts paid in a taxation year by the syndicate of co-owners as consideration for one or more eligible services rendered or to be rendered in respect of the common portions of an immovable, other than those for restricted use, by the share of the expenses arising from the co-ownership that relates to the fraction of the co-ownership owned by the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse, is an eligible expense made by an eligible individual in the year in respect of expenses arising from the divided co-ownership of the immovable;

(b) the amount of an expenditure in respect of an eligible service shall not be greater than the fair market value of the service;

(c) the amount of an expenditure in respect of an eligible service includes only the amount relating to the provision of the service, excluding the cost of the food, beverages, materials or other property acquired for or in connection with the provision of the service, and that amount must, to constitute an eligible expense, be reasonable and specifically identified in writing by the service provider;

(d) the amount of an expense in respect of an eligible service rendered in respect of an eligible individual before the eligible individual's death, paid by the legal representative on behalf of the deceased individual, is deemed to have been paid by the eligible individual in the year in which the eligible individual died; and

(e) an amount paid in respect of a dwelling unit of an eligible individual situated in a private seniors' residence for a particular month in a taxation year in addition to the eligible rent for that dwelling unit for the particular month is an eligible expense made by the eligible individual in the year, to the extent that the amount is paid

i. to the operator of the private seniors' residence or to a person related to the operator, as consideration for the provision of an eligible service described in subparagraph a or e of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.3, or

ii. to a person or partnership, other than the operator of the private seniors' residence or a person related to the operator, as consideration for the provision of any of the following eligible services:

(1) a service described in any of subparagraphs a, b, c.2 and e of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.3,

(2) a service described in subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.3, or

(3) a service described in subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.3, if it is rendered in the course of the provision of a service described in subparagraph a of that paragraph.

For the purposes of the definition of "eligible individual" in the first paragraph, an individual who was resident in Québec immediately before death is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the year in which the individual died.

For the purposes of the definition of "family income" in the first paragraph, if an individual was not resident in Canada throughout a taxation year, the individual's income for the year is deemed to be equal to the income that would be determined in respect of the individual for the year under this Part if the individual had been resident in Québec and in Canada throughout the year or, if the individual died in the year, throughout the period of the year preceding the time of death.

1029.8.61.1.2. For the purposes of this division, the amount of an eligible expense made by an eligible individual in a taxation year in respect of a dwelling unit situated in a facility maintained by a private institution not under agreement that operates a residential and long-term care centre governed by the Act respecting the governance of the health and social services system (chapter G-1.021) or the Act respecting health services and social services for the Inuit and Naskapi (chapter S-4.2) must be determined as if the dwelling unit were situated in a private seniors' residence.

1029.8.61.1.3. For the purposes of this division, the following rules apply:

(a) a congregate residential facility, or a part of such a facility, in respect of which the operator does not hold, at the beginning of a particular month that begins after 31 December 2012 and before 1 July 2013, either of the certificates referred to in the definition of "private seniors' residence" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.1 and that was not entered in the register of private seniors' residences referred to in section 346.0.1 of the Act respecting health services and social services for the Inuit and Naskapi (chapter S-4.2) on 1 December 2012, is considered to be a private seniors' residence for the particular month if it was a residence for the elderly on 31 December 2012, within the meaning of section 1029.8.61.1 as it read on that date, unless the operator has been notified, before 30 June 2013, in accordance with section 346.0.12 of the Act respecting health services and social services for the Inuit and Naskapi, of the maximum period for terminating the activities of the residence, in which case the rule in paragraph b applies; and

(b) a congregate residential facility, or a part of such a facility, that, on 31 December 2012, is a residence for the elderly, within the meaning of section 1029.8.61.1 as it read on that date, whose activities cease as a consequence of the application of section 42 or 43 of the Act to amend various legislative provisions concerning health and social services in order, in particular, to tighten up the certification process for private seniors' residences (2011, chapter 27), is considered to be a private seniors' residence for any month subsequent to the month of December 2012 that precedes the month that follows the month in which the activities of the residence cease.

1029.8.61.2. Subject to section 1029.8.61.2.7 and for the purposes of this division, an eligible expense, in respect of eligible services rendered or to be rendered in respect of an eligible individual, does not include, for a taxation year,

(a) any amount that was deducted in computing the income or taxable income of the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse for the year or a preceding taxation year under this Part;

(b) any amount that was taken into account in computing

i. an amount that was deducted in computing the tax payable by the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse for the year or a preceding taxation year under this Part, or

ii. an amount that is deemed to have been paid to the Minister on account of the tax payable by the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse for the year or a preceding taxation year under this Part, except an amount that is deemed, under this division, to have been paid to the Minister on account of the tax payable by the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse for the year under this Part; or

(c) any amount for which the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse or, as the case may be, the legal representative of either the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse, has received or is entitled to receive a refund, except to the extent that that amount is required to be included in computing the income of the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse under this Part and is not deductible in computing the income or taxable income of the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse.

1029.8.61.2.1. The portion of an amount paid for a particular month in a taxation year as rent for a dwelling unit of an eligible individual situated in a private seniors' residence that is an eligible expense made by the eligible individual in the year is equal to

(a) if, for the particular month, the eligible individual lives alone in the dwelling unit or only with a person to whom the eligible individual provides lodging, co-leases the dwelling unit with at least one person who is not the eligible individual's spouse, or lives in the dwelling unit with the eligible individual's spouse who, at the end of the particular month, is 69 years of age or under, the amount determined under section 1029.8.61.2.2; or

(b) if, for the particular month, the eligible individual shares the dwelling unit only with the eligible individual's spouse who, at the end of the particular month, is 70 years of age or over, the amount determined under section 1029.8.61.2.4.

1029.8.61.2.2. The amount that must be determined, for the purposes of paragraph a of section 1029.8.61.2.1, for a particular month in a taxation year, in respect of an eligible individual's dwelling unit is the lesser of

(a) the amount equal to 75% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month, if the eligible individual is a dependent person at the end of the particular month, and in any other case, to 65% of the eligible rent, to the extent that the eligible rent has been paid; and

(b) the amount determined by the formula

A + B + C + D + E + F.

In the formula in subparagraph b of the first paragraph,

(a) A is an amount equal to the greater of 15% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for the particular month and $150, but without exceeding $375;

(b) B is, if the eligible individual receives, for the particular month, a laundry service for the care of bedding or clothing at least once a week, as specified in the schedule to the lease of the dwelling unit, an amount equal to the greater of 5% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $50, but without exceeding $125;

(c) C is, if the eligible individual receives, for the particular month, a housekeeping service at least once every two weeks, as specified in the schedule to the lease of the dwelling unit, an amount equal to the greater of 5% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $50, but without exceeding $125;

(d) D is, if the eligible individual receives, for the particular month, a daily food service concerning the preparation or delivery of at least one of three meals (breakfast, lunch or supper), as specified in the schedule to the lease of the dwelling unit, an amount equal to

i. the greater of 10% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $100, but without exceeding $200, if the food service is provided in respect of one meal a day,

ii. the greater of 15% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $150, but without exceeding $300, if the food service is provided in respect of two meals a day, and

iii. the greater of 20% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $200, but without exceeding $400, if the food service is provided in respect of three meals a day;

(e) E is, if the eligible individual receives, for the particular month, a service providing for the presence of a person, who is a member of the Ordre des infirmières et infirmiers du Québec or of the Ordre des infirmières et infirmiers auxiliaires du Québec, for a period of at least three hours a day, as specified in the schedule to the lease of the dwelling unit, an amount equal to the greater of 10% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $100, but without exceeding $250; and

(f) F is, if the eligible individual receives, for the particular month, a service providing for the presence of a personal care attendant for a period of at least seven hours a day, as specified in the schedule to the lease of the dwelling unit, the aggregate of the following amounts:

i. the greater of 10% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $100, but without exceeding $350, and

ii. if the eligible individual is a dependent person at the end of the month, the greater of 10% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $100.

2009, c. 15, s. 317; 2011, c. 1, s. 81; 2013, c. 10, s. 128.

1029.8.61.2.4. The amount that must be determined, for the purposes of paragraph b of section 1029.8.61.2.1, for a particular month in a taxation year, in respect of an eligible individual's dwelling unit is the lesser of

(a) the amount equal to 80% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month, if the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse is a dependent person at the end of the particular month, and to 70% of the eligible rent, if neither the eligible individual nor the eligible individual's spouse is a dependent person at the end of the particular month, to the extent that the eligible rent has been paid; and

(b) the amount determined by the formula

A + B + C + D + E + F.

In the formula in subparagraph b of the first paragraph,

(a) A is an amount equal to the greater of 12% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for the particular month and $150, but without exceeding $375;

(b) B is, if the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse receives, for the particular month, a laundry service for the care of bedding or clothing at least once a week, as specified in the schedule to the lease of the dwelling unit, an amount equal to the greater of 5% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $75, but without exceeding $125;

(c) C is, if the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse receives, for the particular month, a housekeeping service at least once every two weeks, as specified in the schedule to the lease of the dwelling unit, an amount equal to the greater of 4% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $50, but without exceeding $125;

(d) D is, if the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse receives, for the particular month, a daily food service concerning the preparation or delivery of at least one of three meals (breakfast, lunch or supper), as specified in the schedule to the lease of the dwelling unit, an amount equal to

i. the greater of 14% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $200, but without exceeding $400, if the food service is provided in respect of one meal a day,

ii. the greater of 21% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $300, but without exceeding $600, if the food service is provided in respect of two meals a day, or

iii. the greater of 26% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $400, but without exceeding $800, if the food service is provided in respect of three meals a day;

(e) E is, if the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse receives, for the particular month, a service providing for the presence of a person, who is a member of the Ordre des infirmières et infirmiers du Québec or of the Ordre des infirmières et infirmiers auxiliaires du Québec, for a period of at least three hours a day, as specified in the schedule to the lease of the dwelling unit, an amount equal to the greater of 8% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $100, but without exceeding $250; and

(f) F is, if the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse receives, for the particular month, a service providing for the presence of a personal care attendant for a period of at least seven hours a day, as specified in the schedule to the lease of the dwelling unit, the aggregate of

i. the greater of 15% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $200, but without exceeding $600, and

ii. any of the following amounts:

(1) if either the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse is a dependent person at the end of the particular month, the greater of 10% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $200,

(2) if both the eligible individual and the eligible individual's spouse are dependent persons at the end of the particular month, the greater of 20% of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $200, or

(3) if neither the eligible individual nor the eligible individual's spouse is a dependent person at the end of the particular month, zero.

2009, c. 15, s. 317; 2011, c. 1, s. 82; 2013, c. 10, s. 130.

1029.8.61.2.5. The portion of an amount paid for a particular month in a taxation year as rent for an eligible individual's dwelling unit, other than a dwelling unit situated in a private seniors' residence or in a facility maintained by a private institution not under agreement that operates a residential and long-term care centre governed by the Act respecting the governance of the health and social services system (chapter G-1.021) or the Act respecting health services and social services for the Inuit and Naskapi (chapter S-4.2), that is an eligible expense made by the eligible individual in the year is equal to the amount obtained by multiplying by 5% the greater of

(a) $600; and

(b) the lesser of the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month and $1,200.

If an eligible individual is co-leasing a dwelling unit with at least one person who is not the eligible individual's spouse, the amounts of $600 and $1,200 mentioned in the first paragraph are to be replaced, respectively, by the quotients obtained by dividing $600 and $1,200 by the number of co-lessees of the dwelling unit.

1029.8.61.2.6. For the purposes of sections 1029.8.61.2.1 to 1029.8.61.2.5 and of this section, the following rules apply:

(a) if an eligible individual lives, in a particular month, in a dwelling unit that the eligible individual's spouse is co-leasing with one or more other persons, the eligible individual is deemed, for the particular month, to be a co-lessee of the dwelling unit;

(b) if an eligible individual is co-leasing a dwelling unit, the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for a particular month is deemed to be equal, in respect of the eligible individual, to the amount obtained by dividing the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month by the number of co-lessees of the dwelling unit; and

(c) if, in a particular month, an eligible individual shares, only with the eligible individual's spouse, a dwelling unit of which the eligible individual's spouse is a lessee, the eligible individual is deemed, for the particular month, to be a lessee of the dwelling unit and the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month is deemed to be equal, in respect of the eligible individual, to the eligible rent for the dwelling unit for that month.

1029.8.61.2.7. For the purposes of any of subparagraphs b to f of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.2.2 or 1029.8.61.2.4, the amount of a refund that the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse, or, if applicable, the legal representative of either of them, has received or is entitled to receive and that is attributable to a service described in any of those subparagraphs b to f, must reduce the amount determined in respect of the service under that subparagraph, up to the latter amount.

For the purposes of any of sections 1029.8.61.2.2 to 1029.8.61.2.6, the eligible rent for a dwelling unit for a particular month in respect of an eligible individual must be reduced by the amount of a refund attributable to that rent, other than an amount of refund referred to in the first paragraph, that the eligible individual or the eligible individual's spouse, or, if applicable, the legal representative of either of them, has received or is entitled to receive for that month.

1029.8.61.3. The personal support services rendered or to be rendered to an eligible individual, that are essential to the eligible individual's remaining at home or that enable the eligible individual to remain at home, and to which paragraph a of the definition of "eligible service" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.1 refers are, subject to sections 1029.8.61.3.1 and 1029.8.61.4, the following services:

(a) a personal care service to assist the individual with hygiene, dressing, eating and mobility or transfers, if the individual does not have the autonomy required to care fully for himself or herself, because of the individual's condition;

(b) a meal preparation or delivery service;

(c) a non-specialized supervision service;

(c.1) a person-centered remote monitoring service;

(c.2) a service related to the use of a personal GPS locator;

(d) a support service to enable the individual to fulfil the individual's duties or civic obligations; and

(e) a service rendered or to be rendered by a person who is a member of the Ordre des infirmières et infirmiers du Québec or of the Ordre des infirmières et infirmiers auxiliaires du Québec.

The maintenance or supply services rendered or to be rendered in respect of an eligible individual's dwelling unit or residential unit, that are services required by an eligible individual so that tasks normally performed in respect of such a unit can be performed, and to which paragraph b of the definition of "eligible service" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.1 refers, are, subject to sections 1029.8.61.3.1 and 1029.8.61.4, the following services:

(a) a housekeeping service;

(b) a clothing and household linen care service;

(c) a maintenance service consisting of minor maintenance work performed outside, including work to be performed usually at about the same date each year because of the change in seasons;

(c.1) a maintenance service consisting of minor maintenance work on a facility that is inside the dwelling unit or residential unit or, as the case may be, the building in which the unit is situated, and that could have been outside, by reason of its nature or intended use; and

(d) an everyday necessities supply service.

1029.8.61.3.1. For the purposes of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.3, the following rules apply:

(a) a meal preparation service means a service that consists in helping an eligible individual to prepare the eligible individual's meals in a dwelling unit or residential unit of an eligible individual, or a meal preparation service rendered or to be rendered by a community organization established and operated exclusively for non-profit purposes; and

(b) a meal delivery service means such a service rendered or to be rendered by a community organization established and operated exclusively for non-profit purposes.

For the purposes of subparagraphs c.1 and c.2 of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.3, a person-centered remote monitoring service and a service related to the use of a personal GPS locator do not include the leasing of a device required for the provision of such a service.

The service, in respect of an eligible individual, described in subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.3 does not include a service rendered or to be rendered by a person or partnership whose principal business is the provision of dry cleaning, laundering or pressing services and other related services.

1029.8.61.4. The services in respect of an eligible individual that are described in section 1029.8.61.3 do not include

(a) a personal support service, which is a service described in any of subparagraphs a to d of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.3, rendered or to be rendered by a person who is a practitioner referred to in section 752.0.18;

(b) a service rendered or to be rendered by a person who is a member of a professional order referred to in the Professional Code (chapter C-26) and whose provision is governed by that professional order, except a service described in subparagraph e of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.3;

(c) a service relating to construction and repair work or which requires a licence issued under the Building Act (chapter B-1.1);

(d) a service rendered or to be rendered by an institutional or non-institutional residential resource referred to in section 765 of the Act respecting the governance of the health and social services system (chapter G-1.021) or section 512 of the Act respecting health services and social services for the Inuit and Naskapi (chapter S-4.2) to an eligible individual in respect of whom a contribution may be required under either of those sections, as the case may be;

(e) a service rendered or to be rendered by an institutional or non-institutional residential resource referred to in section 159 of the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons (chapter S-5) to an eligible individual in respect of whom a contribution may be required under that section; or

(f) a service consisting in completing a fiscal form, unless the form is the form referred to in section 1029.8.61.6.

§ 2. — Credit

2000, c. 39, s. 190.

1029.8.61.5. Subject to section 1029.8.61.5.1, an eligible individual who, in a taxation year, makes an eligible expense and files, for the year, a fiscal return under section 1000 is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the eligible individual's balance-due day for that taxation year, on account of the eligible individual's tax payable for the year under this Part, an amount equal to

(a) where neither the eligible individual nor, if section 1029.8.61.5.1 applies in respect of the eligible individual, the eligible individual's eligible spouse is a dependent person at the end of the year, the amount determined by the formula

$(A \times B) - (C + D)$; or

(b) in any other case, the amount determined by the formula

(35% × B) + E.

In the formulas in the first paragraph,

(a) A is

i. 36%, where the taxation year is the year 2022,

ii. 37%, where the taxation year is the year 2023,

iii. 38%, where the taxation year is the year 2024,

iv. 39%, where the taxation year is the year 2025, or

v. 40%, where the taxation year is a year subsequent to the year 2025;

(b) B is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an eligible expense made by the eligible individual in the year;

(c) C is 3% of the amount by which the lesser of $100,000 and the eligible individual's family income for the year exceeds $60,135;

(d) D is 7% of the amount by which the eligible individual's family income for the year exceeds $100,000; and

(e) E is the amount determined by the formula

F − G.

In the formula in subparagraph e of the second paragraph,

(a) F is the product obtained by multiplying the aggregate described in subparagraph b of the second paragraph by

i. 1%, where the taxation year is the year 2022,

ii. 2%, where the taxation year is the year 2023,

iii. 3%, where the taxation year is the year 2024,

iv. 4%, where the taxation year is the year 2025, or

v. 5%, where the taxation year is a year subsequent to the year 2025; and

(b) G is 3% of the amount by which the eligible individual's family income for the year exceeds $60,135.

However, for the purposes of subparagraph b of the second paragraph, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an eligible expense made by an eligible individual in a taxation year may not exceed

(a) $25,500, if the eligible individual is a dependent person at the end of the year; or

(b) $19,500, if subparagraph a does not apply to the eligible individual.

An eligible individual may be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under the first paragraph for a taxation year in respect of an eligible expense only if the eligible individual files with the Minister the prescribed form containing prescribed information and the following documents with the fiscal return filed for the year under section 1000, unless the documents have already been filed with the Minister in connection with an application for advance payments made under section 1029.8.61.6:

(a) if the eligible individual lives in a dwelling unit and the eligible expense includes a portion of the amount paid as rent, as determined under section 1029.8.61.2.1 or 1029.8.61.2.5,

i. a copy of the lease of the dwelling unit or of the written document that must be given to the lessee in the case of an oral lease,

ii. a copy of the schedule to the lease of the dwelling unit, if any, and

iii. a copy of any notice of change to the lease or of any judgment setting the rent for the dwelling unit; and

(b) if the eligible individual lives in an immovable under divided co-ownership and the eligible expense includes an amount in respect of the expenses arising from the co-ownership, a copy of the information return, in prescribed form, sent by the syndicate of co-owners.

2000, c. 39, s. 190; 2002, c. 9, s. 117; 2006, c. 36, s. 197; 2007, c. 12, s. 197; 2009, c. 15, s. 321; 2013, c. 10, s. 135; 2015, c. 21, s. 478; 2021, c. 36, s. 127; 2024, c. 11, s. 120.

1029.8.61.5.1. If, for a taxation year, an eligible individual is the eligible spouse of another eligible individual, the following rules apply:

(a) only one of those eligible individuals is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister on account of that eligible individual's tax payable for the year under section 1029.8.61.5;

(b) the eligible expense made in the year by the eligible spouse of the eligible individual to whom paragraph a applies is deemed to be an eligible expense made in the year by that individual, to the extent that the amount of such an expense is not otherwise included in the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an eligible expense made in the year by the eligible individual; and

(c) the amount determined for the year under the fourth paragraph of section 1029.8.61.5 in respect of the eligible individual to whom paragraph a applies is to be increased by the amount that would be determined for the year under that paragraph in respect of the eligible individual's eligible spouse if this division were read without reference to this section.

1029.8.61.5.2. If, at a particular time in a taxation year, two eligible individuals who are spouses cease to live together because of a breakdown of their marriage and their separation lasts for a period of at least 90 days that includes the particular time, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an eligible expense made by either eligible individual in the period of the year preceding the particular time and in which they were spouses may be apportioned between them in such manner as may be agreed by them or, in case of disagreement, as the Minister may determine.

1029.8.61.5.3. Where a fiscal return is filed under section 1000 for a taxation year by an eligible individual for the year, where no amount that is, under section 1029.8.61.2.5, an eligible expense made by the eligible individual in the year is included by the individual in the aggregate described in subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.5 for the year and where the Minister holds information allowing the

Minister to conclude that the eligible individual could have included such an amount in that aggregate, the following rules apply:

(a) that aggregate is deemed to include the total of all amounts each of which is the amount that would have been determined, under section 1029.8.61.2.5, as an eligible expense made by the eligible individual in the year if the greater of the amounts to which the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.2.5 refers had been the amount of $600 specified in subparagraph a of that paragraph or the amount that replaces it in accordance with the second paragraph of that section, if applicable; and

(b) section 1029.8.61.5 is, in respect of an eligible expense the amount of which is included in that aggregate because of the application of paragraph a, to be read without reference to "the prescribed form containing prescribed information and" in the portion of its fifth paragraph before subparagraph a and without reference to subparagraph a of that fifth paragraph.

1029.8.61.6. If, on or before 1 December of a taxation year, an individual applies to the Minister, in the prescribed form containing the prescribed information, the Minister may pay, as an advance payment, on such terms and conditions as the Minister determines, an amount in respect of the amount that the individual considers to be the amount that the individual will be deemed to have paid to the Minister under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.5, on account of the individual's tax payable for the year, in respect of an eligible expense made by the individual in the year for eligible services if

(a) the individual is resident in Québec at the time the application is made;

(b) the individual has reached 70 years of age at the time the eligible services are rendered or to be rendered in respect of the individual; and

(c) the individual has agreed that the advance payments be made by direct deposit in a bank account held at a financial institution listed in Part I of Appendix I to Rule D4 – Institution Numbers and Clearing Agency/ Representative Arrangements of the Automated Clearing Settlement System Rules Manual, as amended from time to time, of the Canadian Payments Association.

If an application for advance payments referred to in the first paragraph is made in respect of an eligible expense that includes a portion of an amount paid as rent, the prescribed form used for the application must be accompanied by the documents described in subparagraphs i to iii of subparagraph a of the fifth paragraph of section 1029.8.61.5.

The individual who receives advance payments on a regular basis shall notify the Minister, with dispatch, of any change in the individual's situation that may affect the advance payments to which the individual is entitled.

If, at the time the application for advance payments referred to in the first paragraph is made, an individual has a spouse who satisfies the conditions set out in subparagraphs a and b of that paragraph, only one of them may make the application.

1029.8.61.6.1. The Minister may require from any individual who makes an application for advance payments referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.6 a document or information other than those provided for in the first and second paragraphs of that section if the Minister considers the document or information necessary to evaluate the application.

1029.8.61.6.2. Despite the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.6, the Minister is not required to grant an application for advance payments referred to in that paragraph for a particular taxation year if

(a) the individual, or the individual's spouse at the time of the application, received an amount the Minister paid in advance under section 1029.8.61.6 for a preceding taxation year and, at the time the application is processed, has not filed a fiscal return for the preceding year; and

(b) the application is processed after the filing-due date of the person referred to in paragraph a for the preceding year.

1029.8.61.6.3. The Minister may, at a particular time, cease to pay in advance, or suspend the payment of, an amount provided for in section 1029.8.61.6 to an individual for a particular taxation year if

(a) the individual, or the individual's spouse at the time of the application referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.6 for the particular year, received an amount the Minister paid in advance under that section for a preceding taxation year and has not, as of the particular time, filed a fiscal return for the preceding year; and

(b) the particular time is subsequent to the filing-due date of the person referred to in paragraph a for the preceding year.

1029.8.61.6.4. The Minister may suspend the advance payment of, reduce or cease to pay an amount provided for in section 1029.8.61.6 if documents or information brought to the Minister's attention so warrant.

2011, c. 6, s. 193.

1029.8.61.7. An individual shall not be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under this division for a taxation year if the individual is exempt from tax for the year under section 982 or 983 or under any of subparagraphs a to d and f of the first paragraph of section 96 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

§ 3. — Financial compensation

2009, c. 15, s. 324.

1029.8.61.7.1. The Minister may establish and implement a transitional financial compensation program for elderly persons who live in a dwelling unit.

The program mentioned in the first paragraph is a fiscal law within the meaning of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

2009, c. 15, s. 324; 2010, c. 31, s. 175.

DIVISION II.11.2

TAX CREDIT GRANTING AN ALLOWANCE TO FAMILIES

2005, c. 1, s. 257; 2019, c. 14, s. 667.

§ 1. — Interpretation and general

2005, c. 1, s. 257; 2006, c. 13, s. 173.

1029.8.61.8. In this division,

"base year" in relation to a particular month means

(a) where the particular month is any of the first six months of a calendar year, the taxation year that ended on 31 December of the second preceding calendar year; or

(b) where the particular month is any of the last six months of a calendar year, the taxation year that ended on 31 December of the preceding calendar year;

"cohabiting spouse" of an individual at any time means the person who at that time is the individual's spouse and who is not at that time living separate and apart from the individual;

"eligible dependent child" at any time means a person who at that time is under 18 years of age and

(a) is not a person in respect of whom an individual has deducted an amount under section 776.41.5 in computing the individual's tax otherwise payable under this Part for the base year in relation to the particular month that includes that time; and

(b) is not the subject of an order for placement in an alternative living environment until the person reaches majority according to the conclusions of a judgement rendered under the Youth Protection Act (chapter P-34.1);

"eligible individual", in respect of an eligible dependent child, at any time means an individual who at that time

(a) resides with the eligible dependent child;

(b) is the father or mother of the eligible dependent child;

(c) is resident in Québec or, where the individual is the cohabiting spouse of a person who is deemed to be resident in Québec throughout the taxation year that includes that time, other than a person who is exempt from tax for the year under any of subparagraphs a to d and f of the first paragraph of section 96 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002), was resident in Québec in any preceding taxation year;

(d) is not exempt from tax for the taxation year that includes that time under section 982 or 983 or any of subparagraphs a to d and f of the first paragraph of section 96 of the Tax Administration Act; and

(e) is, or whose cohabiting spouse is,

i. a Canadian citizen,

ii. a permanent resident within the meaning of subsection 1 of section 2 of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (S.C. 2001, c. 27),

iii. a temporary resident or a holder of a temporary resident permit within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act, who was resident in Canada during the 18-month period preceding that time, or

iv. is a protected person within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act;

"family income" of an individual for a base year in relation to a particular month means the aggregate of the income of the individual for the base year and the income, for the base year, of the individual's cohabiting spouse at the beginning of the particular month.

1029.8.61.9. For the purposes of the definition of "cohabiting spouse" in section 1029.8.61.8, the following rules must be taken into consideration:

(a) a person shall not be considered to be living separate and apart from an individual at any time unless the person was living separate and apart from the individual at that time, because of a breakdown of their marriage, for a period of at least 90 days that includes that time;

(b) where an individual would, but for this paragraph, have more than one cohabiting spouse at any time, the individual is deemed, at that time, to have only one cohabiting spouse and to be the cohabiting spouse of that person only; and

(c) where a person would, but for this paragraph, be the cohabiting spouse of more than one individual at any time, Retraite Québec may designate which of the individuals is deemed to have that person as sole cohabiting spouse at that time and that person is deemed to be the cohabiting spouse at that time solely of the individual so designated.

1029.8.61.9.1. For the purposes of paragraph a of the definition of "eligible individual" in section 1029.8.61.8, an individual is presumed to reside, at any time, with an eligible dependent child who, at that time, is lodged or sheltered pursuant to the law if the individual was an eligible individual in respect of the child immediately before the child's being lodged or sheltered became effective pursuant to the law or, where there is no such eligible individual, if the individual is, at that time, a person having a bond of filiation with the child.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, an eligible dependent child who is the subject of shared custody at the beginning of a particular month means

(a) a child whose custody is shared between persons with whom the child has a bond of filiation, and in respect of whom each of those persons assumes at least 40% of custody time during the particular month; or

(b) a child whose custody is shared between a person with whom the child does not have a bond of filiation and a person with whom the child has such a bond, if the latter person assumes less than 50% of custody time during the particular month.

If a person is deemed, under the first paragraph, to fulfill the responsibility for the care and upbringing of an eligible dependent child at the beginning of a particular month, no person other than a person referred to in the first paragraph may be considered to be fulfilling that responsibility in respect of that child at the beginning of the particular month.

1029.8.61.11.1. If, at the beginning of a particular month, persons have a bond of filiation with an eligible dependent child who is the subject of shared custody and in respect of whom each of those persons assumes at least 40% of custody time during the particular month, each of those persons is deemed to fulfill the responsibility for the care and upbringing of that child at the beginning of the particular month.

If persons are deemed, under the first paragraph, to fulfill the responsibility for the care and upbringing of an eligible dependent child at the beginning of a particular month, no person other than persons referred to in the first paragraph may be considered to be fulfilling that responsibility in respect of that child at the beginning of the particular month.

1029.8.61.11.2. If, at the beginning of a particular month, a person has a bond of filiation with an eligible dependent child who is the subject of shared custody and in respect of whom the person does not assume at least 40% of custody time during the particular month, that person and, where applicable, the person's cohabiting spouse at the beginning of the particular month, are deemed, despite section 1029.8.61.9.1, not to be residing with that child at the beginning of the particular month.

1029.8.61.12. For the purpose of determining whether a person fulfils the responsibility for the care and upbringing of an eligible dependent child, the following criteria must be taken into account:

(a) supervising the child's daily activities and providing for the child's daily needs;

(b) maintaining a safe environment in which the child resides;

(c) obtaining medical care for the child at regular intervals and as necessary, and transporting the child to the places where this care is given;

(d) organizing, for the child, educational, recreational or sports activities, or other similar activities, and provide for the child's participation in such activities and transportation for this purpose;

(e) providing for the child's needs when the child is sick or requires another person's assistance;

(f) seeing to the child's personal hygiene on a regular basis;

(g) in general, being present for the child and guiding the child; and

(h) the existence of a court order that is issued in respect of the child and valid where the child resides.

1029.8.61.12.1. If, at the beginning of a particular month and as a consequence of the application of section 1029.8.61.12, persons who are not married to each other or who, though married, do not live together, fulfill the responsibility for the care and upbringing of an eligible dependent child, that responsibility is deemed to be fulfilled by the person who primarily fulfills, at the beginning of the particular month, that responsibility and, where applicable, by the person who has a bond of filiation with that child and assumes at least 40% of custody time in respect of the child during the particular month.

1029.8.61.12.2. If, at the beginning of a particular month and as a consequence of the application of section 1029.8.61.12, responsibility for the care and upbringing of an eligible dependent child is shared equally between persons who are not married to each other or who, though married, do not live together, those persons must agree in determining which one of them is deemed to fulfill that responsibility at the beginning of the particular month, unless one of those persons has a bond of filiation with the child and assumes at least 40% of custody time in respect of the child, in which case each of those persons is deemed to fulfill that responsibility.

If the persons referred to in the first paragraph cannot agree, Retraite Québec shall determine which of them is deemed to fulfill the responsibility for the care and upbringing of the eligible dependent child at the beginning of the particular month.

1029.8.61.12.3. For the purposes of sections 1029.8.61.12.1 and 1029.8.61.12.2, two married persons are considered not to be living together at any time if, at that time, they have been living separate and apart, because of a breakdown of their marriage, for a period of at least 90 days that includes that time.

1029.8.61.13. For the purposes of the definition of "family income" in section 1029.8.61.8, where an individual was not resident in Canada throughout a particular base year, the individual's income for the year is deemed to be equal to the income that would be determined in respect of the individual for the year under this Part if the individual had been resident in Québec and in Canada throughout the year.

2005, c. 1, s. 257; 2011, c. 6, s. 194.

§ 2. — Credit

2005, c. 1, s. 257.

1029.8.61.18. Where an individual and, where applicable, the individual's cohabiting spouse at the beginning of a particular month included in a taxation year file the document referred to in section 1029.8.61.23 for the base year in relation to the particular month, an amount equal to the amount determined by the following formula is deemed, for the particular month, to be an overpayment of the tax payable by the individual under this Part (in this division referred to as the "family allowance"):

1/12 A + B + I + J.

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the greater of the amounts determined by the following formulas:

i. (C + D) − 4% (E − F), and

ii. G + H; and

(b) B is an amount, in this division referred to as the "supplement for handicapped children", equal to the product obtained by multiplying $198 by the number of eligible dependent children referred to in section 1029.8.61.19 in respect of whom the individual is, at the beginning of the particular month, an eligible individual;

(c) I is an amount (in this division referred to as the "supplement for handicapped children requiring exceptional care") equal to the aggregate of

i. the amount (in this division and the regulations referred to as the "amount for the first level") equal to the product obtained by multiplying $995 by the number of eligible dependent children referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.19.1 in respect of whom the individual is, at the beginning of the particular month, an eligible individual, and

ii. the amount (in this division and the regulations referred to as the "amount for the second level") equal to the product obtained by multiplying $663 by the number of eligible dependent children referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.19.1, without being referred to in subparagraph a of that paragraph, in respect of whom the individual is, at the beginning of the particular month, an eligible individual; and

(d) J is an amount (in this division referred to as the "supplement for the purchase of school supplies") equal to

i. where the particular month is July of the year, the product obtained by multiplying $104 by the number of eligible dependent children described in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.19.5 in respect of whom the individual is, at the beginning of the particular month, an eligible individual,

ii. where the particular month is January 2018, the product obtained by multiplying $100 by the number of eligible dependent children described in the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.19.5 in respect of whom the individual is, at the beginning of the particular month, an eligible individual, or

iii. in any other case, zero.

In the formulas provided for in subparagraph a of the second paragraph,

(a) C is an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying $2,515 by the number of eligible dependent children in respect of whom the individual is, at the beginning of the particular month, an eligible individual;

(b) D is an amount of $882, where the individual has no cohabiting spouse at the beginning of the particular month;

(c) E is the individual's family income for the base year in relation to the particular month;

(d) F is,

i. if the individual has a cohabiting spouse at the beginning of the particular month, the amount determined under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.22 that is applicable, for the particular month, in respect of such an individual, and

ii. if the individual has no cohabiting spouse at the beginning of the particular month, the amount determined under the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.22 that is applicable, for the particular month, in respect of such an individual;

(e) G is an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying $1,000 by the number of eligible dependent children in respect of whom the individual is, at the beginning of the particular month, an eligible individual; and

(f) H is an amount of $352, where the individual has no cohabiting spouse at the beginning of the particular month.

Where, at the beginning of a particular month, more than one eligible dependent child would, but for this paragraph, give entitlement to an amount in respect of a family allowance, as a consequence of the application of subparagraphs a and e of the third paragraph, only one of those eligible dependent children is deemed to give entitlement to such an amount.

The individual who, at the beginning of a particular month, is an eligible individual in respect of an eligible dependent child, or, where applicable, the individual's cohabiting spouse at the beginning of the particular month, shall, for this section to apply to the individual, fulfill the responsibility for the care and upbringing of the eligible dependent child.

1029.8.61.18.1. If, for a particular month included in a taxation year, two individuals, who are mutually cohabiting spouses at the beginning of the particular month, would, but for this section, be entitled to receive an amount in respect of a family allowance under section 1029.8.61.18, only the individual described in the second paragraph is entitled to receive that amount for the particular month.

The individual to which the first paragraph refers is

(a) in the case of an initial application filed by a family, other than a blended family,

i. the biological mother of the eligible dependent child if the application is deemed, in accordance with section 1029.8.61.24, to have been filed, and

ii. the first of the individuals referred to in the first paragraph who files an application, other than the application referred to in subparagraph i, in respect of an eligible dependent child;

(b) in the case of an initial application filed by a blended family,

i. the individual who has a bond of filiation with the largest number of eligible dependent children named in the application, and

ii. if each of the cohabiting spouses has a bond of filiation with an equal number of eligible dependent children named in the application, the individual who has a bond of filiation with the youngest child or, if that child has a bond of filiation with each of the cohabiting spouses, the mother; and

(c) in the case of a second application and of any subsequent application filed by a family, the individual who receives, at the time of the application, an amount in respect of a family allowance.

For the purposes of subparagraphs a and b of the second paragraph, a blended family means two single-parent families that combine to form a new family.

1029.8.61.18.2. If, at the beginning of a particular month, individuals, who are not mutually cohabiting spouses, are eligible individuals in respect of the same eligible dependent child, in this section referred to as the "child concerned", and each of them is deemed to fulfill, at the beginning of the particular month, the responsibility for the care and upbringing of the child concerned under any of sections 1029.8.61.11.1, 1029.8.61.12.1 and 1029.8.61.12.2, the amount determined in respect of each individual for the particular month under section 1029.8.61.18 is to be replaced by an amount equal to the aggregate of

(a) the amount that would be determined in respect of the individual, for the particular month, under section 1029.8.61.18 if the individual was not, at the beginning of the particular month, an eligible individual in respect of each child concerned; and

(b) the amount that is equal to 50% of the amount by which the amount determined in respect of the individual for the particular month under section 1029.8.61.18 exceeds the amount determined under paragraph a in respect of the individual.

1029.8.61.18.3. An eligible individual, in respect of an eligible dependent child, may, at any time, waive entitlement to receive an amount in respect of a family allowance in favour of another eligible individual, in respect of the eligible dependent child, who is the eligible individual's cohabiting spouse, provided Retraite Québec is so notified.

The waiver takes effect from the date, subsequent to the date of the notice to Retraite Québec, on which an amount is paid in respect of a family allowance.

1029.8.61.18.4. Retraite Québec may, in exceptional circumstances and if it is convinced that it is in the family's interest, pay an amount in respect of a family allowance that an eligible individual in respect of an eligible dependent child is entitled to receive to the eligible individual's cohabiting spouse if that spouse is also an eligible individual in respect of the eligible dependent child.

1029.8.61.19. An eligible dependent child to whom subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 refers is a child who, according to the prescribed rules, has an impairment or a mental function disability that substantially limits the child in performing the life habits of a child of his or her age during a foreseeable period of at least one year.

For the purpose of considering an amount in respect of the supplement for handicapped children under subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 for a particular month, an application must be filed with Retraite Québec no later than 11 months after the end of the particular month and be accompanied by the report of a member of a professional order assessing the child's condition for a period that precedes the application date by no more than 12 months.

There is an exemption from filing a new application and from filing a new report of a member of a professional order for the purpose of considering an amount in respect of the supplement for handicapped children under subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18, where an individual becomes an eligible individual, in respect of an eligible child who already gives rise to entitlement to an amount in respect of the supplement for handicapped children and in respect of whom the individual has filed or is deemed to have filed an application under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.24.

Where divergent opinions exist concerning the assessment of the child's condition, Retraite Québec may require that the child be examined by the physician it designates or by any other member of a professional order. If valid grounds are presented to oppose the choice of the physician or the member of a professional order, Retraite Québec shall designate another physician or member of a professional order.

Retraite Québec may, at any time, require that the child's condition be reassessed.

Despite the first paragraph, the child is not considered to be an eligible dependent child to whom subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 refers if

(a) without a valid reason, the treatments or measures likely to improve the child's condition are not applied or continued; or

(b) there is refusal or omission to comply with a request for information or an examination to assess the child's condition.

1029.8.61.19.1. For the purposes of subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 and subject to sections 1029.8.61.19.2 to 1029.8.61.19.4,

(a) for the purpose of computing the amount for the first level, an eligible dependent child to whom subparagraph i of subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 refers is a child described in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.19 who is, according to the prescribed rules in the case of a situation described in subparagraph i or ii, in any of the following situations:

i. the child is two years of age or over at the beginning of the particular month and, during a foreseeable period of at least one year, has an impairment or a mental function disability entailing serious and multiple disabilities that prevent the child—to the extent prescribed for computing the amount for the first level—from independently performing the life habits of a child of his or her age,

ii. the child's state of health at the beginning of the particular month requires, during a foreseeable period of at least one year, specified complex medical care at home that is described in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.19.3 and, where the child is six years of age or over at the beginning of the particular month and the care is care described in subparagraph i or ii of subparagraph a of that paragraph, the child's state of health limits the child—to the extent prescribed—in performing the life habits of a child of his or her age, or

iii. the child is under two years of age at the beginning of the particular month and

(1) has an established serious chronic disease, without known treatment, and presents both serious, multiple and persistent disabilities, including very severe motor disabilities, and a significant and persistent daily symptomatology requiring multiple complex medical care, or

(2) has a neurogenetic, congenital or metabolic disease, without known treatment, that limits life expectancy to childhood and is associated with a very significant symptomatology from the first months of life due to serious, multiple and persistent disabilities; and

(b) for the purpose of computing the amount for the second level, an eligible dependent child to whom subparagraph ii of subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 refers is a child described in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.19 who is, according to the prescribed rules, in either of the following situations:

i. the child is two years of age or over at the beginning of the particular month and, during a foreseeable period of at least one year, has an impairment or a mental function disability entailing serious and multiple disabilities that prevent the child—to the extent prescribed for computing the amount for the second level—from independently performing the life habits of a child of his or her age, or

ii. the child's state of health at the beginning of the particular month requires, during a foreseeable period of at least one year, specified complex medical care at home that is described in the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.19.3.

For the purpose of considering an amount in respect of the supplement for handicapped children requiring exceptional care under subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 for a particular month, an application must be filed with Retraite Québec no later than 11 months after the end of the particular month and be accompanied by pluridisciplinary reports made in respect of the child.

Where divergent opinions exist concerning the assessment of the child's condition, Retraite Québec may require that the child be examined by the physician it designates or by any other member of a professional order. If valid grounds are presented to oppose the choice of the physician or the member of a professional order, Retraite Québec shall designate another physician or member of a professional order.

An eligible individual, in respect of a child, who becomes aware that a change in the child's condition is likely to change the child's eligibility for the amount for the first or second level must file with Retraite Québec an application for the reassessment of the child's condition.

Retraite Québec may, at any time, require that the child's condition be reassessed.

Where the reassessment of the child's condition under the fourth or fifth paragraph has the effect of increasing or reducing an amount in respect of the supplement for handicapped children requiring exceptional care that an individual is entitled to receive, the following rules apply:

(a) if the reassessment has the effect of increasing the amount that the individual is entitled to receive, the amount is revised as of the particular month following the month in which the application for reassessment is received by Retraite Québec or, if the reassessment is required by Retraite Québec under the fifth paragraph, as of the particular month following the month in which the information required for the analysis of the child's condition is received by Retraite Québec; and

(b) if the reassessment has the effect of reducing the amount that the individual is entitled to receive or of causing the individual to no longer be entitled to such an amount, the amount is revised or is no longer paid, as the case may be, as of the particular month following the month in which the decision is rendered by Retraite Québec.

Despite the first paragraph, a child is not considered to be an eligible dependent child to whom subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 refers if

(a) without a valid reason, the treatments or measures likely to improve the child's condition are not applied or continued; or

(b) there is refusal or omission to comply with a request for information or an examination to assess the child's condition.

1029.8.61.19.2. An eligible dependent child to whom subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 refers does not include a person who is lodged or sheltered under the law or a person who benefits from personal home assistance under

(a) section 158 of the Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases (chapter A-3.001);

(b) section 79 of the Automobile Insurance Act (chapter A-25); or

(c) section 5 of the Crime Victims Compensation Act (chapter I-6) or under the Act to assist persons who are victims of criminal offences and to facilitate their recovery (chapter P-9.2.1).

1029.8.61.19.3. For the purposes of subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.19.1, specified complex medical care at home is as follows:

(a) complex respiratory care, namely

i. non-invasive mechanical ventilation with bi-level positive airway pressure (BPAP) on a daily basis, ii. care related to a tracheostomy without invasive mechanical ventilation, or

iii. care related to a tracheostomy with invasive mechanical ventilation;

(b) complex nutritional care, namely parenteral nutrition (intravenous hyperalimentation);

(c) complex cardiac care, namely

i. the intravenous administration of inotropes, and

ii. care related to a ventricular assist device (artificial heart pump); and

(d) complex renal care, namely peritoneal dialysis.

For the purposes of subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.19.1, specified complex medical care at home is as follows:

(a) complex respiratory care, namely

i. oxygenotherapy or mechanical ventilation, on a daily basis and 24 hours a day, and

ii. where the child is six years of age or over at the beginning of the particular month, the care related to a tracheostomy without invasive mechanical ventilation;

(b) complex nutritional care, namely feeding through jejunal or gastro-jejunal tube; and

(c) daily skin care for extreme skin conditions affecting wide areas of the skin that are at high risk of developing pressure ulcers, synechiae or shrinkage.

1029.8.61.19.4. Subparagraph ii of each of subparagraphs a and b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.19.1 applies in respect of a child only if

(a) the father or mother of the child, as the case may be, has begun to administer the specified complex medical care at home to the child;

(b) the father or mother of the child, as the case may be, has been trained beforehand in a specialized center to master the specific techniques for using the required equipment and to be able to respond to any change in the child's clinical condition that may endanger the life of the child; and

(c) the child cannot self-administer the specified complex medical care at home.

1029.8.61.19.4.1. For the purposes of subparagraph iii of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.19.1, the following rules apply:

(a) a child presents very severe motor disabilities only if

i. the child has oral-motor disabilities that entail significant feeding issues, and

ii. the child has global motor abilities that remain lower than those of an average healthy child a quarter of the child's age, despite the application of recommended treatments;

(b) the complex medical care required by a significant and persistent daily symptomatology presented by a child is that which

i. is administered on a daily basis and for which the care routine presents a significant burden, ii. is administered for the child's survival, as it compensates for the dysfunction of an organ or system,

iii. is not frequently administered to children in the child's age group, and

iv. requires specialized equipment or a person to be available at all times to respond to any change in the child's clinical condition; and

(c) a disease is considered as limiting life expectancy to childhood if the disease is associated with death occurring before the age of 18 years among the majority of children with this disease, despite optimal care.

In assessing, for the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph, the condition of a child born prematurely in relation to the child's development, the child's age is adjusted by subtracting the number of weeks of prematurity, until the age of 36 months.

1029.8.61.19.5. An eligible dependent child to whom subparagraph i of subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 refers for a particular month is a child who, on 30 September following the particular month, is at least 4 years of age and at most

(a) 17 years of age, where the child is an eligible dependent child to whom subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 refers for the particular month; or

(b) 16 years of age, in any other case.

An eligible dependent child to whom subparagraph ii of subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 refers is a child who, on 30 September 2017, is at least 4 years of age and at most

(a) 17 years of age, where the child is an eligible dependent child to whom subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 refers for January 2018; or

(b) 16 years of age, in any other case.

2019, c. 14, s. 369.

1029.8.61.20. Each of the amounts referred to in the fourth paragraph shall, where it is to be used for a taxation year subsequent to the taxation year 2020, be adjusted annually in such a manner that the amount used for that taxation year is equal to the total of the amount used for the preceding taxation year and the product obtained by multiplying that amount so used by the factor determined by the formula

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the average all-items Consumer Price Index for Québec excluding alcoholic beverages, tobacco products and recreational cannabis for the 12-month period that ended on 30 September of the taxation year preceding that for which an amount is to be adjusted; and

(b) B is the average all-items Consumer Price Index for Québec excluding alcoholic beverages, tobacco products and recreational cannabis for the 12-month period that ended on 30 September of the taxation year immediately before the year preceding that for which the amount is to be adjusted.

If the factor determined by the formula in the first paragraph has more than four decimal places, only the first four decimal digits are retained and the fourth is increased by one unit if the fifth is greater than 4.

The amounts to which the first paragraph refers are

(a) the amount of $198 mentioned in subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18;

(a.1) the amounts of $995 and $663 mentioned in subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18;

(a.2) the amount of $104 mentioned in subparagraph i of subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18;

(b) the amount of $2,515 mentioned in subparagraph a of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18;

(c) the amount of $882 mentioned in subparagraph b of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18;

(d) the amount of $1,000 mentioned in subparagraph e of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18; and

(e) the amount of $352 mentioned in subparagraph f of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18.

2005, c. 1, s. 257; 2005, c. 38, s. 282; 2009, c. 5, s. 456; 2009, c. 15, s. 325; 2017, c. 29, s. 188; 2019, c. 14, s. 370; 2020, c. 5, s. 214; 2020, c. 16, s. 159.

1029.8.61.21. Where the amount that results from the adjustment provided for in section 1029.8.61.20 is not a multiple of $1, it shall be rounded to the nearest multiple of $1 or, if it is equidistant from two such multiples, to the higher thereof.

1029.8.61.22. The amount to which subparagraph i of subparagraph d of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 refers is the amount (in section 1029.8.61.22.1 referred to as the "family allowance reduction threshold"), applicable for a particular month included in a taxation year, that is equal to the amount starting at which the total income of an eligible individual for the year who has an eligible spouse for the year, and whose work income for the year is at least equal to the work premium reduction threshold referred to in subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5 that is applicable for the year, causes the eligible individual to be deemed to have paid to the Minister an amount equal to zero on account of the eligible individual's tax payable for the year under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5.

The amount to which subparagraph ii of subparagraph d of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 refers is the amount (in section 1029.8.61.22.1 referred to as the "family allowance reduction threshold"), applicable for a particular month included in a taxation year, that is equal to the amount starting at which the total income of an eligible individual for the year who does not have an eligible spouse for the year, and whose work income for the year is at least equal to the work premium reduction threshold referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5 that is applicable for the year, causes the eligible individual to be deemed to have paid to the Minister an amount equal to zero on account of the eligible individual's tax payable for the year under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5.

In this section, "eligible individual", "eligible spouse", "total income" and "work income" have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.116.1.

1029.8.61.22.1. The Minister of Finance publishes annually in the Gazette officielle du Québec a notice setting out the amounts of the family allowance reduction thresholds that are determined for a taxation year in accordance with the first and second paragraphs of section 1029.8.61.22.

The notice described in the first paragraph becomes effective from 1 January of the year for which the amounts of the family allowance reduction thresholds are determined and may be subject to a review having retroactive effect to that date.

For the taxation year 2024, the amount of the family allowance reduction threshold applicable to an individual who does not have a cohabiting spouse at the beginning of a particular month of the year is changed from $40,168 to $42,136; the amount of the family allowance reduction threshold applicable to an individual who has a cohabiting spouse at the beginning of a particular month of the year is changed from $55,183 to $57,822.

See (2023) 155 G.O. 1, 795.

1029.8.61.23. The document to which the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.18 refers is

(a) where the individual is resident in Québec on 31 December of the base year and in Canada throughout that year, the fiscal return the individual is required to file under section 1000 for that year;

(b) where the individual is not resident in Québec on 31 December of the base year but is resident in Canada throughout that year, the fiscal return the individual is required to file under Part I of the Income Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter 1, 5th Supplement) for that year or a statement of income for that year; and

(c) in any other case, a statement of income for the base year.

1029.8.61.24. An individual may be considered to be an eligible individual, in respect of an eligible dependent child, at the beginning of a particular month only if the individual files an application for a family allowance, in respect of that eligible dependent child, with Retraite Québec no later than 11 months after the end of the particular month.

An individual is deemed to have filed an application, in respect of an eligible dependent child, with Retraite Québec within the time prescribed in the first paragraph if the registrar of civil status provides Retraite Québec with the information required to establish the individual's eligibility.

There is an exemption from filing a new application, in respect of a child, where, no later than 12 months after the cessation of the entitlement to receive an amount in respect of a family allowance by reason of non-compliance with the conditions relating to the contribution that was payable under the Regulation respecting the application of the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons (chapter S-5, r. 1) in respect of the child who is lodged or sheltered pursuant to the law, Retraite Québec is informed that the child is no longer lodged or sheltered at a particular time that is before 1 September 2021 or that those conditions have been satisfied before that date.

1029.8.61.24.1. An individual who did not file an application within the time prescribed in the second paragraph of section 1029.8.61.19 or 1029.8.61.19.1 or in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.24 may apply in writing to Retraite Québec for an extension, setting out the reasons why the application was not filed within the prescribed time.

The application must be granted if the individual demonstrates that it was impossible in fact for that individual to act and that the application was filed as soon as circumstances permitted.

The time for filing the application may be extended for a period not exceeding 24 months.

2017, c. 29, s. 190.

1029.8.61.25. An individual who receives an amount in respect of a family allowance and who ceases to be an eligible individual, in respect of an eligible dependent child, in a particular month, otherwise than because the child reaches 18 years of age, shall notify Retraite Québec thereof before the end of the first month that follows the particular month.

1029.8.61.26. An eligible individual, in respect of an eligible dependent child, at the beginning of a particular month shall notify Retraite Québec of any change in circumstances that may affect the individual's entitlement to receive an amount in respect of a family allowance.

The individual shall notify Retraite Québec before the end of the month that follows the month in which the change in circumstances occurs.

Retraite Québec may, where information is communicated by the Minister or the registrar of civil status with respect to an individual who receives an amount in respect of a family allowance or by the Minister of National Revenue with respect to an individual who receives a Canada child benefit under the Income Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter 1, 5th Supplement), consider that a change in circumstances has been communicated to it.

1029.8.61.26.1. If a change in circumstances has the effect of increasing an amount in respect of a family allowance that an individual is entitled to receive, the amount is revised from the beginning of the particular month that follows the month in which the change in circumstances occurs, provided that Retraite Québec is notified of the change at or before the end of the eleventh month following the particular month or, if Retraite Québec is notified of the change after that time, from the beginning of the eleventh month that precedes the month in which Retraite Québec is notified of the change.

1029.8.61.27. Retraite Québec shall notify the eligible individual who is entitled to receive an amount in respect of a family allowance of the amount set for each 12-month period that begins on 1 July of each calendar year in respect of a family allowance.

The amount fixed under the first paragraph shall be revised during the year when a change in circumstances has the effect of changing the amount and a new notice shall be sent by Retraite Québec to the eligible individual.

§ 3. — Payment and recovery by Retraite Québec

2005, c. 1, s. 257; 2015, c. 20, s. 61.

1029.8.61.28. Retraite Québec shall pay to an eligible individual who is entitled to receive an amount in respect of a family allowance, in respect of an eligible dependent child, in the first 15 days of January, April, July and October of a taxation year, the amounts determined, in respect of the eligible individual, in respect of a family allowance for each month in that year, according to the following terms and conditions:

(a) the payment made in January shall include the amounts determined in respect of a family allowance for January, February and March of that year;

(b) the payment made in April shall include the amounts determined in respect of a family allowance for April, May and June of that year;

(c) the payment made in July shall include the amounts determined in respect of a family allowance for July, August and September of that year; and

(d) the payment made in October shall include the amounts determined in respect of a family allowance for October, November and December of that year.

Despite the first paragraph, Retraite Québec may, on application, pay an amount as or on account of a family allowance in the first 15 days of each month in a taxation year and such a payment shall include only the amount determined in respect of a family allowance for the month of that payment.

However, the payment made under the first or second paragraph of an amount determined in respect of a family allowance for a particular month that is either January 2018 or July of a year subsequent to the year 2017 does not include the portion of that amount that is attributable to the supplement for the purchase of school supplies, which portion is paid separately by Retraite Québec on or before the last day of the month following the particular month.

1029.8.61.29. At the request of the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity, Retraite Québec shall deduct from the amount to be paid as or on account of a family allowance the amount repayable under section 90 of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1) and shall remit the amount so deducted to the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity.

1029.8.61.30. Sections 1051 and 1052 and sections 28 and 30.1 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) do not apply in respect of an amount paid as or on account of a family allowance under section 1029.8.61.28.

Despite section 31 of the Tax Administration Act, where a person is a debtor under a fiscal law or about to become so, or is in debt to the State under an Act other than a fiscal law and referred to in a regulation made under the second paragraph of that section, the Minister may not allocate to the payment of the debt of that person any amount to be paid to the person by Retraite Québec under section 1029.8.61.28.

1029.8.61.31. The claim of an individual in respect of the payment of an amount in respect of a family allowance is prescribed by three years.

However, the prescription does not run where the payment made by Retraite Québec results from a new computation of the income taken into account in determining an amount in respect of a family allowance.

1029.8.61.32. An individual who receives an amount in respect of a family allowance without entitlement must notify Retraite Québec with dispatch.

2005, c. 1, s. 257; 2015, c. 20, s. 61; 2019, c. 14, s. 666.

1029.8.61.33. An individual who receives an amount in respect of a family allowance without entitlement must repay such an amount to Retraite Québec, except if the amount was paid as a result of an administrative error that the individual could not reasonably have noticed.

1029.8.61.34. An amount owing to Retraite Québec by an individual must be repaid to Retraite Québec in full from the date of the formal notice that Retraite Québec sends to the individual.

The formal notice shall state the grounds for the demand for repayment, the amount to be repaid, the right to apply for a review of the decision within the time limit provided for in section 1029.8.61.39 and, subject to the conditions set out in section 1029.8.61.41, the right to contest the review decision before the Administrative Tribunal of Québec.

The claim of Retraite Québec is prescribed by three years from the date on which the amount was paid without entitlement or, in the case of bad faith on the part of the individual who received the amount without entitlement, from the date on which Retraite Québec became aware of the fact that that amount had been paid without entitlement.

1029.8.61.35. If, for a particular month, Retraite Québec has paid to an individual, as or on account of a family allowance, an amount to which the individual was not entitled and that individual is the cohabiting spouse of an eligible individual, in respect of the eligible dependent child in respect of whom the amount has been paid, who was entitled to receive that amount, the eligible individual and the eligible individual's cohabiting spouse are solidarily liable in respect of the payment to Retraite Québec of that amount, to the extent that it may reasonably be considered that that amount relates to the application of section 1029.8.61.18 and that the individual was the eligible individual's cohabiting spouse at the time the payment was made.

1029.8.61.36. Retraite Québec may allocate any amount to be paid to an individual as or on account of a family allowance for a particular month to the payment of any amount of which the individual is a debtor as a consequence of the application of the following provisions, and give the individual notice thereof:

(a) the provisions of this division;

(b) the provisions of the Act respecting family benefits (chapter P-19.1), as they applied in respect of the debtor; and

(c) the provisions of the Act respecting family assistance allowances (chapter A-17), as they applied in respect of the debtor.

Where applicable, the allocation shall be made taking into account the fact that an individual receives a benefit under a financial assistance program provided for in any of Chapters I, II, V and VI of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1).

1029.8.61.37. Section 1037 and sections 12.1, 13, 15, 15.2, 28, 31.1.1 and 32 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) do not apply in respect of an amount owed by an individual under section 1029.8.61.34.

In addition, the Minister may not institute proceedings before a court or register a legal hypothec in respect of that amount.

1029.8.61.38. Retraite Québec shall notify the Minister where an amount owed by an individual under section 1029.8.61.34 has, after the expiration of the period in which that amount could be or was the subject of a review or of a contestation before the Administrative Tribunal of Québec, become uncollectible by Retraite Québec.

2005, c. 1, s. 257; 2015, c. 20, s. 61.

§ 4. — Review and contestation proceedings

2005, c. 1, s. 257.

1029.8.61.39. Retraite Québec may, on application, review any decision it has made.

An application for review must be made within 90 days after the decision has been sent, unless Retraite Québec grants an extension.

The application must set out briefly the grounds for review.

2005, c. 1, s. 257; I.N. 2016-01-01 (NCCP); 2015, c. 20, s. 61.

1029.8.61.40. Retraite Québec shall make a decision with dispatch and inform the individual concerned of the individual's right to contest the decision in the manner set out in section 1029.8.61.41.

Any unfavourable decision of Retraite Québec must include reasons.

1029.8.61.41. Any review decision may be contested before the Administrative Tribunal of Québec within 60 days after the decision has been sent.

Moreover, an individual may contest before the Tribunal the decision whose review the individual applied for if Retraite Québec does not make a decision within 90 days after the receipt of the application, subject to the following:

(a) if the individual who applied for the review requested more time to present observations or produce documents, the 90-day time limit runs from the time observations are presented or documents are produced; and

(b) if Retraite Québec considers it necessary, to allow it to make a decision, that an examination be conducted by a health professional or that documents be produced, the time limit is extended for 90 days; the individual who applied for the review must be notified of the extension.

2005, c. 1, s. 257; 2005, c. 17, s. 37; I.N. 2016-01-01 (NCCP); 2015, c. 20, s. 61.

1029.8.61.42. Any contestation in respect of the accuracy of information communicated to Retraite Québec by the Minister that relates to the computation of income, for the purpose of establishing the entitlement of an individual to the payment of an amount in respect of a family allowance, must be brought under the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

2005, c. 1, s. 257; 2010, c. 31, s. 175; 2015, c. 20, s. 61; 2019, c. 14, s. 666.

§ 5. — Recovery by the Minister

2005, c. 1, s. 257.

1029.8.61.43. Where Retraite Québec notifies the Minister in accordance with section 1029.8.61.38, the Minister shall send the individual a notice stating that the amount owing to Retraite Québec by the individual is payable without delay to the Minister upon the sending of the notice.

2005, c. 1, s. 257; 2015, c. 20, s. 61.

1029.8.61.44. Section 1029.8.61.37 does not apply in respect of an amount payable to the Minister under section 1029.8.61.43.

2005, c. 1, s. 257.

1029.8.61.45. Where, for a taxation year, Retraite Québec has paid an amount as or on account of a family allowance to an individual or has allocated an amount to another of the individual's liabilities, and that amount is greater than the amount that should have been paid or allocated, the individual and the person who, at the end of the year, is the individual's cohabiting spouse are solidarily liable in respect of the payment to the Minister of that excess amount, to the extent that it may reasonably be considered that the excess amount relates to the application of section 1029.8.61.18 and that the person was the individual's cohabiting spouse at the time the payment was made.

However, nothing in this section limits the liability of the individual or of the individual's cohabiting spouse for the year, where applicable, under any other provision of this Act.

1029.8.61.46. The Minister may at any time assess the cohabiting spouse of an individual in respect of an amount payable under section 1029.8.61.45, and this Book applies, with the necessary modifications, to that assessment as if it had been made under Title II.

1029.8.61.47. Where an individual and the individual's cohabiting spouse are, under section 1029.8.61.45, solidarily liable in respect of all or part of a liability of the individual, a payment by the individual affects the solidary liability of the cohabiting spouse only to the extent that the payment operates to reduce the individual's liability to an amount less than the amount in respect of which the cohabiting spouse is solidarily liable under section 1029.8.61.45.

2005, c. 1, s. 257.

§ 6. — Penal provision

2005, c. 1, s. 257.

1029.8.61.48. The following persons are liable to a fine of $250 to $1,500:

(a) every person who, in order to obtain the payment of an amount in respect of a family allowance, fails to provide information or provides information knowing it to be false or misleading, or misrepresents a material fact; and

(b) every person who assists or encourages another person to obtain or receive an amount in respect of a family allowance, knowing that the person is not entitled thereto.

Sections 72 to 78.2 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) do not apply in respect of the offence provided for in the first paragraph.

2005, c. 1, s. 257; 2010, c. 31, s. 175; 2019, c. 14, s. 666.

§ 7. — Administrative provisions

2005, c. 1, s. 257.

1029.8.61.49. Retraite Québec shall administer the payment of an amount in respect of a family allowance.

2005, c. 1, s. 257; 2015, c. 20, s. 61; 2019, c. 14, s. 666.

1029.8.61.50. For the purpose of administering the payment of an amount in respect of a family allowance, Retraite Québec acts under the responsibility of the Minister of Families, Seniors and the Status of Women.

For the purposes of such administration, Retraite Québec shall exercise the powers conferred on it by this division, the powers under the Act respecting Retraite Québec (chapter R-26.3) and the powers under the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan (chapter R-9) as necessary, in particular the power of inquiry provided for under section 30 of that Act.

1029.8.61.51. Retraite Québec may require an individual receiving an amount in respect of a family allowance to provide it with documents or information so that it may ascertain whether the individual is entitled to receive that amount.

Retraite Québec may suspend the payment of an amount in respect of a family allowance until it has been provided with the required documents or information if the individual receiving the amount fails to provide the required documents or information before the expiry of 45 days after the date of the request.

Retraite Québec may also suspend the payment of an amount in respect of a family allowance for the duration of an inquiry on the individual's eligibility. Retraite Québec shall conduct the inquiry diligently.

Retraite Québec shall give written notice of the suspension of payment, setting out the reasons for the suspension.

1029.8.61.52. Retraite Québec may decide not to require the payment of an amount of less than $2 and is not bound to pay such an amount.

1029.8.61.53. Retraite Québec may enter into an agreement with any person, association, corporation or body, and with the Government, or a department or body of the Government.

It may also enter into an agreement with a government in Canada, or a department or agency of such a government.

1029.8.61.54. Retraite Québec may, as a body responsible for the payment of an amount in respect of a family allowance, borrow sums from the Minister of Finance out of the financing fund established under the Act respecting the Ministère des Finances (chapter M-24.01).

The Minister of Finance may advance sums from the Consolidated Revenue Fund to Retraite Québec, with the authorization of the Government and on the conditions it fixes.

1029.8.61.55. Retraite Québec must, on or before the last day of February of a year, send to the Minister a return containing the prescribed information in respect of any amount paid to an eligible individual for the preceding year as or on account of a family allowance.

Retraite Québec shall inform the Minister of any changes in such information.

1029.8.61.56. The Minister may remit all or part of a debt if the Minister considers that, in the circumstances, recovery of the debt would be inappropriate.

An employee of Retraite Québec, who is authorized by the Minister, may sign the documents required for the purposes of the first paragraph.

1029.8.61.57. The sums necessary for the payment of the amounts determined in respect of a family allowance under this division shall be taken out of the tax revenues collected under this Act.

1029.8.61.58. Retraite Québec must, on or before 30 June of each year, report on its administration of this division to the Minister of Families, Seniors and the Status of Women. The report of Retraite Québec must be tabled by the Minister of Families, Seniors and the Status of Women within 15 days before the National Assembly, or, if the Assembly is not sitting, within 15 days of resumption.

The report must contain all the information required by the Minister of Families, Seniors and the Status of Women.

1029.8.61.59. An advisory committee is formed of representatives from the Ministère de la Famille, des Aînés et de la Condition féminine, Retraite Québec and the Agence du revenu du Québec to oversee the administration of the payment of amounts in respect of a family allowance.

The advisory committee is composed of six members, of whom three are appointed by the Minister of Families, Seniors and the Status of Women and three by the Minister of Revenue.

Among the members appointed by the Minister of Families, Seniors and the Status of Women, two must be members of the personnel of Retraite Québec.

1029.8.61.60. The administration of the payment of an amount in respect of a family allowance by Retraite Québec under this division is done on behalf of the Minister of Revenue.

2005, c. 1, s. 257; 2015, c. 20, s. 61; 2019, c. 14, s. 666.

CREDIT FOR CAREGIVERS

2021, c. 14, s. 154.

§ 1. — Interpretation and general rules

2021, c. 14, s. 154.

1029.8.61.96.10. In this division,

"eligible carereceiver", in relation to an individual, means a person in respect of whom the following conditions are met:

(a) the person is

i. the child, grandchild, nephew, niece, brother, sister, father, mother, uncle, aunt, grandfather, grandmother, great-uncle or great-aunt of the individual or of the individual's spouse, or any other direct ascendant of the individual or of the individual's spouse,

ii. the individual's spouse, or

iii. any other person to whom the individual provides sustained assistance in performing a basic activity of daily living, as certified in the prescribed form provided for in subparagraph e of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.96.20;

(b) the person has a severe and prolonged impairment in mental or physical functions the effects of which are such that the person's ability to perform a basic activity of daily living is markedly restricted or that the person's ability to perform more than one basic activity of daily living is significantly restricted where the cumulative effect of those restrictions is equivalent to having a marked restriction in the ability to perform a basic activity of daily living;

(c) the person needs assistance to perform a basic activity of daily living because of the person's impairment; and

(d) the dwelling that is the person's principal place of residence is situated in Québec and is not an excluded dwelling;

"eligible senior relative" of an individual means a person who is the father, mother, uncle, aunt, grandfather, grandmother, great-uncle or great-aunt of the individual or of the individual's spouse, or any other direct ascendant of the individual or of the individual's spouse;

"excluded amount" means

(a) an amount in respect of which a taxpayer is or was entitled to a reimbursement, or another form of assistance, except to the extent that the amount is included in computing the income of any taxpayer and is not deductible in computing that taxpayer's income or taxable income;

(b) an amount that was taken into account in computing an amount deducted in computing an individual's tax payable under this Part; or

(c) an amount that is taken into account in computing an amount that an individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable under this chapter, but otherwise than under this division;

"excluded dwelling" means a self-contained domestic establishment or a room that is situated in a private seniors' residence, in a facility maintained by a private institution not under agreement that operates a residential and long-term care centre governed by the Act respecting the governance of the health and social services system (chapter G-1.021) or the Act respecting health services and social services for the Inuit and Naskapi (chapter S-4.2), or in a public network facility;

"minimum cohabitation period" of a person with an individual for a taxation year is a period of at least 365 consecutive days commencing in the year or in the preceding year throughout which the person ordinarily lives with the individual in a self-contained domestic establishment, other than an excluded dwelling, of which the individual or the person, or the spouse of either of them if the spouse lives with them, is, throughout the period, alone or jointly with another person, the owner, lessee or sublessee, where

(a) the period includes a period of at least 183 days in the year (in this definition referred to as the "particular period"), unless the person or the individual died in the year;

(b) if the person or the individual died in the year, the period of at least 365 consecutive days was completed at the time of the death;

(c) the person is 18 years of age or over in the particular period or, if the person or the individual died in the year, the person had reached that age at the time of the death; and

(d) throughout the period, the person is resident in Canada;

"minimum period of support" of a person by an individual for a taxation year means a period of at least 365 consecutive days commencing in the year or in the preceding year and during which the individual provides assistance to that person on a regular and constant basis by assisting that person in performing a basic activity of daily living where

(a) the period includes a period of at least 183 days in the year (in this definition referred to as the "particular period"), unless the person or the individual died in the year;

(b) if the person or the individual died in the year, the period of at least 365 consecutive days was completed at the time of the death;

(c) the person is 18 years of age or over in the particular period or, if the person or the individual died in the year, the person had reached that age at the time of the death; and

(d) throughout the period, the person is resident in Canada;

"private seniors' residence" has the meaning that would be assigned by section 1029.8.61.1 if the definition of that expression in the first paragraph of that section were read without reference to "for a particular month" and ", at the beginning of the particular month,";

"public network facility" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.1;

"recognized diploma" means

(a) a diploma of vocational studies in home care assistance;

(b) a diploma of vocational studies in home care and family and social assistance;

(c) a diploma of vocational studies in assistance in health care establishments;

(d) a diploma of vocational studies in assistance to patients or residents in health care establishments;

(e) a diploma of vocational studies in health, assistance and nursing;

(f) a diploma of college studies in nursing;

(g) a bachelor's degree in nursing; or

(h) any other diploma that enables an individual to act as

i. a visiting homemaker,

ii. a home support worker,

iii. a family and social auxiliary,

iv. a nursing attendant,

v. a health care aide,

vi. a beneficiary care attendant,

vii. a nursing assistant, or viii. a nurse;

"specialized respite services" means the services by which a person who holds a recognized diploma provides, in place of an individual, home care to another person who is an eligible carereceiver in relation to the individual.

For the purposes of the definitions of "eligible carereceiver" and "eligible senior relative" in the first paragraph, a person who, immediately before dying, was the spouse of an individual is deemed to be a spouse of the individual.

For the purposes of the definition of "specialized respite services" in the first paragraph, a person is deemed to have been awarded a recognized diploma if

(a) the care given to the eligible carereceiver by the person is in addition to care the person is required to give to the eligible carereceiver, in accordance with the direct allowance program administered by the Minister of Health and Social Services, within the framework of the person's participation in implementing an intervention plan or an individualized service plan developed, in respect of the eligible carereceiver, by an institution governed by the Act respecting the governance of the health and social services system, by an institution referred to in Title I of Part II of the Act respecting health services and social services for the Inuit and Naskapi or by an institution within the meaning of section 1 of the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons (chapter S-5); or

(b) the person holds employment with an entity that may be called upon to provide specialized respite services to an individual under an intervention plan or an individualized service plan developed by an institution referred to in subparagraph a.

1029.8.61.96.11. The first and second paragraphs of section 752.0.17 apply for the purpose of determining whether a person has a severe and prolonged impairment in mental or physical functions the effects of which are such that the person's ability to perform a basic activity of daily living is markedly restricted or that the person's ability to perform more than one basic activity of daily living is significantly restricted where the cumulative effect of those restrictions is equivalent to having a marked restriction in the ability to perform a basic activity of daily living.

For the purpose of determining whether an individual is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.61.96.12 for a taxation year in respect of an eligible carereceiver, any person referred to in section 1029.8.61.96.12 shall, on request in writing by the Minister for information with respect to the eligible carereceiver's impairment and its effect on the eligible carereceiver or with respect to the therapy that is, if applicable, required to be administered to the eligible carereceiver, provide the information so requested in writing.

2021, c. 14, s. 154.

2021, c. 14, s. 154.

1029.8.61.96.12. An individual who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of a taxation year and who, during the year, is not dependent upon another individual, is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the individual's balance-due day for that taxation year, on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for that taxation year, an amount equal, subject to sections 1029.8.61.96.16 and 1029.8.61.96.17, to the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is, in respect of each person who, throughout that person's minimum cohabitation period with the individual for the year, is an eligible carereceiver in relation to the individual, the total of

i. $1,250,

ii. the amount by which $1,250 exceeds 16% of the eligible carereceiver's income for the year that exceeds $22,180, and

iii. an amount equal to 30% of the lesser of

(1) the aggregate of all amounts, other than an excluded amount, each of which is paid by the individual in respect of expenses incurred in the year for specialized respite services provided to the eligible carereceiver, to the extent that the expenses are incurred at a time when the eligible carereceiver is 18 years of age or over, and

(2) $5,200; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is, in respect of each person who is not a person to whom paragraph a applies and who, throughout the person's minimum period of support by the individual for the year, is an eligible carereceiver in relation to the individual, an amount equal to the amount by which $1,250 exceeds 16% of the eligible carereceiver's income for the year that exceeds $22,180.

1029.8.61.96.13. An individual who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of a taxation year and who, during the year, is not dependent upon another individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the individual's balance-due day for that taxation year, on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for that taxation year, an amount equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is, in respect of each person who has reached 70 years of age before the end of the year or, if the person died in the year, the person had reached that age at the time of the death and who, throughout that person's minimum cohabitation period with the individual for the year, is an eligible senior relative of the individual, an amount of $1,250.

1029.8.61.96.14. For the purposes of sections 1029.8.61.96.12 and 1029.8.61.96.13, an individual who was resident in Québec immediately before death is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the year of the individual's death.

2021, c. 14, s. 154.

1029.8.61.96.15. For the purposes of sections 1029.8.61.96.12 and 1029.8.61.96.13, a person is dependent upon an individual during a taxation year if the individual is not the person's spouse and has deducted, for the year, in respect of the person, an amount under any of sections 752.0.1 to 752.0.7, 752.0.11 to 752.0.18.0.1 and 776.41.14.

1029.8.61.96.16. The amount determined under subparagraph i or ii of paragraph a of section 1029.8.61.96.12, in respect of each person who is an eligible carereceiver in relation to an individual and has reached 18 years of age in a taxation year, and taken into account for the purpose of computing the amount that the individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.61.96.12 for the year is to be replaced by an amount equal to the proportion of that amount that the number of months in the year that follow the month in which that person reaches 18 years of age is of 12.

1029.8.61.96.17. The amount determined under section 1029.8.61.96.12, in respect of a person who is an eligible carereceiver in relation to an individual, and taken into account for the purpose of computing the amount that the individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.61.96.12 for a taxation year is to be reduced by an amount that is the portion of a financial assistance benefit received in that year by the individual or, if applicable, by the individual's spouse for the year, in respect of that person, under any of Chapters I, II and V of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1), that is attributable to the amount of the increase for a dependent child of full age who is handicapped and attends an educational institution at the secondary level in general education provided for in the second paragraph of section 75 of the Individual and Family Assistance Regulation (chapter A-13.1.1, r. 1).

1029.8.61.96.18. No individual may be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.61.96.12 or 1029.8.61.96.13 for a taxation year, in respect of a person, if

(a) the individual is an eligible senior relative or an eligible carereceiver in respect of whom another individual is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister for the year under this division;

(b) the person is an eligible senior relative or an eligible carereceiver in respect of whom the individual is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister for the year under another provision of this division; or

(c) the individual received, or may reasonably expect to receive, remuneration in any form whatsoever for the assistance the individual provides to the person.

1029.8.61.96.19. Where, in a taxation year, more than one individual, concomitantly or not, ordinarily lives for at least 90 days with the same person in a self-contained domestic establishment described in the definition of "minimum cohabitation period" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.96.10 or provides assistance to that same person for at least 90 days in the manner described in the definition of "minimum period of support" in that paragraph, the following rules apply for the purpose of determining the amount each of those individuals is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under section 1029.8.61.96.12 or 1029.8.61.96.13 in respect of the person:

(a) for the purpose of computing the minimum periods of 365 consecutive days and of 183 days in the year that are provided for in each of those definitions in relation to the person, those individuals are deemed to be one and the same individual and, for greater certainty, the days during which those individuals concomitantly so live with the person or provide such assistance to the person are counted only once;

(b) the total of the amounts each of those individuals is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.61.96.12 or 1029.8.61.96.13 for the year, in respect of the person, may not exceed the particular amount that only one of those individuals would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under either of those sections if the person were an eligible carereceiver or an eligible senior relative, as the case may be, only in relation to that individual; and

(c) where those individuals cannot agree as to what portion of the particular amount each is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under either of those sections, the Minister may determine what portion of that amount is deemed paid by each individual under that section and, for the purposes of that determination, priority is given to a cohabitation period over a period of support.

1029.8.61.96.20. An individual may be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.61.96.12 for a taxation year in respect of a person only if the individual files with the Minister the following documents together with the fiscal return the individual is required to file for the year under section 1000, or would be required to file if tax were payable by the individual for the year under this Part, unless the documents have already been filed with the Minister in connection with an application for advance payments made under section 1029.8.61.96.23:

(a) where the period referred to in section 1029.8.61.96.12 is a minimum cohabitation period of the person with the individual, the prescribed form containing prescribed information on which

i. the individual certifies that, throughout the person's minimum cohabitation period for the year, the individual ordinarily lived with that person in a self-contained domestic establishment, other than an excluded dwelling, and

ii. the individual certifies that, throughout the period referred to in subparagraph i, the individual or the person, or the spouse of either of them if the spouse lives with them, is, alone or jointly with another person, the owner, lessee or sublessee of the self-contained domestic establishment referred to in subparagraph i;

(b) where the period referred to in section 1029.8.61.96.12 is a minimum period of support of the person by the individual, the prescribed form containing prescribed information on which

i. the individual certifies that, during the person's minimum period of support by the individual for the year, the individual provided assistance to the person on a regular and constant basis by assisting the person in performing a basic activity of daily living, and

ii. the individual certifies that, throughout the person's minimum period of support by the individual for the year, the person was not living in an excluded dwelling;

(c) where the person's severe and prolonged impairment in mental or physical functions is an impairment whose effects are such that

i. the person's ability to perform a basic activity of daily living is markedly restricted, the prescribed form containing prescribed information on which a physician or a specialized nurse practitioner, within the meaning of section 752.0.18, or, where the person has a sight impairment, a physician, a specialized nurse practitioner or an optometrist, within the meaning of that section, or, where the person has a speech impairment, a physician, a specialized nurse practitioner or a speech-language pathologist, within the meaning of that section, or, where the person has a hearing impairment, a physician, a specialized nurse practitioner or an audiologist, within the meaning of that section, or, where the person has an impairment with respect to the person's ability in feeding or dressing himself or herself, a physician, a specialized nurse practitioner or an occupational therapist, within the meaning of that section, or, where the person has an impairment with respect to the person's ability in walking, a physician, a specialized nurse practitioner, an occupational therapist or a physiotherapist, within the meaning of that section, or, where the person has an impairment with respect to the person's ability in mental functions necessary for everyday life, a physician, a specialized nurse practitioner or a psychologist, within the meaning of that section, certifies that the person has such an impairment, or

ii. the person's ability to perform more than one basic activity of daily living is significantly restricted where the cumulative effect of those restrictions is equivalent to having a marked restriction in the ability to perform a basic activity of daily living, the prescribed form containing prescribed information on which a physician or a specialized nurse practitioner, within the meaning of section 752.0.18, or, where the person has an impairment with respect to the person's ability in walking or in feeding or dressing himself or herself, a physician, a specialized nurse practitioner or an occupational therapist, within the meaning of that section, certifies that the person has such an impairment;

(d) the prescribed form containing prescribed information on which a health professional referred to in subparagraph c in respect of the person certifies that the person requires assistance to perform a basic activity of daily living because of the person's impairment;

(e) where the person is referred to in subparagraph iii of paragraph a of the definition of "eligible carereceiver" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.96.10 and in the case of a taxation year described in the second paragraph, the prescribed form containing prescribed information on which

i. the eligible carereceiver designates the individual as a person who provides to the eligible carereceiver sustained assistance in performing a basic activity of daily living and specifies the date on which the eligible carereceiver began to receive the assistance, and

ii. a health and social services professional who is a member of a professional order referred to in the Professional Code (chapter C-26) certifies that the individual provides to the eligible carereceiver sustained assistance in performing a basic activity of daily living; and

(f) in respect of a particular amount referred to in subparagraph 1 of subparagraph iii of paragraph a of section 1029.8.61.96.12 that is paid in respect of expenses incurred in the year for specialized respite services, the receipts issued by the payee and containing, if the payee is an individual, the payee's Social Insurance Number.

The taxation years for which the prescribed form referred to in subparagraph e of the first paragraph is to be filed with the Minister by an individual in respect of a person are the following:

(a) the first taxation year for which the individual intends to have section 1029.8.61.96.12 apply in respect of the person;

(b) any taxation year in which a change occurs in the situation existing between the individual and the person; or

(c) the third taxation year following the last taxation year for which such a form was filed with the Minister by the individual in respect of the person.

2021, c. 14, s. 154.

1029.8.61.96.21. An individual may be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.61.96.13 for a taxation year in respect of a person only if the individual files with the Minister, together with the fiscal return the individual is required to file for the year under section 1000, or would be required to file if tax were payable by the individual for the year under this Part, the prescribed form containing prescribed information on which

(a) the individual certifies that, throughout the person's minimum cohabitation period for the year, the individual ordinarily lived with that person in a self-contained domestic establishment, other than an excluded dwelling; and

(b) the individual certifies that, throughout the period referred to in paragraph a, the individual or the person, or the spouse of either of them if the spouse lives with them, is, alone or jointly with another person, the owner, lessee or sublessee of the self-contained domestic establishment referred to in paragraph a.

1029.8.61.96.22. No individual may be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.61.96.12 or 1029.8.61.96.13 for a taxation year in respect of a particular person if the individual or the person who is the individual's spouse during the minimum cohabitation period or minimum period of support, as the case may be, of the particular person for the year is exempt from tax for the year under section 982 or 983 or under any of subparagraphs a to d and f of the first paragraph of section 96 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

2021, c. 14, s. 154.

1029.8.61.96.23. Where, on or before 1 December of a taxation year subsequent to the taxation year 2020, an individual applies to the Minister, in the prescribed form containing prescribed information, the Minister may pay in advance, according to the terms and conditions determined by the Minister, the amount determined in accordance with the second paragraph (in this subdivision referred to as the "amount of the advance") in respect of the amount the individual considers to be the amount that the individual will be deemed to have paid to the Minister under sections 1029.8.61.96.12 and 1029.8.61.96.13 on account of the individual's tax payable for the year, if

(a) at the time of the application,

i. the individual is resident in Québec,

ii. the individual is not dependent upon another individual, and

iii. the individual ordinarily lives with a person, who is an eligible carereceiver in relation to the individual or an eligible senior relative of the individual, in a self-contained domestic establishment, other than an excluded dwelling, of which the individual or the person, or the spouse of either of them if the spouse lives with them, is, alone or jointly with another person, the owner, lessee or sublessee; and

(b) the individual has agreed that the advance payments be made by direct deposit in a bank account held at a financial institution listed in Part I of Appendix I to Rule D4 – Institution Numbers and Clearing Agency/ Representative Arrangements of the Automated Clearing Settlement System Rules Manual, as amended from time to time, of the Canadian Payments Association.

The amount of the advance of an individual for a taxation year is equal to the aggregate of

(a) the amount the individual considers to be the amount that the individual would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.61.96.12 on account of the individual's tax payable for the year, if that section were read without reference to subparagraphs ii and iii of its paragraph a and its paragraph b; and

(b) the amount the individual considers to be the amount that the individual will be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.61.96.13 on account of the individual's tax payable for the year.

The individual shall notify the Minister with dispatch of any event that may affect the amount of the advance.

2021, c. 14, s. 154.

1029.8.61.96.24. The Minister may require from any individual who makes an application for advance payments referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.96.23 a document or information other than those provided for in that paragraph if the Minister considers the document or information necessary to evaluate the application.

2021, c. 14, s. 154.

1029.8.61.96.25. Despite the first paragraph of section 1029.8.61.96.23, the Minister is not required to grant an application for advance payments referred to in that paragraph for a particular taxation year if

(a) the individual received an amount the Minister paid in advance under section 1029.8.61.96.23 for a preceding taxation year and, at the time the application is processed, has not filed a fiscal return for the preceding year; and

(b) the application is processed after the individual's filing-due date for the preceding year.

2021, c. 14, s. 154.

1029.8.61.96.26. The Minister may, at a particular time, cease to pay in advance, or suspend the payment of, an amount provided for in section 1029.8.61.96.23 to an individual for a particular taxation year if

(a) the individual received an amount the Minister paid in advance under section 1029.8.61.96.23 for a preceding taxation year and has not, as of the particular time, filed a fiscal return for the preceding year; and

(b) the particular time is subsequent to the individual's filing-due date for the preceding year.

2021, c. 14, s. 154.

1029.8.61.96.27. The Minister may suspend the advance payment of, reduce or cease to pay an amount provided for in section 1029.8.61.96.23 if documents or information brought to the Minister's attention so warrant.

2021, c. 14, s. 154.

DIVISION II.11.8

CREDIT FOR A STAY IN A FUNCTIONAL REHABILITATION TRANSITION UNIT

2013, c. 10, s. 141.

1029.8.61.97. In this division,

"eligible individual" for a taxation year means an individual who, at the end of 31 December of the year, is 70 years of age or over and is resident in Québec or who, if the individual died in the year, had reached that age and was resident in Québec immediately before the death;

"functional rehabilitation transition unit" means a public or private resource offering accommodation and services focusing on re-education and rehabilitation for persons with decreasing independence who have a geriatric profile and present a potential for recovery with a view to returning home following hospitalization.

1029.8.61.98. An eligible individual for a taxation year is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the individual's balance-due day for that year, on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for that taxation year, an amount equal to 20% of the total of the amounts each of which is the aggregate of the expenses paid in the year by the individual, or by the person who is the individual's spouse at the time of payment, in respect of the individual's stay, begun in the year or the preceding year, in a functional rehabilitation transition unit to the extent of the portion of that aggregate that is attributable to a stay of no more than 60 days.

An eligible individual may be deemed to have paid to the Minister an amount under the first paragraph for a taxation year only if the individual files with the Minister, together with the fiscal return the individual is required to file under section 1000 for the year, or would be required to file if tax were payable under this Part by the individual for the year, a receipt or other voucher for the expenses mentioned in the first paragraph.

1029.8.61.99. For the purposes of section 1029.8.61.98, the expenses paid in the year in respect of a stay in a functional rehabilitation transition unit do not include

(a) an amount in respect of which a taxpayer is or was entitled to a reimbursement, or another form of assistance, except to the extent that the amount is included in computing the income of any taxpayer and is not deductible in computing that taxpayer's income or taxable income;

(b) an amount that was taken into account in computing an amount deducted in computing an individual's tax payable under this Part; and

(c) an amount that was taken into account in computing an amount that an individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable under this chapter, but otherwise than under this division.

2013, c. 10, s. 141.

DIVISION II.11.9

CREDIT FOR THE ACQUISITION OR RENTAL OF PROPERTY INTENDED TO HELP SENIORS LIVE INDEPENDENTLY LONGER

2013, c. 10, s. 141.

1029.8.61.100. In this division,

"eligible individual" for a taxation year means an individual who, at the end of 31 December of the year, is 70 years of age or over and is resident in Québec or who, if the individual died in the year, had reached that age and was resident in Québec immediately before the death;

"qualified property" means

(a) a person-centered remote monitoring device or a personal GPS locator;

(b) a property designed to assist a person to get into or out of a bathtub or shower or to get on or off a toilet;

(c) a walk-in bathtub or a walk-in shower;

(d) a chair mounted on a rail designed exclusively to enable a person to ascend or descend a stairway mechanically;

(e) a hospital bed;

(f) an alert system for persons with a hearing impairment;

(g) a hearing aid;

(h) a walker;

(i) a rollator;

(j) a cane;

(k) crutches; or

(l) a non-motorized wheelchair.

1029.8.61.101. An eligible individual for a taxation year is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the individual's balance-due day for that year, on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for that taxation year, an amount equal to 20% of the amount by which $250 is exceeded by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in the year by the individual, or by the person who is the individual's spouse at the time of payment, for the acquisition or rental, including installation costs, of a qualified property intended for use in the individual's principal place of residence.

An eligible individual may be deemed to have paid to the Minister an amount under the first paragraph for a taxation year only if the individual files with the Minister, together with the fiscal return the individual is required to file under section 1000 for the year, or would be required to file if tax were payable under this Part by the individual for the year, a receipt or other voucher for the amounts mentioned in the first paragraph.

1029.8.61.102. For the purposes of section 1029.8.61.101, an amount paid in the year in respect of the acquisition or rental of a qualified property does not include

(a) an amount in respect of which a taxpayer is or was entitled to a reimbursement, or another form of assistance, except to the extent that the amount is included in computing the income of any taxpayer and is not deductible in computing that taxpayer's income or taxable income;

(b) an amount that was taken into account in computing an amount deducted in computing an individual's tax payable under this Part; and

(c) an amount that was taken into account in computing an amount that an individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable under this chapter, but otherwise than under this division.

2013, c. 10, s. 141.

DIVISION II.11.10

CREDIT FOR SENIOR ASSISTANCE

2019, c. 14, s. 390.

§ 1. — Interpretation and general rules

2019, c. 14, s. 390.

1029.8.61.103. In this division,

"eligible individual" for a taxation year means an individual who, at the end of 31 December of the year or, if the individual died in the year, immediately before the death, is not an excluded individual for the year and

(a) is resident in Québec or, if the individual is the eligible spouse for the year of a person who is deemed to be resident in Québec throughout the taxation year, was resident in Québec in any preceding taxation year; and

(b) is, or whose eligible spouse for the year is,

i. a Canadian citizen,

ii. a permanent resident within the meaning of subsection 1 of section 2 of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (S.C. 2001, c. 27),

iii. a temporary resident or the holder of a temporary resident permit, within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act, who was resident in Canada during the 18-month period preceding that time, or

iv. a protected person within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act;

"eligible spouse" of an individual for a taxation year means the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4;

"excluded individual" for a taxation year means

(a) a person who is exempt from tax for the year under section 982 or 983 or any of subparagraphs a to d and f of the first paragraph of section 96 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) or the eligible spouse of the person for the year; or

(b) a person who, at the end of 31 December of the year or, if the person died in the year, immediately before the death, is confined to a prison or a similar institution and has been so confined in the year for one or more periods totalling more than 183 days;

"family income" of an individual for a taxation year means the aggregate of the income of the individual for the year and the income, for the year, of the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year.

For the purposes of paragraph b of the definition of "excluded individual" in the first paragraph, a person who has been allowed, in a taxation year, to be temporarily absent from a prison or similar institution to which the person has been confined is deemed to be confined to that prison or similar institution during each day of the year during which the person has been so allowed to be temporarily absent.

For the purposes of the definition of "family income" in the first paragraph, where an individual was not resident in Canada throughout a taxation year, the individual's income for the year is deemed to be equal to the income that would be determined in respect of the individual for the year under this Part if the individual had been resident in Québec and in Canada throughout the year or, if the individual died in the year, throughout the period of the year preceding the time of death.

2019, c. 14, s. 390.

§ 2. — Credit

2019, c. 14, s. 390.

1029.8.61.104. An eligible individual for a taxation year is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the eligible individual's balance-due day for that year, on account of the eligible individual's tax payable under this Part for the year, if the eligible individual and, where applicable, the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year file a fiscal return under section 1000 for the year, an amount equal to the amount determined by the formula

A − B.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the aggregate of

i. $2,000, where the eligible individual is at least 70 years of age at the end of 31 December of the year or, if the eligible individual died in the year, on the date of the death, and

ii. $2,000, where the eligible individual has an eligible spouse for the year who is both an eligible individual for the year and at least 70 years of age at the end of 31 December of the year or, if the eligible spouse died in the year, on the date of the death; and

(b) B is the amount obtained by multiplying, by the rate determined for the year under the third paragraph, the amount by which the eligible individual's family income for the year exceeds

i. $24,195, where the eligible individual does not have an eligible spouse for the year, or

ii. $39,350, where the eligible individual has an eligible spouse for the year.

The rate to which subparagraph b of the second paragraph refers for a taxation year is the result, expressed as a percentage, of the formula

4,000/(119,350 − C).

In the formula in the third paragraph, C is the amount mentioned in subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the second paragraph which, with reference to section 1029.6.0.6, is applicable for the taxation year.

Where the result, expressed as a percentage, of the formula in the third paragraph has more than two decimal places, only the first two decimal digits are retained.

1029.8.61.105. Despite section 1029.8.61.104, where a particular eligible individual referred to in section 1029.8.61.104 has an eligible spouse for a taxation year who is an eligible individual for the year and the particular eligible individual files with the Minister, together with the particular eligible individual's fiscal return referred to in section 1029.8.61.104, the prescribed form containing prescribed information, the following rules apply:

(a) the amount the particular individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under section 1029.8.61.104, determined without reference to this section, is to be reduced by such portion of the amount as the particular individual and the particular individual's eligible spouse agree, in that prescribed form, to attribute to the eligible spouse for the year;

(b) the amount the eligible spouse is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under section 1029.8.61.104, determined without reference to this section, is to be reduced by the amount determined for the year under subparagraph a in respect of the particular individual; and

(c) the amount determined for the year under subparagraph a in respect of the particular individual and the amount determined for the year under subparagraph b in respect of the eligible spouse are deemed to be the amount the particular individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under section 1029.8.61.104 and the amount the eligible spouse is deemed to have so paid to the Minister for the year, respectively.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, only one prescribed form may be considered valid in respect of a taxation year.

1029.8.61.106. Section 1029.8.61.105 applies in respect of an eligible individual in relation to a taxation year only if the eligible individual files with the Minister, together with the fiscal return the eligible individual files for the year under section 1000, a written statement from the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year in the prescribed form referred to in section 1029.8.61.105.

1029.8.61.107. For the purposes of section 1029.8.61.104, where an eligible individual referred to in that section for a taxation year has an eligible spouse for the year who is an eligible individual for the year and neither the individual nor the spouse have filed with the Minister the prescribed form referred to in section 1029.8.61.105 for the year, the Minister shall determine the amount each is deemed to have paid under section 1029.8.61.104 for the year.

2019, c. 14, s. 390.

DIVISION II.12

CREDIT FOR ADOPTION EXPENSES

1993, c. 19, s. 131.

§ 1. — Interpretation

1993, c. 19, s. 131.

1029.8.62. In this division,

"certified organization" means an organization certified by the Minister of Health and Social Services whose certification is in effect;

"eligible expenses" in respect of the adoption of a person by an individual means the following expenses, to the extent that they are reasonable and paid after an application was made for registration with the Minister of Health and Social Services or a certified organization:

(a) judicial, extrajudicial or administrative expenses incurred to obtain a qualifying certificate or a qualifying judgment, as the case may be, in respect of the adoption of the person by the individual,

(b) expenses relating to the psychosocial assessment referred to in the third paragraph of section 71.7 of the Youth Protection Act (chapter P-34.1), made in view of the adoption of the person by the individual,

(c) expenses relating to the translation of documents pertaining to the adoption of the person by the individual,

(d) the travel expenses in respect of the adoption of the person, in this paragraph referred to as the "adopted child", by the individual of

i. the adopted child, if the travelling enables the child to be integrated into the self-contained domestic establishment of the individual or the individual's spouse, and

ii. the person escorting the adopted child at the time of the travelling referred to in subparagraph i, if neither the individual nor the individual's spouse accompanies the child while that child is being so escorted,

(e) the travel and living expenses, in respect of the adoption of the person by the individual, of the individual and, where applicable, the individual's spouse, to the extent that the travelling is necessary,

(f) the fees charged by a certified organization that takes steps on behalf of the individual with a view to the adoption of the person by the individual,

(g) the fees charged by a foreign institution that provides for the needs of the person during a period preceding the time at which the person ordinarily lives with the individual, and

(h) the expenses that result from a requirement imposed by a government authority in respect of the adoption of the person by the individual;

"qualifying certificate" in respect of the adoption of a person by an individual means a certificate of compliance with the Convention on Protection of Children and Co-operation in Respect of Intercountry Adoption issued by the competent authority of the State in which the adoption of the person by the individual took place, unless the Minister of Health and Social Services has referred it to the Court of Québec under the second paragraph of section 9 of the Act to implement the Convention on Protection of Children and Co-operation in Respect of Intercountry Adoption (chapter M-35.1.3);

"qualifying judgment" in respect of the adoption of a person by an individual means

(a) a judgment rendered by a court having jurisdiction in Québec in recognition of a decision rendered outside Québec authorizing the adoption of the person by the individual; or

(b) a judgment authorizing the adoption of the person by the individual, rendered by a court having jurisdiction in Québec.

For the purposes of this division, the following expenses shall not be regarded, for a taxation year, as eligible expenses in respect of the adoption of a person by an individual:

(a) expenses in respect of which an amount

i. was deducted in computing the income or taxable income of or tax payable by the individual or the individual's spouse for the year or a preceding taxation year under this Part, or

ii. is deemed to have been paid to the Minister by the individual or the individual's spouse on account of the tax payable by the individual or the individual's spouse for the year or a preceding taxation year under this Part, except an amount that is deemed under this division to have been paid to the Minister on account of the tax payable by the individual or the individual's spouse for the year under this Part;

(b) (subparagraph repealed);

(c) expenses for which the individual or the individual's spouse or, as the case may be, the legal representative of either the individual or the individual's spouse, has received or is entitled to receive a refund, except to the extent that the amount of the expenses is required to be included in computing the income of the individual or the individual's spouse under this Part and is not deductible in computing the income or the taxable income of the individual or the individual's spouse.

1029.8.63. An individual who is resident in Québec on 31 December of a year in which the individual is given or issued, as the case may be, a qualifying certificate or in which a qualifying judgment is rendered in the individual's favour, as the case may be, in respect of the adoption of a person by the individual, is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the individual's balance-due day for the individual's taxation year the end of which coincides with that date, on account of the individual's tax payable pursuant to this Part for that taxation year, an amount, for the year, in respect of the adoption of the person by the individual, equal to the lesser of $10,000 and 50% of all of the eligible expenses paid by the individual and the individual's spouse in respect of the adoption.

For the purposes of this section, an individual who is resident in Québec immediately before his death is deemed to be resident in Québec on 31 December of the year of his death.

1029.8.64. An individual shall not be deemed to have paid to the Minister an amount under section 1029.8.63 for a taxation year in respect of the adoption of a person by the individual unless the individual files with the Minister, together with the fiscal return he is required to file under section 1000 for the year, or that he would be required to so file if tax were payable by the individual for the year under this Part, a copy of the qualifying certificate or qualifying judgment or, where the qualifying judgment has not been communicated to the individual, a writing from the Ministère de la Justice confirming the qualifying judgment, as the case may be, in respect of the adoption of the person by the individual.

1029.8.65. An individual shall not be deemed to have paid to the Minister an amount under section 1029.8.63 for a taxation year in respect of the adoption of a person by the individual if the individual or his spouse is exempt from tax for the year under section 982 or 983 or under any of subparagraphs a to d and f of the first paragraph of section 96 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

1029.8.66. Where, for a taxation year, more than one individual could, but for this section, be deemed to have paid to the Minister an amount under section 1029.8.63 for the year in respect of the adoption of the same person by those individuals, no amount greater than the amount provided for in that section, for the year, in respect of the adoption of the person by those individuals, shall be deemed to have been paid to the Minister, for the year, under that section in respect of that adoption.

Where those individuals cannot agree as to what portion of the amount each would, but for this section, be deemed to have paid to the Minister, the Minister may determine that portion of the amount for the year.

1995, c. 1, s. 162; 1995, c. 63, s. 206.

DIVISION II.12.1

CREDIT FOR THE TREATMENT OF INFERTILITY

2001, c. 51, s. 194.

§ 1. — Interpretation

2017, c. 1, s. 304.

1029.8.66.1. In this division,

"eligible artificial insemination treatment" means an artificial insemination treatment in respect of which no cost for artificial insemination activities is paid on behalf of a person participating in the treatment, or for which the person may not be reimbursed, by the administrator of a universal health insurance plan;

"eligible expenses" of an individual means the expenses paid by the individual after 31 December 2014 in respect of an eligible in vitro fertilization treatment or after 14 November 2021 in respect of an eligible artificial insemination treatment, if

(a) the expenses are paid to enable the individual or a person participating with the individual in assisted procreation to have a child;

(b) where the expenses are incurred after 10 November 2015 and paid before 15 November 2021 in respect of an in vitro fertilization treatment,

i. neither the individual nor the person who is the other party to the parental project has a child before the beginning of the in vitro fertilization treatment,

ii. a physician certifies that neither the individual nor the person who is the other party to the parental project has undergone surgical sterilization by vasectomy or tubal ligation, as the case may be, for reasons that are not strictly medical, and

iii. the expenses are attributable to no more than one and the same in vitro fertilization cycle, in the case of a woman or person 36 years of age or under, and to no more than the same two in vitro fertilization cycles, in the case of a woman or person 37 years of age or over; and

(c) the expenses are paid

i. for an in vitro fertilization activity, or an artificial insemination activity, carried out in a centre for assisted procreation that holds a licence issued in accordance with the Act respecting clinical and research activities relating to assisted procreation (chapter A-5.01),

ii. for an in vitro fertilization activity, or an artificial insemination activity, carried out in an establishment situated outside Québec, unless, where the individual or the person who is the other party to the parental project began in vitro fertilization activities in respect of that treatment after 31 December 2014 or artificial insemination activities in respect of that treatment after 14 November 2021, the person who began such activities was domiciled in Québec at the time the expenses were incurred,

iii. for medications related to an in vitro fertilization activity or an artificial insemination activity that satisfy the following conditions:

(1) they can lawfully be acquired for use by a person only if prescribed by a physician,

(2) their purchase is recorded by a pharmacist, and

(3) they are not covered by an insurance plan,

iv. for expenses related to an assessment referred to in section 10.2 of the Act respecting clinical and research activities relating to assisted procreation of the individual or of the person who is the other party to the parental project, where such an assessment allowed the in vitro fertilization treatment or the artificial insemination treatment, as the case may be, to be undertaken or continued,

v. for travel expenses that, but for paragraph a of section 752.0.11.1.3, would be medical expenses referred to in paragraph h or i of section 752.0.11.1, or

vi. for reasonable travel and lodging expenses of a particular person and, if the particular person cannot travel unassisted, of the person accompanying the particular person for participation in an in vitro fertilization treatment or an artificial insemination treatment, as the case may be, at a centre for assisted procreation described in subparagraph i that is situated in Québec, if a physician certifies that no such centre for assisted procreation exists in Québec within 200 kilometres of the locality, in Québec, where the particular person lives and, if such is the case, that the person is unable to travel unassisted;

"eligible in vitro fertilization treatment" means a non-insured in vitro fertilization treatment during which

(a) a single embryo or, in accordance with the decision of a physician who has considered the quality of the embryos, a maximum of two embryos, in the case of a woman or person 36 years of age or under, or three embryos including no more than two blastocysts, in the case of a woman or person 37 years of age or over, are transferred into the woman or person before 11 November 2015; or

(b) a single embryo or, in accordance with the decision of a physician who has considered the quality of the embryos, a maximum of two embryos, in the case of a woman or person 37 years of age or over, are transferred into the woman or person after 10 November 2015 and before 15 November 2021; or

(c) a single embryo or, in accordance with the decision of a physician who acts in accordance with the guidelines provided for in section 10 of the Act respecting clinical and research activities relating to assisted procreation, a maximum of two embryos, are transferred into a woman or person after 14 November 2021;

"eligible spouse" of an individual for a taxation year means the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4;

"family income" of an individual for a taxation year means the aggregate of the income of the individual for the year and the income, for the year, of the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year;

"in vitro fertilization cycle" means a cycle that aims to obtain the formation of one or more embryos for transfer into a woman or person and that

(a) consists of the following steps:

i. egg retrieval or donation, which may be preceded by ovarian stimulation or ovulation induction,

ii. sperm retrieval or donation,

iii. in vitro fertilization and, if applicable, preservation of surplus embryos, and

iv. transfer into a woman or person, in one or more separate attempts, of the embryos obtained until a live birth results; or

(b) is a cycle that was interrupted because a quality embryo was not obtained for transfer into a woman or person;

"non-insured in vitro fertilization treatment" means an in vitro fertilization treatment in respect of which no cost for in vitro fertilization activities is paid on behalf of a person participating in the treatment, or for which the person may not be reimbursed, by the administrator of a universal health insurance plan;

"pre-existing expenses" of an individual means the individual's eligible expenses that were incurred before 11 November 2015 in respect of an in vitro fertilization treatment that was, at the time the expenses were incurred, a non-insured in vitro fertilization treatment;

"universal health insurance plan" means

(a) a plan established by or pursuant to a law of a province that establishes a health insurance plan that is a health care insurance plan within the meaning of section 2 of the Canada Health Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. C-6) or a plan established by or pursuant to a law of another jurisdiction that establishes a public health insurance plan; or

(b) a plan established by the Government of Canada that provides for health insurance protection for the members of the Canadian Forces.

For the purposes of this division, the following expenses shall not be considered, for a taxation year, to be eligible expenses of an individual:

(a) expenses in respect of which an amount

i. was deducted in computing the income or taxable income of or tax otherwise payable by the individual or the person who is the other party to the parental project for the year or a preceding taxation year under this Part, or

ii. is deemed to have been paid to the Minister by the individual or the person who is the other party to the parental project on account of the tax payable by the individual or the person who is the other party to the parental project for the year or a preceding taxation year under this Part, except an amount that is deemed under this division to have been paid to the Minister on account of the tax payable by the individual or the person who is the other party to the parental project for the year under this Part; and

(b) expenses in respect of which an individual or the person who is the other party to the parental project or, as the case may be, the legal representative of either the individual or the person who is the other party to the parental project, has received or is entitled to receive a refund, except to the extent that the amount of the expenses is required to be included in computing the income of the individual or the person who is the other party to the parental project under this Part and is not deductible in computing the income or taxable income of the individual or the person who is the other party to the parental project.

For the purposes of subparagraphs i and vi of paragraph c of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph, where an artificial insemination activity is carried out in Québec, at any time before 11 March 2022, in a centre for assisted procreation that does not, at that time, hold a licence issued in accordance with the Act respecting clinical and research activities relating to assisted procreation, the activity is deemed to be carried out in a centre for assisted procreation that holds such a licence, if the centre was in operation on 11 March 2021 and was not required, before that date, to hold such a licence to carry out the activity.

For the purposes of subparagraph ii of paragraph c of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph, the following rules apply:

(a) a person is considered to have begun in vitro fertilization activities if

i. the person herself has received services required to retrieve eggs or ovarian tissue, or

ii. the person participating with her in the assisted procreation has received, as applicable, services required to retrieve sperm by means of medical intervention or services required to retrieve eggs or ovarian tissue; and

(b) a person is considered to have begun artificial insemination activities if the person herself or the person participating with her in the artificial insemination has received services required for intrauterine insemination.

For the purposes of the definition of "family income" in the first paragraph, where an individual has not been resident in Canada throughout a taxation year, the individual's income for the year is deemed to be equal to the income that would be determined in respect of the individual for the year under this Part if the individual had been resident in Québec and in Canada throughout the year or, if the individual died in the year, throughout the period of the year preceding the individual's death.

2017, c. 1, s. 306.

1029.8.66.2. An individual who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of a taxation year is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the individual's balance-due day for that taxation year, on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for that taxation year, an amount equal to the aggregate of

(a) the lesser of $10,000 and 50% of the individual's pre-existing expenses which the individual paid in the year; and

(b) the amount determined by the formula

$$A \times (B - C).$$

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the appropriate percentage determined in section 1029.8.66.5.1 or 1029.8.66.5.2, as the case may be, in respect of the individual for the year;

(b) B is the lesser of $20,000 and the individual's eligible expenses which the individual paid in the year; and

(c) C is the individual's pre-existing expenses which the individual paid in the year.

For the purposes of this section, an individual who is resident in Québec immediately before the individual's death is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the year of the individual's death.

1029.8.66.3. An individual shall not be deemed to have paid to the Minister an amount under section 1029.8.66.2 for a taxation year, unless the individual files with the Minister, together with the fiscal return the individual is required to file under section 1000 for the year, or that the individual would be required to so file if tax were payable by the individual for the year under this Part, the following documents:

(a) the prescribed form containing the prescribed information;

(b) a copy of all receipts providing evidence of the expenses referred to in any of subparagraphs i to v of paragraph c of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.66.1; and

(c) a copy of the certificate referred to in subparagraph ii of paragraph b and subparagraph vi of paragraph c of the definition of "eligible expenses" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.66.1 in prescribed form.

1029.8.66.4. An individual shall not be deemed to have paid to the Minister an amount under section 1029.8.66.2 for a taxation year if the individual or the individual's spouse is exempt from tax for the year under section 982 or 983 or under any of subparagraphs a to d and f of the first paragraph of section 96 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

1029.8.66.5. Where, in a taxation year, eligible expenses in respect of the same parental project were paid by more than one individual, the total eligible expenses that may be taken into account for the purpose of computing the amount that each of those individuals is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.66.2 for the year may not be greater than the amount of eligible expenses that could be so taken into account for the year if only one of the individuals had paid all of the expenses.

Where those individuals cannot agree as to the amount of eligible expenses each individual may take into account for the purpose of computing the amount that that individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.66.2 for the year, the Minister may determine that amount for the year.

1029.8.66.5.1. The percentage to which subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.66.2 refers for a taxation year in respect of an individual who has an eligible spouse for the year is

(a) 80% if the individual's family income for the year does not exceed $50,000;

(b) 79% if the individual's family income for the year exceeds $50,000 but does not exceed $51,186;

2017, c. 1, s. 310.

1029.8.66.5.3. Where, on or before 1 December of a taxation year, an individual applies to the Minister in the prescribed form containing prescribed information and the conditions set out in the third paragraph are met, the Minister may pay in advance, according to the terms and conditions the Minister determines and in respect of the amount that the individual considers to be the amount that the individual will be deemed to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the year under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.66.2, an amount not exceeding the amount determined by the formula

$$A \times (B - C).$$

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the appropriate percentage determined in section 1029.8.66.5.4 or 1029.8.66.5.5, as the case may be, in respect of the individual for the year;

(b) B is the lesser of $20,000 and the individual's eligible expenses which the individual paid in the year; and

(c) C is the individual's pre-existing expenses which the individual paid in the year.

The conditions to which the first paragraph refers are as follows:

(a) the individual is resident in Québec at the time of the application;

(b) the individual paid eligible expenses (other than pre-existing expenses) in the year and the prescribed form used for the application is accompanied by a receipt confirming their payment;

(c) the individual's estimated family income for the year does not exceed $97,458 if the individual has a spouse at the time of the application, or $48,729 if the individual does not;

(d) the amount that the individual considers to be the amount that the individual will be deemed to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the year under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.66.2 is greater than $2,000; and

(e) the individual has consented to have the advance payments be made by direct deposit in a bank account held at a financial institution listed in Part I of Appendix I to Rule D4–Institution Numbers and Clearing Agency/ Representative Arrangements of the Automated Clearing Settlement System Rules Manual, as amended from time to time, of the Canadian Payments Association.

Where, at the time of the application, an individual has a spouse, only one of them may make this application for the year.

2017, c. 1, s. 310.

(a) 80% if the individual's estimated family income for the year does not exceed $50,000;

(b) 75% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $50,000 but does not exceed $55,932;

(c) 70% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $55,932 but does not exceed $61,864;

(d) 65% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $61,864 but does not exceed $67,797;

(e) 60% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $67,797 but does not exceed $73,729;

(f) 55% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $73,729 but does not exceed $79,661;

(g) 50% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $79,661 but does not exceed $85,593;

(h) 45% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $85,593 but does not exceed $91,525; or

(i) 40% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $91,525 but does not exceed $97,458.

2017, c. 1, s. 310.

(a) 80% if the individual's estimated family income for the year does not exceed $25,000;

(b) 75% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $25,000 but does not exceed $27,966;

(c) 70% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $27,966 but does not exceed $30,932;

(d) 65% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $30,932 but does not exceed $33,898;

(e) 60% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $33,898 but does not exceed $36,864;

(f) 55% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $36,864 but does not exceed $39,831;

(g) 50% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $39,831 but does not exceed $42,797;

(h) 45% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $42,797 but does not exceed $45,763; or

(i) 40% if the individual's estimated family income for the year exceeds $45,763 but does not exceed $48,729.

2017, c. 1, s. 310.

1029.8.66.5.6. The Minister may require from any individual who makes an application for advance payments referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.66.5.3 a document or information other than those provided for in the first and third paragraphs of that section if the Minister considers the document or information necessary to evaluate the application.

1029.8.66.5.7. Despite the first paragraph of section 1029.8.66.5.3, the Minister is not required to grant an application for advance payments referred to in that paragraph for a particular taxation year if

(a) the individual, or the individual's spouse at the time of the application, received an amount the Minister paid in advance under section 1029.8.66.5.3 for a preceding taxation year and, at the time the application is processed, has not filed a fiscal return for the preceding year; and

(b) the application is processed after the filing-due date of the person referred to in paragraph a for the preceding year.

1029.8.66.5.8. The Minister may suspend the advance payment of, reduce or cease to pay an amount provided for in section 1029.8.66.5.3 if documents or information brought to the Minister's attention so warrant.

2017, c. 1, s. 310.

DIVISION II.12.2

CREDIT FOR CHILDREN'S ACTIVITIES

2015, c. 21, s. 483.

§ 1. — Interpretation and general rules

2015, c. 21, s. 483.

1029.8.66.6. In this division,

"artistic, cultural, recreational or developmental activity" means a supervised activity, including an activity adapted for a child with an impairment, that is suitable for children (other than a physical activity) and that

(a) is intended to contribute to a child's ability to develop creative skills or expertise, acquire and apply knowledge, or improve dexterity or coordination, in an artistic or cultural discipline including

i. literary arts,

ii. visual arts,

iii. performing arts,

iv. music,

v. media,

vi. languages,

vii. customs, and

viii. heritage;

(b) provides a substantial focus on wilderness and the natural environment;

(c) assists with the development and use of intellectual skills;

(d) includes structured interaction among children where supervisors teach or assist children to develop interpersonal skills; or

(e) provides enrichment or tutoring in academic subjects;

"child with an impairment" for a taxation year means a child in respect of whom subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 752.0.14 apply for the year;

"eligible child" of an individual for a taxation year means a child of the individual who, at the beginning of the year, is at least 5 years of age and has not reached 16 years of age or, if the child is a child with an impairment for the year, 18 years of age;

"eligible expense" of an individual for a taxation year in respect of an eligible child of the individual for the year means, subject to section 1029.8.66.7, an amount paid in the year by the individual to a person, other than a person who is, when the payment is made, the individual's spouse or under 18 years of age, or to a partnership, to the extent that the amount is attributable to the cost of registration or membership of the child in a recognized program of activities offered by the person or partnership;

"eligible expenses limit" applicable for a taxation year in respect of an individual's eligible child for the year means

(a) where the child is a child with an impairment for the year, an amount equal to

i. $200, for the taxation year 2013,

ii. $400, for the taxation year 2014,

iii. $600, for the taxation year 2015,

iv. $800, for the taxation year 2016, and

v. $1,000, for a taxation year subsequent to 2016; and

(b) in any other case, an amount equal to

i. $100, for the taxation year 2013,

ii. $200, for the taxation year 2014,

iii. $300, for the taxation year 2015,

iv. $400, for the taxation year 2016, and

v. $500, for a taxation year subsequent to 2016;

"eligible spouse" of an individual for a taxation year means the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4;

"excluded individual" for a taxation year means

(a) an individual whose family income for the year exceeds $130,000; or

(b) an individual who is exempt from tax for the year under section 982 or 983 or under any of subparagraphs a to d and f of the first paragraph of section 96 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) or that individual's eligible spouse for the year;

"family income" of an individual for a taxation year means the aggregate of the income of the individual for the year and the income, for the year, of the individual's eligible spouse for the year;

"physical activity" means a supervised activity that is suitable for children (other than an activity where a child rides on or in a motor vehicle as an essential component of the activity) and that

(a) where the child is a child with an impairment, enables the child to move around and observably expend energy in a recreational context; and

(b) in any other case, contributes to cardiorespiratory endurance and the development of any of the following aptitudes:

i. muscular strength,

ii. muscular endurance,

iii. flexibility, and

iv. balance;

"recognized program of activities" means

(a) a weekly program of a duration of eight or more consecutive weeks in which all or substantially all the activities include a significant amount of physical activity or artistic, cultural, recreational or developmental activity;

(b) a program of a duration of five or more consecutive days of which more than 50% of the daily activities include a significant amount of physical activity or artistic, cultural, recreational or developmental activity;

(c) a program of a duration of eight or more consecutive weeks, offered to children by a club, association or similar organization (in this definition referred to as an "entity") in circumstances where a participant in the program may select amongst a variety of activities if

i. more than 50% of the activities offered to children by the entity are activities that include a significant amount of physical activity or artistic, cultural, recreational or developmental activity, or

ii. more than 50% of the time scheduled for activities offered to children in the program is scheduled for activities that include a significant amount of physical activity or artistic, cultural, recreational or developmental activity;

(d) a membership in an entity of a duration of eight or more consecutive weeks if more than 50% of the activities offered to children by the entity include a significant amount of physical activity or artistic, cultural, recreational or developmental activity;

(e) a portion of a program (other than a program described in paragraph c) of a duration of eight or more consecutive weeks, offered to children by an entity in circumstances where a participant may select amongst a variety of activities

i. that is the percentage of the activities offered to children by the entity that are activities that include a significant amount of physical activity or artistic, cultural, recreational or developmental activity, or

ii. that is the percentage of the time scheduled for activities in the program that is scheduled for activities that include a significant amount of physical activity or artistic, cultural, recreational or developmental activity; or

(f) a portion of a membership in an entity (other than a membership described in paragraph d) of a duration of eight or more consecutive weeks that is the percentage of the activities offered to children by the entity that are activities that include a significant amount of physical activity or artistic, cultural, recreational or developmental activity.

For the purposes of the definition of "physical activity" in the first paragraph, horseback riding is deemed to be an activity that contributes to cardiorespiratory endurance and the development of the aptitudes listed in subparagraphs i to iv of paragraph b of that definition.

For the purposes of the definition of "eligible expense" in the first paragraph, the cost of registration or membership in a program offered by a person or a partnership includes the cost to the person or partnership with respect to the program's administration, courses, rental of required facilities, and uniforms and equipment that the participants in the program may not acquire for a price that is lower than their fair market value at the time, if any, they are so acquired, but does not include the cost of accommodation, travel, food or beverages.

For the purposes of the definition of "recognized program of activities" in the first paragraph, a child's participation in a program or a portion of a program and the child's membership in a club, association or similar organization must not be part of a school's curriculum.

For the purposes of the definition of "family income" in the first paragraph, where an individual was not resident in Canada throughout a taxation year, the individual's income for the year is deemed to be equal to the income that would be determined in respect of the individual for the year under this Part if the individual had been resident in Québec and in Canada throughout the year or, if the individual died in the year, throughout the period of the year preceding the time of death.

1029.8.66.7. An individual's eligible expense for a taxation year does not include

(a) an amount that was deducted in computing a taxpayer's income or taxable income;

(b) an amount that was taken into account in computing

i. an amount deducted in computing an individual's tax payable under this Part, or

ii. an amount that an individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable under this chapter, but otherwise than under this division; and

(c) an amount in respect of which a taxpayer is or was entitled to a reimbursement, or another form of assistance, except to the extent that the amount is included in computing the income of any taxpayer and is not deductible in computing that taxpayer's income or taxable income.

1029.8.66.8. If the aggregate of all eligible expenses for a particular taxation year, in respect of an eligible child who is, for the particular year, a child with an impairment, each of which is an amount paid at any time in the year by an individual or by the individual's spouse at that time, is at least equal to 25% of the amount specified for the particular year in paragraph b of the definition of "eligible expenses limit" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.66.6, the individual may add to the individual's eligible expenses for the particular year in respect of the child, an amount not exceeding the amount specified in that paragraph for the particular year.

If, for a taxation year, more than one individual may add to the aggregate of their respective eligible expenses an amount under the first paragraph, in respect of the same eligible child, the total of the amounts those individuals may so include under that paragraph for the year may not exceed the amount specified for the year in paragraph b of the definition of "eligible expenses limit" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.66.6.

If those individuals cannot agree as to what portion of the amount they each could, under this section, include in the aggregate of their respective eligible expenses, the Minister may determine that portion of the amount for the year.

2015, c. 21, s. 483.

§ 2. — Credit

2015, c. 21, s. 483.

1029.8.66.9. An individual who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of a taxation year, other than an excluded individual for the year, and who files a fiscal return under section 1000 for that year is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the individual's balance-due day for that year, on account of the individual's tax payable for that year under this Part, an amount equal to 20% of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is, in respect of an eligible child of the individual for the year, the lesser of

(a) the aggregate of the individual's eligible expenses for the year and, if applicable, those of the individual's eligible spouse for the year, in respect of the child; and

(b) the eligible expenses limit that applies for the year in respect of the child.

For the purposes of this section, an individual who was resident in Québec immediately before the individual's death is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the year in which the individual died.

An individual may be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under the first paragraph for a taxation year in respect of an eligible expense only if the individual holds a receipt, containing the prescribed information and constituting proof of payment of the expense, issued by the person or partnership who offered the eligible child a recognized program of activities.

1029.8.66.10. If, for a taxation year, more than one individual may be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.66.9 in respect of the same eligible child, the total of the amounts each of those individuals would otherwise be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year, in relation to the eligible child, may not exceed the particular amount that only one of those individuals would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year, in relation to the eligible child, if that individual's eligible expenses for the year were composed of all the eligible expenses, determined otherwise in respect of the eligible child, of all of those individuals for the year.

If those individuals cannot agree as to what portion of the particular amount each would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.66.9, the Minister may determine what portion of that amount is deemed paid by each individual under that section.

DIVISION II.13

CREDIT FOR CHILD CARE EXPENSES

1995, c. 1, s. 162.

§ 1. — Interpretation

1995, c. 1, s. 162.

1029.8.67. In this division,

"child care expense" of an individual for a taxation year means an expense that is neither prescribed nor excluded under section 1029.8.68 and that

(a) is incurred in the year for the purpose of providing child care services in Canada including baby sitting services, day nursery services or services provided at a boarding school or a camp for an eligible child of the individual for the year;

(b) is incurred to enable the individual, or, subject to the second paragraph of section 1029.8.81, the individual's eligible spouse for the year, who resides with the child at the time the expense is incurred,

i. to perform the duties of an office or employment,

ii. to carry on a business, either alone or as a partner actively engaged in the business,

iii. to carry on research or any similar work for which the individual or the individual's eligible spouse for the year received a grant,

iv. to take a course offered by a qualified educational institution or attend a secondary school, where the individual or the individual's eligible spouse for the year is enrolled in an educational program of not less than three consecutive weeks' duration that provides that each student in the program spend not less than 10 hours per week on courses or work in the program or not less than 12 hours per month on courses in the program, as the case may be, or

v. to actively seek employment; and

(c) is paid by the individual, or by the individual's eligible spouse for the year, for services provided in the year by a person resident in Canada other than, at the time the services are provided,

i. the child's father or mother,

ii. a person with whom the individual is living in a conjugal relationship,

iii. a person who resides with the individual and for whom the child in respect of whom the expense was incurred is an eligible child for the year,

iv. a person under 18 years of age related to the individual or to the person with whom the individual is living in a conjugal relationship, or

v. a person in respect of whom either the individual or a person who resides with the individual and for whom the child in respect of whom the expense was incurred is an eligible child for the year, deducts an amount in computing tax payable for the year under section 752.0.1 or 776.41.14;

"eligible child" of an individual for a taxation year means a child of the individual or of the individual's spouse, or a child who is a dependant of the individual or of the individual's spouse and whose income for the year does not exceed $12,638, if, in any case, at any time during the year, the child is under 16 years of age or is dependent on the individual or on the individual's spouse and has a mental or physical infirmity;

"eligible spouse" of an individual for a taxation year means the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4;

"family income" of an individual for a taxation year means the aggregate of the income of the individual for the year and the income, for the year, of the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year;

"qualified child care expense" of an individual for a taxation year means the lesser of

(a) an amount that, subject to section 1029.8.69 and the first paragraph of section 1029.8.81, is equal to the aggregate of the individual's child care expenses for the year; and

(b) the total of the product obtained when $14,605 is multiplied by the number of eligible children of the individual for the year each of whom is a person described in section 1029.8.76 and in respect of whom child care expenses referred to in paragraph a were incurred, the product obtained when $10,675 is multiplied by the number of eligible children of the individual for the year each of whom is under seven years of age on 31 December of that year, or would have been had the child then been living, and in respect of whom such expenses were incurred, and the product obtained when $5,375 is multiplied by the number of all other eligible children of the individual for the year in respect of whom such expenses were incurred;

"qualified educational institution" means an educational institution referred to in subparagraph i of paragraph a of section 752.0.18.10.

1029.8.67.1. For the purposes of this division, the child care expense of an individual for a taxation year includes, despite the definition of that expression in section 1029.8.67, the expense incurred to care for a child throughout the period of the year during which the individual, or the individual's eligible spouse for the year, receives benefits relating to a birth or an adoption under the Act respecting parental insurance (chapter A-29.011), the Employment Insurance Act (S.C., 1996, chapter 23) or a similar Act of a province other than Québec.

1029.8.68. For the purposes of the definition of "child care expense" in section 1029.8.67, the child care expenses of an individual for a taxation year do not include the amounts paid for an eligible child of the individual who attends, in the year, a boarding school or camp to the extent that the total of those amounts exceeds the product obtained when $275, if the child is a person described in section 1029.8.76, $200, if the child is under seven years of age on 31 December of that year, or would have been had the child then been living, or $125, in any other case, is multiplied by the number of weeks in the year during which the child attended the school or camp, nor the medical expenses described in sections 752.0.11 to 752.0.13.0.1 or any other amounts paid for medical or hospital care, clothing, transportation, general or specific education services, or board or lodging, other than such expenses described in that definition.

1029.8.68.1. For the purposes of applying this division to an individual for the taxation year 2020 or 2021, the definition of "child care expense" in section 1029.8.67 is, in relation to any period of the year in which the individual, or the individual's eligible spouse for the year, was entitled to amounts referred to in any of paragraphs c, c.1 and e.2 to e.6 of section 311, in respect of that year, to be read as if its paragraph b were replaced by the following paragraph:

"(b) is incurred at a time when the individual, or, subject to the second paragraph of section 1029.8.81, the individual's eligible spouse for the year, resides with the child; and".

2021, c. 36, s. 137.

1029.8.69. For the purpose of determining an individual's qualified child care expenses for a taxation year, the individual may include, in the aggregate of the individual's child care expenses for the year, an amount paid as such,

(a) only if, where paragraph a.1 does not apply, proof of payment of the amount is provided by filing with the Minister one or more receipts each of which was issued by the payee and contains, where the payee is an individual, the individual's Social Insurance Number;

(a.1*)* only if, where the amount was paid to a person required, under the regulations made under section 1086, to send, in respect of that amount, an information return to the individual or the individual's eligible spouse, the individual attaches a copy of the information return to the fiscal return the individual is required to file for the year under section 1000, or would be so required to file if the individual had tax payable for the year under this Part; and

(b) only to the extent that the amount

i. is not taken into account in computing the amount that another individual, except the individual's eligible spouse for the year, is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.79, and

ii. is not an amount, other than an amount that is included in computing a taxpayer's income and that is not deductible in computing his taxable income, in respect of which any taxpayer is or was entitled to a reimbursement or any other form of assistance.

1029.8.73. Where an individual is resident in Canada during part of a taxation year but is not resident in Canada during another part of the year, the definition of "child care expense" in section 1029.8.67 shall, for that year in respect of that individual, be read as though the reference to "services provided during the year" were replaced by a reference to "services provided during a period of the year during which the individual is resident in Canada".

1029.8.74. Where an individual is absent from Canada but resident in Québec for all or part of a taxation year,

(a) the definition of "child care expense" in section 1029.8.67, for that year in respect of that individual, is to be read without reference to ", in Canada" and "resident in Canada"; and

(b) paragraph a of section 1029.8.69, for that year in respect of that individual, if the expenses referred to in that paragraph were paid to a person not resident in Canada, is to be read without reference to "and contains, where the payee is an individual, the individual's Social Insurance Number".

1029.8.75. Where, in a taxation year, a person is resident in Canada, near the boundary between Canada and the United States and while so resident incurs expenses for child care that would be child care expenses if the definition of "child care expense" in section 1029.8.67 were read without reference to "in Canada" and to "resident in Canada",

(a) those expenses (other than amounts paid for a child's attendance at a boarding school or camp outside Canada) are deemed to be child care expenses of the person for the year for the purposes of this division if the child care services are provided at a place that is closer to the person's principal place of residence by a reasonably accessible road, in view of the circumstances, than any place in Canada where such child care services are available; and

(b) if the expenses are deemed under paragraph a to be child care expenses of the person for the year, paragraph a of section 1029.8.69, in respect of those expenses, is to be read without reference to "and contains, where the payee is an individual, the individual's Social Insurance Number".

1029.8.76. The person to whom paragraph b of the definition of "qualified child care expense" in section 1029.8.67 and section 1029.8.68 refer for a taxation year is an eligible child in respect of whom subparagraphs a to d of the first paragraph of section 752.0.14 apply for that year.

§ 2. — Credit

1995, c. 1, s. 162.

1029.8.79. An individual who either is resident in Québec on the last day of a taxation year, or is resident in Canada outside Québec on the last day of a taxation year and carried on a business in Québec at any time in the taxation year, is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the individual's balance-due day for that taxation year, on account of the individual's tax payable for that year under this Part, an amount equal, for the year,

(a) if the individual is resident in Québec on the last day of the taxation year or, if the individual is resident in Canada outside Québec on the last day of the taxation year, carried on a business in Québec at any time in the year and has an eligible spouse for the year who is resident in Québec on the last day of the year, to the amount obtained by applying the appropriate percentage determined under section 1029.8.80 in respect of the individual for the year to the individual's qualified child care expenses for the year;

(b) if the individual is resident in Canada outside Québec on the last day of the taxation year, carried on a business in Québec at any time in the year and either does not have an eligible spouse for the year or the individual's eligible spouse for the year is, on the last day of the year, neither a person resident in Québec, nor a person resident in Canada outside Québec who carried on a business in Québec at any time in the year, to the product obtained by multiplying the proportion referred to in the second paragraph of section 25 by the amount obtained by applying the percentage referred to in paragraph d of section 750 to the individual's qualified child care expenses for the year; and

(c) if the individual and the individual's eligible spouse for the year are resident in Canada outside Québec on the last day of the taxation year and carried on a business in Québec at any time in the year, to the product obtained by multiplying the average of the proportions each of which is referred to in the second paragraph of section 25 and established in respect of the individual or the individual's eligible spouse for the year, by the amount obtained by applying the percentage referred to in paragraph d of section 750 to the individual's qualified child care expenses for the year.

For the purposes of this section, if an individual dies or ceases to be resident in Canada in a taxation year, the last day of the individual's taxation year is the day on which the individual died or the last day the individual was resident in Canada.

1029.8.80. The percentage to which the first paragraph of each of sections 1029.8.79 and 1029.8.80.2 refers in respect of an individual for a taxation year is

(a) 78%, if the individual's family income for the year does not exceed $21,555;

(b) 75%, if the individual's family income for the year exceeds $21,555 but does not exceed $38,010;

(c) 74%, if the individual's family income for the year exceeds $38,010 but does not exceed $39,415;

(d) 73%, if the individual's family income for the year exceeds $39,415 but does not exceed $40,830;

(e) 72%, if the individual's family income for the year exceeds $40,830 but does not exceed $42,220;

(f) 71%, if the individual's family income for the year exceeds $42,220 but does not exceed $43,635;

(g) 70%, if the individual's family income for the year exceeds $43,635 but does not exceed $104,170; or

(h) 67%, if the individual's family income for the year exceeds $104,170.

(a) the amount the particular individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under section 1029.8.79, determined without reference to this section, shall be reduced by such portion of the amount as the particular individual and the eligible spouse agree to attribute to the eligible spouse for the year in the prescribed form filed with the Minister by the particular individual with the particular individual's fiscal return under this Part for the year;

(b) the amount the eligible spouse is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under section 1029.8.79, determined without reference to this section, shall be reduced by the amount determined for the year under paragraph a in respect of the particular individual;

(c) where the particular individual and the eligible spouse cannot agree on the portion of the amount that may be designated for the year in accordance with paragraph a in respect of the particular individual, the Minister may designate such portion and, for the purposes of paragraph a, the designation is deemed to have been made in prescribed form by the particular individual and the eligible spouse; and

(d) the amount determined for the year under paragraph a in respect of the particular individual and the amount determined for the year under paragraph b in respect of the eligible spouse are deemed to be the amount the particular individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under section 1029.8.79 and the amount the eligible spouse is deemed to have so paid to the Minister for the year, respectively.

1029.8.80.1. An individual who has an eligible spouse for a taxation year shall not be deemed to have paid to the Minister an amount under section 1029.8.79 for the year unless the individual files with the Minister, together with the fiscal return the individual is required to file for the year under section 1000, or would be required to so file if tax were payable by the individual for the year under this Part, a certificate from the eligible spouse in prescribed form.

§ 3. — Advance payments and exceptional rule

2005, c. 1, s. 260.

1029.8.80.2. Where, on or before 15 October of a taxation year, an individual applies to the Minister in the prescribed form containing prescribed information, the Minister may pay in advance, according to the terms and conditions provided for in the second paragraph and in respect of the amount that the individual considers to be the amount that the individual will be deemed to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the year under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.79, an amount (in this subdivision referred to as the "amount of the advance relating to child care expenses") equal to the amount obtained by applying to the aggregate of the qualified child care expenses that the individual considers the individual is required to pay for the year the appropriate percentage determined in section 1029.8.80 in respect of the individual for the year, if

(a) the individual is resident in Québec at the time of the application;

(b) the individual is a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (S.C. 2001, c. 27) or a person who has been granted refugee protection in Canada by the competent Canadian authority in accordance with that Act;

(c) the individual is the father or mother of a child with whom the individual resides at the time of the application;

(d) at the time of the application, the individual is described in the portion of paragraph c of the definition of "child care expense" in section 1029.8.67 before subparagraph i;

(e) the person who cares for a child of the individual confirms the child care rate and the number of days during which the child will be cared for in the year;

(f) the amount that the individual considers to be the amount that the individual will be deemed, under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.79, to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the year is greater than $1,000, unless the amount that the individual considers to be the amount that the individual will be deemed, under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5 or 1029.8.116.5.0.1, to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the year is greater than $500; and

(g) the individual has agreed that the advance payments be made by direct deposit in a bank account held at a financial institution listed in Part I of Appendix I to Rule D4 – Institution Numbers and Clearing Agency/ Representative Arrangements of the Automated Clearing Settlement System Rules Manual, as amended from time to time, of the Canadian Payments Association.

The terms and conditions of payment of the amount of the advance relating to child care expenses to which the first paragraph refers are the following:

(a) if the Minister receives from the individual the application referred to in the first paragraph not later than 1 December of the preceding year, the amount of the advance relating to child care expenses is payable in 12 equal advance payments made on or before the 15th day of each month of the year; and

(b) if the Minister receives from the individual the application referred to in the first paragraph after 1 December of the preceding year and not later than 15 October of the year, the amount of the advance relating to child care expenses is payable in equal advance payments made on or before the 15th day of each month of the year that is subsequent to the particular month in which the application is received, if the application is received on the first day of that month, or, in any other case, that is subsequent to the month that follows the particular month;

(c) (subparagraph repealed);

(d) (subparagraph repealed).

The individual shall notify the Minister with dispatch of any event which may affect the amount of the advance relating to child care expenses.

Where, at the time of the application referred to in the first paragraph, an individual has a spouse, only one of them may make this application for the year.

1029.8.80.4. The Minister may require from any individual who makes an application for advance payments referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.80.2 a document or information other than those provided for in that paragraph if the Minister considers the document or information necessary to evaluate the application.

1029.8.80.5. Despite the first paragraph of section 1029.8.80.2, the Minister is not required to grant an application for advance payments referred to in that paragraph for a particular taxation year if

(a) the individual, or the individual's spouse at the time of the application, received a payment of the amount of the advance relating to child care expenses for a preceding taxation year and, at the time the application is processed, has not filed a fiscal return for the preceding year; and

(b) the application is processed after the filing-due date of the person referred to in paragraph a for the preceding year.

1029.8.80.6. The Minister may, at a particular time, cease to pay, or suspend the payment of, the amount of the advance relating to child care expenses to an individual for a particular taxation year if

(a) the individual, or the individual's spouse at the time of the application referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.80.2 for the particular year, received a payment of the amount of the advance relating to child care expenses for a preceding taxation year and has not, as of the particular time, filed a fiscal return for the preceding year; and

(b) the particular time is subsequent to the filing-due date of the person referred to in paragraph a for the preceding year.

1029.8.80.7. The Minister may suspend the payment of, reduce or cease to pay the amount of the advance relating to child care expenses if documents or information brought to the Minister's attention so warrant.

2011, c. 6, s. 200.

1029.8.81. For the purposes of section 1029.8.79, for the purpose of determining the qualified child care expense of an individual for a taxation year, the aggregate of the individual's child care expenses for the year is deemed to be equal to zero, if the individual is exempt from tax for the year under section 982 or 983 or under any of subparagraphs a to d and f of the first paragraph of section 96 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

For the purposes of paragraph b of the definition of "child care expense" in section 1029.8.67 and of subparagraphs a and b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.79, a person is deemed not to be the eligible spouse of an individual for a taxation year if the person is exempt from tax for that year under any of the provisions referred to in the first paragraph.

DIVISION II.17.1

CREDITS TO INCREASE THE INCENTIVE TO WORK

2005, c. 1, s. 267; 2009, c. 15, s. 338.

§ 1. — Interpretation

2005, c. 1, s. 267.

1029.8.116.1. In this division,

"designated educational institution" means an educational institution that the Minister of Education, Recreation and Sports or the Minister of Higher Education, Research, Science and Technology designates for the purposes of the loans and bursaries program for full-time studies in vocational training at the secondary level and for full-time studies at the postsecondary level established under the Act respecting financial assistance for education expenses (chapter A-13.3);

"earned income" of an individual for a month means the aggregate of

(a) the individual's income from an office or employment, computed under Chapters I and II of Title II of Book III, that may reasonably be attributed to that month, other than such an income that is deductible in computing the individual's taxable income under paragraph e of section 725; and

(b) the individual's income from any business the individual carries on either alone or as a partner actively engaged in the business, that may reasonably be attributed to that month, other than such an income that is deductible in computing the individual's taxable income under paragraph e of section 725;

"eligible individual" for a taxation year means, subject to section 1029.8.116.2, an individual who, at the end of 31 December of the year or, where applicable, on the date of the individual's death, is an emancipated minor, is 18 years of age or over, is the spouse of another individual, or is the father or mother of a child with whom the individual resides, but who is not one of the following persons:

(a) a person in respect of whom another individual receives, for the year, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable, except if that person reaches 18 years of age before 1 December of the year;

(b) a person in respect of whom another individual, in computing the other individual's tax payable for the year, deducts an amount under section 752.0.1, as a consequence of the application of paragraph d, or under section 776.41.14;

(c) (paragraph repealed);

(d) a person who is a dependant of another individual for the year for the purposes of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5 or subparagraph a of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5.0.1; or

(e) a person who, for the year, is a full-time student, unless, at the end of 31 December of the year or, where applicable, on the date of the person's death, the person is the father or mother of a child with whom the person resides;

"eligible spouse" of an eligible individual for a taxation year means the person who is the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4, unless, at the end of 31 December of the year or, if the person died in the year, immediately before the person's death,

(a) the person was not resident in Québec; or

(b) the person was confined to a prison or similar institution and had been so confined during the year for one or more periods totalling more than 183 days;

"full-time student" for a taxation year means a person who began, in the year, a recognized term of study at a designated educational institution where the person was enrolled in a recognized educational program;

"period of transition to work" of an individual means

(a) a period that begins on the first day of a particular month that is both subsequent to the month of March 2008 and recognized by the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity as a month in which the individual ceases to receive a last resort financial assistance benefit under Chapter I or II of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1) because of earned income from employment as determined for the purposes of that Act, and that ends on the last day of the eleventh month that follows the particular month or, if it is earlier, the last day of the month that precedes the month in which the individual again receives such a benefit; or

(b) a period that begins on the first day of a particular month that is both subsequent to the month of March 2009 and recognized by the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity as a month in which the individual ceases to receive a financial assistance benefit under Chapter III of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act, as it read before being repealed, because of earned income from employment as determined for the purposes of that Act, and that ends on the last day of the eleventh month that follows the particular month or, if it is earlier, the last day of the month that precedes the month in which the individual begins to receive a benefit referred to in paragraph a or c; or

(c) a period that begins on the first day of a particular month that is both subsequent to the month of March 2018 and recognized by the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity as a month in which the individual ceases to receive a financial assistance benefit under Chapter V of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act because of earned income from employment as determined for the purposes of that Act, and that ends on the last day of the eleventh month that follows the particular month or, if it is earlier, the last day of the month that precedes the month in which the individual again receives such a benefit or begins to receive a benefit referred to in paragraph a;

"recognized educational program" means an educational program that provides that each student taking the program spend not less than nine hours per week on courses or work in the program and that is,

(a) if the educational institution is situated in Québec, an educational program recognized by the Minister of Education, Recreation and Sports or the Minister of Higher Education, Research, Science and Technology for the purposes of the loans and bursaries program for full-time studies in vocational training at the secondary level and for full-time studies at the postsecondary level established under the Act respecting financial assistance for education expenses; and

(b) if the educational institution is situated outside Québec, an educational program at the college level or at the university level or the equivalent;

"recognized term of study" means a term of study that is completed and during which a person was in full-time attendance at a designated educational institution;

"total income" of an eligible individual for a taxation year means the aggregate of the income for the year of the eligible individual and the income for the year of the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year;

"work income" of an individual for a taxation year means the aggregate of

(a) the individual's income for the year from an office or employment computed under Chapters I and II of Title II of Book III, other than such an income that is deductible in computing the individual's taxable income under paragraph e of section 725;

(b) the individual's income for the year from a business the individual carries on either alone or as a partner actively engaged in the business, other than such an income that is deductible in computing the individual's taxable income under paragraph e of section 725; and

(c) the amount included in computing the individual's income for the year under paragraph e.6 of section 311 or paragraph h of section 312, other than such an amount that is deductible in computing the individual's taxable income under paragraph e of section 725.

2005, c. 1, s. 267; 2006, c. 36, s. 205; 2009, c. 5, s. 478; 2009, c. 15, s. 339; 2010, c. 5, s. 163; 2015, c. 24, s. 148; 2017, c. 1, s. 313; 2019, c. 14, s. 394; 2021, c. 14, s. 156.

1029.8.116.2. To qualify as an eligible individual for a taxation year, an individual must be

(a) a Canadian citizen;

(b) an Indian registered as an Indian under the Indian Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter I-5);

(c) a permanent resident within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (Statutes of Canada, 2001, chapter 27); or

(d) a person to whom asylum has been granted in Canada by the competent Canadian authority in accordance with the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act.

2005, c. 1, s. 267.

1029.8.116.2.0.1. For the purposes of this division, if a person has a major functional deficiency within the meaning of the Regulation respecting financial assistance for education expenses (chapter A-13.3, r. 1), and the person, for that reason, pursues studies on a part-time basis during a taxation year, the following rules apply:

(a) the person is deemed to be pursuing studies on a full-time basis during the year; and

(b) the definition of "recognized educational program" in section 1029.8.116.1 is to be read as if "spend not less than nine hours per week on courses or work in the program" were replaced by "receive a minimum of 20 hours of instruction per month".

2015, c. 24, s. 149.

1029.8.116.2.1. For the purposes of paragraph a of the definition of "work income" in section 1029.8.116.1, the income of an individual for a taxation year from a previous office or employment is deemed to be equal to zero, if each of the amounts that make up the income is the value of a benefit received or enjoyed by the individual in the year because of that office or employment.

1029.8.116.2.2. For the purposes of the definition of "period of transition to work" of an individual in section 1029.8.116.1, the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity shall comply with the following rules:

(a) despite subparagraph a of paragraph 2 of section 55 of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1), if the individual is a member of a family, that Minister shall take into account only the income from employment earned by the individual and by the individual's spouse within the meaning of section 22 of that Act; and

(b) that Minister shall not consider an individual to have received, for a month, a financial assistance benefit under Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act if, for that month, the individual receives only a special benefit under section 48 of the Individual and Family Assistance Regulation (chapter A-13.1.1, r. 1).

2009, c. 15, s. 340; 2019, c. 14, s. 395.

1029.8.116.3. (Repealed).

2005, c. 1, s. 267; 2009, c. 15, s. 341.

1029.8.116.4. For the purposes of the definition of "total income" in section 1029.8.116.1, where an individual was not resident in Canada throughout a taxation year, the individual's income for the year is deemed to be equal to the income that would be determined in respect of the individual for the year under this Part if the individual had been resident in Québec and in Canada throughout the year or, where the individual died in the year, throughout the period of the year preceding the time of death.

2005, c. 1, s. 267.

2005, c. 1, s. 267; 2009, c. 15, s. 342.

1029.8.116.5. An eligible individual for a taxation year who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the year is deemed, subject to the third paragraph, to have paid to the Minister, on the individual's balance-due day for the year, on account of the individual's tax payable for the year, provided that the individual and, if applicable, the individual's eligible spouse for the year file a fiscal return under section 1000 for the year, the amount determined by the formula

$$(A \times B) - (10\% \times C).$$

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is

i. in the case where the eligible individual does not have an eligible spouse for the year but has a dependant for the year, 30%,

ii. in the case where the eligible individual has an eligible spouse for the year and a dependant for the year, 25%, and

iii. in any other case,

(1) 9% for the taxation year 2016 or 2017,

(2) 9.4% for the taxation year 2018,

(3) 10.5% for the taxation year 2019,

(4) 10.8% for the taxation year 2020,

(5) 11.2% for the taxation year 2021, or

(6) 11.6% for a taxation year subsequent to the year 2021;

(b) B is

i. in the case where the eligible individual does not have an eligible spouse for the year, the amount by which the lesser of the work premium reduction threshold that is applicable for the year in respect of the eligible individual and the eligible individual's work income for the year exceeds $2,400, and

ii. in the case where the eligible individual has an eligible spouse for the year, the amount by which the lesser of the work premium reduction threshold that is applicable for the year in respect of the eligible individual and the aggregate of the eligible individual's work income for the year and the work income of the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year exceeds $3,600; and

i. the work premium reduction threshold that is applicable for the year in respect of an eligible individual who does not have an eligible spouse for the year, and

ii. the work premium reduction threshold that is applicable for the year in respect of an eligible individual who has an eligible spouse for the year.

For the purpose of computing the payments that an eligible individual for a taxation year is required to make under section 1025 or 1026, the individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the individual's tax payable for the year under this Part, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the excess amount that corresponds to the amount by which the amount determined under the first paragraph for the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an advance payment referred to in the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.9 or 1029.8.116.9.0.1, that the eligible individual, or the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year, has received, or may reasonably expect to receive, for the year, less the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that excess amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the year but before that date; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to this chapter, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under this chapter but otherwise than under the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

1029.8.116.5.0.1. An individual who, for a taxation year, is an eligible individual to whom the second paragraph applies and is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the year is deemed, subject to the fourth paragraph, to have paid to the Minister, on the individual's balance-due day for the year, on account of the individual's tax payable for the year, provided that the individual and, if applicable, the individual's eligible spouse for the year file a fiscal return under section 1000 for the year, the amount determined by the formula

This paragraph applies, for the year, to an eligible individual if

(a) the eligible individual receives in the year, or has received in any of the five preceding years, because of the individual's physical or mental condition, a social solidarity allowance under Chapter II of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1) or a basic income under Chapter VI of Title II of that Act, other than a special benefit paid under section 48 of the Individual and Family Assistance Regulation (chapter A-13.1.1, r. 1);

(b) the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year receives in the year, or has received in any of the five preceding years, because of the spouse's physical or mental condition, an allowance or income referred to in subparagraph a; or

(c) the eligible individual or the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year is a person in respect of whom subparagraphs a to d of the first paragraph of section 752.0.14 apply for the year.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is

i. in the case where the eligible individual does not have an eligible spouse for the year but has a dependant for the year, 25%,

ii. in the case where the eligible individual has an eligible spouse for the year and a dependant for the year, 20%, and

iii. in any other case,

(1) 11% for the taxation year 2016 or 2017,

(2) 11.4% for the taxation year 2018,

(3) 12.5% for the taxation year 2019,

(4) 12.8% for the taxation year 2020,

(5) 13.2% for the taxation year 2021, or

(6) 13.6% for a taxation year subsequent to the year 2021;

(b) B is

ii. in the case where the eligible individual has an eligible spouse for the year, the amount by which the lesser of the reduction threshold for the adjusted work premium, that is applicable for the year in respect of the eligible individual, and the aggregate of the eligible individual's work income for the year and the work income for the year of the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year exceeds $1,200; and

(c) C is the amount by which the eligible individual's total income for the year exceeds

i. the reduction threshold for the adjusted work premium, that is applicable for the year in respect of an eligible individual who does not have an eligible spouse for the year, and

ii. the reduction threshold for the adjusted work premium, that is applicable for the year in respect of an eligible individual who has an eligible spouse for the year.

For the purpose of computing the payments that an eligible individual for a taxation year is required to make under section 1025 or 1026, the individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the individual's tax payable for the year under this Part, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the excess amount that corresponds to the amount by which the amount determined under the first paragraph for the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an advance payment referred to in the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.9 or 1029.8.116.9.0.1, that the eligible individual, or the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year, has received, or may reasonably expect to receive, for the year, less the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that excess amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the year but before that date; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to this chapter, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under this chapter but otherwise than under the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

1029.8.116.5.0.2. An eligible individual who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of a taxation year is deemed, subject to the fourth paragraph, to have paid to the Minister, on the individual's balance-due day for the year, on account of the individual's tax payable for the year, provided that the individual and, if applicable, the individual's eligible spouse for the year file a fiscal return under section 1000 for the year, an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying $200 by the total number of months in that year each of which is a month (in this section and section 1029.8.116.9.1 referred to as an "eligible month") for which the individual's earned income is equal to or greater than $200 and is a month included in a period of transition to work of the individual in respect of which the following conditions are met:

(a) the period of transition to work began in that year or in the preceding taxation year;

(b) the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity confirms that during the 30-month period that precedes the first month of the individual's period of transition to work that includes the eligible month, the individual received, for at least 24 months, an amount that is

i. a last resort financial assistance benefit paid under Chapter I or II of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1), or

ii. a financial assistance benefit paid under Chapter V of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act or Chapter III of that Title II, as it read before being repealed; and

(c) subject to the third paragraph, the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity confirms that, for the first month of the individual's period of transition to work that includes the eligible month, the individual holds, under subparagraph 1 or 3 of the first paragraph of section 48 of the Individual and Family Assistance Regulation (chapter A-13.1.1, r. 1), a valid claim booklet issued by the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity.

For the purpose of confirming that an individual meets the condition set out in subparagraph b of the first paragraph, the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity shall not consider that the individual received, for a particular month, a financial assistance benefit under Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act if

(a) for that month, the individual was a dependent child for the purposes of the Individual and Family Assistance Act; or

(b) for that month, the individual received only a special benefit under section 48 of the Individual and Family Assistance Regulation.

Subparagraph c of the first paragraph does not apply in respect of an individual who receives a financial assistance benefit under Chapter III of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act, as it read before being repealed, for the month that precedes the first month of the individual's period of transition to work that includes the eligible month.

For the purpose of computing the payments that an eligible individual for a taxation year is required to make under section 1025 or 1026, the individual is deemed, unless the individual elects to have section 1029.8.116.9.1 apply for the year, to have paid to the Minister, on account of the individual's tax payable for the year under this Part, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the amount determined under the first paragraph for the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the year but before that date; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to this chapter, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under this chapter but otherwise than under the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

1029.8.116.5.0.3. For the purposes of sections 1029.8.116.5 to 1029.8.116.5.0.2, an eligible individual who was resident in Québec immediately before the eligible individual's death is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the year in which the eligible individual died.

2009, c. 15, s. 344.

1029.8.116.5.1. The Minister of Finance publishes annually in the Gazette officielle du Québec a notice setting out

(a) the amounts of the work premium reduction thresholds, referred to in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraphs b and c of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5, that are applicable for a taxation year and are determined according to the terms and conditions prescribed by regulation, and that are to be used in determining the amount that an eligible individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the year under section 1029.8.116.5; and

(b) the amounts of the reduction thresholds for the adjusted work premium, referred to in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraphs b and c of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5.0.1, that are applicable for a taxation year and are determined according to the terms and conditions prescribed by regulation, and that are to be used in determining the amount that an eligible individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the year under section 1029.8.116.5.0.1.

The notice described in the first paragraph becomes effective from 1 January of the year for which the amounts of the work premium reduction thresholds and of the reduction thresholds for the adjusted work premium are determined and may be subject to a review having retroactive effect to that date.

Note For the taxation year 2024, the amount of the general work premium reduction threshold applicable to an individual who does not have an eligible spouse for the year is changed from $11,842 to $12,334; the amount of the general work premium reduction threshold applicable to an individual who has an eligible spouse for the year is changed from $18,338 to $19,092.

See (2023) 155 G.O. 1, 795.

For the taxation year 2024, the amount of the adapted work premium reduction threshold applicable to an individual who does not have an eligible spouse for the year is changed from $16,654 to $17,378; the amount of the adapted work premium reduction threshold applicable to an individual who has an eligible spouse for the year is changed from $25,198 to $26,310.

See (2023) 155 G.O. 1, 795.

1029.8.116.5.2. An eligible individual may not be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8.116.5 to 1029.8.116.5.0.2 for a taxation year if, at the end of 31 December of the year or, if the eligible individual died in the year, immediately before the eligible individual's death, the eligible individual was confined to a prison or similar institution and had been so confined during the year for one or more periods totalling more than 183 days.

1029.8.116.8. For the purposes of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5 or subparagraph a of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5.0.1, an eligible individual for a taxation year has a dependant for the year if that person is, during the year, a child of the eligible individual or of the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year and

(a) the eligible individual or the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year receives in respect of that person, for the last month of the year, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of tax payable;

(b) that person is, at the end of the year, under 18 years of age, ordinarily resides with the eligible individual and is neither the father or the mother of a child with whom the person resides, nor an emancipated minor;

(c) the eligible individual or the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year deducts an amount in computing the tax payable for the year in respect of that person under section 752.0.1, as a consequence of the application of paragraph d of that section, or could have deducted such an amount but for the person's income for the year; or

(d) that person is an eligible student for the year within the meaning of section 776.41.12.

For the purposes of subparagraph b of the first paragraph, where custody of a person is shared under an order or judgment of a competent tribunal or, if there is no such order or judgment, under a written agreement, that person is considered to ordinarily reside with the eligible individual at the end of a taxation year only if, pursuant to the order, judgment or written agreement, as the case may be, the eligible individual or the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year must exercise at least 40% of custody time in respect of that person for the last month of the year.

1029.8.116.8.1. For the purposes of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5 and subparagraph a of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5.0.1, an eligible individual for a taxation year may not consider a person as being a dependant for the year if, at the end of 31 December of the year or, if the person died in the year, immediately before the person's death, that person was confined to a prison or similar institution and had been so confined during the year for one or more periods totalling more than 183 days.

1029.8.116.8.2. For the purposes of the definition of "eligible spouse" in section 1029.8.116.1 and sections 1029.8.116.5.2 and 1029.8.116.8.1, a person who has been allowed, in a taxation year, to be temporarily absent from a prison or a similar institution to which the person has been confined is deemed to be confined to that prison or similar institution during each day of the year during which the person has been so allowed to be temporarily absent.

2009, c. 15, s. 348.

§ 3. — Advance payments and exceptional rules

2005, c. 1, s. 267.

1029.8.116.9. If, on or before 15 October of a taxation year, an individual applies to the Minister, in the prescribed form containing prescribed information, the Minister may pay in advance, according to the terms and conditions provided for in the second paragraph, an amount (in this subdivision referred to as the "amount of the advance relating to the work premium") equal to the product obtained by multiplying the percentage specified in the third paragraph by the amount the individual considers to be the amount that the individual will be deemed to have paid to the Minister, under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5 or 1029.8.116.5.0.1, on account of the individual's tax payable for the year, if

(a) the individual is resident in Québec at the time of the application;

(b) the individual is not a person in respect of whom another individual is entitled, for the year, to an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of the other individual's tax payable, unless the individual is 18 years of age or over on the first day of the month of the application;

(c) at the time of the application, the individual is described in any of paragraphs a to d of section 1029.8.116.2;

(d) at the time of the application, the individual performs the duties of an office or employment, or carries on a business, alone or as a partner actively engaged in the business;

(e) the amount that the individual considers to be the amount that the individual will be deemed to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the year, under the first paragraph of either of sections 1029.8.116.5 and 1029.8.116.5.0.1, is greater than

i. if the individual has a dependant who meets the conditions set out in section 1029.8.116.8 for the purposes of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5 or subparagraph a of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5.0.1, $500, and

ii. in any other case, $300; and

(f) the individual has agreed that the advance payments be made by direct deposit in a bank account held at a financial institution listed in Part I of Appendix I to Rule D4 – Institution Numbers and Clearing Agency/ Representative Arrangements of the Automated Clearing Settlement System Rules Manual, as amended from time to time, of the Canadian Payments Association.

The terms and conditions of payment of the amount of the advance relating to the work premium to which the first paragraph refers are the following:

(a) if the Minister receives from the individual the application referred to in the first paragraph not later than 1 December of the preceding year, the amount of the advance relating to the work premium is payable in 12 equal advance payments made on or before the 15th day of each month of the year; and

(b) if the Minister receives from the individual the application referred to in the first paragraph after 1 December of the preceding year and not later than 15 October of the year, the amount of the advance relating to the work premium is payable in equal advance payments made on or before the 15th day of each month of the year that is subsequent to the particular month in which the application is received, if the application is received on the first day of that month, or, in any other case, that is subsequent to the month that follows the particular month;

(c) (subparagraph repealed);

(d) (subparagraph repealed).

The percentage to which the first paragraph refers is 50% if subparagraph i of subparagraph e of that paragraph applies, and 75% in any other case.

2005, c. 1, s. 267; 2009, c. 15, s. 349; 2011, c. 1, s. 88; 2011, c. 6, s. 201; 2011, c. 34, s. 102; 2012, c. 8, s. 234; 2017, c. 1, s. 319; 2019, c. 14, s. 401.

1029.8.116.9.0.1. If, in a taxation year, an individual receives a financial assistance benefit paid under any of Chapters I, II, V and VI of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1) or Chapter III of that Title II, as it read before being repealed, if, on or before 15 October of that year, the individual applies to the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity, in the prescribed form containing prescribed information, and if that Minister notifies the Minister of Revenue, the latter Minister may pay in advance, according to the terms and conditions provided for in the second paragraph, the amount determined in accordance with the third paragraph in respect of a relevant month of the year (in this subdivision referred to as the "increased amount of the advance relating to the work premium") in respect of the amount the individual considers to be the amount that the individual will be deemed to have paid to the Minister, under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5 or 1029.8.116.5.0.1, on account of the individual's tax payable for the year, if

(a) the individual is resident in Québec at the time of the application;

(b) the individual is not a person in respect of whom another individual is entitled, for the year, to an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of the other individual's tax payable, unless the individual is 18 years of age or over on the first day of the month of the application;

(c) at the time of the application, the individual is described in any of paragraphs a to d of section 1029.8.116.2;

(d) at the time of the application, the individual performs the duties of an office or employment, or carries on a business, alone or as a partner actively engaged in the business; and

(e) the individual has agreed that the advance payments be made by direct deposit in a bank account held at a financial institution listed in Part I of Appendix I to Rule D4 – Institution Numbers and Clearing Agency/ Representative Arrangements of the Automated Clearing Settlement System Rules Manual, as amended from time to time, of the Canadian Payments Association.

The increased amount of the advance relating to the work premium in respect of a relevant month that is the month of the application or one of the months for which new information concerning the work income earned by the individual and, if applicable, by the individual's spouse is transmitted by the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity is payable on or before the 15th day of the month of the year that follows the month in which the Minister of Revenue receives the application or the new information.

The increased amount of the advance relating to the work premium in respect of a relevant month of the taxation year is determined by the formula

$$(90\% \times A) - B.$$

In the formula in the third paragraph,

(a) A is the amount that the individual would be deemed to have paid to the Minister, under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5 or 1029.8.116.5.0.1, on account of the individual's tax payable for the year, if the total of the individual's work income for the year and, where applicable, that of the individual's spouse at the time of the application or at the beginning of the relevant month, as the case may be, were the aggregate of the work income they earned, for the portion of that year that ends at the end of the month that precedes the relevant month, as those work incomes were determined by the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity for the purposes of the Individual and Family Assistance Act; and

(b) B is the aggregate of the payments that the individual received in the year, under this section and section 1029.8.116.9, before the month in which the increased amount of the advance relating to the work premium determined in respect of the relevant month is paid.

For the purposes of this section, a relevant month of a taxation year is a month the first day of which is subsequent to the period, beginning at the beginning of that year, at the end of which the aggregate of the work incomes earned by the individual and, where applicable, by the individual's spouse at that time, as those work incomes were determined by the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity for the purposes of the Individual and Family Assistance Act, exceeds

(a) $2,400, where the individual considers that the individual will be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5 and the individual does not have a spouse at that time;

(b) $3,600, where the individual considers that the individual will be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5 and the individual has a spouse at that time; or

(c) $1,200, where the individual considers that the individual will be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5.0.1.

2017, c. 1, s. 320; 2019, c. 14, s. 402; 2023, c. 19, s. 115.

1029.8.116.9.0.2. The individual shall notify the Minister with dispatch of any event which may affect the amount of the advance relating to the work premium or the increased amount of the advance relating to the work premium, as the case may be.

Where, at the time of the application referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.9 or 1029.8.116.9.0.1, an individual has a spouse, only one of them may make an application under either of those sections for the year.

2017, c. 1, s. 320.

1029.8.116.9.0.3. The Minister shall cease to pay the amount of the advance relating to the work premium to an individual from the first month in which an increased amount of the advance relating to the work premium is paid to the individual or would be paid to the individual if that amount were greater than zero.

1029.8.116.9.0.4. Where an individual who has made an application referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.9.0.1 for a taxation year either makes another, for the year, under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.9 or notifies the Minister that the individual intends to resume receiving payments under that latter section, and where the total of the payments that the individual received in that year under section 1029.8.116.9 or 1029.8.116.9.0.1 is less than the amount of the advance relating to the work premium, determined in respect of the individual for the year, the payments of the amount of that advance may be made or resume being made, according to the terms and conditions provided for in subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.9, subject to their being computed by subtracting the total of the payments received from the amount of that advance.

The Minister may not pay an increased amount of the advance relating to the work premium to an individual in a particular month in which a payment of the amount of the advance relating to the work premium in respect of which the first paragraph applies is made to the individual.

1029.8.116.9.1. If an individual applies to the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity for a taxation year, in prescribed form containing prescribed information, and if that Minister, after being satisfied that the conditions set out in subparagraphs b and c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.5.0.2 are met in respect of any of the individual's periods of transition to work that include an eligible month, notifies the Minister of Revenue, the latter Minister may pay in advance, according to the terms and conditions provided for in the second paragraph, an amount (in this subdivision referred to as the "amount of the advance relating to the supplement") equal to the amount that the individual considers to be the amount that the individual will be deemed to have paid to the Minister, under that first paragraph, on account of the individual's tax payable for a taxation year for which the application is made, if

(a) the individual is resident in Québec at the time of the application;

(b) the individual is not a person in respect of whom another individual is entitled, for the year, to an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of the other individual's tax payable, unless the individual is 18 years of age or over on the first day of the month of the application;

(c) at the time of the application, the individual is described in any of paragraphs a to d of section 1029.8.116.2;

(d) at the time of the application, the individual is performing the duties of an office or employment, or is carrying on a business, alone or as a partner actively engaged in the business; and

(e) the individual has agreed that the advance payments be made by direct deposit in a bank account held at a financial institution listed in Part I of Appendix I to Rule D4 – Institution Numbers and Clearing Agency/ Representative Arrangements of the Automated Clearing Settlement System Rules Manual, as amended from time to time, of the Canadian Payments Association.

The terms and conditions of payment of the amount of the advance relating to the supplement to which the first paragraph refers are as follows:

(a) for any eligible month that precedes the month in which the individual filed the application, the Minister shall pay to the individual, on or before the 15th day of the month that follows the month in which the application was filed, an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying $200 by the number of those eligible months; and

(b) for each of the other eligible months, the Minister shall pay to the individual an amount of $200 on or before the 15th day of the following month.

The Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity shall notify the Minister on becoming aware that the individual's period of transition to work has ended because the individual is receiving a last resort financial assistance benefit under Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1) or a financial assistance benefit under Chapter V of that Title II.

In addition, the individual shall notify the Minister with dispatch of any event that may affect the amount of the advance relating to the supplement.

1029.8.116.9.1.1. The Minister may require from any individual who makes an application for advance payments referred to in the first paragraph of any of sections 1029.8.116.9, 1029.8.116.9.0.1 and 1029.8.116.9.1 a document or information other than those provided for in that paragraph if the Minister considers the document or information necessary to evaluate the application.

1029.8.116.9.1.2. The Minister is not required to grant, for a particular taxation year, an application for advance payments referred to in the first paragraph of any of sections 1029.8.116.9, 1029.8.116.9.0.1 and 1029.8.116.9.1 if

(a) the individual, or the individual's spouse at the time of the application, received for a preceding taxation year a payment of the amount of the advance relating to the work premium, of an increased amount of the advance relating to the work premium or of the amount of the advance relating to the supplement and, at the time the application is processed, has not filed a fiscal return for the preceding year; and

(b) the application is processed after the filing-due date of the person referred to in paragraph a for the preceding year.

1029.8.116.9.1.3. The Minister may, at a particular time, cease to pay, or suspend the payment of, the amount of the advance relating to the work premium, an increased amount of the advance relating to the work premium or the amount of the advance relating to the supplement to an individual for a particular taxation year if

(a) the individual, or the individual's spouse at the time of the application for advance payments, for the particular year, that is referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.9, 1029.8.116.9.0.1 or 1029.8.116.9.1, as the case may be, received for a preceding taxation year a payment of any of those amounts and has not, as of the particular time, filed a fiscal return for the preceding year; and

(b) the particular time is subsequent to the filing-due date of the person referred to in paragraph a for the preceding year.

1029.8.116.9.1.4. The Minister may suspend the payment of, reduce or cease to pay the amount of the advance relating to the work premium, an increased amount of the advance relating to the work premium or the amount of the advance relating to the supplement if documents or information brought to the Minister's attention so warrant.

2011, c. 6, s. 203; 2017, c. 1, s. 324.

1029.8.116.9.2. No individual may be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister for a taxation year under section 1029.8.116.5 if the individual or the individual's eligible spouse for the year is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister for the year under section 1029.8.116.5.0.1.

2009, c. 15, s. 350.

1029.8.116.10. An eligible individual shall not be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8.116.5 to 1029.8.116.5.0.2, for a taxation year, if the eligible individual or the eligible individual's eligible spouse for the year is exempt from tax for the year under section 982 or 983 or under any of subparagraphs a to d and f of the first paragraph of section 96 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

1029.8.116.11. Where an eligible individual is the eligible spouse for a taxation year of another eligible individual, the total of the amounts that each of those individuals is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under section 1029.8.116.5 or 1029.8.116.5.0.1 may not exceed the amount that only one of those individuals would, but for this section, be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under that section.

Where those individuals cannot agree as to what portion of the amount each would, but for this section, be deemed to have paid to the Minister, the Minister may determine the portion of that amount for the year.

2005, c. 1, s. 267; 2009, c. 15, s. 352.

DIVISION II.17.2

SOLIDARITY CREDIT

2011, c. 1, s. 89.

§ 1. — Interpretation and general

2011, c. 1, s. 89.

1029.8.116.12. In this division,

"base year" relating to a particular payment period means the taxation year that ended on 31 December of the calendar year that precedes the beginning of that period;

"cohabiting spouse" of an individual at any time means the person who at that time is the individual's spouse and is not living separate and apart from the individual;

"eligible dwelling" of an eligible individual means a dwelling situated in Québec in which the individual ordinarily lives and that is the individual's principal place of residence, except

(a) a dwelling in low-rental housing within the meaning of article 1984 of the Civil Code;

(b) a dwelling situated in a facility in which a hospital centre, a residential and long-term care centre or a rehabilitation centre governed by the Act respecting the governance of the health and social services system (chapter G-1.021) or the Act respecting health services and social services for the Inuit and Naskapi (chapter S-4.2) is operated by a public institution or a private institution under agreement governed by either Act;

(c) a dwelling situated in a facility maintained by a hospital centre or a reception centre that is a public institution for the purposes of the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons (chapter S-5) or that entered into a contract or an agreement in accordance with section 176 or 177 of that Act;

(d) a dwelling situated in an immovable or residential facility where are offered the services of an intermediate resource or a family-type resource within the meaning of the Act respecting the governance of the health and social services system or the Act respecting health services and social services for the Inuit and Naskapi, or the services of a foster family within the meaning of the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons;

(e) a dwelling for which an amount is paid in discharge of rent under the National Housing Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. N-11);

(f) a room situated in the principal residence of the lessor, if less than three rooms are rented or offered for rent and if the room has neither a separate entrance from the outside nor sanitary facilities separate from those used by the lessor; and

(g) a room situated in a hotel establishment or rooming house, that is leased or subleased for a period of less than 60 consecutive days;

"eligible individual" in respect of a particular payment period means an individual who, at the end of the base year relating to that period,

(a) is either 18 years of age or over, or an emancipated minor, the spouse of another individual, or the father or mother of a child with whom the individual resides;

(b) is resident in Québec or, if the individual is the cohabiting spouse of a person who is deemed to be resident in Québec throughout that base year, other than a person who is exempt from tax for that year under any of subparagraphs a to d and f of the first paragraph of section 96 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002), was resident in Québec in any preceding taxation year;

(c) is, or whose cohabiting spouse is,

i. a Canadian citizen,

ii. a permanent resident within the meaning of subsection 1 of section 2 of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (S.C. 2001, c. 27),

iii. a temporary resident or a holder of a temporary resident permit, within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act, who was resident in Canada during the 18-month period preceding that time, or

iv. a protected person within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act; and

(d) is not an excluded individual;

"excluded individual" at the end of a base year means

(a) a person in respect of whom another individual has received, for the last month of the base year, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of the other individual's tax payable, except where the person attained 18 years of age in that month;

(b) a person confined to a prison or a similar institution at the end of the base year and who was so confined throughout one or more periods, totalling more than 183 days, included in that year; or

(c) a person who is exempt from tax for the base year under section 982 or 983 or any of subparagraphs a to d and f of the first paragraph of section 96 of the Tax Administration Act, or the cohabiting spouse of such a person at the end of that year;

"family income" of an individual for the base year relating to a particular payment period means, subject to the third paragraph of section 1029.8.116.15, the aggregate of the income of the individual for that base year and the income, for that year, of the individual's cohabiting spouse at the end of that year;

"health services and social services network facility" means any of the following immovables:

(a) a facility in which a hospital centre, a residential and long-term care centre or a rehabilitation centre governed by the Act respecting the governance of the health and social services system or the Act respecting health services and social services for the Inuit and Naskapi is operated by a public institution or a private institution under agreement governed by either Act;

(b) a facility maintained by a hospital centre or a reception centre that is a public or private institution for the purposes of the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons; and

(c) an immovable or residential facility where are offered the services of an intermediate resource or a family-type resource within the meaning of the Act respecting the governance of the health and social services system or the Act respecting health services and social services for the Inuit and Naskapi, or the services of a foster family within the meaning of the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons;

"northern village" means a municipality established in accordance with the Act respecting Northern villages and the Kativik Regional Government (chapter V-6.1);

"payment month" of a particular payment period means any of the months included in that period that are determined, in respect of an individual, in accordance with the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.26;

"payment period" means the period that begins on 1 July of a particular calendar year and ends on 30 June of the following calendar year.

For the purpose of applying this division to a particular month of the taxation year 2016 that precedes 1 July, the first paragraph, as it read in its application before that date, is to be read as follows:

(a) by replacing the definition of "base year" by the following definition:

""base year" relating to a particular month means the taxation year 2015;";

(b) by replacing the portion of the definition of "eligible individual" before paragraph a by the following:

““eligible individual” in respect of a particular month means an individual who, at the end of the base year relating to that month,”; and

(c) by replacing “at the beginning of the particular month” in the definition of “family income” by “at the end of that year”.

However, as regards an individual’s family income for the base year relating to any of the first six months of the year 2016, the following rules apply:

(a) for the purpose of determining that family income, the individual’s income and, if applicable, that of the individual’s cohabiting spouse at the end of the base year correspond to their respective incomes for the taxation year 2014;

(b) documents certifying the incomes that are filed for the taxation year 2014 are deemed to have been filed for the base year; and

(c) the first and second paragraphs of section 1029.8.116.15 and section 1029.8.116.19 are to be read as if any reference to the base year in those paragraphs and that section were a reference to the taxation year 2014.

1029.8.116.13. For the purposes of the definition of “cohabiting spouse” in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.12, the following rules must be taken into consideration:

(a) a person shall not be considered to be living separate and apart from an individual at any time unless the person was living separate and apart from the individual at that time, because of a breakdown of their marriage, for a period of at least 90 days that includes that time;

(b) where an individual would, but for this paragraph, have more than one cohabiting spouse at any time, the individual is deemed, at that time, to have only one cohabiting spouse and to be the cohabiting spouse of that person only; and

(c) where a person would, but for this paragraph, be the cohabiting spouse of more than one individual at any time, the Minister may designate which of the individuals is deemed to have that person as sole cohabiting spouse at that time and that person is deemed to be the cohabiting spouse at that time solely of the individual so designated.

1029.8.116.14. For the purposes of this division, a person who has been allowed, on a particular day, to be temporarily absent from a prison or similar institution to which the person has been confined is deemed to be confined to that prison or similar institution throughout that day.

2011, c. 1, s. 89.

1029.8.116.15. For the purposes of the definition of “family income” in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.12, the following rules apply:

(a) (subparagraph repealed);

(b) if an individual was not resident in Canada throughout a particular base year, the individual’s income for the year is deemed to be equal to the income that would be determined in respect of the individual for the year under this Part if the individual had been resident in Québec and in Canada throughout the year; and

(c) if an individual who was not resident in Québec on 31 December of a particular base year was resident in Canada throughout that year, the individual’s income for the year is deemed to be equal to the individual's income for that year for the purposes of Part I of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.));

(d) (subparagraph repealed).

If, in respect of a child, an individual receives for a month included in a particular payment period, or for a particular month preceding 1 July 2016, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable and the individual was not resident in Québec on 31 December of the base year relating to that payment period or to the particular month, as the case may be, for the purpose of determining for that base year the family income of the individual, the individual's income for the base year is, despite the first paragraph, the individual's income for that year for the purposes of Division II.11.2.

However, an individual's family income for the base year relating to a particular payment period, or to a particular month preceding 1 July 2016, is deemed to be equal to zero if, for the last month of that base year, the individual or the individual's cohabiting spouse at the end of that year is a recipient under a financial assistance program provided for in any of Chapters I, II, V and VI of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1) or Chapter III of Title II of that Act, as it read before being repealed.

2011, c. 1, s. 89.

1029.8.116.16. The amount that, subject to section 1029.8.116.17.1, is determined by the following formula is deemed, for a particular payment period, to be an overpayment of tax payable under this Part by an eligible individual in respect of that period, if the eligible individual makes an application to that effect in accordance with section 1029.8.116.18 and if the individual and, if applicable, the individual's cohabiting spouse at the end of the base year relating to that period file the document specified in section 1029.8.116.19 for that base year:

$$A + B + C - D.$$

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the aggregate of

i. $329,

ii. $329 if, at the end of the base year relating to the particular payment period, the eligible individual has a cohabiting spouse resident in Québec who ordinarily lives with the individual and, subject to the fourth paragraph, is not confined to a prison or a similar institution, and

iii. $156 if, throughout that base year, the eligible individual ordinarily lives in a self-contained domestic establishment in which no other person 18 years of age or over ordinarily lives;

(b) B is an amount equal to zero, unless, at the end of the base year relating to the particular payment period, the eligible individual, or the individual's cohabiting spouse with whom the individual ordinarily lives, owns, leases or subleases the individual's eligible dwelling and the information described in section 1029.8.116.19.1 has been provided, in which case B is the aggregate of

i. $677 if, at the end of that base year, the eligible individual owns, leases or subleases the eligible dwelling and, at that time, neither the individual's cohabiting spouse, nor another eligible individual who owns, leases or subleases the dwelling with the individual, ordinarily lives in the dwelling,

ii. if, at the end of that base year, the eligible individual is not referred to in subparagraph i,

(1) $821 where, at the end of that base year, the eligible individual lives in the eligible dwelling with the individual's cohabiting spouse and, at that time, no other eligible individual who owns, leases or subleases the dwelling ordinarily lives in the dwelling, or

(2) in any other case, the particular amount that is the quotient obtained by dividing $821 by the number of persons who, at the end of that base year, own, lease or sublease the eligible dwelling and ordinarily live in the dwelling, or twice the particular amount where, at that time, the eligible individual and the individual's cohabiting spouse are such persons,

iii. the product obtained by multiplying $144 by the number of persons each of whom is a child, other than a child referred to in section 1029.8.61.18.2, in respect of whom the eligible individual, or the person who at the end of that base year is the individual's cohabiting spouse with whom the individual ordinarily lives, has received, for the last month of that year, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of tax payable, and

iv. 50% of the product obtained by multiplying $144 by the number of persons each of whom is a child referred to in section 1029.8.61.18.2 in respect of whom the eligible individual, or the person who at the end of that base year is the individual's cohabiting spouse with whom the individual ordinarily lives, has received, for the last month of that year, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of tax payable;

(c) C is an amount equal to zero, unless, at the end of the base year relating to the particular payment period, the eligible individual ordinarily lives in the territory of a northern village in which the individual's principal place of residence is situated, in which case C is the aggregate of

i. $1,935,

ii. $1,935 if, at the end of that base year, the eligible individual has a cohabiting spouse:

(1) who ordinarily lives in that territory with the eligible individual,

(2) whose principal place of residence is situated in that territory, and

(3) who, subject to the fourth paragraph, is not confined to a prison or a similar institution,

iii. the product obtained by multiplying $418 by the number of persons each of whom is a child in respect of whom the following conditions are met at the end of that base year:

(1) the child is not referred to in section 1029.8.61.18.2,

(2) the child ordinarily lives in that territory in which the child's principal place of residence is situated, and

(3) the eligible individual or the individual's cohabiting spouse has received in relation to that child, for the last month of that year, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of tax payable, and

iv. 50% of the product obtained by multiplying $418 by the number of persons each of whom is a child in respect of whom the following conditions are met at the end of that base year:

(1) the child is referred to in section 1029.8.61.18.2,

(2) the child ordinarily lives in that territory in which the child's principal place of residence is situated, and

(3) the eligible individual or the individual's cohabiting spouse has received in relation to that child, for the last month of that year, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of tax payable; and

(d) D is the amount determined by the formula

$$E \times (F - G).$$

In the formula in subparagraph d of the second paragraph,

(a) E is

i. 3%, if B and C in the formula in the first paragraph have a value equal to zero in respect of the eligible individual for the particular payment period, or

ii. 6%, in any other case;

(b) F is the eligible individual's family income for the base year relating to the particular payment period; and

(c) G is an amount of $39,160.

For the purposes of this section, a person is deemed not to be confined to a prison or similar institution at the end of a base year if

(a) the total number of days in the year during which the person was confined to the prison or similar institution is less than or equal to 183; and

(b) at that time, the person could reasonably be expected not to be confined to the prison or similar institution throughout the following taxation year.

Where a child is born or adopted in the last month of the base year relating to a particular payment period, or to a particular month preceding 1 July 2016, the eligible individual in respect of that period or that month, or the individual's cohabiting spouse at the end of that base year, as the case may be, is deemed, for the purposes of subparagraphs b and c of the second paragraph, to have received, in relation to the child, for the last month of that base year, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of tax payable, if it is reasonable to consider that that person will receive such an amount in relation to the child for the first month following that year.

1029.8.116.17. If section 1029.8.116.16, as it read in its application before 1 January 2012, applies in respect of a particular month included in the taxation year 2011, it is to be read

(a) as if "1/12" in the formula in the first paragraph were replaced by "1/6";

(b) as if "$265" and "$128" wherever they appear in subparagraph a of the second paragraph were replaced by "$220" and "$125", respectively;

(c) as if "$515", "$625" and "$110" wherever they appear in subparagraph b of the second paragraph were replaced by "$75", "$100" and "$25", respectively; and

(d) as if "$790" and "$339" wherever they appear in subparagraph c of the second paragraph were replaced by "$775" and "$332", respectively.

For the purpose of applying this division to a particular month of the taxation year 2016 that precedes 1 July, section 1029.8.116.16, as it read in its application before that date, is to be read as if

(a) "described in the fifth paragraph" and "the individual's cohabiting spouse at the beginning of the particular month" in the portion of the first paragraph before the formula were replaced by "described in the seventh paragraph" and "the individual's cohabiting spouse at the end of the base year relating to the particular month", respectively;

(b) "at the beginning of the particular month" were replaced by "at the end of the base year relating to the particular month" in the following provisions of the second paragraph:

i. subparagraph ii of subparagraph a,

ii. the portion of subparagraph b before subparagraph i,

iii. subparagraphs i to iii of subparagraph b,

iv. the portion of subparagraph c before subparagraph i, and

v. the portion of each of subparagraphs ii, iii and iv of subparagraph c before subparagraph 1;

(c) "at the beginning of the particular month" and "no other eligible individual" in subparagraph iii of subparagraph a of the second paragraph were replaced by "throughout the base year relating to the particular month" and "no other person 18 years of age or over", respectively;

(d) "and the information described in section 1029.8.116.19.1 has been provided" were inserted after "the individual's eligible dwelling" in the portion of subparagraph b of the second paragraph before subparagraph i;

(e) "but owns, leases or subleases the eligible dwelling" in subparagraph iii of subparagraph b of the second paragraph were replaced by "but the individual or the individual's cohabiting spouse owns, leases or subleases the eligible dwelling";

(f) "at that time" and "receives, for the particular month" in each of subparagraphs iv and v of subparagraph b of the second paragraph were replaced by "at the end of the base year relating to the particular month" and "has received, for the last month of that year", respectively;

(g) "receives in relation to that child, for the particular month" in subparagraph 3 of each of subparagraphs iii and iv of subparagraph c of the second paragraph were replaced by "has received in relation to that child, for the last month of that year"; and

(h) subparagraph a of the fourth paragraph were replaced by the following subparagraph:

"(a) 2, if, at the end of the base year relating to the particular month, the eligible individual and the individual's cohabiting spouse with whom the individual ordinarily lives in the eligible dwelling are such owners, lessees or sublessees; and".

2011, c. 1, s. 89; 2015, c. 21, s. 488; 2015, c. 36, s. 131.

1029.8.116.17.1. The amount determined under section 1029.8.116.16 for a particular payment period in respect of an eligible individual may not be less than the amount that would be determined in respect of the eligible individual for that period if, in the formula in the first paragraph of that section, the amounts for B and C were each equal to zero.

1029.8.116.18. The application referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16 must be filed with the Minister no later than 31 December of the fourth year following the base year relating to the payment period in respect of which the application is made, by means of

(a) if the eligible individual is resident in Québec on 31 December of the base year, the prescribed form containing prescribed information which the individual encloses with the fiscal return the individual is required to file under section 1000 for that year, or would be required to file if the individual had tax payable for that year under this Part; or

(b) in any other case, the prescribed form containing prescribed information.

If, at the end of the base year relating to a particular payment period, or to a particular month preceding 1 July 2016, an eligible individual ordinarily lives with another eligible individual who is the individual's cohabiting spouse, the application of only one of them may be considered to be valid in respect of that period or that month, as the case may be.

The Minister may, at any time, extend the time for filing the application to which the first paragraph refers.

An application is considered validly made in accordance with this section only if the eligible individual and, if applicable, the individual's cohabiting spouse at the end of the base year concerned have filed the document required by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16 with the Minister.

For the purposes of this section, an application is deemed to be filed with the Minister, at a particular time, by an eligible individual for a payment period where the individual and, if applicable, the individual's cohabiting spouse at the end of the base year relating to that period filed, at the particular time, a fiscal return under section 1000 for that year and where, in that respect, the amount deemed to be an overpayment of the eligible individual's tax payable in respect of that period is determined by the formula in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16 as if the value of A did not include the amount specified in subparagraph iii of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of that section and the value of B and C were equal to zero.

1029.8.116.18.1. For the purposes of section 1029.8.116.16, an eligible individual is deemed to have validly made an application in accordance with section 1029.8.116.18 for a payment period if

(a) for the last month of the base year relating to that period, the eligible individual is a recipient under a financial assistance program provided for in any of Chapters I, II, V and VI of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1); and

(b) on 1 September of the year in which that period begins, the eligible individual had not filed a fiscal return under section 1000 for the base year in relation to that period.

The application referred to in the first paragraph is deemed to have been filed with the Minister on 1 September of the year in which the payment period begins.

1029.8.116.18.2. In respect of an application that an eligible individual is deemed to have validly made under section 1029.8.116.18.1 for a payment period, the following rules apply:

(a) section 1029.8.116.16 is to be read without reference to "and if the individual and, if applicable, the individual's cohabiting spouse at the end of the base year relating to that period file the document specified in section 1029.8.116.19 for that base year" in the portion before the formula in the first paragraph; and

(b) the amount that is deemed, for the payment period, to be an overpayment of the tax payable by the eligible individual is determined by the formula in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16 as if

i. the amount represented by A were equal to the amount specified in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16, unless the Minister holds, in respect of the eligible individual, the information necessary to determine the individual's eligibility for the amount specified in subparagraph ii or iii of that subparagraph a, as the case may be, and

ii. the amounts represented by B and C were each equal to zero.

2021, c. 14, s. 159.

1029.8.116.19. The document to which the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16 refers is

(a) if the individual is resident in Québec on 31 December of the base year, the fiscal return the individual is required to file under section 1000 for the year, or would be required to file if the individual had tax payable for the year under this Part;

(b) if the individual is not resident in Québec on 31 December of the base year but is resident in Canada throughout that year, the return of income the individual is required to file under Part I of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)) for that year or a statement of income for that year that the individual files by means of the prescribed form containing prescribed information; and

(c) in any other case, a statement of income for the base year that the individual files by means of the prescribed form containing prescribed information.

If, in respect of a child, an individual receives for a month included in a particular payment period, or for a particular month preceding 1 July 2016, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable and, for the base year relating to that payment period or to the particular month, as the case may be, the document that the individual is required to file is any of the documents specified in subparagraphs b and c of the first paragraph, the document is deemed to be filed by the individual if the corresponding document referred to in paragraph b or c of section 1029.8.61.23 has been sent to Retraite Québec.

1029.8.116.19.1. The information referred to in the portion of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16 before subparagraph i is

(a) where, at the end of the base year, the eligible individual or the individual's cohabiting spouse owns the individual's eligible dwelling, the roll number or the identification number shown on the account of property taxes relating to the dwelling for that base year or, in the absence of such an account of property taxes, the dwelling's identification number shown on the information return that the body having jurisdiction over the territory where the dwelling is situated is required to send to the eligible individual or the individual's cohabiting spouse under the regulations made under section 1086, and, if applicable, the number of persons who own it; or

(b) where, at the end of the base year, the eligible individual or the individual's cohabiting spouse leases or subleases the individual's eligible dwelling, the number identifying the dwelling as shown on the information return the owner of the immovable in which the dwelling is situated is required, under the regulations made in accordance with section 1086, to send the individual or the spouse and, if applicable, the number of persons who lease or sublease it.

1029.8.116.20. If, at the end of the base year relating to a particular payment period or to a particular month preceding 1 July 2016, an eligible individual is not the owner, lessee or sublessee of the individual's eligible dwelling and the particular person who is the owner, lessee or sublessee of the dwelling is, at that time, either confined to a prison or a similar institution, or living in a dwelling that is the individual's principal place of residence and that is in a health services and social services network facility, and was, immediately before the beginning of being confined in the prison or similar institution or living in the dwelling, as the case may be, the cohabiting spouse of the individual with whom the particular person ordinarily lived, the eligible individual rather than the particular person is, for the purposes of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16, deemed, at the end of the base year, to be the owner, lessee or sublessee, as applicable, of the dwelling.

However, the first paragraph does not apply if, at the end of the base year, the particular person is not the cohabiting spouse of the individual.

1029.8.116.21. If, at the end of the base year relating to a particular payment period or to a particular month preceding 1 July 2016, an eligible individual is not the owner, lessee or sublessee of the individual's eligible dwelling and one or more particular persons who are the owners of the dwelling at that time are children in respect of whom the individual received, for the last month of the base year, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable and who have not reached 18 years of age in that month, the eligible individual rather than each of the particular persons is, for the purposes of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16, deemed, at the end of the base year, to be the owner of the dwelling.

1029.8.116.23. (Repealed).

1029.8.116.24. (Repealed).

1029.8.116.25. The Minister shall determine the amount that an eligible individual is entitled to receive for a particular payment period in respect of the amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable and shall send the individual a notice of determination in that respect.

The amount determined under the first paragraph is revised, if applicable, for the payment period or the first six months of the year 2016, to subtract from that amount any amount deemed, because of the application of section 1029.8.116.26.3, not to be an overpayment of the eligible individual's tax payable and a new notice giving an account of that revision is sent by the Minister to the individual.

2011, c. 1, s. 89; 2015, c. 36, s. 137.

§ 3. — Payment

2011, c. 1, s. 89.

1029.8.116.26. The Minister shall pay to an eligible individual who is entitled to receive, for a particular payment period, the amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable, at the beginning of any of the payment months specified in the second paragraph, all or a fraction, as the case may be, of the amount determined in respect of the individual for that period under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.25.

The payment of the amount so determined is made as follows:

(a) if the amount is equal to or greater than $800, one-twelfth of the amount is paid within the first five days of each of the months of the particular payment period;

(b) if the amount is greater than $240 but less than $800, one-quarter of the amount is paid within the first five days of each of the months of July, October, January and April of that period; or

(c) in any other case, all of the amount is paid within the first five days of the month of July of that period.

Despite the first paragraph, the Minister is not required to pay to an individual an amount referred to in that paragraph if the individual has not filed a document in which the individual consents to have the payment be made by direct deposit in a bank account held by the individual at a financial institution listed in Part I of Appendix I to Rule D4 – Institution Numbers and Clearing Agency/Representative Arrangements of the Automated Clearing Settlement System Rules Manual, as amended from time to time, of the Canadian Payments Association.

1029.8.116.26.1. An eligible individual is not entitled to receive, for a particular payment period or for a particular month preceding 1 July 2016, an amount, in respect of an amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable from the payment month or the particular month that follows the month of the individual's death or the month in which the individual ceases to be resident in Québec.

Similarly, an eligible individual is not entitled to receive, for a particular payment period or for a particular month preceding 1 July 2016, an amount, in respect of an amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable, if the individual is confined to a prison or similar institution immediately before the beginning of the month in which the payment of the amount would otherwise be made.

1029.8.116.26.2. The Minister may pay to a person who is the cohabiting spouse of an eligible individual at the end of the base year relating to a particular payment period or relating to a particular month preceding 1 July 2016 an amount that the individual would have been entitled to receive, had it not been for the application of section 1029.8.116.26.1, in respect of an amount that, under section 1029.8.116.16, is deemed for that period or month to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable, if the person applies to the Minister to that effect on or before 31 December of the fourth year following that base year and is an eligible individual in respect of that period or month, and if none of the circumstances provided for in section 1029.8.116.26.1 applies to the person.

Despite the first paragraph, the person who is the cohabiting spouse of an eligible individual is not required to make the application referred to in that paragraph, where section 1029.8.116.26.1 applies in respect of the eligible individual because of the eligible individual's death.

The first paragraph does not apply to an amount that the eligible individual is not entitled to receive because the individual ceased to be resident in Québec.

The third paragraph of sections 1029.8.116.18 and 1029.8.116.26 apply to the first paragraph, with the necessary modifications.

1029.8.116.26.3. Every amount that an eligible individual is no longer entitled to receive for a particular payment period or for a paticular month preceding 1 July 2016 because of the application of section 1029.8.116.26.1, is deemed, despite section 1029.8.116.16, not to be an overpayment of the eligible individual's tax payable.

However, the first paragraph does not apply in respect of an amount that is paid in accordance with section 1029.8.116.26.2.

2015, c. 36, s. 139.

1029.8.116.27. In exceptional circumstances and if convinced that it is in the family's interest, the Minister may pay to a person who is the cohabiting spouse of an eligible individual at the end of the base year relating to a particular payment period or to a particular month preceding 1 July 2016 an amount that the individual is entitled to receive in respect of an amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable, if that person is also an eligible individual in respect of that period or particular month, as the case may be.

1029.8.116.28. The Minister may require that an individual who, for a particular payment period, applies for, or receives all or part of, the amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable provide the Minister with documents or information so that the Minister may ascertain whether the individual is entitled to receive that amount.

The Minister may suspend the payment of any amount in respect of the amount referred to in the first paragraph until the Minister has been provided with the required documents or information if the individual fails to provide the required documents or information before the expiry of 45 days after the date of the request.

Similarly, the Minister may suspend such payments for the duration of an inquiry on the individual's eligibility. The Minister shall conduct the inquiry diligently.

1029.8.116.29. Where the amount that is determined in respect of an eligible individual for a particular payment period in respect of the amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable is less than $2, the Minister is not bound to pay that amount or, where the eligible individual's application for the particular payment period is referred to in the fifth paragraph of section 1029.8.116.18, send a notice of determination in that respect, unless the eligible individual applies to the Minister to have the notice sent.

1029.8.116.29.1. If the Minister has not paid an amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the tax payable by an individual because the individual or, if section 1029.8.116.26.2 applies, the person who is the individual's cohabiting spouse has not consented to have payments be made by direct deposit or has withdrawn such consent and, at a particular time, the individual or the person, as the case may be, files the document to which the third paragraph of section 1029.8.116.26 refers, the Minister shall pay the amount to the individual or the person, as the case may be, within 45 days after that time.

However, such an amount is deemed, despite section 1029.8.116.16, not to be an overpayment of the tax payable by the individual if the individual or, if section 1029.8.116.26.2 applies, the person who is the individual's cohabiting spouse has not consented or again consented to have payments be made by direct deposit on or before 31 December of the fourth year following the base year relating to the particular payment period to which the amount relates.

The Minister may, at any time, extend the time provided for in the second paragraph for consenting to have payments be made by direct deposit.

2017, c. 1, s. 332.

2011, c. 1, s. 89.

1029.8.116.30. If an amount is refunded to an individual, or allocated to one of the individual's liabilities, in respect of an amount that, for a particular payment period, is deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable, interest is to be paid to the individual on the amount for the period ending on the day the overpayment is refunded or allocated and beginning on the day that is the latest of

(a) the sixth day of the payment month to which that amount relates;

(b) the 46th day following the day on which the application referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16 has been filed with the Minister for the payment period;

(b.1) in the case provided for in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.29.1, the 46th day following the day the individual consented or again consented to have payments be made by direct deposit;

(c) (subparagraph repealed);

(d) in the case of an additional amount determined for the payment period following a written application to amend a fiscal return filed under this Part for the base year relating to that period, the 46th day following the day on which the Minister received the application; and

(e) in the case of an additional amount determined for the payment period following the amendment of a return of income filed under Part I of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1, (5th Suppl.)) for the base year relating to that period or of an income statement filed by means of the prescribed form for that base year, the 46th day following the day on which the amendment has been brought to the attention of the Minister.

Similarly, if an amount is, in accordance with section 1029.8.116.26.2, refunded to a person who is the cohabiting spouse of an eligible individual at the end of the base year relating to a particular payment period or to a particular month preceding 1 July 2016, or allocated to one of the individual's liabilities, in respect of an amount that, for that payment period or for the particular month, as the case may be, is deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable for the taxation year to which it relates, interest is to be paid to the person on the amount for the period ending on the day the overpayment is refunded or allocated and beginning on the day that is the later of

(a) the sixth day of the payment month, determined in respect of the individual, or of the particular month, to which the amount relates;

(b) if the amount is an amount that the individual is no longer entitled to receive because of the application of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.26.1, the 46th day following the day on which the Minister received, in accordance with the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.26.2, the person's application for the payment of the amount;

(b.1) if the amount is an amount that the individual is no longer entitled to receive because of the application of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.26.1 as a consequence of the individual's death, the 46th day following the day on which the Minister was informed of the death or, if it is earlier, the 46th day following the day on which the Minister received the person's application under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.26.2 for the payment of the amount, even though the person is not required to make such an application;

(c) in the case provided for in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.29.1, the 46th day following the day the person consented or again consented to have payments be made by direct deposit; and

(d) in the case of an additional amount that would be referred to in subparagraph d or e of the first paragraph but for section 1029.8.116.26.1, the 46th day following the day to which that subparagraph refers in relation to that additional amount.

However, the Minister is not bound to pay the total of the amounts of interest determined, for a particular payment period, under the first paragraph in respect of an individual or under the second paragraph in respect of a person, if the amount is less than $1.

The rule of the third paragraph applies to the total of the amounts of interest determined in respect of a person under the second paragraph for the first six months of the year 2016 and, for that purpose, the aggregate of those months is deemed to be a payment period.

1029.8.116.30.1. Despite the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.30, no interest is payable to an individual on an amount refunded to the individual or allocated to one of the individual's liabilities, where the amount results from an application referred to in section 1029.8.116.18.1 and relates to the payment period beginning on 1 July 2019.

1029.8.116.31. The amount by which the amount that is paid to an individual in respect of the amount that, for a particular payment period, is deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable, exceeds the amount that should have been paid to the individual for that period, is deemed to be tax payable by the individual under this Part from the date of determination of that excess amount and bears interest from that date to the day of payment at the rate set under section 28 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

1029.8.116.32. If, for a particular payment period or for a particular month preceding 1 July 2016, the Minister has refunded to an individual, or allocated to one of the individual's liabilities, an amount exceeding that to which the individual was entitled in respect of the amount that, for that period or for that month, as the case may be, is deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable, the individual and the person who at the end of the base year relating to that period or to that particular month, as the case may be, is the individual's cohabiting spouse with whom the individual ordinarily lives are solidarily liable for the payment of the excess amount.

However, nothing in this section limits the liability of the individual or of that person under any other provision of this Act.

1029.8.116.33. The Minister may at any time assess the cohabiting spouse of an individual in respect of an amount payable under section 1029.8.116.32, and this Book applies, with the necessary modifications, to that assessment as if it had been made under Title II.

2011, c. 1, s. 89.

1029.8.116.34. If a person is a debtor under a fiscal law or about to become so, or is in debt to the State under an Act, other than a fiscal law, referred to in a regulation made under the second paragraph of section 31 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002), and the person is described in the second paragraph for a payment month (in this section referred to as the "particular month"), the Minister may not, despite that section 31, allocate to the payment of the debt of that person more than 50% of the amount to be paid to the person for the particular month in respect of the amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the person's tax payable.

The person referred to in the first paragraph is

(a) a recipient under a financial assistance program provided for in any of Chapters I, II, V and VI of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1) or in Chapter III of Title II of that Act, as it read before being repealed, if the person's status as a recipient under such a program has been brought to the attention of the Minister at least 21 days before the date provided for the payment of the amount for the particular month; or

(b) a person whose family income for the base year relating to the payment period that includes the particular month is equal to or less than $23,750, according to the last notice of determination sent to the person.

1029.8.116.35. Any contestation in respect of the accuracy of information that is communicated to the Minister by Retraite Québec in relation to an individual who receives an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable, to the person in respect of whom an individual receives the deemed amount or to the custody, shared or not, of that person, and that is used by the Minister for the purposes of this division, must be brought in accordance with sections 1029.8.61.39 to 1029.8.61.41.

Any contestation in respect of the accuracy of information that is communicated to the Minister by the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity in relation to an individual's eligibility to a financial assistance program provided for in any of Chapters I, II, V and VI of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1) or Chapter III of Title II of that Act, as it read before being repealed, and that is used by the Minister for the purposes of this division, must be brought in accordance with Chapter III of Title III of that Act.

DIVISION II.17.3

CREDIT ESTABLISHING A FISCAL SHIELD

2015, c. 36, s. 146.

§ 1. — Interpretation and general rules

2015, c. 36, s. 146.

1029.8.116.36. In this division,

"eligible spouse" of an individual for a taxation year means the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4;

"eligible work income" of an individual for a taxation year means the aggregate of

(a) subject to section 1029.8.116.37, the individual's income for the year from an office or employment computed under Chapters I and II of Title II of Book III;

(b) the amount by which the individual's income for the year from any business the individual carries on either alone or as a partner actively engaged in the business exceeds the aggregate of the individual's losses for the year from such businesses; and

(c) an amount included in computing the individual's income for the year under paragraph e.2 or e.6 of section 311 or paragraph h of section 312;

"family income" of an individual for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.67;

"total income" of an individual for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.116.1.

2015, c. 36, s. 146.

1029.8.116.37. For the purpose of computing an individual's eligible work income for a taxation year, no account is to be taken of an amount included in computing the individual's income for the year from a previous office or employment, if each of the amounts that make up the income is the value of a benefit received or enjoyed by the individual in the year because of that previous office or employment.

2015, c. 36, s. 146.

2015, c. 36, s. 146.

1029.8.116.38. An individual who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of a taxation year (in this section and section 1029.8.116.39 referred to as the "particular year") is deemed to have paid to the Minister on the individual's balance-due day for the particular year, on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year, provided that the individual and, if applicable, the individual's eligible spouse for the particular year file a fiscal return under section 1000 for the particular year, the amount determined by the formula

(A - B) + (C - D).

For the purposes of the first paragraph, an individual who was resident in Québec immediately before death is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the year of the individual's death.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the aggregate of the amount that the individual would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year under section 1029.8.116.5 or 1029.8.116.5.0.1 and, if applicable, the amount that the individual's eligible spouse for the particular year would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year under either of those sections if the individual's total income for the particular year or, as the case may be, that of the individual's eligible spouse for the particular year were the individual's modified total income for the particular year;

(b) B is the aggregate of the amount that the individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year under section 1029.8.116.5 or 1029.8.116.5.0.1 and, if applicable, the amount that the individual's eligible spouse for the particular year is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year under either of those sections;

(c) C is the aggregate of the amount that the individual would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year under section 1029.8.79 and, if applicable, the amount that the individual's eligible spouse for the particular year would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year under that section if the individual's family income for the particular year or, as the case may be, that of the individual's eligible spouse for the particular year were the individual's modified family income for the particular year; and

(d) D is the aggregate of the amount that the individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year under section 1029.8.79 and, if applicable, the amount that the individual's eligible spouse for the particular year is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year under that section.

For the purposes of subparagraph a of the third paragraph and section 1029.8.116.39, "modified total income" of an individual for a particular year means an amount equal to the amount by which the individual's total income for the particular year exceeds 75% of the lesser of

(a) the amount equal to the amount by which the individual's total income for the particular year exceeds the aggregate of the individual's income for the taxation year that precedes the particular year (in this section and section 1029.8.116.39 referred to as the "preceding year") and, if applicable, the income for the preceding year of the individual's eligible spouse for the particular year; and

(b) the amount equal to the total of

i. the lesser of $4,000 and the amount by which the individual's eligible work income for the particular year exceeds the individual's eligible work income for the preceding year, and

ii. the lesser of $4,000 and the amount by which the eligible work income for the particular year of the individual's eligible spouse for the particular year exceeds the eligible work income for the preceding year of the individual's eligible spouse for the particular year.

For the purposes of subparagraph c of the third paragraph, "modified family income" of an individual for a particular year means an amount equal to the amount by which the individual's family income for the particular year exceeds 75% of the lesser of

(a) the amount equal to the amount by which the individual's family income for the particular year exceeds the aggregate of the individual's income for the preceding year and, if applicable, the income for the preceding year of the individual's eligible spouse for the particular year; and

(b) the amount determined in accordance with subparagraph b of the fourth paragraph.

1029.8.116.39. For the purpose of determining an individual's modified total income for a particular year, the following rules apply:

(a) the individual's eligible work income for the particular year or, if applicable, that of the individual's eligible spouse for the particular year is deemed to be equal to zero if, at the end of 31 December of the particular year or, if the individual died in the particular year, immediately before the individual's death, the individual or the eligible spouse, as the case may be,

i. is not resident in Québec, or

ii. is confined to a prison or similar institution and has been so confined during the particular year for one or more periods totalling more than 183 days; and

(b) the individual's income for the preceding year or, if applicable, that of the individual's eligible spouse for the particular year is deemed to be equal to zero if, at the end of 31 December of the preceding year, the individual or the eligible spouse, as the case may be,

i. is not resident in Québec, or

ii. is confined to a prison or similar institution and has been so confined during the preceding year for one or more periods totalling more than 183 days.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, a person who has been allowed, in a taxation year, to be temporarily absent from a prison or similar institution to which the person has been confined is deemed to be confined to that prison or similar institution during each day of the year during which the person has been so allowed to be temporarily absent.

1029.8.116.40. If two individuals are eligible spouses of each other for a taxation year, the total of the amounts that each of those individuals is deemed to have paid to the Minister on account of tax payable for the year under the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.38 may not exceed the amount that only one of those individuals would, but for this section, be so deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year.

Where those individuals cannot agree as to what portion of the amount each would, but for this section, be so deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year, the Minister may determine the portion of that amount for the year.

2015, c. 36, s. 146; 2019, c. 14, s. 412.

DIVISION II.17.4

CREDIT GRANTING A ONE-TIME AMOUNT TO MITIGATE THE INCREASE IN THE COST OF LIVING

2022, c. 23, s. 122.

1029.8.116.41. In this division,

"eligible individual" means an individual, other than an excluded individual, who, at the end of 31 December 2021,

(a) is either 18 years of age or over, or an emancipated minor or a minor who is the father or mother of a child with whom the minor resides; and

(b) is, as the case may be,

i. a Canadian citizen,

ii. a permanent resident within the meaning of subsection 1 of section 2 of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (S.C. 2001, c. 27),

iii. a temporary resident or the holder of a temporary resident permit, within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act, who was resident in Canada during the 18-month period preceding that time, or

iv. a protected person within the meaning of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act;

"excluded individual" means either

(a) a person who is exempt from tax for the taxation year 2021 under section 982 or 983 or any of subparagraphs a to d and f of the first paragraph of section 96 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002); or

(b) a person who, at the end of the taxation year 2021, is confined to a prison or a similar institution and has been so confined in the year for one or more periods totalling more than 183 days.

For the purposes of paragraph b of the definition of "excluded individual" in the first paragraph, a person who has been allowed, in the taxation year 2021, to be temporarily absent from a prison or similar institution to which the person has been confined is deemed to be confined to that prison or similar institution during each day of the year during which the person has been so allowed to be temporarily absent.

1029.8.116.42. An eligible individual who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the taxation year 2021 and who files for that year a fiscal return under section 1000 is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the eligible individual's balance-due day for that year, on account of the eligible individual's tax payable under this Part for that year, an amount equal to the amount determined by the formula

A − B.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is an amount of $500; and

(b) B is 10% of the amount by which the eligible individual's income for the year exceeds $100,000.

2022, c. 23, s. 122.

1029.8.116.43. Despite section 1052, no interest is payable to an individual on an amount that is refunded to, or applied to another liability of, the individual and that arises because of section 1029.8.116.42.

2022, c. 23, s. 122.

DIVISION II.18

TAX CREDIT FOR MEDICAL EXPENSES

§ 1. — Interpretation

2000, c. 5, s. 271.

1029.8.117. In this division,

"eligible individual" for a taxation year means an individual, other than a trust,

(a) who is resident in Canada throughout the year or, if the individual dies in the year, throughout the portion of the year before the individual's death;

(b) who, before the end of the year, has attained the age of 18 years; and

(c) the aggregate of whose income for the year from all offices and employments, computed without reference to section 43, and from all businesses each of which is a business carried on by the individual either alone or as a partner actively engaged in the business, and of any amount included in computing the individual's income for the year under paragraph e.2 or e.6 of section 311, is at least $2,500;

"family income" of an individual for a taxation year means the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the income of the individual for the year and of the individual's eligible spouse for the year within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4.

For the purposes of paragraph c of the definition of "eligible individual" in the first paragraph, the income of an individual for a taxation year from a previous office or employment is deemed to be equal to zero, if each of the amounts that make up the income is the value of a benefit received or enjoyed by the individual in the year because of that office or employment.

2000, c. 5, s. 271.

1029.8.118. An eligible individual, for a taxation year, who is resident in Québec on 31 December of that year and who files a fiscal return under section 1000 for that year is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the eligible individual's balance-due day for that year, on account of the eligible individual's tax payable for the year under this Part, an amount equal to the amount determined by the formula

A − B.

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the lesser of $1,000 and the total of

i. the product obtained by multiplying by the factor specified in the third paragraph for the taxation year the amount determined in accordance with section 752.0.11 for the purpose of computing the tax payable under this Part by the eligible individual for the taxation year, and

ii. 25% of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount deductible under section 358.0.1 in computing the income of the eligible individual for the taxation year; and

(b) B is 5% of the amount by which the individual's family income for the year exceeds $18,600.

The factor to which the second paragraph refers is

(a) 25/22, where the taxation year is the year 2000;

(b) 25/20.75, where the taxation year is the year 2001;

(c) 25/20, where the taxation year is the year 2002 or a subsequent taxation year.

For the purposes of this section, an individual who was resident in Québec immediately before the individual's death is deemed to be resident in Québec on 31 December of the year in which the individual died.

For the purposes of the definition of "family income" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.117, where an individual was not resident in Canada throughout a taxation year, the individual's income for the year is deemed to be equal to the income that would be determined in respect of the individual for the year under this Part if the individual had been resident in Québec and in Canada throughout the year.

DIVISION II.19

CREDIT FOR TOP-LEVEL ATHLETES

2001, c. 51, s. 199.

1029.8.119. In this division, "eligible individual" means an individual who holds a certificate issued by the Minister of Education, Recreation and Sports for a taxation year, certifying that the individual is recognized as an athlete having achieved the "Excellence", "Élite" or "Relève" performance level, as the case may be, in respect of an individual sport or a team sport in which the individual participated in the year.

1029.8.120. An eligible individual resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of a taxation year who encloses the certificate issued to the eligible individual for the year by the Minister of Education, Recreation and Sports with the fiscal return the eligible individual is required to file under section 1000 for the year, or would be required to so file if tax were payable by the eligible individual for that year under this Part, is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the eligible individual's balance-due day for the year, on account of the eligible individual's tax payable for that taxation year under this Part, an amount equal to the aggregate of

(a) the amount obtained by multiplying $4,000 by the proportion that the number of days in the year that is specified in the certificate, for which the eligible individual is recognized as having achieved the "Excellence" performance level in respect of an individual sport in which the eligible individual participated in the year, is of the number of days in the taxation year;

(b) the amount obtained by multiplying $4,000 by the proportion that the number of days in the year that is specified in the certificate, for which the eligible individual is recognized as having achieved the "Élite" performance level in respect of an individual sport in which the eligible individual participated in the year, is of the number of days in the taxation year;

(c) the amount obtained by multiplying $2,000 by the proportion that the number of days in the year that is specified in the certificate, for which the eligible individual is recognized as having achieved the "Relève" performance level in respect of an individual sport in which the eligible individual participated in the year, is of the number of days in the taxation year;

(d) the amount obtained by multiplying $2,000 by the proportion that the number of days in the year that is specified in the certificate, for which the eligible individual is recognized as having achieved the "Excellence" performance level in respect of a team sport in which the eligible individual participated in the year, is of the number of days in the taxation year;

(e) the amount obtained by multiplying $2,000 by the proportion that the number of days in the year that is specified in the certificate, for which the eligible individual is recognized as having achieved the "Élite" performance level in respect of a team sport in which the eligible individual participated in the year, is of the number of days in the taxation year; and

(f) the amount obtained by multiplying $1,000 by the proportion that the number of days in the year that is specified in the certificate, for which the eligible individual is recognized as having achieved the "Relève" performance level in respect of a team sport in which the eligible individual participated in the year, is of the number of days in the taxation year.

Where, in respect of a particular day of a taxation year, an amount is deemed, because of any of subparagraphs a to f of the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister by an eligible individual for the year, no amount may be deemed to have been paid to the Minister by that eligible individual, for the year, in respect of that particular day because of any other of those subparagraphs.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, an eligible individual who was resident in Québec immediately before the eligible individual's death is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the year in which the eligible individual died, and no amount shall be deemed to have been paid under the first paragraph to the Minister by the eligible individual in respect of a day that is after the day of death.

2001, c. 51, s. 199; 2003, c. 19, s. 251; 2005, c. 28, s. 196.

1029.8.121. An eligible individual shall not be deemed to have paid to the Minister an amount under this division for a taxation year if the eligible individual is exempt from tax for the year under section 982 or 983 or under any of subparagraphs a to d and f of the first paragraph of section 96 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

DIVISION II.21

CREDIT TO PROMOTE EDUCATION SAVINGS

2009, c. 5, s. 480.

§ 1. — Interpretation

2009, c. 5, s. 480.

1029.8.126. In this division,

"amount of eligible contributions" in respect of a beneficiary under an education savings plan for a taxation year means the amount that is the aggregate of all contributions each of which is a contribution made to the plan in the year by or on behalf of a subscriber under the plan in respect of the beneficiary, provided that the contribution has not been withdrawn from the plan before the education savings incentive provided for in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.128 is paid for the year, and provided that the beneficiary is under 17 years of age at the end of the preceding year and, if the beneficiary is 16 or 17 years of age at the end of the year, that the beneficiary is an eligible beneficiary for the year;

"beneficiary" has the meaning assigned by section 890.15;

"brother" includes, without reference to section 1, a person who is the son of the spouse of the father or mother of the beneficiary;

"Canada learning bond" has the meaning assigned by subsection 1 of section 2 of the Canada Education Savings Act (S.C. 2004, c. 26);

"CES grant" has the meaning assigned by subsection 1 of section 2 of the Canada Education Savings Act;

"CLB account" has the meaning assigned by section 1 of the Canada Education Savings Regulations (SOR/2005-151) made under the Canada Education Savings Act;

"cohabiting spouse" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.61.8;

"designated provincial program" has the meaning assigned by section 890.15;

"education savings incentive account" of a registered education savings plan means an account that includes any amount received by a trust governed by the plan on account of an education savings incentive under section 1029.8.128;

"education savings incentive agreement" means the agreement described in section 1029.8.140;

"education savings plan" has the meaning assigned by section 890.15;

"educational assistance payment" has the meaning assigned by section 890.15;

"eligible beneficiary" for a taxation year means a beneficiary who is 16 or 17 years of age at the end of the year and in respect of whom a CES grant has been paid for the year in relation to a contribution made in the year in respect of the beneficiary to a registered education savings plan;

"grant account" has the meaning assigned by section 1 of the Canada Education Savings Regulations;

"increase amount" for a taxation year means, provided that an education savings plan has only one beneficiary or, if it has more than one, that those beneficiaries are brothers and sisters,

(a) if the applicable family income for the year in respect of the beneficiary is not more than $37,500, the lesser of $50 and 10% of the amount of eligible contributions in respect of the beneficiary under the plan for the year;

(b) if the applicable family income for the year in respect of the beneficiary is greater than $37,500 but does not exceed $75,000, the lesser of $25 and 5% of the amount of eligible contributions in respect of the beneficiary under the plan for the year; and

(c) in any other case, zero;

"promoter" has the meaning assigned by paragraph b of the definition of "education savings plan" in section 890.15;

"sister" includes, without reference to section 1, a person who is the daughter of the spouse of the father or mother of the beneficiary;

"subscriber" has the meaning assigned by section 890.15;

"trust" has the meaning assigned by section 890.15.

For the purposes of the definition of "amount of eligible contributions" in the first paragraph, a contribution made to an education savings plan in a taxation year does not include the portion of the contribution that—if added to the other contributions made or deemed to be made, for the purposes of Part X.4 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)), to registered education savings plans in respect of the beneficiary, in the year or a preceding taxation year—exceeds the RESP lifetime limit for the year, within the meaning assigned by subsection 1 of section 204.9 of that Act.

1029.8.127. For the purposes of the definition of "increase amount" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.126, the applicable family income for a particular taxation year in respect of a beneficiary means

(a) if only one individual is entitled to receive, for the first month of the year that follows the particular taxation year and in respect of the beneficiary, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable, the aggregate of the individual's income for the taxation year that precedes the particular taxation year and the income, for that preceding taxation year, of the individual's cohabiting spouse at the beginning of that month; or

(b) if more than one individual is entitled to receive, for the first month of the year that follows the particular taxation year and in respect of the beneficiary, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable, one half of the aggregate of the income of each of those individuals for the taxation year that precedes the particular taxation year and the income, for that preceding taxation year, of each cohabiting spouse, at the beginning of that month, of each of those individuals.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the applicable family income for a particular taxation year in respect of a beneficiary is deemed to be equal to zero if the beneficiary is lodged or sheltered pursuant to the law at the beginning of the first month of the year that follows the particular taxation year.

2009, c. 5, s. 480.

2009, c. 5, s. 480.

1029.8.128. Subject to sections 1029.8.131 to 1029.8.134, if a trust governed by an education savings plan is resident in Québec at the end of a taxation year and the conditions set out in the second paragraph are met, an amount equal to the aggregate of the following amounts is deemed, at the end of the year and in respect of each beneficiary under the plan who is resident in Québec at the end of the year, to be an overpayment of the trust's tax payable for that year under this Part (in this division referred to as the "education savings incentive"):

(a) the least of

i. 10% of the amount of eligible contributions in respect of the beneficiary for the year,

ii. $500, and

iii. the unused CES grant room for the beneficiary for the year; and

(b) the increase amount in respect of the beneficiary for the year.

The conditions to which the first paragraph refers are as follows:

(a) the trustee under the plan files with the Minister an application for the education savings incentive in the manner described in the education savings incentive agreement

i. on or before the 90th day that follows the end of the year,

ii. within such longer period as the Minister considers reasonable but not after 31 December of the third year that follows the year for which the education savings incentive is claimed, or

iii. on or before 31 March 2012, if the application is made in respect of contributions deemed to have been made in the year in respect of the beneficiary as a consequence of the application of section 1029.8.136.1; and

(b) at the time the application referred to in subparagraph a is made,

i. the plan is a registered education savings plan,

ii. the education savings incentive agreement is applicable in respect of the plan, and

iii. if the plan contract was entered into before 1 January 1999, it meets, at the end of the year, the registering conditions set out in section 895 that apply to a plan whose contract is entered into after 31 December 1998.

1029.8.129. For the purposes of sections 1029.8.128 and 1029.8.136.1, a trust governed by an education savings plan is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of a taxation year if, at the end of that year, it is resident in Canada outside Québec and has as a trustee a person who has an establishment in Québec and if, at the time the application for the education savings incentive is made, the education savings incentive agreement that is applicable in respect of the plan provides that

(a) the agreement is subject in all respects to the legislation in force in Québec;

(b) the trustee undertakes to pay to the Minister, on or before the 90th day of the year that follows the year for which it is payable, any tax that the trust is required to pay under Part III.15.1;

(c) the trustee recognizes the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Québec for any matter relating to this division, the agreement or a tax payable by the trust under Part III.15.1; and

(d) any judgment rendered against the trustee in relation to a matter referred to in paragraph c may be executed against the trustee at an establishment of the trustee situated in Québec.

1029.8.130. For the purposes of subparagraph iii of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.128, the unused CES grant room for a beneficiary for a particular taxation year is equal to the amount determined by the formula

($250 × A) - B.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the number of years included in the period that begins on 1 January 2007 and ends on 31 December of the particular taxation year and in which the beneficiary is alive, other than any year at the end of which the beneficiary was not resident in Québec; and

(b) B is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is equal to the amount that would be the amount of the education savings incentive in respect of the beneficiary for any taxation year preceding the particular taxation year if the increase amount were nil.

1029.8.131. The amount that a trust may receive on account of an education savings incentive under section 1029.8.128 in respect of a beneficiary for a particular taxation year may not be greater than the amount by which $3,600 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that a particular trust received on account of an education savings incentive under that section in respect of the beneficiary for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the particular trust is required to pay under Part III.15.1 in respect of the beneficiary for the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year.

1029.8.132. If, for a taxation year, more than one trust may receive an amount on account of an education savings incentive under section 1029.8.128 in respect of the same beneficiary, the aggregate of all amounts that may be so received by the trusts for the year under that section may not exceed the amount (in sections 1029.8.133 and 1029.8.134 referred to as the "maximum amount of the education savings incentive for the year in respect of the beneficiary") that could have been received for the year under section 1029.8.128 by a single trust if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount of eligible contributions in respect of that beneficiary for the year had been made to a single registered education savings plan having only that beneficiary.

1029.8.133. If, for a taxation year, more than one trust files with the Minister an application for the education savings incentive, in the manner described in the education savings incentive agreement, within the time provided for in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.128, in respect of the same beneficiary, and the aggregate of all amounts each of which would be, but for section 1029.8.132, an amount that each of the trusts may receive on account of an education savings incentive under section 1029.8.128 in respect of that beneficiary, exceeds the maximum amount of the education savings incentive for the year in respect of the beneficiary, the following rules apply:

(a) the portion of the maximum amount of the education savings incentive for the year in respect of the beneficiary that is attributable, if applicable, to the increase amount must be apportioned among each of the trusts that is entitled to receive an amount deemed to be an overpayment of its tax payable on account of the increase amount in respect of the beneficiary for the year in the proportion that, for each trust, the amount of eligible contributions, up to $500, made for the year in respect of the beneficiary to the registered education savings plan that governs the trust is of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount of eligible contributions, up to $500, made for the year in respect of the beneficiary to each of the registered education savings plans that governs each of those trusts; and

(b) the portion of the maximum amount of the education savings incentive for the year in respect of the beneficiary that exceeds the increase amount must be apportioned among each of the trusts in the proportion that, for each trust, the amount of the eligible contributions made for the year in respect of the beneficiary to the registered education savings plan that governs the trust is of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount of eligible contributions made for the year in respect of the beneficiary to each of the registered education savings plans that governs each of those trusts.

1029.8.134. If, for a taxation year, a trust files with the Minister an application for the education savings incentive, in the manner described in the education savings incentive agreement, within the time provided for in subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.128, in respect of a beneficiary under more than one registered education savings plan, the amount that the trust may receive for the year on account of an education savings incentive under that section in respect of that beneficiary may not exceed the aggregate of

(a) if the trust would be entitled to receive, but for this section, an amount deemed to be an overpayment of its tax payable on account of the increase amount, the amount by which the portion of the maximum amount of the education savings incentive for the year in respect of the beneficiary that is attributable, if applicable, to the increase amount, exceeds any amount that another trust having the same beneficiary has received, for the year and in respect of the beneficiary, and that is deemed to be an overpayment of tax payable on account of the increase amount; and

(b) the amount by which the portion of the maximum amount of the education savings incentive for the year in respect of the beneficiary that would have been received in respect of the beneficiary by the trust if the increase amount had been nil, exceeds any portion of the maximum amount of the education savings incentive for the year in respect of the beneficiary that would have been received in respect of the beneficiary by any other trust having the same beneficiary if the increase amount had been nil.

1029.8.135. If, in a taxation year, a beneficiary under a registered education savings plan (in this section referred to as the "former beneficiary") is replaced by another beneficiary (in this section referred to as the "new beneficiary") a contribution made to the plan in the year by or on behalf of a subscriber under the plan for the former beneficiary is considered to have been made for the new beneficiary if the replacement made in the year is a recognized replacement.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, a recognized replacement means the replacement, at a particular time, of a former beneficiary under a registered education savings plan by a new beneficiary, if

(a) the new beneficiary had not reached 21 years of age before the particular time and was, at that time, the brother or sister of the former beneficiary; or

(b) both beneficiaries were, at the particular time, connected by blood relationship or adoption to an original subscriber under the plan and neither of them had reached 21 years of age before the particular time.

1029.8.136. If, in a taxation year, a property held by a trust governed by a registered education savings plan (in this section and section 1029.8.137 referred to as the "transferor plan") is the subject of an authorized transfer to a trust governed by another registered education savings plan (in this section and section 1029.8.137 referred to as the "transferee plan"), the contributions that were made in the year to the transferor plan before the time of the authorized transfer are deemed to have been made in the year to the transferee plan by or on behalf of the subscriber under the plan in respect of a particular beneficiary, up to

(a) if the authorized transfer concerned the aggregate of the properties held by the trust governed by the transferor plan and the particular beneficiary is the only beneficiary under the transferee plan at the time of the transfer, the aggregate of the contributions made in the year and before the time of the transfer, in respect of any beneficiary under the transferor plan;

(b) if the authorized transfer concerned the aggregate of the properties held by the trust governed by the transferor plan and the transferee plan has more than one beneficiary at the time of the transfer, the particular beneficiary's share, established according to the apportionment provided for in the transferee plan, of the aggregate of the contributions made in the year and before the time of the transfer, in respect of any beneficiary under the transferor plan;

(c) if the authorized transfer concerned a portion of the properties held by the trust governed by the transferor plan, other than properties included in a CLB account or in any account of assistance paid under a designated provincial program that meets the requirement of section 1029.8.137.1, and if the particular beneficiary is the only beneficiary under the transferee plan at the time of the transfer, the proportion of the aggregate of the contributions made in the year and before the time of the transfer, in respect of any beneficiary under the transferor plan, that, at the time of the transfer, the value of the properties transferred is of the value of all the properties held by the trust governed by the transferor plan, other than those included in a CLB account or in any account of assistance paid under a designated provincial program that meets the requirement of section 1029.8.137.1; and

(d) if the authorized transfer concerned a portion of the properties held by the trust governed by the transferor plan, other than properties included in a CLB account or in any account of assistance paid under a designated provincial program that meets the requirement of section 1029.8.137.1, and if the transferee plan has more than one beneficiary at the time of the transfer, the particular beneficiary's share, established according to the apportionment provided for in the transferee plan, in the proportion of the aggregate of the contributions made in the year and before the time of the transfer, in respect of any beneficiary under the transferor plan, that, at the time of the transfer, the value of the properties transferred is of the value of all the properties held by the trust governed by the transferor plan, other than those included in a CLB account or in any account of assistance paid under a designated provincial program that meets the requirement of section 1029.8.137.1.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, an authorized transfer means the transfer of properties held by a trust governed by a transferor plan to a trust governed by a transferee plan, if i. was, immediately before the transfer, a beneficiary under the transferor plan, or

(a) a beneficiary under the transferee plan

ii. was, immediately before the transfer, the brother or sister of a beneficiary under the transferor plan and

(1) the transferee plan is a plan that allows more than one beneficiary at any one time, or

(2) where subparagraph 1 does not apply, the beneficiary under the transferee plan had not attained 21 years of age at the time the plan was entered into;

(b) at the time of the transfer

i. the transferee plan had only one beneficiary or, if it had more than one, every beneficiary was a brother or sister of every other beneficiary, or

ii. no amount deemed to be an overpayment of its tax payable on account of the increase amount had been received by the trust governed by the transferor plan;

(c) the transferee plan meets the conditions for registration set out in section 895 that apply to education savings plans whose contract was entered into after 31 December 1998; and

(d) an education savings incentive agreement is applicable at the time of the transfer in respect of the transferee plan.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the contributions made in a year to the transferor plan do not include the contributions that were withdrawn from the plan in the year.

1029.8.136.1. If, in the calendar year 2011, all the property held by a trust that is resident in Québec and that is governed by a registered education savings plan (in this section referred to as the "transferor plan") is the subject of an authorized transfer, within the meaning of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.136, to a trust governed by another registered education savings plan (in this section referred to as the "transferee plan"), and if the conditions of the second paragraph are met, the contributions that were made in a taxation year preceding the year 2011 and after 20 February 2007 to the transferor plan are deemed to have been made in that taxation year to the transferee plan by or on behalf of the subscriber under the plan in respect of a particular beneficiary, up to

(a) if the particular beneficiary is the only beneficiary under the transferee plan at the time of the authorized transfer, the aggregate of the contributions made in that taxation year and after 20 February 2007, in respect of any beneficiary under the transferor plan; and

(b) if the transferee plan has more than one beneficiary at the time of the authorized transfer, the particular beneficiary's share, established according to the apportionment provided for in the transferee plan, of the aggregate of the contributions made in that taxation year and after 20 February 2007, in respect of any beneficiary under the transferor plan.

The conditions to which the first paragraph refers are as follows:

(a) the trustee under the transferor plan did not file with the Minister, before 1 January 2011, an application for the education savings incentive in the manner described in an education savings incentive agreement in respect of a beneficiary under a registered education savings plan in respect of which the trustee under the transferor plan acted as a trustee; and

(b) an education savings incentive agreement has been entered into between the Minister and the trustee under the transferee plan before 1 January 2011 and the trustee under the transferee plan filed with the Minister, before that date, at least one application for the education savings incentive in the manner described in the agreement in respect of a beneficiary under a registered education savings plan in respect of which the trustee under the transferee plan acted as a trustee.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the contributions made in a year to the transferor plan do not include the contributions that have been withdrawn from the plan in the year.

1029.8.137. If, in accordance with section 1029.8.136, there is an authorized transfer of properties held by a trust governed by a transferor plan to a trust governed by a transferee plan, the amount determined under the second paragraph must be, at the time of the authorized transfer, debited from the education savings incentive account of the transferor plan and credited to the education savings incentive account of the transferee plan by the trustee under each of those plans.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to

(a) if the authorized transfer is described in subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.136, the aggregate of the amounts held, at the time of the authorized transfer, in the trust governed by the transferor plan on account of the education savings incentive; and

(b) if the authorized transfer is described in subparagraph c or d of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.136, the proportion of the aggregate of the amounts held, at the time of the authorized transfer, in the trust governed by the transferor plan on account of the education savings incentive, that, at the time of the transfer, the value of the properties transferred is of the value of all the properties held by the trust governed by the transferor plan, other than those included in a CLB account or in any account of assistance paid under a designated provincial program that meets the requirement of section 1029.8.137.1.

If an amount is credited to the education savings incentive account of the transferee plan under this section, the amount is deemed to have been paid into the trust governed by the transferee plan.

1029.8.137.1. The requirement to which sections 1029.8.136, 1029.8.137 and 1029.8.138 refer in relation to a designated provincial program is the requirement that the legislation or regulations applicable to the program not contain any provision requiring that assistance paid under the program in a registered education savings plan be transferred proportionally, where only a portion of the properties held by the trust governed by the registered education savings plan is transferred to a trust governed by another registered education savings plan.

2021, c. 18, s. 138.

1029.8.138. If, in a taxation year, a portion of the properties held by a trust governed by a registered education savings plan (in this section referred to as the "transferor plan"), other than properties included in a CLB account or in any account of assistance paid under a designated provincial program that meets the requirement of section 1029.8.137.1, is paid into another trust governed by another registered education savings plan by means of a transfer, the proportion of the aggregate of the contributions made in the year and before the time of the transfer, in respect of any beneficiary under the transferor plan, that, at the time of the transfer, the value of the properties transferred is of the value of all the properties held by the trust governed by the transferor plan, other than those included in a CLB account or in any account of assistance paid under a designated provincial program that meets the requirement of section 1029.8.137.1, is deemed to have been withdrawn from the transferor plan before the end of the year.

1029.8.139. In a particular taxation year, the withdrawal of contributions made to a registered education savings plan is deemed to be made in the following order:

(a) contributions made in the particular taxation year, in the order in which they were made;

(b) contributions that were made in a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year and that gave rise to entitlement to the education savings incentive, in the order in which they were made;

(c) contributions that were made after 20 February 2007 in a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year and that did not give rise to entitlement to the education savings incentive, in the order in which they were made; and

(d) contributions made before 21 February 2007.

2009, c. 5, s. 480; 2021, c. 18, s. 140.

§ 3. — Administrative provisions

2009, c. 5, s. 480.

1029.8.140. An education savings incentive agreement means a written agreement that must be entered into between the Minister and the trustee under a trust governed by an education savings plan and under which the trustee undertakes, in particular,

(a) to provide the Minister with the information that the Minister requires for the purposes of this division, including the name, address and social insurance number of each beneficiary;

(b) to maintain a record containing the information enabling the determination of any amount relating to the education savings incentive;

(c) to keep an education savings incentive account and to credit to that account any amount received by the trust on account of the education savings incentive;

(d) to allow the Minister access to any information relating to contributions made to the plan after 20 February 2007, withdrawals of contributions, transfers and replacements of beneficiaries made after that date;

(e) in the case of a transfer described in section 1029.8.136, to send to the trustee under the trust governed by the transferee plan the amount of the contributions made to the transferor plan in respect of each of the beneficiaries for the period beginning, as the case may be, on 21 February 2007 if the year of the transfer is the year 2007 or on 1 January of the year of the transfer and ending on the date of the transfer;

(f) to make no apportionment of the education savings incentive and the income arising from it otherwise than among the beneficiaries under the plan;

(g) to make no distribution of the properties held by the trust governed by the plan, unless, immediately after the distribution, the fair market value of those properties is equal to or greater than the aggregate of the balances of the education savings incentive account, the grant account, the CLB account and any account of assistance paid under a designated provincial program, or unless the distribution consists in making an educational assistance payment to a beneficiary under the plan and all of the educational assistance payment is attributable to the education savings incentive, a CES grant and the Canada learning bond;

(h) to report to the Minister the portion of an educational assistance payment made under the plan that is attributable to the education savings incentive; and

(i) to charge no fees relating to the plan in respect of the balance of the education savings incentive account.

2009, c. 5, s. 480; 2011, c. 6, s. 205.

1029.8.141. For the purposes of an education savings incentive agreement, the Minister shall enter into a written agreement with the promoter of an education savings plan under which the promoter undertakes, in particular,

(a) to provide the plan's trustee with the information that the Minister requires for the purposes of this division, in particular, the name, address, date of birth, confirmation of the place of residence and social insurance number of each beneficiary under the plan; and

(b) to charge no fees relating to the plan in respect of the balance of the education savings incentive account.

2009, c. 5, s. 480.

1029.8.142. If an education savings incentive has been received by a trust under section 1029.8.128, the portion of an educational assistance payment made to a beneficiary under the registered education savings plan that is attributable to the education savings incentive is equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount determined by the formula

$A \times B/C$; and

(b) the amount by which $3,600 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount determined under this section in respect of an educational assistance payment made previously by the promoter to the beneficiary under the plan.

In the formula in subparagraph a of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount of the educational assistance payment made to the beneficiary under the plan;

(b) B is the balance of the plan's education savings incentive account immediately before the educational assistance payment is made;

(c) C is the amount determined, in respect of the educational assistance payment, under subsection 2.2 of section 10 of the Canada Education Savings Regulations made under the Canada Education Savings Act (S.C. 2004, c. 26);

(d) (subparagraph repealed);

(e) (subparagraph repealed);

(f) (subparagraph repealed);

(g) (subparagraph repealed);

(h) (subparagraph repealed).

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the portion of an educational assistance payment made to a beneficiary under the plan that is attributable to the education savings incentive is deemed to be equal to zero if

(a) the beneficiary under the plan is not resident in Québec at the time the educational assistance payment is made; or

(b) in the case where the plan allows more than one beneficiary at any one time, the beneficiary under the plan became a beneficiary under the plan after reaching 21 years of age, unless, before reaching that age, the beneficiary was a beneficiary under another registered education savings plan that allowed more than one beneficiary at any one time.

1029.8.143. If a portion of an educational assistance payment made to a beneficiary under a registered education savings plan is attributable to an education savings incentive, the plan's trustee shall, at the time the educational assistance payment is made, debit the amount determined under section 1029.8.142 from the plan's education savings incentive account.

2009, c. 5, s. 480.

1029.8.144. The trustee under a registered education savings plan shall, at the time of the payment by a trust of a tax under Part III.15.1 in relation to the plan, debit the amount of the payment from the plan's education savings incentive account.

2009, c. 5, s. 480.

1029.8.144.1. Despite any inconsistent provision of any law, a trust governed by a registered education savings plan (in this section referred to as the "transferor plan") may, in a taxation year, assign the right to apply for an amount payable to it under this division for a preceding taxation year to a trust governed by another registered education savings plan (in this section referred to as the "transferee plan"), if the assignment is made in the course of an authorized transfer, within the meaning of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.136, of the aggregate of the properties held by the trust governed by the transferor plan to the trust governed by the transferee plan.

The assignment is not binding on the State and, as a result, the following rules apply:

(a) the Minister retains discretion to pay or not to pay the amount to the trust governed by the transferee plan;

(b) the assignment does not create any liability of the State to the trust governed by the transferee plan; and

(c) the rights of the trust governed by the transferee plan are subject to the rights conferred on the State by section 31 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) and any right to compensation of which the State may avail itself.

2010, c. 5, s. 167; 2011, c. 1, s. 94; 2010, c. 31, s. 175.

1029.8.145. Unless otherwise provided in this division, this Book applies, with the necessary modifications, to the application referred to in the second paragraph of section 1029.8.128 as if it were a fiscal return filed under Title I.

DIVISION II.23

CREDIT FOR ECO-FRIENDLY RENOVATION

2015, c. 21, s. 492.

§ 1. — Interpretation and general rules

2015, c. 21, s. 492.

1029.8.153. In this division,

"eco-friendly renovation agreement" entered into in respect of an individual's eligible dwelling means an agreement under which a qualified contractor undertakes to carry out recognized eco-friendly renovation work in respect of the individual's eligible dwelling that is entered into after 7 October 2013 and before 1 November 2014 between the qualified contractor and

(a) the individual;

(b) a person who, at the time the agreement is entered into, is either the individual's spouse, or another individual who is the owner of the eligible dwelling or the other individual's spouse; or

(c) where the individual's eligible dwelling is an apartment in an immovable under divided co-ownership, the syndicate of co-owners of the immovable;

"eco-friendly renovation expenditure" means an expenditure that is attributable to the carrying out of recognized eco-friendly renovation work provided for in an eco-friendly renovation agreement and that is

(a) the cost of a service supplied to carry out the work by a qualified contractor who is a party to the eco-friendly renovation agreement, including the amount of any goods and services tax and Québec sales tax applicable;

(b) the cost of a movable property that enters into the carrying out of the recognized eco-friendly renovation work provided for in the eco-friendly renovation agreement, including the amount of any goods and services tax and Québec sales tax applicable, provided that the movable property was acquired from the qualified contractor or a merchant holding a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1) and that it complies, where required, with the energy or environmental standards to which the definition of "recognized eco-friendly renovation work" refers in respect of the property; or

(c) the cost of a permit necessary to carry out the recognized eco-friendly renovation work, including the cost of studies carried out to obtain such a permit;

"eligible dwelling" of an individual means a dwelling that is located in Québec, other than an excluded dwelling, of which construction is completed before 1 January 2013 and of which the individual is the owner when the eco-friendly renovation expenditures are incurred and that is

(a) an individual house that is detached, semi-detached or a row house, a permanently installed manufactured home or mobile home, an apartment in an immovable under divided co-ownership or a unit in a multiple-unit residential complex that constitutes, at that time, the individual's principal place of residence; or

(b) is a cottage suitable for year-round occupancy that is normally occupied by the individual;

"excluded dwelling" means a dwelling that, before recognized eco-friendly renovation work was carried out, was the subject of

(a) a notice of expropriation or a notice of intention to expropriate;

(b) a reserve for public purposes; or

(c) a prior notice of the exercise of a hypothecary right registered in the registry office or any other procedure calling the individual's right of ownership of the dwelling into question;

“qualified contractor” in relation to an eco-friendly renovation agreement entered into in respect of an individual’s eligible dwelling means a person or a partnership meeting the following conditions:

(a) at the time the agreement is entered into, the person or partnership has an establishment in Québec and, if the person is an individual, is neither the owner of the eligible dwelling nor the spouse of one of the owners of the eligible dwelling; and

(b) at the time the recognized eco-friendly renovation work is being carried out and if required for the carrying out of such work, the person or partnership is the holder of the appropriate licence issued by the Régie du bâtiment du Québec, the Corporation des maîtres électriciens du Québec or the Corporation des maîtres mécaniciens en tuyauterie du Québec and, if applicable, has paid the licence security payable under the Building Act (chapter B-1.1);

“qualified expenditure” of an individual, in relation to an eligible dwelling of the individual, for a particular taxation year that is either the taxation year 2013 or the taxation year 2014 means the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an eco-friendly renovation expenditure of the individual that is paid, in relation to the eligible dwelling, by the individual or the individual’s legal representative, by a person who is the individual’s spouse at the time the payment is made, or by any other individual who, at the time the expenditure is incurred, owns the eligible dwelling, in either of the following periods:

(a) after 7 October 2013 and before 1 January 2014, where the particular year is the taxation year 2013; or

(b) after 31 December 2013 and before 1 May 2015, where the particular year is the taxation year 2014;

“recognized eco-friendly renovation work” in respect of a dwelling means work carried out in compliance with the rules set out in any Act, regulation or by-law of Canada, Québec or a municipality of Québec and the policies that apply according to the type of intervention, including necessary site restoration work, that is

(a) work relating to the insulation of the roof, exterior walls, foundations and exposed floors provided the work is made using insulation materials that do not contain urea formaldehyde or that have low levels of volatile organic compounds certified "GREENGUARD" or “EcoLogo environmental choice”, and that the insulation materials satisfy the following standards:

i. in the case of the insulation of the attic, the insulating value achieved must be R-41 (RSI 7.22) or more,

ii. in the case of the insulation of a flat roof or of a cathedral ceiling, the insulating value achieved must be R-28 (RSI 4.93) or more,

iii. in the case of the insulation of the exterior walls, the increase in the insulating value must be R-3.8 (RSI 0.67) or more,

iv. in the case of the insulation of the basement, including the header area,

(1) for the walls, the insulating value achieved must be R-17 (RSI 3.0) or more, and

(2) for the header area, the insulating value achieved must be R-20 (RSI 3.52) or more,

v. in the case of the insulation of the crawl space, including the header area,

(1) for the exterior walls, including the header area, the insulating value achieved must be R-17 (RSI 3.0) or more, and

(2) for the floor area above the crawl space, the insulating value achieved must be R-24 (RSI 4.23) or more, and

vi. in the case of the insulation of exposed floors, the insulating value achieved must be R-29.5 (RSI 5.20) or more;

(b) work relating to the water-proof sealing of the foundations or the air sealing of the envelope of the dwelling or of a portion of it, such as the walls, doors, windows and skylights;

(c) work relating to the replacement or addition of doors, windows and skylights with "ENERGY STAR" qualified models for the climate zone where the dwelling is located;

(d) work relating to the replacement of a propane or natural gas heating system appliance with one of the following appliances using the same fuel:

i. an "ENERGY STAR" qualified furnace with an Annual Fuel Utilization Efficiency (AFUE) of at least 95% and equipped with a brushless direct current (DC) motor,

ii. a zero-clearance furnace with an AFUE of at least 95%, if the dwelling is a mobile home, and

iii. an "ENERGY STAR" qualified boiler with an AFUE of at least 95%;

(e) work relating to the replacement of an indoor wood-burning system or appliance with one of the following:

i. an indoor wood-burning system or appliance that complies with the CSA-B415.1-10 standard or the 40 CFR Part 60 Subpart AAA standard of the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) of the United States on wood-burning appliances; if the appliance is not tested by the EPA, it must be certified in accordance with the CSA-B415.1-10 standard,

ii. an indoor pellet-burning appliance, including stoves, furnaces and boilers that burn wood, corn, grain or cherry pits, and

iii. an indoor masonry heater;

(f) work relating to the replacement of a solid fuel-fired outdoor boiler with an outdoor wood-burning heating system that complies with the CAN/CSA-B415.1 standard or the Outdoor Wood-fired Hydronic Heater program of the EPA (OWHH Method 28, phase 1 or 2), provided the capacity of the new system is equal to or smaller than the capacity of the one it replaces;

(g) work relating to the installation of an "ENERGY STAR" qualified central split or ductless mini-split air-source heat pump including an outdoor unit and at least one indoor head per floor, excluding the basement, that has an Air-Conditioning, Heating, and Refrigeration Institute (AHRI) number and satisfies the following minimum requirements:

i. it has a Seasonal Energy Efficiency Ratio (SEER) of 14.5,

ii. it has an Energy Efficiency Ratio (EER) of 12.0,

iii. it has a Heating Seasonal Performance Factor (HSPF) of 7.1 for region V, and

iv. it has a heating capacity of 12,000 Btu/h;

(h) work relating to the installation of a geothermal system certified by the Canadian GeoExchange Coalition (CGC); for that purpose, only a CGC-certified business may install the heat pump in accordance with the CAN/CSA-C448 standard and the CGC must certify the system after installation;

(i) work relating to the replacement of the heat pump of an existing geothermal system; for that purpose, only a business certified by the CGC may install the heat pump in accordance with the CAN/CSA-C448 standard;

(j) work relating to the replacement of an oil heating system with a system using propane or natural gas or the replacement of a propane heating system with a system using natural gas, provided the new system uses one of the following heating appliances:

i. an "ENERGY STAR" qualified furnace with an Annual Fuel Utilization Efficiency (AFUE) of at least 95% and equipped with a brushless direct current (DC) motor,

ii. a zero-clearance furnace with an AFUE of at least 95%, if the dwelling is a mobile home, and

iii. an "ENERGY STAR" qualified boiler with an AFUE of at least 95%;

(k) work relating to the replacement of an oil, propane or natural gas heating system with a system using electricity;

(l) work relating to the replacement of an oil, propane, natural gas or electricity heating system with a qualified integrated mechanical system (IMS) that is CSA-P.10-07 certified and achieves the premium performance rating;

(m) work relating to the installation of solar thermal panels that comply with the CAN/CSA-F378 standard;

(n) work relating to the installation of combined photovoltaic-thermal solar panels that comply with the CAN/CSA-C61215-08 and CAN/CSA-F378 standards;

(o) work relating to the replacement of a window air-conditioning unit or central air-conditioning system with an "ENERGY STAR" qualified central split or ductless mini-split air-conditioning system including an outdoor unit and at least one indoor head per floor, excluding the basement, that has an Air-Conditioning, Heating, and Refrigeration Institute (AHRI) number and satisfies the minimum requirements specified in subparagraphs i and ii of paragraph g;

(p) work relating to the replacement of a central air-conditioning system with an "ENERGY STAR" qualified central split or ductless mini-split air-source heat pump including an outdoor unit and at least one indoor head per floor, excluding the basement, that has an Air-Conditioning, Heating, and Refrigeration Institute (AHRI) number and satisfies the minimum requirements specified in subparagraphs i to iv of paragraph g;

(q) work relating to the replacement of a propane or natural gas water heater with one of the following appliances using the same fuel:

i. an "ENERGY STAR" qualified instantaneous water heater that has an energy factor (EF) of at least 0.82,

ii. an "ENERGY STAR" qualified instantaneous condensing water heater that has an EF of at least 0.90, or

iii. a condensing storage-type water heater that has a thermal efficiency of 95% or more;

(r) work relating to the replacement of an oil-fired water heater with a water heater using propane or natural gas or the replacement of a propane-fired water heater with a water heater using natural gas, provided the new water heater is described in any of subparagraphs i to iii of paragraph q;

(s) work relating to the replacement of an oil, propane or natural gas water heater with a water heater using electricity;

(t) work relating to the installation of a solar hot water system that provides a minimum energy contribution of seven gigajoules per year and is CAN/CSA-F379 certified, provided such system appears on the CanmetENERGY Performance Directory of Solar Domestic Hot Water Systems;

(u) work relating to the installation of a drain-water heat recovery system;

(v) work relating to the installation of solar thermal panels that comply with the CAN/CSA-F378 standard;

(w) work relating to the installation of combined photovoltaic-thermal solar panels that comply with the CAN/CSA-C61215-08 and CAN/CSA-F378 standards;

(x) work relating to the installation of an "ENERGY STAR" qualified heat recovery ventilator or energy-recovery ventilator certified by the Home Ventilating Institute (HVI) and listed in Section 3 of its product directory (Certified Home Ventilating Products Directory) if, where the installation makes it possible to replace an older ventilator, the new appliance is more efficient than the older one;

(y) work relating to the installation of an underground rain water recovery tank;

(z) work relating to the construction, renovation, modification or rebuilding of a system for the discharge, collection and disposal of waste water, toilet effluents or grey water in accordance with the Regulation respecting waste water disposal systems for isolated dwellings(chapter Q-2, r. 22);

(z.1) work relating to the restoration of a buffer strip in accordance with the requirements of the Protection Policy for Lakeshores, Riverbanks, Littoral Zones and Floodplains (chapter Q-2, r. 35);

(z.2) work relating to the decontamination of fuel oil-contaminated soil in accordance with the requirements of the Soil Protection and Contaminated Sites Rehabilitation Policy of the Ministère du Développement durable, de l'Environnement, de la Faune et des Parcs, available on that department's website;

(z.3) work relating to the construction of a green roof; for that purpose, a green roof is a roof that is fully or partially covered with vegetation and that includes a waterproof membrane, a drainage membrane and a growth medium to protect the roof and host vegetation;

(z.4) work relating to the installation of photovoltaic solar panels that comply with the CAN/CSA-C61215-08 standard; or (z.5) work relating to the installation of a domestic wind turbine that complies with the CAN/CSA-C61400-2-08 standard.

2015, c. 21, s. 492.

1029.8.154. For the purposes of paragraph b of the definition of "eco-friendly renovation expenditure" in section 1029.8.153, a merchant is deemed to hold a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1) if the merchant is not a registrant for the purposes of that Act because the merchant is a small supplier within the meaning of section 1 of that Act.

2015, c. 21, s. 492.

1029.8.155. For the purposes of the definition of "eligible dwelling" in section 1029.8.153, the following rules apply:

(a) a dwelling that is a manufactured home or a mobile home is considered to be permanently installed only if

i. it is set on permanent foundations,

ii. it is served by a waterworks and sewer system, by an artesian well and a septic tank, or by a combination of these as necessary for the supply of drinking water and the drainage of waste water, and

iii. it is permanently connected to an electrical distribution system; and

(b) a dwelling is deemed to include the land subjacent to it and such portion of any contiguous land as can reasonably be regarded as contributing to the use and enjoyment of the dwelling.

2015, c. 21, s. 492.

1029.8.156. For the purpose of determining an individual's qualified expenditure for a taxation year in relation to an eligible dwelling, the following rules apply:

(a) the amount of the qualified expenditure is to be reduced by

i. an amount that is deductible in computing an individual's income from a business or property for the year or any other taxation year,

ii. an amount that is included in the capital cost of depreciable property,

iii. an amount that is taken into account in computing

(1) an amount that is deducted in computing the tax payable by an individual for the year or any other taxation year under this Part, or

(2) an amount that is deemed to have been paid to the Minister on account of the tax payable by an individual for the year or any other taxation year under this Part, except an amount that is deemed, under this division, to have been paid to the Minister on account of the tax payable by an individual under this Part, and

iv. an amount that is government assistance, non-government assistance, a reimbursement or any other form of assistance, including an indemnity paid under an insurance contract, attributable to the expenditure, that the individual or any other person (other than the person acting as a qualified contractor under the eco-friendly renovation agreement under which the expenditure is incurred) has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive in any taxation year, except to the extent that the amount has reduced the individual's qualified expenditure for a preceding taxation year;

(b) an amount paid under an eco-friendly renovation agreement in relation to recognized eco-friendly renovation work carried on by a qualified contractor may be included in the individual's qualified expenditure for a taxation year only if the qualified contractor certifies, in the prescribed form containing prescribed information, that the property used in carrying out the work complies, where required, with the energy or environmental standards to which the definition of "recognized eco-friendly renovation work" in section 1029.8.153 refers in respect of the property;

(c) where an eco-friendly renovation agreement entered into with a qualified contractor does not deal only with recognized eco-friendly renovation work, an amount paid under the agreement may be included in the individual's qualified expenditure for a taxation year only if the qualified contractor gives the individual a written statement showing the breakdown of the cost of the property and services the qualified contractor supplied among the various types of work carried on under the agreement; and

(d) where the individual's eligible dwelling is an apartment in an immovable under divided co-ownership, the individual's qualified expenditure for a taxation year is deemed to include the individual's share of an expenditure paid by the syndicate of co-owners if

i. it is reasonable to consider that the expenditure would be an eco-friendly renovation expenditure of an individual if the syndicate of co-owners were an individual and the immovable were an eligible dwelling of the individual, and

ii. the syndicate of co-owners notifies the individual in writing of the amount of the individual's share of the expenditure.

2015, c. 21, s. 492.

An individual, other than a trust, who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the taxation year 2014 is deemed to have paid to the Minister on the individual's balance-due day for the individual's taxation year 2014 on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for that year, if the individual files with the Minister, together with the fiscal return the individual is required to file for the year, or would be required to so file if tax were payable for the year, the prescribed form containing prescribed information, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount obtained by multiplying 20% by the amount by which the individual's qualified expenditure for the taxation year 2014, in relation to an eligible dwelling of the individual, exceeds the amount by which $2,500 exceeds the individual's qualified expenditure, in relation to the eligible dwelling, for the taxation year 2013; and

(b) the amount by which $10,000 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the individual, or a person together with whom the individual owns the eligible dwelling, is deemed to have paid to the Minister under the first paragraph, in relation to the eligible dwelling.

For the purposes of this section, an individual who dies or ceases to be resident in Canada in a taxation year is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of that year if the individual was resident in Québec immediately before dying or, as the case may be, on the last day the individual was resident in Canada.

1029.8.158. If, for a taxation year, more than one individual could, but for this section, be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.157 in relation to an eligible dwelling that the individuals jointly own, the following rules apply:

(a) if those individuals became owners of the eligible dwelling at the same time, the total of the amounts that each of those individuals may be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year in relation to the eligible dwelling may not exceed the particular amount that only one of those individuals could be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year in relation to the eligible dwelling if that individual were the sole owner of the eligible dwelling; and

(b) in any other case, the total of the amounts that each of those individuals may be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year in relation to the eligible dwelling may not exceed the particular amount that the individual from among those individuals who holds the oldest title of ownership or, if more than one of them holds such a title, one of those individuals, could be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year in relation to the eligible dwelling if that individual were the sole owner of the eligible dwelling.

If the individuals cannot agree as to what portion of the particular amount each would, but for this section, be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.157, the Minister may determine what portion of that amount is deemed to be paid to the Minister by each individual under that section.

DIVISION II.24

CREDIT FOR HOME RENOVATION

2015, c. 21, s. 492.

§ 1. — Interpretation and general rules

2015, c. 21, s. 492.

1029.8.159. In this division,

"eligible home" of an individual means a dwelling that is located in Québec, other than an excluded home, of which construction is completed before 1 January 2014 and of which the individual is the owner when the home renovation expenditures are incurred, that constitutes, at that time, the individual's principal place of residence and that is

(a) an individual house that is detached, semi-detached or a row house;

(b) a permanently installed manufactured home or mobile home;

(c) an apartment in an immovable under divided co-ownership; or

(d) a unit in a residential duplex or triplex;

"excluded home" means a dwelling that, before the beginning of the carrying out of recognized home renovation work, was the subject of

(a) a notice of expropriation or a notice of intention to expropriate;

(b) a reserve for public purposes; or

(c) a prior notice of the exercise of a hypothecary right registered in the registry office or any other procedure calling the individual's right of ownership of the dwelling into question;

"home renovation agreement" entered into in respect of an individual's eligible home means an agreement under which a qualified contractor undertakes to carry out recognized home renovation work in respect of the individual's eligible home that is entered into after 24 April 2014 and before 1 July 2015 between the qualified contractor and

(a) the individual; or

"home renovation expenditure" means an expenditure that is attributable to recognized home renovation work carried out by a qualified contractor pursuant to a home renovation agreement and that is

(a) the cost of a service supplied by the qualified contractor, including the amount of any goods and services tax and Québec sales tax applicable;

(b) the cost of a movable property, other than a household appliance, an electrical appliance or an electronic entertainment device, that is used in the carrying out of recognized home renovation work provided for in the home renovation agreement and described in any of subparagraphs i to xxvii of paragraph a of the definition of "recognized home renovation work", including the amount of any goods and services tax and Québec sales tax applicable, provided that the movable property was acquired, after 24 April 2014, from the qualified contractor or a merchant holding a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1) and that, after the carrying out of the work, the property

i. has been incorporated into the eligible home, has lost its individuality and ensures the utility of the home, or

ii. has been permanently physically attached or joined to the eligible home, without losing its individuality or being incorporated into the eligible home, and ensures the utility of the home;

(c) the cost of a movable property that is used in the carrying out of recognized home renovation work provided for in the home renovation agreement and described in any of paragraphs a, c to z.2, z.4 and z.5 of the definition of "recognized eco-friendly renovation work" in section 1029.8.153, including the amount of any goods and services tax and Québec sales tax applicable, provided that the movable property was acquired, after 24 April 2014, from the qualified contractor or a merchant holding a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax; or

(d) the cost of a permit necessary to carry out the recognized home renovation work, including the cost of studies carried out to obtain such a permit;

"intergenerational home" means a single-family home in which an independent dwelling, allowing more than one generation of the same family to live together while preserving their privacy, is built;

"qualified contractor" in relation to a home renovation agreement entered into in respect of an individual's eligible home means a person or a partnership meeting the following conditions:

(a) at the time the agreement is entered into, the person or partnership has an establishment in Québec and, if the person is an individual, is neither the owner of the eligible home nor the spouse of one of the owners of the eligible home; and

(b) at the time the recognized home renovation work provided for in the agreement is being carried out and if required for the carrying out of such work, the person or partnership is the holder of the appropriate licence issued by the Régie du bâtiment du Québec, the Corporation des maîtres électriciens du Québec or the Corporation des maîtres mécaniciens en tuyauterie du Québec and, if applicable, has paid the licence security payable under the Building Act (chapter B-1.1);

"qualified expenditure" of an individual, in relation to an eligible home of the individual, for a particular taxation year that is either the taxation year 2014 or the taxation year 2015 means the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a home renovation expenditure of the individual that is paid in the particular year, in relation to the eligible home, by the individual or the individual's legal representative, by a person who is the individual's spouse at the time the payment is made, or by any other individual who, at the time the expenditure is incurred, owns the eligible home;

"recognized home renovation work" in respect of an eligible home means work, other than work excluded because of section 1029.8.162, that is carried out in compliance with the rules set out in any Act, regulation or by-law of Canada, Québec or a municipality of Québec and the policies that apply according to the type of intervention, including necessary site restoration work, that is,

(a) in respect of a home renovation agreement entered into before 1 November 2014, work relating to

i. the renovation of one or more rooms in the home,

ii. the division of rooms,

iii. the finishing of a basement, attic or an integrated garage or garage adjoining the home,

iv. the adaptation of the interior of the home to the needs of a handicapped person or a person suffering a loss of independence,

v. the replacement of the plumbing or electrical system,

vi. the installation or replacement of a lighting system,

vii. the refurbishing of floors,

viii. the replacement of floor coverings,

ix. the replacement of doors that do not give access to the exterior of the dwelling,

x. the modification of the covering of interior walls and ceilings, xi. the replacement, building or modification of an interior stairway,

xii. the installation of permanently fixed blinds and shutters, xiii. the installation of an alarm, security or home automation system,

xiv. the expansion of the living space of the home, including work relating to the envelope and mechanical systems of the additions to the home, if the property that is used in the carrying out of the work complies, where required, with the energy or environmental standards to which any of paragraphs a and c to x of the definition of "recognized eco-friendly renovation work" in section 1029.8.153 refers in respect of the property,

xv. the conversion of a single-dwelling home into an intergenerational home, including work relating to the envelope and mechanical systems of the additions to the home, if the property that is used in the carrying out of the work complies, where required, with the energy or environmental standards to which any of paragraphs a and c to x of the definition of "recognized eco-friendly renovation work" in section 1029.8.153 refers in respect of the property,

xvi. the replacement of weeping tiles, sanitary drain, fall pipe or foundation drain, xvii. the repair of the foundation, xviii. the waterproofing of the foundation,

xix. the air sealing of the envelope of the home or a portion of it,

xx. the pressure cleaning of the exterior siding,

xxi. the replacement of the exterior siding,

xxii. the painting of the envelope of the home,

xxiii. the replacement of swing shutters, xxiv. the replacement of soffits and fascia,

xxv. the replacement of the roofing and eavestroughs, xxvi. the repair of a chimney, or xxvii. the replacement of a garage door for a garage integrated into or adjoining the home; or

(b) in respect of a home renovation agreement entered into after 31 October 2014, work described in any of subparagraphs i to xxvii of paragraph a and work described in any of paragraphs a, c to z.2, z.4 and z.5 of the definition of "recognized eco-friendly renovation work" in section 1029.8.153.

2015, c. 21, s. 492.

1029.8.160. For the purposes of paragraphs b and c of the definition of "home renovation expenditure" in section 1029.8.159, a merchant is deemed to hold a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1) if the merchant is not a registrant for the purposes of that Act because the merchant is a small supplier within the meaning of section 1 of that Act.

1029.8.161. For the purposes of the definition of "eligible home" in section 1029.8.159, the following rules apply:

(a) a dwelling that is a manufactured home or a mobile home is considered to be permanently installed only if

i. it is set on permanent foundations,

ii. it is served by a waterworks and sewer system, by an artesian well and a septic tank, or by a combination of these as necessary for the supply of drinking water and the drainage of waste water, and

iii. it is permanently connected to an electrical distribution system;

(b) a dwelling includes the land subjacent to it and such portion of any contiguous land as can reasonably be regarded as contributing to the use and enjoyment of the dwelling;

(c) a dwelling does not include a structure adjoining or accessory to the dwelling, other than a garage or carport if

i. the garage or carport shares, in whole or in part, a wall with the dwelling, or

ii. the roof of the garage or carport is connected to the dwelling; and

(d) a dwelling that is an apartment in an immovable under divided co-ownership includes only the portion of the apartment that consists of a private portion as well as the partitions or walls that are not part of the foundations and main walls of the immovable and that separate a private portion from a common portion or from another private portion.

2015, c. 21, s. 492.

1029.8.162. In respect of a home renovation agreement entered into before 1 November 2014, the following work is excluded:

(a) work consisting exclusively of annual, periodic or ongoing maintenance or repair work;

(b) work whose sole purpose is to refurbish any part of a dwelling following breakage, malfunction or loss;

(c) work relating to the envelope of the dwelling that is attributable to the insulation of the roof, exterior walls, foundations and exposed floors of the dwelling or to the replacement or addition of doors, windows or skylights, other than a garage door for a garage integrated into or adjoining the dwelling or work described in subparagraph xiv or xv of paragraph a of the definition of "recognized home renovation work" in section 1029.8.159;

(d) work relating to the mechanical systems of the dwelling, such as the heating system, air conditioning system, water heating system and ventilation system, other than work described in subparagraph xiv or xv of paragraph a of the definition of "recognized home renovation work" in section 1029.8.159; and

(e) work relating to the installation of solar panels.

In respect of a home renovation agreement entered into after 31 October 2014, work described in subparagraphs a and b of the first paragraph is excluded.

2015, c. 21, s. 492.

1029.8.163. For the purpose of determining an individual's qualified expenditure for a taxation year in relation to an eligible home, the following rules apply:

(a) an amount paid under a home renovation agreement, in relation to recognized home renovation work, may not be included in the individual's qualified expenditure for a taxation year if it is

i. an amount incurred to acquire property used by the individual before the acquisition under a contract of lease,

ii. an amount that is deductible in computing an individual's income from a business or property for the year or any other taxation year,

iii. an amount that is included in the capital cost of depreciable property,

iv. an amount that is taken into account in computing

(1) an amount that is deducted in computing the tax payable by an individual for the year or any other taxation year under this Part, or

(2) an amount that is deemed to have been paid to the Minister on account of the tax payable by an individual for the year or any other taxation year under this Part, except an amount that is deemed, under this division, to have been paid to the Minister on account of the tax payable by an individual under this Part,

v. an amount used to finance the cost of recognized home renovation work, or

vi. an amount attributable to property or services supplied by a person with whom the individual or any of the other owners of the eligible home is not dealing at arm's length, unless the person holds a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1);

(b) the individual's qualified expenditure must be reduced by the amount of any government assistance, non-government assistance, reimbursement or other form of assistance, including an indemnity paid under an insurance contract, attributable to the expenditure, that the individual or any other person (other than the person acting as a qualified contractor under the home renovation agreement under which the expenditure is incurred) has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive in any taxation year, except to the extent that the amount has reduced the individual's qualified expenditure for a preceding taxation year;

(c) an amount paid under a home renovation agreement may be included in the individual's qualified expenditure only if the qualified contractor carrying out the recognized home renovation work certifies, in the prescribed form referred to in the first or second paragraph of section 1029.8.164, that the property used in carrying out the work complies, where required, with the energy or environmental standards to which the definition of "recognized eco-friendly renovation work" in section 1029.8.153 refers in respect of the property; and

(d) where a home renovation agreement entered into with a qualified contractor does not deal only with recognized home renovation work, an amount paid under the agreement may be included in the individual's qualified expenditure only if the qualified contractor gives the individual a written statement showing the breakdown of the cost of the property and services the qualified contractor supplied among the various types of work carried on under the agreement.

2015, c. 21, s. 492.

2015, c. 21, s. 492.

An individual, other than a trust, who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the taxation year 2015 is deemed to have paid to the Minister on the individual's balance-due day for the individual's taxation year 2015 on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for that year, if the individual files with the Minister, together with the fiscal return the individual is required to file for the year, or would be required to so file if tax were payable for the year, the prescribed form containing prescribed information, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount obtained by multiplying 20% by the amount by which the individual's qualified expenditure for the taxation year 2015, in relation to an eligible home of the individual, exceeds the amount by which $3,000 exceeds the individual's qualified expenditure, in relation to the eligible home, for the taxation year 2014; and

(b) the amount by which $2,500 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the individual, or a person together with whom the individual owns the eligible home, is deemed to have paid to the Minister under the first paragraph, in relation to the eligible home.

For the purposes of this section, an individual who dies or ceases to be resident in Canada in a taxation year is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of that year if the individual was resident in Québec immediately before dying or, as the case may be, on the last day the individual was resident in Canada.

1029.8.165. For the purpose of determining the amount that an individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under section 1029.8.164 in relation to an eligible home of the individual, for any period between 24 April 2014 and 1 July 2015 throughout which the individual owns an intergenerational home that is the individual's principal place of residence, each independent dwelling built in the home is deemed to be a separate eligible home of the individual, if the individual so elects in the prescribed form referred to in the first or second paragraph of section 1029.8.164.

Where more than one individual owns an intergenerational home and the home is the principal place of residence of those individuals, the election referred to in the first paragraph and made by one of them is deemed to have been made by each of the other owners.

For the purposes of this section, an intergenerational home includes a home in respect of which work described in subparagraph xv of paragraph a of the definition of "recognized home renovation work" in section 1029.8.159 is carried out.

1029.8.166. Where, for a taxation year, more than one individual could, but for this section, be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.164 in relation to an eligible home they own jointly, the following rules apply:

(a) where the individuals became owners of the eligible home at the same time, the total of the amounts that each of the individuals may be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year, in relation to the eligible home, may not exceed the particular amount that only one of the individuals could be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year, in relation to the eligible home, if the individual were the sole owner of the home; and

(b) in any other case, the total of the amounts that each of the individuals may be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year, in relation to the eligible home, may not exceed the particular amount that the individual who holds the oldest title of ownership or, if several of them hold such a title, one of them, could be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year, in relation to the eligible home, if the individual were the sole owner of the home.

If the individuals cannot agree as to what portion of the particular amount each would, but for this section, be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.164, the Minister may determine what portion of that amount is deemed to be paid to the Minister by each individual under that section.

2015, c. 21, s. 492.

DIVISION II.25

CREDIT FOR ECO-FRIENDLY RENOVATION (RÉNOVERT)

2017, c. 1, s. 336.

§ 1. — Interpretation and general rules

2017, c. 1, s. 336.

1029.8.167. In this division,

"eco-friendly renovation agreement" entered into in respect of an individual's eligible dwelling means an agreement under which a qualified contractor undertakes to carry out recognized eco-friendly renovation work in respect of the individual's eligible dwelling that is entered into after 17 March 2016 and before 1 April 2019 between the qualified contractor and

(a) the individual;

(b) a person who, at the time the agreement is entered into, is either the individual's spouse, or another individual who is the owner of the eligible dwelling or the other individual's spouse; or

(c) where the individual's eligible dwelling is an apartment in an immovable under divided co-ownership, the syndicate of co-owners of the immovable;

"eco-friendly renovation expenditure" means an expenditure that is attributable to the carrying out of recognized eco-friendly renovation work provided for in an eco-friendly renovation agreement and that is

(a) the cost of a service supplied to carry out the work by a qualified contractor who is a party to the eco-friendly renovation agreement, including the amount of any goods and services tax and Québec sales tax applicable;

(b) the cost of a movable property that enters into the carrying out of the recognized eco-friendly renovation work provided for in the eco-friendly renovation agreement, including the amount of any goods and services tax and Québec sales tax applicable, provided that the movable property was acquired after 17 March 2016 from the qualified contractor or a merchant holding a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1) and that it complies, where required, with the energy or environmental standards to which the definition of "recognized eco-friendly renovation work" refers in respect of the property; or

(c) the cost of a permit necessary to carry out the recognized eco-friendly renovation work, including the cost of studies carried out to obtain such a permit;

"eligible dwelling" of an individual means a dwelling that is located in Québec, other than an excluded dwelling, of which construction is completed before 1 January 2016 and of which the individual is the owner when the eco-friendly renovation expenditures are incurred and that is

(a) an individual house that is detached, semi-detached or a row house, a permanently installed manufactured home or mobile home, an apartment in an immovable under divided co-ownership or a unit in a multiple-unit residential complex that constitutes, at that time, the individual's principal place of residence; or

(b) is a cottage suitable for year-round occupancy that is normally occupied by the individual;

"excluded dwelling" means a dwelling that, before recognized eco-friendly renovation work began to be carried out, was the subject of

(a) a notice of expropriation or a notice of intention to expropriate;

(b) a reserve for public purposes; or

(c) a prior notice of the exercise of a hypothecary right registered in the registry office or any other procedure calling the individual's right of ownership of the dwelling into question;

"intergenerational home" means a single-family home in which an independent dwelling, allowing more than one generation of the same family to live together while preserving their privacy, is built;

"qualified contractor" in relation to an eco-friendly renovation agreement entered into in respect of an individual's eligible dwelling means a person or a partnership meeting the following conditions:

(a) at the time the agreement is entered into, the person or partnership has an establishment in Québec and, if the person is an individual, is neither the owner of the eligible dwelling nor the spouse of one of the owners of the eligible dwelling; and

(b) at the time the recognized eco-friendly renovation work is being carried out and if required for the carrying out of such work, the person or partnership is the holder of the appropriate licence issued by the Régie du bâtiment du Québec, the Corporation des maîtres électriciens du Québec or the Corporation des maîtres mécaniciens en tuyauterie du Québec and, if applicable, has paid the licence security payable under the Building Act (chapter B-1.1);

"qualified expenditure" of an individual, in relation to an eligible dwelling of the individual, for a particular taxation year that is any of the taxation years 2016 to 2019 means the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an eco-friendly renovation expenditure of the individual that is paid, in relation to the eligible dwelling, by the individual or the individual's legal representative, by a person who is the individual's spouse at the time the payment is made, or by any other individual who, at the time the expenditure is incurred, owns the eligible dwelling, in any of the following periods:

(a) after 17 March 2016 and before 1 January 2017, where the particular year is the taxation year 2016;

(b) after 31 December 2016 and before 1 January 2018, where the particular year is the taxation year 2017;

(c) after 31 December 2017 and before 1 January 2019, where the particular year is the taxation year 2018; or

(d) after 31 December 2018 and before 1 January 2020, where the particular year is the taxation year 2019;

"recognized eco-friendly renovation work" in respect of an eligible dwelling means, subject to the second and third paragraphs, work carried out in compliance with the rules set out in any Act, regulation or by-law of Canada, Québec or a municipality of Québec and the policies that apply according to the type of intervention, including necessary site restoration work, that is

(a) work relating to the insulation of the roof, exterior walls, foundations and exposed floors provided the work is made using insulation materials certified "GREENGUARD" or "EcoLogo", and that the insulation materials satisfy the following standards:

i. in the case of the insulation of the attic, the insulating value achieved must be R-41.0 (RSI 7.22) or more,

ii. in the case of the insulation of a flat roof or of a cathedral ceiling, the insulating value achieved must be R-28.0 (RSI 4.93) or more,

iii. in the case of the insulation of the exterior walls, the increase in the insulating value must be R-3.8 (RSI 0.67) or more,

iv. in the case of the insulation of the basement, including the header area,

(1) for the walls, the insulating value achieved must be R-17.0 (RSI 3.0) or more, and

(2) for the header area, the insulating value achieved must be R-20.0 (RSI 3.52) or more,

v. in the case of the insulation of the crawl space, including the header area,

(1) for the exterior walls, including the header area, the insulating value achieved must be R-17.0 (RSI 3.0) or more, and

(2) for the floor area above the crawl space, the insulating value achieved must be R-24.0 (RSI 4.23) or more, and

vi. in the case of the insulation of exposed floors, the increase in the insulating value must be R-29.5 (RSI 5.20) or more;

(b) work relating to the water-proof sealing of the foundations or the air sealing of the envelope of the dwelling or of a portion of it, such as the walls, doors, windows and skylights;

(c) work relating to the replacement or addition of doors, windows and skylights with "ENERGY STAR" qualified models for the climate zone where the dwelling is located;

(d) work relating to the installation of a living roof; for that purpose, a living roof is a roof that is fully or partially covered with vegetation and that includes a waterproof membrane, a drainage membrane and a growth medium to protect the roof and host vegetation;

(e) work relating to the replacement of a flat roof or a roof whose slope is less than 2 units vertical in 12 units horizontal (2:12) or 16.7% by a reflective roof; for that purpose, authorized roof coverings include materials that are white, painted white, covered with a reflective coating, covered with a white ballast or whose solar reflectance index (SRI) is at least 78 according to the manufacturer's specifications;

(f) work relating to the replacement of an indoor wood-burning system or appliance with one of the following:

i. an indoor wood-burning system or appliance that complies with the CSA-B415.1-10 standard or the 40 CFR Part 60 Subpart AAA standard of the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) of the United States on wood-burning appliances; if the appliance is not tested by the EPA, it must be certified in accordance with the CSA-B415.1-10 standard,

ii. an indoor pellet-burning appliance, including stoves, furnaces and boilers that burn wood, corn, grain or cherry pits, and

iii. an indoor masonry heater;

(g) work relating to the replacement of a solid fuel-fired outdoor boiler with an outdoor wood-burning heating system that complies with the CAN/CSA-B415.1 standard or the Outdoor Wood-fired Hydronic Heater program of the EPA (OWHH Method 28, phase 1 or 2), provided the capacity of the new system is equal to or smaller than the capacity of the one it replaces;

(h) work relating to the installation of an "ENERGY STAR" qualified central split or ductless mini-split air-source heat pump including an outdoor unit and at least one indoor head per floor, excluding the basement, that has an Air-Conditioning, Heating, and Refrigeration Institute (AHRI) number and satisfies the following minimum requirements:

i. it has a Seasonal Energy Efficiency Ratio (SEER) of 15.0,

ii. it has an Energy Efficiency Ratio (EER) of 12.5,

iii. it has a Heating Seasonal Performance Factor (HSPF) of 7.4 for region V, and

iv. it has a heating capacity of 12,000 Btu/h;

(i) work relating to the installation of a geothermal system certified by the Canadian GeoExchange Coalition (CGC); for that purpose, only a CGC-certified business may install the heat pump in accordance with the CAN/CSA-C448-16 standard and the CGC must certify the system after installation;

(j) work relating to the replacement of the heat pump of an existing geothermal system; for that purpose, only a business certified by the CGC may install the heat pump in accordance with the CAN/CSA-C448-16 standard;

(k) work relating to the replacement of an oil heating system with a system using propane or natural gas, provided the new system uses one of the following heating appliances:

i. an "ENERGY STAR" qualified furnace with an Annual Fuel Utilization Efficiency (AFUE) of at least 95% and equipped with a brushless direct current (DC) motor,

ii. a zero-clearance furnace with an AFUE of at least 95%, if the dwelling is a mobile home, and

iii. an "ENERGY STAR" qualified boiler with an AFUE of at least 90%;

(l) work relating to the replacement of an oil, propane or natural gas heating system with a system using electricity;

(m) work relating to the replacement of an oil, propane, natural gas or electricity heating system with a qualified integrated mechanical system (IMS) that is CSA-P.10-07 certified and achieves the premium performance rating;

(n) work relating to the installation of solar thermal panels that comply with the CAN/CSA-F378-11 standard;

(o) work relating to the installation of combined photovoltaic-thermal solar panels that comply with the CAN/CSA-C61215-08 and CAN/CSA-F378-11 standards;

(p) work relating to the replacement of a window air-conditioning unit or central air-conditioning system with an "ENERGY STAR" qualified central split or ductless mini-split air-conditioning system including an outdoor unit and at least one indoor head per floor, excluding the basement, that has an Air-Conditioning, Heating, and Refrigeration Institute (AHRI) number and satisfies the minimum requirements specified in subparagraphs i and ii of paragraph h;

(q) work relating to the replacement of a central air-conditioning system with an "ENERGY STAR" qualified central split or ductless mini-split air-source heat pump including an outdoor unit and at least one indoor head per floor, excluding the basement, that has an Air-Conditioning, Heating, and Refrigeration Institute (AHRI) number and satisfies the minimum requirements specified in subparagraphs i to iv of paragraph h;

(r) work relating to the replacement of an oil-fired water heater with a water heater using propane or natural gas, provided the new water heater is one of the following:

i. an "ENERGY STAR" qualified instantaneous water heater that has an energy factor (EF) of at least 0.90, or

ii. a condensing storage-type water heater that has a thermal efficiency of 95% or more;

(s) work relating to the replacement of an oil, propane or natural gas water heater with a water heater using electricity;

(t) work relating to the installation of a solar hot water system that provides a minimum energy contribution of 7 gigajoules per year and is CAN/ CSA-F379-09 certified, provided such system appears on the CanmetENERGY Performance Directory of Solar Domestic Hot Water Systems;

(u) work relating to the installation of a drain-water heat recovery system;

(v) work relating to the installation of solar thermal panels that comply with the CAN/CSA-F378-11 standard;

(w) work relating to the installation of combined photovoltaic-thermal solar panels that comply with the CAN/CSA-C61215-08 and CAN/CSA-F378-11 standards;

(x) work relating to the installation of an "ENERGY STAR" qualified heat recovery ventilator or energy-recovery ventilator certified by the Home Ventilating Institute (HVI) and listed in Section 3 of its product directory (Certified Home Ventilating Products Directory) if, where the installation makes it possible to replace an older ventilator, the new appliance is more efficient than the older one;

(y) work relating to the installation of an underground rain water recovery tank;

(z) work relating to the construction, renovation, modification or rebuilding of a system for the discharge, collection or disposal of waste water, toilet effluents or grey water in accordance with the Regulation respecting waste water disposal systems for isolated dwellings (chapter Q-2, r. 22);

(z.1) work relating to the restoration of a buffer strip in accordance with the requirements of the Protection Policy for Lakeshores, Riverbanks, Littoral Zones and Floodplains (chapter Q-2, r. 35);

(z.2) work relating to the decontamination of fuel oil-contaminated soil in accordance with the requirements of the Soil Protection and Contaminated Sites Rehabilitation Policy of the Ministère du Développement durable, de l'Environnement et des Parcs, available on that department's website;

(z.3) work relating to the installation of photovoltaic solar panels that comply with the CAN/CSA-C61215-08 standard; or

(z.4) work relating to the installation of a domestic wind turbine that complies with the CAN/CSA-C61400-2-08 standard.

Where the definition of "recognized eco-friendly renovation work" in the first paragraph applies in respect of a dwelling described in paragraph a of the definition of "eligible dwelling" in the first paragraph in connection with an agreement entered into after 31 March 2017 and before 1 April 2019, it is to be read without reference to its paragraph z.

Where the definition of "recognized eco-friendly renovation work" in the first paragraph applies in respect of a dwelling described in paragraph b of the definition of "eligible dwelling" in the first paragraph, it is to be read without reference to its paragraphs y to z.1.

1029.8.168. For the purposes of paragraph b of the definition of "eco-friendly renovation expenditure" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.167, a merchant is deemed to hold a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1) if the merchant is not a registrant for the purposes of that Act because the merchant is a small supplier within the meaning of section 1 of that Act.

1029.8.169. For the purposes of the definition of "eligible dwelling" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.167, the following rules apply:

(a) a dwelling that is a manufactured home or a mobile home is considered to be permanently installed only if

i. it is set on permanent foundations,

ii. it is served by a waterworks and sewer system, by an artesian well and a septic tank, or by a combination of these as necessary for the supply of drinking water and the drainage of waste water, and

iii. it is permanently connected to an electrical distribution system;

(b) a dwelling is deemed to include the land subjacent to it and such portion of any contiguous land as can reasonably be regarded as contributing to the use and enjoyment of the dwelling; and

(c) a dwelling does not include a structure adjoining or accessory to the dwelling, except for a garage

i. that shares, in whole or in part, a wall with the dwelling, or

ii. whose roof is connected to the dwelling.

2017, c. 1, s. 336.

1029.8.170. For the purpose of determining an individual's qualified expenditure for a taxation year in relation to an eligible dwelling, the following rules apply:

(a) the amount of the qualified expenditure may not include

i. an amount that is used to finance the cost of recognized eco-friendly renovation work,

ii. an amount that is attributable to property or services supplied by a person not dealing at arm's length with the individual or with any of the other owners of the dwelling, unless the person holds a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1),

iii. an amount that is incurred to acquire property used by the individual before the acquisition under a contract of lease,

iv. an amount that is deductible in computing an individual's income from a business or property for the year or any other taxation year,

v. an amount that is included in the capital cost of depreciable property, and

vi. an amount that is taken into account in computing

(1) an amount that is deducted in computing the tax payable by an individual for the year or any other taxation year under this Part, or

(2) an amount that is deemed to have been paid to the Minister on account of the tax payable by an individual for the year or any other taxation year under this Part, except an amount that is deemed, under this division, to have been paid to the Minister on account of the tax payable by an individual under this Part;

(b) the qualified expenditure must be reduced by the amount of any government assistance, non-government assistance, reimbursement or other form of assistance, including an indemnity paid under an insurance contract, attributable to the expenditure, that the individual or any other person (other than the person acting as a qualified contractor under the eco-friendly renovation agreement under which the expenditure is incurred) has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive in any taxation year, except to the extent that the amount has reduced the individual's qualified expenditure for a preceding taxation year;

(c) an amount paid under an eco-friendly renovation agreement in relation to recognized eco-friendly renovation work carried on by a qualified contractor may be included in the individual's qualified expenditure only if the qualified contractor certifies, in the prescribed form containing prescribed information, that the property used in carrying out the work complies, where required, with the energy or environmental standards to which the definition of "recognized eco-friendly renovation work" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.167 refers in respect of the property;

(d) where an eco-friendly renovation agreement entered into with a qualified contractor does not deal only with recognized eco-friendly renovation work, an amount paid under the agreement may be included in the individual's qualified expenditure only if the qualified contractor gives the individual a written statement showing the breakdown of the cost of the property and services the qualified contractor supplied among the various types of work carried on under the agreement; and

(e) where the individual's eligible dwelling is an apartment in an immovable under divided co-ownership, the individual's qualified expenditure is deemed to include the individual's share of an expenditure paid by the syndicate of co-owners if

i. it is reasonable to consider that the expenditure would be an eco-friendly renovation expenditure of an individual if the syndicate of co-owners were an individual and the immovable were an eligible dwelling of the individual, and

ii. the syndicate of co-owners provided the individual, in the prescribed form, with information relating to the work and the amount of the individual's share of the expenditure.

An individual, other than a trust, who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the taxation year 2017 is deemed to have paid to the Minister on the individual's balance-due day for the individual's taxation year 2017 on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for that year, if the individual files with the Minister, together with the fiscal return the individual is required to file for the year, or would be required to so file if tax were payable for the year, the prescribed form containing prescribed information, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount obtained by multiplying 20% by the amount by which the individual's qualified expenditure for the taxation year 2017, in relation to an eligible dwelling of the individual, exceeds the amount by which $2,500 exceeds the individual's qualified expenditure, in relation to the eligible dwelling, for the taxation year 2016; and

(b) the amount by which $10,000 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the individual, or a person together with whom the individual owns the eligible dwelling, is deemed to have paid to the Minister under the first paragraph, in relation to the eligible dwelling.

An individual, other than a trust, who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the taxation year 2018 is deemed to have paid to the Minister on the individual's balance-due day for the individual's taxation year 2018 on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for that year, if the individual files with the Minister, together with the fiscal return the individual is required to file for the year, or would be required to so file if tax were payable for the year, the prescribed form containing prescribed information, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount obtained by multiplying 20% by the amount by which the individual's qualified expenditure for the taxation year 2018, in relation to an eligible dwelling of the individual, exceeds the amount by which $2,500 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the individual's qualified expenditure, in relation to the eligible dwelling, for each of the taxation years 2016 and 2017; and

(b) the amount by which $10,000 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the individual, or a person together with whom the individual owns the eligible dwelling, is deemed to have paid to the Minister under the first or second paragraph, in relation to the eligible dwelling.

An individual, other than a trust, who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the taxation year 2019 is deemed to have paid to the Minister on the individual's balance-due day for the individual's taxation year 2019 on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for that year, if the individual files with the Minister, together with the fiscal return the individual is required to file for the year, or would be required to so file if tax were payable for the year, the prescribed form containing prescribed information, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount obtained by multiplying 20% by the amount by which the individual's qualified expenditure for the taxation year 2019, in relation to an eligible dwelling of the individual, exceeds the amount by which $2,500 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the individual's qualified expenditure, in relation to the eligible dwelling, for each of the taxation years 2016, 2017 and 2018; and

(b) the amount by which $10,000 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the individual, or a person together with whom the individual owns the eligible dwelling, is deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of the first, second and third paragraphs, in relation to the eligible dwelling.

For the purposes of this section, an individual who dies or ceases to be resident in Canada in a taxation year is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of that year if the individual was resident in Québec immediately before dying or, as the case may be, on the last day the individual was resident in Canada.

1029.8.172. For the purpose of determining the amount that an individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under section 1029.8.171 in relation to an eligible dwelling of the individual, for any period between 17 March 2016 and 1 April 2019 throughout which the individual owns an intergenerational home that is the individual's principal place of residence, each independent dwelling built in the home is deemed to be a separate eligible dwelling of the individual, if the individual so elects in the prescribed form referred to in any of the first, second, third and fourth paragraphs of section 1029.8.171.

Where more than one individual owns an intergenerational home and the home is the principal place of residence of those individuals, the election referred to in the first paragraph and made by one of them is deemed to have been made by each of the other owners.

1029.8.173. If, for a taxation year, more than one individual could, but for this section, be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.171 in relation to an eligible dwelling that the individuals jointly own, the following rules apply:

(a) if those individuals became owners of the eligible dwelling at the same time, the total of the amounts that each of those individuals may be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year in relation to the eligible dwelling may not exceed the particular amount that only one of those individuals could be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year in relation to the eligible dwelling if that individual were the sole owner of the eligible dwelling; and

(b) in any other case, the total of the amounts that each of those individuals may be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year in relation to the eligible dwelling may not exceed the particular amount that the individual from among those individuals who holds the oldest title of ownership or, if more than one of them holds such a title, one of those individuals, could be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year in relation to the eligible dwelling if that individual were the sole owner of the eligible dwelling.

If the individuals cannot agree as to what portion of the particular amount each would, but for this section, be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.171, the Minister may determine what portion of that amount is deemed to be paid to the Minister by each individual under that section.

2017, c. 1, s. 336.

DIVISION II.26

CREDIT FOR THE REPAIR OF SEPTIC SYSTEMS

2017, c. 29, s. 197.

§ 1. — Interpretation and general rules

2017, c. 29, s. 197.

1029.8.174. In this division,

"eligible dwelling" of an individual means a dwelling that is located in Québec, other than an excluded dwelling, of which construction is completed before 1 January 2017, of which the individual is the owner when the septic system repair expenditures are incurred, that is an isolated dwelling in respect of which section 2 of the Regulation respecting waste water disposal systems for isolated dwellings applies or that is part of such a dwelling, and that is

(a) the individual's principal place of residence; or

(b) a cottage suitable for year-round occupancy that is normally occupied by the individual;

"excluded dwelling" means a dwelling that, before recognized work began to be carried out, was the subject of

(a) a notice of expropriation or a notice of intention to expropriate;

(b) a reserve for public purposes; or

(c) a prior notice of the exercise of a hypothecary right registered in the registry office or any other procedure calling the individual's right of ownership of the dwelling into question;

"qualified contractor" in relation to a service agreement entered into in respect of an individual's eligible dwelling means a person or a partnership meeting the following conditions:

(a) at the time the service agreement is entered into, the person or partnership has an establishment in Québec and is neither the owner of the eligible dwelling nor the spouse of one of the owners of the eligible dwelling; and

(b) at the time the recognized work is being carried out and if required for the carrying out of such work, the person or partnership is the holder of the appropriate licence issued by the Régie du bâtiment du Québec and, if applicable, has paid the licence security payable under the Building Act (chapter B-1.1);

"qualified expenditure" of an individual, in relation to an eligible dwelling of the individual, for a particular taxation year that is subsequent to the taxation year 2016 and precedes the taxation year 2028, means the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a septic system repair expenditure that is paid, in relation to the eligible dwelling, by the individual or the individual's legal representative, by a person who is the individual's spouse at the time the payment is made, or by any other individual who, at the time the expenditure is incurred, owns the eligible dwelling, in either of the following periods:

(a) after 31 March 2017 and before 1 January 2018, where the particular year is the taxation year 2017; or

(b) after 31 December of the year that precedes the particular year and on or before 31 December of the particular year, where the particular year is subsequent to the taxation year 2017 and precedes the taxation year 2028;

"recognized work" in respect of an eligible dwelling means work that is carried out in compliance with the rules set out in Québec legislation and regulations and in the applicable municipal by-laws, including necessary site restoration work, and that is work relating to the construction, renovation, modification, rebuilding, relocation or enlargement of a system for the discharge, collection or disposal of waste water, toilet effluents or grey water serving an eligible dwelling;

"septic system repair expenditure" means an expenditure that is attributable to the carrying out of recognized work provided for in a service agreement and that is

(a) the cost of a service supplied to carry out the work by a qualified contractor who is a party to the service agreement, including the amount of any goods and services tax and Québec sales tax applicable;

(b) the cost of a movable property that enters into the carrying out of recognized work provided for in the service agreement, including the amount of any goods and services tax and Québec sales tax applicable, provided that the movable property was acquired after 31 March 2017 from the qualified contractor or a merchant holding a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1) and that it complies, where required, with the standards prescribed by the Regulation respecting waste water disposal systems for isolated dwellings; or

(c) the cost of a permit necessary to carry out recognized work, including the cost of studies carried out to obtain such a permit;

"service agreement" entered into in respect of an individual's eligible dwelling means an agreement under which a qualified contractor undertakes to carry out recognized work in respect of the individual's eligible dwelling that is entered into after 31 March 2017 and before 1 April 2027 between the qualified contractor and

(a) the individual;

(b) a person who, at the time the agreement is entered into, is the individual's spouse, or another individual who is the owner of the eligible dwelling or that other individual's spouse; or

(c) where the individual's eligible dwelling is an apartment in an immovable under divided co-ownership, the syndicate of co-owners of the immovable.

1029.8.175. For the purposes of paragraph b of the definition of "septic system repair expenditure" in section 1029.8.174, a merchant is deemed to hold a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1) if the merchant is not a registrant for the purposes of that Act because the merchant is a small supplier within the meaning of section 1 of that Act.

1029.8.176. For the purpose of determining an individual's qualified expenditure for a particular taxation year in relation to an eligible dwelling, the following rules apply:

(a) the amount of the qualified expenditure may not include

i. an amount that is used to finance the cost of recognized work,

ii. an amount that is attributable to property or services supplied by a person not dealing at arm's length with the individual or with any of the other owners of the dwelling, unless the person holds a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1),

iii. an amount that is deductible in computing an individual's income from a business or property for the year or any other taxation year, and

iv. an amount that is included in the capital cost of depreciable property;

(b) the qualified expenditure must be reduced by the portion of the amount of any government assistance that exceeds $2,500, the amount of any non-government assistance, reimbursement or other form of assistance, including an indemnity paid under an insurance contract, attributable to the expenditure, that the individual or any other person (other than the person acting as a qualified contractor under the service agreement under which the expenditure is incurred) has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive in any taxation year, except to the extent that the amount has reduced the individual's qualified expenditure for a preceding taxation year;

(c) an amount paid under a service agreement in relation to recognized work carried on by a qualified contractor may be included in the individual's qualified expenditure only if the qualified contractor certifies, in the prescribed form containing prescribed information, that the property used in carrying out the work complies, where required, with the standards prescribed by the Regulation respecting waste water disposal systems for isolated dwellings (chapter Q-2, r. 22);

(d) where a service agreement entered into with a qualified contractor does not deal only with recognized work, an amount paid under the agreement may be included in the individual's qualified expenditure only if the qualified contractor gives the individual a written statement showing the breakdown of the cost of the property and services the qualified contractor supplied among the various types of work carried on under the agreement; and

(e) where the individual's eligible dwelling is an apartment in an immovable under divided co-ownership, the individual's qualified expenditure is deemed to include the individual's share of an expenditure paid by the syndicate of co-owners if

i. it is reasonable to consider that the expenditure would be a septic system repair expenditure of an individual if the syndicate of co-owners were an individual and the immovable were an eligible dwelling of the individual, and

ii. the syndicate of co-owners provided the individual, in the prescribed form, with information relating to the work and the amount of the individual's share of the expenditure.

2017, c. 29, s. 197.

An individual, other than a trust, who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of a particular taxation year that is subsequent to the taxation year 2017 and precedes the taxation year 2028 is deemed to have paid to the Minister on the individual's balance-due day for the particular year on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for the particular year, if the individual files with the Minister, together with the fiscal return the individual is required to file for the particular year, or would be required to so file if tax were payable for the particular year, the prescribed form containing prescribed information, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount obtained by multiplying 20% by the amount by which the individual's qualified expenditure for the particular year, in relation to an eligible dwelling of the individual, exceeds the amount by which $2,500 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the individual's qualified expenditure, in relation to the eligible dwelling, for a taxation year preceding the particular year; and

(b) the amount by which $5,500 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the individual, or a person together with whom the individual owns the eligible dwelling, is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

For the purpose of determining the amount that an individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a particular taxation year under the first or second paragraph, in relation to an eligible dwelling the individual owns that is situated in an immovable under divided co-ownership or in another type of immovable that comprises more than one dwelling, the amounts of $2,500 and $5,500 mentioned in the first and second paragraphs must respectively be replaced by

(a) where the eligible dwelling is situated in an immovable under divided co-ownership, the amounts obtained by multiplying $2,500 and $5,500, as the case may be, by the individual's share of the common expenses of the immovable; and

(b) where the eligible dwelling is situated in another type of immovable that comprises more than one dwelling, the amounts obtained by multiplying $2,500 and $5,500, as the case may be, by the proportion that the area of the individual's eligible dwelling is of the total living area of the immovable.

For the purposes of this section, an individual who dies or ceases to be resident in Canada in a taxation year is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of that year if the individual was resident in Québec immediately before dying or, as the case may be, on the last day the individual was resident in Canada.

1029.8.178. If, for a taxation year, more than one individual could, but for this section, be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.177 in relation to an eligible dwelling that the individuals jointly own, the following rules apply:

(a) if those individuals became owners of the eligible dwelling at the same time, the total of the amounts that each of those individuals may be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year in relation to the eligible dwelling may not exceed the particular amount that only one of those individuals could be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year in relation to the eligible dwelling if that individual were the sole owner of the eligible dwelling; and

(b) in any other case, the total of the amounts that each of those individuals may be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year in relation to the eligible dwelling may not exceed the particular amount that the individual from among those individuals who holds the oldest title of ownership or, if more than one of them holds such a title, one of those individuals, could be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section for the year in relation to the eligible dwelling if that individual were the sole owner of the eligible dwelling.

If the individuals cannot agree as to what portion of the particular amount each would, but for this section, be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.177, the Minister may determine what portion of that amount is deemed to be paid to the Minister by each individual under that section.

2017, c. 29, s. 197.

DIVISION II.27

CREDIT FOR THE RESTORATION OF A SECONDARY RESIDENCE

2019, c. 14, s. 416.

§ 1. — Interpretation and general rules

2019, c. 14, s. 416.

1029.8.179. In this division,

"eligible dwelling" of an individual means a dwelling that is located in Québec, other than an excluded dwelling, and that meets the following conditions:

(a) the dwelling was damaged by flooding that occurred in a territory covered by the Special Financial Assistance Program Relating to Flooding that Occurred in Québec Municipalities from 5 April to 16 May 2017 established under the Civil Protection Act (chapter S-2.3);

(b) the individual owns the dwelling both at the time of the disaster and at the time the expenditures relating to site restoration are incurred; and

(c) at the time the expenditures relating to site restoration are incurred and at the time of the disaster, or immediately before the disaster where the dwelling became uninhabitable because of the damage it sustained, the dwelling is suitable for year-round occupancy and is normally occupied by the individual;

"excluded dwelling" of an individual means a dwelling that is eligible under the Special Financial Assistance Program Relating to Flooding that Occurred in Québec Municipalities from 5 April to 16 May 2017 or that, before recognized work began to be carried out, was the subject of

(a) a notice of expropriation or a notice of intention to expropriate;

(b) a reserve for public purposes; or

(c) a prior notice of the exercise of a hypothecary right registered in the registry office or any other procedure calling the individual's right of ownership of the dwelling into question;

"expenditure attributable to damage assessment services" in relation to an eligible dwelling means the amount paid to obtain the report of a damage assessment expert that describes the damage caused to the eligible dwelling by flooding that occurred in a territory covered by the Special Financial Assistance Program Relating to Flooding that Occurred in Québec Municipalities from 5 April to 16 May 2017, including the amount of any goods and services tax and Québec sales tax applicable;

"expenditure relating to site restoration" in relation to an eligible dwelling means an expenditure that is attributable to the carrying out of recognized work, in relation to the eligible dwelling, provided for in a service agreement and that is

(a) the cost of a service supplied to carry out the recognized work by a qualified contractor who is a party to the service agreement, including the amount of any goods and services tax and Québec sales tax applicable;

(b) the cost of a movable property that enters into the carrying out of recognized work, including the amount of any goods and services tax and Québec sales tax applicable, provided that the movable property was acquired after the beginning of the flooding that damaged the eligible dwelling from the qualified contractor or a merchant holding a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1); or

(c) the cost of a permit necessary to carry out the recognized work, including the cost of studies carried out to obtain such a permit;

"post-disaster clean-up work" in relation to an eligible dwelling includes water pumping, demolition of certain dwelling components, debris removal, site clean-up, disinfection, extermination and decontamination, and site drying and dehumidification;

"preservation work" in relation to an eligible dwelling means the work necessary to temporarily restore electrical service to the dwelling, achieve minimal insulation and board up openings in the dwelling to make it habitable prior to the carrying out of permanent work to repair the damage caused by the flooding that damaged the dwelling;

"qualified contractor" in relation to a service agreement entered into in respect of an individual's eligible dwelling means a person or a partnership meeting the following conditions:

(a) at the time the service agreement is entered into, the person or partnership has an establishment in Québec and, where the person is an individual, is neither an owner of the eligible dwelling nor the spouse of one of the owners of the eligible dwelling; and

the Corporation des maîtres électriciens du Québec or the Corporation des maîtres mécaniciens en tuyauterie du Québec and, if applicable, has paid the licence security payable under the Building Act (chapter B-1.1);

"qualified expenditure" of an individual, in relation to an eligible dwelling of the individual, for the taxation year 2017 or the taxation year 2018, means the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an expenditure relating to site restoration in relation to the eligible dwelling, or an expenditure attributable to damage assessment services in relation to the eligible dwelling, that is paid in the year by the individual or the individual's legal representative, by a person who is the individual's spouse at the time the payment is made, or by any other individual who, at the time the expenditure is incurred, jointly owns the eligible dwelling;

"recognized work" in relation to an eligible dwelling means work carried out in compliance with the rules set out in any Act, regulation or by-law of Canada, Québec or a municipality of Québec and the policies that apply according to the type of intervention, that is

(a) post-disaster clean-up work in relation to the eligible dwelling;

(b) preservation work in relation to the eligible dwelling; or

(c) repair work in relation to the eligible dwelling;

"repair work" in relation to an eligible dwelling means the work carried out to repair damage caused to the eligible dwelling that a damage assessment expert attributes to flooding that occurred in a territory covered by the Special Financial Assistance Program Relating to Flooding that Occurred in Québec Municipalities from 5 April to 16 May 2017 and that pertains to

(a) foundations, footings, support beams, loadbearing walls, concrete slabs, French drains, framing, carports and garages forming an integral part of the structure of a dwelling, and basement entryways;

(b) exterior cladding and chimneys;

(c) roofing materials;

(d) exterior doors, including doors of garages forming an integral part of the structure of a dwelling, and windows;

(e) structure, wall, ceiling and subfloor insulation;

(f) electrical lead, systems and connections;

(g) pipes, sewer connections, water connections and sanitary devices;

(h) subfloors and fixed floor coverings;

(i) gypsum board, plaster and paint on interior walls and ceilings, baseboards, ceiling mouldings and interior doors;

(j) cabinets and vanities, including counters, drawers, shelves and panels;

(k) interior stairway stringers, treads, risers and handrails;

(l) main and secondary heating systems (wood stoves among others), including conduits, firewood, air exchangers and their conduits, natural gas connections and tanks;

(m) pumps and wet wells, septic tanks, leaching beds, drinking water supply systems, drinking water filtration and treatment systems, hot water tanks and equipment for disabled persons;

(n) detached garages, sheds, porches, balconies, decks, patios and terraces;

(o) landscaping works such as driveways, walkways, fences, low walls and slabs on grade; and

(p) the portion of the land that may reasonably be considered as facilitating the use and enjoyment of the dwelling, the trees and the hedges;

"service agreement" entered into in respect of an individual's eligible dwelling means an agreement under which a qualified contractor undertakes to carry out recognized work in respect of the individual's eligible dwelling that is entered into between the qualified contractor and

(a) the individual;

(b) a person who, at the time the agreement is entered into, is the individual's spouse, another individual who jointly owns the eligible dwelling or that other individual's spouse; or

(c) where the individual's eligible dwelling is an apartment in an immovable under divided co-ownership, the syndicate of co-owners of the immovable.

For the purposes of the definition of "expenditure relating to site restoration" in the first paragraph, the portion of the expenditure relating to site restoration, in relation to an eligible dwelling of an individual, that is attributable to the carrying out of recognized work that is repair work to which paragraphs n to p of the definition of "repair work" in the first paragraph apply may not exceed

(a) for the taxation year 2017, an amount of $5,000; or

(b) for the taxation year 2018, the amount by which $5,000 exceeds the portion of that expenditure that was taken into account in determining the amount deemed to be paid to the Minister under this division for the taxation year 2017 on account of an individual's tax payable under this Part.

For the purposes of the definition of "eligible dwelling" in the first paragraph, a dwelling includes

(a) incidental structures of the dwelling such as detached garages, sheds, patios and balconies;

(b) landscaping works such as driveways, walkways and fences; and

(c) land subjacent to the dwelling and its landscaping.

For the purposes of the definition of "repair work" in the first paragraph, the following rules apply:

(a) work to replace property specified in any of paragraphs a to p of the definition of "repair work" in the first paragraph that is damaged because of flooding is deemed to be repair work where the property cannot be repaired; and

(b) where an individual's eligible dwelling is damaged because of flooding to such an extent that it is preferable to rebuild it, the work carried out to rebuild the eligible dwelling that pertains to components specified in any of paragraphs a to p of the definition of "repair work" in the first paragraph is deemed to be repair work in relation to the eligible dwelling.

1029.8.180. For the purposes of paragraph b of the definition of "expenditure relating to site restoration" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.179, a merchant is deemed to hold a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1) if the merchant is not a registrant for the purposes of that Act because the merchant is a small supplier within the meaning of section 1 of that Act.

2019, c. 14, s. 416.

1029.8.181. For the purpose of determining an individual's qualified expenditure for a particular taxation year in relation to an eligible dwelling, the following rules apply:

(a) the amount of the qualified expenditure may not include

i. an amount that is used to finance the cost of the services supplied by a damage assessment expert or the cost of recognized work,

ii. an amount that is attributable to property or services supplied by a person not dealing at arm's length with the individual or with any of the other owners of the dwelling, unless the person holds a registration number assigned under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1),

iii. an amount that is incurred to acquire property used by the individual before the acquisition under a contract of lease,

iv. an amount that is deductible in computing a taxpayer's income from a business or property for the year or any other taxation year,

v. an amount that is included in the capital cost of depreciable property, or

vi. an amount that is taken into account in computing

(1) an amount deducted in computing an individual's tax payable for the year or any other taxation year under this Part, or

(2) an amount deemed to have been paid to the Minister on account of an individual's tax payable for the year or any other taxation year under this Part, except an amount deemed under this division to have been paid to the Minister on account of an individual's tax payable under this Part;

(b) the qualified expenditure must be reduced by the amount of any government assistance, non-government assistance, reimbursement or other form of assistance, including an indemnity paid under an insurance contract, attributable to the expenditure, that the individual or any other person (other than the person acting as a qualified contractor under the service agreement under which the expenditure is incurred) has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive in any taxation year, except to the extent that the amount has reduced the individual's qualified expenditure for a preceding taxation year;

(c) where a service agreement entered into with a qualified contractor deals with repair work and post-disaster clean-up or preservation work, or does not deal only with recognized work, an amount paid under the agreement may be included in the individual's qualified expenditure only if the qualified contractor gives the individual a written statement showing the breakdown of the cost of the property and services the qualified contractor supplied among the various types of work carried out under the agreement; and

(d) where the individual's eligible dwelling is an apartment in an immovable under divided co-ownership, the individual's qualified expenditure is deemed to include the individual's share of an expenditure paid by the syndicate of co-owners if

i. it is reasonable to consider that the expenditure would be a qualified expenditure of an individual if the syndicate of co-owners were an individual and the immovable were an eligible dwelling of the individual, and

ii. the syndicate of co-owners provided the individual with information, in the prescribed form, relating to the services supplied by a damage assessment expert and the recognized work as well as the amount of the individual's share of the expenditure.

2019, c. 14, s. 416.

2019, c. 14, s. 416.

(a) the lesser of $3,000 and the amount obtained by multiplying 30% by the amount by which $500 is exceeded by the portion of the individual's qualified expenditure for the taxation year 2017 that is attributable to the carrying out of recognized work, in relation to an eligible dwelling of the individual, other than repair work; and

(b) the lesser of $15,000 and the amount obtained by multiplying 30% by the portion of the individual's qualified expenditure for the taxation year 2017, in relation to an eligible dwelling of the individual, that is either an expenditure attributable to damage assessment services or an expenditure attributable to the carrying out of recognized work that is repair work.

An individual, other than a trust, who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the taxation year 2018 and files with the Minister, together with the fiscal return the individual is required to file for the year, or would be required to so file if tax were payable for the year, the prescribed form containing prescribed information is deemed to have paid to the Minister on the individual's balance-due day for the individual's taxation year 2018 on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for that year an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount obtained by multiplying 30% by the portion of the individual's qualified expenditure, in relation to an eligible dwelling of the individual that is either an expenditure attributable to damage assessment services or an expenditure attributable to the carrying out of recognized work that is repair work; and

(b) the amount by which $15,000 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the individual, or a person together with whom the individual owns the eligible dwelling, is deemed to have paid to the Minister under subparagraph b of the first paragraph for the taxation year 2017.

For the purposes of this section, an individual who dies or ceases to be resident in Canada in a taxation year is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of that year if the individual was resident in Québec immediately before dying or, as the case may be, on the last day the individual was resident in Canada.

An individual is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under this section on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for a taxation year only if the individual obtains from the municipality in which the individual's eligible dwelling is located a certificate confirming that the land subjacent to the eligible dwelling was hit by flooding that occurred in a territory covered by the Special Financial Assistance Program Relating to Flooding that Occurred in Québec Municipalities from 5 April to 16 May 2017 established under the Civil Protection Act (chapter S-2.3).

1029.8.183. Where, for a taxation year, more than one individual could, but for this section, be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.182 in relation to the same eligible dwelling that the individuals jointly own, the total of the amounts that each of those individuals is deemed to have paid under that section in relation to the eligible dwelling may not exceed the particular amount that only one of those individuals would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section in relation to the eligible dwelling if the dwelling were an eligible dwelling in respect of that individual only.

Where the individuals cannot agree as to what portion of the particular amount each would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.182, the Minister may determine what portion of that amount is deemed to be paid by each individual under that section.

2019, c. 14, s. 416.

§ 3. — Advance payments and exceptional rules

2019, c. 14, s. 416.

1029.8.184. Where, on or before 1 December of a taxation year, an individual applies to the Minister, in the prescribed form containing prescribed information, the Minister may pay, as an advance payment, on such terms and conditions as the Minister determines, in respect of the amount that the individual considers to be the amount that the individual will be deemed to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the year under the first or second paragraph of section 1029.8.182, an amount (in this subdivision referred to as the "amount of the advance relating to the restoration of a secondary residence"), in respect of an eligible expense paid by the individual or the individual's spouse in the year, in relation to an eligible dwelling the individual owns, if

(a) the individual is resident in Québec at the time the application is made;

(b) the individual obtained the certificate referred to in the fourth paragraph of section 1029.8.182 in relation to the eligible dwelling;

(c) where the application concerns an expenditure attributable to damage assessment services or a repair expenditure, the individual has obtained the report of a damage assessment expert that describes the damage caused to the eligible dwelling;

(d) the application is accompanied by a receipt confirming the payment of the qualified expenditure; and

(e) the individual has agreed that the advance payments be made by direct deposit in a bank account held at a financial institution listed in Part I of Appendix I to Rule D4–Institution Numbers and Clearing Agency/ Representative Arrangements of the Automated Clearing Settlement System Rules Manual, as amended from time to time, of the Canadian Payments Association.

Where, at the time the application referred to in the first paragraph is made, an individual has a spouse, only one of them may make the application for the year.

1029.8.185. The Minister may require from any individual who makes an application for advance payments referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.184 a document or information other than those provided for in that paragraph if the Minister considers the document or information necessary to evaluate the application.

1029.8.186. Despite the first paragraph of section 1029.8.184, the Minister is not required to grant an application for advance payments referred to in that paragraph for the taxation year 2018 if

(a) the individual, or the individual's spouse at the time of the application, received a payment of the amount of the advance relating to the restoration of a secondary residence for the taxation year 2017 and, at the time the application is processed, has not filed a fiscal return for the taxation year 2017; and

(b) the application is processed after the filing-due date of the person referred to in paragraph a for the taxation year 2017.

1029.8.187. The Minister may suspend the payment of, reduce or cease to pay the amount of the advance relating to the restoration of a secondary residence if documents or information brought to the Minister's attention so warrant.

2019, c. 14, s. 416.

DIVISION III

CREDITS FOR HOLDERS OF A TAXI DRIVER'S OR OWNER'S PERMIT

1984, c. 35, s. 29; 2003, c. 9, s. 364.

§ 1. — Interpretation

2003, c. 9, s. 364.

1029.9. In this division,

"holder" means

(a) in respect of a taxi driver's permit, the person in whose name the taxi driver's permit is issued; and

(b) in respect of a taxi owner's permit, the person in whose name the taxi owner's permit is issued or, where such a permit is issued in the name of two or more persons, the person among them whom they designate;

"taxi driver's permit" means such a permit referred to in the Act respecting transportation services by taxi (chapter S-6.01), as it read before being repealed;

"taxi owner's permit" means such a permit referred to in the Act respecting transportation services by taxi, as it read before being repealed, including a limousine permit or other specialized taxi permit referred to in that Act.

2003, c. 9, s. 366.

1029.9.1. A taxpayer who is resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of a particular taxation year that is the taxation year 2019, 2020 or 2021, who is a taxpayer described in the second paragraph for the particular year and who encloses the prescribed form containing prescribed information with the fiscal return the taxpayer is required to file for the particular year under section 1000 or would be required to so file if the taxpayer had tax payable for the particular year under this Part, is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on the taxpayer's balance-due day for the particular year, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable for that year under this Part, an amount equal to

(a) where the particular year is the taxation year 2019, the lesser of $584 and the amount determined in respect of the taxpayer for the particular year under section 1029.9.3;

(b) where the particular year is the taxation year 2020, the lesser of $594 and the amount determined in respect of the taxpayer for the particular year under section 1029.9.3; or

(c) where the particular year is the taxation year 2021, the lesser of $301 and the amount that would be determined in respect of the taxpayer for the particular year under section 1029.9.3 if that section were read as if "2%" in the portion before paragraph a were replaced by "1%" and as if no reference were made to its paragraph c.

The taxpayer to whom the first paragraph refers for a particular taxation year is

(a) where the particular year is the taxation year 2019,

i. a taxpayer who, at any time in the particular year, is the holder of a taxi driver's permit and is not the holder of a taxi owner's permit on 31 December 2019, or

ii. a taxpayer who, at any time in the particular year, is the holder of a taxi driver's permit, is the holder of one or more taxi owner's permits on 31 December 2019 and has not assumed all or almost all of the fuel cost of bringing into service any motor vehicle attached to at least one of the taxi owner's permits of which the taxpayer is the holder;

(b) where the particular year is the taxation year 2020, a taxpayer who would be described in subparagraph i or ii of subparagraph a if those subparagraphs were read as if "31 December 2019" were replaced by "9 October 2020"; or

(c) where the particular year is the taxation year 2021, a taxpayer who was, on 9 October 2020, the holder of a taxi driver's permit in force, who has benefited from the presumption provided for in section 292 of the Act respecting remunerated passenger transportation by automobile (chapter T-11.2) and who is, at any time in the particular year, a driver authorized by the Société de l'assurance automobile du Québec under Division I of Chapter II of that Act.

For the purposes of this section, a taxpayer who was resident in Québec immediately before the taxpayer's death is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of 31 December of the year in which the taxpayer died.

2003, c. 9, s. 366; 2019, c. 14, s. 417; 2021, c. 18, s. 143.

1029.9.2. A taxpayer who, on the date specified in the third paragraph that is included in a particular taxation year of the taxpayer that is either the taxpayer's last taxation year that began before 1 January 2020 or a taxation year that began after 31 December 2019 and before 10 October 2020, is the holder of one or more taxi owner's permits in force, who assumed during that particular year all or almost all of the fuel cost of bringing into service any motor vehicle attached to each of those permits and who encloses the prescribed form containing prescribed information with the fiscal return the taxpayer is required to file under section 1000 for that particular year or would be required to so file if the taxpayer had tax payable for that particular year under this Part, is deemed, subject to the second paragraph, to have paid to the Minister, on the taxpayer's balance-due day for that particular year, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable for that year under this Part, an amount equal to

(a) where the particular year is the taxpayer's last taxation year that began before 1 January 2020, the lesser of

i. the amount determined in respect of the taxpayer for the particular year under section 1029.9.3, and

ii. the product obtained by multiplying $584 by the number of such permits of which the taxpayer is the holder on 31 December 2019; or

(b) where the particular year is a taxation year of the taxpayer that began after 31 December 2019 and before 10 October 2020, the lesser of

i. the amount that would be determined in respect of the taxpayer for the particular year under section 1029.9.3 if paragraphs a to c of that section were read as if "the portion of" were inserted at the beginning and as if ", which is attributable to the period of the year that precedes 10 October 2020" were inserted at the end, and

ii. the product obtained by multiplying $594 by the number of such permits of which the taxpayer is the holder on 9 October 2020.

For the purpose of computing the payments that a taxpayer is required to make under section 1025 or 1026, subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1027, or any of sections 1159.7, 1175 and 1175.19 where they refer to that subparagraph a, the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the aggregate of the taxpayer's tax payable for the year under this Part and of the taxpayer's tax payable for the year under Parts IV.1, VI and VI.1, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the amount determined under the first paragraph for the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the year but before that date; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to this chapter, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under this chapter but otherwise than under the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

The date to which the first paragraph refers is

(a) 31 December 2019, where the particular year is the taxpayer's last taxation year that began before 1 January 2020; or

(b) 9 October 2020, where the particular year is a taxation year of the taxpayer that began after 31 December 2019 and before 10 October 2020.

2003, c. 9, s. 366; 2019, c. 14, s. 419; 2021, c. 18, s. 145.

1029.9.2.1. Where, on the date specified in the third paragraph that is included in a particular fiscal period of a partnership that is either the partnership's last fiscal period that began before 1 January 2020 or a fiscal period that began after 31 December 2019 and before 10 October 2020, the partnership is the holder of one or more taxi owner's permits in force and the partnership assumed during the particular fiscal period all or almost all of the fuel cost of bringing into service any motor vehicle attached to each of those permits, each taxpayer who is a member of the partnership at the end of the particular fiscal period and who encloses the prescribed form containing prescribed information with the fiscal return the taxpayer is required to file under section 1000 for the taxpayer's taxation year in which the particular fiscal period ends, or would be required to so file if the taxpayer had tax payable for that taxation year under this Part, is deemed, subject to the second paragraph and section 1029.9.2.2, to have paid to the Minister, on the taxpayer's balance-due day for the year, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable for the year under this Part, an amount equal to

(a) where the particular fiscal period is the partnership's last fiscal period that began before 1 January 2020, the taxpayer's share of the lesser of

i. the amount determined in respect of the partnership for the particular fiscal period under section 1029.9.3.1, and

ii. the product obtained by multiplying $584 by the number of such permits of which the partnership is the holder on 31 December 2019; or

(b) where the particular fiscal period is a fiscal period of the partnership that began after 31 December 2019 and before 10 October 2020, the taxpayer's share of the lesser of

i. the amount that would be determined in respect of the partnership for the particular fiscal period under section 1029.9.3.1 if paragraphs a and b of that section were read as if "the portion of" were inserted at the beginning and as if ", which is attributable to the period of the fiscal period that precedes 10 October 2020" were inserted at the end, and

ii. the product obtained by multiplying $594 by the number of such permits of which the partnership is the holder on 9 October 2020.

For the purpose of computing the payments that a taxpayer is required to make under section 1025 or 1026, subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1027, or any of sections 1159.7, 1175 and 1175.19 where they refer to that subparagraph a, the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the aggregate of the taxpayer's tax payable for the year under this Part and of the taxpayer's tax payable for the year under Parts IV.1, VI and VI.1, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the amount determined under the first paragraph for the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the year but before that date; and

(b) the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to this chapter, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under this chapter but otherwise than under the first paragraph, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

The date to which the first paragraph refers is

(a) 31 December 2019, where the particular fiscal period is the partnership's last fiscal period that began before 1 January 2020; or

(b) 9 October 2020, where the particular fiscal period is a fiscal period of the partnership that began after 31 December 2019 and before 10 October 2020.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, a taxpayer's share of an amount for a fiscal period of a partnership is equal to the agreed proportion of that amount in respect of the taxpayer for that fiscal period.

1029.9.2.2. No amount may be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under section 1029.9.2.1 by a taxpayer for a particular taxation year in which a fiscal period of a partnership ends where the taxpayer is

(a) an individual deemed, under section 1029.9.1, to have paid an amount to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year or, where the fiscal period ends before 31 December of the particular year, for the preceding taxation year;

(b) an individual who is not resident in Québec at the end of the particular year;

(c) a corporation that, at any time in the particular year, does not have an establishment in Québec; or

(d) a person exempt from tax under Book VIII for the particular year.

For the purposes of subparagraph b of the first paragraph, an individual who dies or ceases to be resident in Canada in a taxation year is deemed to be resident in Québec at the end of that year if the individual was resident in Québec immediately before dying or on the last day the individual was resident in Canada, as the case may be.

1029.9.3. The amount to which the first paragraph of sections 1029.9.1 and 1029.9.2 refers in respect of a taxpayer for a taxation year is equal to 2% of the aggregate of

(a) the taxpayer's income for the year from employment as a taxi driver, computed before any deduction under Chapter III of Title II of Book III;

(b) the taxpayer's gross revenue for the year from the taxpayer's business of providing transportation by taxi; and

(c) the taxpayer's gross revenue for the year from the leasing of any motor vehicle attached to a taxi owner's permit of which the taxpayer is the holder.

2003, c. 9, s. 366; 2019, c. 14, s. 421.

1029.9.3.1. The amount to which the first paragraph of section 1029.9.2.1 refers in respect of a partnership for a fiscal period is equal to 2% of the aggregate of

(a) the partnership's gross revenue for the fiscal period from its business of providing transportation by taxi; and

(b) the partnership's gross revenue for the fiscal period from the leasing of any motor vehicle attached to a taxi owner's permit of which the partnership is the holder.

2019, c. 14, s. 422.

1029.9.3.2. For the purposes of section 1029.9.2.1, the following rules must be taken into consideration in respect of a taxpayer if, for a given fiscal period of a given partnership, one or more partnerships (each of which is in this section referred to as an "interposed partnership") are interposed between the taxpayer and the given partnership:

(a) the taxpayer is deemed to be a member of a particular partnership at the end of a particular fiscal period of the particular partnership and that particular fiscal period is deemed to end in the taxpayer's taxation year in which ends the fiscal period of the interposed partnership of which the taxpayer is directly a member, if

i. the particular fiscal period is that which ends in the fiscal period (in this section referred to as the "interposed fiscal period") of the interposed partnership that is a member of the particular partnership at the end of that particular fiscal period, and

ii. the taxpayer is a member, or deemed to be a member under this paragraph, of the interposed partnership described in subparagraph i at the end of the interposed partnership's interposed fiscal period; and

(b) for the purpose of determining the taxpayer's share in an amount in respect of the given partnership for the given fiscal period, the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for that fiscal period of the given partnership is deemed to be equal to the product obtained by multiplying the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the interposed fiscal period of the interposed partnership of which the taxpayer is directly a member, by

i. if there is only one interposed partnership, the agreed proportion in respect of the interposed partnership for the given partnership's given fiscal period, or

ii. if there is more than one interposed partnership, the result obtained by multiplying together all proportions each of which is the agreed proportion in respect of an interposed partnership for the particular fiscal period of the particular partnership referred to in paragraph a of which the interposed partnership is a member at the end of that particular fiscal period.

1029.9.3.3. Section 1029.9.3.2 does not apply in respect of a taxpayer, in relation to a given partnership, if the Minister is of the opinion that the interposition, between the taxpayer and the given partnership, of one or more other partnerships is part of an operation or transaction or of a series of operations or transactions, one of the purposes of which is to cause the taxpayer to be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year, under section 1029.9.2.1, an amount greater than the amount that would have been so deemed to have been paid to the Minister for that taxation year, but for that interposition.

1029.9.4. For the purposes of this Part and the regulations, the amount that a taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under any of sections 1029.9.1 to 1029.9.2.1 is deemed not to be an amount of assistance or an inducement received by the taxpayer from a government.

1031.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of a fiscal law, where a day determined under any of subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 653 in respect of a trust occurs in a taxation year of the trust and the trust is required to pay tax under this Part for that year the amount of which exceeds the amount that, but for those subparagraphs, would otherwise be payable, the trust may, if it so elects in prescribed manner and within the time prescribed and furnishes to the Minister security acceptable to the Minister for payment of any tax the payment of which is deferred by the election, pay all or any portion of such excess in such number, not exceeding ten, of equal consecutive annual instalments as is specified in its election.

The first instalment shall be paid on or before the day on which payment of the tax would, but for the election, have been required to be made and each subsequent instalment shall be paid on or before the anniversary of that day.

Interest at the rate fixed under section 28 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) shall be paid on every tax instalment so made, from the date on which payment of the tax would, but for the election, have been required to be made to the day of payment.

1032. Notwithstanding any other provision of a fiscal law, the legal representative of the individual contemplated by sections 429, 433 to 436, 439 and 444.1 who must pay for a taxation year tax exceeding that which would have been payable in the absence of the said sections may, if he furnishes to the Minister security the latter considers acceptable, elect, in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time, to pay part or all of such excess in equal consecutive annual instalments, not exceeding ten, as is specified in his election and every payment shall be made on the conditions and at the rate of interest provided for in the second and third paragraphs of section 1031.1.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the tax for the year shall include the tax that is payable owing to the election referred to in section 429.

1033. Where an amount is included in computing the income of an individual by virtue of paragraph c of section 46 of the Act respecting the application of the Taxation Act (chapter I-4) for the year of his death, section 1032 applies as though that amount were so included by virtue of section 429 or were deemed to have been received by him by virtue of section 436.

1033.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of a fiscal law, if a member institution furnishes adequate security to the Minister in relation to, or on behalf of, a deposit insurance corporation within the meaning assigned by sections 804 to 806, the Minister shall, until the day specified in the second paragraph, suspend the payment of the aggregate of

(a) the tax payable under this Part by the member institution for a taxation year to the extent that the amount of that tax exceeds the amount of tax that would be payable if no amount that the member institution is obliged to repay to the corporation were included, under subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph of section 814, in computing the member institution's income for the year; and

(b) interest payable under this Part by the member institution on the amount determined under paragraph a.

The day contemplated in the first paragraph is the earlier of the day on which the obligation referred to in paragraph a of the first paragraph to repay the amount to the corporation is settled or extinguished and the day that is ten years after the end of the year contemplated in such paragraph a .

CHAPTER IV.1

SECURITY FOR DEPARTURE FROM CANADA

2004, c. 8, s. 180.

1033.2. Where, at any particular time in a taxation year (in this section and sections 1033.3 and 1033.4 referred to as the "emigration year"), an individual is deemed by section 785.2 to have disposed of property, other than a right to a benefit under, or an interest in a trust governed by, an employee benefit plan, and the individual elects, in the prescribed form containing prescribed information, on or before the individual's balance-due day for the emigration year, that this section and sections 1033.3 to 1033.6 apply to the emigration year, the following rules apply:

(a) the Minister shall, until the individual's balance-due day for a particular taxation year that begins after the particular time, accept security satisfactory to the Minister and furnished by or on behalf of the individual on or before the individual's balance-due day for the emigration year for the lesser of

i. the amount determined by the formula

$$A - B - \{[(A - B) / A] \times C\}, \text{ and}$$

ii. if the particular year is the year that follows the emigration year, the amount determined under subparagraph i, and in any other case, the amount determined under this subparagraph in respect of the individual for the taxation year that precedes the particular year; and

(b) except for the purposes of the first, second and third paragraphs of section 1038, the following interest and penalties shall be computed as if the particular amount for which security satisfactory to the Minister has been accepted under this section were an amount paid by the individual on account of the particular amount:

i. interest payable under this Part for any period that ends on the individual's balance-due day for the particular year and throughout which security is accepted by the Minister, and

ii. penalties payable under this Part computed with reference to an individual's tax payable for the year that was, without reference to this subparagraph, unpaid.

In the formula provided for in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount of tax that would be payable by the individual under this Part for the emigration year if the exclusion from income or deduction of an amount referred to in the first paragraph of section 1044 were not taken into account;

(b) B is the amount of tax that would have been so payable by the individual under this Part if each property, other than a right to a benefit under, or an interest in a trust governed by, an employee benefit plan, deemed by section 785.2 to have been disposed of at the particular time, and that has not been subsequently disposed of before the beginning of the particular year, were not deemed by that section to have been disposed of by the individual at the particular time; and

(c) C is the aggregate of all amounts deemed under this or any other Act to have been paid on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for the emigration year.

1033.3. For the purposes of section 1033.2, this section and sections 1033.4 to 1033.6, where an individual, other than a trust, elects under section 1033.2 that that section apply in respect of a taxation year, the Minister is deemed to have accepted at any time after the election was made security satisfactory to the Minister for a total amount of tax payable under this Part by the individual for the emigration year equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount of tax that would be payable for the year by a trust to which section 768 applies that is resident in Québec on the last day of the year and whose taxable income for the year is $50,000; and

(b) the greatest amount for which the Minister is required to accept security furnished by or on behalf of the individual under section 1033.2 at the particular time in respect of the emigration year.

The security referred to in the first paragraph is deemed to have been furnished by the individual before the individual's balance-due day for the emigration year.

1033.4. Notwithstanding sections 1033.2 and 1033.3, the Minister is deemed at any time not to have accepted security under section 1033.2 in respect of an individual's emigration year for any amount greater than the amount by which the particular tax that would be payable by the individual under this Part for the year if the exclusion from income or deduction of an amount referred to in the first paragraph of section 1044, in respect of which the date determined in accordance with the second paragraph of that section is after that time, were not taken into account, exceeds the amount determined under the second paragraph.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the particular tax that would be determined under that paragraph if this Act were read without reference to section 785.2.

2004, c. 8, s. 180.

1033.5. Subject to section 1033.11, if it is determined at any particular time that security accepted by the Minister under section 1033.2 is not adequate to secure the particular amount for which it was furnished by or on behalf of an individual, the following rules apply:

(a) subject to a subsequent application of this section, the security shall be considered after the particular time to secure only the amount for which it is security considered satisfactory at the particular time;

(b) the Minister shall notify the individual in writing of the determination and shall accept security satisfactory to the Minister, for all or any part of the particular amount, furnished by or on behalf of the individual within 90 days after the day of notification; and

(c) any security accepted in accordance with paragraph b is deemed to have been accepted by the Minister under section 1033.2 on account of the particular amount at the particular time.

2004, c. 8, s. 180.

1033.6. If in the opinion of the Minister it would be just and equitable to do so, the Minister may at any time extend

(a) the time for making an election under section 1033.2;

(b) the time for furnishing and accepting security under section 1033.2; or

(c) the 90-day period for the acceptance of security under paragraph b of section 1033.5.

2004, c. 8, s. 180.

1033.7. The rules in the second paragraph apply where

(a) solely because of the application of section 692, subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 688 do not apply to a distribution by a trust in a particular taxation year, in this section and section 1033.8 referred to as the "distribution year", of taxable Canadian property; and

(b) the trust elects, in prescribed manner on or before the trust's balance-due day for the distribution year, that this section and sections 1033.8 to 1033.10 apply in respect of the distribution year.

The rules to which the first paragraph refers are as follows:

(a) the Minister shall, until the trust's balance-due day for a subsequent taxation year, accept security satisfactory to the Minister and furnished by or on behalf of the trust on or before the trust's balance-due day for the distribution year for the lesser of

i. the amount determined by the formula

$$A - B - \{[(A - B) / A] \times C\}, \text{ and}$$

ii. if the subsequent year is the year that follows the distribution year, the amount determined under subparagraph i, and in any other case, the amount determined under this subparagraph in respect of the trust for the taxation year that precedes the subsequent year; and

(b) except for the purposes of the first, second and third paragraphs of section 1038, the following interest and penalties shall be computed as if the particular amount for which security satisfactory to the Minister has been accepted under this section were an amount paid by the trust on account of the particular amount:

i. interest payable under this Part for any period that ends on the trust's balance-due day for the subsequent year and throughout which security is accepted by the Minister, and

ii. penalties payable under this Part computed with reference to the trust's tax payable for the year that was, without reference to this subparagraph, unpaid.

In the formula provided for in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the second paragraph,

(a) A is the amount of tax that would be payable by the trust under this Part for the distribution year if the exclusion from income or deduction of an amount referred to in the first paragraph of section 1044 were not taken into account;

(b) B is the amount of tax that would be so payable by the individual under this Part if the rules in section 688, other than the election referred to in that section, had applied to each distribution by the trust in the distribution year of property, other than property subsequently disposed of before the beginning of the subsequent year, to which subparagraph a of the first paragraph applies; and

(c) C is the aggregate of all amounts deemed under this or any other Act to have been paid on account of the trust's tax payable under this Part for the distribution year.

2004, c. 8, s. 180.

1033.8. Notwithstanding section 1033.7, the Minister is deemed at any time not to have accepted security under that section in respect of a trust's distribution year for any amount greater than the amount by which the particular tax that would be payable by the trust under this Part for the year if the exclusion from income or deduction of an amount referred to in the first paragraph of section 1044 in respect of which the date determined in accordance with the second paragraph of that section is after that time, were not taken into account, exceeds the amount determined under the second paragraph.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the particular tax that would be determined under that paragraph if subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 688 had applied to each distribution by the trust in the year of property to which subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1033.7 applies.

2004, c. 8, s. 180.

1033.9. Subject to section 1033.11, if it is determined at any particular time that security accepted by the Minister under section 1033.7 is not adequate to secure the particular amount for which it was furnished by or on behalf of a trust, the following rules apply:

(a) subject to a subsequent application of this section, the security shall be considered after the particular time to secure only the amount for which it is security considered satisfactory at the particular time;

(b) the Minister shall notify the trust in writing of the determination and shall accept security satisfactory to the Minister, for all or any part of the particular amount, furnished by or on behalf of the trust within 90 days after the notification; and

(c) any security accepted in accordance with paragraph b is deemed to have been accepted by the Minister under section 1033.7 on account of the particular amount at the particular time.

2004, c. 8, s. 180.

1033.10. If in the opinion of the Minister it would be just and equitable to do so, the Minister may at any time extend

(a) the time for making an election under section 1033.7;

(b) the time for furnishing and accepting security under section 1033.7; or

(c) the 90-day period for the acceptance of security under paragraph b of section 1033.9.

2004, c. 8, s. 180.

1033.11. The Minister may, in respect of an election made by an individual under section 1033.2 or 1033.7, accept for any particular period of time security different from, or of lesser value than, that which the Minister would otherwise accept under that section, if, in respect of that period, the Minister determines that the individual cannot, without undue hardship, pay or reasonably arrange to have paid on the individual's behalf, an amount of tax to which security under that section would relate, and cannot, without undue hardship, furnish or reasonably arrange to have furnished on the individual's behalf, adequate security under that section.

1033.12. In making a determination under section 1033.11, the Minister shall ignore any transaction that is a disposition, lease, encumbrance, hypothec, mortgage or other voluntary restriction by a person or partnership of the person's or partnership's rights in respect of a property, if the transaction can reasonably be considered to have been entered into for the purpose of influencing the determination.

2004, c. 8, s. 180; 2005, c. 1, s. 270.

1033.13. The prescription provided for in the first paragraph of section 27.3 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) is suspended for the time during which a security is accepted or is deemed to be accepted by the Minister under this chapter.

2004, c. 8, s. 180; 2010, c. 31, s. 175.

CHAPTER IV.2

SECURITY IN RESPECT OF THE DEEMED DISPOSITION OF A SHARE OF A PUBLIC CORPORATION

2019, c. 14, s. 424.

DIVISION I

INTERPRETATION AND GENERAL RULES

2019, c. 14, s. 424.

1033.14. In this chapter,

"base total payroll in Québec" of a corporation for a particular taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1033.15;

"eligible employee" of a corporation for a pay period means an employee of the corporation who, throughout that period, reports for work at an establishment of the corporation situated in Québec;

"eligible share" means

(a) a share forming part of a large block of shares or of a portion of a large block of shares of the capital stock of a qualified public corporation; or

(b) a share of the capital stock of a private corporation more than 50% of the fair market value of the assets of which is attributable to a large block of shares or a portion of a large block of shares of the capital stock of a qualified public corporation;

"large block of shares" of the capital stock of a corporation means a block of shares of the capital stock of the corporation that gives its owner more than 33 1/3% of the votes that could be cast under any circumstances at the annual meeting of shareholders of the corporation;

"portion of a large block of shares" of the capital stock of a corporation means one or more shares of the capital stock of the corporation owned by a member of a related group at a particular time if the following conditions are met at the particular time:

(a) each member of the related group owns shares of the capital stock of the corporation; and

(b) the related group owns a large block of shares of the capital stock of the corporation;

"qualified public corporation" at a particular time means a corporation that, in relation to a share owned by an individual,

(a) is a public corporation at that time;

(b) has its head office in Québec at that time; and

(c) unless the particular time corresponds to the time of the deemed disposition of the share by the individual under section 436 or 653, its base total payroll in Québec for its taxation year that includes the particular time is at least 75% of its base total payroll in Québec for the taxation year in which the deemed disposition occurred;

"total payroll in Québec" of a corporation for a taxation year means the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the salary or wages paid by the corporation in a pay period that ends in the year to an eligible employee of the corporation for the pay period.

For the purposes of the definition of "eligible employee" in the first paragraph,

(a) where, during a pay period included in a taxation year, an employee of a corporation reports for work at an establishment of the corporation situated in Québec and at an establishment of the corporation situated outside Québec, the employee is, for that period, deemed

i. unless subparagraph ii applies, to report for work only at the establishment situated in Québec, or

ii. to report for work only at the establishment situated outside Québec if, during that period, the employee reports for work mainly at an establishment of the corporation situated outside Québec; and

(b) where, during a pay period included in a taxation year, an employee of a corporation is not required to report for work at an establishment of the corporation and the employee's salary or wages in relation to that period are paid from such an establishment situated in Québec, the employee is deemed to report for work at that establishment if the duties performed by the employee during that period are performed mainly in Québec.

1033.15. Subject to section 1033.16, a corporation's base total payroll in Québec for a particular taxation year means the amount determined by the formula

$$(A \times 365) / B.$$

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the total of all amounts each of which is the corporation's total payroll in Québec for a taxation year of the corporation ended in the period of 1,095 consecutive days that ends at the end of the particular taxation year; and

(b) B is the total of the number of days included in each of the taxation years referred to in subparagraph a.

2019, c. 14, s. 424.

1033.16. The base total payroll in Québec for a particular taxation year of a corporation that is associated with another corporation in the particular year is equal to the aggregate of

(a) its base total payroll in Québec for the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the base total payroll in Québec of another corporation with which the corporation is associated in the particular year for the taxation year of the other corporation that ends in the particular year.

2019, c. 14, s. 424.

DIVISION II

SECURITY IN RESPECT OF CERTAIN DEEMED DISPOSITIONS OF ELIGIBLE SHARES

2019, c. 14, s. 424.

1033.17. Where, at a particular time in a taxation year (in this section and section 1033.20 referred to as the "year of disposition"), an individual is deemed under section 436 to have disposed of an eligible share of a particular class of the capital stock of a corporation and the individual's legal representative elects, in the prescribed form containing prescribed information, on or before the individual's balance-due day for the year of disposition, to have this chapter apply to the year of disposition, the following rules apply:

(a) the Minister shall, until the balance-due day of a particular person who is either the individual's succession or a beneficiary of the succession referred to in the fourth paragraph for a particular taxation year that begins after the particular time, accept security satisfactory to the Minister and furnished by the individual's legal representative on or before the individual's balance-due day for the year of disposition for the lesser of

i. the amount determined by the formula

$$120\% \{A - B - [(A - B)/A \times C]\} \times D, \text{ and}$$

ii. if the particular year is the year that follows the year of disposition, the amount determined under subparagraph i and, in any other case, the amount determined under this subparagraph a in respect of the particular person for the taxation year that precedes the particular year; and

(b) except for the purposes of the first, second and third paragraphs of section 1038, the following interest and penalties shall be computed as if the particular amount for which security satisfactory to the Minister has been accepted under this section were, on the one hand, equal to the amount that would be determined in accordance with subparagraph a if the formula in subparagraph i of that subparagraph were read as if "120%" were replaced by "100%" and, on the other hand, an amount paid by the individual or the particular person, as the case may be, on account of the particular amount:

i. interest payable under this Part for any period that begins on the individual's balance-due day for the year of disposition and ends on the particular person's balance-due day for the particular year and throughout which security is accepted by the Minister, and

ii. penalties payable under this Part computed with reference to an individual's tax payable for the year that was, without reference to this subparagraph b, unpaid.

In the formula in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount of tax that would be payable by the individual under this Part for the year of disposition if the exclusion from income or deduction of an amount referred to in the first paragraph of section 1044 were not taken into account;

(b) B is the amount of tax that would have been so payable by the individual under this Part if all the shares, each of which is an eligible share of the particular class deemed under section 436 to have been disposed of at the particular time, other than a share in respect of which one of the conditions in the third paragraph is met, were not deemed by that section to have been disposed of by the individual at the particular time;

(c) C is the aggregate of all amounts deemed under this or any other Act to have been paid on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for the year of disposition; and

(d) D is

i. where the share that is deemed under section 436 to have been disposed of at the particular time is an eligible share of a private corporation described in paragraph b of the definition of "eligible share" in the first paragraph of section 1033.14, the proportion, expressed as a percentage, that the fair market value of the assets of the private corporation that is attributable to a large block of shares or a portion of a large block of shares of the capital stock of a qualified public corporation is, at the particular time, of the fair market value of the assets of the private corporation, or

ii. in any other case, 100%.

The conditions to which subparagraph b of the second paragraph refers in respect of a share are as follows:

(a) it is subsequently disposed of before the beginning of the particular year;

(b) it ceases, throughout a one-month period ending in the particular year, to be an eligible share of the particular person; and

(c) the twentieth anniversary of its deemed disposition occurs in the particular year.

Where an eligible share of the capital stock of a corporation owned by the individual at the particular time is transferred as a consequence of a distribution by the individual's succession to a beneficiary of the succession, where, immediately after the transfer, the share is an eligible share and where an agreement effecting novation is entered into between the Minister and the beneficiary under which the indebtedness represented by tax attributable to the deemed disposition of the share becomes the debt of the beneficiary, this chapter applies, with the necessary modifications, from the transfer, in respect of satisfactory security furnished by the beneficiary and accepted by the Minister, as if the beneficiary were the same person as and a continuation of the individual's succession.

Where the proportion described in subparagraph i of subparagraph d of the second paragraph is greater than 95%, it is deemed to be equal to 100%.

1033.18. Where, at a particular time in a taxation year (in this section and section 1033.20 referred to as the "year of disposition"), a trust is deemed under section 653 to have disposed of an eligible share of a particular class of the capital stock of a corporation and it elects, in the prescribed form containing prescribed information, on or before its balance-due day for the year of disposition, to have this chapter apply to the year of disposition, the following rules apply:

(a) the Minister shall, until the balance-due day of a particular person that is either the trust or a beneficiary referred to in the fourth paragraph for a particular taxation year that begins after the particular time, accept security satisfactory to the Minister and furnished by or on behalf of the trust on or before the trust's balance-due day for the year of disposition for the lesser of

i. the amount determined by the formula

$$120\% \{A - B - [(A - B)/A \times C]\} \times D, \text{ and}$$

ii. if the particular year is the year that follows the year of disposition, the amount determined under subparagraph i and, in any other case, the amount determined under this subparagraph a in respect of the particular person for the taxation year that precedes the particular year; and

(b) except for the purposes of the first, second and third paragraphs of section 1038, the following interest and penalties shall be computed as if the particular amount for which security satisfactory to the Minister has been accepted under this section were, on the one hand, equal to the amount that would be determined in accordance with subparagraph a if the formula in subparagraph i of that subparagraph were read as if "120%" were replaced by "100%" and, on the other hand, an amount paid by the particular person on account of the particular amount:

i. interest payable under this Part for any period that ends on the particular person's balance-due day for the particular year and throughout which security is accepted by the Minister, and

ii. penalties payable under this Part computed with reference to the particular person's tax payable for the year that was, without reference to this subparagraph b, unpaid.

In the formula in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount of tax that would be payable by the trust under this Part for the year of disposition if the exclusion from income or deduction of an amount referred to in the first paragraph of section 1044 were not taken into account;

(b) B is the amount of tax that would have been so payable by the trust under this Part if all the shares, each of which is an eligible share of the particular class deemed under section 653 to have been disposed of at the particular time, other than a share in respect of which one of the conditions in the third paragraph is met, were not deemed under that section to have been disposed of by the trust at the particular time;

(c) C is the aggregate of all amounts deemed under this or any other Act to have been paid on account of the trust's tax payable under this Part for the year of disposition; and

(d) D is

i. where the share that is deemed under section 653 to have been disposed of at the particular time is an eligible share of a private corporation described in paragraph b of the definition of "eligible share" in the first paragraph of section 1033.14, the proportion, expressed as a percentage, that the fair market value of the assets of the private corporation that is attributable to a large block of shares or a portion of a large block of shares of the capital stock of a qualified public corporation is, at the particular time, of the fair market value of the assets of the private corporation, or

ii. in any other case, 100%.

The conditions to which subparagraph b of the second paragraph refers in respect of a share are as follows:

(a) it is subsequently disposed of before the beginning of the particular year;

(b) it ceases, throughout a one-month period ending in the particular year, to be an eligible share of the particular person; and

(c) the twentieth anniversary of its deemed disposition occurs in the particular year.

Where an eligible share of the capital stock of a corporation owned by a trust at the particular time is transferred as a consequence of a distribution by the trust to a beneficiary of the trust, where, immediately after the transfer, the share is an eligible share and where an agreement effecting novation is entered into between the Minister and the beneficiary under which the indebtedness represented by tax attributable to the deemed disposition of the share becomes the debt of the beneficiary, this chapter applies, with the necessary modifications, from the transfer, in respect of satisfactory security furnished by the beneficiary and accepted by the Minister, as if the beneficiary were the same person as and a continuation of the trust.

Where the proportion described in subparagraph i of subparagraph d of the second paragraph is greater than 95%, it is deemed to be equal to 100%.

2019, c. 14, s. 424; 2021, c. 14, s. 168.

1033.19. For the purposes of subparagraph b of the third paragraph of sections 1033.17 and 1033.18, a month means a period that begins on a particular day in a calendar month and that ends

(a) on the day immediately before the day in the following calendar month that has the same calendar number as the particular day, or

(b) where the following calendar month does not have a day that has the same calendar number as the particular day, on the last day of the following month.

2019, c. 14, s. 424.

1033.20. Despite sections 1033.17 and 1033.18, the Minister is deemed at any time not to have accepted security under either of those sections in respect of the year of disposition of eligible shares of a particular class of the capital stock of a corporation owned by an individual or a trust for an amount greater than 120% of the amount by which the particular tax that would be payable by the individual or trust, as the case may be, under this Part for the year if the exclusion from income or deduction of an amount referred to in the first paragraph of section 1044 in respect of which the date determined in accordance with the second paragraph of that section is after that time, were not taken into account, exceeds the amount determined under the second paragraph.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the particular tax that would be determined under that paragraph if the eligible shares referred to in the first paragraph were not deemed under section 436 or 653 to have been disposed of.

1033.21. Subject to section 1033.25, if it is determined at a particular time that security accepted by the Minister under section 1033.17 or 1033.18 is not adequate to secure the particular amount for which it was furnished by or on behalf of the individual's legal representative or the trust, as the case may be, the following rules apply:

(a) subject to a subsequent application of this section, the security shall be considered after the particular time to secure only the amount for which it is security considered satisfactory at the particular time;

(b) the Minister shall notify in writing the legal representative or trust, or the person referred to in the fourth paragraph of section 1033.17 or 1033.18, of the determination and shall accept security satisfactory to the Minister, for all or any part of the particular amount, furnished by the person concerned or on that person's behalf within 90 days after the notification;

(c) any security accepted in accordance with subparagraph b is deemed to have been accepted by the Minister under section 1033.17 or 1033.18, as the case may be, on account of the particular amount at the particular time; and

(d) if the person concerned fails to furnish, within the time prescribed in subparagraph b, security satisfactory to the Minister to secure the particular amount in its entirety, the portion of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1033.17 or 1033.18 before subparagraph i is to be read, after the particular time and subject to a subsequent application of this section, as if "100%" were replaced by the percentage determined by the formula

$$100\,\% - [(120\,\% - A) / 120\,\%].$$

In the formula in subparagraph d of the first paragraph, A is the proportion, expressed as a percentage, that the value of the security at the particular time, determined in accordance with the first paragraph, is of the amount that would be determined by the formula in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1033.17 or 1033.18, as the case may be, if it were read without "120%".

2019, c. 14, s. 424.

1033.22. If in the opinion of the Minister it would be just and equitable to do so, the Minister may at any time extend

(a) the time for making an election under section 1033.17 or 1033.18;

(b) the time for furnishing and accepting security, provided for in section 1033.17 or 1033.18; or

(c) the 90-day period for the acceptance of security, provided for in subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1033.21.

2019, c. 14, s. 424.

DIVISION III

METHOD FOR CALCULATING SECURITY ON THE TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE DEEMED DISPOSITION

2019, c. 14, s. 424.

1033.23. Despite sections 1033.17 and 1033.18, where the twentieth anniversary of the deemed disposition, because of section 436 or 653, of an eligible share of the capital stock of a corporation occurs in a particular taxation year of an individual and the fair market value of that eligible share on the twentieth anniversary of the deemed disposition is less than its fair market value at the time of the deemed disposition, section 1033.17 or 1033.18, as the case may be, is to be read, if the Minister is of the opinion that the reduction in value is not attributable to a distribution in any manner whatsoever, in relation to that eligible share and in respect of the individual's particular taxation year and a subsequent taxation year in respect of which section 1033.24 does not apply,

(a) as if the formula in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the first paragraph were replaced by the formula

$$120\% \{A - B - [(A - B)/A \times C]\} \times D \times (1 - E);$$

(b) (subparagraph repealed);

(c) as if the following subparagraph were added at the end of the second paragraph:

"(e) E is the proportion, expressed as a percentage, that the fair market value of the eligible share on the twenty-second anniversary of the deemed disposition is of its fair market value at the time of the deemed disposition."; and

(d) as if subparagraph c of the third paragraph were struck out.

1033.24. Where section 1033.23 applied in respect of an eligible share of the capital stock of a corporation and the fair market value of that eligible share on the twenty-second anniversary of the deemed disposition is greater than its fair market value on the twentieth anniversary of the deemed disposition, section 1033.17 or 1033.18, as the case may be, is to be read, in relation to that eligible share and in respect of the individual's particular taxation year that includes the twenty-second anniversary and the individual's following taxation year,

(a) as if the formula in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the first paragraph were replaced by the formula

$$120\% \{A – B – [(A − B)/A × C]\} × D × (1 – E);$$

(b) (subparagraph repealed);

(c) as if the following subparagraph were added at the end of the second paragraph:

"(e) E is the proportion, expressed as a percentage, that the fair market value of the eligible share on the twenty-second anniversary of the deemed disposition is of its fair market value at the time of the deemed disposition."; and

(d) as if subparagraph c of the third paragraph were struck out.

The first paragraph applies at successive two-year intervals following the twenty-second anniversary referred to in that paragraph, with the necessary modifications. However, if the fair market value of the eligible share on that subsequent anniversary is greater than its fair market value on the last anniversary in respect of which the first paragraph applied, subparagraph e of the second paragraph of section 1033.17 or 1033.18, as the case may be, enacted by subparagraph c of the first paragraph, is to be read as follows:

"(e) E is the proportion, expressed as a percentage, that the fair market value of the eligible share on the subsequent anniversary to which the second paragraph of section 1033.24 refers is of the fair market value of the eligible share at the time of the deemed disposition."

2019, c. 14, s. 424; 2021, c. 14, s. 170.

DIVISION IV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

2019, c. 14, s. 424.

1033.25. The Minister may, in respect of an election made by an individual's legal representative or a trust under section 1033.17 or 1033.18, as the case may be, accept for a particular period of time security different from, or of lesser value than, that which the Minister would otherwise accept under that section if, in respect of that period, the Minister determines that the individual's succession or the trust cannot, without undue hardship, pay or reasonably arrange to have paid on its behalf an amount of tax to which security furnished under that section would relate and cannot, without undue hardship, furnish or reasonably arrange to have furnished on its behalf adequate security under that section.

1033.26. In making a determination under section 1033.25, the Minister shall ignore any transaction that is a disposition, lease, encumbrance, hypothec, mortgage or other voluntary restriction by a person or partnership of the person's or partnership's rights in respect of a property, if the transaction can reasonably be considered to have been entered into for the purpose of influencing the determination.

2019, c. 14, s. 424.

1033.27. The prescription provided for in the first paragraph of section 27.3 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) is suspended for the period during which a security is accepted or is deemed to be accepted by the Minister under this chapter.

2019, c. 14, s. 424.

CHAPTER V

SOLIDARY LIABILITY TO PAY TAX

1972, c. 23; 1980, c. 13, s. 104.

1034. Where a person transfers property, directly or indirectly, by means of a trust or by any means whatever to a person with whom he is not dealing at arm's length, a person who is under 18 years of age, or his spouse or a person who, after the transfer, becomes his spouse, the transferee and transferor are solidarily liable to pay a part of the transferor's tax for each taxation year equal to the amount by which the tax for the year is greater than it would have been if it were not for the operation of sections 456 to 458, 462.1 to 463 and 464 to 467.1, in respect of any income from, or gain from the disposition of, the property so transferred or property substituted therefor.

1034.0.0.1. Where a particular person or partnership is deemed under section 427.4 to have disposed of a property at any time, the person referred to in subparagraph i or ii of paragraph a of that section is solidarily liable with each other taxpayer to pay a part of the other taxpayer's liabilities under this Part for each taxation year equal to the amount determined by the formula

A − B.

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the total of amounts payable under this Part by the other taxpayer for the year; and

(b) B is the amount that would, if the particular person or partnership were not deemed under section 427.4 to have disposed of the property, be determined under subparagraph a in respect of the other taxpayer for the year.

However, nothing under this section is deemed to limit the liability of the other taxpayer under any other provision of this Act.

2000, c. 5, s. 272.

1034.0.0.2. Where an amount is required to be added under section 766.3.4 in computing a specified individual's tax otherwise payable under this Part for a taxation year and the specified individual has not attained the age of 24 years before the year, the following rules apply:

(a) subject to subparagraph b, any of the following persons is solidarily liable with the specified individual to pay that amount:

i. if the specified individual has not attained the age of 17 years before the year, the father or mother of the specified individual, and

ii. if the specified individual has attained the age of 17 years before the year, the source individual in respect of the specified individual where

(1) the amount was derived directly or indirectly from a related business in respect of the specified individual, with reference to paragraph d of section 766.3.3.1, and

(2) the source individual meets the conditions set out in any of paragraphs a to c of the definition of "related business" in the first paragraph of section 766.3.3 in respect of the related business; and

(b) the liability of any of the persons referred to in subparagraph a in respect of the specified individual for the year is to be determined as though the only amounts included in the specified individual's split income for the year are amounts derived from the related business referred to in subparagraph ii of subparagraph a.

However, nothing in this section limits the liability of the specified individual under any other provision of this Act or the liability of any of the persons referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph for the interest that the person is liable to pay under this Act on an assessment in respect of an amount that the person is liable to pay because of this section.

1034.0.0.3. If a transferor and a transferee, within the meaning assigned to those expressions by the first paragraph of section 336.8, make a joint election under Chapter II.1 of Title VI of Book III in respect of a split-retirement income amount for a taxation year, determined in their respect for the purposes of that chapter, they are solidarily liable for the tax payable by the transferee under this Part for the year to the extent that that tax payable is greater than it would have been if no amount had been added because of the first paragraph of section 313.11 in computing the income of the transferee under this Part for the year.

1034.0.0.4. If section 663.0.1 deems an amount to have become payable in a taxation year of a trust to an individual, the individual and the trust are solidarily liable for the tax payable by the individual under this Part for the individual's taxation year in which the individual dies to the extent that that tax payable is greater than it would have been if the amount were not included in computing the individual's income under this Part for the year.

1034.0.1. Notwithstanding section 1034, the rules mentioned in section 1034.0.2 apply where a taxpayer transfers property to his spouse under a decree, order or judgment of a competent tribunal or under a written separation agreement and where, at the time of the transfer, the taxpayer and his spouse are living apart because of the breakdown of their marriage.

However, nothing in section 1034.0.2 or in this section shall operate to reduce the taxpayer's liability under any other provision of this Act.

1986, c. 15, s. 181; 1995, c. 1, s. 169; 1995, c. 49, s. 236.

1034.0.2. The rules contemplated in section 1034.0.1 are the following:

(a) where the property is transferred after 15 February 1984, the transferee shall not be liable to pay under section 1034 any amount in respect of any income from, or gain from the disposition of, the property so transferred or property substituted therefor;

(b) where the property is transferred before 16 February 1984, and where the transferee would, but for this paragraph, be liable to pay an amount under this Act by virtue of section 1034, the transferee's liability in respect of that amount shall be deemed to have been discharged on 16 February 1984.

1034.1. (1) Where an amount is received out of or under a registered retirement savings plan by an individual other than an annuitant within the meaning of paragraph b of section 905.1 under the plan, and that amount or part thereof would, but for subparagraph i of paragraph a of that section, be received by the individual as a benefit within the meaning of the said paragraph a, the individual and the last annuitant under the plan are solidarily liable to pay a part of the annuitant's tax under this Part for the year of his death equal to that proportion of the amount by which that tax exceeds the tax that would have been computed but for section 915.2 that the aggregate of all amounts received from the plan by the individual and that would, but for the said subparagraph i, be a benefit, within the meaning of the said paragraph a, received by the taxpayer, is of the amount included under section 915.2 in computing the income of the annuitant.

(2) Where an amount is received out of or under a registered retirement income fund by an individual, other than an annuitant under the fund, and that amount or part thereof would, but for subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 961.17, be included in computing the individual's income for the year of receipt pursuant to the first paragraph of the said section, the individual and the annuitant under the fund are solidarily liable to pay a part of the annuitant's tax under this Part for the year of his death equal to that proportion of the amount by which that tax exceeds the tax that would have been computed but for section 961.17.1 that the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount received from the fund by the individual and that would, but for subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 961.17, be included in computing the individual's income for the year of receipt pursuant to the first paragraph of the said section is of the amount included pursuant to section 961.17.1 in computing the annuitant's income.

(2.0.1) If a taxpayer is deemed under section 467.2 to have received at any time an amount out of or under an annuity that is a qualifying trust annuity with respect to the taxpayer, the taxpayer, the annuitant under the annuity and the policyholder are solidarily liable to pay the part of the taxpayer's tax under this Part for the taxation year of the taxpayer that includes that time that is equal to the amount by which that tax exceeds the tax that would have been computed in respect of the taxpayer for the year if no amount were deemed under section 467.2 to have been received by the taxpayer out of or under the annuity in the year.

(2.0.2) Where an amount required to be included in the income of the holder of a first home savings account by virtue of Title IV.4 of Book VII is received by a taxpayer other than the holder, the taxpayer is solidarily liable with the holder to pay a part of the holder's tax under this Part for the taxation year in which the amount is received equal to the amount by which that tax exceeds the amount that would be the holder's tax for the year if the amount had not been received.

(2.1) Where an amount required to be included in the income of a taxpayer by virtue of paragraph a of section 890.9 is received by a person with whom the taxpayer is not dealing at arm's length, that person is solidarily liable with the taxpayer to pay a part of the taxpayer's tax under this Part for the taxation year in which the amount is received equal to the amount by which the taxpayer's tax for the year exceeds the amount that would be his tax for the year if the amount had not been received.

(3) However, this section does not free the annuitant under the plan or fund, the taxpayer or the holder, as the case may be, from liabilities under any other provision of this Act.

1034.2. Where property is transferred at any time by a corporation to a taxpayer with whom the corporation does not deal at arm's length at that time and the corporation is not entitled because of section 346.3 to deduct an amount under section 346.2 in computing its income for a taxation year because of the transfer or because of the transfer and one or more other transactions, the taxpayer is solidarily liable with the corporation to pay an amount of the corporation's tax under this Part for the year equal to the amount by which the fair market value of the property at that time exceeds the fair market value at that time of the consideration given for the property.

However, nothing in this section limits the liability of the corporation under any other provision of this Act.

1034.3. Where property is transferred at any time from a taxpayer, in this section referred to as the "transferor", to another taxpayer, in this section referred to as the "transferee", with whom the transferor does not deal at arm's length, the transferor is liable because of this section or section 1034.2, to pay an amount of the tax of another person, in this section referred to as the "debtor", under this Part, and it can reasonably be considered that one of the reasons of the transfer is to prevent the enforcement of this section or section 1034.2, the transferee is solidarily liable with the transferor and the debtor to pay an amount of the debtor's tax under this Part equal to the lesser of the amount of such tax that the transferor was liable to pay at that time and the amount by which the fair market value of the property at that time exceeds the fair market value at that time of the consideration given for the property.

However, nothing in this section limits the liability of the debtor or the transferor under any provision of this Act.

1034.3.1. For the purposes of sections 1034.2 and 1034.3, the fair market value at any time of an undivided right in a property is deemed to be equal to the proportion of the fair market value of the property at that time that the right is of all the undivided rights in the property.

2001, c. 53, s. 230; 2020, c. 16, s. 164.

1034.4. Where, for a taxation year, the Minister has refunded an amount to an individual or has applied an amount to another of the individual's liabilities, and that amount is greater than the amount that should have been refunded or applied, the individual and the person who, for the year, is the individual's eligible spouse are solidarily liable for payment of that excess amount, to the extent that the excess amount may reasonably be considered to relate to the application of section 1029.8.105, as it read before being repealed.

However, nothing in this section limits the liability of the individual or the individual's eligible spouse for the year, where applicable, under any other provision of this Act.

1034.5. For the purposes of section 1034.4 and of section 1035 where that section applies in respect of an eligible spouse of an individual in relation to an amount payable under section 1034.4, "eligible spouse" of an individual for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.101, as it read before being repealed.

1034.6. Where, for a taxation year, the Minister has refunded an amount to an individual or has applied an amount to another of the individual's liabilities, and that amount is greater than the amount that should have been refunded or applied, the individual and the person who, for the year, is the individual's eligible spouse are solidarily liable for payment of that excess amount, to the extent that the excess amount may reasonably be considered to relate to the application of section 1029.8.114 or 1029.8.114.1, as it read before being repealed.

However, nothing in this section limits the liability of the individual or the individual's eligible spouse for the year, where applicable, under any other provision of this Act.

1034.7. For the purposes of section 1034.6 and of section 1035 where that section applies in respect of an eligible spouse of an individual in relation to an amount payable under section 1034.6, "eligible spouse" of an individual for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.110, as it read before being repealed.

1999, c. 83, s. 222; 2021, c. 14, s. 174.

1034.8. If, for a taxation year, the Minister has refunded an amount to a trust governed by a registered education savings plan or has applied an amount to another of the trust's liabilities, and that amount is greater than the amount that should have been refunded or applied, a beneficiary in respect of whom an educational assistance payment has been made under the plan is solidarily liable with the trust for payment of the excess amount, to the extent that the excess amount may reasonably be considered to relate to the application of section 1029.8.128 and up to the portion of the educational assistance payment that may reasonably be attributed to the excess amount.

However, nothing in this section limits the liability of the trust or the beneficiary under any other provision of this Act.

2009, c. 5, s. 485.

1034.9. For the purposes of section 1034.8 and section 1035 when that section applies in respect of a beneficiary in relation to an amount payable under section 1034.8, "beneficiary", "educational assistance payment" and "trust" have the meaning assigned by section 890.15.

2009, c. 5, s. 485.

1034.10. If, in computing taxable income for a taxation year, a taxpayer is required to include an amount in respect of a disability assistance payment, within the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 905.0.3, that is deemed under subparagraph b or c of the first paragraph of section 905.0.20 to have been made at a particular time from a registered disability savings plan, the taxpayer and each holder, within the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 905.0.3, of the plan immediately after the particular time are solidarily liable to pay a part of the taxpayer's tax under this Part for that taxation year that is equal to the amount determined by the formula

A - B.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount of the taxpayer's tax under this Part for the year; and

(b) B is the amount that would be the taxpayer's tax under this Part for the year if no disability assistance payment were deemed by subparagraph b or c of the first paragraph of section 905.0.20 to have been made from a registered disability savings plan at a particular time.

However, this section limits neither the liability of the taxpayer under any other provision of this Act, nor the liability of any holder for the interest that the holder is liable to pay under this Act on an assessment in respect of an amount that the holder is liable to pay because of this section.

1035. The Minister may at any time assess a taxpayer in respect of any amount payable under any of sections 1034 to 1034.0.0.4, any of subsections 1 to 2.1 of section 1034.1 or any of sections 1034.2, 1034.3, 1034.4, 1034.6, 1034.8 and 1034.10, as the case may be, and this Book applies, with the necessary modifications, to an assessment made under this section as though it had been made under Title II.

1972, c. 23, s. 760; 1973, c. 17, s. 118; 1980, c. 13, s. 106; 1989, c. 77, s. 105; 1995, c. 63, s. 261; 1996, c. 39, s. 252; 1997, c. 85, s. 274; 1999, c. 83, s. 223; 2000, c. 5, s. 273; 2001, c. 53, s. 231; 2003, c. 9, s. 368; 2009, c. 5, s. 486; 2009, c. 15, s. 355; 2017, c. 1, s. 339; 2017, c. 29, s. 198.

1035.1. The Minister may at any time assess a taxpayer in respect of any amount payable under paragraph g of section 595 or section 597.0.15, and this Book applies, with the necessary modifications, to an assessment made under this section as though it had been made under Title II.

1036. If a particular taxpayer and another taxpayer are, under paragraph g of section 595 or any of sections 597.0.15, 1034 to 1034.0.0.4, 1034.1 to 1034.3, 1034.4, 1034.6, 1034.8 and 1034.10, as the case may be, solidarily liable in respect of all or part of a liability of the other taxpayer, the following rules apply:

(a) a payment by, and on account of the liability of, the particular taxpayer discharges, up to the amount of the payment, their solidary liability; and

(b) a payment by, and on account of the liability of, the other taxpayer discharges the liability of the particular taxpayer only to the extent that the payment operates to reduce the liability of the other taxpayer to an amount less than the amount in respect of which the particular taxpayer is solidarily liable under paragraph g of section 595 or any of sections 597.0.15, 1034 to 1034.0.0.4, 1034.1 to 1034.3, 1034.4, 1034.6, 1034.8 and 1034.10, as the case may be.

TITLE IV

INTEREST

1972, c. 23.

1037. Any tax that is unpaid by a taxpayer on the taxpayer's balance-due day for the year shall bear interest at the rate fixed under section 28 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002), from the taxpayer's balance-due day to the day of payment.

1972, c. 23, s. 762; 1972, c. 26, s. 73; 1993, c. 19, s. 132; 1997, c. 31, s. 121; 2010, c. 31, s. 175.

1038. In addition to the interest payable under section 1037, the taxpayer liable to make a payment under sections 1025 to 1027 shall pay interest, on every payment or part of a payment which he has not made on or before the date of expiry of the time granted for making it, at the rate fixed in section 28 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002), for the period extending from that date to the day of payment or to the day when he becomes liable to pay interest under section 1037, whichever is earlier.

For the purposes of this section and section 1040, any individual required to make a payment for a particular taxation year under section 1025 is deemed to have been liable to make a payment based on the least of

(a) the amount by which the tax payable by the individual for the particular year, determined without reference to the specified tax consequences for the particular year, section 313.11 and Chapter II.1 of Title VI of Book III, but with reference to the amount that the individual could deduct from the individual's tax otherwise payable for the year under section 776.41.5 if the individual's eligible spouse for the year were not required to include an amount in computing income for the year under section 313.11, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the aggregate of all amounts deducted or withheld under section 1015, but without reference to section 1017.2, in respect of the individual's income for the particular year,

ii. the aggregate of all amounts the individual is deemed under Chapter III.1 of Title III to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year, except any such amounts the individual is deemed to have paid under Divisions II to II.3.0.1, II.5.1, II.5.2, II.6.4 to II.6.4.2.1, II.11.1, II. 11.7.2, II.12.1, II.13 if tax is payable by the individual for the particular year under Part I.3.2, II.17.1 and II.27 of that chapter and sections 1029.9.2 and 1029.9.2.1 and any such amounts in respect of which section 1029.6.0.1.9 applies,

iii. the amount by which the amount the individual is deemed under Division II.11.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year exceeds the individual's tax payable for the particular year under Part I.3,

iii.1. the amount by which the amount the individual is deemed under Division II.11.7.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year exceeds the individual's tax payable for the particular year under Part I.3.5,

iv. the amount by which the amount the individual is deemed under Division II.12.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year exceeds the individual's tax payable for the particular year under Part I.3.3; and

v. the amount by which the amount the individual is deemed under Division II.27 of Chapter III.1 of Title III to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year exceeds the individual's tax payable for the particular year under Part I.3.4; and

(b) the individual's basic provisional account, established in accordance with the regulations made under section 1025, for the preceding taxation year, reduced by the aggregate of

i. the aggregate of all amounts deducted or withheld under section 1015, but without reference to section 1017.2, in respect of the individual's income for the preceding taxation year,

ii. the aggregate of all amounts the individual is deemed under Chapter III.1 of Title III to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year, except any such amounts the individual is deemed to have paid under Divisions II to II.3.0.1, II.5.1, II.5.2, II.6.4 to II.6.4.2.1, II.11.1, II. 11.7.2, II.12.1, II.13 if tax is payable by the individual for the particular year under Part I.3.2, II.17.1 and II.27 of that chapter and sections 1029.9.2 and 1029.9.2.1 and any such amounts in respect of which section 1029.6.0.1.9 applies,

iii. the amount by which the amount the individual is deemed under Division II.11.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year exceeds the individual's tax payable for the particular year under Part I.3,

iii.1. the amount by which the amount the individual is deemed under Division II.11.7.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year exceeds the individual's tax payable for the particular year under Part I.3.5,

iv. the amount by which the amount the individual is deemed under Division II.12.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year exceeds the individual's tax payable for the particular year under Part I.3.3; and

v. the amount by which the amount the individual is deemed under Division II.27 of Chapter III.1 of Title III to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year exceeds the individual's tax payable for the particular year under Part I.3.4; and

(c) the amount stated to be the payment to be made by the individual for the particular year in the notice sent to the individual by the Minister.

For the purposes of this section and section 1040, any individual required to make a payment for a particular taxation year under section 1026 is deemed to have been liable to make payments based on a method described in that section 1026, whichever method gives rise to the least total amount required to be paid for the particular year on or before each of the dates referred to in that section 1026, computed in accordance with that method by reference to

(a) the amount by which the total, on the one hand, of the aggregate of all amounts the individual is deemed under Chapter III.1 of Title III to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year, except any such amounts the individual is deemed to have paid under Divisions II to II. 3.0.1, II.5.1, II.5.2, II.6.4 to II.6.4.2.1, II.11.1, II.11.7.2, II.12.1, II.13 if tax is payable by the individual for the particular year under Part I.3.2, II.17.1 and II.27 of that chapter and sections 1029.9.2 and 1029.9.2.1 and any such amounts in respect of which section 1029.6.0.1.9 applies, and, on the other hand, of the aggregate of the amount by which the amount the individual is deemed under Division II.11.1 of that chapter to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year exceeds the individual's tax payable for the particular year under Part I.3, the amount by which the amount the individual is deemed under Division II.11.7.2 of that chapter to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year exceeds the individual's tax payable for the particular year under Part I.3.5, the amount by which the amount the individual is deemed under Division II.12.1 of that chapter to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year exceeds the individual's tax payable for the particular year under Part I.3.3 and the amount by which the amount the individual is deemed under Division II.27 of that chapter to have paid to the Minister on account of the individual's tax payable for the particular year exceeds the individual's tax payable for the particular year under Part I.3.4, is exceeded by any of the following amounts:

i. the tax payable by the individual for the particular year, determined without reference to the specified tax consequences for the particular year, section 313.11 and Chapter II.1 of Title VI of Book III, but with reference to the amount that the individual could deduct from the individual's tax otherwise payable for the year under section 776.41.5 if the individual's eligible spouse for the year were not required to include an amount in computing income for the year under section 313.11, reduced by all amounts deducted or withheld under section 1015, without reference to section 1017.2, in respect of the individual's income for the particular year,

ii. the individual's basic provisional account, established in accordance with the regulations made under section 1026, for the preceding taxation year, reduced by all amounts deducted or withheld under section 1015, but without reference to section 1017.2, in respect of the individual's income for the preceding taxation year, and

iii. the individual's basic provisional account, established in accordance with the regulations made under section 1026, for the second preceding taxation year, reduced by all amounts deducted or withheld under section 1015, but without reference to section 1017.2, in respect of the individual's income for the second preceding taxation year and the individual's basic provisional account, established in the same manner, for the preceding taxation year, reduced by all amounts deducted or withheld under section 1015, but without reference to section 1017.2, in respect of the individual's income for that preceding taxation year; or

(b) the amounts stated to be the amounts of instalments payable by the individual for the particular year in the notices sent to the individual by the Minister.

For the purposes of this section and section 1040, any corporation required to make a payment for a taxation year under section 1027 is deemed to have been liable to make payments based on a method described in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of the said section 1027, whichever method gives rise to the least total amount required to be paid for the year on or before each of the dates referred to in the latter subparagraph, computed in accordance with that method by reference to

(a) the tax payable by the corporation for the year, determined without reference to the specified tax consequences for the year, or the corporation's first basic provisional account, within the meaning of the regulations under subparagraph i of the said subparagraph, for the year; or

(b) its second basic provisional account, within the meaning of the regulations under subparagraph ii of the said subparagraph, for the year and its first basic provisional account, within the meaning of the regulations under subparagraph i of the said subparagraph, for the year.

1038.1. Notwithstanding section 1038, the interest payable by a taxpayer under the said section shall not exceed the amount by which the interest that would be payable by the taxpayer under the said section if he had made no payments exceeds the amount obtained by computing interest at the rate fixed under the first paragraph of section 28 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) capitalized daily on each payment made by the taxpayer, for the period extending from the day of the payment to the taxpayer's balance-due day.

1039. For the purposes of section 1038, any payment made during a taxation year under section 1098 or 1100 by a person not resident in Canada or under section 1101 on his behalf by another person is deemed to have been made by that person not resident in Canada during the year as an instalment of tax on the first day on which he was required under this Part to pay such an instalment for the year.

For the purposes of section 1038, the amount deducted by an individual in computing his tax payable under this Part for a taxation year under section 776.17 in respect of his scientific research and experimental development tax credit for the year, within the meaning of paragraph a of section 776.6, is deemed to have been paid by the individual on the last day of the year where he filed, according to the modalities of section 1000, his fiscal return under this Part for the year, or on the day on which he files his fiscal return in other cases.

1040. Every taxpayer required to make a payment pursuant to sections 1025 to 1027 shall, in addition to interest payable under section 1038, pay additional interest at the rate of 10% per annum, for the period for which interest is payable under section 1038, on any unpaid payment or part of a payment.

The first paragraph does not apply where the amount paid by a taxpayer is

(a) where the taxpayer is a corporation, equal to or greater than 90% of the payment the taxpayer was required to make; and

(b) where the taxpayer is an individual, equal to or greater than 75% of the payment the taxpayer was required to make.

1040.1. Notwithstanding section 1040, the interest payable by a taxpayer under the said section shall not exceed the amount by which the interest that would be payable by the taxpayer under the said section if he had made no payments exceeds the amount obtained by computing interests at the rate of 10% capitalized daily on each payment made by the taxpayer, for the period extending from the day of the payment to the taxpayer's balance-due day.

1042.1. Where the tax payable under this Part by a taxpayer for a particular taxation year is increased because of one of the following operations, no interest is payable, in respect of the amount of the increase, for the period specified in the second paragraph:

(a) an adjustment of an income or profits tax payable by the taxpayer to the government of a foreign country or political subdivision of a foreign country;

(b) a reduction in the amount of taxes that meet the conditions under subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 772.5.2, that is deductible under section 772.6 or 772.8 in computing the taxpayer's tax otherwise payable under this Part for the particular year, as a result of the application of section 772.5.2, or, in the case of a corporation, of subsection 4.2 of section 126 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)), in respect of a share or debt obligation disposed of by the taxpayer in the taxation year following the particular year; or

(c) an adjustment of the income tax paid for a taxation year by a designated trust, within the meaning of the first paragraph of section 671.5, to the government of a province, other than Québec, in respect of which the taxpayer deducted, under section 772.15, an amount in computing the taxpayer's tax otherwise payable under this Part for the particular year, other than an adjustment that results from modifications made in computing the designated trust's income.

The period to which the first paragraph refers is the period

(a) that ends 90 days after the date on which the taxpayer is first notified of the amount of the adjustment, if subparagraph a of the first paragraph applies;

(b) before the date of the disposition, if subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies; and

(c) that ends 90 days after the date on which the designated trust is first notified of the amount of the adjustment, if subparagraph c of the first paragraph applies.

1995, c. 63, s. 213; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2000, c. 39, s. 201.

1043. Where the income of a taxpayer for a taxation year or part thereof is from sources in another country and the taxpayer by reason of monetary or exchange restrictions imposed by that country is unable to transfer it to Canada, the Minister may postpone the time of payment of the whole or part of the tax reasonably attributable to the income from sources in that country for a period which he determines, if he is satisfied that the payment of the whole tax for the year would impose extreme hardship on the taxpayer; in such case, no interest is exigible on the payment of tax so postponed for the period determined by the Minister.

However, the payment shall not be so postponed if such income has been, in whole or in part, transferred to Canada, used by the taxpayer for any purpose other than the payment of a tax on such income to the government of that country or has been disposed of by him.

1044. Where, for a particular taxation year, a taxpayer is entitled to exclude from the taxpayer's income under sections 294 to 298 an amount in respect of the exercise of an option in a subsequent taxation year, to exclude from the taxpayer's income or to deduct an amount by reason of the disposition in a subsequent taxation year of a work of art referred to in section 714.1 or 752.0.10.11.1 by a donee referred to in that section, to deduct an amount relating to a subsequent taxation year, or because of an event in a subsequent taxation year, and referred to in any of paragraphs b to b.1.0.1, c to d.1.0.0.4, d.1.1 and f to h of section 1012.1, to deduct an amount under any of sections 785.2.2 to 785.2.4 from the proceeds of disposition of a property because of an election made in a fiscal return for a subsequent taxation year or to reduce an amount included in computing the taxpayer's income under section 580 for the particular taxation year because of a reduction referred to in section 1012.2 in the foreign accrual property income of a foreign affiliate of the taxpayer for a taxation year of the foreign affiliate that ends in the particular taxation year, the tax payable under this Part by the taxpayer for the particular taxation year is deemed, for the purpose of computing interest payable under sections 1037 to 1040, to be equal to the tax that the taxpayer would have been required to pay if the consequences of the deduction, exclusion or reduction of those amounts were not taken into account.

However, the amount by which the tax payable under this Part by the taxpayer for the particular taxation year is reduced as a consequence of the exclusion from the income, the deduction or the reduction, as the case may be, of an amount described in the first paragraph is deemed, for the purpose of computing interest payable under sections 1037 to 1040, to have been paid by the taxpayer on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under this Part for the particular taxation year on the latest of

(a) the day on which an amended fiscal return of the taxpayer or a prescribed form was filed in accordance with any of sections 297, 716.0.1, 752.0.10.15, 1012, 1012.2, 1054, 1055.1.2 and 1055.1.3 so as to exclude from the taxpayer's income, to deduct or to reduce the amount for the particular taxation year;

(b) where, as a consequence of a request in writing, the Minister assessed the taxpayer's tax for the year so as to exclude from his income or deduct the amount for the particular taxation year, the day on which the request was made;

(c) the day immediately following the end of the subsequent taxation year relating to the amount excluded from the taxpayer's income or deducted for the particular taxation year; and

(d) the day on which the taxpayer or his legal representative files his fiscal return under this Part for the subsequent taxation year referred to in subparagraph c.

1044.0.1. Where, for a particular taxation year, a taxpayer has included an amount in computing his income by reason of the disposition in a subsequent taxation year of a work of art referred to in section 714.1 or 752.0.10.11.1 by a donee referred to in either of those sections, his tax payable under this Part for the particular taxation year is deemed, for the purpose of computing interest payable under sections 1037 to 1040, to be equal to the tax that the taxpayer would have been required to pay had he not been entitled to so include that amount.

However, the amount by which the taxpayer's tax payable under this Part for the particular taxation year is increased by reason of the inclusion of an amount described in the first paragraph is deemed, for the purpose of computing interest payable under sections 1037 to 1040, to have so increased the taxpayer's tax payable under this Part for the particular taxation year, from the taxpayer's filing-due date for the subsequent taxation year.

1044.0.2. Where the tax payable under this Part by a taxpayer for a taxation year is more than it otherwise would be because of a consequence for the year, described in paragraph b of the definition of "specified tax consequence" in section 1, in respect of an amount purported to be renounced in a calendar year by a corporation, for the purposes of the provisions of this Part, other than this section, relating to a determination of interest payable under this Part, an amount equal to the additional tax payable is deemed

(a) to have been paid on the taxpayer's balance-due day for the taxation year as partial payment of the taxpayer's tax payable under this Part for the year; and

(b) to be an excess amount referred to in section 32 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) that has been refunded to the taxpayer on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under this Part for the taxation year,

i. if section 359.8.1 applies in respect of expenses that the corporation incurred in the calendar year that follows that in which the corporation is purported to have renounced the amount, on 30 April of the calendar year that follows that subsequent calendar year, and

ii. in any other case, on 30 April of the calendar year that follows that in which the corporation is purported to have renounced the amount.

TITLE IV.1

OFFSET OF REFUND INTEREST AND ARREARS INTEREST

2001, c. 53, s. 234.

1044.2. In this Title,

"accumulated overpayment amount" of a corporation for a period means the aggregate of the overpayment amount of the corporation for the period and the refund interest that accrued in respect of the overpayment amount before the effective date for the allocation specified under paragraph b of section 1044.4 by the corporation in its allocation application for the period;

"accumulated underpayment amount" of a corporation for a period means the aggregate of the underpayment amount of the corporation for the period and the arrears interest that accrued in respect of the underpayment amount before the effective date for the allocation specified under paragraph b of section 1044.4 by the corporation in its allocation application for the period;

"arrears interest" means interest computed under section 1037 or paragraph b of section 1044.6;

"overpayment amount" of a corporation for a period means the amount referred to in subparagraph i of paragraph a of section 1044.3 that is refunded to the corporation or the amount referred to in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 1044.3 to which the corporation is entitled, other than an amount withheld by the Minister under section 30.1 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002);

"refund interest" means interest computed under section 1052;

"underpayment amount" of a corporation for a period means the amount referred to in paragraph b of section 1044.3 that is payable by the corporation, on which arrears interest is computed.

2001, c. 53, s. 234; 2004, c. 4, s. 12; 2004, c. 21, s. 443; 2010, c. 31, s. 175.

1044.3. A corporation may apply in writing to the Minister for the allocation of an accumulated overpayment amount for a period that begins after 31 December 1999 on account of an accumulated underpayment amount for the period if, in respect of tax paid or payable by the corporation under this Part or Parts III.0.1 to III.3, III.6 to III.11, III.14 or VI.2 to VII or tax paid or payable by the corporation under Part IV, IV.1, VI or VI.1,

(a) refund interest for the period

i. is computed on an amount refunded to the corporation, or

ii. would be computed on an amount to which the corporation is entitled, other than an amount withheld by the Minister under section 30.1 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002), if that amount were refunded to the corporation; and

(b) arrears interest for the period is computed on an amount that is payable by the corporation.

1044.4. A corporation's allocation application referred to in section 1044.3 for a period is deemed not to have been made unless

(a) it specifies the amount to be allocated, which shall not exceed the lesser of the corporation's accumulated overpayment amount for the period and its accumulated underpayment amount for the period;

(b) it specifies the effective date for the allocation, which shall not be earlier than the latest of

i. the date from which refund interest is computed on the corporation's overpayment amount for the period, or would be so computed if the overpayment amount were refunded to the corporation, ii. the date from which arrears interest is computed on the corporation's underpayment amount for the period, and

iii. 1 January 2000; and

(c) it is made on or before the day that is 90 days after the latest of

i. the day of sending of the first notice of assessment giving rise to any portion of the corporation's overpayment amount to which the application relates,

ii. the day of sending of the first notice of assessment giving rise to any portion of the corporation's underpayment amount to which the application relates,

iii. if the corporation has filed a notice of objection to an assessment referred to in subparagraph i or ii, the day of mailing of the Minister's decision under section 93.1.6 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) in respect of the notice of objection,

iv. if the corporation has filed a contestation with or initiated an appeal before a court of competent jurisdiction regarding an assessment referred to in subparagraph i or ii, or has applied for leave to file a contestation or make an appeal regarding such an assessment before such a court, the day on which the court dismisses the application, the day on which the corporation discontinues its application, contestation or appeal or the day on which final judgment is rendered on the contestation or the appeal,

v. the day of sending of the first notice to the corporation indicating that the Minister has determined any portion of the corporation's overpayment amount to which the application relates, if the overpayment amount has not been determined as a result of a notice of assessment sent before that day, and

vi. 1 April 2001.

2001, c. 53, s. 234; 2004, c. 4, s. 14; 2010, c. 31, s. 175; I.N. 2016-01-01 (NCCP); 2020, c. 12, s. 126; 2021, c. 36, s. 138.

1044.5. The amount to be allocated that is specified by a corporation under paragraph a of section 1044.4 is deemed to have been refunded to the corporation and paid on account of an accumulated underpayment amount on the effective date for the allocation specified by the corporation under paragraph b of section 1044.4.

1044.6. If an allocation application in respect of a period is made by a corporation under section 1044.3 and a portion of the amount to be allocated has been refunded to the corporation, the following rules apply:

(a) a particular amount equal to the aggregate of the following amounts is deemed to have become payable by the corporation on the day on which the portion of the amount to be allocated was refunded to the corporation:

i. the portion of the amount to be allocated that was refunded to the corporation, and

ii. refund interest paid or credited to the corporation in respect of the portion of the amount to be allocated that was refunded to the corporation; and

(b) the corporation shall pay interest at the rate prescribed under section 28 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) on the particular amount referred to in paragraph a from the day referred to in that paragraph to the date of payment.

1044.7. If a particular allocation of an accumulated overpayment amount under section 1044.5 results in a new accumulated overpayment amount of the corporation for a period, the new accumulated overpayment amount shall not be allocated under this Title unless the corporation so applies in its allocation application for the particular allocation.

2001, c. 53, s. 234.

1044.8. Notwithstanding sections 1010 to 1011, the Minister shall make such assessments, reassessments or additional assessments of tax, interest and penalties payable by the corporation as are necessary for any taxation year to take into account the allocation of amounts under this Title.

2001, c. 53, s. 234.

TITLE V

PENALTIES

1972, c. 23.

CHAPTER I

FALSE STATEMENTS OR OMISSIONS

2001, c. 51, s. 200.

1045. Every person who fails to make a fiscal return on the prescribed form and within the prescribed time, in accordance with section 1000, 1001, 1003 or 1004, incurs a penalty equal to 5% of the tax unpaid at the time when the return must be filed and an additional penalty of 1% of that unpaid tax for each complete month, not exceeding 12 months, in the period that begins at the time the return must be filed and ends at the time it is actually filed.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the unpaid tax of an individual shall be reduced by the amount of reimbursement or refund to which the individual is entitled for the year under section 220.3 of the Act respecting municipal taxation (chapter F-2.1), section 78 of the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan (chapter R-9), section 70 of the Act respecting parental insurance (chapter A-29.011), the Act respecting property tax refund (chapter R-20.1) and section 358 of the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1) and for the following year under section 210.7 of the Act respecting municipal taxation.

1972, c. 23, s. 769; 1979, c. 38, s. 26; 1982, c. 5, s. 187; 1983, c. 49, s. 17; 1990, c. 7, s. 171; 1992, c. 31, s. 3; 1993, c. 64, s. 175; 1994, c. 22, s. 327; 1997, c. 14, s. 248; 1999, c. 40, s. 258; 2001, c. 9, s. 129; 2002, c. 46, s. 5; 2004, c. 21, s. 445; 2017, c. 1, s. 343; 2019, c. 14, s. 426.

1045.0.1. Despite section 1045, where the failure referred to in that section results solely from the inclusion, in computing an individual's income for a particular taxation year, of an amount by reason of the disposition in a subsequent taxation year of a work of art referred to in section 752.0.10.11.1 by a donee referred to in that section, and by reason of the designation, referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 752.0.10.13, of an amount in relation to the particular taxation year, the penalty of 5% provided for in the first paragraph of section 1045 applies to the tax unpaid on the individual's filing-due date for the subsequent taxation year in which the disposition was made and the penalty of 1% provided for in that first paragraph applies to that unpaid tax for each complete month, not exceeding 12 months, in the period that begins on that filing-due date and ends at the time the fiscal return referred to in section 1045 is actually filed.

1045.0.1.1. Every person or partnership who makes, or participates in, assents to or acquiesces in the making of, a false statement or omission in respect of information relating to a claim preparer required to be included in a scientific research and experimental development form solidarily incurs, together with the claim preparer, a penalty of $1,000.

However, a person or partnership, as the case may be, may not incur, in respect of the same false statement or omission, both the penalty provided for in the first paragraph and the penalty provided for in section 59.0.2 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

2015, c. 21, s. 495.

1045.0.1.2. A claim preparer of a scientific research and experimental development form does not incur the penalty provided for in section 1045.0.1.1 in respect of a false statement or omission if the claim preparer has exercised the degree of care, diligence and skill to prevent the making of the false statement or omission that a reasonably prudent person would have exercised in comparable circumstances.

2015, c. 21, s. 495.

1045.0.1.3. For the purposes of this section and sections 1045.0.1.1 and 1045.0.1.2,

"claim preparer", of a scientific research and experimental development form, means a person or partnership who agrees to accept consideration to prepare or assist in the preparation of the form, but does not include an employee who prepares or assists in the preparation of the form in the course of performing the duties of the employee's employment;

"claim preparer information" means prescribed information regarding

(a) the identity of the claim preparer of a scientific research and experimental development form; and

(b) the arrangement under which the claim preparer agrees to accept consideration in respect of the preparation of the scientific research and experimental development form;

"scientific research and experimental development form" means the prescribed form required to be filed under section 230.0.0.4.1.

2015, c. 21, s. 495.

1045.0.1.4. Where a partnership incurs a penalty under section 1045.0.1.1, sections 1005 to 1014, 1034 to 1034.0.2, 1035 to 1044.0.2 and 1051 to 1055.1 apply, with the necessary modifications, in respect of the penalty as if the partnership were a corporation.

1049. Every person who, knowingly or under circumstances amounting to gross negligence, has made or has participated in or acquiesced in the making of, a false statement or omission in a return, certificate, statement or answer, in this section referred to as a "return", made or filed in respect of a taxation year for the purposes of this Act, incurs a penalty equal to the greater of $100 and 50% of the amount by which

(a) the aggregate of

i. the tax for the year that would be payable by the person under this Act if

(1) the person's taxable income for the year, determined on the basis of the information provided in the return, were computed by adding that portion of the amount determined in the second paragraph that may reasonably be attributed to the false statement or omission, and

(2) the person's taxable income for the year were computed by subtracting from the aggregate of all deductions from the tax otherwise payable by the person for the year such portion of any such deduction as may reasonably be attributed to the false statement or omission, and by adding to that aggregate any amount not deducted from the tax otherwise payable by the person for the year and that is deductible under Book V, if the amount that entitles the person to that deduction is wholly applicable to an amount that was not reported by the person in the return and that was required to be included in computing the person's income for the year, and

ii. the amount that would be deemed under Divisions II to III of Chapter III.1 of Title III, except Division II.11.2 of that Chapter III.1, to have been paid for the year by the person to the Minister had that amount been determined on the basis of the information provided in the person's return for the year; exceeds

(b) the aggregate of

i. the tax for the year that would have been payable by the person under this Act had it been determined on the basis of the information provided in the person's return for the year, and

(ii) the amount that would be deemed under Divisions II to III of Chapter III.1 of Title III, except Division II.11.2 of that Chapter III.1, to have been paid for the year by the person to the Minister had that amount been determined on the basis of the information provided in the person's return for the year but without reference to the false statement or omission.

The amount to which subparagraph 1 of subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the first paragraph refers in respect of the person is the aggregate of

(a) the amount by which the aggregate of the amounts that were not reported by the person in the return and that were required to be included in computing the person's income for the year exceeds the aggregate of

i. the aggregate of the amounts, other than those provided for in section 130, that were not deducted by the person in computing the person's income for the year reported by the person in the return, were deductible by the person in computing the person's income under this Act and were wholly attributable to the amounts that were required to be so included in computing the person's income, and

ii. the aggregate of the amounts that were not deducted by the person in computing the person's taxable income for the year reported by the person in the return, were deductible by the person in computing the person's taxable income under this Act and consist specifically in all or a fraction of the portion of the person's income for the year represented by the amounts that were required to be so included in computing the person's taxable income;

(b) the amount by which the aggregate of amounts deducted by him in computing his income for the year indicated by him in his return exceeds the aggregate of such amounts deductible in computing such income under this Act; and

(c) the amount by which the aggregate of amounts, other than those provided for in sections 727 to 737, deducted by him in computing his taxable income for the year indicated by him in his return exceeds the aggregate of amounts, other than those provided for in sections 727 to 737, deductible in computing his taxable income for the year under this Act.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the taxable income of a person for a taxation year, determined on the basis of the information provided in the person's return, is deemed not to be less than nil.

For the purpose of determining the amount referred to in the second paragraph in respect of a person for a taxation year, the following rules apply:

(a) the amount otherwise deductible under Division IV of Chapter IV of Title IV of Book III in respect of the person's precious property loss for a subsequent taxation year is deemed not to be deductible in computing the person's income for the year;

(b) the amount that may otherwise be excluded from the person's income by reason of Division XI of Chapter IV of Title IV of Book III in respect of the exercise of any option in a subsequent taxation year is deemed not to be excluded from the person's income for the year;

(b.1) any amount that may otherwise be deducted under section 965.0.3 in computing the person's income for the year because of the application of section 965.0.4.1 as a consequence of the person's death in the subsequent taxation year, is deemed not to be deductible in computing the person's income for the year;

(c) the amount otherwise deductible in computing the person's income for the year because of subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph of section 1054 or section 1055.1.2 or 1055.1.3 is deemed not to be deductible in computing the person's income for the year.

1049.0.1. Every person who, knowingly or under circumstances amounting to gross negligence, makes, or acquiesces or participates in the making of, a false statement or omission in any renunciation that was to have been effective at a particular time and that is purported to have been made under section 359.2, 359.2.1, 359.4, 381, 406, 417 or 418.13, otherwise than because of the application of section 359.8, incurs a penalty of 25% of the amount by which the amount set out in the renunciation in respect of Canadian exploration and development expenses, Canadian exploration expenses, Canadian development expenses or Canadian oil and gas property expenses exceeds the amount in respect of Canadian exploration and development expenses, Canadian exploration expenses, Canadian development expenses or Canadian oil and gas property expenses, as the case may be, that the corporation was entitled under the applicable section to renounce as of that particular time.

In the first paragraph, a reference to section 381, 406, 417 or 418.13 is a reference to that section as it read in respect of the renunciation.

1049.0.1.0.1. Every person who, knowingly or under circumstances amounting to gross negligence, makes, or acquiesces or participates in the making of, a false statement or omission in a statement required to be filed under section 359.15 in respect of a renunciation purported to have been made because of the application of section 359.8 or who fails to file the statement on or before the day that is 24 months after the day on or before which it was required to be filed incurs, in addition to the penalty under section 59 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002), a penalty equal to 25% of the amount by which the portion of the excess referred to in section 359.15 that was known or that ought to have been known by the person, exceeds

(a) where this section applies otherwise than because of the person's failure to file the statement on or before the day that is 24 months after the day on or before which it was required to be filed, the portion of the excess referred to in section 359.15 that is identified in the statement; and

(b) in any other case, zero.

1049.0.1.1. Every person who, knowingly or under circumstances amounting to gross negligence, makes, or participates or acquiesces in the making of, a false statement or omission in a prescribed form required to be filed under section 359.11.1 or 359.12.0.1 incurs a penalty of 25% of the amount by which the assistance required to be reported in respect of a person or partnership in the prescribed form exceeds the assistance reported in the prescribed form in respect of the person or partnership, as the case may be.

1993, c. 16, s. 339; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1049.0.2. (Repealed).

CHAPTER II

MISREPRESENTATION OF A TAX MATTER BY A THIRD PARTY

2001, c. 51, s. 202.

1049.0.3. In this chapter,

"culpable conduct" means an act or a failure to act that

(a) is tantamount to intentional conduct;

(b) shows indifference towards compliance with this Act, the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1) or the Act respecting the sectoral parameters of certain fiscal measures (chapter P-5.1) where it applies in respect of the deduction in respect of the second cooperative investment plan, within the meaning assigned to that expression by section 5.1 of Schedule C to that Act; or

(c) shows a wilful, reckless or wanton disregard of this Act, of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act or the Act respecting the sectoral parameters of certain fiscal measures where it applies in respect of the deduction in respect of the second cooperative investment plan, within the meaning assigned to that expression by section 5.1 of Schedule C to that Act;

"false statement" includes a statement that is misleading because of an omission from the statement;

"gross compensation" of a particular person at any time, in respect of a false statement that could be used by or on behalf of another person, means all amounts that the particular person, or any person not dealing at arm's length with the particular person, is entitled, either absolutely or contingently and either before or after that time, to receive or to obtain in respect of the statement;

"person" includes a partnership;

"subordinate", in respect of a particular person, includes any other person over whose activities the particular person has direction, supervision or control whether or not the other person is an employee of the particular person or of another person.

For the purposes of the definition of "subordinate" in the first paragraph, if the particular person is a member of a partnership, the other person is not a subordinate of the particular person solely because the particular person is a member of the partnership.

1049.0.4. For the purposes of this chapter, any reference to a person's participation includes

(a) the fact of causing a subordinate to act or to omit information; and

(b) the fact of knowing of, and not making a reasonable attempt to prevent, the participation of a subordinate in an act or an omission of information.

2001, c. 51, s. 202.

1049.0.5. Every person who makes a statement to another person or assents to, acquiesces in or participates in the making of a statement by or on behalf of the other person, that the person knows, or would reasonably be expected to know but for circumstances amounting to culpable conduct, is a false statement that could be used by or on behalf of the other person for a purpose of this Act, except sections 965.39.1 to 965.39.7 incurs a penalty in respect of the false statement equal to the greater of $1,000 and the lesser of

(a) the penalty that the other person would incur under section 1049 if the other person had made the statement in a return filed for the purposes of this Act, except sections 965.39.1 to 965.39.7, and had known that the statement was false; and

(b) the aggregate of $100,000 and the person's gross compensation, at the time the notice of assessment of the penalty is sent to the person, in respect of the false statement that could be used by or on behalf of the other person.

1049.0.5.1. Every person who makes a statement to another person or assents to, acquiesces in or participates in the making of a statement by or on behalf of the other person, that the person knows, or would reasonably be expected to know but for circumstances amounting to culpable conduct, is a false statement that could be used by or on behalf of the other person for a purpose of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1), of the Act respecting the sectoral parameters of certain fiscal measures (chapter P-5.1) where it applies in respect of the deduction in respect of the second cooperative investment plan, within the meaning assigned to that expression by section 5.1 of Schedule C to that Act or of sections 965.39.1 to 965.39.7 incurs a penalty in respect of the false statement equal to,

(a) if the statement is made in the course of planning, selling or promoting an arrangement in relation to the application of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act, the greater of $1,000 and the person's gross compensation, at the time the notice of assessment of the penalty is sent to the person, in respect of the false statement that could be used by or on behalf of the other person; and

(b) in any other case, $1,000.

1049.0.6. For the purposes of sections 1049.0.5 and 1049.0.5.1, a person (in this section referred to as the "advisor") who acts on behalf of the other person referred to in either of those sections is not considered to have acted in circumstances amounting to culpable conduct in respect of the false statement referred to in either of those sections solely because the advisor relied, in good faith, on information provided to the advisor by or on behalf of the other person or, because of such reliance, failed to verify, correct or investigate the information.

1049.0.7. For the purposes of this chapter, a person is not considered to have made or furnished, or assented to, acquiesced in or participated in the furnishing of a false statement solely because the person provided clerical services, other than bookkeeping services, or secretarial services in respect of the statement.

1049.0.8. For the purposes of this chapter, if a person is assessed a penalty that is referred to in section 1049.0.5 or 1049.0.5.1, the person's gross compensation at any time in respect of the false statement that could be used by or on behalf of the other person referred to in that section does not include the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount of a penalty, other than a penalty the assessment of which is deemed to be null because of section 1049.0.9, determined under section 1049.0.5 or 1049.0.5.1, to the extent that the false statement was used by or on behalf of that other person, and for which a notice of assessment was sent to the person before that time.

1049.0.9. For the purposes of this Act, if an assessment of a penalty under section 1049.0.5 or 1049.0.5.1 is vacated, the assessment is deemed to be null from the time it was made.

2001, c. 51, s. 202; 2006, c. 37, s. 46.

1049.0.10. If an employee, other than a specified employee, works for the other person referred to in section 1049.0.5 or 1049.0.5.1, the following rules apply:

(a) sections 1049.0.5 and 1049.0.5.1 do not apply to the employee to the extent that the false statement could be used by or on behalf of the other person for a purpose of this Act; and

(b) the conduct of the employee is deemed to be that of the other person for the purpose of applying section 1049 to the other person.

1049.0.11. Where a partnership incurs a penalty under section 1049.0.5 or 1049.0.5.1, sections 1005 to 1014, 1034 to 1034.0.2, 1035 to 1044.0.2 and 1051 to 1055.1 apply, with the necessary modifications, in respect of the penalty as if the partnership were a corporation.

1049.3. Every corporation that was a Québec business investment company, at any time after 7 September 1985, duly registered within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies (chapter S-29.1), whose registration is revoked under the said Act incurs a penalty equal to 40% of the amount of an investment that is or would be a qualified investment within the meaning of the said Act if the registration were valid, made after the seven hundred and thirtieth day preceding the date of revocation.

1049.4. Every corporation that was at any time after 7 September 1985 a Québec business investment company duly registered within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies (chapter S-29.1), and that makes a qualified investment in a year and does not hold the entire investment for at least 24 months after the acquisition of the investment incurs a penalty equal to 40% of the total amount of the investment.

The first paragraph does not apply, however, to a replacement, for which the only consideration was a share, as a result of a transaction referred to in section 544, of a share that forms part of a qualified investment, where the replacement occurs

(a) in the 24 months following the acquisition of the investment, if the share issued in replacement is a qualified investment; or

(b) after the expiry of 12 months following the day on which the investment was acquired, where the transaction involves the corporation and the qualified legal person, within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies, which benefited from the investment and the body designated under section 1 of that Act authorizes the transaction for the purposes of this section.

1049.4.1. Where a particular share of the capital stock of a qualified legal person, within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies (chapter S-29.1), that forms part of a qualified investment, or a share substituted therefor, may be purchased or redeemed by the qualified legal person as a result of a transaction occurring, after 26 April 1990, during the 60 months following the acquisition of the particular share that forms part of a qualified investment, the qualified legal person incurs a penalty, in respect of the particular share or the share substituted therefor, equal to 40% of the lesser of

(a) the amount obtained by applying the percentage determined in section 965.31.1 in respect of the qualified investment to the amount that would be the amount of purchase or redemption of the particular share or the share substituted therefor, as the case may be, if the purchase or redemption were made immediately after the transaction, and

(b) the quotient obtained by dividing, by the number of shares that form part of the qualified investment, the amount obtained by applying the percentage referred to in paragraph a to the total amount of the qualified investment.

The first paragraph does not apply where a particular share, or a share substituted therefor, that may be purchased or redeemed as a result of a transaction occurring, after 9 March 1999, during the 60 months following the acquisition of the particular share that forms part of a qualified investment, satisfies the conditions set out in subparagraphs 1 to 3 of the first paragraph of section 21 of the Québec Business Investment Companies Regulation (chapter S-29.1, r. 1).

1049.5. Every qualified legal person, within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies (chapter S-29.1), that purchases or redeems a particular share of its capital stock that forms part of a qualified investment or a share substituted therefor, after 26 April 1990, during the 60 months following the acquisition of the particular share that forms part of the qualified investment, incurs a penalty, in respect of the particular share or the share substituted therefor, equal to 40% of the lesser of

(a) the amount obtained by applying the percentage determined in section 965.31.1 in respect of the qualified investment to the amount of purchase or redemption of the particular share or the share substituted therefor, as the case may be, and

(b) the quotient obtained by dividing by the number of shares that form part of the qualified investment the amount obtained by applying the percentage referred to in paragraph a to the total amount of the qualified investment.

1049.5.1. The Minister may cancel or reduce the amount of a penalty that, but for this section, would be determined under any of sections 1049.4 to 1049.5 in respect of a transaction, if he considers that, having regard to the circumstances, the amount would be otherwise excessive.

1991, c. 8, s. 88; 1992, c. 1, s. 198.

1049.5.2. For the purposes of this Part, except section 1049.5.1 and this section, where the Minister reduces to a particular amount the amount of the penalty determined under any of sections 1049.4 to 1049.5 in respect of a transaction, the particular amount is deemed to be the amount determined under that section in respect of the transaction.

1992, c. 1, s. 199.

1049.6. Every qualified legal person, within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies (chapter S-29.1), incurs a penalty equal to 40% of the amount of a qualified investment made by a Québec business investment company in the qualified legal person, where the qualified legal person uses funds, during the 24 months following the date of that qualified investment and without the approval of the body designated under section 1 of that Act, to

(a) repay a creditor who is a shareholder of the Québec business investment company or of the qualified legal person or a person with whom the creditor does not deal at arm's length or a corporation that is associated with the qualified legal person;

(b) make a loan;

(c) purchase parcels of land with the intention of selling them;

(d) make investments outside Québec not directly related to the operations of the corporation;

(e) purchase or acquire shares of other corporations or all or substantially all of the assets of a business;

(f) purchase or redeem shares of its capital stock except a purchase or redemption referred to in section 1049.5.

1049.7. Every qualified legal person, within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies (chapter S-29.1), that declares or pays a dividend in respect of shares of its capital stock that form part of a qualified investment during the 24 months following the acquisition of the shares as such incurs a penalty equal to 40% of the total amount of the investment.

1986, c. 15, s. 185; 2000, c. 39, s. 208.

1049.8. Every qualified legal person, within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies (chapter S-29.1), that pays an amount referred to in section 23 of the Québec Business Investment Companies Regulation (chapter S-29.1, r. 1) to a Québec business investment company during the 60 months following the acquisition of a share that forms part of a qualified investment by that Québec business investment company incurs a penalty equal to 40% of the amount so paid but not in excess of 40% of the total amount of the investment.

1049.9. Where a qualified legal person, within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies (chapter S-29.1), other than a corporation referred to in section 1049.9.1, no longer operates primarily in one of the sectors of activity prescribed in the regulations made under paragraph 4 of section 16 of that Act during the 24 months following the date of a qualified investment, without the approval of the body designated under section 1 of that Act, the qualified legal person incurs a penalty equal to 40% of the total amount of the investment.

1986, c. 15, s. 185; 1990, c. 7, s. 190; 1997, c. 3, s. 64; 1997, c. 14, s. 250; 1998, c. 17, s. 64; 2000, c. 39, s. 210; 2001, c. 69, s. 12; 2010, c. 37, s. 111.

1049.9.1. Where a qualified legal person, within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies (chapter S-29.1), ceases, as a consequence of financial problems, to carry on its business during the 24 months following the date of a qualified investment without the approval of the body designated under section 1 of that Act, the qualified legal person incurs a penalty of 40% of the total amount of the investment.

1049.10. Where a qualified legal person, within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies (chapter S-29.1) makes a considerable cash outflow in favour of one of its shareholders, a shareholder of a Québec business investment company which is not a Québec business investment company referred to in section 4.1 of that Act, or a person related to any such shareholder during the 24 months preceding the date of a qualified investment in the qualified legal person made by the Québec business investment company or during the 60 months following the date of such an investment, without the approval of the body designated under section 1 of that Act, the qualified legal person incurs a penalty equal to 40% of the amount of the cash outflow, but not in excess of 40% of the total amount of the investment.

1049.10.1. Where a qualified legal person, within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies (chapter S-29.1), makes a considerable cash outflow to acquire all or substantially all of the assets of a corporation a shareholder of which is also a shareholder of a Québec business investment company or a person related to any such shareholder during the 24 months preceding the date of a qualified investment in the qualified legal person made by the Québec business investment company or during the 60 months following the date of such an investment, without the approval of the body designated under section 1 of that Act, the qualified legal person incurs a penalty equal to 40% of the amount of the cash outflow, but not in excess of 40% of the amount of the investment.

1049.10.2. For the purposes of sections 1049.6, 1049.10 and 1049.10.1, where a shareholder of a Québec business investment company, within the meaning of paragraph f of section 965.29, is a trust governed by a registered retirement savings plan or a registered retirement income fund, the annuitant, within the meaning of paragraph b of section 905.1 or paragraph d of section 961.1.5, as the case may be, under the plan or fund is deemed to be also a shareholder of the company.

1049.11. Where a qualified legal person, within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies (chapter S-29.1) does not deal at arm's length, within the meaning assigned to that expression for the purposes of section 12 of that Act, with a Québec business investment company during the 24 months following the date of a qualified investment made by the company in the qualified legal person, without the approval of the body designated under section 1 of that Act, the qualified legal person incurs a penalty equal to 40% of the total amount of the investment.

1049.11.1. Every qualified legal person, within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies (chapter S-29.1), is liable to a penalty equal to 40% of the total amount of a qualified investment where

(a) in the 12 months preceding the date of the qualified investment or in the months preceding that date in the case of a corporation that has been in operation for less than 12 months, not more than 50%, or a lower percentage determined under paragraph 3 of section 13.2 of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies by the body designated under section 1 of that Act, of the wages paid to its employees and of the wages paid to the employees of corporations with which it is associated, were paid to employees of an establishment situated in Québec; or

(b) in the 12 months following the date of such an investment, not more than 50% of the wages paid to its employees and of the wages paid to the employees of corporations with which it is associated, were paid to employees of an establishment situated in Québec.

1987, c. 21, s. 79; 2000, c. 39, s. 215; 2002, c. 40, s. 227; 2006, c. 13, s. 201; 2010, c. 37, s. 116.

1049.11.1.2. Where a qualified legal person, within the meaning of the Act respecting Québec business investment companies (chapter S-29.1), benefits from a qualified investment referred to in section 12.1 of that Act and, at the expiry of the time limit fixed in paragraph 2 of that section 12.1 or, as the case may be, extended by the body designated under section 1 of that Act under paragraph 2 of section 13.2 of that Act, it does not operate in a sector of activity prescribed in the regulations made under paragraph 4 of section 16 of that Act, the qualified legal person incurs a penalty equal to 40% of the total amount of the investment.

1049.11.1.3. For the purpose of determining the amount of a penalty provided for in sections 1049.3 to 1049.11.1.2, the total amount of a qualified investment is deemed to include the portion, attributable under section 965.31.5 to the qualified investment, of the amount the Québec business investment company having made the qualified investment has renounced under the said section 965.31.5 in respect of a share issue the proceeds of which have been used to make the qualified investment.

1049.12. Every qualified cooperative, within the meaning of the cooperative investment plan adopted under the Act respecting the Ministère de l'Économie et de l'Innovation (chapter M-14.1), whose equity, within the meaning of the plan, before redemption of the issued shares, is reduced to less than 80% of its equity on 23 April 1985 by a reduction of its capital stock other than a redemption of common shares belonging to a member who is deceased, disabled, under tutorship or under a protection mandate incurs a penalty equal to 50% of the part of the reduction that reduces the equity to less than 80% of the equity on 23 April 1985.

1986, c. 15, s. 185; 1987, c. 21, s. 80; 1988, c. 41, s. 89; 1989, c. 54, s. 176; 1994, c. 16, s. 51; 1999, c. 8, s. 20; 2003, c. 29, s. 139; 2006, c. 8, s. 31; 2019, c. 29, s. 1; 2020, c. 11, s. 193.

1049.12.1. Every qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives, within the meaning of section 965.39.1, whose equity, within the meaning of section 2 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1), before the redemption or repayment of the issued shares, is reduced to less than 80% of its equity on 23 April 1985 by reason of a reduction of its capital stock otherwise than by reason of a repayment of common shares belonging to a member who is deceased, disabled, under tutorship or under a protection mandate incurs a penalty equal to 30% of the part of the reduction that reduces the equity to less than 80% of the equity on 23 April 1985.

1049.13. Every qualified cooperative, within the meaning of the cooperative investment plan adopted under the Act respecting the Ministère de l'Économie et de l'Innovation (chapter M-14.1), that issues qualifying securities without holding a valid qualification certificate as prescribed in the plan or whose certificate is revoked and that asserts that such securities are qualifying securities under the cooperative investment plan incurs a penalty equal to 50% of the amount of the securities sold while it did not hold a valid qualification certificate or after the date of revocation of the certificate.

1986, c. 15, s. 185; 1987, c. 21, s. 80; 1988, c. 41, s. 89; 1994, c. 16, s. 51; 1999, c. 8, s. 20; 2003, c. 29, s. 139; 2006, c. 8, s. 31; 2019, c. 29, s. 1.

1049.13.1. Every qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives, within the meaning of section 965.39.1, that issues shares without holding a valid qualification certificate as prescribed in section 6 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1) or while its certificate is revoked and that asserts that such shares are qualifying securities under that Act incurs a penalty equal to 50% of the amount of the shares issued while it did not hold a valid qualification certificate or after the date of revocation of the certificate.

1049.14. Every qualified cooperative, within the meaning of the cooperative investment plan adopted under the Act respecting the Ministère de l'Économie et de l'Innovation (chapter M-14.1), that redeems a qualifying security before 24 June 2009 without complying with the requirements of the plan incurs a penalty equal to 50% of the amount of the qualifying securities so redeemed, unless the redemption is an exchange operation described in the second paragraph.

The exchange operation to which the first paragraph refers is a conversion of securities, an amalgamation or a reorganization of the capital stock, at the end of which a qualifying security is exchanged for consideration consisting only of preferred shares or fractions of such shares that meet the requirements set out in paragraphs 3 and 5 of section 6 of the plan.

1049.14.0.1. Every qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives, within the meaning of section 965.39.1, that redeems or repays a qualifying security, within the meaning of that section, before 24 June 2009 without complying with the period specified in paragraph 4 of section 6 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1) incurs a penalty equal to 30% of the amount of the qualifying securities so redeemed or repaid, unless the redemption or repayment is an allowable redemption or repayment that complies with the rules set out in sections 2 and 7 of that Act or an exchange operation described in the third paragraph.

If the redemption or repayment referred to in the first paragraph occurs as part of the winding-up or dissolution of a cooperative or federation of cooperatives, the penalty specified in the first paragraph is replaced by a penalty equal to 30% of the amount obtained by applying, to the amount of the qualifying securities so redeemed or repaid, the percentage obtained by dividing by 1,826 the amount by which 1,826 exceeds the number of days included in the period that begins on the day of issue of the qualifying securities and ends on the day on which they are redeemed or repaid.

The exchange operation to which the first paragraph refers is a conversion of securities, an amalgamation or a reorganization of the capital stock, at the end of which a qualifying security is exchanged for consideration consisting only of preferred shares or fractions of such shares that meet the requirements set out in paragraphs 3 and 4 of section 6 of that Act.

1049.14.0.2. Every qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives, within the meaning of section 965.39.1, that, in respect of a fiscal period ended in a particular calendar year in which it issued qualifying securities, within the meaning of that section, or in the 12-month period that precedes the particular year, pays, otherwise than in the form of shares, a patronage dividend greater than 33 1/3% of its operating surplus or surplus earnings, incurs a penalty equal to the lesser of

(a) 30% of the proceeds of the issue of qualifying securities for the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of

i. 30% of the portion of the patronage dividend, otherwise than in the form of shares, that exceeds 33 1/3% of the operating surplus or surplus earnings, such portion being in this subparagraph b referred to as the "excess patronage dividend", paid in respect of a fiscal period that ended in the particular year,

ii. in the case where no qualifying securities were issued in the 12-month period that precedes the particular year, 30% of the excess patronage dividend paid in respect of a fiscal period that ended in the 12-month period that precedes the particular year, and

iii. in any other case, the amount by which 30% of the excess patronage dividend paid in respect of a fiscal period that ended in the 24-month period that precedes the particular year exceeds the aggregate of the penalties relating to the payment of a patronage dividend incurred under this section in respect of the issue of qualifying securities in the 24-month period that precedes the particular year, up to 30% of the excess patronage dividend paid in respect of a fiscal period that ended in the 12-month period that precedes the particular year.

1049.14.1. (Repealed).

1049.14.2. If a corporation stipulates falsely, in its final prospectus relating to a share issue, that the issued shares may be included in a stock savings plan II described in section 965.56, it incurs a penalty equal to 25% of the adjusted cost that would be determined under section 965.123 if the stipulation of the corporation were true, of each share of the issue distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund.

If a corporation stipulates, in a final prospectus relating to a share issue, in respect of shares that may be included in a stock savings plan II described in section 965.56, an adjusted cost other than that determined under section 965.123, it incurs a penalty equal to 25% of the amount by which the adjusted cost so stipulated in respect of each share of the public issue distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund exceeds the adjusted cost determined under section 965.123 in respect of each such share.

1049.14.3. If a corporation makes a public issue of shares with the stipulation that they can be included in a stock savings plan II and if the shares are not listed on a designated stock exchange located in Canada within 60 days of the date of the receipt for the final prospectus or of the exemption from filing a prospectus in respect of their issue, the corporation incurs a penalty equal to 25% of the adjusted cost, determined under section 965.123, of each share of the issue distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund.

1049.14.4. If a corporation issues, at a particular time, a share of its capital stock with the stipulation that it can be included in a stock savings plan II or issues a share in replacement of a share issued at a particular time with such a stipulation or issued in replacement of a share issued in substitution for such a share and purchases or redeems in any manner whatever, directly or indirectly, in the year including the particular time but after that time or in the two years following that year, a share of a class of its capital stock other than a share described in section 965.106 or other than a share that has been the subject of a particular transaction referred to in section 965.113 in respect of which the corporation is not bound to meet the requirement set out in the second paragraph of section 965.105, it incurs a penalty equal to the amount determined under the second paragraph.

The amount of the penalty prescribed in the first paragraph in respect of a purchase or redemption is equal to the lesser of

(a) 25% of the amount obtained by multiplying the amount of the purchase or redemption by the proportion that the adjusted cost of the aggregate of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation that were issued, in the year of the purchase or redemption but before the time of the purchase or redemption or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec and of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation issued in replacement of shares issued with such a stipulation, that were issued in the year of the purchase or redemption but before the time of the purchase or redemption or in the two years preceding that year and distributed in Québec or in replacement of shares issued in substitution for such shares, is of the paid-up capital at the time of the issue in respect of the aggregate of such shares of the corporation; and

(b) 25% of the adjusted cost of the aggregate of

i. the shares of the capital stock of the corporation that were issued, in the year of the purchase or redemption but before the time of the purchase or redemption or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund,

ii. the shares of the capital stock of the corporation issued in replacement of shares that are not described in subparagraph i, that were issued, in the year of the purchase or redemption but before the time of the purchase or redemption or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund, and

iii. the shares of the capital stock of the corporation issued in replacement of shares, other than shares described in subparagraph ii, issued in substitution for shares, other than shares described in subparagraph i, that were issued, in the year of the purchase or redemption or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund.

1049.14.5. If shares of the capital stock of a corporation, other than shares that have been the subject of a particular transaction referred to in section 965.113 in respect of which the corporation is not bound to meet the requirement set out in the second paragraph of section 965.107, were, at a particular time, the subject of a transaction or operation or of a series of transactions or operations and if, in the opinion of the Minister, it is reasonable to believe that the transaction or operation or the series of transactions or operations is equivalent to the redemption of a share of its capital stock other than a share described in section 965.108, the corporation incurs a penalty equal to the amount determined under the second paragraph if it issued, in the year including the particular time but before that time or in the two years preceding that year, a share of its capital stock with the stipulation that it could be included in a stock savings plan II or issued a share of its capital stock in replacement of a share issued with such a stipulation in the year including the particular time but before that time or in the two years preceding that year or in replacement of a share issued in substitution for such a share.

The amount of the penalty prescribed in the first paragraph in respect of a transaction or operation or of a series of transactions or operations is equal to the lesser of

(a) 25% of the amount obtained by multiplying the amount determined under section 965.109 in respect of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations by the proportion that the adjusted cost of the aggregate of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation that were issued, in the year of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations but before the time of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec and of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation issued in replacement of shares issued with such a stipulation, that were issued in the year of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations but before the time of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations or in the two years preceding that year and distributed in Québec, is of the paid-up capital at the time of the issue in respect of the aggregate of such shares of the corporation; and

(b) 25% of the adjusted cost of the aggregate of

i. the shares of the capital stock of the corporation that were issued, in the year of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations but before the time of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund,

ii. the shares of the capital stock of the corporation issued in replacement of shares that are not described in subparagraph i, that were issued, in the year of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations but before the time of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund, and

iii. the shares of the capital stock of the corporation issued in replacement of shares, other than shares described in subparagraph ii, issued in substitution for shares, other than shares described in subparagraph i, that were issued, in the year of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations but before the time of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund.

1049.14.6. If a corporation issues a share of its capital stock with the stipulation that it can be included in a stock savings plan II, or issues a share of its capital stock in replacement of a share issued with such a stipulation or in replacement of a share issued in substitution for such a share, and the corporation's net shareholders' equity is affected in any manner whatever, directly or indirectly, in the year the share issued with such a stipulation was issued but after the time of the issue or in the two years following that year, following a transaction or operation or a series of transactions or operations other than that referred to in section 965.112 or a particular transaction referred to in section 965.113 in respect of which the corporation is not bound to meet the requirement set out in the second paragraph of section 965.110, it incurs a penalty equal to the amount determined under the second paragraph if, in the opinion of the Minister, it is reasonable to believe that the transaction or operation or the series of transactions or operations is equivalent to the redemption of a share of a class of its capital stock other than a share described in section 965.111.

The amount of the penalty prescribed in the first paragraph in respect of a transaction or operation or of a series of transactions or operations is equal to the lesser of

(a) 25% of the amount obtained by multiplying the amount determined under the second paragraph of section 965.110 in respect of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations by the proportion that the adjusted cost of the aggregate of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation that were issued, in the year of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations but before the time of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec and of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation issued in replacement of shares issued with such a stipulation, that were issued in the year of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations but before the time of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations or in the two years preceding that year and distributed in Québec, is of the paid-up capital at the time of the issue in respect of the aggregate of such shares of the corporation; and

(b) 25% of the adjusted cost of the aggregate of

i. the shares of the capital stock of the corporation that were issued, in the year of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations but before the time of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund,

ii. the shares of the capital stock of the corporation issued in replacement of shares that are not described in subparagraph i, that were issued, in the year of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations but before the time of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund, and

iii. the shares of the capital stock of the corporation issued in replacement of shares, other than shares described in subparagraph ii, issued in substitution for shares, other than shares described in subparagraph i, that were issued, in the year of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations but before the time of the transaction or operation or of the series of transactions or operations or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund.

1049.14.7. The Minister may stay the imposition of a penalty under any of sections 1049.14.4 to 1049.14.6 in respect of a corporation that plans to carry out or has already carried out a transaction referred to in any of those sections, if the corporation has applied to the Minister to that effect and undertakes to comply with any of the conditions set out in section 1049.14.8.

The Minister may at any time revoke the stay provided for in the first paragraph if the Minister is of the opinion that the undertaking of the corporation is compromised.

2006, c. 13, s. 202.

1049.14.8. The conditions to be complied with by a corporation referred to in section 1049.14.7 are that the corporation must issue shares of its capital stock that meet the requirement set out in paragraph b of section 965.74 and are not qualifying shares, or that shares of its capital stock must be the subject of a transaction or operation or of a series of transactions or operations that, in the opinion of the Minister, can reasonably be believed to be equivalent to the issue of shares of the capital stock of the corporation that meet the requirement set out in that paragraph b, for an amount equal to or greater than the amount of the purchase or redemption referred to in the first paragraph of section 1049.14.4 or an amount determined under section 965.109 or the second paragraph of section 965.110 in respect of a transaction referred to in section 1049.14.5 or 1049.14.6, on or before the expiry of a period of two years that begins on the day after the day of the beginning of the transaction to which section 1049.14.7 refers.

2006, c. 13, s. 202.

1049.14.9. Despite sections 1049.14.4 to 1049.14.6, if the Minister, under section 1049.14.7, stays the imposition of a penalty in respect of a corporation for a particular transaction and the corporation fulfills, to the satisfaction of the Minister, its undertaking under section 1049.14.7, the corporation incurs no penalty for the transaction.

2006, c. 13, s. 202.

1049.14.10. Despite sections 1049.14.4 to 1049.14.6, if the amount of a particular penalty under any of those sections is greater than the excess amount determined under the second paragraph, the amount of the particular penalty is to be reduced to that excess amount.

The excess amount to which the first paragraph refers in respect of a particular penalty relating to a transaction referred to in any of the sections referred to in that paragraph is the amount by which the amount determined under the third paragraph exceeds the amount determined under the fourth paragraph.

The amount determined under this paragraph is equal to 25% of the aggregate of the adjusted cost of

(a) the shares of the capital stock of the corporation that were issued, in the year of the transaction but before the time of the transaction or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund;

(b) the shares of the capital stock of the corporation issued in replacement of shares that are not described in subparagraph a, that were issued, in the year of the transaction but before the time of the transaction or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund; and

(c) the shares of the capital stock of the corporation issued in replacement of shares, other than shares described in subparagraph b, issued in substitution for shares, other than shares described in subparagraph a, that were issued, in the year of the transaction but before the time of the transaction or in the two years preceding that year, with the stipulation that they could be included in a stock savings plan II, and distributed in Québec to an individual or to a qualified mutual fund.

The amount determined under this paragraph is equal to the aggregate of the penalties incurred by the corporation under sections 1049.14.4 to 1049.14.6 before the imposition of the particular penalty in respect of the shares of its capital stock that are described in the third paragraph.

2006, c. 13, s. 202; 2010, c. 5, s. 175.

1049.14.11. The Minister may cancel or reduce the amount of a penalty that would, but for this section, be determined under any of sections 1049.14.4 to 1049.14.6 in respect of a corporation, if the Minister considers that, under the circumstances, the amount would otherwise be excessive.

2006, c. 13, s. 202.

1049.14.12. For the purposes of this Part, except section 1049.14.11 and this section, if the Minister reduces to a particular amount the amount of a penalty determined under any of sections 1049.14.4 to 1049.14.6 in respect of a transaction, the particular amount is deemed to be the amount determined under that section in respect of the transaction.

2006, c. 13, s. 202.

1049.14.13. If a mutual fund states falsely in its final prospectus that the issued securities can be included in a stock savings plan II described in paragraph b of section 965.56, the mutual fund manager or trustee incurs a penalty equal to 25% of the adjusted cost that would be determined under section 965.124 if the statement of the mutual fund were true, of each security of the issue distributed in Québec to an individual.

2006, c. 13, s. 202; 2010, c. 5, s. 176.

1049.14.14. If, in a year, as a result of the administration of a qualified mutual fund by a manager or trustee, the qualified mutual fund is unable to fulfill its undertaking under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 965.119 in respect of a public security issue made by the qualified mutual fund in the year and if, in the final prospectus relating to the issue, a percentage is stipulated to determine the adjusted cost of securities that are qualifying securities, the manager or trustee incurs a penalty equal to 25% of the amount by which the adjusted cost of the aggregate of the qualifying securities issued by the manager or trustee in the year as part of the public security issue that are valid qualifying securities exceeds the adjusted cost of the qualifying shares acquired by the qualified mutual fund during the year with the proceeds of the issue of such qualifying securities.

1049.14.15. If, on 31 December in a year, as a result of the administration of a qualified mutual fund by a manager or trustee, the qualified mutual fund is unable to fulfill its undertaking under subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 965.119 in respect of a public security issue made by the qualified mutual fund in the year, the manager or trustee incurs a penalty equal to 25% of the amount by which the adjusted cost of the aggregate of the qualifying securities issued by the manager or trustee in the year and in the preceding two years as part of the public security issue that have not been redeemed by the qualified mutual fund on or before 31 December in the year exceeds the adjusted cost of the qualifying shares or valid shares owned by the qualified mutual fund on 31 December in the year.

1049.14.16. If, on 31 December in a particular year, as a result of the administration of a qualified mutual fund by a manager or trustee, the qualified mutual fund is unable to fulfill its undertaking under paragraph a of section 965.121 in respect of a public security issue made by the qualified mutual fund in the year preceding the particular year, the manager or trustee incurs a penalty equal to 25% of the proportion of the amount by which the portion, which is the subject of the undertaking under that paragraph a, of the proceeds for the year preceding the particular year, of the public security issue exceeds the greater of the particular amount referred to in paragraph c of that section in respect of the year preceding the particular year and the cost, determined without reference to the borrowing costs, brokerage or custody fees or other similar costs, to the qualified mutual fund, of the aggregate of the qualifying shares described in that paragraph a acquired by the qualified mutual fund during the particular year or the year preceding that year with the proceeds of the public security issue, other than any such qualifying shares having already been used, in respect of the particular year or the year preceding that year, for the purposes of paragraph c of section 965.121, as is represented by the ratio that the portion of the proceeds, for the year preceding the particular year, of the public security issue derived from the issue of qualifying securities is of the proceeds of the issue.

1049.14.17. If, on 31 December in a particular year, as a result of the administration of a qualified mutual fund by a manager or trustee, the qualified mutual fund is unable to fulfill its undertaking under paragraph b of section 965.121 in respect of a public security issue made by the qualified mutual fund in the year preceding the particular year, the manager or trustee incurs a penalty equal to 25% of the proportion of the amount by which the adjusted cost of the aggregate of the qualifying shares described in paragraph a of that section that should have been acquired by the qualified mutual fund in the particular year and in the year preceding that year with the proceeds, for the year preceding the particular year, of the public security issue for the undertaking to be fulfilled, exceeds the greater of the particular amount referred to in paragraph c of that section in respect of the year preceding the particular year and the adjusted cost of the aggregate of the qualifying shares described in that paragraph a acquired by the qualified mutual fund during the particular year or the year preceding that year with the proceeds of the public security issue, other than any such qualifying shares having already been used, in respect of the particular year or the year preceding that year, for the purposes of paragraph c of section 965.121, as is represented by the ratio that the portion of the proceeds, for the year preceding the particular year, of the public security issue derived from the issue of qualifying securities is of the proceeds of the issue.

1049.14.18. If, in a year, as a result of the administration of a qualified mutual fund by a manager or trustee, the qualified mutual fund is unable to fulfill its undertaking under paragraph c of section 965.121 in respect of a public security issue made by the qualified mutual fund in the year and, in the final prospectus relating to the issue, a percentage has been stipulated to determine the adjusted cost of securities that are qualifying securities, the manager or trustee incurs a penalty equal to 25% of the amount by which the amount determined under the second paragraph exceeds the amount determined under the third paragraph.

The amount determined under this paragraph is equal to the amount by which the adjusted cost of the aggregate of the qualifying securities issued in the year that are valid qualifying securities exceeds the particular amount referred to in paragraph c of section 965.121 in respect of the year.

The amount determined under this paragraph is equal to the adjusted cost of the qualifying shares acquired by the qualified mutual fund during the year with the portion of the proceeds of the issue of valid qualifying securities issued in the year that exceeds the particular amount referred to in paragraph c of section 965.121 in respect of the year, other than qualifying shares having already been used, in respect of the year, for the purposes of paragraph d of section 965.121.

1049.14.19. If, in a particular year, as a result of the administration of a qualified mutual fund by a manager or trustee, the qualified mutual fund is unable to fulfill its undertaking under paragraph d of section 965.121 in respect of a public security issue made by the qualified mutual fund in the year preceding the particular year, the manager or trustee incurs a penalty equal to 25% of the amount by which the particular amount referred to in paragraph c of that section in respect of the year preceding the particular year, exceeds the adjusted cost of the qualifying shares described in paragraph a of that section, acquired by the qualified mutual fund during the particular year or the year preceding that year with the proceeds of the public security issue, other than any such qualifying shares having already been used, in respect of the particular year or the year preceding that year, for the purposes of paragraph c of section 965.121.

2006, c. 13, s. 202.

1049.14.20. If, on 31 December in a year, as a result of the administration of a qualified mutual fund by a manager or trustee, the qualified mutual fund is unable to fulfill its undertaking under paragraph e of section 965.121, the manager or trustee incurs a penalty equal to 25% of the amount by which the adjusted cost of the qualifying shares or valid shares owned by the qualified mutual fund on 31 December in the year, other than qualifying shares or valid shares having already been used, in respect of the year, for the purposes of paragraph f of that section, is exceeded by the amount by which the adjusted cost of the aggregate of the qualifying securities issued in the year and the preceding two years that have not been redeemed by the qualified mutual fund on or before 31 December in the year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a particular amount referred to in paragraph c of section 965.121 in respect of the year or any of the preceding two years.

1049.14.21. If, on 31 December in a year, as a result of the administration of a qualified mutual fund by a manager or trustee, the qualified mutual fund is unable to fulfill its undertaking under paragraph f of section 965.121, the manager or trustee incurs a penalty equal to 25% of the amount by which the aggregate of the amounts each of which is a particular amount referred to in paragraph c of that section in respect of any of the preceding three years, exceeds the adjusted cost of the qualifying shares or valid shares owned by the qualified mutual fund on 31 December in the year, other than qualifying shares or valid shares having already been used, in respect of the year, for the purposes of paragraph e of section 965.121.

1049.14.22. If, on 31 December in a year, as a result of the administration of a qualified mutual fund by a manager or trustee, the qualified mutual fund is unable to fulfill its undertaking under subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 965.119 or paragraph g of section 965.121 in respect of a public security issue made by the qualified mutual fund in the year, the manager or trustee incurs a penalty equal to 25% of the amount that would be computed under section 965.129 if that section were applicable to the qualified mutual fund.

2006, c. 13, s. 202.

1049.14.23. If a corporation fails to send a copy of the report referred to in paragraph d of section 965.76 to the Minister within the prescribed time, in accordance with that paragraph, the corporation incurs a penalty of $25 a day for every day the omission continues, up to $10,000.

2006, c. 13, s. 202; 2010, c. 25, s. 188.

1049.14.24. If a corporation obtains a designation of eligibility under section 965.88 on false representations, the corporation incurs a penalty of $100,000.

2006, c. 13, s. 202.

1049.14.25. For the purposes of this section and sections 1049.14.26 to 1049.14.31,

"authorized investment certificate" has the meaning assigned by section 776.1.36;

"balance of the penalty account payable" of a corporation, at any time, in relation to an authorized investment certificate means an amount equal to the amount by which its penalty account payable in relation to the certificate at that time exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount determined under subparagraph b of the second paragraph of any of sections 1049.14.26 to 1049.14.29 in relation to the certificate at a time preceding that time;

"eligible investment" has the meaning assigned by section 776.1.36;

"penalty account payable" of a corporation, at any time, in relation to an authorized investment certificate, means the aggregate of all amounts each of which is equal to the amount by which the amount that would be deductible by another corporation under section 776.1.38 in computing its tax payable for the particular taxation year in which it acquires shares of the capital stock of the corporation in relation to the certificate if the other corporation were a qualified investor for the particular year and if it had sufficient tax payable under this Part for that particular year exceeds the amount that would be deductible by the other corporation under section 776.1.38 in computing its tax payable for that particular year if it were a qualified investor for the particular year, if it had sufficient tax payable under this Part for the particular year and if no reference were made to

(a) an eligible investment made by the other corporation in relation to the certificate, where the corporation and the other corporation are associated with each other at a time that precedes the time referred to in the portion before this paragraph and that occurs in the particular year or in a taxation year that begins in the 48-month period following the end of the particular year; or

(b) the shares acquired by the other corporation in connection with an eligible investment in relation to the certificate that are disposed of or exchanged at a time that precedes the time referred to in the portion before paragraph a and that occurs before the end of the 60-month period that begins on the day they are issued, otherwise than by reason of the other corporation's or the corporation's bankruptcy or insolvency, the unilateral redemption of the share by the corporation, or the redemption of the share by the corporation at the other corporation's request where the law confers on it the right to demand that all its shares be redeemed;

"qualified investor" has the meaning assigned by section 776.1.36.

2021, c. 18, s. 148.

1049.14.26. Where a corporation has received an amount for the issue of a share of its capital stock in relation to an authorized investment certificate and any of the conditions provided for in the third paragraph is met, the corporation incurs a penalty equal to the amount determined by the formula

A – B.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is 30% of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount received by the corporation for the issue of a share of its capital stock in relation to the authorized investment certificate, to the extent that that amount was not taken into account in determining the amount of a penalty imposed on the corporation under the first paragraph or any of sections 1049.14.27 to 1049.14.29; and

(b) B is the corporation's balance of the penalty account payable in relation to the authorized investment certificate at the time the penalty is determined.

The conditions to which the first paragraph refers are as follows:

(a) at any time in the particular taxation year that includes the day on which the certificate is applied for or in a taxation year that begins in the 48-month period following the end of the particular year, the corporation is not a Canadian-controlled private corporation;

(b) at no time in a year referred to in subparagraph a does the corporation carry on a business in Québec or have an establishment in Québec; and

(c) at least 50% of the salaries or wages paid by the corporation in a year referred to in subparagraph a is paid to employees who are not, within the meaning of the regulations made under section 771, employees of an establishment situated in Québec.

2021, c. 18, s. 148.

1049.14.27. Where the aggregate of the amounts assigned by a corporation in relation to an authorized investment certificate held by the corporation exceeds the amount of the authorized investment specified in the certificate, the corporation incurs a penalty equal to the amount determined by the formula

A – B.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is 30% of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount received by the corporation for the issue of a share of its capital stock in relation to the excess of the amount assigned, to the extent that the amount received was not taken into account in determining the amount of a penalty imposed on the corporation under any of sections 1049.14.26, 1049.14.28 and 1049.14.29; and

(b) B is the corporation's balance of the penalty account payable in relation to the authorized investment certificate at the time the penalty is determined.

2021, c. 18, s. 148.

1049.14.28. Where the amount of the authorized investment specified in an authorized investment certificate held by a corporation is reduced for the purposes of Title III.6 of Book V, the corporation incurs a penalty equal to the amount determined by the formula

A – B.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is 30% of the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount received by the corporation for the issue of a share of its capital stock in relation to the certificate exceeds the amount of the authorized investment so reduced that is specified in the certificate, to the extent that that excess amount was not taken into account in determining the amount of a penalty imposed on the corporation under the first paragraph or any of sections 1049.14.26, 1049.14.27 and 1049.14.29; and

(b) B is the corporation's balance of the penalty account payable in relation to the authorized investment certificate at the time the penalty is determined.

2021, c. 18, s. 148.

1049.14.29. Where an authorized investment certificate held by a corporation is revoked, the corporation incurs a penalty equal to the amount determined by the formula

A – B.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is 30% of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount received by the corporation for the issue of a share of its capital stock in relation to the authorized investment certificate, to the extent that that amount was not taken into account in determining the amount of a penalty imposed on the corporation under any of sections 1049.14.26 to 1049.14.28; and

(b) B is the corporation's balance of the penalty account payable in relation to the authorized investment certificate at the time the penalty is determined.

1049.14.30. Where a corporation has made, at a particular time, an eligible investment for a taxation year in another corporation in relation to an authorized investment certificate held by the other corporation and it is reasonable to believe that one of the corporation's directors or officers knew, at the particular time, that the aggregate of the amounts assigned by the other corporation in relation to the certificate was exceeding the amount of the authorized investment specified in the certificate, the corporation is solidarily liable, with the other corporation, to pay any penalty imposed on the other corporation under section 1049.14.27 in relation to that excess amount, up to the maximum amount that the corporation could have deducted under section 776.1.38 for that year, in respect of the eligible investment, if it had had sufficient tax payable under this Part for the year.

1049.14.31. Where a corporation has made, at a particular time, an eligible investment for a taxation year in another corporation in relation to an authorized investment certificate held by the other corporation, the certificate is revoked because of a false statement or omission referred to in subparagraph 2 of the third paragraph of section 15 of the Act respecting the sectoral parameters of certain fiscal measures (chapter P-5.1) and it is reasonable to believe that one of the corporation's directors or officers was aware, at the particular time, of that false statement or omission, the corporation is solidarily liable, with the other corporation, to pay any penalty imposed on the other corporation under section 1049.14.29 in relation to the certificate, up to the maximum amount that the corporation could have deducted under section 776.1.38 for that year, in respect of the eligible investment, if it had had sufficient tax payable under this Part for the year.

2021, c. 18, s. 148.

1049.14.32. The Minister may at any time assess a corporation in respect of an amount payable under section 1049.14.30 or 1049.14.31, and this Book applies, with the necessary modifications, to that assessment as if it had been made under Title II.

2021, c. 18, s. 148.

1049.14.33. Where a particular corporation and another corporation are, under section 1049.14.30 or 1049.14.31, solidarily liable in respect of all or part of a liability of the other corporation, the following rules apply:

(a) a payment by, and on account of the liability of, the particular corporation discharges, up to the amount of the payment, their solidary liability; and

(b) a payment by, and on account of the liability of, the other corporation discharges the liability of the particular corporation only to the extent that the payment operates to reduce the liability of the other corporation to an amount less than the amount in respect of which the particular corporation is solidarily liable under section 1049.14.30 or 1049.14.31, as the case may be.

2021, c. 18, s. 148.

1049.15. Where the corporation governed by the Act to establish the Fonds de solidarité des travailleurs et des travailleuses du Québec (FTQ) (chapter F-3.2.1) purchases a class "A" share by agreement under section 8 of that Act, it incurs a penalty equal to 15% of the amount paid for the share by the first purchaser or, where the amount paid by the first purchaser relates to such a share purchased by him before 10 May 1996, to 20% of that amount.

Similarly, where the corporation governed by the Act to establish Fondaction, le Fonds de développement de la Confédération des syndicats nationaux pour la coopération et l'emploi (chapter F-3.1.2) purchases a class “A” share by agreement under section 9 of that Act, it incurs a penalty equal to the following percentage of the amount paid by the first purchaser for the share or for the class “B” share that was exchanged for the class “A” share under section 8 of that Act:

(a) 20%, where the amount paid by the first purchaser relates to such a share purchased by the first purchaser before 10 May 1996;

(b) 25%, where the amount paid by the first purchaser relates to such a share purchased by the first purchaser in the period that begins on 1 June 2009 and ends on 31 May 2015;

(b.1) 20%, where the amount paid by the first purchaser relates to such a share purchased by the first purchaser in the period that begins on 1 June 2015 and ends on 31 May 2021; and

(c) 15%, in any other case.

The first and second paragraphs do not apply, however, to any purchase made by a corporation in a fiscal period, in circumstances other than those described in the second paragraph of section 776.1.5.0.1 or 776.1.5.0.6, as the case may be, to the extent that the aggregate of the amount of the purchase and of all previous purchases made by the corporation in the fiscal period is, in such circumstances, less than 2% of the amount of paid-up capital in respect of shares of its capital stock which, under the conditions for their issue, cannot be, either partially or totally, purchased or redeemed by the corporation or purchased by any person, in any manner whatever, directly or indirectly.

Similarly, the first and second paragraphs do not apply to any purchase made by a corporation in a fiscal period, in the circumstances described in the second paragraph of section 776.1.5.0.1 or 776.1.5.0.6, as the case may be.

TITLE VI

1972, c. 23.

1051. Where a taxpayer has filed a fiscal return for a taxation year and has paid as tax, interest or a penalty for that year an amount greater than the amount that was exigible, the Minister may refund the overpayment to the taxpayer on mailing the notice of assessment for that year.

However, the Minister shall make the refund referred to in the first paragraph, if application is made for it by the taxpayer

(a) within three years following the end of the taxation year concerned;

(b) within the four years following the end of the taxation year concerned where the taxpayer is, at the end of that year, a mutual fund trust or a corporation other than a Canadian-controlled private corporation;

(c) within the six years or seven years, as the case may be, following the taxation year concerned where paragraph a.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010 applies;

(d) within the three years following the day on which the information return described in section 1079.7 is filed, in relation to a claim or deduction made by the taxpayer in respect of a tax shelter, where paragraph a. 2 of subsection 2 of section 1010 applies;

(e) within the three years following the day on which the documents described in the first paragraph of section 1010.0.0.2 are filed, where that section applies in relation to the disposition of an immovable property by the taxpayer or by a partnership of which the taxpayer is a member.

1972, c. 23, s. 775; 1982, c. 5, s. 189; 1983, c. 49, s. 20; 1985, c. 25, s. 154; 1986, c. 15, s. 187; 1990, c. 7, s. 202; 1996, c. 39, s. 273; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1999, c. 83, s. 231; 2015, c. 24, s. 150; 2021, c. 14, s. 177.

1051.1. Section 1051.2 applies to a taxpayer for a taxation year if, at any time after the beginning of the year,

(a) the taxpayer has paid, in respect of the taxpayer's tax payable for the year under this Part and of the taxpayer's tax payable for the year under Parts IV, IV.1, VI and VI.1, one or more provisional accounts under section 1025 or 1026, subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1027 or any of sections 1145, 1159.7, 1175 and 1175.19, if they refer to that subparagraph a;

(b) it is reasonable to conclude that the total amount of those provisional accounts exceeds the total amount of the tax that will be payable by the taxpayer for the year under those Parts; and

(c) the Minister is of the opinion that the payment of those provisional accounts has caused or will cause undue hardship to the taxpayer.

2010, c. 5, s. 180.

1051.2. The Minister may refund to a taxpayer to whom this section applies for a taxation year all or part of the excess referred to in paragraph b of section 1051.1.

2010, c. 5, s. 180.

1051.3. For the purposes of the interest and penalties computed under this Part, a provisional account is deemed not to have been paid to the extent that all or part of the provisional account can reasonably be considered to have been refunded under section 1051.2.

2010, c. 5, s. 180.

1052. Where the amount of an overpayment by a taxpayer, otherwise than as a consequence of the application of Division II.17.2 or II.21 of Chapter III.1 of Title III or of section 1029.8.36.166.47 or 1029.8.36.166.60.52, is refunded to, or applied to another liability of, the taxpayer, interest thereon shall be paid to the taxpayer for the period ending on the day the overpayment is refunded or applied, and beginning on the day that is the latest of

(a) the day on which the overpayment was made following a notice of assessment;

(b) the 46th day following the day on which the overpayment was made otherwise than following a notice of assessment;

(c) the 46th day following the balance-due day in the case of an individual, or following the filing-due date in the case of a corporation;

(d) the 46th day following the day on which the fiscal return giving rise to the overpayment was filed under sections 1000 to 1003;

(e) where an overpayment is determined for a taxation year pursuant to an application to amend the fiscal return filed under sections 1000 to 1003 for that year, the 46th day following the day on which the Minister receives the application in writing; and

(f) if an overpayment is determined for a taxation year as a result of information sent by the Government of Canada or of a province, other than Québec, the 46th day following

i. the day on which the Minister receives the information from that government, or

ii. if it precedes the day mentioned in subparagraph i, the day on which the Minister receives the information from the taxpayer.

1053. For the purposes of section 1052, the portion of any overpayment of the tax payable by a taxpayer for a taxation year that arose as a consequence of the exclusion of an amount from the taxpayer's income under sections 294 to 298 in respect of the exercise of an option in a subsequent taxation year, as a consequence of the exclusion of an amount from the taxpayer's income, or of the deduction of an amount, by reason of the disposition, in a subsequent taxation year, of a work of art referred to in section 714.1 or 752.0.10.11.1 by a donee referred to in that section, as a consequence of the deduction of an amount relating to a subsequent taxation year, or because of an event in a subsequent taxation year, and referred to in any of paragraphs b to b.1.0.1, c to d.1.0.0.4, d.1.1 and f to h of section 1012.1, as a consequence of the deduction of an amount under any of sections 785.2.2 to 785.2.4 from the proceeds of disposition of a property because of an election made in a fiscal return for a subsequent taxation year, as a consequence of the reduction of an amount included in computing the taxpayer's income under section 580 for the taxation year because of a reduction referred to in section 1012.2 in the foreign accrual property income of a foreign affiliate of the taxpayer for a taxation year of the foreign affiliate that ends in the taxation year, or as a consequence of the deduction of an amount relating to a preceding taxation year and referred to in any of sections 727 to 737 where that deduction is claimed after the expiry of the time limit provided for in section 1000 applicable to the taxation year, is deemed to have been paid to the Minister on the latest of

(a) the 46th day following the day on which an amended fiscal return of the taxpayer or a prescribed form was filed in accordance with any of sections 297, 716.0.1, 752.0.10.15, 1012, 1012.2, 1054, 1055.1.2 and 1055.1.3 so as to exclude from the taxpayer's income, to deduct or to reduce the amount for the taxation year;

(b) where, as a consequence of a request in writing, the Minister assessed the taxpayer's tax for the year so as to exclude from his income or deduct the amount for the taxation year, the 46th day following the day on which the request was made;

(c) the 46th day following the day immediately following the end of the subsequent taxation year relating to the amount excluded from the taxpayer's income or deducted for the taxation year;

(d) the 46th day following the day on which the taxpayer or his legal representative files his fiscal return under this Part for the subsequent taxation year referred to in paragraph c.

1972, c. 23, s. 777; 1983, c. 49, s. 22; 1985, c. 25, s. 156; 1986, c. 19, s. 194; 1987, c. 67, s. 188; 1988, c. 4, s. 139; 1989, c. 5, s. 235; 1990, c. 7, s. 203; 1991, c. 25, s. 171; 1992, c. 31, s. 5; 1993, c. 64, s. 182; 1995, c. 63, s. 220; 1997, c. 31, s. 128; 1999, c. 83, s. 233; 2000, c. 5, s. 278; 2004, c. 8, s. 182; 2005, c. 23, s. 236; 2005, c. 38, s. 293; 2007, c. 12, s. 221; 2011, c. 34, s. 110; 2015, c. 36, s. 154; 2017, c. 1, s. 347; 2021, c. 18, s. 149.

1053.0.1. Where, for a particular taxation year, a taxpayer has included an amount in computing his income by reason of the disposition in a subsequent taxation year of a work of art referred to in section 714.1 or 752.0.10.11.1 by a donee referred to in either of those sections, and an overpayment of tax was refunded to him or was applied to another liability, his tax payable under this Part for the particular taxation year is deemed, for the purpose of computing interest payable under section 1052, to be equal to the tax that the taxpayer would have been required to pay had he not been entitled to so include that amount.

However, the amount by which the taxpayer's tax payable under this Part for the particular taxation year is increased by reason of the inclusion of an amount described in the first paragraph is deemed, for the purpose of computing interest payable under section 1052, to have so increased the taxpayer's tax payable under this Part for the particular taxation year, from the taxpayer's filing-due date for the subsequent taxation year.

1053.0.1.1. If the amount of an overpayment by a corporation for a taxation year, as a consequence of the application for the year of section 1029.8.36.166.47 or 1029.8.36.166.60.52 in relation to the unused portion of the tax credit of the corporation for a subsequent year, is refunded to, or applied to another liability of, the corporation, interest on the overpayment is to be paid to the corporation for the period ending on the day the overpayment is refunded or applied and beginning on the forty-sixth day following the day the prescribed form referred to in that section is filed with the Minister.

1053.0.4. If the amount of an overpayment by a trust for a particular taxation year as a consequence of the application, for the particular year, of Division II.21 of Chapter III.1 of Title III, is refunded to, or applied to another liability of, the trust, interest on the overpayment is to be paid to the trust for the period ending on the day the overpayment is refunded or applied, and beginning

(a) if the particular taxation year is the year 2007,

i. on 15 May 2008 if the application referred to in subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.128 was filed with the Minister on or before 30 June 2008, and

ii. in any other case, on the 46th day following the date on which the Minister received the application referred to in subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.128; and

(b) if the particular taxation year is subsequent to the year 2007, on the 46th day following the later of

i. the 90th day following the end of the particular year, and

ii. the date on which the Minister received the application referred to in subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.128 for the particular year.

2009, c. 5, s. 494.

1053.1. (Repealed).

1053.2. Where, as a consequence of the application of section 771.5.1, the amount of an overpayment for a taxation year by a qualified corporation within the meaning of sections 771.5 to 771.7 is refunded to, or applied to another liability of, the qualified corporation, the qualified corporation's tax payable under this Part for the taxation year is, for the purpose of computing interest to be paid pursuant to section 1052 in respect of that part of the period referred to therein preceding the time the corporation filed the return referred to therein in accordance with section 771.5.1, deemed to be equal to the tax that the corporation would have been required to pay had it not been a qualified corporation within the meaning of sections 771.5 to 771.7.

1054. If the legal representative referred to in section 1055 disposes, in the circumstances described in that section, of one or more properties of the succession of the deceased taxpayer, the following rules apply despite any other provision of this Part:

(a) except for the purposes of section 741 and this subparagraph, the portion, corresponding, subject to the second paragraph, to the lesser of the following amounts, of a capital loss from the disposition of a particular capital property referred to in paragraph a of section 1055 is deemed to be a capital loss of the deceased taxpayer from the disposition of the particular capital property by the taxpayer in the taxpayer's last taxation year and not to be a capital loss of the succession from the disposition of that capital property:

i. the total of

(1) the amount of the valid election made after 19 December 2006 by the legal representative under paragraph c of subsection 6 of section 164 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)) in relation to the disposition of the particular capital property, and

(2) if the total of the amounts of the valid elections made by the legal representative under paragraph c of subsection 6 of section 164 of the Income Tax Act in relation to the aggregate of the dispositions of properties of the succession corresponds to the maximum total of the amounts that the legal representative may then elect in accordance with that paragraph c in relation to the aggregate of those dispositions, the portion—that is specified by the legal representative, in the prescribed documents required under subparagraph d, in relation to the capital loss from the disposition of the particular capital property and that is not so specified in relation to another capital loss—of the portion of the excess amount referred to in paragraph a of section 1055 that is greater than the amount by which the maximum total of the amounts that the legal representative may then elect in accordance with that paragraph c in relation to the aggregate of the dispositions of properties of the succession exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount referred to in subparagraph 1 in relation to a disposition of a capital property referred to in paragraph a of section 1055 exceeds the amount referred to in subparagraph ii in relation to that disposition, and

ii. the amount of the capital loss otherwise determined from the disposition of the particular capital property;

(b) the portion, corresponding, subject to the third paragraph, to the lesser of the following amounts, of a deductible amount described in paragraph b of section 1055 from the disposition of all the depreciable properties of a particular prescribed class of the succession is deductible in computing the income of the deceased taxpayer for the year in which the taxpayer died and is not deductible in computing a loss of the succession for its first taxation year:

i. the total of

(1) the amount of the valid election made after 19 December 2006 by the legal representative under paragraph d of subsection 6 of section 164 of the Income Tax Act in relation to the disposition of depreciable properties of the particular prescribed class, and

(2) if the total of the amounts of the valid elections made by the legal representative under paragraph d of subsection 6 of section 164 of the Income Tax Act in relation to the aggregate of the dispositions of properties of the succession corresponds to the maximum total of the amounts that the legal representative may then elect in accordance with that paragraph d in relation to the aggregate of those dispositions, the portion—that is specified by the legal representative, in the prescribed documents required under subparagraph d, in relation to the deductible amount described in paragraph b of section 1055 from the disposition of all the depreciable properties of the particular prescribed class and that is not so specified in relation to another deductible amount described in that paragraph b—of the amount by which the amount described in the fourth paragraph exceeds the portion of the maximum total of the amounts that the legal representative may then elect in accordance with that paragraph d in relation to the aggregate of the dispositions of properties of the succession that is greater than the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount referred to in subparagraph 1 in relation to the deductible amount described in paragraph b of section 1055 from the disposition of all the depreciable properties of a prescribed class of the succession exceeds the amount referred to in subparagraph ii in relation to that deductible amount, and

ii. the deductible amount described in paragraph b of section 1055, otherwise determined, from the disposition of all the depreciable properties of the particular prescribed class;

(c) in computing the taxable income of the deceased taxpayer for a taxation year preceding the year in which he died, no amount may be deducted in respect of an amount referred to in subparagraph a or b;

(d) the legal representative shall, within the prescribed time, file with the Minister an amended fiscal return in the name of the deceased taxpayer for the taxation year in which the taxpayer died and the prescribed documents.

However, if the aggregate of the amounts determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph in relation to the disposition of the capital properties referred to in paragraph a of section 1055 would, but for this paragraph, be greater than the excess amount referred to in paragraph a of that section, the amount otherwise determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph in respect of such a capital property must, if applicable, be reduced to the amount specified in relation to that capital property by the legal representative of the deceased taxpayer in the prescribed documents required under subparagraph d of the first paragraph or, if no amount is so specified, by the Minister, so that the aggregate is equal to the excess amount referred to in paragraph a of section 1055.

In addition, if the aggregate of the amounts determined under subparagraph b of the first paragraph in relation to the deductible amounts described in paragraph b of section 1055 would, but for this paragraph, be greater than the amount described in the fourth paragraph, the amount otherwise determined under subparagraph b of the first paragraph in respect of such a deductible amount must, if applicable, be reduced to the amount specified in relation to that deductible amount by the legal representative of the deceased taxpayer in the prescribed documents required under subparagraph d of the first paragraph or, if no amount is so specified, by the Minister, so that the aggregate is equal to the amount described in the fourth paragraph.

The amount referred to in subparagraph 2 of subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the first paragraph and the third paragraph is equal to the amount that would, but for this section, represent the total of the non-capital loss and the farm loss of the succession for its first taxation year.

Chapter V.2 of Title II of Book I applies in relation to an election made under subsection 6 of section 164 of the Income Tax Act or in relation to an election made under this section before 20 December 2006.

1972, c. 23, s. 778; 1974, c. 18, s. 34; 1985, c. 25, s. 157; 1987, c. 67, s. 189; 1988, c. 18, s. 125; 1998, c. 16, s. 251; 2001, c. 7, s. 152; 2009, c. 5, s. 495.

1055. Section 1054 applies if, in the course of the administration of the succession of a deceased taxpayer that is a graduated rate estate, the legal representative of the deceased taxpayer disposes, within the first taxation year of the succession,

(a) of the capital properties of the succession with the result that capital losses exceed capital gains; or

(b) of all the depreciable properties of a prescribed class of the succession the undepreciated capital cost of which, at the end of the first taxation year of the succession, is deductible under section 130.1 or the regulations made under paragraph a of section 130 in computing the income of the succession for that year.

1972, c. 23, s. 779; 1972, c. 26, s. 75; 1974, c. 18, s. 35; 1975, c. 22, s. 239; 1978, c. 26, s. 207; 1987, c. 67, s. 190; 1988, c. 18, s. 126; 1998, c. 16, s. 251; 2009, c. 5, s. 496; 2017, c. 1, s. 348.

1055.1. Despite any other provision of this Act, if, within the first taxation year of the succession of a deceased taxpayer that is a graduated rate estate, a right to acquire a security, as defined in section 47.18, under an agreement in respect of which a benefit was deemed by section 52.1 to have been received by the taxpayer is exercised or disposed of by the taxpayer's legal representative and the taxpayer's legal representative makes an election in prescribed manner and within the prescribed time, the following rules apply:

(a) the taxpayer is deemed to have incurred a loss from an office or employment for the year in which he died equal to the amount by which the amount of the benefit deemed under section 52.1 to have been received by him in respect of the right exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount by which the value of the right immediately before the time it was exercised or disposed of exceeds the amount paid by the taxpayer to acquire the right, and

ii. where an amount has been deducted under section 725.2 in computing the taxpayer's taxable income for the year in which the taxpayer died in respect of the benefit deemed under section 52.1 to have been received by the taxpayer in that year in respect of that right, 1/4 of the amount by which the amount of the benefit deemed under section 52.1 to have been received by the taxpayer in respect of that right exceeds the amount determined under subparagraph i;

(b) the amount of the loss that would be determined under paragraph a if that paragraph were read without reference to subparagraph ii thereof, shall be deducted in computing the adjusted cost base to the succession of the right at any time; and

(c) the legal representative shall, on or before the date prescribed for making the election under this section, file an amended fiscal return for the taxpayer for the year in which the taxpayer died to give effect to paragraph a.

1055.1.1. For the purposes of subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 1055.1, if an amount was deducted under section 725.2, as a consequence of the application of section 725.2.0.1 or 725.2.0.1.1, in computing a taxpayer's taxable income for the year in which the taxpayer died, that subparagraph ii is to be read as if "1/4" were replaced by "50%".

1055.1.2. Despite any other provision of this Act, if the legal representative of a deceased taxpayer pays, in any taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year"), an amount that would be deductible under section 78.1, but for this section, in computing, for the repayment year, the income of the succession that is a graduated rate estate, the amount is deemed to have been paid by the taxpayer in the taxpayer's last taxation year and not to have been so paid by the legal representative.

The first paragraph applies only if the following conditions are met on or before the succession's filing-due date for the repayment year:

(a) the legal representative elects to have the first paragraph apply in respect of the amount paid; and

(b) the legal representative files with the Minister an amended fiscal return in the name of the taxpayer for the taxation year in which the taxpayer died.

1055.1.3. Despite any other provision of this Act, if the legal representative of a deceased taxpayer repays, in a particular taxation year of the succession of the taxpayer that is a graduated rate estate, an amount that is a benefit received by the taxpayer under the Act respecting parental insurance (chapter A-29.011), the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan (chapter R-9) or a similar plan within the meaning of that Act, the Unemployment Insurance Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. U-1) or the Employment Insurance Act (S.C. 1996, c. 23), and included by the taxpayer in computing the taxpayer's income for one or more taxation years, the amount is deemed to have been repaid by the taxpayer in the taxpayer's last taxation year and not to have been repaid by the legal representative.

The first paragraph applies only if the following conditions are met on or before the succession's filing-due date for the particular taxation year:

(a) the legal representative elects to have the first paragraph apply in respect of the repaid amount; and

(b) the legal representative files with the Minister an amended fiscal return in the name of the taxpayer for the taxation year in which the taxpayer died.

2011, c. 34, s. 111; 2017, c. 1, s. 351.

1055.2. Despite any inconsistent provision of any law, a corporation may assign or hypothecate the right to claim an amount payable to it under this Act.

The assignment or hypothec is not binding on the State and, as a result, the following rules apply:

(a) the Minister retains discretion to pay or not to pay the amount to the assignee or creditor;

(b) the assignment or hypothec does not create any liability of the State to the assignee or creditor; and

(c) the rights of the assignee or creditor are subject to the rights conferred on the State by section 31 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) and any right to compensation of which the State may avail itself.

1993, c. 16, s. 340.

1056.4. The Minister may extend the time for making a prescribed election or grant permission to amend or revoke such an election if

(a) the election was required to be made by a taxpayer or by a partnership on or before a particular day in a taxation year of the taxpayer or a fiscal period of the partnership; and

(b) the taxpayer or the partnership applies, on or before the day that is ten calendar years after the end of the taxation year or the fiscal period, to the Minister for that extension or permission.

1993, c. 16, s. 340; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2005, c. 38, s. 294.

1056.4.0.1. On a written application by a taxpayer, the Minister may extend the time for making an election under Chapter II.1 of Title VI of Book III or grant permission for such an election made previously to be amended or revoked if

(a) the application is made on or before the day that is three calendar years after the taxpayer's filing-due date for the taxation year for which the election applies; and

(b) the taxpayer is resident in Canada at the time of the application or, if the taxpayer is deceased at that time, at the time that is immediately before the taxpayer's death.

The first paragraph does not apply to an election described in the definition of "joint election" in the first paragraph of section 336.8, enacted by the first paragraph of section 336.9.

However, if, in accordance with paragraph 3.201 of section 220 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)), the Minister of National Revenue extends the time for making an election referred to in the second paragraph or grants permission for such an election made previously to be amended or revoked, the Minister is deemed, for the purposes of this Title, to have so extended the time for making the election or so granted permission for such an election to be amended or revoked, under the first paragraph.

The third paragraph does not apply if the taxpayer who applied for an extension of the time for making an election referred to in the second paragraph for a particular taxation year, or the other taxpayer with whom the election must be made, was a transferor who was resident in Québec at the end of that year or, if the transferor died in that year, at the time that is immediately before the transferor's death, and who made a joint election within the meaning of the first paragraph of section 336.8 with the transferor's eligible spouse for the particular year within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4 that has not been revoked in accordance with a permission obtained under the first paragraph.

1056.4.1. For the purposes of section 1056.4, the following rules apply:

(a) a designation made in the prescribed form and provided for in section 274 or 274.0.1, subparagraph j of the first paragraph of section 485.3 or any of sections 485.6 to 485.11 and 485.40 is deemed to be a prescribed election;

(a.1) a specification made under any of sections 279, 280.3 and 1054 in a fiscal return or other document is deemed to be a prescribed election; and

(b) an allocation under section 1121.12 is deemed to be a prescribed election.

1056.5. The Minister shall, with dispatch, examine each application filed with him under section 1056.4 and, where the application is granted by the Minister, determine the penalty payable and send a notice of assessment in that respect to the taxpayer or the partnership.

1993, c. 16, s. 340; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1056.6. Where an application made under section 1056.4 is granted by the Minister, the taxpayer or the partnership incurs, in respect of the election or of the amended or revoked election, a penalty equal to $100 for each complete month from the day on or before which the election was required to be made to the day on which the application is made, up to $5,000.

1056.7. Where the Minister has extended the time for making an election or granted permission to amend an election, the election or amended election is deemed to have been made in the form in which and on or before the day on or before which the election was required to be made.

In addition, where the Minister has granted permission to amend or revoke an election, the election is deemed never to have been made.

1056.8. Despite section 1010, where the Minister extends the time for making an election or grants permission to amend or revoke an election, the Minister shall make a reassessment and redetermine the tax, interest and penalties for any taxation year to take into account the election or the amended or revoked election.

The same rule applies where a provision of an Act or regulation allows the making of an election in respect of a taxation year prior to the date of coming into force of that provision.

REVOCATION OF CERTAIN REGISTRATIONS

1972, c. 23; 1978, c. 26, s. 208; 2021, c. 18, s. 150.

1063. The Minister may revoke the registration of a charity, of a Canadian amateur athletic association, of a Québec amateur athletic association or of a journalism organization the registration of which has been recognized or authorized by this Part or by regulation, if such charity, association or organization

(a) applies therefor;

(b) fails to comply with the conditions imposed by this Part or the regulations for the maintenance of its registration;

(c) fails to file an information return as and when required under this Part or a regulation;

(d) issues a receipt for a gift otherwise than in accordance with this Part and the regulations or that contains false information;

(e) fails to comply with or contravenes section 34 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002); or

(f) accepts a gift the granting of which was expressly or implicitly conditional on the charity, association or organization making a gift to another person, association, organization, society or club other than a qualified donee.

1972, c. 23, s. 787; 1978, c. 26, s. 208; 1995, c. 49, s. 236; 1997, c. 14, s. 256; 2005, c. 23, s. 237; 2010, c. 31, s. 175; 2015, c. 21, s. 496; 2021, c. 18, s. 151; 2023, c. 2, s. 67.

1064. The Minister shall, before revoking the registration of an organization or association referred to in section 1063, give notice of the Minister's intention by registered mail except if the revocation is effected upon the application of the organization or association.

1065. (1) The revocation shall be by means of the publication of a notice for that purpose given by the Minister in the Gazette officielle du Québec.

(2) The Minister may publish such notice without delay in the case provided for in paragraph a of section 1063; in all other cases, the Minister may publish it upon the expiry of the time limit specified in section 93.1.10.1 or 93.1.15 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) for contesting if the decision has not been contested or after final judgment if it has.

1065.0.1. Despite sections 1063 to 1065, the registration of a qualified donee is revoked as of the date on which it became a listed terrorist entity for the purposes of Chapter III.1 of Title I of Book VIII.

2021, c. 36, s. 140.

1065.1. Despite sections 1063 to 1065, if the registration of a charity is, for the purposes of the Income Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter 1, 5th Supplement), revoked under paragraph c of subsection 4 of section 149.1 of that Act or under subsection 3 of section 168 of that Act, or annulled under subsection 23 of section 149.1 of that Act, the registration of that charity is deemed to be revoked or annulled for the purposes of this Act and the regulations.

BOOK X.1

IDENTIFICATION NUMBER FOR A TAX SHELTER

1990, c. 59, s. 350; 2000, c. 5, s. 279.

TITLE I

DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

1990, c. 59, s. 350.

1079.1. In this Book,

"gifting arrangement" means any arrangement under which it may reasonably be considered, having regard to statements or representations made or proposed to be made in connection with the arrangement, that if a person were to enter into the arrangement, the person would

(a) make a gift to a qualified donee, or a contribution referred to in the first paragraph of section 776, of property acquired by the person under the arrangement; or

(b) incur a limited-recourse debt that may reasonably be considered to relate to a gift to a qualified donee or a contribution referred to in the first paragraph of section 776;

"limited-recourse debt" in respect of a gift or a contribution described in the first paragraph of section 776 of a taxpayer, at the time the gift or contribution is made, means an amount equal to the aggregate of

(a) each limited-recourse amount at that time, determined under Title VIII of Book VI, of the taxpayer and of any other taxpayer not dealing at arm's length with the taxpayer, that can reasonably be considered to relate to the gift or contribution;

(b) each limited-recourse amount at that time, determined under Title VIII of Book VI when that Title VIII is applied to any other taxpayer dealing at arm's length with and holds, directly or indirectly, an interest in the taxpayer, that can reasonably be considered to relate to the gift or contribution; and

(c) each amount that is the unpaid amount at that time of any other indebtedness, of any taxpayer referred to in paragraph a or b, that can reasonably be considered to relate to the gift or contribution if there is a guarantee, security or similar covenant in respect of that or any other indebtedness;

"person" includes a partnership;

"promoter" in respect of a tax shelter means a person who, in the course of a business,

(a) issues or sells, or promotes the issuance, sale or acquisition of, the tax shelter;

(b) acts as a mandatary or adviser in respect of the issuance or sale, or the promotion of the issuance, sale or acquisition, of the tax shelter; or

(c) accepts consideration in respect of the tax shelter;

"tax shelter" means

(a) a gifting arrangement described in paragraph b of the definition of "gifting arrangement"; and

(b) a gifting arrangement described in paragraph a of the definition of "gifting arrangement", or a property, including any right to income, other than a flow-through share or a prescribed property, in respect of which it may reasonably be considered, having regard to statements or representations made or proposed to be made in connection with the gifting arrangement or the property, that, if a person were to enter into the gifting arrangement or acquire an interest in the property, the amount referred to in the second paragraph would, at the end of a particular taxation year that ends within four years after the day on which the gifting arrangement is entered into or the interest is acquired, equal or exceed the amount by which the cost to the person of the property acquired under the gifting arrangement, or of the interest in the property at the end of the particular year, determined without reference to Title VIII of Book VI, would exceed the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount of any prescribed benefit that is expected to be received or enjoyed, directly or indirectly, in respect of the property acquired under the gifting arrangement, or of the interest in the property, by the person or any person with whom the person does not deal at arm's length;

"trust account number" has the meaning assigned by subsection 1 of section 248 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.));

"trust tax identification number" has the meaning assigned by the second paragraph of section 58.1.1 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

The amount to which the definition of "tax shelter" in the first paragraph refers is, for the particular taxation year referred to in that definition, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is

(a) an amount, or a loss in the case of a partnership interest, represented to be deductible in computing the person's income for the particular year or any preceding taxation year in respect of the gifting arrangement or the interest in the property, including, if the property is a right to income, an amount or loss in respect of that right that is stated or represented to be so deductible; or

(b) any other amount stated or represented to be deemed under this Part to be paid on account of the person's tax payable, or to be deductible in computing the person's income, taxable income or tax payable under this Part, for the particular year or any preceding taxation year in respect of the gifting arrangement or the interest in the property, other than an amount so stated or represented that is included in computing a loss described in subparagraph a.

In this Book, more than one person may act as a tax shelter promoter in respect of the same tax shelter.

TITLE II

GENERALITIES

1990, c. 59, s. 350.

1079.2. A promoter in respect of a tax shelter shall apply to the Minister in prescribed form for an identification number for the tax shelter, unless an application therefor has already been made in respect of the tax shelter.

1990, c. 59, s. 350; 2000, c. 5, s. 293.

1079.3. Upon receipt of an application under section 1079.2 for an identification number for a tax shelter, together with prescribed information, the amount of $200 and an undertaking satisfactory to the Minister that records in respect of the tax shelter will be kept and retained at a place that is satisfactory to the Minister, the Minister shall issue an identification number for the tax shelter.

1990, c. 59, s. 350; 1992, c. 31, s. 11; 1996, c. 39, s. 257; 2000, c. 5, s. 293; 2000, c. 25, s. 1.

1079.4. A person may, at any time, sell or issue, or accept consideration in respect of, a tax shelter only if

(a) the Minister has issued before that time an identification number for the tax shelter; and

(b) that time is during the calendar year designated by the Minister as being applicable to the identification number.

1990, c. 59, s. 350; 2000, c. 5, s. 281; 2013, c. 10, s. 145.

1079.5. Every promoter in respect of a tax shelter shall

(a) make reasonable efforts to ensure that all persons who acquire or otherwise invest in the tax shelter are provided with the identification number issued by the Minister for the tax shelter;

(b) prominently display on the upper right-hand corner of any statement of earnings prepared by or on behalf of the promoter in respect of the tax shelter the identification number issued for the tax shelter; and

(c) on every written statement that refers either directly or indirectly and either expressly or implicitly to the issuance by the Minister of an identification number for the tax shelter, as well as on the copy of the portion of the information return to be forwarded pursuant to section 1079.7.3, prominently display

i. the following French text:

"Le numéro d’identification attribué à cet abri fiscal doit figurer dans toute déclaration d’impôt sur le revenu produite par l’investisseur. L’attribution de ce numéro n’est qu’une formalité administrative et ne confirme aucunement le droit de l’investisseur aux avantages fiscaux découlant de cet abri fiscal.", or

ii. the following French and English texts:

"Le numéro d’identification attribué à cet abri fiscal doit figurer dans toute déclaration d’impôt sur le revenu produite par l’investisseur. L’attribution de ce numéro n’est qu’une formalité administrative et ne confirme aucunement le droit de l’investisseur aux avantages fiscaux découlant de cet abri fiscal.

The identification number issued for this tax shelter shall be included in any income tax return filed by the investor. Issuance of the identification number is for administrative purposes only and does not in any way confirm the entitlement of an investor to claim any tax benefits associated with the tax shelter."

1990, c. 59, s. 350; 2000, c. 5, s. 281; 2015, c. 21, s. 497.

TITLE III

DEDUCTION

1990, c. 56, s. 350.

1079.6. No amount may be deducted or claimed by a person in respect of a tax shelter unless the person files with the Minister the prescribed form containing prescribed information and, where the person was an individual resident in Québec at the time the person acquired or otherwise invested in the tax shelter, the identification number for the tax shelter, and, in other cases, either that identification number or the identification number issued under subsection 3 of section 237.1 of the Income Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter 1, 5th Supplement) by the Minister of Revenue of Canada for the tax shelter.

1079.6.1. No amount may be deducted, claimed or deemed to have been paid by any person for any taxation year in respect of a tax shelter of the person where any person incurs a penalty under section 1049.0.2, as it applied before its repeal, or 1079.7.4 in respect of the tax shelter or interest on the penalty and the penalty or interest has not been paid.

2000, c. 5, s. 282.

TITLE IV

ADMINISTRATION

1990, c. 59, s. 350.

1079.7. Every promoter in respect of a tax shelter who accepts consideration in respect of the tax shelter from an individual resident in Québec at the time of the acceptance or who acts as a mandator or mandatary in respect of such an acceptance in a calendar year shall, in prescribed form and manner, file an information return for the year, unless such a return in respect of the tax shelter has already been filed in accordance with this section, containing

(a) the name, address and either the Social Insurance Number or the trust account number and trust tax identification number of each individual who so acquired or otherwise invested in the tax shelter in the year and was resident in Québec at the time of the acquisition or investment;

(b) the amount paid in respect of the tax shelter by each individual referred to in paragraph a; and

(c) such other information as is required by the prescribed form.

1990, c. 59, s. 350; 1993, c. 19, s. 142; 2000, c. 5, s. 283; 2021, c. 14, s. 182; 2021, c. 36, s. 142.

1079.7.1. An information return required under section 1079.7 to be filed in respect of the acquisition of a tax shelter in a calendar year or an investment in a tax shelter in the year shall be filed with the Minister on or before the last day of February of the following calendar year.

2000, c. 5, s. 284.

1079.7.2. Notwithstanding section 1079.7.1, where a person is required under section 1079.7 to file an information return in respect of a business or activity and the person discontinues that business or activity, the return shall be filed on or before the earlier of

(a) the day referred to in section 1079.7.1; and

(b) the day that is 30 days after the day on which the person discontinues the business or activity, as the case may be.

2000, c. 5, s. 284.

1079.7.3. Every person required to file an information return under section 1079.7 shall, on or before the day on or before which the return is required to be filed with the Minister, forward to each person to whom the return relates a copy of the portion of the return relating to that person.

2000, c. 5, s. 284; 2015, c. 21, s. 498.

1079.7.4. Every person who files false or misleading information with the Minister in an application under section 1079.2 or issues, sells or accepts consideration in respect of a tax shelter before the Minister has issued an identification number for the tax shelter incurs a penalty equal to the proportion determined under the second paragraph of the greater of

(a) $500; and

(b) 25% of the greater of

i. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the consideration received or receivable from a person in respect of the tax shelter before the correct information is filed with the Minister or the identification number is issued, as the case may be, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount stated or represented to be the value of property that a particular person who acquires or otherwise invests in the tax shelter could donate to a qualified donee, if the tax shelter is a gifting arrangement and consideration has been received or is receivable from the particular person in respect of the tax shelter before the correct information is filed with the Minister or the identification number is issued, as the case may be.

The proportion to which the first paragraph refers is the proportion that the amount of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a consideration received or receivable from an individual who, before the time referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph, acquired or otherwise invested in the tax shelter referred to in that subparagraph b and who was resident in Québec at the time of the acquisition or investment is of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a consideration received or receivable from a person who, before the time referred to in that subparagraph b, acquired or otherwise invested in the tax shelter.

1079.7.4.1. Every person who is required under section 1079.7 to file an information return and who fails to comply with a demand under section 39 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) to file the return, or to report in the return information required under paragraphs a and b of section 1079.7, incurs a penalty equal to 25% of the greater of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the consideration received or receivable by the person in respect of the tax shelter from a particular person in respect of whom information required under paragraphs a and b of section 1079.7 had not been reported at or before the time that the demand was issued or the return was filed, as the case may be; and

(b) if the tax shelter is a gifting arrangement, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount stated or represented to be the value of property that the particular person referred to in paragraph a could donate to a qualified donee.

2013, c. 10, s. 147.

1079.7.5. Where a partnership incurs a penalty under section 1079.7.4 or 1079.7.4.1, sections 1005 to 1014, 1034 to 1034.0.2, 1035 to 1044.0.2 and 1051 to 1055.1 apply, with the necessary modifications, in respect of the penalty as if the partnership were a corporation.

2000, c. 5, s. 284; 2010, c. 31, s. 175; 2013, c. 10, s. 148; 2017, c. 1, s. 352.

1079.8. Where an application for an identification number for a tax shelter has been made under section 1079.2, sections 38 to 40.1 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) apply, with the necessary modifications and without restricting the generality thereof, for the purposes of permitting the Minister to verify or ascertain any information in respect of the tax shelter.

The first paragraph applies, notwithstanding that a fiscal return has not been filed by any taxpayer under section 1000 for the taxation year of the taxpayer in which an amount is claimed as a deduction in respect of the tax shelter.

1990, c. 59, s. 350; 1995, c. 63, s. 261; 2000, c. 5, s. 293; 2010, c. 31, s. 175.

BOOK X.2

DISCLOSURE OF TRANSACTIONS

2010, c. 25, s. 189.

TITLE I

DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

2010, c. 25, s. 189.

1079.8.1. In this Book,

"adviser" in respect of a transaction means a person or partnership that provides help, assistance or advice regarding the design or implementation of the transaction, or that commercializes or promotes it;

"confidential transaction", carried out by a taxpayer or by a partnership of which a taxpayer is a member, means a transaction under which the taxpayer or partnership retained the services of an adviser in respect of the transaction and under which the contract between the taxpayer and the adviser or between the partnership and the adviser, as the case may be, includes, in relation to the transaction, an undertaking of confidentiality of the taxpayer or partnership towards other persons or towards an income taxation authority in Canada or elsewhere;

"promoter" has the meaning assigned by section 1079.9;

"specified transaction" carried out by a taxpayer or a partnership means a transaction whose form and substance of the facts specific to the taxpayer or the partnership are significantly similar to the form and the substance of the facts of a transaction determined by the Minister and published in the Gazette officielle du Québec;

"tax benefit" means a reduction, avoidance or deferral of the tax or of another amount payable under this Act or an increase in a refund of tax or of another amount under this Act, including a reduction, avoidance or deferral of the tax or of another amount that would be payable under this Act but for a tax agreement, and an increase in a refund of tax or of another amount under this Act that results from a tax agreement;

"transaction" includes an arrangement or event, and a series of transactions;

"transaction involving conditional remuneration", carried out by a taxpayer or by a partnership of which a taxpayer is a member, means, subject to the second paragraph, a transaction in relation to which the remuneration of an adviser in respect of the transaction takes on any of the following forms:

(a) all or part of the remuneration is conditional on obtaining a tax benefit resulting from the transaction or is determined, in whole or in part, on the basis of the tax benefit;

(b) all or part of the remuneration may be refunded, in any manner whatever, if the expected tax benefit from the transaction fails to materialize;

(c) all or part of the remuneration is earned by the adviser only after the expiry of a prescription period that is provided for in a law and that applies to the taxpayer's taxation year or taxation years in which the transaction takes place;

"transaction with contractual protection" carried out by a taxpayer or a partnership of which a taxpayer is a member means a transaction in respect of which the taxpayer has protection consisting of an insurance (other than standard professional liability insurance) or another form of protection, including an indemnity, compensation or guarantee, and designed to

(a) protect the taxpayer against a failure of the transaction to achieve any tax benefit from the transaction;

(b) pay for or reimburse any amount incurred by the taxpayer as an expense, fee, tax, interest, penalty or similar amount in the course of a dispute with a tax authority in Canada or elsewhere in respect of a tax benefit from the transaction; or

(c) help or represent the taxpayer, protect the taxpayer's rights or provide any other form of assistance to the taxpayer in the course of a dispute with a tax authority in Canada or elsewhere in respect of a tax benefit from the transaction.

For the purposes of the definition of "transaction involving conditional remuneration" in the first paragraph, the following transactions are excluded:

(a) (subparagraph repealed);

(a.1*)* any request related to the payment to a taxpayer of an amount the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under this Part for a taxation year;

(b) any request related to the analysis and review of an amount of interest payable by a taxpayer under this Act, following an assessment, a reassessment or an additional assessment for a taxation year;

(c) any request related to the review of a fiscal return of a taxpayer for a taxation year following its filing under this Act; and

(d) a transaction in respect of which an agreement has been entered into with a person who is a member of a professional order and under which the result obtained by the person is one of the factors taken into consideration in determining the person's remuneration, in accordance with a provision of the code of ethics adopted by the professional order under the authority of which the person practises the profession.

For the purposes of the definition of "confidential transaction" in the first paragraph, it is understood that an undertaking of confidentiality towards other persons does not include a clause providing that an adviser's professional liability exists only towards the adviser's client and according to which a third party may not, for that party's own purposes, rely on the opinion given by the adviser to the client.

For the purposes of this Book, in relation to a transaction determined by the Minister under the definition of "specified transaction" in the first paragraph, the Minister also determines and publishes in the Gazette officielle du Québec which taxpayers will be required to disclose a specified transaction in accordance with section 1079.8.6.2 and which will be the partnerships whose members will be subject to that obligation, if applicable, as well as the day from which the obligation to disclose specified transactions will apply.

The obligations provided for in this Book apply in respect of a specified transaction only if the carrying out of the specified transaction begins after the date of publication in the Gazette officielle du Québec of the transaction determined by the Minister to which the specified transaction relates; in that respect, section 1.5 does not apply for the purpose of determining the date on which a specified transaction begins to be carried out.

1079.8.2. For the purposes of the definition of "confidential transaction" in the first paragraph of section 1079.8.1, the following rules apply:

(a) if a contract with an adviser is entered into by a corporation associated with, or a person related to, at the time at which the contract is entered into, the taxpayer or the partnership, the contract is deemed to have been entered into by the taxpayer or the partnership, as the case may be; and

(b) if an undertaking of confidentiality is made with an adviser by a corporation associated with, or a person related to, at the time at which the undertaking is made, the taxpayer or the partnership, the undertaking is deemed to have been made by the taxpayer or the partnership, as the case may be.

2010, c. 25, s. 189.

1079.8.3. For the purposes of this Book, the following rules apply:

(a) if a person is a member, or is deemed because of the application of this paragraph to be a member, of a partnership that is a member of another partnership, the person is deemed to be a member of the other partnership;

(b) for the purpose of determining whether a corporation is associated with, or whether a person is related to, a partnership at a particular time, the partnership is deemed to be a corporation whose taxation year corresponds to the partnership's fiscal period and all the voting shares in the capital stock of which are owned at that time by each member of the partnership in a proportion equal to the agreed proportion that would be determined in respect of the member for the partnership's fiscal period if the fiscal period ended at that time; and

(c) for the purpose of determining whether a person is related to a taxpayer or a partnership at a particular time, a trust is deemed to be a corporation all the voting shares in the capital stock of which

i. in the case of a testamentary trust under which one or more beneficiaries are entitled to receive all of the income of the trust that arose before the date of death of one or the last surviving of those beneficiaries (in this paragraph referred to as the "distribution date") and under which no other person can, before the distribution date, receive or otherwise obtain the enjoyment of any of the income or capital of the trust,

(1) are owned at that time by such a beneficiary, if that beneficiary's share of the income or capital of the trust depends on the exercise by any person of, or the failure by any person to exercise, a discretionary power, and if that time occurs before the distribution date, or

(2) are owned at that time by such a beneficiary in a proportion equal to the proportion that the fair market value of the beneficial interest in the trust of the beneficiary is of the fair market value of the beneficial interests in the trust of all the beneficiaries, if subparagraph 1 does not apply and that time occurs before the distribution date,

ii. if a beneficiary's share of the accumulating income or capital of the trust depends on the exercise by any person of, or the failure by any person to exercise, a discretionary power, are owned at that time by the beneficiary, unless subparagraph i applies and that time occurs before the distribution date,

iii. in any case where subparagraph ii does not apply, are owned at that time by the beneficiary in a proportion equal to the proportion that the fair market value of the beneficial interest in the trust of the beneficiary is of the fair market value of all beneficial interests in the trust, unless subparagraph i applies and that time occurs before the distribution date, and

iv. in the case of a trust referred to in section 467, are owned at that time by the person referred to in that section from whom property of the trust or property for which property of the trust was substituted was directly or indirectly received.

2010, c. 25, s. 189.

1079.8.4. For the purposes of sections 1079.8.5 to 1079.8.6.1, the following rules apply:

(a) the amount of the impact on a taxpayer's income for a taxation year, resulting from a particular transaction referred to in either of those sections, is to be determined by the formula

A + B; and

(b) the amount of the impact on a particular partnership's income for a fiscal period, resulting from a particular transaction referred to in either of those sections, is to be determined by the formula

C + D.

In the formulas in subparagraphs a and b of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount by which the taxpayer's income that would be determined for the taxation year if the particular transaction were not taken into account, exceeds the taxpayer's income for the taxation year;

(b) B is the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the taxpayer's non-capital loss, farm loss, net capital loss, restricted farm loss or limited partnership loss for the taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which would be the taxpayer's non-capital loss, farm loss, net capital loss, restricted farm loss or limited partnership loss for the taxation year if the particular transaction were not taken into account;

(c) C is the amount by which the amount that would be the particular partnership's income for the fiscal period if the particular transaction were not taken into account, exceeds the particular partnership's income for the fiscal period; and

(d) D is the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which would have been the particular partnership's non-capital loss, farm loss, net capital loss, restricted farm loss or limited partnership loss for the fiscal period if the particular partnership were a taxpayer whose taxation year coincides with the fiscal period, exceeds the aggregate determined under the third paragraph.

The aggregate to which subparagraph d of the second paragraph refers is the aggregate of all amounts each of which would be the particular partnership's non-capital loss, farm loss, net capital loss, restricted farm loss or limited partnership loss for the fiscal period if the particular partnership were a taxpayer whose taxation year coincides with the fiscal period and if the particular transaction were not taken into account.

2010, c. 25, s. 189; 2017, c. 1, s. 354.

TITLE II

MANDATORY DISCLOSURE

2010, c. 25, s. 189.

1079.8.5. A taxpayer who carries out a transaction involving conditional remuneration or who is a member of a partnership that carries out such a transaction shall, in an information return filed in accordance with section 1079.8.9 and within the time limit provided for in section 1079.8.10, disclose the transaction to the Minister if, but for Title I of Book XI, the transaction would result, directly or indirectly,

(a) in a tax benefit of $25,000 or more for the taxpayer, or in an impact on the income of the taxpayer of $100,000 or more, for a taxation year; or

(b) in an impact on the income of the partnership of $100,000 or more for a fiscal period.

Despite the first paragraph, the obligation to disclose provided for in that paragraph applies, in the case of a limited partnership, to all of its general partners and to them only.

2010, c. 25, s. 189; 2017, c. 1, s. 355.

1079.8.6. A taxpayer who carries out a confidential transaction or who is a member of a partnership that carries out such a transaction shall, in an information return filed in accordance with section 1079.8.9 and within the time limit provided for in section 1079.8.10, disclose the transaction to the Minister if, but for Title I of Book XI, the transaction would result, directly or indirectly,

(a) in a tax benefit of $25,000 or more for the taxpayer, or in an impact on the income of the taxpayer of $100,000 or more, for a taxation year; or

(b) in an impact on the income of the partnership of $100,000 or more for a fiscal period.

Despite the first paragraph, the obligation to disclose provided for in that paragraph applies, in the case of a limited partnership, to all of its general partners and to them only.

1079.8.6.1. A taxpayer who carries out a transaction with contractual protection or who is a member of a partnership that carries out such a transaction shall, in an information return filed in accordance with section 1079.8.9 and within the time limit provided for in section 1079.8.10, disclose the transaction to the Minister if, but for Title I of Book XI, the transaction would result, directly or indirectly,

(a) in a tax benefit of $25,000 or more for the taxpayer, or in an impact on the income of the taxpayer of $100,000 or more, for a taxation year; or

(b) in an impact on the income of the partnership of $100,000 or more for a fiscal period.

Despite the first paragraph, the obligation to disclose provided for in that paragraph applies, in the case of a limited partnership, to all of its general partners and to them only.

1079.8.6.2. A taxpayer who carries out a specified transaction or who is a member of a partnership that carries out such a transaction shall, in an information return filed in accordance with the first paragraph of section 1079.8.9 and within the time limit provided for in section 1079.8.10.1, disclose the transaction to the Minister.

The first paragraph applies to a taxpayer who carries out the specified transaction or who is a member of a partnership that carries out the transaction only if the taxpayer is, in accordance with the Minister's determination under the fourth paragraph of section 1079.8.1, subject to the obligation to disclose the transaction.

Despite the first paragraph, the obligation to disclose provided for in that paragraph applies, in the case of a limited partnership, to all of its general partners and to them only.

2020, c. 16, s. 166.

1079.8.6.3. An adviser or a promoter who commercializes a transaction or promotes it, or if the adviser or promoter is a partnership, any of its members, shall—if the form and the substance of the facts of the transaction are significantly similar to the form and the substance of the facts of a transaction determined by the Minister and published in the Gazette officielle du Québec and if the transaction did not have to be significantly altered in its form and substance to be suitable for implementation with respect to various taxpayers or partnerships—file an information return in accordance with the second paragraph of section 1079.8.9 and within the time limit provided for in section 1079.8.10.2 in respect of the transaction.

2020, c. 16, s. 166.

1079.8.6.4. A taxpayer who is a party to a nominee contract entered into in the course of a transaction having tax consequences under this Act or who is a member of a partnership that is a party to such a contract shall, in an information return sent to the Minister under separate cover by registered mail and in the prescribed form, disclose the contract and the transaction to the Minister on or before the 90th day after the date on which the contract was entered into.

The information return must contain the following information:

(a) the date the nominee contract was entered into;

(b) the identity of the parties to the nominee contract;

(c) a complete description of the facts of the transaction that is sufficiently detailed to allow the Minister to analyze it and have a proper understanding of the tax consequences;

(d) the identity of any other person or entity in respect of which the transaction has tax consequences; and

(e) such other information as is required by the prescribed form.

A disclosure made in accordance with the first paragraph by a party to a nominee contract is deemed to be such a disclosure made by any other party to the nominee contract.

Despite the first paragraph, the obligation to disclose provided for in that paragraph applies, in the case of a limited partnership, to all of its general partners and to them only.

2020, c. 16, s. 166.

TITLE III

PREVENTIVE DISCLOSURE

2010, c. 25, s. 189.

1079.8.7. A taxpayer may disclose to the Minister, in an information return that must be filed in accordance with section 1079.8.9 and within the time limit provided for in section 1079.8.10, any transaction that began to be carried out in a taxation year or fiscal period, as the case may be, by the taxpayer or a partnership of which the taxpayer is a member.

2010, c. 25, s. 189.

1079.8.7.1. A person who is an enterprise or a member of an enterprise, where the enterprise is a partnership, who is a shareholder of an enterprise, where the enterprise is a corporation, the shareholder is not an enterprise and the shareholder is an associate of an enterprise within the meaning of the second paragraph of section 21.2 of the Act respecting contracting by public bodies (chapter C-65.1), or who is a director or officer of an enterprise registered in the register provided for in section 21.45 of that Act, where the enterprise is a corporation or a partnership, may disclose to the Minister, in the period that begins on 18 September 2019 and ends on 21 April 2020, in an information return that must be filed in accordance with section 1079.8.9, any transaction that began to be carried out in a taxation year or fiscal period, as the case may be, by the enterprise, shareholder, director or officer, as the case may be, and has not been disclosed in accordance with sections 1079.8.5 to 1079.8.6.2 and 1079.8.7.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, “enterprise” has the meaning assigned by section 13.1 of the Act respecting contracting by public bodies and “director” and “officer” mean a director or an officer, as the case may be, referred to in subparagraph 3 of the first paragraph of section 21.26 of that Act.

Despite the first paragraph, a transaction may not be disclosed on or after the start day of an audit or investigation by Revenu Québec or the Canada Revenue Agency in respect of that transaction.

For the purposes of the third paragraph, the start date of an audit or investigation of a person or partnership, in respect of a transaction, means the day that the person, one of the person's shareholders, officers or directors or one of the partnership's members or officers may reasonably be considered to have known or to ought to have known that Revenu Québec or the Canada Revenue Agency was about to undertake or had begun an audit or investigation regarding the transaction.

2020, c. 2, s. 44; 2020, c. 16, s. 167.

TITLE IV

ADDITIONAL RULES

2010, c. 25, s. 189.

1079.8.8. For the purposes of this Book, a disclosure made by a member of a partnership is deemed to have been made by each other member of the partnership.

2010, c. 25, s. 189.

1079.8.9. An information return, in respect of a transaction, whose filing is provided for in any of sections 1079.8.5 to 1079.8.6.2, 1079.8.7 and 1079.8.7.1 must be sent to the Minister under separate cover by registered mail, in the prescribed form, and contain the following information:

(a) the identity of all the parties involved in the transaction and their relationship to each other during the time the transaction was carried out;

(b) a complete description of the facts relating to the transaction;

(c) a statement of the tax consequences resulting from the transaction; and

(d) such other information as is required by the prescribed form.

An information return, in respect of a transaction, whose filing is provided for in section 1079.8.6.3 must be sent to the Minister under separate cover by registered mail, in the prescribed form, and contain the following information:

(a) a complete description of the facts of the transaction; and

(b) such other information as is required by the prescribed form.

The description of the facts and the statement of the tax consequences must be sufficiently detailed to allow the Minister to analyze the transaction and have a fair understanding of the tax consequences.

The Minister shall acknowledge receipt of the information return referred to in the first paragraph.

2010, c. 25, s. 189; 2020, c. 2, s. 45; 2020, c. 16, s. 168.

1079.8.10. Subject to the second paragraph, the information return, in respect of a transaction, whose filing is provided for in any of sections 1079.8.5 to 1079.8.6.1 and 1079.8.7 must be sent to the Minister on or before the filing-due date of the taxpayer who carried out the transaction for the taxation year referred to in that section or, if the transaction is carried out by a partnership, on or before the day, determined in accordance with section 1086R80 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1), on which the partnership return provided for in section 1086R78 of that Regulation is required to be filed for the partnership's fiscal period referred to in any of sections 1079.8.5 to 1079.8.6.1 and 1079.8.7, as the case may be, or would be required to be so filed but for section 36.1 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

For the purposes of sections 1079.8.5 to 1079.8.6.1, the following rules apply:

(a) in the case where the tax benefit resulting from a transaction referred to in any of those sections consists of an amount deemed to have been paid to the Minister on account of the tax payable by a taxpayer under this Part for a taxation year, the information return must be sent to the Minister on or before the expiry of the time limit for filing the prescribed form containing prescribed information in respect of that deemed amount for the year; and

(b) in any other case, where a transaction referred to in any of those sections is carried out after the date or day, as the case may be, referred to in the first paragraph, the information return is deemed to have been filed within the time limit provided for in the first paragraph, in relation to the transaction, if it is filed on or before the date on which the transaction is carried out.

1079.8.10.1. An information return, in respect of a specified transaction, whose filing is provided for in section 1079.8.6.2 must be sent to the Minister on or before the later of

(a) the 60th day after the day determined by the Minister, under the fourth paragraph of section 1079.8.1, from which the obligation to disclose the specified transaction applies; and

(b) the 120th day after the day of the publication in the Gazette officielle du Québec of the transaction determined by the Minister to which the specified transaction relates.

2020, c. 16, s. 170.

1079.8.10.2. An information return, in respect of a particular transaction, whose filing is provided for in section 1079.8.6.3 must be sent to the Minister by an adviser or a promoter on or before the later of

(a) the 60th day after the day on which the adviser or the promoter commercializes the particular transaction or promotes it for the first time; and

(b) the 120th day after the day of the publication in the Gazette officielle du Québec of the transaction determined by the Minister to which the particular transaction relates.

2020, c. 16, s. 170.

1079.8.11. An information return, in respect of a transaction, whose filing is provided for in any of sections 1079.8.5 to 1079.8.6.3, 1079.8.7 and 1079.8.7.1 and that is sent to the Minister is deemed to have been sent to the Minister in accordance with section 1079.8.9 if, within 120 days after the day on which it was sent, the Minister does not communicate with the person who filed the return in order to obtain additional information in relation to the transaction or the tax consequences resulting from the transaction.

1079.8.12. For the purposes of Title I of Book XI, the disclosure under this Book of a transaction may not be considered to be an admission with respect to the application of the rules of that Title I to the transaction so disclosed.

2010, c. 25, s. 189.

TITLE V

FAILURE TO DISCLOSE

2010, c. 25, s. 189.

1079.8.13. If, in relation to a transaction to which any of sections 1079.8.5 to 1079.8.6.1 applies, the taxpayer who carried out the transaction or a member of the partnership that carried out the transaction fails to send, in accordance with that section, an information return within the time limit provided for in section 1079.8.10 in respect of the transaction, the taxpayer or the partnership, as the case may be, incurs a penalty of up to $100,000 comprising a penalty of $10,000 and a penalty of $1,000 a day, as of the second day, for every day the failure continues.

However, the taxpayer or the partnership, as the case may be, may not incur, in respect of the same failure, both the penalty provided for in the first paragraph and the penalty provided for in section 59 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

1079.8.13.1. If, in relation to a specified transaction to which section 1079.8.6.2 applies and that is carried out by a taxpayer or a partnership, the taxpayer or a member of the partnership fails to send, in accordance with that section, an information return within the time limit provided for in section 1079.8.10.1 in respect of the transaction, the taxpayer or the partnership, as the case may be, incurs a penalty of up to $100,000 comprising a penalty of $10,000 and an additional penalty of $1,000 a day, as of the second day, for every day the failure continues.

In the case of a failure described in the first paragraph, the taxpayer or the partnership that carries out the specified transaction also incurs a penalty equal to 50% of the tax benefit that, but for Title I of Book XI, would result, directly or indirectly, from the transaction for any taxation year.

However, the taxpayer or the partnership, as the case may be, may not incur,

(a) in respect of the same failure, both the penalty provided for in the first paragraph and the penalty provided for in section 59 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002); or

(b) in respect of the same transaction, both the penalty provided for in the first paragraph and the penalty provided for in section 1079.8.13.

1079.8.13.2. If, in relation to a transaction to which section 1079.8.6.3 applies, an adviser or a promoter who commercializes the transaction or promotes it or, if the adviser or promoter is a partnership, any of its members fails to send, in accordance with that section, an information return within the time limit provided for in section 1079.8.10.2 in respect of the transaction, the promoter or adviser, as the case may be, incurs a penalty of up to $100,000 comprising a penalty of $10,000 and an additional penalty of $1,000 a day, as of the second day, for every day the failure continues.

The promoter or adviser also incurs a penalty equal to 100% of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a consideration that the promoter or adviser, or a person or partnership related to or associated with the promoter or adviser, has received or is entitled to receive, directly or indirectly, from any person or partnership for the implementation of the transaction so commercialized or promoted.

However, the promoter or adviser may not incur, in respect of the same failure, both the penalty provided for in the first paragraph and the penalty provided for in section 59 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

1079.8.13.3. If a taxpayer who is a party to a nominee contract entered into in the course of a transaction to which section 1079.8.6.4 applies or a member of a partnership that is a party to such a contract fails to send, in accordance with that section, an information return in respect of the contract and the transaction, the taxpayer or the partnership, as the case may be, incurs, solidarily with the other parties to the contract, a penalty of up to $5,000 comprising a penalty of $1,000 and an additional penalty of $100 a day, as of the second day, for every day the failure continues.

However, the taxpayer or the partnership, as the case may be, may not incur, in respect of the same failure, both the penalty provided for in the first paragraph and the penalty provided for in section 59 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

2020, c. 16, s. 173.

1079.8.14. If a partnership incurs a penalty under any of sections 1079.8.13 to 1079.8.13.3, sections 1005 to 1014, 1034 to 1034.0.2, 1035 to 1044.0.2 and 1051 to 1055.1 apply, with the necessary modifications, in respect of the penalty as if the partnership were a corporation.

2010, c. 25, s. 189; 2010, c. 31, s. 175; 2017, c. 1, s. 360; 2020, c. 16, s. 174.

1079.8.15. If, in relation to a taxation year of a particular taxpayer described in the second paragraph for which tax consequences under this Act result from a transaction with contractual protection, a transaction involving conditional remuneration, a confidential transaction or a specified transaction, a taxpayer who carried out the transaction or a member of the partnership that carried out the transaction fails to send, in accordance with any of sections 1079.8.5 to 1079.8.6.2, an information return within the time limit provided for in section 1079.8.10 or 1079.8.10.1, as the case may be, in respect of the transaction, the Minister may, despite the expiry of the time limits provided for in section 1010, redetermine the tax, interest and penalties or any other amount, under this Act, and make a redetermination, reassessment or additional assessment for the taxation year in respect of the particular taxpayer

(a) on or before the day that is three years after the day on which an information return containing the information required by section 1079.8.9 is sent to the Minister in respect of the transaction, if the period for which the Minister could, before the expiry of the time limits provided for in section 1010, make a reassessment or an additional assessment in respect of the particular taxpayer is the period referred to in paragraph a of subsection 2 of section 1010;

(b) on or before the day that is four years after the day referred to in subparagraph a, if the period for which the Minister could, before the expiry of the time limits provided for in section 1010, make a reassessment or an additional assessment in respect of the particular taxpayer is the period referred to in paragraph a.0.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010;

(c) on or before the day that is six years after the day referred to in subparagraph a, if the period for which the Minister could, before the expiry of the time limits provided for in section 1010, make a reassessment or an additional assessment in respect of the particular taxpayer is the first period referred to either in paragraph a.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010 if any of the conditions in subparagraphs i to vii of that paragraph a.1 is applicable in respect of the transaction, or in paragraph a.1.1 of that subsection 2 if the conditions in that paragraph a.1.1 are applicable in respect of the transaction; or

(d) on or before the day that is seven years after the day referred to in subparagraph a, if the period for which the Minister could, before the expiry of the time limits provided for in section 1010, make a reassessment or an additional assessment in respect of the particular taxpayer is the second period referred to either in paragraph a.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010 if any of the conditions in subparagraphs i to vii of that paragraph a.1 is applicable in respect of the transaction, or in paragraph a.1.1 of that subsection 2 if the conditions in that paragraph a.1.1 are applicable in respect of the transaction.

The particular taxpayer to which the first paragraph refers, in relation to a taxation year for which tax consequences under this Act result from a transaction referred to in that paragraph, is

(a) the taxpayer who carried out the transaction;

(b) each taxpayer who is a member of the partnership that carried out the transaction, at the end of the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year;

(c) a corporation that is associated with the taxpayer or the partnership that carried out the transaction, at the time the transaction is carried out;

(d) a corporation that is associated with a taxpayer who is a member of the partnership that carried out the transaction, at the time the transaction is carried out;

(e) a person who is related to the taxpayer or the partnership that carried out the transaction, at the time the transaction is carried out; or

(f) a person who is related to a taxpayer who is a member of the partnership that carried out the transaction, at the time the transaction is carried out.

However, the Minister may, in respect of a taxation year for which tax consequences under this Act result from a transaction referred to in the first paragraph, make a reassessment or an additional assessment under the first paragraph only to the extent that the reassessment or additional assessment may reasonably be considered to relate to those tax consequences.

1079.8.15.1. If a particular taxpayer is a party to a nominee contract entered into in the course of a transaction or is a member of a partnership that is a party to such a contract and if, in relation to a taxation year of the particular taxpayer for which tax consequences under this Act result from the transaction, the particular taxpayer fails to send, in accordance with section 1079.8.6.4, an information return in respect of the contract and the transaction, the Minister may, despite the expiry of the time limits provided for in section 1010, redetermine the tax, interest and penalties or any other amount, under this Act and make a redetermination, reassessment or additional assessment for the taxation year in respect of the particular taxpayer

(a) on or before the day that is three years after the day on which an information return containing the information required by section 1079.8.6.4 is sent to the Minister in respect of the transaction, if the period for which the Minister could, before the expiry of the time limits provided for in section 1010, make a reassessment or an additional assessment in respect of the particular taxpayer is the period referred to in paragraph a of subsection 2 of section 1010;

(b) on or before the day that is four years after the day referred to in subparagraph a, if the period for which the Minister could, before the expiry of the time limits provided for in section 1010, make a reassessment or an additional assessment in respect of the particular taxpayer is the period referred to in paragraph a.0.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010;

(c) on or before the day that is six years after the day referred to in subparagraph a, if the period for which the Minister could, before the expiry of the time limits provided for in section 1010, make a reassessment or an additional assessment in respect of the particular taxpayer is the first period referred to either in paragraph a.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010 if any of the conditions in subparagraphs i to vii of that paragraph a.1 is applicable in respect of the transaction, or in paragraph a.1.1 of that subsection 2 if the conditions in that paragraph a.1.1 are applicable in respect of the transaction; or

(d) on or before the day that is seven years after the day referred to in subparagraph a, if the period for which the Minister could, before the expiry of the time limits provided for in section 1010, make a reassessment or an additional assessment in respect of the particular taxpayer is the second period referred to either in paragraph a.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010 if any of the conditions in subparagraphs i to vii of that paragraph a.1 is applicable in respect of the transaction, or in paragraph a.1.1 of that subsection 2 if the conditions in that paragraph a.1.1 are applicable in respect of the transaction.

However, the Minister may, in respect of a taxation year for which tax consequences under this Act result from a transaction referred to in the first paragraph, make a reassessment or an additional assessment under the first paragraph only to the extent that the reassessment or additional assessment may reasonably be considered to relate to those tax consequences.

BOOK X.2.1

REPORTING OF UNCERTAIN TAX TREATMENTS

2024, c. 11, s. 130.

TITLE I

DEFINITIONS

2024, c. 11, s. 130.

1079.8.15.2. In this Title, unless the context indicates a different meaning,

"tax treatment" has the meaning assigned by subsection 1 of section 237.5 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.));

"transaction" includes an arrangement or event;

"uncertain tax treatment" of a corporation for a taxation year means a reportable uncertain tax treatment of the corporation for the year, to which section 237.5 of the Income Tax Act applies.

2024, c. 11, s. 130.

TITLE II

REPORTING

2024, c. 11, s. 130.

1079.8.15.3. A corporation that is liable to pay tax under this Part for a taxation year and required to file for the year an information return in respect of an uncertain tax treatment under subsection 2 of section 237.5 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)) must, on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the year, report the uncertain tax treatment in the prescribed form containing prescribed information filed with a copy of the information return and of every document sent to the Minister of National Revenue in respect of the uncertain tax treatment for the year.

1079.8.15.4. A return concerning an uncertain tax treatment that is filed with the Minister by a corporation as required under section 1079.8.15.3 may not be considered to be an admission from the corporation that the tax treatment is not in accordance with this Act or the regulations made under it or that any transaction is part of a series of transactions.

2024, c. 11, s. 130.

TITLE III

FAILURE TO REPORT

2024, c. 11, s. 130.

1079.8.15.5. A corporation that fails to report an uncertain tax treatment as required under section 1079.8.15.3, in relation to a taxation year, incurs a penalty of $100 a day, as of the second day, for every day the omission continues, up to $5,000.

2024, c. 11, s. 130.

1079.8.15.6. A corporation required to file a return in respect of an uncertain tax treatment does not incur the penalty provided for in section 1079.8.15.5 if the corporation has exercised the degree of care, diligence and skill to prevent the failure to file that a reasonably prudent person would have exercised in the same circumstances.

2024, c. 11, s. 130.

1079.8.15.7. Where a corporation is required to file a return in respect of an uncertain tax treatment under section 1079.8.15.3 for a taxation year, sections 38 to 40.1 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) apply, with the necessary modifications and without restricting the generality of those sections, for the purpose of permitting the Minister to verify or ascertain any information in respect of the uncertain tax treatment, including any information relating to a transaction, or series of transactions, to which the tax treatment that is an uncertain tax treatment relates.

The first paragraph applies even if a fiscal return has not been filed by the corporation under section 1000 for the taxation year.

BOOK X.3

CERTIFICATE FROM REVENU QUÉBEC

2015, c. 8, s. 89.

TITLE I

CONSTRUCTION CONTRACT

2015, c. 8, s. 89.

1079.8.16. In this Title,

"construction contract" means a contract performed in Québec that provides for construction work in respect of which the person carrying it out must hold a licence required under Chapter IV of the Building Act (chapter B-1.1);

"contractor" means a person that has an establishment in Québec and carries on a business in Québec, and causes to be carried out, in whole or in part, construction work for which the person must hold a licence required under Chapter IV of the Building Act;

"person" includes a partnership and a consortium;

"subcontractor" means a person that has an establishment in Québec and carries on a business in Québec in the course of which the person carries out construction work for which the person must hold a licence required under Chapter IV of the Building Act.

2015, c. 8, s. 89.

1079.8.17. A subcontractor must, at any time in a calendar year and in the period that begins on the date a bid for a particular construction contract with a contractor is submitted and ends on the seventh day after the date the construction work arising from the contract begins, where the total cost of either the particular contract and the construction contracts the subcontractor and the contractor entered into previously in the calendar year or the cost of such contracts they entered into in a previous calendar year is equal to or greater than $25,000, hold a valid certificate from Revenu Québec and give a copy to the contractor.

If the subcontractor is a partnership or a consortium, each member, other than a specified member, of the partnership or each member of the consortium must also, at the time referred to in the first paragraph, hold a valid certificate from Revenu Québec, and the subcontractor must, at such a time, give a copy to the contractor.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the following rules apply:

(a) the cost of a construction contract is determined without reference to the Québec sales tax or the goods and services tax in respect of the contract; and

(b) no account is to be taken of a construction contract entered into before 1 March 2016.

For the purposes of the first and second paragraphs, if the subcontractor or, where the subcontractor is a partnership or a consortium, one of the partnership's or consortium's members holds, at the time referred to in the first paragraph, a valid certificate from Revenu Québec of which a copy has already been given to the contractor in accordance with this section because the certificate applies in respect of another construction contract the subcontractor and the contractor have entered into, the subcontractor is deemed to have given that copy of the certificate to the contractor at that time.

The first paragraph does not apply in respect of a particular construction contract that must be entered into because of an emergency that threatens human safety or property.

1079.8.18. A contractor must, at any time in the period that begins on the date a bid for a construction contract referred to in section 1079.8.17 with a subcontractor is submitted and ends on the seventh day after the date the construction work arising from the contract begins, obtain from the subcontractor a copy of a Revenu Québec certificate referred to in section 1079.8.17, ensure that it is valid and, not later than the tenth day after the date the work begins, verify its authenticity with Revenu Québec in the prescribed manner.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, if the contractor has already obtained from the subcontractor a copy of a Revenu Québec certificate that is valid at the time referred to in the first paragraph, and has ensured that it is valid and verified its authenticity in accordance with that paragraph because the certificate applies in respect of another construction contract they have entered into, the contractor is deemed, at that time, to have obtained a copy of that certificate, ensured that it was valid and verified its authenticity in accordance with the first paragraph.

1079.8.19. Applications for a certificate from Revenu Québec must be made in the prescribed manner.

A certificate from Revenu Québec is issued to a person that, on the date specified in the certificate, has filed the returns and reports required under fiscal laws and has no overdue amount payable under such laws; this is the case, in particular, where recovery of such an amount has been legally suspended or, if arrangements have been made with the person to ensure payment of the amount, the person has not defaulted on the payment arrangements.

A certificate is valid until the end of the three-month period following the month in which it was issued.

2015, c. 8, s. 89.

1079.8.20. A person that fails to comply with an obligation under section 1079.8.17 in relation to a construction contract incurs a penalty equal to the greatest of

(a) $500;

(b) 1% of the cost of the contract, without exceeding $2,500; and

(c) $2,500 if it is not possible to determine the cost of the contract.

A person that incurs a penalty under the first paragraph incurs an additional penalty equal to the greatest of the following amounts if the person, or a partnership or consortium of which the person is a member, has received an amount for the performance of obligations under the contract without having remedied any failure referred to in the first paragraph:

(a) $250;

(b) 2% of the amount received, if the cost of the contract is less than $100,000, without exceeding $2,000; and

(c) 5% of the amount received, if the cost of the contract is equal to or greater than $100,000 or if it is not possible to determine the cost, without exceeding $5,000.

2015, c. 8, s. 89.

1079.8.21. A contractor that fails to obtain a copy of a certificate or ensure that it is valid in accordance with section 1079.8.18 in relation to a construction contract incurs a penalty equal to the greatest of

(a) $500;

(b) 1% of the cost of the contract, without exceeding $2,500; and

(c) $2,500 if it is not possible to determine the cost of the contract.

A contractor that incurs a penalty under the first paragraph and has paid an amount for the performance of obligations under the contract without having remedied any failure referred to in the first paragraph incurs an additional penalty equal to the greatest of

(a) $250;

(b) 2% of the amount paid, if the cost of the contract is less than $100,000, without exceeding $2,000; and

(c) 5% of the amount paid, if the cost of the contract is equal to or greater than $100,000 or if it is not possible to determine the cost, without exceeding $5,000.

2015, c. 8, s. 89.

1079.8.22. A contractor that fails to verify the authenticity of a certificate in accordance with section 1079.8.18 in relation to a construction contract incurs a penalty equal to the greater of

(a) $250; and

(b) 0.5% of the cost of the contract, without exceeding $1,250.

2015, c. 8, s. 89.

1079.8.23. A person incurs a penalty under any of sections 1079.8.20 to 1079.8.22 only if a notice from the Minister has been sent to the person, by registered mail, concerning a failure to comply with an obligation under this Title.

2015, c. 8, s. 89.

1079.8.24. In the case of a subsequent failure during the three years after the date on which a notice of assessment imposing a penalty under any of sections 1079.8.20 to 1079.8.22 is sent, the amount of the penalty that would otherwise be determined under any of those sections in respect of the subsequent failure is doubled.

TITLE II.1

BUSINESSES PERFORMING MAINTENANCE WORK IN PUBLIC BUILDINGS

2020, c. 5, s. 15.

1079.8.34.1. In this Title,

"maintenance work" means maintenance work to which the Decree respecting building service employees in the Montréal region (chapter D-2, r. 15) or the Decree respecting building service employees in the Québec region (chapter D-2, r. 16) applies;

"maintenance work business" means a person who has an establishment in Québec and causes maintenance work to be performed, in whole or in part, by a subcontractor, except a person who is the owner, lessee or administrator of the public building in which the maintenance work is to be performed;

"maintenance work contract" means a contract or part of a contract that is entered into between a maintenance work business and a subcontractor, is carried out in Québec and provides for maintenance work;

"person" includes a partnership;

"subcontractor" means a person who has an establishment in Québec and performs maintenance work.

For the purposes of this Title, the following rules apply:

(a) the cost of a maintenance work contract is determined without reference to the Québec sales tax or the goods and services tax in respect of the contract;

(b) except for determining, for the purposes of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1079.8.34.2, the cost of the maintenance work contracts entered into between a subcontractor and a maintenance work business in a calendar year, every contract entered into between a maintenance work business and a subcontractor, while the subcontractor is holding a valid certificate referred to in section 1079.8.34.2 because of another maintenance work contract entered into between them, is deemed to be the same contract as that other contract; and

(c) where the portion of the cost of a maintenance work contract entered into before 1 January 2021 that is attributable to maintenance work performed after 31 December 2020 is equal to or greater than $10,000, or where under an indeterminate-term maintenance work contract entered into before 1 January 2021, maintenance work is performed after 31 December 2020, the following rules apply:

i. the contract is deemed to have been entered into on 1 January 2021 and, if the maintenance work provided for in the contract began before that date, is deemed to have begun on that date, and

ii. the first amount that the maintenance work business is required to report under the second paragraph of section 1079.8.34.3, in relation to the maintenance work contract, must include any amount that has been billed to it by the subcontractor before 1 January 2021 for maintenance work provided for in the contract and performed after 31 December 2020.

2020, c. 5, s. 15.

1079.8.34.2. A subcontractor must hold a valid certificate from Revenu Québec throughout the period that begins on the date of the beginning of the maintenance work provided for in a particular maintenance work contract entered into by the subcontractor in a calendar year and after 31 December 2020 with a maintenance work business and that ends on the date of the end of the maintenance work provided for in the contract, where

(a) the particular maintenance work contract is an indeterminate-term contract;

(b) the total cost of the particular maintenance work contract and of the maintenance work contracts they entered into with each other previously in the calendar year, or the total cost of such contracts they entered into in a previous calendar year, is equal to or greater than $10,000; or

(c) the subcontractor and the maintenance work business have previously entered into a contract with each other in respect of which this section has applied because of subparagraph a.

A subcontractor who entered into a maintenance work contract with a maintenance work business must give the business a copy of each certificate the subcontractor is required to hold under the first paragraph, on or before the day on which the maintenance work provided for in the contract begins or, in the case of a subsequent certificate, the day that follows the last day of the period of validity of the preceding certificate.

This section does not apply to a subcontractor who, on the day the maintenance work provided for in the contract begins, does not hold a registration certificate issued under Title I of the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1).

However, where the subcontractor becomes, after the day referred to in the third paragraph and before the day on which the maintenance work provided for in the contract ends, the holder of a registration certificate under Title I of the Act respecting the Québec sales tax, the following rules apply:

(a) the contract is deemed to have been entered into on the particular date that is 30 days after the date on which the subcontractor became the holder of such a certificate and the maintenance work provided for in the contract is deemed to have begun on the particular date; and

(b) the first amount that the maintenance work business is required to report under the second paragraph of section 1079.8.34.3, in relation to the maintenance work contract, must include any amount that was billed to it by the subcontractor before the particular date for maintenance work provided for in the contract and performed after that date.

For the purposes of subparagraph b of the first paragraph, no reference is to be made to the portion of the cost of a maintenance work contract attributable to maintenance work performed before 1 January 2021.

2020, c. 5, s. 15.

1079.8.34.3. A maintenance work business that has entered into a particular maintenance work contract with a subcontractor must obtain from the subcontractor a copy of each certificate that the subcontractor is required to hold under the first paragraph of section 1079.8.34.2 because of that contract, ensure that it is valid and verify its authenticity in the prescribed manner, on or before the day on which the maintenance work provided for in the contract begins or, in the case of a subsequent certificate, the day that follows the last day of the period of validity of the preceding certificate.

The maintenance work business described in the first paragraph must also, on or before the day provided for in the third paragraph, report, in the prescribed manner, an amount that is the aggregate of the amounts that it was billed by the subcontractor in relation to the maintenance work provided for in the particular maintenance work contract, in each of the quarters ending on 31 March, 30 June, 30 September and 31 December in a year.

The day to which the second paragraph refers is the last day of the month following the month in which the quarter referred to in that paragraph ends.

The first amount that the maintenance work business must report under the second paragraph must also include any amount billed in respect of the particular contract before the beginning of the maintenance work.

This section does not apply to a maintenance work business that, on the day the maintenance work provided for in a contract begins, does not hold a registration certificate issued under Title I of the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1).

However, where the maintenance work business becomes, after the day referred to in the fifth paragraph and before the day on which the maintenance work provided for in the contract ends, the holder of a registration certificate under Title I of the Act respecting the Québec sales tax, this section applies to the maintenance work business as if the maintenance work provided for in the contract has begun on the date that is 30 days after the date on which the business became the holder of such a certificate.

1079.8.34.4. Applications for a certificate from Revenu Québec must be made in the manner provided for in section 1079.8.19.

A certificate from Revenu Québec is issued to a person who, on the date specified in the certificate, has filed the returns and reports required under fiscal laws and has no overdue amount payable under such laws; this is the case, in particular, where recovery of such an amount has been legally suspended or, if arrangements have been made with the person to ensure payment of the amount, the person has not defaulted on the payment arrangements.

Where a partnership is registered with Revenu Québec as an employer, a certificate is issued to it only if, on the date specified in the certificate, it meets the conditions of the second paragraph and has performed, as at that date, all the obligations of a fiscal law imposed on its members, as employers.

A certificate is valid until the end of the three-month period (in this Title referred to as the "period of validity") following the month in which it was issued.

2020, c. 5, s. 15.

1079.8.34.5. A subcontractor who fails to comply with any of the obligations provided for in section 1079.8.34.2, in relation to a particular maintenance work contract entered into with a maintenance work business, incurs—for each of the quarters that end on 31 March, 30 June, 30 September and 31 December in a year and in which the subcontractor failed to comply with such an obligation—a penalty equal to the greater of

(a) $175; and

(b) the lesser of

i. the product obtained by multiplying the amount that is 0.2% of the aggregate of the amounts billed under the particular contract, without reference to the Québec sales tax or the goods and services tax, by the subcontractor to the maintenance work business in that quarter by the number of days of non-compliance included in that quarter, and

ii. $950.

2020, c. 5, s. 15.

1079.8.34.6. A maintenance work business that fails to comply with any of the obligations provided for in section 1079.8.34.3, in relation to a particular maintenance work contract entered into with a subcontractor, incurs—for each particular quarter referred to in the second paragraph of section 1079.8.34.3 in which the business failed to comply with an obligation provided for in the first paragraph of that section or in respect of which the business failed to comply with the obligation provided for in the second paragraph of that section—a penalty equal to the greater of

(a) $350; and

(b) the lesser of

i. the product obtained by multiplying the amount that is 0.4% of the aggregate of the amounts billed under the particular contract, without reference to the Québec sales tax or the goods and services tax, by the subcontractor to the maintenance work business in the particular quarter by the greater of

(1) the number of days during which the non-compliance of an obligation referred to in the first paragraph of section 1079.8.34.3 continues and that are included in the particular quarter, and

(2) the number of days during which the non-compliance of an obligation referred to in the second paragraph of section 1079.8.34.3 in respect of the particular quarter continues, up to 90, and

ii. $2,850.

However, the maintenance work business may not incur, in respect of the same failure to comply, both the penalty provided for in the first paragraph and the penalty provided for in section 59 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

2020, c. 5, s. 15.

1079.8.34.7. In the case of a subsequent failure during the three years after the date on which a notice of assessment imposing a penalty provided for in section 1079.8.34.5 or 1079.8.34.6 is sent, the amount of the penalty that would otherwise be determined under either of those sections in respect of the subsequent failure is doubled.

2020, c. 5, s. 15.

TITLE III

OFFENCES AND ADMINISTRATION

2015, c. 8, s. 89.

1079.8.35. Any person that

(a) makes a false Revenu Québec certificate,

(b) falsifies or alters a Revenu Québec certificate,

(c) obtains or attempts to obtain, in any manner, a Revenu Québec certificate, knowing that the person or another person is not entitled to such a certificate,

(d) uses a document referred to in any of subparagraphs a to c, or any other related document,

(e) assents to or acquiesces in an offence referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d, or

(f) conspires with a person to commit an offence referred to in any of subparagraphs a to e, is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of $5,000 to $30,000 in the case of a natural person and $15,000 to $100,000 in any other case.

For a subsequent offence within five years, the minimum and maximum fines set out in the first paragraph are doubled.

2015, c. 8, s. 89.

1079.8.36. A person found guilty of an offence under section 1079.8.35 does not incur the penalty provided for in any of sections 1079.8.20 to 1079.8.22, 1079.8.34.5 and 1079.8.34.6 unless it was imposed on the person before proceedings were instituted against the person under section 1079.8.35.

2015, c. 8, s. 89; 2020, c. 5, s. 16; 2021, c. 15, s. 3.

1079.8.37. Penal proceedings for an offence under section 1079.8.35 are prescribed by eight years from the date the offence was committed.

2015, c. 8, s. 89; 2022, c. 23, s. 126.

1079.8.38. Sections 38 and 39.2 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Book.

2015, c. 8, s. 89.

1079.8.39. If a partnership or a consortium incurs a penalty under any of sections 1079.8.20 to 1079.8.22, 1079.8.34.5 and 1079.8.34.6, the following provisions apply, with the necessary modifications, in respect of the penalty as though the partnership or consortium were a corporation:

(a) sections 1005 to 1014, 1034 to 1034.0.2, 1035 to 1044.0.2 and 1051 to 1055.1; and

(b) sections 14, 14.4 to 14.6, Division II.1 of Chapter III and Chapters III.1 and III.2 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002).

2015, c. 8, s. 89; 2020, c. 5, s. 17; 2021, c. 15, s. 4.

1079.8.40. Sections 12.0.2 and 12.0.3 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) do not apply in respect of an amount resulting from a notice of assessment issued as a consequence of the application of this Book.

2015, c. 8, s. 89.

1079.8.41. An affidavit of an employee of the Agence du revenu du Québec attesting that the employee is entrusted with the appropriate registers and that, having carefully analyzed them, the employee found it impossible to determine whether a person either holds a certificate from Revenu Québec or has verified its authenticity, is proof, in the absence of proof to the contrary, that the person does not hold a certificate from Revenu Québec or has not verified its authenticity, as applicable.

2015, c. 8, s. 89; 2021, c. 15, s. 5.

1079.8.42. When proof is provided under section 1079.8.41 by an affidavit of an employee of the Agence du revenu du Québec, it is not necessary to prove the employee’s signature or status as an employee, and the address of the office of the Agence du revenu du Québec being the usual place of work of the signatory is a sufficient indication of the signatory's address.

2015, c. 8, s. 89.

BOOK XI

TAX EVASION

1972, c. 23.

TITLE I

TAX AVOIDANCE

1972, c. 23; 1987, c. 67, s. 192.

1079.9. For the purposes of this Title and section 1006.1,

"promoter" of a transaction or a series of transactions means a person or a partnership in respect of which the following conditions are met:

(a) the person or partnership commercializes the transaction or series of transactions, promotes it or otherwise supports its development or the interest it generates;

(b) the person or partnership receives or is entitled to receive, directly or indirectly, a consideration for the commercialization, promotion or support, or another person or partnership related to, or associated with, the person or partnership receives or is entitled to so receive such a consideration; and

(c) it is reasonable to consider that the person or partnership assumes an important role in the commercialization, promotion or support;

"tax benefit" means

(a) a reduction, avoidance or deferral of tax or of another amount payable under this Act, including a reduction, avoidance or deferral of tax or of another amount that would be payable under this Act but for a tax agreement;

(b) an increase in a refund of tax or of another amount under this Act, including an increase in a refund of tax or of another amount under this Act that results from a tax agreement; or

(c) a reduction, increase or preservation of an amount that could at a subsequent time

i. be relevant for the purpose of computing an amount referred to in paragraph a or b, and

ii. result in any of the effects described in paragraph a or b;

"tax consequences" to a person means the amount, determined under this Act, of income, taxable income or taxable income earned in Canada of, or tax or other amount payable by, or refundable to the person under this Act, or any other amount that is, or could at a subsequent time be, relevant for the purpose of computing that amount;

"transaction" includes an arrangement or event.

The definition of "tax agreement" in section 1 is deemed, for the purposes of this Title, to have effect from 13 September 1988.

For the purposes of paragraph c of the definition of "promoter" in the first paragraph, the following rules apply in respect of an employee of a person or partnership:

(a) the employee, other than a specified employee, is not considered to assume an important role in the person's or partnership's commercialization of, promotion of or support of the development of or interest in a transaction or series of transactions; and

(b) the conduct of the employee is deemed to be the conduct of the person or partnership.

1990, c. 59, s. 351; 2006, c. 13, s. 203; 2010, c. 25, s. 190; 2023, c. 19, s. 121.

1079.9.1. For the purposes of the definition of "promoter" in the first paragraph of section 1079.9 and section 1079.13.2, the following rules apply:

(a) for the purpose of determining whether, at a particular time, a person or a partnership is associated with, or related to, another person or partnership, a partnership is deemed to be a corporation whose taxation year corresponds to its fiscal period and all the voting shares in the capital stock of which are owned at that time by each of its members in a proportion equal to the agreed proportion that would be determined in respect of the member for the partnership's fiscal period if the fiscal period ended at that time; and

(b) for the purpose of determining whether, at a particular time, a person or a partnership is related to another person or partnership, a trust is deemed to be a corporation all the voting shares in the capital stock of which

i. in the case of a testamentary trust under which one or more beneficiaries are entitled to receive all of the income of the trust that arose before the date of death of one or the last surviving of those beneficiaries (in this paragraph referred to as the "distribution date") and under which no other person can, before the distribution date, receive or otherwise obtain the enjoyment of any of the income or capital of the trust,

(1) are owned at that time by such a beneficiary, if that beneficiary's share of the income or capital of the trust depends on the exercise by any person of, or the failure by any person to exercise, a power to appoint, and if that time occurs before the distribution date, or

(2) are owned at that time by such a beneficiary in a proportion equal to the proportion that the fair market value of the beneficial interest in the trust of the beneficiary is of the fair market value of the beneficial interests in the trust of all the beneficiaries, if subparagraph 1 does not apply and that time occurs before the distribution date,

ii. if a beneficiary's share of the accumulating income or capital of the trust depends on the exercise by any person of, or the failure by any person to exercise, a power to appoint, are owned at that time by the beneficiary, unless subparagraph i applies and that time occurs before the distribution date,

iii. in any case where subparagraph ii does not apply, are owned at that time by the beneficiary in a proportion equal to the proportion that the fair market value of the beneficial interest in the trust of the beneficiary is of the fair market value of all beneficial interests in the trust, unless subparagraph i applies and that time occurs before the distribution date, and

iv. in the case of a trust referred to in section 467, are owned at that time by the person referred to in that section from whom property of the trust or property for which property of the trust was substituted was directly or indirectly received.

2010, c. 25, s. 191.

1079.10. Where a transaction is an avoidance transaction, the tax consequences to a person shall be determined as is reasonable in the circumstances in order to deny a tax benefit that, but for this Title, would result, directly or indirectly, from that transaction or from a series of transactions that includes that transaction.

1990, c. 59, s. 351.

1079.11. An avoidance transaction is any transaction that, but for this Title, would result, directly or indirectly, in a tax benefit or that is part of a series of transactions, which series, but for this Title, would result, directly or indirectly, in a tax benefit, unless the transaction in either case may reasonably be considered to have been undertaken or arranged primarily for bona fide purposes.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the following purposes of a transaction or a combination of them are not considered as bona fide purposes:

(a) the obtainment of a tax benefit;

(b) the reduction, avoidance or deferral of tax or of another amount payable as tax or in respect of tax under an Act of Canada or of a province, other than this Act; and

(c) the increase of a refund of tax or of another amount as tax or in respect of tax under an Act of Canada or of a province, other than this Act.

1990, c. 59, s. 351; 1996, c. 39, s. 258; 2010, c. 25, s. 192.

1079.12. Section 1079.10 applies to a transaction only if it may reasonably be considered that

(a) but for this Title, the transaction would directly or indirectly result in a misuse of the provisions of one or more of

i. this Act,

ii. the Act respecting the application of the Taxation Act (chapter I-4), iii. the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1),

iv. a tax agreement, or

v. any other legislative or regulatory provision that is relevant for computing the tax or another amount payable by a person or refundable to a person under this Act, or for determining an amount that is to be taken into account in that computation; or

(b) the transaction would directly or indirectly result in an abuse having regard to the provisions referred to in paragraph a, other than this Title, read as a whole.

1079.13. Without restricting the generality of section 1079.10 and despite any other legislative or regulatory provision, in determining the tax consequences to a person as is reasonable in the circumstances in order to deny a tax benefit that, but for this Title, would result, directly or indirectly, from an avoidance transaction,

(a) any deduction, exemption or exclusion in computing income, taxable income, taxable income earned in Canada or tax payable or any part thereof may be allowed or disallowed in whole or in part;

(b) any deduction, exemption or exclusion referred to in paragraph a, any income, loss or other amount or part thereof may be allocated to any person;

(c) the nature of any payment or other amount may be recharacterized;

(d) the tax effects that would otherwise result from the application of other provisions of this Act may be ignored.

1990, c. 59, s. 351; 2006, c. 13, s. 205.

1079.13.1. If, as a consequence of the application of section 1079.10 in respect of a transaction, the tax consequences to a person are determined as is reasonable in the circumstances in order to deny a tax benefit, the person incurs a penalty equal to 50% of the amount of the tax benefit denied.

However, the first paragraph does not apply if the person filed an information return in respect of the transaction, or series of transactions that includes the transaction, in accordance with any of sections 1079.8.5 to 1079.8.6.2, 1079.8.7 and 1079.8.7.1.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, a tax benefit that results from the application of paragraph c of the definition of "tax benefit" in the first paragraph of section 1079.9 is deemed to be nil.

1079.13.2. If, as a consequence of the application of section 1079.10 in respect of a transaction, the tax consequences to a person (in this section referred to as the "particular person") are determined as is reasonable in the circumstances in order to deny a tax benefit, the promoter of the transaction, or of the series of transactions that includes the transaction, incurs a penalty equal to 100% of

(a) if the transaction or series of transactions is carried out by the particular person, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a consideration that the promoter, or a person or partnership related to, or associated with, the promoter, has received or is entitled to receive, directly or indirectly, from any person or partnership in respect of the transaction; or

(b) if the transaction or series of transactions is carried out by a partnership of which the particular person is a member, the amount that is the agreed proportion of the aggregate referred to in subparagraph a in respect of the particular person for the partnership's fiscal period in which the transaction or series of transactions is carried out.

1079.13.3. For the purposes of paragraph b of section 1079.13.2, the following rules apply if a particular person is a member, or is deemed because of the application of this section to be a member, of a partnership (in this section referred to as the "interposed partnership") at the end of a fiscal period of the interposed partnership (in this section referred to as the "interposed fiscal period"), and the interposed partnership is itself a member of a given partnership at the end of the given partnership's given fiscal period that ends in the interposed fiscal period:

(a) the particular person is deemed to be a member of the given partnership at the end of the given fiscal period; and

(b) the agreed proportion in respect of the particular person for the given partnership's given fiscal period is deemed to be equal to the product obtained by multiplying the agreed proportion in respect of the particular person for the interposed partnership's interposed fiscal period by the agreed proportion in respect of the interposed partnership for the given partnership's given fiscal period.

1079.13.4. If a partnership incurs a penalty under section 1079.13.2, sections 1005 to 1014, 1034 to 1034.0.2, 1035 to 1044.0.2 and 1051 to 1055.1 apply, with the necessary modifications, in respect of the penalty as if the partnership were a corporation.

2010, c. 25, s. 193; 2010, c. 31, s. 175; 2017, c. 1, s. 362.

1079.14. Where a notice of assessment, reassessment or additional assessment involving the application of section 1079.10 with respect to a transaction has been sent to a person, or a notice of determination pursuant to section 1006.1 has been sent to a person with respect to a transaction, any person other than a person to whom any such notice has been sent to shall be entitled, within 180 days after the day of sending of the notice, to request in writing that the Minister make an assessment, reassessment or additional assessment applying section 1079.10 or make a determination applying section 1006.1 with respect to that transaction.

However, where the person making the request was physically unable to act or to give a mandate to act in his name within the period fixed and not more than one year has passed since the date of sending of the notice, he may apply to a judge of the Court of Québec to extend the period for a period that may not go beyond the fifteenth day following the date of the judgment granting such extension.

1990, c. 59, s. 351; 2004, c. 4, s. 15.

1079.15. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the tax consequences to any person, following the application of this Title, shall only be determined through a notice of assessment, reassessment or additional assessment or through a notice of determination pursuant to section 1006.1 involving the application of this Title.

1079.15.1. If section 1079.10 applies to a person in relation to a transaction and the person did not file an information return in accordance with any of sections 1079.8.5 to 1079.8.6.2 and 1079.8.7, in respect of the transaction or series of transactions that includes the transaction, the Minister may, despite the expiry of the time limit provided for, in respect of the person, in paragraph a or a.0.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010, determine the tax consequences to the person, the interest and the penalties, under this Act, and make a reassessment or an additional assessment,

(a) on or before the day that is six years after the day referred to, for the taxation year concerned, in paragraph a of subsection 2 of section 1010 or, if the transaction or series of transactions must be disclosed as required by any of sections 1079.8.5 to 1079.8.6.2, the day, if it is later, on which the information return containing the information required by section 1079.8.9 is sent to the Minister in respect of the transaction or series of transactions; or

(b) on or before the day that is seven years after the day determined in subparagraph a if, at the end of the taxation year concerned, the person is a mutual fund trust or a corporation other than a Canadian-controlled private corporation.

However, the Minister may make a reassessment or an additional assessment beyond the period that, in respect of a person, is referred to in paragraph a or a.0.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010, because of the application of section 1079.10 to the person in relation to a transaction, only to the extent that the reassessment or additional assessment may reasonably be considered to relate to the transaction.

1079.15.1.1. Despite section 1079.15.1, if section 1079.10 applies to a person in relation to a transaction and the person was not required to file an information return referred to in any of sections 1079.8.5 to 1079.8.6.2, in respect of the transaction or series of transactions that includes the transaction, did not file an information return referred to in section 1079.8.7, in respect of the transaction or series of transactions, and filed an information return in accordance with section 1079.8.7.1, in respect of the transaction or series of transactions, the Minister may, despite the expiry of the time limit provided for, in respect of the person, in paragraph a or a.0.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010, determine the tax consequences to the person, the interest and the penalties, under this Act, and make a reassessment or an additional assessment on or before the day determined under section 1079.15.1, in respect of the person and in relation to the transaction or series of transactions, or the day, if it is later, that is one year after the day on which the information return referred to in section 1079.8.7.1 is sent by the person to the Minister in relation to the transaction or series of transactions.

However, the Minister may make a reassessment or an additional assessment beyond the period that, in respect of a person, is referred to in paragraph a or a.0.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010, because of the application of section 1079.10 to the person in relation to a transaction, only to the extent that the reassessment or additional assessment may reasonably be considered to relate to the transaction.

1079.15.2. Where section 1079.10 applies to a taxpayer in relation to a transaction and where a formal demand relating to an amount that may be owed by the taxpayer under this Act, taking into account the application of section 1079.10, for a taxation year has been notified in accordance with the third paragraph of section 39 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) to a person regarding the filing of information, additional information or documents, the time limit described in paragraph a or a.0.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010 or in section 1079.15.1, as the case may be, for determining the tax consequences to the taxpayer, the interest and the penalties and for making a reassessment or an additional assessment, in respect of the taxation year concerned, is suspended for the period that begins on the day the application for authorization provided for in the third paragraph of that section 39 is filed and ends on the day on which that application is finally settled and on which, where the validity of the formal demand is confirmed, the information, additional information or documents, as the case may be, are filed in accordance with that section 39.

However, the Minister may, after applying the first paragraph, make a reassessment or an additional assessment beyond the period that, in respect of the taxpayer, is referred to in paragraph a or a.0.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010, because of the application of section 1079.10 to the taxpayer in relation to a transaction, only to the extent that the reassessment or additional assessment may reasonably be considered to relate to the transaction.

2019, c. 14, s. 432.

1079.16. Upon receipt of a request by a person under section 1079.14, the Minister shall, with all due dispatch, consider the request and, notwithstanding section 1010, assess, reassess or make an additional assessment or determination pursuant to section 1006.1 with respect to that person.

However, an assessment, reassessment, additional assessment or determination may be made under this section only to the extent that it may reasonably be regarded as relating to the transaction referred to in section 1079.14.

TITLE I.0.1

SHAM TRANSACTION

2020, c. 16, s. 180.

1082.0.1. For the purposes of sections 1082.0.1 to 1082.0.5,

"adviser" has the meaning assigned by section 1079.8.1;

"promoter" has the meaning assigned by section 1079.9;

"transaction" has the meaning assigned by section 1079.8.1.

For the purposes of this Title, the rules set out in section 1079.9.1 apply for the purpose of determining whether, at a particular time, a person or a partnership is associated with, or related to, another person or partnership.

2020, c. 16, s. 180.

1082.0.2. Where the Minister determines or redetermines the tax payable under this Act by a person for a taxation year for which tax consequences under this Act result from a sham transaction and makes an assessment, a reassessment or an additional assessment in respect of the taxation year concerned, the person incurs a penalty equal to the greater of $25,000 and 50% of the excess amount that would be determined for the year, in respect of the person, under the first paragraph of section 1049 if a reference, in that first paragraph, to a false statement or an omission were replaced by a reference to a sham transaction.

2020, c. 16, s. 180.

1082.0.3. Where the Minister determines or redetermines the tax payable under this Act by a particular person for a taxation year for which tax consequences under this Act result from a sham transaction and makes an assessment, a reassessment or an additional assessment in respect of the taxation year concerned, the promoter of the transaction, or the adviser in respect of the transaction, incurs a penalty equal to 100% of

(a) if the transaction is carried out by the particular person, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a consideration that the promoter or adviser, or a person or partnership related to or associated with the promoter or adviser, has received or is entitled to receive, directly or indirectly, from any person or partnership in respect of the transaction; or

(b) if the transaction is carried out by a partnership of which the particular person is a member, the amount that is the agreed proportion of the aggregate referred to in subparagraph a in respect of the particular person for the partnership's fiscal period in which the transaction is carried out.

Where an assessment, a reassessment or an additional assessment referred to in the first paragraph is cancelled in consequence of an objection, an appeal or a summary appeal, as the case may be, the Minister shall, despite the expiry of the time limits provided for in section 1010, make a reassessment and redetermine the interest and penalties payable by the promoter or the adviser of the transaction, under the first paragraph, in order to take the decision or judgment into account.

Section 1079.13.3 applies, with the necessary modifications, to the determination of a penalty incurred under this section in respect of a sham transaction.

Where a partnership incurs a penalty under this section, sections 1005 to 1014, 1034 to 1034.0.2, 1035 to 1044.0.2 and 1051 to 1055.1 apply, with the necessary modifications, in respect of the penalty as if the partnership were a corporation.

2020, c. 16, s. 180.

1082.0.4. The Minister may, despite the expiry of the time limit provided for in paragraph a or a.0.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010, in respect of a person described in the second paragraph, redetermine the tax, interest and penalties payable under this Act, and make a reassessment or an additional assessment, in respect of that person, for a taxation year for which tax consequences under this Act result from a sham transaction,

(a) on or before the day that is six years after the day referred to, for the taxation year concerned, in paragraph a of subsection 2 of section 1010; or

(b) on or before the day that is seven years after the day determined in subparagraph a if, at the end of the taxation year concerned, the person is a mutual fund trust or a corporation other than a Canadian-controlled private corporation.

The person to whom the first paragraph refers is

(a) a person who is a party to the sham transaction;

(b) a person who is a member of a partnership that is a party to the sham transaction, at the end of the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year;

(c) a corporation that is associated with the person described in subparagraph a or with the partnership described in subparagraph b, at the time the sham transaction is carried out;

(d) a corporation that is associated with a person who is a member of a partnership that is a party to the sham transaction, at the time the transaction is carried out;

(e) a person who is related to the person described in subparagraph a or to the partnership described in subparagraph b, at the time the sham transaction is carried out; or

(f) a person who is related to a person who is a member of a partnership that is a party to the sham transaction, at the time the transaction is carried out.

However, the Minister may, in respect of a taxation year for which tax consequences under this Act result from a sham transaction, make a reassessment or an additional assessment, under the first paragraph, only to the extent that the reassessment or additional assessment may reasonably be considered to relate to the transaction.

2020, c. 16, s. 180.

1082.0.5. Where tax consequences under this Act result, for a taxation year of a taxpayer, from a sham transaction and a formal demand relating to an amount that may be owed by a taxpayer under this Act, in respect of the transaction, has been notified in accordance with the third paragraph of section 39 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) to a person regarding the filing of information, additional information or documents, the time limit described in paragraph a or a.0.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010 or in section 1082.0.4, as the case may be, for determining or redetermining the tax, interest and penalties and for making a reassessment or an additional assessment, in respect of the taxation year concerned, in relation to the tax consequences to the taxpayer that are attributable to the sham transaction, is suspended for the period that begins on the day the application for authorization provided for in the third paragraph of that section 39 is filed and ends on the day on which that application is finally settled and on which, where the validity of the formal demand is confirmed, the information, additional information or documents, as the case may be, are filed in accordance with that section 39.

However, the Minister may, after applying the first paragraph, make a reassessment or an additional assessment beyond the period that, in respect of a taxpayer, is referred to in paragraph a or a.0.1 of subsection 2 of section 1010 or in section 1082.0.4, because of the sham transaction in relation to the taxpayer, only to the extent that the reassessment or additional assessment may reasonably be considered to relate to the transaction.

2020, c. 16, s. 180.

TITLE I.1

BENEFIT CONFERRED ON A TAXPAYER

1990, c. 59, s. 353.

1082.1. Where, at any time, a person confers a benefit, either directly or indirectly, by any means whatever, on a taxpayer, the amount of the benefit shall be included in computing the taxpayer's income or taxable income earned in Canada under this Part or Part II, respectively, for the taxation year that includes that time, to the extent that it is not otherwise included in computing the taxpayer's income or taxable income earned in Canada under this Part or Part II, respectively, and would be included in computing his income if the amount of the benefit were a payment made directly by the person to the taxpayer and if the taxpayer were resident in Canada.

1082.2. Where it is established that a transaction was entered into by persons dealing at arm's length, bona fide and not pursuant to, or as part of, any other transaction and not to effect payment, in whole or in part, of an existing or future obligation, no party to the transaction is deemed, for the purposes of section 1082.1, to have conferred a benefit on the party with whom he was so dealing.

1990, c. 59, s. 353.

TITLE I.2

TRANSFER PRICING

2001, c. 7, s. 154.

1082.3. In this Title,

"tax benefit" has the meaning assigned by section 1079.9;

"transaction" includes an arrangement or event;

"transfer pricing capital adjustment" of a taxpayer for a taxation year means

(a) an amount by which the adjusted cost base to the taxpayer of a capital property (other than a depreciable property) is reduced in the year because of an adjustment made under section 1082.4, or an amount by which the capital cost to the taxpayer of a depreciable property is reduced in the year because of an adjustment made under section 1082.4; or

(b) the product obtained when the proportion that the taxpayer's share of the income or loss of a partnership for a fiscal period that ends in the year is of the income or loss of the partnership for that fiscal period is multiplied by the amount by which the adjusted cost base to the partnership of a capital property (other than a depreciable property) is reduced in the fiscal period because of an adjustment made under section 1082.4 or by the amount by which the capital cost to the partnership of a depreciable property is reduced in the fiscal period because of an adjustment made under section 1082.4;

"transfer pricing income adjustment" of a taxpayer for a taxation year means the amount by which an adjustment made under section 1082.4, other than an adjustment included in determining a transfer pricing capital adjustment of the taxpayer for a taxation year, would result in an increase in the taxpayer's income for the year or a decrease in a loss of the taxpayer for the year from a source if that adjustment were the only adjustment made under section 1082.4.

For the purposes of the definition of "transfer pricing capital adjustment" in the first paragraph, where the income and loss of a partnership for a fiscal period are nil, it shall be assumed that the income of the partnership for that fiscal period is equal to $1,000,000.

1082.4. The rule set out in the second paragraph applies where a taxpayer or a partnership and a person not resident in Canada with whom the taxpayer or the partnership, or a member of the partnership, does not deal at arm's length, or a partnership of which the person not resident in Canada is a member, are participants in a transaction or a series of transactions and

(a) the terms and conditions made or imposed, in respect of the transaction or series of transactions, between any of the participants in the transaction or series of transactions differ from those that would have been made between persons dealing at arm's length; or

(b) the transaction or series of transactions would not have been entered into between persons dealing at arm's length and can reasonably be considered not to have been entered into primarily for bona fide purposes other than to obtain a tax benefit.

Where the conditions set out in the first paragraph are met, any amounts (in section 1082.4.1 referred to as the "initial amounts") that would be determined for the purposes of this Act (if this Act were read without reference to this Title and sections 1079.9 to 1079.16) in respect of the taxpayer or the partnership for a taxation year or fiscal period, as the case may be, are to be adjusted to the quantum or nature of the amounts (in section 1082.4.1 referred to as the "adjusted amounts") that would have been determined if,

(a) where only subparagraph a of the first paragraph applies, the terms and conditions made or imposed, in respect of the transaction or series of transactions, between the participants in the transaction or series of transactions had been those that would have been made between persons dealing at arm's length; or

(b) where subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, the transaction or series of transactions entered into between the participants had been the transaction or series of transactions that would have been entered into between persons dealing at arm's length, under terms and conditions that would have been made between persons dealing at arm's length.

2001, c. 7, s. 154; 2021, c. 36, s. 145.

1082.4.1. For the purpose of applying section 1082.4 in accordance with the other provisions of this Act, the following steps are to apply in the following order:

(a) the determination of each of the initial amounts;

(b) the adjustments, if any, to each of the initial amounts; and

(c) the use of the adjusted amounts in accordance with the provisions of this Act, except section 1082.4, but including, for greater certainty, sections 1079.9 to 1079.16.

2021, c. 36, s. 146.

1082.5. (Repealed).

2001, c. 7, s. 154; 2004, c. 8, s. 184.

1082.6. (Repealed).

1082.8. (Repealed).

2001, c. 7, s. 154; 2004, c. 8, s. 184.

1082.9. For the purposes of this Title, where a person is a member of a partnership that is a member of another partnership, the following rules apply:

(a) the person is deemed to be a member of the other partnership; and

(b) the person's share of the income or loss of the other partnership is deemed to be equal to the amount of that income or loss to which the person is directly or indirectly entitled.

2001, c. 7, s. 154.

1082.10. Where, in a taxation year of a corporation resident in Canada, a person not resident in Canada owes an amount to the corporation, the person not resident in Canada is a controlled foreign affiliate of the corporation for the purposes of Division VII of Chapter II of Title III of Book III throughout the period in the year during which the amount is owing and it is established that the amount owing is an amount owing described in paragraph a or b of section 127.13, section 1082.4 does not apply to adjust the amount of interest paid, payable or accruing in the year on the amount owing.

1082.10.1. Section 1082.4 does not apply to adjust an amount of consideration paid, payable or accruing to a corporation resident in Canada (in this section referred to as the "parent") in a taxation year of the parent for the provision of a guarantee to a person or a partnership (in this section referred to as the "lender") for the repayment, in whole or in part, of a particular amount owing to the lender by a person not resident in Canada, if

(a) the person not resident in Canada is a controlled foreign affiliate of the parent for the purposes of Division VII of Chapter II of Title III of Book III throughout the period in the year during which the particular amount is owing; and

(b) it is established that the particular amount would be an amount owing described in paragraph a or b of section 127.13 if it were owed to the parent.

BOOK XII

REGULATIONS

1972, c. 23.

1086. The Government may make regulations to:

(a) prescribe the proof required for establishing facts pertinent to assessments;

(b) facilitate assessment of tax when the deductions or exemptions of a taxpayer have varied in the taxation year;

(c) provide for the retention by way of deduction or compensation of the amount of a taxpayer's income tax or other indebtedness under a fiscal law out of any amount that may be payable by the State in respect of salary or wages;

(d) define the classes of persons who may be deemed dependents for the purposes of this Part;

(e) establish classes of property for the purposes of section 130;

(e.1) (subparagraph repealed);

(e.2) require any person included in one of the classes of persons it determines to file any return it may prescribe relating to any information necessary for the establishment of an assessment provided for in this Act and to send, where applicable, a copy of the return or of a part thereof to any person to whom the return or part thereof relates and to whom it indicates in the regulation;

(e.3) require any person included in one of the classes of persons it determines to make information available to the public for the purpose of filing any return it may prescribe relating to any information necessary for the establishment of an assessment provided for in this Act;

(e.4) allow a person who is required to file a return in accordance with the regulations made under subparagraph e.2 to send by electronic means, if the person meets the conditions determined by the Minister, a copy of such a return prescribed by the Government or of a part thereof to any person to whom the return or part thereof relates and to whom it indicates in the regulation; and

(f) generally prescribe the measures required for the application of this Act.

The regulations made under this section and all those made under the other provisions of this Act shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Gazette officielle du Québec or on any later date fixed therein; they may also, once published and if they so provide, apply to a period prior to their publication, but not prior to the taxation year 1972.

PART I.3

TAX IN RESPECT OF ADVANCE PAYMENTS OF THE CREDIT FOR HOME SUPPORT FOR SENIORS

2000, c. 39, s. 219; 2013, c. 10, s. 149.

1086.9. In this Part,

"balance-due day" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"eligible spouse" of an individual for a taxation year means the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4;

"individual" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"taxation year" has the meaning that would be assigned by Part I if it were read without reference to section 779.

1086.10. An individual shall pay, for a taxation year, a tax equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in advance by the Minister to the individual for that year under section 1029.8.61.6.

If applicable, the individual and the individual's eligible spouse for the year are solidarily liable for the payment of the tax payable under the first paragraph and, in that respect, a payment by the individual affects the liability of the eligible spouse only to the extent that the payment operates to reduce the individual's liability to an amount less than the amount in respect of which the eligible spouse is solidarily liable under this paragraph.

1086.11. An individual shall pay to the Minister, for a taxation year, on or before the individual's balance-due day for the year, the individual's tax under this Part as estimated for the year under section 1004.

2000, c. 39, s. 219.

1086.12. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, sections 1000 to 1014, 1035 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2000, c. 39, s. 219; 2017, c. 1, s. 364.

PART I.3.1

TAX RELATING TO ADVANCE PAYMENTS OF THE CREDITS TO INCREASE THE INCENTIVE TO WORK

2005, c. 1, s. 278; 2009, c. 15, s. 366.

1086.12.1. In this Part,

"balance-due day" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"eligible spouse" of an individual for a taxation year means the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4 and who, at the end of 31 December of the year or, if the person died in the year, immediately before the person's death, was resident in Québec and had not been confined to a prison or similar institution during the year for one or more periods totalling more than 183 days;

"individual" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"taxation year" has the meaning that would be assigned by Part I if it were read without reference to section 779.

2005, c. 1, s. 278; 2007, c. 12, s. 304; 2009, c. 15, s. 367; 2015, c. 21, s. 499; 2017, c. 1, s. 365.

1086.12.2. An individual shall pay, for a taxation year, a tax equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in advance by the Minister to the individual for that year under any of sections 1029.8.116.9, 1029.8.116.9.0.1 and 1029.8.116.9.1.

Where applicable, the individual and the individual's eligible spouse for the year are solidarily liable for the payment of the tax payable under the first paragraph and, in that respect, a payment by the individual affects the liability of the eligible spouse only to the extent that the payment operates to reduce the individual's liability to an amount less than the amount in respect of which the eligible spouse is solidarily liable under this paragraph.

2005, c. 1, s. 278; 2009, c. 15, s. 368; 2017, c. 1, s. 366.

1086.12.3. An individual shall pay to the Minister, for a taxation year, on or before the individual's balance-due day for the year, the individual's tax under this Part as estimated for the year under section 1004.

2005, c. 1, s. 278.

1086.12.4. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1000 to 1014, 1035 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2005, c. 1, s. 278.

PART I.3.2

TAX IN RESPECT OF ADVANCE PAYMENTS OF THE CREDIT FOR CHILD CARE EXPENSES

2005, c. 1, s. 278.

1086.12.5. In this Part,

"balance-due day" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"eligible spouse" of an individual for a taxation year means the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4;

"individual" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"taxation year" has the meaning that would be assigned by Part I if it were read without reference to section 779.

1086.12.6. An individual shall pay, for a taxation year, a tax equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in advance by the Minister to the individual for that year under section 1029.8.80.2.

Where applicable, the individual and the individual's eligible spouse for the year are solidarily liable for the payment of the tax payable under the first paragraph and, in that respect, a payment by the individual affects the liability of the eligible spouse only to the extent that the payment operates to reduce the individual's liability to an amount less than the amount in respect of which the eligible spouse is solidarily liable under this paragraph.

2005, c. 1, s. 278.

1086.12.7. An individual shall pay to the Minister, for a taxation year, on or before the individual's balance-due day for the year, the individual's tax under this Part as estimated for the year under section 1004.

2005, c. 1, s. 278.

1086.12.8. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1000 to 1014, 1035 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2005, c. 1, s. 278.

PART I.3.3

TAX IN RESPECT OF ADVANCE PAYMENTS OF THE CREDIT FOR THE TREATMENT OF INFERTILITY

2017, c. 1, s. 367.

1086.12.9. In this Part,

"balance-due day" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"eligible spouse" of an individual for a taxation year means the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4;

"individual" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"taxation year" has the meaning that would be assigned by Part I if it were read without reference to section 779.

2017, c. 1, s. 367.

1086.12.10. An individual shall pay, for a taxation year, a tax equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in advance by the Minister to the individual for that year under section 1029.8.66.5.3.

Where applicable, the individual and the individual's eligible spouse for the year are solidarily liable for the payment of the tax payable under the first paragraph and, in that respect, a payment by the individual affects the liability of the eligible spouse only to the extent that the payment operates to reduce the individual's liability to an amount less than the amount in respect of which the eligible spouse is solidarily liable under this paragraph.

2017, c. 1, s. 367.

1086.12.11. An individual shall pay to the Minister, for a taxation year, on or before the individual's balance-due day for the year, the individual's tax under this Part as estimated for the year in accordance with section 1004.

2017, c. 1, s. 367.

1086.12.12. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, sections 1000 to 1014, 1035 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2017, c. 1, s. 367.

PART I.3.4

TAX IN RESPECT OF ADVANCE PAYMENTS OF THE CREDIT FOR THE RESTORATION OF A SECONDARY RESIDENCE

2019, c. 14, s. 435.

1086.12.13. In this Part,

"balance-due day" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"eligible spouse" of an individual for a taxation year means the person who is the individual's eligible spouse for the year within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4;

"individual" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"taxation year" has the meaning that would be assigned by Part I if it were read without reference to section 779.

2019, c. 14, s. 435.

1086.12.14. An individual shall pay, for a taxation year, a tax equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in advance by the Minister to the individual for that year under section 1029.8.184.

Where applicable, the individual and the individual's eligible spouse for the year are solidarily liable for the payment of the tax payable under the first paragraph and, in that respect, a payment by the individual affects the liability of the eligible spouse only to the extent that the payment operates to reduce the individual's liability to an amount less than the amount in respect of which the eligible spouse is solidarily liable under this paragraph.

2019, c. 14, s. 435.

1086.12.15. An individual shall pay to the Minister, for a taxation year, on or before the individual's balance-due day for the year, the individual's tax under this Part as estimated for the year in accordance with section 1004.

2019, c. 14, s. 435.

1086.12.16. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, sections 1000 to 1014, 1035 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2019, c. 14, s. 435.

PART I.3.5

TAX IN RESPECT OF ADVANCE PAYMENTS OF THE CREDIT FOR CAREGIVERS

2021, c. 14, s. 185.

1086.12.17. In this Part,

"balance-due day" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"individual" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"taxation year" has the meaning that would be assigned by Part I if it were read without reference to section 779.

2021, c. 14, s. 185.

1086.12.18. An individual shall pay, for a taxation year, a tax equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in advance by the Minister to the individual for that year under section 1029.8.61.96.23.

2021, c. 14, s. 185.

1086.12.19. An individual shall pay to the Minister, for a taxation year, on or before the individual's balance-due day for the year, the individual's tax under this Part as estimated for the year in accordance with section 1004.

2021, c. 14, s. 185.

1086.12.20. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, sections 1000 to 1014 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2021, c. 14, s. 185.

BOOK II

LIABILITY FOR AND AMOUNT OF TAX

2001, c. 53, s. 241.

1086.14. Where in a particular taxation year or within the first 60 days after the end of the year that is included in a participation period of the individual, an individual did not acquire replacement shares for an amount at least equal to the amount determined under section 776.1.5.0.2 for the year in respect of the individual, the individual shall pay, except in the case provided for in section 1086.18, tax equal to the amount determined under section 1086.15 for the year in respect of the individual.

2001, c. 53, s. 241.

1086.15. The amount of tax to which section 1086.14 refers is equal to the amount determined by the formula

{[(A − B)/(15 − C)] − D} × 15%.

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is

i. an amount equal to zero where

(1) the individual died or ceased to be resident in Canada in the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.14, or

(2) the completion date in respect of an eligible amount of the individual is in the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.14, and

ii. in any other case, the aggregate of all eligible amounts of the individual received by the individual in preceding taxation years that are included in the particular participation period referred to in section 1086.14;

(b) B is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is

i. an amount paid by the individual on the acquisition of replacement shares in a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.14 or within 60 days after the end of that preceding year that is included in the particular participation period referred to in section 1086.14, or

ii. 100/15 of an amount that the individual is required to pay under section 1086.14 for a taxation year that precedes the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.14 and that is included in the particular participation period referred to in section 1086.14 in respect of replacement shares that have not been acquired by the individual;

(c) C is the lesser of 14 and the number of taxation years of the individual that end in the period that begins on 1 January of the first calendar year beginning after the completion date in respect of an eligible amount of the individual and that ends at the beginning of the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.14; and

(d) D is the aggregate of all amounts paid by the individual on the acquisition of replacement shares in the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.14 or within the first 60 days after the end of that year that is included in the particular participation period referred to in section 1086.14.

2001, c. 53, s. 241; 2005, c. 38, s. 298; 2011, c. 1, s. 101.

1086.16. Where at a particular time in a taxation year an individual ceases to be resident in Canada, and the individual has not acquired replacement shares, for the period in the year during which the individual was resident in Canada, for an amount at least equal to the amount determined under section 776.1.5.0.3 for the year in respect of the individual, the individual shall pay, except in the case provided for in section 1086.18, tax equal to 15% of the amount by which the amount paid for that period by the individual under section 776.1.5.0.3 exceeds the amount determined under that section 776.1.5.0.3 for that period in respect of the individual.

1086.17. Except in the case where section 776.1.5.0.5 applies, where an individual dies at a particular time in a taxation year, and replacement shares were not acquired, in the year, for an amount at least equal to the amount determined under section 776.1.5.0.4 for the year in respect of the individual, there shall be paid, except in the case provided for in section 1086.18, tax equal to 15% of the amount by which the amount paid in the year by the individual under section 776.1.5.0.4 exceeds the amount determined under that section 776.1.5.0.4 for the year in respect of the individual.

1086.17.1. For the purposes of sections 1086.14 to 1086.17, the amount of tax payable by an individual for a taxation year under any of sections 1086.15 to 1086.17, in respect of replacement shares that were not acquired by that individual, is to be determined, if any of the replacement shares that were not acquired relates to an original share described in paragraph b of section 776.1.1 and acquired by the individual in a period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.1 or 776.1.1.2, as if,

(a) in the case of tax computed under section 1086.15, the amount of that tax were equal to the aggregate of

i. the amount that would be determined by the formula in the first paragraph of section 1086.15 if

(1) A, described in the second paragraph of section 1086.15, represented, in the cases where subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that second paragraph did not apply, only the portion of the aggregate of the eligible amounts described in subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of that second paragraph, determined in respect of the individual, that may reasonably be attributed to shares each of which is a share other than such an original share,

(2) the only replacement shares whose acquisition is considered for the purposes of subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.15 and subparagraph d of that second paragraph were the replacement shares that may reasonably be considered to relate to shares other than such original shares, and

(3) the only replacement shares whose non-acquisition is considered for the purposes of subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.15 were the replacement shares that may reasonably be considered to relate to shares other than such original shares,

ii. the amount that would be determined by the formula in the first paragraph of section 1086.15 if

(1) A, described in the second paragraph of section 1086.15, represented, in the cases where subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that second paragraph does not apply, only the portion of the aggregate of the eligible amounts described in subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of that second paragraph, determined in respect of the individual, that may reasonably be attributed to shares each of which is such an original share acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.1,

(2) the only replacement shares whose acquisition is considered for the purposes of subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.15 and subparagraph d of that second paragraph were the replacement shares that may reasonably be considered to relate to such original shares acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.1,

(2.1) the only replacement shares whose non-acquisition is considered for the purposes of subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.15 were the replacement shares that may reasonably be considered to relate to such original shares acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.1,

(2.2) the fraction “100/15” provided for in subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.15 were replaced by a percentage of 400%, and

(3) the percentage of 15% were replaced by a percentage of 25%; and

iii. the amount that would be determined by the formula in the first paragraph of section 1086.15 if

(1) A, described in the second paragraph of section 1086.15, represented, in the cases where subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that second paragraph does not apply, only the portion of the aggregate of the eligible amounts described in subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of that second paragraph, determined in respect of the individual, that may reasonably be attributed to shares each of which is such an original share acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.2,

(2) the only replacement shares whose acquisition is considered for the purposes of subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.15 and subparagraph d of that second paragraph were the replacement shares that may reasonably be considered to relate to such original shares acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.2,

(3) the only replacement shares whose non-acquisition is considered for the purposes of subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.15 were the replacement shares that may reasonably be considered to relate to such original shares acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.2,

(4) the fraction "100/15" provided for in subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.15 were replaced by a percentage of 500%, and

(5) the percentage of 15% were replaced by a percentage of 20%;

(b) in the case of tax computed under section 1086.16 or 1086.17, the percentage of 15% provided for in that section were replaced

i. by a percentage of 25% in respect of the portion of the excess amount referred to in section 1086.16 or 1086.17, determined in respect of the individual, that may reasonably be attributed to shares each of which is such an original share acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.1, or

ii. by a percentage of 20% in respect of the portion of the excess amount referred to in section 1086.16 or 1086.17, determined in respect of the individual, that may reasonably be attributed to shares each of which is such an original share acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.2.

1086.18. Sections 1086.14, 1086.16 and 1086.17 do not apply in respect of an individual for a particular taxation year other than a taxation year described in the second paragraph if, not later than 60 days after the end of the particular year, the individual may make a request for the redemption of original shares issued to the individual, otherwise than under Division II of Chapter III of Title III of Book V of Part I.

The taxation year to which the first paragraph refers is a taxation year for which the individual may deduct an amount from the individual's tax otherwise payable under section 776.1.1 or section 776.1.2 in relation to an amount paid in a preceding taxation year of the individual, or within 60 days after the end of that preceding taxation year, in which the individual had to acquire replacement shares for an amount at least equal to the amount determined under section 776.1.5.0.2 for the preceding year in respect of the individual.

BOOK II

LIABILITY FOR AND AMOUNT OF TAX

2001, c. 53, s. 241.

1086.20. Where in a particular taxation year or within the first 60 days after the end of the year that is included in a participation period of the individual, an individual did not acquire replacement shares for an amount at least equal to the amount determined under section 776.1.5.0.7 for the year in respect of the individual, the individual shall pay, except in the case provided for in section 1086.24, tax equal to the amount determined under section 1086.21 for the year in respect of the individual.

2001, c. 53, s. 241.

1086.21. The amount of tax to which section 1086.20 refers is equal to the amount determined by the formula

$$\{[(A - B)/(10 - C)] - D\} \times 15\%.$$

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is

i. an amount equal to zero where

(1) the individual died or ceased to be resident in Canada in the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.20, or

(2) the beginning of the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.20 is not included in a repayment period of the individual, and

ii. in any other case, the aggregate of all eligible amounts of the individual received by the individual in taxation years preceding the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.20, other than taxation years included in participation periods of the individual that ended before the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.20;

(b) B is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is

i. an amount paid by the individual on the acquisition of replacement shares in a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.20 or within 60 days after the end of that preceding year, other than a taxation year included in a participation period of the individual that ended before the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.20, or

ii. 100/15 of an amount that the individual is required to pay under section 1086.20 for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.20 in respect of replacement shares that have not been acquired by the individual, other than a taxation year included in a participation period of the individual that ended before the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.20;

(c) C is the lesser of nine and the number of taxation years of the individual that end in the period that begins at the beginning of the last repayment period of the individual that began at or before the beginning of the particular taxation year and that ends at the beginning of the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.20; and

(d) D is the aggregate of all amounts paid by the individual on the acquisition of replacement shares in the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.20 or within the first 60 days after the end of that year, other than a taxation year included in a participation period of the individual that ended before the particular taxation year referred to in section 1086.20.

1086.22. Where at a particular time in a taxation year an individual ceases to be resident in Canada, and the individual has not acquired replacement shares, for the period in the year during which the individual was resident in Canada, for an amount at least equal to the amount determined under section 776.1.5.0.8 for that period in respect of the individual, the individual shall pay, except in the case provided for in section 1086.24, tax equal to 15% of the amount by which the amount paid for that period by the individual under section 776.1.5.0.8 exceeds the amount determined under that section 776.1.5.0.8 for that period in respect of the individual.

1086.23. Except in the case where section 776.1.5.0.10 applies, where an individual dies at a particular time in a taxation year, and replacement shares were not acquired, in the year, for an amount at least equal to the amount determined under section 776.1.5.0.9 for the year in respect of the individual, there shall be paid, except in the case provided for in section 1086.24, tax equal to 15% of the amount by which the amount paid in the year by the individual under section 776.1.5.0.9 exceeds the amount determined under that section 776.1.5.0.9 for the year in respect of the individual.

1086.23.1. For the purposes of sections 1086.20 to 1086.23, the amount of tax payable by an individual for a taxation year under any of sections 1086.21 to 1086.23, in respect of replacement shares that were not acquired by that individual, is to be determined, if any of the replacement shares that were not acquired relates to an original share described in paragraph b of section 776.1.1 and acquired by the individual in a period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.1 or 776.1.1.2, as if,

(a) in the case of tax computed under section 1086.21, the amount of that tax were equal to the aggregate of

i. the amount that would be determined by the formula in the first paragraph of section 1086.21 if

(1) A, described in the second paragraph of section 1086.21, represented, in the cases where subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that second paragraph did not apply, only the portion of the aggregate of the eligible amounts described in subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of that second paragraph, determined in respect of the individual, that may reasonably be attributed to shares each of which is a share other than such an original share,

(2) the only replacement shares whose acquisition is considered for the purposes of subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.21 and subparagraph d of that second paragraph were the replacement shares that may reasonably be considered to relate to shares other than such original shares, and

(3) the only replacement shares whose non-acquisition is considered for the purposes of subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.21 were the replacement shares that may reasonably be considered to relate to shares other than such original shares,

ii. the amount that would be determined by the formula in the first paragraph of section 1086.21 if

(1) A, described in the second paragraph of section 1086.21, represented, in the cases where subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that second paragraph does not apply, only the portion of the aggregate of the eligible amounts described in subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of that second paragraph, determined in respect of the individual, that may reasonably be attributed to shares each of which is such an original share acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.1,

(2) the only replacement shares whose acquisition is considered for the purposes of subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.21 and subparagraph d of that second paragraph were the replacement shares that may reasonably be considered to relate to such original shares acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.1,

(2.1) the only replacement shares whose non-acquisition is considered for the purposes of subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.21 were the replacement shares that may reasonably be considered to relate to such original shares acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.1,

(2.2) the fraction "100/15" provided for in subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.21 were replaced by a percentage of 400%, and

(3) the percentage of 15% were replaced by a percentage of 25%; and

iii. the amount that would be determined by the formula in the first paragraph of section 1086.21 if

(1) A, described in the second paragraph of section 1086.21, represented, in the cases where subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that second paragraph does not apply, only the portion of the aggregate of the eligible amounts described in subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of that second paragraph, determined in respect of the individual, that may reasonably be attributed to shares each of which is such an original share acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.2,

(2) the only replacement shares whose acquisition is considered for the purposes of subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.21 and subparagraph d of that second paragraph were the replacement shares that may reasonably be considered to relate to such original shares acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.2,

(3) the only replacement shares whose non-acquisition is considered for the purposes of subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.21 were the replacement shares that may reasonably be considered to relate to such original shares acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.2,

(4) the fraction "100/15" provided for in subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1086.21 were replaced by a percentage of 500%, and

(5) the percentage of 15% were replaced by a percentage of 20%; and

(b) in the case of tax computed under section 1086.22 or 1086.23, the percentage of 15% provided for in that section were replaced

i. by a percentage of 25% in respect of the portion of the excess amount referred to in section 1086.22 or 1086.23, determined in respect of the individual, that may reasonably be attributed to shares each of which is such an original share acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.1, or

ii. by a percentage of 20% in respect of the portion of the excess amount referred to in section 1086.22 or 1086.23, determined in respect of the individual, that may reasonably be attributed to shares each of which is such an original share acquired by the individual in the period specified in the second paragraph of section 776.1.1.2.

1086.24. Sections 1086.20, 1086.22 and 1086.23 do not apply in respect of an individual for a particular taxation year other than a taxation year described in the second paragraph if, not later than 60 days after the end of the particular year, the individual may make a request for the redemption of original shares issued to the individual, otherwise than under Division III of Chapter III of Title III of Book V of Part I.

The taxation year to which the first paragraph refers is a taxation year for which the individual may deduct an amount from the individual's tax otherwise payable under section 776.1.1 or section 776.1.2 in relation to an amount paid in a preceding taxation year of the individual, or within 60 days after the end of that preceding taxation year, in which the individual had to acquire replacement shares for an amount at least equal to the amount determined under section 776.1.5.0.7 for the preceding year in respect of the individual.

PART I.6

TAX IN RESPECT OF SECURITY OPTION BENEFIT DEFERRAL

2011, c. 34, s. 113.

1086.27. In this Part,

"filing-due date" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"individual" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"net capital loss" has the meaning assigned by section 730;

"proceeds of disposition" has the meaning assigned by section 251;

"qualified corporation" has the meaning assigned by section 725.1.3;

"qualifying person" has the meaning assigned by section 47.18;

"security" has the meaning assigned by section 47.18;

"taxation year" has the meaning assigned by section 1.

2011, c. 34, s. 113.

1086.28. Where, in a particular taxation year preceding the taxation year 2015, an individual has disposed of or exchanged a security of a qualifying person in respect of which the individual made a valid election under paragraph b of section 58.0.1, as it read before being repealed, and the individual makes an election, in the manner and within the time specified in the second paragraph, for the particular year in relation to the security, the following rules apply:

(a) the percentage specified in section 725.2 in relation to the benefit deemed to be received by the individual under section 49 for the particular year in respect of the security is to be replaced by

i. 75%, where the security has been disposed of or exchanged after 30 March 2004,

ii. 87.5%, where the security has been disposed of or exchanged after 12 June 2003 and before 31 March 2004, or

iii. 100%, where the security has been disposed of or exchanged before 13 June 2003, or acquired under a right provided for in an agreement referred to in section 48 and entered into after 13 March 2008, from a qualifying person that is a qualified corporation for a particular calendar year including the time at which the individual acquired the security;

(b) for the purposes of Part I, the individual is deemed to have realized a capital gain for the particular year equal to the lesser of the amount of the benefit that the individual is deemed to have received in the particular year under section 49 in respect of the security and the capital loss determined under Part I and derived from the disposition of the security;

(c) the individual is liable to pay a tax for the particular year equal to 50% of the proceeds of disposition of the security;

(d) where the time limit provided for in paragraph a of subsection 2 of section 1010 has expired in respect of the particular year, the Minister may, for the purposes of Part I, make a reassessment and redetermine the tax, interest and penalties for the particular year in order to take the election into account; and

(e) despite section 1010 and as the circumstances require, the Minister shall redetermine the individual's net capital loss for the particular year and reassess any taxation year in which an amount has been deducted under section 729.

An individual makes the election referred to in the first paragraph for a particular taxation year by filing with the Minister the prescribed form containing prescribed information

(a) on or before the individual's filing-due date for the taxation year 2010 where the security has been disposed of or exchanged before 1 January 2010; or

(b) on or before the individual's filing-due date for the particular year in which the security has been disposed of or exchanged, in any other case.

2011, c. 34, s. 113; I.N. 2018-06-05.

1086.29. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, sections 1002, 1004 to 1014, 1025, 1026 to 1026.2 and 1031.1 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

PART II

INCOME EARNED IN QUÉBEC BY PERSONS NOT RESIDENT IN QUÉBEC

1972, c. 23.

TITLE I

GENERAL RULES

1972, c. 23.

1087. Part I applies for computing the income of persons not resident in Québec, subject to this Part.

1972, c. 23, s. 811.

1088. The income earned in Québec, for a taxation year, by an individual contemplated in section 25 is equal to the part of the income from businesses which he carries on that is attributed in prescribed manner to an establishment in Québec, less the part of the losses of the said businesses that is attributed to such establishment.

1972, c. 23, s. 812; 1973, c. 17, s. 123.

1089. The income earned in Québec, for a taxation year, by an individual contemplated in section 26 is his income as determined under section 28, taking into account only the following:

(a) the amount by which the aggregate of the income from the duties of offices or employments performed by the individual in Québec and the income from the duties of offices or employments performed by the individual outside Canada if the individual was resident in Québec at the time the individual performed the duties exceeds the aggregate of the amounts that, if the individual is a foreign researcher within the meaning of section 737.19, a foreign researcher on a postdoctoral internship within the meaning of section 737.22.0.0.1, a foreign expert within the meaning of section 737.22.0.0.5, a foreign specialist within the meaning of section 737.22.0.1 or 737.22.0.4.1, a foreign professor within the meaning of section 737.22.0.5 or a foreign farm worker within the meaning of section 737.22.0.12, would be deductible in computing the individual's taxable income for the year under any of sections 737.21, 737.22.0.0.3, 737.22.0.0.7, 737.22.0.3, 737.22.0.4.7, 737.22.0.7 and 737.22.0.13 if the taxable income were determined under Part I;

(b) income from businesses carried on by him in Canada that is attributable, in prescribed manner, to an establishment in Québec;

(c) the taxable capital gains and allowable capital losses from dispositions of taxable Québec property, other than

i. property described in paragraph c or d of section 1094, and

ii. tax-agreement-protected property, within the meaning of section 1;

(d) the portion that is reasonably attributable to the disposition of a Québec resource property within the meaning of the regulations or to expenses incurred in Québec of the amount by which the amount required by paragraph e of section 330 to be included in computing his income for the year exceeds any portion of that amount that was included in computing his income from a business carried on by him in Canada;

(e) the portion that is reasonably attributable to the disposition of a Québec timber resource property within the meaning of the regulations of the amount by which the amounts that are required by sections 93 to 104 to be included in computing his income for the year in respect of the disposition of a timber resource property exceed any portion of those amounts that was included in computing his income from a business carried on by him in Canada;

(e.0.1*)* the amounts that the individual received under the incentive program for farm workers established under the Act respecting the Ministère de l'Agriculture, des Pêcheries et de l'Alimentation (chapter M-14) according to the terms of the agreement referred to in Orders in Council 457-2020 dated 15 April 2020 and 517-2020 dated 13 May 2020 and that the individual would be required to include under paragraph e.2 of section 311 in computing the individual's income for the year if the individual had been resident in Québec throughout the year;

(e.1*)* the amount that the individual would be required to include under paragraph e.6 of section 311 in computing the individual's income for the year if the individual had been resident in Québec throughout the year, up to the portion of that amount that may reasonably be attributed to the duties of an office or employment performed by the individual in Québec;

(f) the excess of the amount which must, under section 684, be included in computing his income for the year in respect of the disposition of an income interest in a trust resident in Québec over the amount that would be deductible under section 665 in computing his income if he had been resident in Canada throughout the year;

(g) the amount by which the income determined under paragraphs b and c of section 1092 in respect of the individual exceeds the aggregate of the amounts that, if the individual is a foreign researcher within the meaning of section 737.19, a foreign researcher on a postdoctoral internship within the meaning of section 737.22.0.0.1, a foreign expert within the meaning of section 737.22.0.0.5, a foreign specialist within the meaning of section 737.22.0.1 or 737.22.0.4.1 or a foreign professor within the meaning of section 737.22.0.5, would be deductible in computing the individual's taxable income for the year under any of sections 737.21, 737.22.0.0.3, 737.22.0.0.7, 737.22.0.3, 737.22.0.4.7 and 737.22.0.7 if the individual's taxable income were determined under Part I;

(h) the amount, which is attributable in prescribed manner to an establishment of a partnership in Québec, by which the amount required by section 610 to be included in computing the income of the individual for the year as proceeds of the disposition of a right to a share of the income or loss of the partnership under an agreement mentioned therein exceeds the amount that would be deductible in that respect under section 611 in computing his income if he had been resident in Canada throughout the year;

(i) the losses from duties of an office or employment performed by the individual in Québec and the losses from businesses carried on by the individual in Canada, other than tax-agreement-protected businesses, within the meaning of section 1, which are attributable in prescribed manner to an establishment in Québec;

(j) where, in the year, he carried on a business in Canada described in paragraphs a to g of section 363, the amounts in respect of any Québec resource property within the meaning of paragraph d that the individual would be required to include in computing his income for the year under Part I if he were resident in Québec, to the extent that such amounts are not already included in computing his income under paragraph b or d;

(k) the amount that, if the individual had been resident in Québec throughout the year, would be included under section 968 or 968.1 in computing his income in respect of an interest in a life insurance policy issued or subscribed by an insurer, on the life of a person resident in Québec at the time of the issue or subscription; and

(l) where the individual has been carrying on business in Canada in the year, the amounts relating to a Québec resource property within the meaning of subparagraph d, except where an amount in respect of the disposition of such property is deducted under section 412 or 418.6, to a Québec timber resource property within the meaning of subparagraph e, other than depreciable property, or to property, other than capital property, that is an immovable situated in Québec, to the extent that such amounts are not already included under subparagraph b, d, e or j in computing his income.

However, the income earned in Québec for a taxation year by an individual who is a foreign specialist, within the meaning of section 737.18.6, who is an eligible individual, within the meaning of section 737.22.0.9, or who is described in section 66 of the Act respecting international financial centres (chapter C-8.3) is the amount by which the particular amount that is determined in respect of the individual for the year under the first paragraph exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the portion of the particular amount that is included in the part of the individual's income for the year that may reasonably be considered to be earned in the part of the individual's exemption period, within the meaning of section 737.18.6, in relation to an employment that is included in the year;

(b) the product obtained by multiplying the portion of the particular amount that is included in the part of the individual's income for the year that may reasonably be considered to be earned in the part of a specified period of the individual, established under the fourth paragraph of section 65 of the Act respecting international financial centres, in relation to an employment that is included in the year, by the percentage determined in subparagraph 1 of the second paragraph of that section 65 in respect of that period; and

(c) (subparagraph repealed);

(d) the portion of the particular amount that is included in the amount determined in respect of the individual for the year under section 737.22.0.10.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the amount that is determined in respect of an individual for a taxation year under the first paragraph is to be increased by the amount that would be included in computing the individual's taxable income for the year under any of sections 726.43 to 726.43.2 if the taxable income were determined under Part I.

For the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph, in the case of an individual employed as an aircraft pilot, the individual's income from the duties of that employment performed by the individual in Québec, in relation to the individual's income that is attributable to a flight (including a leg of a flight) and paid directly or indirectly by a person resident in Canada, is

(a) all of the income attributable to the flight if the flight departs from a location in Québec and arrives at a location in Québec;

(b) one-half of the income attributable to the flight if the flight departs from a location in Québec and arrives at a location outside Québec;

(c) one-half of the income attributable to the flight if the flight departs from a location outside Québec and arrives at a location in Québec; or

(d) none of the income attributable to the flight if the flight departs from a location outside Québec and arrives at a location outside Québec.

1090. The income earned in Canada by an individual contemplated in section 26, for a taxation year, shall be his income as determined under section 28 by taking into account only the following:

(a) the amount by which the aggregate of the income from the duties of offices or employments performed by the individual in Canada and the income from the duties of offices or employments performed by the individual outside Canada if the individual was resident in Canada at the time the individual performed the duties exceeds the aggregate of the amounts that, if the individual is a foreign researcher within the meaning of section 737.19, a foreign researcher on a postdoctoral internship within the meaning of section 737.22.0.0.1, a foreign expert within the meaning of section 737.22.0.0.5, a foreign specialist within the meaning of section 737.22.0.1 or 737.22.0.4.1, a foreign professor within the meaning of section 737.22.0.5 or a foreign farm worker within the meaning of section 737.22.0.12, would be deductible in computing the individual's taxable income for the year under any of sections 737.21, 737.22.0.0.3, 737.22.0.0.7, 737.22.0.3, 737.22.0.4.7, 737.22.0.7 and 737.22.0.13 if the taxable income were determined under Part I;

(b) income from businesses that he has carried on in Canada that is attributable in prescribed manner to an establishment in Canada;

(c) the taxable capital gains and allowable capital losses from dispositions of taxable Canadian property, other than tax-agreement-protected property, within the meaning of section 1;

(d) the amount by which the amount required by paragraph e of section 330 to be included in computing his income for the year exceeds any portion of that amount that was included in computing his income from a business carried on by him in Canada;

(e) the amount by which the amounts required by sections 93 to 104 to be included in computing his income for the year in respect of the disposition of a timber resource property exceed any portion of those amounts that was included in computing his income from a business carried on by him in Canada;

(e.0.1*)* the amounts that the individual received under the incentive program for farm workers established under the Act respecting the Ministère de l'Agriculture, des Pêcheries et de l'Alimentation (chapter M-14) according to the terms of the agreement referred to in Orders in Council 457-2020 dated 15 April 2020 and 517-2020 dated 13 May 2020 and that the individual would be required to include under paragraph e.2 of section 311 in computing the individual's income for the year if the individual had been resident in Canada throughout the year;

(e.1*)* the amount that the individual would be required to include under paragraph e.6 of section 311 in computing the individual's income for the year if the individual had been resident in Canada throughout the year;

(f) the excess of the amount which must, under section 684, be included in computing his income for the year in respect of the disposition of an income interest in a trust resident in Canada over the amount that would be deductible under section 665 in computing his income if he had been resident in Canada throughout the year;

(g) the amount by which the income that would be determined under paragraphs b and c of section 1092 in respect of the individual if the word "Québec", in sections 1092 and 1093, were replaced, wherever it appears, by the word "Canada", exceeds the aggregate of the amounts that, if the individual is a foreign researcher within the meaning of section 737.19, a foreign researcher on a postdoctoral internship within the meaning of section 737.22.0.0.1, a foreign expert within the meaning of section 737.22.0.0.5, a foreign specialist within the meaning of section 737.22.0.1 or 737.22.0.4.1 or a foreign professor within the meaning of section 737.22.0.5, would be deductible in computing the individual's taxable income for the year under any of sections 737.21, 737.22.0.0.3, 737.22.0.0.7, 737.22.0.3, 737.22.0.4.7 and 737.22.0.7 if the individual's taxable income were determined under Part I;

(h) the amount by which the amount required by section 610 to be included in computing his income for the year as proceeds of the disposition of a right to a share of the income or loss of a partnership under an agreement mentioned therein exceeds the amount that would be deductible in that respect under section 611 in computing his income if he had been resident in Canada throughout the year;

(i) the losses from duties of an office or employment performed by the individual in Canada and the losses from businesses carried on by the individual in Canada, other than tax-agreement-protected businesses, within the meaning of section 1, which are attributable in prescribed manner to an establishment in Canada;

(j) where, in the year, he has carried on a business in Canada described in paragraphs a to g of section 363, the amounts in respect of any Canadian resource property that he would be required to include in computing his income for the year under Part I if he were resident in Canada at any time in the year to the extent that such amounts are not already included in computing his income under paragraph b or d;

(k) the amount that, under section 968 or 968.1, would be included in computing his income in respect of an interest in a life insurance policy in Canada if he had been resident in Canada throughout the year; and

(l) where the individual has been carrying on business in Canada in the year, the amounts relating to a Canadian resource property, except where an amount in respect of the disposition of such property is deducted under section 412 or 418.6, to a timber resource property, other than depreciable property, or to property, other than capital property, that is an immovable situated in Canada, to the extent that those amounts are not already included under subparagraph b, d, e or j in computing his income.

However, the income earned in Canada for a taxation year by an individual who is a foreign specialist, within the meaning of section 737.18.6, who is an eligible individual, within the meaning of section 737.22.0.9, or who is described in section 66 of the Act respecting international financial centres (chapter

C-8.3) is the amount by which the particular amount that is determined in respect of the individual for the year under the first paragraph exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the portion of the particular amount that is included in the part of the individual's income for the year that may reasonably be considered to be earned in the part of the individual's exemption period, within the meaning of section 737.18.6, in relation to an employment that is included in the year;

(b) the product obtained by multiplying the portion of the particular amount that is included in the part of the individual's income for the year that may reasonably be considered to be earned in the part of a specified period of the individual, established under the fourth paragraph of section 65 of the Act respecting international financial centres, in relation to an employment that is included in the year, by the percentage determined in subparagraph 1 of the second paragraph of that section 65 in respect of that period; and

(c) (subparagraph repealed);

(d) the portion of the particular amount that is included in the amount determined in respect of the individual for the year under section 737.22.0.10.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the amount that is determined in respect of an individual for a taxation year under the first paragraph is to be increased by the amount that would be included in computing the individual's taxable income for the year under any of sections 726.43 to 726.43.2 if the taxable income were determined under Part I.

For the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph, in the case of an individual employed as an aircraft pilot, the individual's income from the duties of that employment performed by the individual in Canada, in relation to the individual's income that is attributable to a flight (including a leg of a flight) and paid directly or indirectly by a person resident in Canada, is

(a) all of the income attributable to the flight if the flight departs from a location in Canada and arrives at a location in Canada;

(b) one-half of the income attributable to the flight if the flight departs from a location in Canada and arrives at a location outside Canada;

(c) one-half of the income attributable to the flight if the flight departs from a location outside Canada and arrives at a location in Canada; or

(d) none of the income attributable to the flight if the flight departs from a location outside Canada and arrives at a location outside Canada.

1090.1. For the purposes of this Part, where an individual referred to in section 26 or a corporation referred to in the first paragraph of section 27 disposes, in a taxation year, of property referred to in subparagraph l of the first paragraph of either of section 1089 or 1090, the individual or the corporation is deemed, in respect of such disposition, to have been carrying on business in Canada during the year.

1090.2. For the purposes of subparagraph l of the first paragraph of sections 1089 and 1090, and section 1090.1, property that is an immovable or a timber resource property includes, at a particular time, a right in the property and an option in respect of the property, even if, in the case of an immovable, the property is not in existence at that time.

1993, c. 16, s. 346; 2020, c. 16, s. 181.

1091. The taxable income earned in Canada by an individual referred to in section 26 is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of the income referred to in section 1090 and the amount that, had the individual been resident in Québec throughout the year, would be included under section 313.8 in computing the individual's income for the year, exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the deductions permitted by sections 725, 725.1.2 and 725.2 to 725.4, to the extent that they relate to amounts included in computing the individual's income earned in Canada under section 1090;

(b) such of the deductions permitted by sections 727, 728.1, 729, 731 and 733.0.0.1 as may reasonably be considered to be applicable to the services the individual rendered in an office or employment in Canada, to an establishment in Canada of a business carried on by the individual in Canada or to a disposition of property, any income or gain on which would have been required to be included in computing the individual's income earned in Canada under section 1090;

(b.1) the deduction permitted by section 1091.0.1; and

(c) where all or substantially all of the individual's income for the year, as determined under section 28, is included in computing the individual's taxable income earned in Canada for the year, determined with reference to the second paragraph, such of the other deductions from income, except the deductions described in sections 737.16, 737.18.10, 737.21, 737.22.0.0.3, 737.22.0.0.7, 737.22.0.3, 737.22.0.4.7, 737.22.0.7, 737.22.0.10 and 737.22.0.13, permitted for the purpose of computing the individual's taxable income as may reasonably be considered wholly applicable.

For the purposes of subparagraph c of the first paragraph, the taxable income earned in Canada by an individual for a taxation year is determined as if section 1090 were read for the year without reference to its second and third paragraphs and as if subparagraph a of the first paragraph of that section were replaced, for the year, by the following subparagraph:

"(a) the aggregate of the income from the duties of offices or employments performed by the individual in Canada and the income from the duties of offices or employments performed by the individual outside Canada if the individual was resident in Canada at the time the individual performed the duties;".

1972, c. 23, s. 815; 1984, c. 15, s. 238; 1985, c. 25, s. 161; 1986, c. 19, s. 198; 1987, c. 21, s. 84; 1987, c. 67, s. 197; 1988, c. 4, s. 142; 1989, c. 5, s. 237; 1989, c. 77, s. 107; 1993, c. 64, s. 184; 1995, c. 1, s. 183; 1996, c. 39, s. 259; 1997, c. 85, s. 300; 1999, c. 83, s. 239; 1999, c. 86, s. 88; 2000, c. 39, s. 264; 2001, c. 53, s. 245; 2002, c. 40, s. 231; 2003, c. 9, s. 387; 2004, c. 8, s. 187; 2006, c. 36, s. 217; 2010, c. 25, s. 195; 2013, c. 10, s. 152; 2015, c. 36, s. 156; 2021, c. 14, s. 188; 2022, c. 23, s. 129.

1091.0.1. Where an individual ceases at any time after 27 February 2000 to be resident in Canada, a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "particular year", of the individual ends after that time and the individual was not resident in Canada throughout the period that begins at that time and ends at the end of the particular year, the following rules apply:

(a) in computing the individual's taxable income earned in Canada for the particular year, the individual may deduct each amount that would be permitted to be deducted in computing the individual's income for the particular year under section 371 or 418.1.10 if

i. section 371 were read with the reference to "who is resident in Canada throughout a taxation year may deduct, in computing the taxpayer's income for that year" in the portion before paragraph a thereof replaced by "may deduct, in computing the taxpayer's income for a taxation year",

ii. the amount determined under paragraph b of section 374 were equal to zero,

iii. section 418.1.10 were read with the reference to "for a taxation year throughout which the taxpayer is resident in Canada" in the portion before paragraph a thereof replaced by "for a taxation year", and

iv. each of the amounts determined under subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 418.1.10 and paragraph b of that section were equal to zero; and

(b) an amount deducted under this section in computing the individual's taxable income earned in Canada for the particular year is deemed, for the purpose of applying section 371 or 418.1.10, as the case may be, to a subsequent taxation year, to have been deducted in computing the individual's income for the particular year.

TITLE I.1

INVESTMENT SERVICES PROVIDED TO FOREIGNERS

2001, c. 53, s. 246.

1091.2. In this Title,

"Canadian investor", at any time in relation to a person not resident in Canada, means a person that the person not resident in Canada knows, or ought to know after reasonable inquiry, is at that time resident in Canada;

"Canadian service provider" means a corporation or a trust resident in Canada or a Canadian partnership;

"designated investment services" provided to a person or partnership means any one or more of the services described in the following paragraphs:

(a) investment management or advice with respect to qualified investments, regardless of whether the manager has discretionary authority to buy or sell;

(b) purchasing or selling qualified investments, exercising rights incidental to the ownership of qualified investments such as voting, conversion or exchange;

(c) entering into or executing agreements with respect to services referred to in paragraph b;

(d) investment administration services, such as receiving, delivering and having custody of investments, calculating and reporting investment values, receiving subscription amounts from, and paying distributions and proceeds of disposition to, investors in or beneficiaries of the person or partnership, record keeping, accounting and reporting to the person or partnership and its investors and beneficiaries; and

(e) if the service is provided to a corporation, trust or partnership the only undertaking of which is the investing of its funds in qualified investments, marketing shares of its capital stock or interests in itself to investors not resident in Canada;

"promoter" of a corporation, trust or partnership means a particular person or partnership that initiates or directs the founding, organization or substantial reorganization of the corporation, trust or partnership, and a person or partnership that is affiliated with the particular person or partnership;

"qualified investment" of a person or partnership means

(a) a share of the capital stock of a corporation, or an interest in a partnership, trust, entity, organization or fund, other than a share or an interest

i. that is either a security not listed on a designated stock exchange, or listed on such a stock exchange, if the person or partnership, together with all persons with whom the person or partnership does not deal at arm's length, owns 25% or more of the issued shares of any class of the capital stock of the corporation or of the total value of interests in the partnership, trust, entity, organization or fund, as the case may be, and

ii. of which more than 50% of the fair market value is derived from one or more of the following properties:

(1) an immovable situated in Canada,

(2) Canadian resource property, and

(3) timber resource property;

(b) indebtedness;

(c) annuities;

(d) commodities or commodities futures purchased or sold, directly or indirectly in any manner whatever, on a commodities or commodities futures exchange;

(e) currency; and

(f) options, interests, rights and forward and futures agreements in respect of property described in any of paragraphs a to e or this paragraph, and agreements under which obligations are derived from interest rates, from the price of property described in any of those paragraphs, from payments made in respect of such a property by its issuer to holders of the property, or from an index reflecting a composite measure of such rates, prices or payments, whether or not the agreement creates any rights in or obligations regarding the referenced property itself.

2001, c. 53, s. 246; 2004, c. 8, s. 189; 2010, c. 5, s. 187.

1091.3. For the purposes of Part I and this Part, a person not resident in Canada is not considered to be carrying on a business in Canada at any particular time solely because of the provision to the person, or to a partnership of which the person is a member, at the particular time of designated investment services by a Canadian service provider if

(a) in the event that the person not resident in Canada is an individual other than a trust, the person is not affiliated at the particular time with the Canadian service provider;

(b) in the event that the person not resident in Canada is a corporation or trust,

i. the person has not, before the particular time, directly or through a mandatary, sold a share of its capital stock or an interest in itself, such a share and such an interest in this section referred to as an "investment", that is outstanding at the particular time to a person who was a Canadian investor at the time of the sale and who is a Canadian investor at the particular time, nor directed any promotion of investments in itself principally at Canadian investors,

ii. the person has not, before the particular time, directly or through a mandatary, filed any document with a public authority in Canada in accordance with the securities legislation of Canada or of any province in order to permit the distribution of investments in the person to persons resident in Canada, and

iii. where the particular time is more than one year after the time at which the person was created, the total of the fair market value, at the particular time, of investments in the person that are beneficially owned by a person or partnership that is affiliated with the Canadian service provider and is not a designated entity in respect of the Canadian service provider, does not exceed 25% of the fair market value, at the particular time, of all investments in the person; and

(c) in the event that the person not resident in Canada is a member of a partnership,

i. the particular time is within one year after the time the partnership was formed,

ii. where the person not resident in Canada is, or is affiliated with, a person or partnership described in subparagraph 1 or 2, the fair market value, at the particular time, of all interests in the partnership is not less than four times the total of the fair market value of each interest in the partnership that is beneficially owned at the particular time by

(1) a particular person or a particular partnership (other than a designated entity in respect of the Canadian service provider), where persons or partnerships (other than designated entities in respect of the Canadian service provider) that are affiliated with the Canadian service provider are beneficial owners of more than 25% of the fair market value, at the particular time, of all shares of the particular person or all interests in the particular partnership, as the case may be, or

(2) a person or a partnership (other than a designated entity in respect of the Canadian service provider) that is affiliated with the Canadian service provider, or

iii. at the particular time, the person not resident in Canada is affiliated neither with the Canadian service provider nor with any person or partnership (other than the partnership to which the services are provided) described in subparagraph 1 or 2 of subparagraph ii.

For the purposes of this paragraph and subparagraph iii of subparagraph b and subparagraph ii of subparagraph c of the first paragraph,

(a) the fair market value of an investment in a corporation or trust or an interest in a partnership shall be determined without regard to any voting rights attaching to that investment; and

(b) a person or partnership is, at a particular time, a designated entity in respect of a Canadian service provider if the total of the fair market value, at the particular time, of investments in the designated entity or interests in the partnership, as the case may be, that are beneficially owned by a person or partnership that is affiliated with the Canadian service provider and is not another designated entity in respect of the Canadian service provider, does not exceed 25% of the fair market value, at the particular time, of all investments in the entity or of such interests, as the case may be.

1091.4. For the purposes of Title I.2 of Book XI of Part I, where section 1091.3 applies to a person that is a corporation or trust or to a partnership, if the Canadian service provider referred to in that section does not deal at arm's length with the promoter of the person or of the partnership, the Canadian service provider is deemed not to deal at arm's length with the person or partnership.

1092. A student, a professor or an employee not resident in Canada and contemplated in section 1093:

(a) is deemed to have been employed in Québec during the year for the purposes of section 26;

(b) has an income, for the purposes of paragraph g of each of sections 1089 and 1090, equal to the aggregate:

i. of the remuneration which he has received in the year in respect of an office or employment that was paid to him directly or indirectly by a person resident in Canada, except to the extent that such remuneration is attributable to the duties performed by him outside Canada and was subject to an income or profits tax imposed by the government of a country other than Canada, or was paid in connection with the selling of property, the negotiating of contracts or the rendering of services for his employer, a foreign affiliate of his employer or for another person with whom his employer does not deal at arm's length, in the ordinary course of a business carried on by his employer, that foreign affiliate or that other person;

ii. of amounts which, under paragraphs i of section 311 and g and h of section 312, would be included in computing his income for the year if he had been resident in Québec throughout the year, to the extent that such amounts are derived from a Canadian source; and

iii. of amounts described in paragraph e of section 1093 received by him in the year, except to the extent that they are otherwise required to be included in computing his income earned in Québec for the year;

iv. (subparagraph repealed);

(c) may deduct, in computing their income for the year, an amount that would be deductible under sections 348 to 350 if

i. paragraph a of section 349.1 were read as follows:

"(a) the relocation occurs to enable the individual to be a student in full-time attendance enrolled in a program at a post-secondary level at a location of a university, college or other educational institution, that institution being in this chapter referred to as "the new work location" ;", and

ii. the amounts mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph c of section 348 were those mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph b.

1972, c. 23, s. 816; 1973, c. 17, s. 126; 1975, c. 22, s. 245; 1979, c. 18, s. 74; 1984, c. 15, s. 239; 1986, c. 15, s. 194; 1993, c. 64, s. 185; 1994, c. 22, s. 350; 1995, c. 49, s. 233; 2001, c. 53, s. 247; 2015, c. 21, s. 500.

1093. Section 1092 applies to an individual not resident in Canada who, in a taxation year, is:

(a) a student attending on a full-time basis in Québec a university, college or other institution providing courses at a post-secondary level;

(b) a student attending courses, or a professor teaching in a university, college or other institution providing courses at the post-secondary level situated outside Canada, if such student or professor, during a previous taxation year, has ceased to be a resident of Québec in the course of attending that institution or teaching there as the case may be;

(c) an individual who, during a previous taxation year, has ceased to be a resident of Québec in order to carry on research or a similar work under a grant which he has received for that purpose;

(d) an individual

i. who has, in any previous taxation year, ceased to be resident in Québec, ii. who receives, in the year, salary or wages or other remuneration in respect of an office or employment that is paid to the individual directly or indirectly by a person resident in Canada, and

iii. who is, under a tax agreement, within the meaning of section 1, with one or more countries, entitled to an exemption from an income tax otherwise payable in any of those countries in respect of the salary or wages or other remuneration referred to in subparagraph ii; or

(e) an individual who receives in the year an amount, under a contract, that is or will be deductible in computing the income of a taxpayer subject to tax under Part I and that can, irrespective of the contract, reasonably be regarded as having been received, in whole or in part

i. as remuneration from an office or employment or compensation for services rendered in Québec; or

ii. as consideration for entering into a contract of service or an agreement to render such service in Québec, or for undertaking not to enter into such a contract or agreement with a third party.

TITLE III

TAXABLE QUÉBEC PROPERTY

1972, c. 23.

1094. For the purposes of this Part, taxable Québec property of a taxpayer at a particular time in a taxation year means

(a) an immovable property situated in Québec;

(b) property used in Québec by the taxpayer in carrying on a business, property used in Québec and included in Class 14.1 of Schedule B to the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1) in relation to a business, or property used in Québec and included in the inventory of a business, other than

i. property used in carrying on an insurance business, and

ii. where the taxpayer is not resident in Canada, ships and aircraft used principally in international traffic and movable property pertaining to their operation if the country in which the taxpayer is resident does not impose tax on gains of persons resident in Canada from dispositions of such property;

(b.1) any capital property used or held in Québec by an insurer in the year that is its designated insurance property, within the meaning of section 818, for the year;

(c) a share of the capital stock of a corporation (other than a mutual fund corporation) that is not listed on a designated stock exchange, an interest in a partnership or an interest in a trust (other than a unit of a mutual fund trust or an income interest in a trust resident in Canada), if, at any time during the 60-month period that ends at the particular time, more than 50% of the fair market value of the share or interest, as the case may be, was derived directly or indirectly (otherwise than through a corporation, partnership or trust the shares or interests in which were not themselves taxable Québec property) from one or any combination of

i. an immovable property situated in Québec,

ii. a Québec resource property within the meaning of subparagraph d of the first paragraph of section 1089, iii. a Québec timber resource property within the meaning of subparagraph e of the first paragraph of section 1089, and

iv. a right in or an option in respect of a property described in any of subparagraphs i to iii, whether or not the property exists; and

(c.1) (paragraph repealed);

(d) a share of the capital stock of a corporation that is listed on a designated stock exchange, a share of the capital stock of a mutual fund corporation or a unit of a mutual fund trust, if, at any time during the 60-month period that ends at the particular time,

i. 25% or more of the issued shares of any class of shares of the capital stock of the corporation, or 25% or more of the issued units of the trust, as the case may be, were owned by or belonged to one or any combination of the taxpayer, persons with whom the taxpayer did not deal at arm's length and partnerships in which the taxpayer or a person with whom the taxpayer did not deal at arm's length holds an interest directly or indirectly through one or more other partnerships, and

ii. more than 50% of the fair market value of the share or unit, as the case may be, was derived directly or indirectly from one or any combination of properties described in subparagraphs i to iv of paragraph c;

(e) (paragraph repealed);

(f) (paragraph repealed);

(g) (paragraph repealed);

(h) (paragraph repealed);

(h.1) (paragraph repealed);

(i) (paragraph repealed).

1972, c. 23, s. 818; 1973, c. 17, s. 128; 1973, c. 18, s. 29; 1975, c. 22, s. 246; 1984, c. 15, s. 241; 1986, c. 19, s. 199; 1996, c. 39, s. 273; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1998, c. 16, s. 243; 2001, c. 7, s. 155; 2004, c. 8, s. 191; 2005, c. 1, s. 279; 2010, c. 5, s. 188; 2011, c. 6, s. 215; 2015, c. 24, s. 155; 2017, c. 1, s. 370; 2019, c. 14, s. 436.

1095. For the purposes of this Part, the expression "taxable Canadian property" has the meaning that would be assigned by the definition of "taxable Québec property" in section 1094 if

(a) section 1094 were read as if "Québec property" and "Québec" were replaced, wherever they appear except in subparagraphs ii and iii of paragraph c, by "Canadian property" and "Canada", respectively;

(b) subparagraph ii of paragraph c of section 1094 were read as if "Québec resource property within the meaning of subparagraph d of the first paragraph of section 1089" were replaced by "Canadian resource property"; and

(c) subparagraph iii of paragraph c of section 1094 were read as if "Québec timber resource property within the meaning of subparagraph e of the first paragraph of section 1089" were replaced by "timber resource property".

1972, c. 23, s. 819; 2019, c. 14, s. 437.

1096. For the purposes of sections 1094 and 1095, a property is deemed to include, at a particular time, a right in or an option in respect of the property, whether or not the property exists at that time.

1975, c. 22, s. 247; 1986, c. 19, s. 200; 1993, c. 16, s. 347; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2001, c. 7, s. 156; 2011, c. 6, s. 216.

1096.1. If, in a taxation year, a person not resident in Canada ceases at any particular time to carry on a business described in paragraphs a to g of section 363 that the person was carrying on immediately before such cessation in one or more fixed places of business in Canada and either the person does not, after that time and during the same year, resume carrying on such a business at a fixed place of business in Canada or the person disposes of Canadian resource property at any time in the year during which the person was not carrying on such a business at a fixed place of business in Canada,

(a) in the case where the person is a corporation or a succession that is a graduated rate estate, a new taxation year is deemed to begin immediately after the particular time; and

(b) in the case where the person is an individual, other than a succession that is a graduated rate estate, the person's taxation year is deemed to end at the particular time and a new taxation year is deemed to begin immediately after that time.

1096.2. For the purposes of computing the income earned in Québec or the income earned in Canada by a person contemplated in section 1096.1 for the taxation year that ends at the particular time referred to in section 1096.1 or that begins immediately thereafter, such person or any partnership, other than a prescribed partnership, of which he is a member immediately after the particular time, is deemed, in the first case, to have disposed immediately before that time of each Canadian resource property that was owned by the person or partnership immediately after that time and to have received proceeds of disposition therefor, immediately before that time, equal to its fair market value at that time and, in the second case, to have reacquired, immediately after the particular time, each of such properties at a cost equal to the proceeds of disposition that the person or partnership is deemed to have received therefor.

1097. An individual not resident in Canada who proposes to dispose of any taxable Québec property other than property described in section 1102.1, property described in paragraph c or d of section 1094, or an excluded property may, before the disposition, send to the Minister a notice setting out

(a) the name and address of the proposed purchaser;

(b) a description of the property sufficiently precise to recognize it;

(c) the estimated amount of the proceeds of disposition to be received by him for such property; and

(d) the amount of the adjusted cost base of such property on the date of such notice.

The same rule applies in the case of a corporation not resident in Canada which proposes to dispose of a taxable Québec property which would be referred to in the first paragraph if that paragraph were read without reference to ", property described in paragraph c or d of section 1094,".

1972, c. 23, s. 820; 1973, c. 17, s. 129; 1982, c. 5, s. 199; 1984, c. 35, s. 31; 1996, c. 39, s. 261; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2001, c. 7, s. 157; 2004, c. 8, s. 192; 2011, c. 6, s. 217.

1098. The Minister shall issue without delay to the person contemplated in section 1097 and to the proposed purchaser upon receipt of the notice provided for in the said section and upon payment, on account of tax payable by such person, of an amount equal to 12.875% of the excess of the amount mentioned in subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1097 over that mentioned in subparagraph d of the said paragraph or upon the furnishing of a surety acceptable to the Minister in that respect, a certificate in prescribed form fixing the amount which such person proposes to receive from the disposition in accordance with subparagraph c of the said paragraph.

1099. Every person not resident in Canada shall, when the disposition of a property contemplated in section 1097 is made, give notice thereof to the Minister within ten days, by registered mail, where:

(a) the notice provided for in the said section has not been sent;

(b) the purchaser is not the proposed purchaser mentioned in the notice;

(c) the estimated amount mentioned in the notice provided for in section 1097 is less than the actual proceeds of disposition of such property;

(d) the amount of the adjusted cost base mentioned in the notice provided for in section 1097 in respect of such property exceeds its adjusted cost base immediately before its disposition.

Such notice must contain the information mentioned in subparagraphs a and b of the first paragraph of section 1097 and indicate the actual proceeds of disposition of the property and the amount of its adjusted cost base immediately before the disposition.

1972, c. 23, s. 822; 1975, c. 83, s. 84; 1986, c. 15, s. 196; 1997, c. 14, s. 290; 1999, c. 83, s. 273.

1100. The Minister shall issue without delay to the person contemplated in section 1099 and to the purchaser, upon receipt of the notice sent under the said section and upon payment, on account of tax payable by such person, of an amount equal to 12.875% of the excess of the proceeds of disposition of the property over its adjusted cost base immediately before its disposition or upon furnishing of a surety acceptable to the Minister in that respect, a certificate in prescribed form attesting such facts.

1101. Where a person, in this section referred to as the "purchaser", acquires a taxable Québec property contemplated in section 1097 from a person not resident in Canada, in this section referred to as the "vendor", the following rules apply:

(a) the purchaser is liable to pay to the Minister, as tax on behalf of the vendor, an amount equal to 12.875% of the amount by which the purchase price of the property to the purchaser exceeds, as the case may be, the amount set forth in the certificate issued under section 1098 in respect of the disposition of the property by the vendor to the purchaser;

(b) the purchaser is entitled to deduct from any amount which he pays to the vendor or to withhold from any amount which he credits him or to recover from him in any other manner the amount which he has paid under paragraph a;

(c) (subparagraph repealed);

(d) the purchaser shall within the 30 days after the end of the month in which he acquires the property, pay to the Minister the amount for which he is liable under subparagraph a.

The first paragraph does not apply to a purchaser if

(a) a certificate has been issued to the purchaser by the Minister under section 1100 in respect of the property;

(b) section 1101.1 applies to the acquisition; or

(c) after reasonable inquiry, the purchaser had no reason to believe that the vendor was not resident in Canada.

1972, c. 23, s. 824; 1973, c. 18, s. 31; 1975, c. 22, s. 248; 1984, c. 35, s. 32; 1991, c. 25, s. 175; 1997, c. 14, s. 290; 2003, c. 2, s. 287; 2009, c. 15, s. 369; 2015, c. 21, s. 503.

1101.1. This section applies to the acquisition of a property by a person (in this section referred to as the "purchaser") from a person not resident in Canada (in this section referred to as the "vendor") if

(a) the purchaser concludes after reasonable inquiry that the vendor is, under a tax agreement, within the meaning of section 1, that Canada has with a particular country, a person resident in the particular country;

(b) the property would be tax-agreement-protected property, within the meaning of section 1, of the vendor if the vendor were, under the tax agreement referred to in paragraph a, a person resident in the particular country; and

(c) the purchaser provides notice in accordance with section 1101.2 in respect of the acquisition.

2009, c. 15, s. 370.

1101.2. A person (in this section referred to as the "purchaser") who acquires a property from a person not resident in Canada (in this section referred to as the "vendor") provides notice in accordance with this section if the purchaser sends to the Minister, on or before the day that is 30 days after the date of the acquisition, a notice setting out

(a) the date of the acquisition of the property;

(b) the name and address of the vendor;

(c) a description of the property sufficient to identify it;

(d) the amount paid or payable by the purchaser for the property; and

(e) the name of the country with which Canada has entered into a tax agreement, within the meaning of section 1, under which the property is a tax-agreement-protected property, within the meaning of that section, for the purposes of section 1101.1 or 1102.5.

1102. Where a person not resident in Canada disposes or proposes to dispose of a property, other than excluded property, that is a life insurance policy described in subparagraph k of the first paragraph of section 1089, a Québec resource property within the meaning of subparagraph d of the first paragraph of section 1089 or a taxable Québec property, to a person with whom the person not resident in Canada was not dealing at arm's length, for no consideration or for consideration less than the fair market value at the time the person not resident in Canada so disposes of it or proposes to dispose of it, as the case may be, or to any person by way of gift inter vivos, the following rules apply:

(a) subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1097 must be read as a reference to "the amount he considers to be the fair market value of the property at the time he proposes to dispose of it";

(b) the reference in section 1098 to the amount which such person proposes to receive from the disposition must be read as a reference to the amount that such person considers to be the fair market value of the property;

(c) the references in sections 1099 and 1100 to the proceeds or actual proceeds of disposition of the property must be read as references to the fair market value of the property immediately before it was disposed of; and

(d) the references in sections 1101 and 1102.2 to the purchase price of the property must be read as references to its fair market value at the time it was acquired.

The first paragraph does not apply when, by reason of the death of a person, a property is transferred or distributed on or after his death.

1975, c. 22, s. 249; 1982, c. 5, s. 200; 1984, c. 15, s. 242; 1986, c. 15, s. 197; 1986, c. 19, s. 202; 2001, c. 7, s. 158; 2004, c. 8, s. 193; 2009, c. 15, s. 371.

1102.1. Where a person not resident in Canada disposes or proposes to dispose to a taxpayer, in a taxation year, property (other than excluded property) that is a life insurance policy described in subparagraph k of the first paragraph of section 1089, a Québec resource property within the meaning of subparagraph d of the first paragraph of section 1089, a Québec timber resource property within the meaning of subparagraph e of the first paragraph of section 1089, property (other than capital property) that is immovable property situated in Québec or depreciable property that is a taxable Québec property and the person not resident in Canada pays to the Minister, on account of tax payable for the year by the person not resident in Canada such an amount as is reasonable to the Minister in respect of the disposition or proposed disposition of the property or furnishes the Minister with security acceptable to the Minister in respect of the disposition or proposed disposition of the property, the Minister shall forthwith issue to the person not resident in Canada and to the taxpayer a certificate in prescribed form fixing therein the amount of the proceeds of disposition or proposed disposition of the property or such other amount as is reasonable in the circumstances.

Property described in the first paragraph includes, at a particular time, any right, interest or option in respect of the property, whether or not the property exists at that time.

1982, c. 5, s. 201; 1984, c. 15, s. 243; 1986, c. 19, s. 203; 1993, c. 16, s. 348; 2001, c. 7, s. 159; 2004, c. 8, s. 194; 2009, c. 5, s. 504; 2015, c. 24, s. 156; 2019, c. 14, s. 438.

1102.2. Where in a taxation year a taxpayer acquires from a person not resident in Canada property referred to in section 1102.1, the following rules apply:

(a) the taxpayer shall pay, as tax on behalf of such person, an amount equal to 30% of the amount by which his purchase price of the property exceeds the amount indicated in the certificate referred to in section 1102.1;

(b) the taxpayer is entitled to deduct or withhold from any amount paid or credited by him to such person or to otherwise recover from such person the amount paid by him under subparagraph a; and

(c) the taxpayer shall, within 30 days after the end of the month in which he acquired the property, remit to the Minister the amount for which he is liable under subparagraph a.

The first paragraph does not apply to a taxpayer if section 1101.1 applies to the acquisition or if, after reasonable inquiry, the taxpayer had no reason to believe that the person from whom the taxpayer acquired the property was not resident in Canada.

1982, c. 5, s. 201; 2009, c. 15, s. 372.

1102.3. Where a person not resident in Canada has disposed of a life insurance policy referred to in paragraph k of section 1089, by virtue of section 967 or of a surrender, a policy loan, the dissolution of an interest in the policy by virtue of the maturity of the policy or a particular payment referred to in paragraph a of section 966, the insurer is, for the purposes of sections 1102.1 and 1102.2, deemed to be the taxpayer who acquired the property for an amount equal to the proceeds of disposition as determined under sections 966 to 977.1.

1102.4. For the purposes of sections 1097, 1102 and 1102.1, excluded property of a person not resident in Canada means

(a) a property that is taxable Québec property solely because a provision of this Act deems it to be a taxable Québec property;

(a.1) property, other than an immovable property situated in Québec, a Québec resource property within the meaning of subparagraph d of the first paragraph of section 1089 or a Québec timber resource property within the meaning of subparagraph e of the first paragraph of that section, that is used in Québec by the person and included in the inventory of a business;

(b) a security listed on a recognized stock exchange, that is

i. a share of a class of shares of the capital stock of a corporation, or

ii. an investment in a SIFT wind-up entity;

(c) a unit of a mutual fund trust;

(d) a bond, debenture, bill, note, hypothecary claim, mortgage or similar obligation;

(e) property of an insurer not resident in Canada that i. is licensed or otherwise authorized under the laws of Canada or a province to carry on an insurance business in Canada, and

ii. carries on an insurance business, within the meaning of section 817, in Canada;

(f) property of an authorized foreign bank that carries on a Canadian banking business;

(g) an option in respect of property referred to in any of paragraphs a to f whether or not such property is in existence;

(h) an interest in property referred to in any of paragraphs a to g; and

(i) a property that is, at the time of its disposition, a tax-agreement-exempt property, within the meaning of section 1102.5, of the person.

2001, c. 7, s. 160; 2004, c. 8, s. 195; 2005, c. 1, s. 280; 2009, c. 5, s. 505; 2009, c. 15, s. 373; 2010, c. 5, s. 189; 2010, c. 25, s. 196.

1102.5. For the purposes of paragraph i of section 1102.4, a property is a tax-agreement-exempt property of a person not resident in Canada, at the time of that person's disposition of the property to another person (in this section referred to as the "purchaser"), if

(a) it is, at that time, a tax-agreement-protected property, within the meaning of section 1, of the person not resident in Canada; and

(b) if the purchaser and the person not resident in Canada are related at that time, the purchaser provides notice in accordance with section 1101.2 in respect of the disposition.

2009, c. 15, s. 374.

PART III

INVESTMENT INSTITUTIONS

1972, c. 23.

BOOK I

INVESTMENT CORPORATIONS

1972, c. 23; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1103. An investment corporation may, for the purpose of computing the tax contemplated in subsection 1 of section 771 for a taxation year, deduct from its taxable income for the year its taxed capital gains for the year.

1972, c. 23, s. 825; 1976, c. 18, s. 17; 1994, c 22, s. 336; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1104. For the purposes of this Book, a corporation is an investment corporation throughout any taxation year in respect of which the expression is being applied if it complies with the following conditions:

(a) it was throughout the year a Canadian corporation that was a public corporation;

(b) not less than 80% of its property throughout the year consisted of shares, bonds, marketable securities or cash;

(c) not less than 95% of its income, determined without reference to section 295, for the year was derived from, or from dispositions of, property described in paragraph b;

(d) not less than 85% of its gross revenue for the year was from sources in Canada;

(e) not more than 25% of its gross revenue for the year was from interest;

(f) at no time in the year did more than 10% of its property consist of shares, bonds or other securities of any one corporation or debtor other than the State or Her Majesty in right of Canada or a province, within the meaning of section 1, other than Québec, or other than a Canadian municipality;

(g) no person would have been a specified shareholder of the corporation in the year if

i. section 21.17 were read as if "not less than 10%" were replaced by "more than 25%" and without reference to "of any other corporation that is related to the corporation", ii. paragraph a of section 21.18 were read as if "with whom the taxpayer does not deal at arm's length" were replaced by "related to the taxpayer",

iii. section 21.18 were read without reference to paragraph d of that section, and

iv. paragraph a of subsection 1 of section 19 were read as follows:

"(a) an individual and

i. the individual's child, as defined in subparagraph d of the first paragraph of section 451, who is under 19 years of age, or

ii. the individual's spouse;"; and

(h) an amount of not less than 85% of the aggregate determined under section 1105, less any dividends or interest received by it in the form of shares, bonds or other securities that had not been sold before the end of the year, was distributed to its shareholders before the end of the year and otherwise than by way of a capital gains dividend.

1104.0.1. In this Book, "taxed capital gains" of a corporation for a taxation year means the amount by which its taxable capital gains for the year from the disposition of property exceed the aggregate of its allowable capital losses for the year from the disposition of property and the amount deducted under section 729 for the purpose of computing its taxable income for the year.

1994, c. 22, s. 337; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1104.1. Where a corporation so elects in the fiscal return it is required to file under this Act for a taxation year, each property of the corporation that is a share or indebtedness of another Canadian corporation that is, at any time in the year, a subsidiary wholly-owned corporation of the corporation is deemed, for the purposes of paragraphs b and f of section 1104 not to be owned by the corporation at that time, and each property owned by the other corporation at that time is deemed, for the purposes of the said paragraphs, to be owned by the corporation at that time.

1105. The aggregate to which paragraph h of section 1104 refers in respect of the corporation contemplated therein is the aggregate of the following amounts:

(a) 66 2/3% of the amount by which its taxable income for the year exceeds its taxed capital gains for the year; and

(b) the amount by which the taxable dividends received by the corporation during the year, to the extent that such dividends are deductible from its income for the year under sections 738 to 749, exceeds the amount that the corporation's non-capital losses for the year would be if the amount determined in paragraph b of section 28 in respect of the corporation for the year was nil.

1106. Where at any particular time a dividend becomes payable by a corporation that is an investment corporation throughout the taxation year during which the dividend becomes payable, the corporation may elect in prescribed manner, in respect of the full amount of the dividend, that the following rules apply:

(a) the dividend is deemed to be a capital gains dividend payable out of the corporation's capital gains dividend account, within the meaning of the regulations, to the extent that it does not exceed the corporation's capital gains dividend account at that time;

(b) despite any other provision of this Act, where an amount is received by a taxpayer in a taxation year as the dividend, the amount

i. shall not be included in computing the taxpayer's income for the year as income from a share of the capital stock of the corporation, and

ii. is deemed to be a capital gain of the taxpayer from the disposition by the taxpayer of a capital property in the year.

1106.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, an investment corporation that at any time would, but for this section, be a restricted financial institution is deemed not to be a restricted financial institution at that time, if before that time it has made the election prescribed in subsection 10 of section 131 of the Income Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter 1, 5th Supplement).

An investment corporation that has made the election referred to in the first paragraph shall transmit to the Minister, at or before the time the election was made, a copy of the documents it is required to file under subsection 10 of section 131 of the Income Tax Act.

1990, c. 59, s. 357; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1106.2. Division XIII of Chapter IV of Title IV of Book III of Part I and Chapters IV to VI of Title IX of that Book III do not apply to a taxpayer who holds a share (in this section referred to as the "old share") of a class of shares of the capital stock, that is recognized under securities legislation as or as part of an investment fund, of an investment corporation if the taxpayer exchanges or otherwise disposes of the old share for another share (in this section referred to as the "new share") of an investment corporation, unless

(a) if the exchange or disposition occurs in the course of a transaction, event or series of transactions or events described in section 541 or in subsections 1 and 2 of section 544,

i. all shares of the class (determined without reference to section 1.3) that includes the old share at the time of the exchange or disposition are exchanged for shares of the class that includes the new share,

ii. the old share and the new share derive their value in the same proportion from the same property or group of properties, and

iii. the transaction, event or series of transactions or events was undertaken solely for bona fide purposes and not to cause this section to apply; or

(b) if the old share and the new share are shares of the same class (determined without reference to section 1.3) of shares of the same investment corporation,

i. the old share and the new share derive their value in the same proportion from the same property or group of properties held by the corporation that is allocated to that class, and

ii. that class is recognized under securities legislation as or as part of a single investment fund.

2019, c. 14, s. 439.

1107. Unless otherwise provided in this Book, Part I applies, with the necessary modifications, to an investment corporation.

BOOK II

MORTGAGE INVESTMENT CORPORATIONS

1974, c. 18, s. 41; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1108. In this Book,

"mortgage investment corporation" has the meaning assigned by the regulations;

"taxed capital gains" has the meaning assigned by section 1104.0.1.

1109. A mortgage investment corporation may deduct in computing its income the taxable dividends, other than capital gains dividends, which it pays during the year or within the 90 days following the end of such year.

However, such deduction may be made only to the extent that such dividends were not deductible by the corporation in computing its income for the preceding year.

1974, c. 18, s. 41; 1978, c. 26, s. 212; 1996, c. 39, s. 273; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1110. A mortgage investment corporation may also deduct in computing its income, subject to the second paragraph, 1/2 of the capital gains dividends which it pays during the period beginning 91 days after the commencement of the year and ending 90 days after the end of such year.

However, where the year includes 28 February 2000 or 17 October 2000, or begins after 28 February 2000 and ends before 17 October 2000, the reference to the fraction "1/2" in the first paragraph shall be read as a reference to the fraction in paragraphs a to d of section 231.0.1 that applies to the corporation for the year.

1111. A mortgage investment corporation cannot make any deduction under sections 738 to 745.

1974, c. 18, s. 41; 1975, c. 22 s. 250; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1112. For the purposes of this Act, any amount received by a shareholder of a mortgage investment corporation as a taxable dividend other than a capital gains dividend, is deemed to have been received as interest on a bond issued by the corporation after 1971, where such dividend has been paid in a taxation year during the whole of which the corporation was a mortgage investment corporation or within the 90 days following the end of such year.

1113. Where a dividend is paid at any particular time during the period referred to in the first paragraph of section 1110, the mortgage investment corporation may elect in prescribed manner, in respect of the full amount of the dividend, that the following rules apply:

(a) the dividend is deemed to be a capital gains dividend to the extent that, subject to the second paragraph, it does not exceed the amount by which twice the taxed capital gains of the corporation for the year exceeds the aggregate of all dividends, and parts of dividends, paid by the corporation during the period and before the particular time that are deemed under this paragraph to be capital gains dividends; and

(b) despite any other provision of this Act, where an amount is received by a taxpayer in a taxation year as the dividend, the amount

i. shall not be included in computing the taxpayer's income for the year as income from a share of the capital stock of the corporation, and

ii. is deemed to be a capital gain of the taxpayer from the disposition by the taxpayer of a capital property in the year.

1974, c. 18, s. 41; 1986, c. 19, s. 204; 1987, c. 67, s. 198; 1990, c. 59, s. 359; 1994, c. 22, s. 341; 1996, c. 39, s. 264; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2003, c. 2, s. 291; 2017, c. 29, s. 208.

1113.1. (Repealed).

2003, c. 2, s. 292; 2017, c. 29, s. 209.

1113.2. (Repealed).

2003, c. 2, s. 292; 2017, c. 29, s. 209.

1113.3. (Repealed).

2003, c. 2, s. 292; 2017, c. 29, s. 209.

1113.4. (Repealed).

2003, c. 2, s. 292; 2017, c. 29, s. 209.

1114. For the purposes of this Act, a mortgage investment corporation is deemed to be a public corporation.

1974, c. 18, s. 41; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1115. Unless otherwise provided in this Book, Part I applies, with the necessary modifications, to a mortgage investment corporation.

1974, c. 18, s. 41; 1995, c. 63, s. 261; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

BOOK III

MUTUAL FUND CORPORATIONS

1972, c. 23; 1996, c. 39, s. 265.

1116. Where at any particular time a dividend becomes payable by a corporation that is a mutual fund corporation throughout the taxation year during which the dividend becomes payable, the corporation may elect in prescribed manner, in respect of the full amount of the dividend, that the following rules apply:

(a) the dividend is deemed to be a capital gains dividend payable out of the corporation's capital gains dividend account, within the meaning of the regulations, to the extent that it does not exceed the corporation's capital gains dividend account at that time;

(b) despite any other provision of this Act, where an amount is received by a taxpayer in a taxation year as the dividend, the amount

i. shall not be included in computing the taxpayer's income for the year as income from a share of the capital stock of the corporation, and

ii. is deemed to be a capital gain of the taxpayer from the disposition by the taxpayer of a capital property in the year.

1972, c. 23, s. 831; 1974, c. 18, s. 42; 1976, c. 18, s. 22; 1982, c. 5, s. 205; 1987, c. 67, s. 199; 1990, c. 59, s. 360; 1994, c. 22, s. 342; 1996, c. 39, s. 266; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2003, c. 2, s. 293; 2017, c. 29, s. 210.

1116.5. (Repealed).

2003, c. 2, s. 294; 2017, c. 29, s. 211.

1117. Subject to section 1117.1, a corporation is a mutual fund corporation at any time in a taxation year if, at that time, it is a prescribed corporation or:

(a) it is a Canadian corporation which is a public corporation;

(b) its only undertaking is

i. the investing of its funds in property, other than immovable property or a right in immovable property,

ii. the acquiring, holding, maintaining, improving, leasing or managing of any immovable property, or any right in immovable property, that is capital property of the corporation, or

iii. any combination of the activities described in subparagraphs i and ii;

(c) the issued shares of its capital stock include, for a value at least equal to 95% of the fair market value of all the issued shares, without regard to the voting rights:

i. shares including conditions requiring the corporation to redeem, upon application of the holder and at the price fixed and payable according to the conditions, the said shares, in whole or in part, if they are fully paid-up; or

ii. shares meeting the conditions prescribed as to their redemption.

1117.0.1. A corporation is deemed to be a mutual fund corporation from the date it was incorporated until 31 December 2017 or, if it is earlier, the date the corporation meets the conditions to qualify as a mutual fund corporation under section 1117, if it has made a valid election under paragraph d of subsection 8.01 of section 131 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1, 5th (Suppl.)).

1117.1. Where, at any time, it may reasonably be considered that a corporation, having regard to all the circumstances, including the terms and conditions of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation, was established or exists primarily for the benefit of persons not resident in Canada, the corporation is deemed not to be a mutual fund corporation after that time unless

(a) throughout the period that begins on the later of 21 February 1990 and the day of its incorporation and ends at that time, all or substantially all of its property consisted of property other than property that would be taxable Canadian property if section 1094 were read without reference to paragraph b thereof; or

(b) the corporation has not issued a share, other than a share issued as a stock dividend, of its capital stock after 20 February 1990 and before that time to a person that, after reasonable inquiry, it had reason to believe was not resident in Canada, except where the share was issued to that person pursuant to an agreement in writing entered into before 21 February 1990.

1993, c. 16, s. 352; 1996, c. 39, s. 273; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2004, c. 8, s. 196.

1118. The presumption provided in sections 504 to 510 in respect of the payment or receipt of a dividend does not apply if the corporation, at the time where such presumption would apply, is a mutual fund corporation.

1118.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, a mutual fund corporation that at any time would, but for this section, be a restricted financial institution is deemed not to be a restricted financial institution at that time, if before that time it has made the election contemplated in subsection 10 of section 131 of the Income Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter 1, 5th Supplement).

A mutual fund corporation that has made the election referred to in the first paragraph shall transmit to the Minister, at or before the time the election was made, a copy of the documents it is required to file under subsection 10 of section 131 of the Income Tax Act.

1990, c. 59, s. 361; 1996, c. 39, s. 273.

1118.2. Division XIII of Chapter IV of Title IV of Book III of Part I and Chapters IV to VI of Title IX of that Book III do not apply to a taxpayer who holds a share (in this section referred to as the "old share") of a class of shares of the capital stock, that is recognized under securities legislation as or as part of an investment fund, of a mutual fund corporation if the taxpayer exchanges or otherwise disposes of the old share for another share (in this section referred to as the "new share") of a mutual fund corporation, unless

(a) if the exchange or disposition occurs in the course of a transaction, event or series of transactions or events described in section 541 or in subsections 1 and 2 of section 544,

i. all shares of the class (determined without reference to section 1.3) that includes the old share at the time of the exchange or disposition are exchanged for shares of the class that includes the new share,

ii. the old share and the new share derive their value in the same proportion from the same property or group of properties, and

iii. the transaction, event or series of transactions or events was undertaken solely for bona fide purposes and not to cause this section to apply;

(b) if the old share and the new share are shares of the same class (determined without reference to section 1.3) of shares of the same mutual fund corporation,

i. the old share and the new share derive their value in the same proportion from the same property or group of properties held by the corporation that is allocated to that class, and

ii. that class is recognized under securities legislation as or as part of a single investment fund; or

(c) the exchange is made as a consequence of the application of section 11.1 of the Act constituting Capital régional et coopératif Desjardins (chapter C-6.1) in respect of the taxpayer.

2019, c. 14, s. 441.

1119. Section 1103 applies, with the necessary modifications, in respect of a taxation year, to a corporation which was a mutual fund corporation throughout the year and, unless otherwise provided in this Book, Part I applies, with the necessary modifications, to a mutual fund corporation.

1972, c. 23, s. 834; 1976, c. 18, s. 23; 1995, c. 63, s. 229; 1996, c. 39, s. 273; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

BOOK IV

MUTUAL FUND TRUST

1972, c. 23; 1996, c. 39, s. 273.

1120. Subject to section 1120.1, a trust is a mutual fund trust at any time if, at that time,

(a) it was a unit trust resident in Canada;

(b) its only undertaking was

i. the investing of its funds in property, other than immovable property or an interest in immovable property,

ii. the acquiring, holding, maintaining, improving, leasing or managing of any immovable property, or interest in immovable property, that is capital property of the trust, or

iii. any combination of the activities described in subparagraphs i and ii; and

(c) it complied with the prescribed conditions.

1120.0.0.1. Where an amount (in this section and section 1120.0.0.2 referred to as the "allocated amount") is paid or became payable to a beneficiary, in a taxation year, by a trust that is a mutual fund trust throughout the year, for the redemption of a unit of the trust that is owned by the beneficiary and where the beneficiary's proceeds from the disposition of the unit do not include the allocated amount, in computing the trust's income for the year no deduction may be made in respect of

(a) the portion of the allocated amount that would be, but for paragraph a of section 657, an amount paid out of the income (other than taxable capital gains) of the trust; and

(b) the portion of the allocated amount determined by the formula

$$A - 0.5 (B + C - D).$$

In the formula in subparagraph b of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the portion of the allocated amount that would be, but for paragraph a of section 657, an amount paid out of the taxable capital gains of the trust;

(b) B is the beneficiary's proceeds from the disposition of the unit on the redemption;

(c) C is the allocated amount; and

(d) D is the amount determined by the trustee to be the beneficiary's cost amount of the unit, the trustee being required to use reasonable efforts to obtain the information required to determine the cost amount.

2022, c. 23, s. 130; 2023, c. 19, s. 122.

1120.0.0.2. The following rules apply in respect of the redemption of units of a mutual fund trust in a taxation year referred to in section 1120.0.0.1:

(a) where all of the units offered in the taxation year by the mutual fund trust are listed on a designated stock exchange located in Canada and are in continuous distribution (in this section referred to as "exchange traded fund units"), subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1120.0.0.1 does not apply and no deduction may be made by the trust in computing its income for the taxation year in respect of the amount determined by the formula

A – [B/(C + B) × D]; and

(b) where the units offered by the mutual fund trust include exchange traded fund units and units that are not exchange traded fund units (in this section referred to as "non-exchange traded fund units"), the following rules apply:

i. in respect of redemptions of exchange traded fund units, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1120.0.0.1 does not apply, subparagraph a applies and the second paragraph is to be read

(1) as if subparagraph 2 of subparagraph ii of subparagraph b were replaced by the following subparagraph:

"(2) the portion of the net asset value of the trust at the end of the previous taxation year that relates to the exchange traded fund units;",

(2) as if subparagraph c were replaced by the following subparagraph:

"(c) C is the portion of the net asset value of the trust at the end of the taxation year that relates to the exchange traded fund units;", and

(3) as if subparagraph d were replaced by the following subparagraph:

"(d) D is the amount determined by the formula

E/C × F;", and

ii. in respect of redemptions of non-exchange traded fund units, in addition to the limitation provided for in subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1120.0.0.1, the aggregate of all amounts deductible in computing the trust's income for the taxation year in respect of the portion of the allocated amounts determined under subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1120.0.0.1, in respect of non-exchange traded fund units, may not exceed the amount determined by the formula

G/C × F.

In the formulas in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the portion of the aggregate of all allocated amounts for the taxation year in respect of redemptions of exchange traded fund units of the trust owned by beneficiaries of the trust during that taxation year that would be, but for paragraph a of section 657, amounts paid out of the trust's taxable capital gains;

(b) B is the lesser of

i. the aggregate of the amounts paid for redemptions of exchange traded fund units in the taxation year, and

ii. the greater of

(1) the amount determined under subparagraph c, and

(2) the net asset value of the trust at the end of the previous taxation year;

(c) C is the net asset value of the trust at the end of the taxation year;

(d) D is the amount that would be, but for paragraph a of section 657, the trust's net taxable capital gains determined under section 668.3 for the taxation year;

(e) E is the portion of the net asset value of the trust at the end of the taxation year that relates to the exchange traded fund units;

(f) F is the amount that would be, but for paragraph a of section 657, the trust's net taxable capital gains determined under section 668.3 for the taxation year; and

(g) G is the portion of the net asset value of the trust at the end of the taxation year that relates to the non-exchange traded fund units.

For the purposes of this section, "net asset value" has the meaning assigned by National Instrument 81-102 Investment Funds, as amended from time to time and published by the Canadian Securities Administrators.

2023, c. 19, s. 123.

1120.0.1. If a trust becomes a mutual fund trust at any particular time before the 91st day after the end of its first taxation year, and the trust makes a valid election under subsection 6.1 of section 132 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)) after 19 December 2006, the trust is deemed to have been a mutual fund trust from the beginning of that year until the particular time.

Chapter V.2 of Title II of Book I of Part I applies in relation to an election made under subsection 6.1 of section 132 of the Income Tax Act or in relation to an election made under this section before 20 December 2006.

2001, c. 7, s. 164; 2001, c. 53, s. 250; 2009, c. 5, s. 507.

1120.0.2. A trust is deemed to be a mutual fund trust throughout a calendar year where

(a) at any time in the year, the trust would, but for this section, have ceased to be a mutual fund trust

i. because the condition described in paragraph a of section 649 ceased to be satisfied, ii. because of the application of paragraph c of section 1120, or

iii. because the trust ceased to exist;

(b) the trust was a mutual fund trust at the beginning of the year; and

(c) the trust would, throughout the portion of the year throughout which it was in existence, have been a mutual fund trust if

i. in the case where the condition described in paragraph a of section 649 was satisfied at any time in the year, that condition was satisfied throughout the year,

ii. section 1120 were read without reference to paragraph c thereof, and

iii. this Book were read without reference to this section.

2003, c. 2, s. 295.

1120.1. Where, at any time, it may reasonably be considered that a trust, having regard to all the circumstances, including the terms and conditions of the units of the trust, was established or exists primarily for the benefit of persons not resident in Canada, the trust is deemed not to be a mutual fund trust after that time unless

(a) at that time, all or substantially all of its property is property other than property that would be taxable Canadian property of the trust if section 1094 was read without reference to its paragraph b; or

(b) the trust has not issued any units, other than units referred to in the second paragraph, after 20 February 1990 and before that time to a person who, after reasonable inquiry, it had reason to believe was not resident in Canada, except where the units were issued to that person under an agreement in writing entered into before 21 February 1990.

The units to which subparagraph b of the first paragraph refers are the following:

(a) a unit issued to a person as a payment of an amount out of the trust's income determined before the application of sections 657 and 657.1, or out of the trust's capital gains; or

(b) a unit issued to a person in consideration for the person's right to enforce payment of an amount out of the trust's income or capital gains referred to in subparagraph a.

1993, c. 16, s. 354; 1996, c. 39, s. 273; 2004, c. 8, s. 197; 2009, c. 5, s. 508.

1121. Part I applies to a mutual fund trust except that in section 667 the expression "dividend other than a taxable dividend" must be replaced by the expression "capital dividend".

1972, c. 23, s. 836; 1996, c. 39, s. 273.

1121.1. For the purposes of Part I, where a trust in its fiscal return filed under this Part for a taxation year throughout which it was a mutual fund trust designates a particular amount, established for the year under section 1121.2, in respect of a particular unit of the trust owned by a taxpayer at any time in the year, the following rules apply:

(a) the particular amount shall, subject to section 1121.4, be deductible in computing the income of the trust for the year;

(b) the particular amount shall be included in computing the income of the taxpayer for his taxation year in which the year of the trust ends, except that where the particular unit was owned by two or more taxpayers during the year, such part of the particular amount as the trust may determine shall, if the aggregate of all such parts is equal to that particular amount, be included in computing the income of each such taxpayer for his taxation year in which the year of the trust ends.

1121.2. The particular amount referred to in section 1121.1 for a taxation year of a mutual fund trust in respect of a particular unit thereof is equal to the aggregate of

(a) such amount as the trust may determine in respect of the particular unit for the year not exceeding the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts determined by it under section 670, as that section read before being repealed, for its taxation years commencing before 1 January 1988 exceeds the aggregate of those determined by it under this paragraph for the year or a preceding taxation year in respect of all its units, except the amount determined by it in respect of the particular unit for the year under this paragraph;

(b) such amount as the trust may determine in respect of the particular unit for the year not exceeding the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts described in subparagraph i.1 of paragraph n of section 257 that became payable by the trust after 31 December 1987 and before the year exceeds the aggregate of those determined by it under this paragraph for the year or a preceding taxation year in respect of all its units, except the amount determined by it in respect of the particular unit for the year under this paragraph.

1121.3. A taxpayer shall add, in computing, at any time in his taxation year, the adjusted cost base to him of a unit in a mutual fund trust, that part of the amount included in computing his income under section 1121.1 that is reasonably attributable to the amount determined under paragraph b of section 1121.2 by the trust for its taxation year ending in the year in respect of the unit owned by the taxpayer.

1121.4. The aggregate of amounts deductible under paragraph a of section 1121.1 in computing the income of a trust for a taxation year shall not exceed the amount that would be the income of the trust for the year if no deductions were allowed under paragraph a of section 657 and section 1121.1.

1990, c. 59, s. 362.

1121.5. For the purposes of paragraph a of section 1121.1 and section 1121.4, the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount designated by a trust for a particular taxation year under section 1121.1 exceeds the amount deductible under section 1121.1 in computing its income for the particular year is deemed to be an amount designated by the trust under section 1121.1 for its taxation year following the particular year.

1990, c. 59, s. 362.

1121.6. For the purposes of paragraph a of section 1121.1, a particular amount designated under the said section for a taxation year of a mutual fund trust in respect of a unit of the trust owned at any time in the year by a taxpayer who was a person exempt from tax under this Part by reason of Book VIII of Part I shall have no effect where it is reasonable to conclude that an amount determined by the trust under paragraph a or b of section 1121.2 for the year in respect of the unit or, in respect of the amount designated, under paragraph b of section 1121.1 differs from the amount that would have been so determined for the year in respect of the taxpayer had he not been such a person.

1121.7. Despite any other provision of this Act and subject to the second paragraph, if a trust has made a valid election under subsection 1 of section 132.11 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)), other than an election in respect of which the rules set out in subsection 1.1 of section 132.11 of that Act apply as a result of an application made by the trust under that subsection 1.1 and granted by the Minister of National Revenue before 20 December 2006, the following rules apply:

(a) if a taxation year of the trust (determined for the purposes of the Income Tax Act) ends, because of paragraph a of subsection 1 of section 132.11 of that Act, on 15 December of a particular calendar year, the trust's taxation year (determined for the purposes of this Act) that includes that date is deemed to end on that date; and

(b) if a taxation year of the trust (determined for the purposes of the Income Tax Act) ends, because of paragraph a of subsection 1 of section 132.11 of that Act, on 15 December of a particular calendar year, each of its taxation years (determined for the purposes of this Act) that end after that date is deemed, subject to section 1121.7.1, to be the period that begins on 16 December of a calendar year and ends on 15 December of the following calendar year or at such earlier time as is determined under paragraph a or b of section 6.2, paragraph a.1 of section 785.1, paragraph b of section 785.5 or paragraph a.1 of section 851.22.23.

If, because of a particular election made under subsection 1 of section 132.11 of the Income Tax Act, a particular taxation year of a trust (determined for the purposes of that Act) ended on 15 December 2006 and if a taxation year of the trust (determined for the purposes of this Act) ended on 31 December 2005, the following rules apply:

(a) if paragraph a of subsection 1.1 of section 132.11 of that Act does not apply in respect of the taxation year of the trust that follows the particular taxation year,

i. subparagraph b of the first paragraph does not apply in respect of a taxation year of the trust (determined for the purposes of this Act) that began before 16 December 2007, and

ii. the taxation year of the trust (determined for the purposes of this Act) that includes 15 December 2007 is deemed to end on that date and a new taxation year of the trust (determined for the purposes of this Act) is deemed to begin immediately after that date; and

(b) if paragraph a of subsection 1.1 of section 132.11 of that Act applies in respect of the taxation year of the trust that follows the particular taxation year, the first paragraph applies as if the particular election had not been made.

Chapter V.2 of Title II of Book I of Part I applies in relation to an election made under subsection 1 of section 132.11 of the Income Tax Act.

1121.7.1. If, for the purposes of this Act, a particular taxation year of a trust ends on 15 December of a calendar year because of an election referred to in section 1121.7 or because of the second paragraph of that section, if the trust applies to the Minister of National Revenue, in accordance with subsection 1.1 of section 132.11 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)), to have that subsection 1.1 apply in relation to its taxation years that follow the particular year, and if the Minister of National Revenue grants the application after 19 December 2006, the following rules apply:

(a) the trust's taxation year following the particular year is deemed to begin immediately after the end of the particular year and end at the end of that calendar year; and

(b) each subsequent taxation year of the trust is deemed to be determined as if that election had not been made.

Chapter V.2 of Title II of Book I of Part I applies in relation to an application made under subsection 1.1 of section 132.11 of the Income Tax Act and granted by the Minister of National Revenue.

2004, c. 8, s. 199; 2009, c. 5, s. 510.

1121.8. Where a trust is a member of a partnership a fiscal period of a business or property of which ends in a calendar year after 15 December of the year and a particular taxation year of the trust ends on 15 December of the year because of section 1121.7, each amount otherwise determined under paragraph f or g of section 600 to be the trust's income or loss for a taxation year subsequent to that year is deemed to be the trust's income or loss determined under that paragraph for the particular year and not for the subsequent year.

1121.9. Where a particular trust is a beneficiary under another trust a taxation year of which, in this section referred to as the "other year", ends in a calendar year after 15 December of the year and a particular taxation year of the particular trust ends on 15 December of the year because of section 1121.7, each amount otherwise determined or designated under section 663, 666, 668, 669.3 or 671 for the other year that would otherwise be included, or taken into account, in computing the income of the particular trust for a taxation year subsequent to that year shall be included, or taken into account, in computing the particular trust's income for the particular year and not be included, or taken into account, in computing the particular trust's income for the subsequent year.

1121.10. For the purposes of subparagraph e of the second paragraph of section 248, section 306, paragraph a of section 657 and sections 657.1, 663, 1121.11 and 1121.12 and despite section 652, each amount that is paid, or that becomes payable, by a trust to a beneficiary after the end of a particular taxation year of the trust that ends on 15 December of a calendar year because of section 1121.7 and before the end of that calendar year is deemed to have been paid or to have become payable, as the case may be, to the beneficiary at the end of the particular taxation year.

1121.11. Where an amount is deemed by section 1121.10 to have been paid or to have become payable on 15 December of a calendar year by a trust to a beneficiary who was not a beneficiary under the trust at that time, the following rules apply:

(a) notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, where the beneficiary did not exist at that time, except for the purposes of this paragraph, the first taxation year of the beneficiary is deemed to include the period that begins at that time and ends immediately before the beginning of the first taxation year of the beneficiary;

(b) the beneficiary is deemed to exist throughout the period described in paragraph a; and

(c) where the beneficiary was not a beneficiary under the trust at that time, the beneficiary is deemed to have been a beneficiary under the trust at that time.

2001, c. 53, s. 251.

1121.12. Where a particular amount is designated under this section by a trust in its fiscal return for a particular taxation year that ends on 15 December because of section 1121.7 or throughout which the trust was a mutual fund trust and the trust does not designate an amount in accordance with the first paragraph of sections 663.1 and 663.2 for the particular year, the following rules apply:

(a) the particular amount shall be added in computing the trust's income for the particular year; and

(b) for the purposes of paragraph a of section 657 and sections 657.1 and 663, each portion of the particular amount that is allocated under this paragraph to a beneficiary under the trust in the trust's fiscal return for the particular year in respect of an amount paid or payable to the beneficiary in the particular year shall be considered to be additional income of the trust for the particular year, determined without reference to paragraph a of section 657 and section 657.1, that was paid or payable, as the case may be, to the beneficiary at the end of the particular year;

(c) (paragraph repealed).

1121.13. Subject to section 1121.14, the lesser of the amount designated under section 1121.12 by a trust for a taxation year and the aggregate of all amounts each of which is allocated by the trust under paragraph b of section 1121.12 in respect of the year shall be deducted in computing the trust's income for the subsequent taxation year.

2001, c. 53, s. 251.

1121.14. Section 1121.13 does not apply in computing the income of a trust for a taxation year where it is reasonable to consider that the designation under section 1121.12 for the preceding taxation year was part of a series of transactions or events that includes a change in the composition of beneficiaries under the trust.

2001, c. 53, s. 251.

BOOK V

NON-RESIDENT OWNED INVESTMENT CORPORATIONS

1972, c. 23; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1122. A non-resident owned investment corporation is a corporation incorporated in Canada which, throughout the period comprised between 18 June 1971 or the date of its incorporation, if the latter date is later than the first, and the last day of the taxation year for which the expression is relevant, has met the following requirements:

(a) the aggregate of its issued shares, bonds, debentures and other long-term liabilities

i. belonged to persons not resident in Canada other than a foreign affiliate of a taxpayer resident in Canada, ii. belonged to a trustee who held them for a beneficiary not resident in Canada or for a child to be born to such beneficiary, or

iii. belonged to another non-resident owned investment corporation whose issued shares, bonds, debentures and other long-term liabilities were those described in subparagraphs i and ii or belonged to two or more corporations of that kind;

(b) its income, for each taxation year of the period, was derived from

i. the ownership of or trading in bonds, shares, debentures, bills, notes, hypothecary claims, mortgages or other similar property, or an interest therein,

ii. lending money, with or without security,

iii. rents, the leasing of movable property, fees or remuneration from charter-parties, annuities, royalties, interest or dividends,

iv. a succession or a trust, or

v. the disposition of capital property;

(c) not more than 10 per cent of its gross revenue, for each taxation year of the period, was derived from rents, the rental of movable property, fees or remuneration from charter-parties; and

(d) its principal business did not consist, for each taxation year of the period, in lending money or trading in the property contemplated in subparagraph i of paragraph b or of an interest therein.

1972, c. 23, s. 837; 1996, c. 39, s. 268; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1997, c. 14, s. 262; 1998, c. 16, s. 251; 2005, c. 1, s. 281.

1122.1. Notwithstanding section 1122, a corporation is not a non-resident-owned investment corporation in any taxation year that ends after the earlier of,

(a) the first time after 27 February 2000 at which the corporation effects an increase in capital; and

(b) the end of the corporation's last taxation year that begins before 1 January 2003.

For the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph, an increase in capital in respect of a corporation means a transaction, other than a transaction carried out pursuant to an agreement in writing made before 28 February 2000 and referred to in this paragraph as a "specified transaction", in the course of which the corporation issues additional shares of its capital stock or incurs indebtedness, if the transaction has the effect of increasing the aggregate of the corporation's liabilities and the fair market value of all the shares of its capital stock to an amount that is substantially greater than that aggregate would have been on 27 February 2000 if all specified transactions had been carried out before that date.

2004, c. 8, s. 201.

1123. A non-resident owned investment corporation qualifies as such for a taxation year only if it meets the prescribed conditions.

1972, c. 23, s. 838; 1976, c. 18, s. 24; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1124. Notwithstanding section 1122, a new corporation, within the meaning given to it by section 544, formed by the amalgamation after 18 June 1971, of two or more replaced corporations shall qualify as a corporation contemplated in section 1122 only if the replaced corporations were themselves non-resident owned investment corporations immediately before the amalgamation.

1972, c. 23, s. 839; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1125. Except for the purposes of sections 544 and 566 to 568, a non-resident owned investment corporation which would, but for this section, be a Canadian corporation, a taxable Canadian corporation or a private corporation, is nevertheless deemed not to be such a corporation.

1972, c. 23, s. 840; 1973, c. 17, s. 132; 1978, c. 26, s. 213; 1986, c. 19, s. 205; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1125.1. If a non-resident-owned investment corporation makes, at a particular time, a valid election for the purposes of subsection 1 of section 134.2 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)), a new taxation year of the corporation is deemed to begin at that time.

Where an election to which the first paragraph refers was made, the prescribed form, together with a copy of every document transmitted to the Minister of Revenue of Canada in connection with that election, shall be transmitted to the Minister.

2004, c. 8, s. 202; 2009, c. 5, s. 511.

1126. Except for the purposes of section 1122, the income for a taxation year of a non-resident owned investment corporation having an establishment in Québec at any time during the year must be computed by taking into account only the taxable capital gains and allowable capital losses of the corporation for the year resulting from the disposition of taxable Canadian property within the meaning of section 1095.

1976, c. 18, s. 25; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2004, c. 8, s. 203.

1127. The taxable income for a taxation year of the corporation contemplated in section 1126 is its income for the year determined in accordance with the said section from which the corporation may deduct no amount other than that prescribed for the year under section 729 in respect of the disposition of property contemplated in section 1126.

1128. A non-resident owned investment corporation which does not have, at any time in a taxation year, an establishment in Canada and which disposes of a taxable Québec property within the meaning of paragraphs a and b of section 1094 must pay tax for the year at the rate established in subsection 1 of section 771 on the amount by which its taxable capital gains for the year resulting from the disposition of such property exceed the aggregate of its allowable capital losses for the year resulting from the disposition of such property and the net capital losses incurred by it in respect of the disposition of such property during the preceding taxation years and the three taxation years following the taxation year.

However, such tax shall not exceed that which the corporation would have to pay for the year if the expression "taxable Québec property within the meaning of paragraphs a and b of section 1094" contained in the first paragraph were replaced by the expression "taxable Canadian property within the meaning of section 1095" to the extent that such section refers to paragraphs a and b of section 1094.

1129. Except where otherwise provided in this Book, Part I applies, with the necessary modifications, to a non-resident owned investment corporation.

1972, c. 23, s. 842; 1976, c. 18, s. 27; 1995, c. 63, s. 261; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

PART III.0.0.1

RULES AND DEFINITIONS APPLICABLE TO CERTAIN SPECIAL TAXES

2001, c. 51, s. 204; 2007, c. 12, s. 222.

1129.0.0.1. In Parts III.0.1, III.1 to III.1.0.5, III.1.1, III.1.1.2, III.1.1.3, III.1.1.7, III.10 and III.10.1 to III.10.2, "government assistance" and "non-government assistance" have the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.6.0.0.1.

However, an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in any of Parts III.0.1, III.1 to III.1.0.5, III.1.1, III.1.1.2, III.1.1.3, III.1.1.7, III.10 and III.10.1 to III.10.2, does not include an amount that, in accordance with the second paragraph of section 1029.6.0.0.1, is not government assistance or non-government assistance, as the case may be, for the purposes of the division of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I to which that Part relates.

In this Part and in Parts III.0.1 to III.2.8, III.6.3 to III.6.7, III.7.1 to III.13 and III.15 to III.16,

"filing-due date" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"fiscal period" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

"individual" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"person" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"taxation year" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

"taxpayer" has the meaning assigned by section 1.

2001, c. 51, s. 204; 2002, c. 9, s. 121; 2002, c. 40, s. 232; 2007, c. 12, s. 223; 2009, c. 5, s. 512; 2010, c. 25, s. 197; 2013, c. 10, s. 153; 2015, c. 21, s. 504; 2017, c. 1, s. 373; 2021, c. 18, s. 153.

1129.0.0.2. If, at a particular time after 21 April 2005, a person or partnership has obtained a benefit or advantage that, for the purpose of computing an amount that a taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister for any given taxation year under a particular provision of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I other than a provision of any of Divisions II.6 to II.6.0.0.5 of that chapter, or deemed to have overpaid to the Minister in relation to any given taxation year, under section 34.1.9 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec (chapter R-5), would have been taken into account in computing a cost, an expenditure or expenses, or the taxpayer's share of a cost, an expenditure or expenses, if the person or partnership had obtained it, had been entitled to obtain it or could reasonably have expected to obtain it on or before the taxpayer's filing-due date for the given taxation year or on or before the day that is six months after the end of the fiscal period of a particular partnership of which the taxpayer is a member that ends in the given taxation year, the benefit or advantage is, for the purposes of the Part among Parts III.0.1 to III.0.3, III.1.0.6 to III.1.7, III.7.1 to III.10.10 and III.12.1 that relates to the particular provision,

(a) if the cost, expenditure or expenses were incurred by the taxpayer, deemed to be an amount relating to the cost, expenditure or expenses that is paid to the taxpayer at that time;

(b) if the cost, expenditure or expenses were incurred by the particular partnership, deemed to be

i. an amount relating to the cost, expenditure or expenses that is paid to the particular partnership at that time, when the benefit or advantage was obtained by a partnership or by a person other than a person referred to in subparagraph ii, or

ii. an amount relating to the cost, expenditure or expenses or relating to the taxpayer's share of the cost, expenditure or expenses that is paid to the taxpayer at that time, when the benefit or advantage was obtained by the taxpayer or by a person with whom the taxpayer does not deal at arm's length; and

(c) if the cost, expenditure or expenses were incurred by any corporation other than the taxpayer, deemed to be an amount relating to the cost, expenditure or expenses that is paid to the corporation at that time.

However, when the first paragraph applies to any of the Parts mentioned in the following subparagraphs, it is to be read as if

(a) in the case of Part III.0.1, the portion before subparagraph a was read without reference to "or on or before the day that is six months after the end of the fiscal period of a particular partnership of which the taxpayer is a member that ends in the given taxation year";

(b) in the case of any of Parts III.0.1, III.7.1 and III.10.2, subparagraph b was replaced by the following subparagraph:

"(b) if the cost, expenditure or expenses were incurred by the particular partnership, deemed to be an amount relating to the cost, expenditure or expenses that is paid to the particular partnership at that time; and"; and

(c) in the case of Part III.10.2, subparagraph c was replaced by the following subparagraph:

"(c) if the cost, expenditure or expenses were incurred by a person other than the taxpayer or by a partnership other than the particular partnership, deemed to be an amount relating to the cost, expenditure or expenses that is paid to the person or partnership at that time."

2007, c. 12, s. 224.

1129.0.0.3. If, at a particular time after 21 April 2005, a person or partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain a benefit or advantage that, for the purpose of computing an amount that a taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister for any given taxation year under a particular provision of any of Divisions II.6 to II.6.0.0.5 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, would have been taken into account in computing an expenditure or expenses if the person or partnership had obtained it, had been entitled to obtain it or could reasonably have expected to obtain it on or before the taxpayer's filing-due date for the given taxation year, the benefit or advantage is deemed, for the purposes of the Part among Parts III.1 to III.1.0.5 that relates to the particular provision, to be non-government assistance that the taxpayer has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, as the case may be, at that particular time.

1129.0.0.4. If, at a particular time after 21 April 2005, a person or partnership pays, pursuant to a legal obligation, a particular amount that may reasonably be considered to be the repayment of a benefit or advantage that, for the purpose of computing an amount (in this section referred to as the "credit amount") that a taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister for any given taxation year under a particular provision of any of Divisions II.6.0.1.7 and II.6.6.1 to II.6.7 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, was taken into account in computing an expenditure or the taxpayer's share of an expenditure, the following rules have effect, where applicable, for the purposes of the Part among Parts III.1.1.7 and III.10.1.2 to III.10.2 that relates to the particular provision:

(a) if the expenditure was incurred by the taxpayer, the provision of that Part that applies in respect of the repayment by the taxpayer of an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance relating to the expenditure also applies in respect of the repayment of the benefit or advantage as if

i. the particular amount were an amount paid by the taxpayer at that time, pursuant to a legal obligation, as the repayment of non-government assistance referred to in that provision, and

ii. for the purpose of computing the credit amount for the given taxation year, the benefit or advantage had not been treated as a benefit or advantage but as non-government assistance that, in relation to the expenditure, was received by the taxpayer;

(b) if the expenditure was incurred by a particular partnership of which the taxpayer is a member, the provision of that Part that applies in respect of the repayment by the partnership of an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance relating to the expenditure also applies in respect of the repayment of the benefit or advantage as if

i. the particular amount were an amount paid by the particular partnership at that time, pursuant to a legal obligation, as the repayment of non-government assistance referred to in that provision, and

ii. for the purpose of computing the credit amount for the given taxation year, the benefit or advantage had not been treated as a benefit or advantage but as non-government assistance that, in relation to the expenditure, was received by the particular partnership;

(c) if the expenditure was incurred by any corporation other than the taxpayer, the provision of that Part that applies in respect of the repayment by the corporation of an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance relating to the expenditure also applies in respect of the repayment of the benefit or advantage as if

i. the particular amount were an amount paid by the corporation at that time, pursuant to a legal obligation, as the repayment of non-government assistance referred to in that provision, and

ii. for the purpose of computing the credit amount for the given taxation year, the benefit or advantage had not been treated as a benefit or advantage but as non-government assistance that, in relation to the expenditure, was received by the corporation; and

(d) the assumptions that, because of the application of any of subparagraphs a to c, were made in respect of the benefit or advantage must be taken into account for the purpose of applying, in relation to the taxpayer, the provision to which that subparagraph refers, in respect of the repayment, after that time, of government assistance or non-government assistance or of another benefit or advantage, relating to the expenditure or to such an expenditure.

However, for the purposes of Part III.10.2, subparagraph c of the first paragraph is to be read as follows:

"(c) if the expenditure was incurred by a person other than the taxpayer or by a partnership other than the particular partnership to which subparagraph b refers, the provision of that Part that applies in respect of the repayment by the person or partnership of an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance relating to the expenditure also applies in respect of the repayment of the benefit or advantage as if

i. the particular amount were an amount paid by the person or partnership at that time, pursuant to a legal obligation, as the repayment of non-government assistance referred to in that provision, and

ii. for the purpose of computing the credit amount for the given taxation year, the benefit or advantage had not been treated as a benefit or advantage but as non-government assistance that, in relation to the expenditure, was received by the person or partnership."

2007, c. 12, s. 224; 2010, c. 25, s. 198; 2021, c. 18, s. 154.

1129.0.0.4.1. In Parts III.0.1 to III.10.10, the following rules apply in respect of a taxpayer for a taxation year if one or more partnerships (each of which is in this section referred to as an "interposed partnership") are interposed between the taxpayer and a given partnership for a given fiscal period of the given partnership, and if the taxpayer is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister for a preceding taxation year under Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, in respect of a cost, an expenditure or expenses incurred by that given partnership in a fiscal period of that given partnership that precedes the given fiscal period (in this section referred to as the "preceding fiscal period"):

(a) the taxpayer is deemed to be a member of a particular partnership at the end of a particular fiscal period of the particular partnership and that particular fiscal period is deemed to end in the taxpayer's taxation year in which ends the fiscal period of the interposed partnership of which the taxpayer is directly a member, if

i. the particular fiscal period is that which ends in the fiscal period (in this section referred to as the "interposed fiscal period") of the interposed partnership that is a member of the particular partnership at the end of that particular fiscal period, and

ii. the taxpayer is a member, or deemed to be a member under this paragraph, of the interposed partnership described in subparagraph i at the end of the interposed partnership's interposed fiscal period;

(b) the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the given partnership's given fiscal period is deemed to be equal to the product obtained by multiplying the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the interposed fiscal period of the interposed partnership of which the taxpayer is directly a member, by

i. if there is only one interposed partnership, the agreed proportion in respect of the interposed partnership for the given partnership's given fiscal period, or

ii. if there is more than one interposed partnership, the result obtained by multiplying together all proportions each of which is the agreed proportion in respect of an interposed partnership for the particular fiscal period of the particular partnership referred to in paragraph a of which the interposed partnership is a member at the end of that particular fiscal period; and

(c) if, at a particular time in the given fiscal period, an amount relating to a cost, an expenditure or expenses that the given partnership has incurred in the preceding fiscal period is, or is deemed to be under this subparagraph, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to an interposed partnership, or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the share in that amount of each of the members of that interposed partnership at the end of the interposed partnership's interposed fiscal period, that is equal to the agreed proportion of that amount in respect of that member for the interposed partnership's interposed fiscal period, is deemed to be, at the particular time, so refunded or paid to that member or allocated to a payment to be made by that member.

1129.0.0.4.2. If, at any time in a taxation year, a certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document is revoked or replaced and, as a result, a person is required to pay a tax under a provision of any of Parts III.1 to III.1.7 and III.10.1.1.1 to III.10.9.1, the Minister may make, as of that time and despite any other provision of this Act, an assessment for the year in respect of the person, in relation to the tax.

For the purposes of section 1037 in respect of the tax, the person's balance-due day for that taxation year is deemed to be the date on which the notice of assessment is sent, unless that date is later than the balance-due day.

Sections 1000 to 1000.3 and 1002 to 1004 do not apply in relation to a tax that may be the subject of an assessment made under the first paragraph, despite any provision to the contrary in the Part under which the tax is payable.

2012, c. 8, s. 242.

1129.0.0.5. Unless otherwise provided, sections 6 and 17 to 21 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2007, c. 12, s. 224.

1129.0.0.6. In every provision of this Part and Parts III.0.1, III.0.1.1, III.0.3, III.1.0.6 to III.1.1.1, III.1.1.6, III.1.1.7, III.1.3 to III.1.7, III.2.7, III.7.1, III.8, III.10.0.1, III.10.1.1 to III.10.1.1.2, III.10.1.2 to III.10.1.7, III.10.1.8, III.10.2 to III.10.9.1 and III.12.1, a reference to any of the repealed divisions of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, or to any section of those divisions, is a reference to that division or to that section, as the case may be, as it read for the taxation year concerned.

PART III.0.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO VARIOUS SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH AND EXPERIMENTAL DEVELOPMENT TAX CREDITS

1999, c. 83, s. 240.

1129.0.1. In this Part,

"consideration" has the meaning assigned by Division II of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I;

"contract payment" has the meaning assigned by paragraph c of section 1029.8.17;

"eligible amount" of a corporation for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.16.2;

"eligible fee" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.9.0.2;

"eligible fee balance" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.9.0.2;

"eligible research contract" has the meaning assigned by paragraph a.2 of section 1029.8.1;

"qualified expenditure" has the meaning assigned by paragraph d.1 of section 1029.8.1 or section 1029.8.9.1 or 1029.8.16.1.1, as the case may be;

"scientific research and experimental development" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"university research contract" has the meaning assigned by paragraph b of section 1029.8.1;

"wages" has the meaning assigned by Division II of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I.

1129.0.2. Every taxpayer who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.7, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I, in relation to scientific research and experimental development, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which

(a) an amount relating to wages or a portion of a consideration paid in respect of the research and development, or in respect of work relating to the research and development, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer; or

(b) a contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance is received by a person or partnership and the contract payment or assistance would have reduced, in accordance with subparagraph i or ii of subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.18, the amount of a portion of a consideration paid in respect of the research and development, or in respect of work relating to the research and development, if the person or partnership had received it, had been entitled to receive it or could reasonably have expected to receive it on or before the taxpayer's filing-due date for the taxation year in which the research and development was undertaken.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.7, in relation to the research and development, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section, in relation to the research and development, if

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the repayment year, in relation to wages or a portion of a consideration paid by the taxpayer in respect of the research and development, or in respect of work relating to the research and development, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year in which the scientific research and experimental development to which the wages or portion of the consideration relate was undertaken, and

ii. every contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph that is received by a person or partnership at or before the end of the repayment year, were received in the taxation year in which the scientific research and experimental development to which the contract payment or assistance relates was undertaken; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the research and development.

1129.0.3. Every taxpayer who is a member of a particular partnership and who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I, in relation to scientific research and experimental development, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for the taxation year in which ends a fiscal period of the particular partnership (in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment") in which

(a) an amount relating to wages or a portion of a consideration paid in respect of the research and development, or in respect of work relating to the research and development, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the particular partnership or taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the particular partnership or taxpayer; or

(b) a contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance is received by a person or another partnership and the contract payment or assistance would have reduced, in accordance with subparagraph i or ii of subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.18, the amount of a portion of a consideration paid in respect of the research and development, or in respect of work relating to the research and development, if the person or the other partnership had received it, had been entitled to receive it or could reasonably have expected to receive it on or before the day that is six months after the end of the particular partnership's fiscal period in which the research and development was undertaken.

under section 1029.8, in relation to the research and development, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the particular partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section, for a taxation year, in relation to the research and development, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the particular partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment and if

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, in relation to wages or a portion of a consideration that the particular partnership paid in respect of the research and development, or in respect of work relating to the research and development, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular partnership's fiscal period in which the scientific research and experimental development to which the wages or portion of the consideration relate was undertaken, and

ii. every contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph that is received by a person or another partnership at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, were received in the particular partnership's fiscal period in which the scientific research and experimental development to which the contract payment or assistance relates was undertaken; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer would be required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the research and development, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the particular partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the particular partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the particular partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the fiscal period of repayment.

1129.0.4. Every taxpayer who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.6, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I, in relation to a university research contract or an eligible research contract under which scientific research and experimental development was undertaken, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which

(a) an amount relating to a qualified expenditure paid in respect of the contract is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer; or

(b) a contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance is received by an eligible university entity, an eligible public research centre or an eligible research consortium, within the meaning of paragraph f, a.1 or a.1.1 of section 1029.8.1, as the case may be, and the contract payment or assistance would have reduced, in accordance with subparagraph iii of subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.18, all or part of the amount of a qualified expenditure paid in respect of the contract, if the eligible university entity, the eligible public research centre or the eligible research consortium had received it, had been entitled to receive it or could reasonably have expected to receive it on or before the taxpayer's filing-due date for the taxation year in which the scientific research and experimental development was undertaken.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.6, in relation to the contract, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the repayment year, in relation to the amount of a qualified expenditure paid by the taxpayer in respect of the contract, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year in which the scientific research and experimental development to which the expenditure relates was undertaken, and

ii. every contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph that is received by an eligible university entity, an eligible public research centre or an eligible research consortium, as the case may be, at or before the end of the repayment year, were received in the taxation year in which the scientific research and experimental development to which the contract payment or assistance relates was undertaken; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the contract.

1129.0.5. Every taxpayer who is a member of a partnership and who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.7, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I, in relation to a university research contract or an eligible research contract under which scientific research and experimental development was undertaken, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for the taxation year in which ends a fiscal period of the partnership (in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment") in which

(a) an amount relating to a qualified expenditure paid in respect of the contract is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or taxpayer; or

(b) a contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance is received by an eligible university entity, an eligible public research centre or an eligible research consortium, within the meaning of paragraph f, a.1 or a.1.1 of section 1029.8.1, as the case may be, and the contract payment or assistance would have reduced, in accordance with subparagraph iii of subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.18, all or part of the amount of a qualified expenditure paid in respect of the contract, if the eligible university entity, the eligible public research centre or the eligible research consortium had received it, had been entitled to receive it or could reasonably have expected to receive it on or before the day that is six months after the end of the partnership's fiscal period in which the scientific research and experimental development was undertaken.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under section 1029.8.7, in relation to the contract, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, in relation to the amount of a qualified expenditure paid by the partnership in respect of the contract, were refunded, paid or allocated in the partnership's fiscal period in which the scientific research and experimental development to which the expenditure relates was undertaken, and

ii. every contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph that is received by an eligible university entity, an eligible public research centre or an eligible research consortium, as the case may be, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, were received in the partnership's fiscal period in which the scientific research and experimental development to which the contract payment or assistance relates was undertaken; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer would be required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the contract, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the fiscal period of repayment.

1129.0.6. Every taxpayer who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.9.0.3, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to an eligible fee, or an eligible fee balance, of the taxpayer is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to an eligible fee, or an eligible fee balance, of the taxpayer for a taxation year, were refunded, paid or allocated in that taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year.

1129.0.7. Every taxpayer who is a member of a partnership and who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.9.0.4, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I, in relation to the partnership, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership ends, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", in which an amount relating to an eligible fee, or an eligible fee balance, of the partnership is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or taxpayer.

under section 1029.8.9.0.4, in relation to the partnership, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, in relation to an eligible fee, or an eligible fee balance, of the partnership for a fiscal period, were refunded, paid or allocated in that fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, in relation to the partnership, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the fiscal period of repayment.

1129.0.8. Every taxpayer who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.10 or 1029.8.16.1.4, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I, in relation to an agreement under which scientific research and experimental development was undertaken, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which

(a) an amount relating to a qualified expenditure that is made in respect of the agreement is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer; or

(b) a contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance is received by a person or partnership and the contract payment or assistance would have reduced, in accordance with subparagraph iv of subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.18, all or part of a qualified expenditure made in respect of the scientific research and experimental development, if the person or partnership had received it, had been entitled to receive it or could reasonably have expected to receive it on or before the taxpayer's filing-due date for the taxation year in which the scientific research and experimental development was undertaken.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.10 or 1029.8.16.1.4, in relation to the agreement, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the repayment year, in relation to a qualified expenditure made by the taxpayer in respect of the agreement, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year in which the scientific research and experimental development to which the expenditure relates was undertaken, and

ii. every contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph that is received by the person or partnership at or before the end of the repayment year, were received in the taxation year in which the scientific research and experimental development to which the contract payment or assistance relates was undertaken; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the agreement.

1129.0.9. Every taxpayer who is a member of a particular partnership and who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.11 or 1029.8.16.1.5, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I, in relation to an agreement under which scientific research and experimental development was undertaken, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for the taxation year in which ends a fiscal period of the particular partnership (in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment") in which

(a) an amount relating to a qualified expenditure that is made in respect of the agreement is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the particular partnership or to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the particular partnership or the taxpayer; or

(b) a contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance is received by a person or another partnership and the contract payment or assistance would have reduced, in accordance with subparagraph iv of subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.18, all or part of a qualified expenditure made in respect of the scientific research and experimental development, if the person or the other partnership had received it, had been entitled to receive it or could reasonably have expected to receive it on or before the day that is six months after the end of the particular partnership's fiscal period in which the scientific research and experimental development was undertaken.

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, in relation to a qualified expenditure made by the particular partnership in respect of the agreement, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular partnership's fiscal period in which the scientific research and experimental development to which the expenditure relates was undertaken, and

ii. every contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph that is received by a person or another partnership at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, were received in the particular partnership's fiscal period in which the scientific research and experimental development to which the contract payment or assistance relates was undertaken; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer would be required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the agreement, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the particular partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the particular partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the particular partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the fiscal period of repayment.

1129.0.9.1. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.16.6, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to its eligible amount for that particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to an expenditure included, in whole or in part, in computing the eligible amount is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or to a partnership of which it is a member, or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation or partnership.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular year under section 1029.8.16.6, in relation to its eligible amount for that particular year, exceeds the total of

(a) the amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section, for that particular year, if every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the repayment year, in relation to an expenditure included in whole or in part in computing the eligible amount, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to a partnership of which the corporation is a member or allocated to a payment to be made by that partnership is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year.

1129.0.9.1.1. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.4 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid to the Minister by a taxpayer at any time under this Part, in relation to an expenditure, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation, by

(a) the partnership referred to in any of sections 1129.0.3, 1129.0.5, 1129.0.7 and 1129.0.9, in the case of tax paid under that section; or

(b) the taxpayer, in any other case.

PART III.0.1.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE RECAPTURE OF CERTAIN SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH AND EXPERIMENTAL DEVELOPMENT TAX CREDITS

2001, c. 53, s. 252.

1129.0.10.1. In this Part,

"consideration" has the meaning assigned by Division II of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I;

"disposition" has the meaning assigned by section 248;

"non-arm's length" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

"proceeds of disposition" has the meaning assigned by section 251;

"qualified expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.9.1 or 1029.8.16.1.1;

"scientific research and experimental development" has the meaning assigned by section 1.

In this Part, for the purpose of determining whether or not a partnership is dealing at arm's length with a person or another partnership, the partnership is deemed to be a person.

2001, c. 53, s. 252; 2007, c. 12, s. 228.

1129.0.10.2. Every taxpayer who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under subparagraph c or g of the first paragraph of section 1029.7, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year shall pay, for a subsequent taxation year, a tax equal to the amount determined in the second paragraph, where

(a) a particular property is acquired by the taxpayer from a person or partnership in the particular taxation year;

(b) the cost of the particular property was a portion of the consideration paid by the taxpayer under a contract referred to in one of those subparagraphs;

(c) the cost of the particular property is included in an amount, a percentage of which can reasonably be considered to be included in the amount that the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister under Division II of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I for the particular taxation year; and

(d) in the subsequent taxation year and after 23 February 1998, the taxpayer begins to use for commercial purposes, or disposes of without having used for commercial purposes, the particular property or another property that incorporates the particular property.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is the amount by which the lesser of the following amounts exceeds any amount of tax that the taxpayer has paid to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the subsequent taxation year, in relation to the particular property:

(a) the amount that can reasonably be considered to be included in the amount that the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister under Division II of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I for the particular taxation year, in relation to the particular property; and

(b) the product obtained by multiplying the percentage referred to in subparagraph c of the first paragraph by

i. if the particular property or the other property is disposed of to a person who deals at arm's length with the taxpayer, the proceeds of disposition of that property, or

ii. in any other case, the fair market value of the particular property or the other property at the time it begins to be used for commercial purposes or is disposed of.

2001, c. 53, s. 252.

1129.0.10.3. Every taxpayer who is a member of a partnership and is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under subparagraph c or g of the first paragraph of section 1029.8, in respect of that partnership, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year in which a particular fiscal period of the partnership ends shall pay, for the taxation year in which a subsequent fiscal period ends, a tax equal to the amount determined in the second paragraph, where

(a) a particular property is acquired by the partnership from a person or partnership in the particular fiscal period;

(b) the cost of the particular property was a portion of the consideration paid by the partnership under a contract referred to in one of those subparagraphs;

(c) the cost of the particular property is included in an amount, a percentage of which can reasonably be considered to be included in the amount that the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister under Division II of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I for the particular taxation year in which the particular fiscal period ends; and

(d) in the subsequent fiscal period and after 23 February 1998, the partnership begins to use for commercial purposes, or disposes of without having used for commercial purposes, the particular property or another property that incorporates the particular property.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is the amount by which the lesser of the following amounts exceeds any amount of tax that the taxpayer would have been required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the subsequent fiscal period ends, in relation to the particular property, if the taxpayer's share of the income or loss of the partnership for the fiscal period in which the preceding taxation year ends and the partnership's income or loss for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the subsequent fiscal period:

(a) the amount that can reasonably be considered to be included in the amount that the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister under Division II of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I for the particular taxation year, in relation to the particular property; and

(b) the product obtained by multiplying the percentage referred to in subparagraph c of the first paragraph by

i. if the particular property or the other property is disposed of to a person who deals at arm's length with the partnership, the proceeds of disposition of that property, or

ii. in any other case, the fair market value of the particular property or the other property at the time it begins to be used for commercial purposes or is disposed of.

1129.0.10.4. Every taxpayer who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.10 or 1029.8.16.1.4, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year shall pay, for a subsequent taxation year, a tax equal to the amount determined in the second paragraph, where

(a) a particular property is acquired by the taxpayer from a person or partnership in the particular taxation year;

(b) the cost of the particular property was a qualified expenditure to the taxpayer;

(c) the cost of the particular property is included in an amount, a percentage of which can reasonably be considered to be included in the amount that the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister under Division II.3 or II.3.0.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I for the particular taxation year; and

(d) in the subsequent taxation year and after 23 February 1998, the taxpayer begins to use for commercial purposes, or disposes of without having used for commercial purposes, the particular property or another property that incorporates the particular property.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is the amount by which the lesser of the following amounts exceeds any amount of tax that the taxpayer has paid to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the subsequent taxation year, in relation to the particular property:

(a) the amount that can reasonably be considered to be included in the amount that the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister under Division II.3 or II.3.0.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I for the particular taxation year, in relation to the particular property; and

(b) the product obtained by multiplying the percentage referred to in subparagraph c of the first paragraph by

i. if the particular property or the other property is disposed of to a person who deals at arm's length with the taxpayer, the proceeds of disposition of that property, or

ii. in any other case, the fair market value of the particular property or the other property at the time it begins to be used for commercial purposes or is disposed of.

1129.0.10.5. Every taxpayer who is a member of a partnership and is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.11 or 1029.8.16.1.5, in respect of that partnership, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year in which a particular fiscal period of the partnership ends shall pay, for the taxation year in which a subsequent fiscal period ends, a tax equal to the amount determined in the second paragraph, where

(a) a particular property is acquired by the partnership from a person or partnership in the particular fiscal period;

(b) the cost of the particular property was a qualified expenditure to the partnership;

(c) the cost of the particular property is included in an amount, a percentage of which can reasonably be considered to be included in the amount that the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister under Division II.3 or II.3.0.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I for the particular taxation year in which the particular fiscal period ends; and

(d) in the subsequent fiscal period and after 23 February 1998, the partnership begins to use for commercial purposes, or disposes of without having used for commercial purposes, the particular property or another property that incorporates the particular property.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is the amount by which the lesser of the following amounts exceeds any amount of tax that the taxpayer would have been required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the subsequent fiscal period ends, in relation to the particular property, if the taxpayer's share of the income or loss of the partnership for the fiscal period in which the preceding taxation year ends and the partnership's income or loss for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the subsequent fiscal period:

(a) the amount that can reasonably be considered to be included in the amount that the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister under Division II.3 or II.3.0.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I for the particular taxation year, in relation to the particular property; and

(b) the product obtained by multiplying the percentage referred to in subparagraph c of the first paragraph by

i. if the particular property or the other property is disposed of to a person who deals at arm's length with the partnership, the proceeds of disposition of that property, or

ii. in any other case, the fair market value of the particular property or the other property at the time it begins to be used for commercial purposes or is disposed of.

1129.0.10.6. For the purposes of sections 1129.0.10.2 to 1129.0.10.5, the cost of a particular property to a taxpayer shall not exceed the amount paid by the taxpayer to acquire the particular property from a transferor of the particular property and does not include amounts paid by the taxpayer to maintain, modify or transform the particular property.

2001, c. 53, s. 252.

1129.0.10.7. Sections 1129.0.10.2 to 1129.0.10.5, 1129.0.10.8 and 1129.0.10.9 do not apply to a taxpayer or partnership, in this section referred to as the "transferor", that disposes of a property to a person or partnership that does not deal at arm's length with the transferor, if the person or partnership acquired the property in circumstances where the cost of the property to the person or partnership would have been an expenditure described in subparagraph iii of subparagraph b or c of the first paragraph of section 230 or an expenditure to which the definition of "qualified expenditure" in section 1029.8.9.1 refers, without reference to paragraph d of section 1029.8.15.1, or in the definition of that expression in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.16.1.1, without reference to paragraph d of section 1029.8.16.1.6.

1129.0.10.8. A person, in this section referred to as the "purchaser", shall pay for a particular taxation year a tax equal to the amount determined in the second paragraph, where, at any particular time in the year and after 23 February 1998, the purchaser begins to use for commercial purposes, or disposes of without having used for commercial purposes, a property

(a) that was acquired by the purchaser in circumstances described in section 1129.0.10.7 or that is another property that incorporates a property acquired in such circumstances; and

(b) that was first acquired, or that incorporates a property that was first acquired, by a person or partnership, in this section referred to as the "original user", with which the purchaser did not deal at arm's length at the time at which the purchaser acquired the property, in the original user's taxation year or fiscal period that includes the particular time, on the assumption that the original user had such a taxation year or fiscal period, or in any of the original user's preceding taxation years or fiscal periods.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is the amount by which the lesser of the following amounts exceeds any amount of tax that the purchaser has paid to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to the property:

(a) the amount

i. included in the amount that the original user is deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of Divisions II, II.3 and II.3.0.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, in relation to the property, or

ii. where the original user is a partnership, that can reasonably be considered to be included in the amount that a taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8, 1029.8.11 and 1029.8.16.1.5, in relation to the property; and

(b) the product obtained by multiplying the percentage that was applied by the original user in determining the amount referred to in subparagraph a by

i. if the property or the other property is disposed of to a person who deals at arm's length with the purchaser, the proceeds of disposition of that property, or

ii. in any other case, the fair market value of the particular property or the other property at the time it begins to be used for commercial purposes or is disposed of.

1129.0.10.9. Every taxpayer who is a member of a particular partnership at the end of a particular fiscal period of the partnership shall pay, for the taxation year in which the particular fiscal period ends, a tax equal to the amount determined in the second paragraph, where, at any particular time in the particular fiscal period and after 23 February 1998, the particular partnership begins to use for commercial purposes, or disposes of without having used for commercial purposes, a property

(a) that was acquired by the particular partnership in circumstances described in section 1129.0.10.7 or that is another property that incorporates a property acquired in such circumstances; and

(b) that was first acquired, or that incorporates a property that was first acquired, by a person or partnership, in this section referred to as the "original user", with which the particular partnership did not deal at arm's length at the time at which the particular partnership acquired the property, in the original user's taxation year or fiscal period that includes the particular time, on the assumption that the original user had such a taxation year or fiscal period, or in any of the original user's preceding taxation years or fiscal periods.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is the amount by which the lesser of the following amounts exceeds any amount of tax that the taxpayer would have been required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the particular fiscal period ends, in relation to the property, if the taxpayer's share of the income or loss of the particular partnership for the fiscal period in which the preceding taxation year ends and the particular partnership's income or loss for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the particular fiscal period:

(a) the amount

i. included in the amount that the original user is deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of Divisions II, II.3 and II.3.0.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, in relation to the property, or

ii. where the original user is a partnership, that can reasonably be considered to be included in the amount that a taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8, 1029.8.11 and 1029.8.16.1.5, in relation to the property; and

(b) the product obtained by multiplying the percentage that was applied by the original user in determining the amount referred to in subparagraph a by

i. if the property or the other property is disposed of to a person who deals at arm's length with the particular partnership, the proceeds of disposition of that property, or

ii. in any other case, the fair market value of the particular property or the other property at the time it begins to be used for commercial purposes or is disposed of.

2001, c. 53, s. 252; 2006, c. 36, s. 224; 2007, c. 12, s. 233.

1129.0.10.9.1. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.4 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules apply:

(a) tax paid to the Minister by a taxpayer at any time under any of sections 1129.0.10.2, 1129.0.10.4 and 1129.0.10.8, in relation to a particular property of the taxpayer, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the taxpayer at that time in respect of the property, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) tax paid to the Minister by a taxpayer at any time under any of sections 1129.0.10.3, 1129.0.10.5 and 1129.0.10.9, in relation to a particular property of a partnership of which the taxpayer is a member, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the partnership at that time in respect of the property, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2015, c. 21, s. 506.

1129.0.10.10. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2001, c. 53, s. 252.

PART III.0.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR TECHNOLOGICAL ADAPTATION SERVICES

2000, c. 39, s. 228.

1129.0.11. In this Part, "qualified expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.21.17.

2000, c. 39, s. 228; 2001, c. 51, s. 228; 2007, c. 12, s. 234.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.21.22 or 1029.8.21.26, in relation to the qualified expenditure, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to an expenditure included in computing the qualified expenditure were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified expenditure.

1129.0.13. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.21.23, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to a qualified expenditure incurred by the partnership in a particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership ends, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", in which an amount relating to an expenditure included in computing the qualified expenditure is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under any of sections 1029.8.21.23, 1029.8.21.27 and 1029.8.21.28, in relation to the qualified expenditure, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, in relation to an expenditure included in computing the qualified expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the qualified expenditure, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

2000, c. 39, s. 228; 2002, c. 40, s. 242; 2006, c. 36, s. 225; 2009, c. 15, s. 381.

1129.0.14. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.4.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules apply:

(a) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.0.12, in relation to a qualified expenditure is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of that expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation to do so; and

(b) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.0.13, in relation to a qualified expenditure is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of that expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation to do so.

2000, c. 39, s. 228.

1129.0.15. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2000, c. 39, s. 228.

PART III.0.3

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO E-COMMERCE SOLUTIONS

2001, c. 51, s. 210.

1129.0.16. In this Part,

"e-commerce solution" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.21.32;

"eligible e-commerce solution" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.21.32;

"eligible production expenditure" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.21.32;

"production expenditure" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.21.32.

2001, c. 51, s. 210; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.0.17. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.21.42 or 1029.8.21.44, on account of its tax payable under Part I, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", if

(a) an amount relating to an expenditure included in an eligible production expenditure of the corporation is, in the repayment year, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation; or

(b) an amount relating to an expenditure included in an eligible production expenditure of a partnership of which the corporation is a member and in respect of which the corporation is so deemed to have paid an amount under section 1029.8.21.44 is, in the fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the repayment year, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.21.42, or an amount it would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a particular taxation year under section 1029.8.21.44, in relation to a partnership of which the corporation is a member at the end of the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular year were the same as that for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister,

i. under section 1029.8.21.42, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to an expenditure included in an eligible production expenditure of the corporation for a taxation year, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year, or

ii. under section 1029.8.21.44, for a particular taxation year, in relation to a partnership of which the corporation is a member at the end of the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year, in this subparagraph referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", if

(1) every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to an expenditure included in an eligible production expenditure of the partnership for a fiscal period, were refunded, paid or allocated in the fiscal period, and

(2) the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for a partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year.

For the purposes of subparagraph a of the second paragraph, an amount that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation, in relation to an expenditure included in an eligible production expenditure of a partnership of which the corporation is a member at the end of the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year, is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year.

1129.0.18. For the purposes of section 1129.0.17, the amount determined in the second paragraph, in relation to a particular expenditure that is included in the eligible production expenditure of a corporation for a particular taxation year in respect of an eligible e-commerce solution, is deemed to be refunded to the corporation in its taxation year that includes 1 April 2003, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", if

(a) the eligible e-commerce solution ceased to be eligible, for all or part of the particular year, as the case may be, because the conditions set out in paragraphs a and b of the definition of "eligible e-commerce solution" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.21.32 had not been satisfied or had not again been satisfied, as the case may be, in respect of the corporation, on or before 31 March 2003; or

(b) application software, the cost of which is a production expenditure that is included in the eligible production expenditure, or may reasonably be attributed to the portion of a consideration that is included in computing the eligible production expenditure, was not integrated into the eligible e-commerce solution before 1 April 2003.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to,

(a) in the case provided for in subparagraph a of the first paragraph, the amount by which the portion of the particular expenditure that may reasonably be attributed to the portion of the particular year for which the eligible e-commerce solution ceased to be eligible, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that relates to the portion of the particular expenditure that, in a taxation year preceding the repayment year but subsequent to the particular year, was refunded, otherwise paid or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation; or

(b) in the case provided for in subparagraph b of the first paragraph, the amount by which the portion of the particular expenditure that may reasonably be attributed to the cost of application software, unless the portion is included in computing an amount that is deemed to be refunded under subparagraph a, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that relates to the portion of the particular expenditure that, in a taxation year preceding the repayment year but subsequent to the particular year, was refunded, otherwise paid or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

No tax is payable for a taxation year under section 1129.0.17 in respect of any amount that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation, or is allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation, if that amount is included in an amount that is deemed to have been refunded, under this section, in the taxation year or a preceding taxation year.

1129.0.19. (Repealed).

1129.0.20. For the purposes of section 1129.0.17, the amount determined in the second paragraph, in relation to a particular expenditure that is included in the eligible production expenditure of a partnership of which a corporation is a member for a particular fiscal period in respect of an eligible e-commerce solution, is deemed to be refunded to the partnership in its fiscal period that includes 1 April 2003, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", if

(a) the eligible e-commerce solution ceased to be eligible, for all or part of the particular fiscal period, as the case may be, because the conditions set out in paragraphs a and b of the definition of "eligible e-commerce solution" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.21.32 had not been satisfied or had not again been satisfied, as the case may be, in respect of the partnership, on or before 31 March 2003; or

(b) application software, the cost of which is a production expenditure that is included in the eligible production expenditure, or may reasonably be attributed to the portion of a consideration that is included in computing the eligible production expenditure, was not integrated into the eligible e-commerce solution before 1 April 2003.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to,

(a) in the case provided for in subparagraph a of the first paragraph, the amount by which the portion of the particular expenditure that may reasonably be attributed to the portion of the particular fiscal period for which the eligible e-commerce solution ceased to be eligible, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that relates to the portion of the particular expenditure that, in a fiscal period preceding the fiscal period of repayment but subsequent to the particular fiscal period, was refunded, otherwise paid or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation; or

(b) in the case provided for in subparagraph b of the first paragraph, the amount by which the portion of the particular expenditure that may reasonably be attributed to the cost of application software, unless the portion is included in computing an amount that is deemed to be refunded under subparagraph a, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that relates to the portion of the particular expenditure that, in a fiscal period preceding the fiscal period of repayment but subsequent to the particular fiscal period, was refunded, otherwise paid or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation, in relation to the portion of a particular expenditure, is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership, or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the proportion that the income or loss of the partnership for the fiscal period of repayment is of the corporation's share of that income or loss, on the assumption that, if the partnership's income and loss for that fiscal period are nil, the partnership's income is equal to $1,000,000.

No tax is payable for a taxation year under section 1129.0.17 in respect of any amount that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation, or is allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation, if that amount is included in an amount that is deemed to have been refunded, under this section, in a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the taxation year or in a preceding taxation year.

1129.0.21. For the purposes of Part I,

(a) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.0.17, in relation to an expenditure that is included in an eligible production expenditure of the corporation, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of that expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.0.17, in relation to an expenditure that is included in an eligible production expenditure of a partnership of which the corporation is a member, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by that partnership at that time in respect of that expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation.

BOOK II

LIABILITY FOR AND AMOUNT OF THE TAX

1992, c. 1, s. 204.

1129.2. Any corporation that is deemed, under section 1029.8.35, to have paid to the Minister an amount as partial payment of its tax payable for any given taxation year under Part I, in respect of a property that is a Québec film production, shall pay tax, for a particular taxation year, equal to the aggregate of

(a) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount it is deemed, under the said section 1029.8.35, to have so paid to the Minister in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is tax the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, where

i. the property ceases, in the particular year, to be considered as a Québec film production by reason of the fact that the favourable advance ruling issued by the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles in respect of the property, ceases to be in force at that time and that no certificate is issued by the Société in respect of the property, or of the fact that the certificate issued by the Société in respect of the property is revoked at that time, or

ii. the particular year is the first year for which subparagraph b of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.35 applies in respect of the property or, where applicable, would have been such first year had the qualified expenditure for services rendered outside the Montréal area, qualified computer-aided special effects and animation expenditure or qualified labour expenditure of the corporation for the particular year in respect of the property not been nil;

(a.1*)* where the situations described in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph a are not encountered in the particular year in relation to the property nor have been in any preceding taxation year and the corporation ceases in the particular year to be recognized as a qualified corporation not dealing at arm's length with another corporation that holds a broadcasting licence issued by the Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission because the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles revokes in the particular year the qualification certificate referred to in paragraph a.3 of the definition of "qualified corporation" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.34 that was issued to the corporation, for any given taxation year, the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.35 in respect of the property for the given taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the property for the given taxation year; and

(b) (subparagraph repealed);

(c) where the situations described in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph a or in subparagraph a.1 are not encountered in the particular year in relation to the property and the situations described in those subparagraphs i and ii have not been encountered in any preceding taxation year, the amount determined in respect of the corporation under the second paragraph in cases where

i. in computing the amount determined under subparagraph ii of paragraph a or subparagraph i of paragraph b of the definitions of "qualified computer-aided special effects and animation expenditure", "qualified expenditure for services rendered outside the Montréal area" and "qualified labour expenditure" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.34, government assistance or non-government assistance that the corporation, another person or a partnership has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year must be taken into account, for or from the particular year in respect of the property, and the expenditure or costs to which the assistance is attributable or relates were incurred by the corporation in a taxation year preceding the particular year,

ii. an amount relating to an expenditure included in a qualified expenditure for services rendered outside the Montréal area, qualified computer-aided special effects and animation expenditure or qualified labour expenditure in respect of the property, or relating to production costs directly attributable to the production of the property, other than an amount of assistance to which subparagraph i applies, is, during the particular taxation year, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation,

iii. the corporation ceases, in the particular year, to be considered as a regional corporation by reason of the fact that the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles revokes, in the particular year, the certificate issued to the corporation for any year and certifying that it qualifies for the purposes of subparagraph a.1 of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.35,

iv. an amount relating to an expenditure for services rendered outside the Montréal area ceases, in the particular year, to be considered as attributable to services rendered in any year outside the Montréal area in relation to a regional production, by reason of a revocation by the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles, that relates to that amount indicated, by budgetary item, on a document enclosed with the advance ruling given or the certificate issued to the corporation in relation to the property,

v. an amount relating to a computer-aided special effects and animation expenditure ceases, in the particular year, to be considered as attributable to an amount paid in any year for activities related to computer-aided special effects and animation, by reason of a revocation by the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles, that relates to that amount indicated, by budgetary item, on a document enclosed with the advance ruling given or the certificate issued to the corporation in relation to the property, or

vi. the property ceases, in the particular year, to be considered as a production that receives no amount of financial assistance granted by a public body because the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles revokes, in the particular year, the certificate issued to the corporation in respect of the property for the purposes of subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.35, or assistance referred to in any of subparagraphs ii to viii.3 of subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1029.6.0.0.1 is granted, in the particular year, in respect of the property;

(d) (subparagraph repealed).

The amount to which subparagraph c of the first paragraph refers, in respect of a property, is equal, for the corporation, to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.35, in respect of the property, for the particular year or for a preceding taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.35, in respect of the property for the particular year or for a preceding taxation year, if

i. where subparagraph i of subparagraph c of the first paragraph applies, the assistance referred to in that subparagraph i had been received by the corporation, the other person or the partnership in the year during which the expenditure or costs to which the assistance is attributable or relates were incurred by the corporation, ii. where subparagraph ii of subparagraph c of the first paragraph applies, any amount referred to in that subparagraph ii had been refunded, paid or allocated in the year during which the expenditure or costs to which the amount is attributable were incurred,

iii. where subparagraph iii of subparagraph c of the first paragraph applies, the amount that it is deemed to have paid to the Minister under subparagraph a.1 of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.35, in respect of the property, had been equal to zero for the taxation year in respect of which the certificate is revoked,

iv. where subparagraph iv or v of subparagraph c of the first paragraph applies, the amount had not been indicated for the year referred to in any of those subparagraphs on the document that the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles had then enclosed with the advance ruling given or the certificate issued to the corporation in relation to the property, and

v. where subparagraph vi of subparagraph c of the first paragraph applies, the amount that it is deemed to have paid to the Minister in respect of the property under subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.35 had been equal to zero for a taxation year preceding the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part, in respect of the property, for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

Furthermore, where applicable, the corporation that controls, directly or indirectly in any manner whatever, the corporation referred to in the first paragraph is liable, solidarily with that corporation, for payment of the tax under the first paragraph.

PART III.1.0.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR FILM DUBBING

1999, c. 83, s. 243.

1129.4.0.1. In this Part,

"qualified film dubbing expenditure" of a corporation for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.0.1;

"qualified production" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.1.

1129.4.0.2. Every corporation that, in relation to the production of a property that is a qualified production, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.0.2, on account of its tax payable under Part I for any taxation year shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to

(a) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is tax that the corporation is deemed to have so paid to the Minister, under that section 1029.8.36.0.0.2, in respect of the production of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the production of the property for a year preceding the particular year, where the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles revokes in the particular year a certificate it has issued to the corporation in respect of the property; or

(b) where subparagraph a does not apply in the particular year or in any preceding taxation year, in relation to the production of the property, the amount determined in respect of the corporation under the second paragraph where

i. in computing the amount determined under subparagraph ii of paragraph a of the definition of "qualified film dubbing expenditure" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.1, government assistance or non-government assistance that the corporation, another person or a partnership has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year, must be taken into account for or from the particular year in respect of the production of the property, and the expenditure to which the assistance is attributable or relates was incurred by the corporation in a taxation year preceding the particular year, or

ii. an amount relating to an expenditure included in a qualified film dubbing expenditure in respect of the property, other than the amount of an assistance to which subparagraph i applies, is, during the particular taxation year, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The amount to which subparagraph b of the first paragraph refers, in relation to a property, is equal, for the corporation, to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.0.2, in respect of the production of the property for the particular year or for a preceding taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.0.2, in respect of the property for the particular year or for a preceding taxation year, if

i. where subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, the assistance referred to in that subparagraph i had been received by the corporation, the other person or the partnership in the year during which the expenditure to which the assistance is attributable or relates was incurred by the corporation, and

ii. where subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, every amount referred to in that subparagraph ii had been refunded, paid or allocated in the year during which the expenditure to which that amount is attributable was incurred; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part, in respect of the property, for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

Furthermore, where applicable, a corporation that controls, directly or indirectly in any manner whatever, the corporation referred to in the first paragraph is liable, solidarily with that corporation, for payment of the tax under the first paragraph.

1129.4.0.3. The tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time in a taxation year under this Part in relation to the production of a property that is a qualified production is deemed, for the purposes of Part I, except section 1029.8.36.0.0.1, to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the production of the property pursuant to a legal obligation to repay all or any part of that amount of assistance.

1129.4.0.4. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 21.25, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1999, c. 83, s. 243.

PART III.1.0.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE FILM PRODUCTION SERVICES CREDIT

1999, c. 83, s. 243.

1129.4.0.5. In this Part, “computer-aided special effects and animation expenditure”, “eligible production costs”, “labour cost attributable to computer-aided special effects and animation”, “qualified computer-aided special effects and animation expenditure”, “qualified labour cost attributable to computer-aided special effects and animation", "qualified labour expenditure", "qualified low-budget production", and "qualified production" have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.0.4.

1129.4.0.6. Every corporation that, in relation to a property that is a qualified production or a qualified low-budget production, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.0.5, on account of its tax payable under Part I for any given taxation year shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to

(a) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year is exceeded by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed, under section 1029.8.36.0.0.5, to have so paid to the Minister in respect of the property for a year preceding the particular year, where the property ceases, in the particular year, to be considered as a qualified production or a qualified low-budget production because the favourable advance ruling given in respect of the property by the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles is revoked at that time;

(a.1) where subparagraph a does not apply in the particular year or in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the property, and the corporation ceases in the particular year to be recognized as a qualified corporation not dealing at arm's length with another corporation that holds a broadcasting licence issued by the Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission because the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles revokes in the particular year the qualification certificate referred to in paragraph f of the definition of "excluded corporation" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.4 that was issued to the corporation, for any given taxation year, the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.0.5 in respect of the property for the given taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the property for the given taxation year; and

(b) where subparagraphs a and *a.*1 do not apply in the particular year, in relation to the property, and subparagraph a does not apply in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the property, the amount determined in respect of the corporation under the second paragraph where

i. in computing the amount determined under paragraph b of the definitions of "qualified computer-aided special effects and animation expenditure" and "qualified labour expenditure" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.4, government assistance or non-government assistance that the corporation, another person or a partnership has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year, must be taken into account for or from the particular year in respect of the property, and the expenditure to which the assistance is attributable or relates was incurred by the corporation in a taxation year preceding the particular year, i.1. in computing the amount determined under the fourth or fifth paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.4, government assistance or non-government assistance that the corporation, another person or a partnership has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year, must be taken into account for the particular year in respect of the property, and the costs to which the assistance is attributable or relates were incurred by the corporation in a taxation year preceding the particular year,

ii. an amount relating to an expenditure included in the qualified labour cost attributable to computer-aided special effects and animation, a qualified computer-aided special effects and animation expenditure, a qualified labour expenditure or eligible production costs in respect of the property, other than the amount of assistance to which subparagraph i or i.1 applies, is, during the particular taxation year, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation, or

iii. an amount relating to the labour cost attributable to computer-aided special effects and animation or to a computer-aided special effects and animation expenditure ceases, in the particular year, to be considered as attributable to an amount paid in any year for activities related to computer-aided special effects and animation, by reason of a revocation by the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles, that relates to that amount indicated, by budgetary item, on a document enclosed with the advance ruling given to the corporation in relation to the property.

The amount to which subparagraph b of the first paragraph refers, in relation to a property, is equal, for the corporation, to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.0.5 in respect of the property for the particular year or a preceding taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.0.5 in respect of the property for the particular year or for a preceding taxation year if

i. where subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, the assistance referred to in that subparagraph i had been received by the corporation, the other person or the partnership in the year during which the expenditure to which the assistance is attributable or relates was incurred by the corporation,

i.1. where subparagraph i.1 of subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, the assistance referred to in that subparagraph i.1 had been received by the corporation, the other person or the partnership in the year during which the costs to which the assistance is attributable or relates were incurred by the corporation,

ii. where subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, any amount referred to in that subparagraph ii had been refunded, paid or allocated in the year during which the costs or expenditure to which the amount is attributable were incurred, and

iii. where subparagraph iii of subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, the amount had not been indicated for the year referred to in that subparagraph iii on the document that the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles had enclosed at that time with the advance ruling given to the corporation in relation to the property; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

Furthermore, where applicable, the corporation that controls, directly or indirectly in any manner whatever, the corporation referred to in the first paragraph is liable, solidarily with that corporation, for payment of the tax under the first paragraph.

1129.4.0.7. The tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time in a taxation year under this Part in relation to a property that is a qualified production or a qualified low-budget production is deemed, for the purposes of Part I, except section 1029.8.36.0.0.4, to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the property pursuant to a legal obligation to repay all or any part of the amount of assistance.

1129.4.0.8. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 21.25, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1999, c. 83, s. 243.

PART III.1.0.3

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE PRODUCTION OF SOUND RECORDINGS

2000, c. 39, s. 230.

1129.4.0.9. In this Part,

"qualified labour expenditure" of a corporation for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.0.7;

"qualified property" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.7.

2000, c. 39, s. 230; 2001, c. 51, s. 228; 2007, c. 12, s. 239.

1129.4.0.10. Every corporation that, in relation to the production of a property that is a qualified property, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.0.8, on account of its tax payable under Part I for any taxation year shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to

(a) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the production of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year is exceeded by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed, under section 1029.8.36.0.0.8, to have so paid to the Minister in respect of the production of the property for a year preceding the particular year, where the property ceases, in the particular year, to be considered as a qualified property by reason of the fact that the favourable advance ruling given by the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles in respect of the property ceases to be in force at that time and that no certificate is issued by the Société in respect of the property, or of the fact that the certificate issued by the Société in respect of the property is revoked at that time; and

(b) where subparagraph a does not apply in the particular year or in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the production of the property, the amount determined in respect of the corporation under the second paragraph where

i. in computing the amount determined under subparagraph ii of paragraph a or subparagraph i of paragraph b of the definition of "qualified labour expenditure" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.7, government assistance or non-government assistance that the corporation, another person or a partnership has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year, must be taken into account for or from the particular year in respect of the production of the property, and the expenditure or costs to which the assistance is attributable or relates were incurred by the corporation in a taxation year preceding the particular year, or

ii. an amount relating to an expenditure included in a qualified labour expenditure in respect of the property, or to production costs directly attributable to the production of the property, other than an amount of assistance to which subparagraph i applies, is, during the particular taxation year, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The amount to which subparagraph b of the first paragraph refers, in relation to a property, is equal, for the corporation, to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.0.8 in respect of the production of the property for the particular year or a preceding taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.0.8 in respect of the property for the particular year or for a preceding taxation year if

i. where subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, the assistance referred to in that subparagraph i had been received by the corporation, the other person or the partnership in the year during which the expenditure or costs to which the assistance is attributable or relates were incurred by the corporation, and

ii. where subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, any amount referred to in that subparagraph ii had been refunded, paid or allocated in the year during which the expenditure or costs to which the amount is attributable were incurred; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

Furthermore, where applicable, every corporation that controls, directly or indirectly in any manner whatever, the corporation referred to in the first paragraph is liable, solidarily with that corporation, for payment of the tax under the first paragraph.

1129.4.0.11. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.0.0.3 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.4.0.10, in relation to an expenditure that is included in a qualified labour expenditure of the corporation, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the property, pursuant to a legal obligation to repay all or any part of that amount of assistance.

1129.4.0.12. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 21.25, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2000, c. 39, s. 230.

PART III.1.0.4

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE PRODUCTION OF PERFORMANCES

2000, c. 39, s. 230; 2003, c. 9, s. 388.

1129.4.0.13. In this Part,

"qualified labour expenditure" of a corporation for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.0.10;

"qualified performance" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.10.

2000, c. 39, s. 230; 2001, c. 51, s. 228; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.4.0.14. Every corporation that, in relation to the production of a property that is a qualified performance, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.0.11, on account of its tax payable under Part I for any taxation year shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to

(a) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the production of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year is exceeded by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed, under section 1029.8.36.0.0.11, to have so paid to the Minister in respect of the production of the property for a year preceding the particular year, where the property ceases, in the particular year, to be considered as a qualified performance by reason of the fact that the favourable advance ruling given by the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles in respect of the property ceases to be in force at that time and that no certificate is issued by the Société in respect of the property, or of the fact that the certificate issued by the Société in respect of the property is revoked at that time; and

(b) where subparagraph a does not apply in the particular year or in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the production of the property, the amount determined in respect of the corporation under the second paragraph where

i. in computing the amount determined under subparagraph ii of paragraph a or subparagraph i of paragraph b of the definition of "qualified labour expenditure" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.10, government assistance or non-government assistance that the corporation, another person or a partnership has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year, must be taken into account for or from the particular year in respect of the production of the property, and the expenditure or costs to which the assistance is attributable or relates were incurred by the corporation in a taxation year preceding the particular year, or

ii. an amount relating to an expenditure included in a qualified labour expenditure in respect of the property or to the production costs directly attributable to the production of the property, other than an amount of assistance to which subparagraph i applies, is, during the particular taxation year, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The amount to which subparagraph b of the first paragraph refers, in relation to a property, is equal, for the corporation, to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.0.11 in respect of the production of the property for the particular year or a preceding taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.0.11 in respect of the property for the particular year or for a preceding taxation year if

i. where subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, the assistance referred to in that subparagraph i had been received by the corporation, the other person or the partnership in the year during which the expenditure or costs to which the assistance is attributable or relates were incurred by the corporation, and

ii. where subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, any amount referred to in that subparagraph ii had been refunded, paid or allocated in the year during which the expenditure or costs to which the amount is attributable were incurred; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

Furthermore, where applicable, every corporation that controls, directly or indirectly in any manner whatever, the corporation referred to in the first paragraph is liable, solidarily with that corporation, for payment of the tax under the first paragraph.

1129.4.0.15. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.0.0.4 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.4.0.14, in relation to an expenditure that is included in a qualified labour expenditure of the corporation, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the property, pursuant to a legal obligation to do so.

2000, c. 39, s. 230.

1129.4.0.16. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 21.25, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2000, c. 39, s. 230.

PART III.1.0.4.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE PRODUCTION OF MULTIMEDIA EVENTS OR ENVIRONMENTS PRESENTED OUTSIDE QUÉBEC

2013, c. 10, s. 154.

1129.4.0.16.1. In this Part, "qualified labour expenditure" and "qualified production" have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.0.12.1.

2013, c. 10, s. 154.

1129.4.0.16.2. Every corporation that, in relation to the production of a property that is a qualified production, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.0.12.2, on account of its tax payable under Part I for any taxation year shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to

(a) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the production of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year is exceeded by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed, under section 1029.8.36.0.0.12.2, to have so paid to the Minister in respect of the production of the property for a year preceding the particular year, where the property ceases, in the particular year, to be considered as a qualified production because the favourable advance ruling given in respect of the property by the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles ceases at that time to be in force and no qualification certificate is issued in respect of the property by the Société, or because the qualification certificate issued in respect of the property by the Société is revoked at that time; and

(b) where subparagraph a does not apply in the particular year or in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the production of the property, the amount determined in respect of the corporation under the second paragraph where

i. in computing the amount determined under subparagraph ii of paragraph a, or subparagraph i of paragraph b, of the definition of "qualified labour expenditure" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.12.1, government assistance or non-government assistance that the corporation, another person or a partnership has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year, must be taken into account for or from the particular year in respect of the production of the property, and the expenditure or costs to which the assistance is attributable or relates were incurred by the corporation in a taxation year preceding the particular year, or

ii. an amount relating to an expenditure included in a qualified labour expenditure in respect of the property or to production costs directly attributable to the production of the property, other than the amount of assistance to which subparagraph i applies, is, during the particular taxation year, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The amount to which subparagraph b of the first paragraph refers, in relation to a property, is equal, for the corporation, to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.0.12.2 in respect of the production of the property for the particular year or a preceding taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.0.12.2 in respect of the property for the particular year or for a preceding taxation year if

i. where subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, the assistance referred to in that subparagraph i had been received by the corporation, the other person or the partnership in the year during which the expenditure or costs to which the assistance is attributable or relates were incurred by the corporation, and

ii. where subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, any amount referred to in that subparagraph ii had been refunded, paid or allocated in the year during which the expenditure or costs to which the amount is attributable were incurred; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

Furthermore, where applicable, the corporation that controls, directly or indirectly in any manner whatever, the corporation referred to in the first paragraph is liable, solidarily with that corporation, for payment of the tax under the first paragraph.

2013, c. 10, s. 154.

1129.4.0.16.3. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.0.0.4.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.4.0.16.2, in relation to an expenditure that is included in a qualified labour expenditure of the corporation, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of a property that is a qualified production, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2013, c. 10, s. 154.

1129.4.0.16.4. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 21.25, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2013, c. 10, s. 154.

PART III.1.0.5

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR BOOK PUBLISHING

2001, c. 51, s. 214.

1129.4.0.17. In this Part, “eligible digital version”, “eligible group of works”, “eligible work”, “qualified labour expenditure attributable to preparation costs and digital version publishing costs” and “qualified labour expenditure attributable to printing and reprinting costs” have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.0.13.

1129.4.0.18. Every corporation that, in relation to a property that is an eligible work or an eligible group of works, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.0.14, on account of its tax payable under Part I for any taxation year shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to section 1029.8.36.0.0.14, to have so paid to the Minister in respect of the property for a year preceding the particular year, where the property ceases, in the particular year, to be considered as an eligible work or an eligible group of works by reason of the fact that the favourable advance ruling given by the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles in respect of the property ceases to be in force at that time and that no certificate is issued by the Société in respect of the property, or of the fact that the certificate issued by the Société in respect of the property is revoked at that time;

(a) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year is exceeded by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed, under

(b) where subparagraph a does not apply in the particular year or in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the property, the amount determined in respect of the corporation under the second paragraph where

i. in computing the amounts determined under subparagraph ii of paragraph a or subparagraph i of paragraph b of the definitions of "qualified labour expenditure attributable to preparation costs and digital version publishing costs" and "qualified labour expenditure attributable to printing and reprinting costs" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.13, government assistance or non-government assistance that the corporation, another person or a partnership has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year, must be taken into account for or from the particular year in respect of the property, and the expenditure or costs to which the assistance is attributable or relates were incurred by the corporation in a taxation year preceding the particular year, or

ii. an amount relating to an expenditure included in a qualified labour expenditure attributable to preparation costs and digital version publishing costs or qualified labour expenditure attributable to printing and reprinting costs in respect of the property, or an amount relating to printing and reprinting costs directly attributable to the printing and reprinting of the property or to preparation costs and digital version publishing costs directly attributable to the preparation of the property and the publishing of an eligible digital version relating to the property, other than an amount of assistance to which subparagraph i applies, is, during the particular taxation year, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The amount to which subparagraph b of the first paragraph refers, in relation to a property, is equal, for the corporation, to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.0.14 in respect of the property for the particular year or a preceding taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.0.14 in respect of the property for the particular year or for a preceding taxation year if

i. where subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, the assistance referred to in that subparagraph i had been received by the corporation, the other person or the partnership in the year during which the expenditure or costs to which the assistance is attributable or relates were incurred by the corporation, and

ii. where subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, any amount referred to in that subparagraph ii had been refunded, paid or allocated in the year during which the expenditure or costs to which the amount is attributable were incurred; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

Furthermore, where applicable, every corporation that controls, directly or indirectly in any manner whatever, the corporation referred to in the first paragraph is liable, solidarily with that corporation, for payment of the tax under the first paragraph.

1129.4.0.19. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.0.0.5 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.4.0.18, in relation to an expenditure that is included in a qualified labour expenditure attributable to preparation costs and digital version publishing costs of the corporation or a qualified labour expenditure attributable to printing and reprinting costs of the corporation, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the property, pursuant to a legal obligation to repay all or any part of that amount of assistance.

2001, c. 51, s. 214; 2011, c. 34, s. 116.

1129.4.0.20. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 21.25, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2001, c. 51, s. 214.

PART III.1.0.6

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE CREATION OF DIGITAL PRODUCTIONS

2002, c. 40, s. 248.

1129.4.0.21. In this Part,

"acquisition costs" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.16;

"eligible digital production" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.16;

"qualified labour expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.0.16;

"qualified property" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.16;

"rental expenses" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.0.16.

1129.4.0.22. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.0.19 or 1029.8.36.0.0.20, on account of its tax payable under Part I, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to an expenditure included in a qualified labour expenditure of the corporation, or acquisition costs incurred or rental expenses paid by the corporation in respect of qualified property is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of those sections, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to an expenditure included in a qualified labour expenditure of the corporation, or acquisition costs incurred or rental expenses paid by the corporation, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year in which the corporation incurred the expenditure to which the amount refunded, paid or allocated relates, or incurred the acquisition costs or paid the rental expenses to which that amount relates; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the portion of the particular expenditure that may reasonably be attributed to the part of the certificate that is revoked, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount relating to the portion of the particular expenditure that, in a taxation year preceding the repayment year but subsequent to the particular year, was refunded, otherwise paid or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

No tax is payable for a taxation year under section 1129.4.0.22, in respect of any amount that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation, or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation, if that amount is included in an amount that is deemed to have been refunded, under this section, in that taxation year or in a preceding taxation year.

1129.4.0.24. For the purposes of section 1129.4.0.22, the amount determined in the second paragraph, in relation to the acquisition costs incurred by the corporation in a particular taxation year in respect of qualified property or rental expenses paid by the corporation in the particular year in respect of such property, is deemed to be refunded to the corporation in a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which Investissement Québec revokes the certificate that was issued in respect of the property.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of acquisition costs incurred by the corporation in the particular year and on the effective date specified in the notice of revocation or subsequently, or the aggregate of rental expenses paid by the corporation in the particular year and on that effective date or subsequently, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount relating to those costs or expenses that, in a taxation year preceding the repayment year but subsequent to the particular year, was refunded, otherwise paid or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

No tax is payable for a taxation year under section 1129.4.0.22, in respect of any amount that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation, or is allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation, if that amount is included in an amount that is deemed to have been refunded, under this section, in that taxation year or a preceding taxation year.

1129.4.0.25. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.0.0.6 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.4.0.22, in relation to an expenditure or property, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the expenditure or property, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2002, c. 40, s. 248.

1129.4.0.26. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2002, c. 40, s. 248.

PART III.1.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR MULTIMEDIA TITLES (PART 1)

1997, c. 14, s. 264; 1999, c. 83, s. 244.

1129.4.1. In this Part,

"eligible operating receipts" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.1;

"labour expenditure" of a corporation for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.1;

"multimedia title" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.1;

"qualified labour expenditure" of a corporation for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.1.

1997, c. 14, s. 264; 1999, c. 83, s. 245; 2001, c. 51, s. 228; 2002, c. 40, s. 249; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.4.2. Any corporation that is deemed, under section 1029.8.36.0.2, to have paid to the Minister an amount as partial payment of its tax payable for any taxation year under Part I, in respect of a property that is a multimedia title, shall pay tax, for a particular taxation year, equal to the aggregate of the following amounts:

(a) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount the corporation is deemed, under the said section 1029.8.36.0.2, to have so paid to the Minister in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is tax the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, where Investissement Québec revokes in the particular year a certificate issued to the corporation in respect of the property;

(b) where subparagraph a does not apply, in the particular year in respect of the property or in any preceding taxation year and, for the particular year and in respect of the property, Investissement Québec issues a certificate to replace a certificate previously issued to the corporation and, under the terms of the new certificate, the aggregate of the amounts the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under paragraphs a and b of section 1029.8.36.0.2 for a preceding year exceeds the aggregate of the amounts the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under those paragraphs for such a year if the amounts entered on the replaced certificate had been the amounts entered on the new certificate, the part of that excess amount that exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is tax the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the property for a year preceding the particular year and that is attributable to an amount the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under paragraphs a and b of section 1029.8.36.0.2 for a taxation year preceding the particular year;

(c) where subparagraph a does not apply, in the particular year in respect of the property or in any preceding taxation year, and Investissement Québec revokes in the particular year the part of the certificate issued to the corporation in respect of the property attesting that the multimedia title is both available in French and intended for the consumer market, the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under paragraph b of section 1029.8.36.0.2 in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of tax the corporation is required to pay under this Part, otherwise than under this subparagraph, for the particular year or a preceding taxation year and that is attributable to an amount the corporation is deemed to have so paid to the Minister in respect of the property under paragraph b of that section 1029.8.36.0.2 for a taxation year preceding the particular year;

(d) where subparagraph a does not apply, in the particular year in respect of the property or in any preceding taxation year, and Investissement Québec revokes in the particular year a document validating the operating receipts issued to the corporation in respect of the property, the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under paragraph c of section 1029.8.36.0.2 in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of tax the corporation is required to pay under subparagraph e in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, that is attributable to an amount the corporation is deemed to have so paid to the Minister in respect of the property under that paragraph c for a taxation year preceding the particular year;

(e) where subparagraphs a and d do not apply, in the particular year in respect of the property or in any preceding taxation year and, in the particular year, Investissement Québec issues a document validating the operating receipts to replace such a document previously issued to the corporation and, under the terms of the new document, the aggregate of the amounts the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under paragraph c of section 1029.8.36.0.2 for a taxation year preceding the particular year exceeds the aggregate of the amounts the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that paragraph for such a year if the amounts entered on the replaced document had been the amounts entered on the new document, the part of that excess amount that exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of tax the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year and that is attributable to an amount the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under paragraph c of section 1029.8.36.0.2 for a taxation year preceding the particular year;

(f) where subparagraph a does not apply, in the particular year in respect of the property or in any preceding taxation year and, for the particular year and in respect of the property, the amount determined under subparagraph ii of paragraph a of the definition of "qualified labour expenditure" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.1 exceeds the aggregate determined under subparagraph i of paragraph a of that definition, an amount equal to the aggregate of

i. the lesser of

(1) 20% of that excess amount, where the assistance is attributable to a labour expenditure of the corporation for a taxation year ending before 18 April 1997 in relation to the property, or 25% of that excess amount, where the amount of assistance is attributable to a labour expenditure of the corporation for a taxation year ending after 17 April 1997 in relation to the property, and

(2) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount the corporation is deemed to have so paid to the Minister under paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.0.2 in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of tax the corporation is required to pay under this Part in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year and that is attributable to an amount the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister in respect of the property under that paragraph a for a taxation year preceding the particular year, and

ii. where a certificate has been issued in respect of the property attesting that the multimedia title is both available in French and intended for the consumer market, and where subparagraph c does not apply in the particular year or in a preceding taxation year, the lesser of

(1) 20% of the excess amount referred to in the portion of this subparagraph before subparagraph i, and

(2) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount the corporation is deemed to have so paid to the Minister under paragraph b of section 1029.8.36.0.2 in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the

portion of tax the corporation is required to pay under this Part, in respect of the property, for a taxation year preceding the particular year and that is attributable to an amount the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister in respect of the property under that paragraph b for a taxation year preceding the particular year;

(g) where subparagraph a does not apply, in the particular year in respect of the property or in any preceding taxation year, and the particular year is subsequent to the taxation year in which the final certificate in respect of the property is issued to the corporation, the corporation has received, is entitled to receive, or may reasonably expect to receive on or before its filing-due date for the particular year in respect of the property any government assistance or non-government assistance attributable, as labour expenditure, production costs or both, to a qualified labour expenditure of the corporation in a taxation year preceding the particular year and which, had that assistance been received in the preceding year, would have been taken into account in computing the qualified labour expenditure and, because of that assistance, the aggregate of the amounts the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under paragraphs a and b of section 1029.8.36.0.2 for a taxation year preceding the particular year exceeds the aggregate of the amounts the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under those paragraphs for such a year, the part of that excess amount that exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is tax the corporation is required to pay under this subparagraph in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year; and

(h) where subparagraph a does not apply, in the particular year or in any preceding taxation year in respect of the property, a document validating the operating receipts is not issued to the corporation in the particular year in respect of the property, that particular year is subsequent to a taxation year in which such a document was issued in respect of the property, the corporation has received, is entitled to receive, or may reasonably expect to receive on or before its filing-due date for the particular year in respect of the property any government assistance or non-government assistance attributable to production costs of the corporation in a taxation year preceding the particular year and which, had the assistance been received in the preceding year, would have been taken into account in computing the eligible operating receipts of the corporation for that preceding year and, because of that assistance, the aggregate of the amounts the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under paragraph c of section 1029.8.36.0.2 for a taxation year preceding the particular year exceeds the aggregate of the amounts the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under that paragraph for such a year, the part of that excess amount that exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay because of this subparagraph in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

Furthermore, where applicable, a corporation that controls, directly or indirectly in any manner whatever, the corporation referred to in the first paragraph is liable, solidarily with that corporation, for payment of the tax under the first paragraph.

1129.4.2.1. For the purposes of Part I, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.4.2, in relation to property, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the property, pursuant to a legal obligation.

1999, c. 83, s. 247; 2001, c. 7, s. 169; 2009, c. 15, s. 386.

1129.4.3. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 21.25, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1997, c. 14, s. 264.

PART III.1.1.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR MULTIMEDIA TITLES (PART 2)

1999, c. 83, s. 248.

1129.4.3.1. In this Part,

"eligible production costs" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.3.3;

"multimedia title" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.3;

"qualified labour expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.3.3.

1999, c. 83, s. 248; 2002, c. 40, s. 250; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.4.3.2. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.3.4, on account of its tax payable under Part I, in relation to a property that is a multimedia title, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to an expenditure included in computing a qualified labour expenditure of the corporation in respect of the property, or its eligible production costs in respect of the property, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section, in relation to the property, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to an expenditure included in computing a qualified labour expenditure of the corporation in respect of the property, or its eligible production costs in respect of the property, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year in which the corporation incurred the expenditure to which the amount refunded, paid or allocated relates; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the property.

1129.4.3.3. For the purposes of Part I, the tax that a corporation pays to the Minister at any time under section 1129.4.3.2 in relation to a property is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the property pursuant to a legal obligation.

1999, c. 83, s. 248; 2001, c. 7, s. 169; 2009, c. 15, s. 387.

1129.4.3.4. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1999, c. 83, s. 248.

PART III.1.1.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR MULTIMEDIA TITLES (GENERAL)

1999, c. 83, s. 248.

1129.4.3.5. In this Part,

"multimedia title" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.8;

"qualified labour expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.3.8.

1999, c. 83, s. 248; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

(a) an amount relating to an expenditure included in computing the qualified labour expenditure is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation; or

(b) government assistance or non-government assistance is received by a person or partnership and the assistance would have reduced, in accordance with paragraph b of section 1029.8.36.0.3.10.1, the amount of a portion of a consideration included in computing the qualified labour expenditure, if the person or partnership had received it, had been entitled to receive it or could reasonably have expected to receive it on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the particular taxation year.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.3.9 or 1029.8.36.0.3.11, in relation to its qualified labour expenditure for the particular year in respect of the property, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the repayment year, in relation to an expenditure included in computing the qualified labour expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year, and

ii. every government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph that is received by a person or partnership at or before the end of the repayment year, were received in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified labour expenditure.

1129.4.3.7. For the purposes of Part I, other than Division II.6.0.1.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax that a corporation pays to the Minister at any time under section 1129.4.3.6 in relation to a property is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the property pursuant to a legal obligation.

1999, c. 83, s. 248; 2001, c. 7, s. 169.

1129.4.3.8. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1999, c. 83, s. 248.

PART III.1.1.3

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR CORPORATIONS SPECIALIZED IN THE PRODUCTION OF MULTIMEDIA TITLES

1999, c. 83, s. 248.

1129.4.3.9. In this Part, "qualified labour expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.3.18.

1999, c. 83, s. 248; 2007, c. 12, s. 244.

(a) an amount relating to an expenditure included in computing the qualified labour expenditure is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation; or

(b) government assistance or non-government assistance is received by a person or partnership and the assistance would have reduced, in accordance with paragraph b of section 1029.8.36.0.3.21, the amount of a portion of a consideration included in computing the qualified labour expenditure, if the person or partnership had received it, had been entitled to receive it or could reasonably have expected to receive it on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the particular taxation year.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.3.19 or 1029.8.36.0.3.22, in relation to its qualified labour expenditure for the particular year, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the repayment year, in relation to an expenditure included in computing the qualified labour expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year, and

ii. every government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph that is received by a person or partnership at or before the end of the repayment year, were received in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified labour expenditure.

1129.4.3.11. For the purposes of Part I, other than Division II.6.0.1.3 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax that a corporation pays to the Minister at any time under section 1129.4.3.10 in relation to an expenditure included in a qualified labour expenditure of the corporation is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the expenditure pursuant to a legal obligation.

1999, c. 83, s. 248; 2001, c. 7, s. 169.

1129.4.3.12. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

PART III.1.1.6

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE CORPORATIONS ESTABLISHED IN E-COMMERCE PLACE

2002, c. 9, s. 122.

1129.4.3.22. In this Part,

"eligible employee" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.46;

"qualified wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.46;

"wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.46.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.3.48 if it were read without reference to the fourth and fifth paragraphs thereof, or under section 1029.8.36.0.3.57 if it were read without reference to the second paragraph thereof, in relation to the qualified wages and, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

However, no tax is payable under this section if section 1129.4.3.23.1 applies in respect of the qualified wages for the repayment year or for a preceding taxation year.

2002, c. 9, s. 122; 2002, c. 40, s. 256.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.3.48 or 1029.8.36.0.3.57, or would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under either of those sections if section 1029.8.36.0.3.48 were read without reference to the fourth and fifth paragraphs thereof, and section 1029.8.36.0.3.57 were read without reference to the second paragraph thereof, in relation to the qualified wages, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under section 1129.4.3.23 for a taxation year preceding the particular year, in relation to the qualified wages.

1129.4.3.24. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.0.1.6 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.4.3.23 or 1129.4.3.23.1, in relation to qualified wages, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2002, c. 9, s. 122; 2002, c. 40, s. 258.

1129.4.3.25. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2002, c. 9, s. 122.

PART III.1.1.7

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR E-BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

2003, c. 9, s. 390.

1129.4.3.26. In this Part,

"base period" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.60;

"eligibility period" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.3.60;

"eligible employee" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.60;

"recognized business" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.60;

"salary or wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.60.

For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a calendar year ending in a taxation year includes a reference to a calendar year ending coincidentally with that taxation year.

1129.4.3.27. Every corporation that, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.3.61 or 1029.8.36.0.3.62, on account of the corporation's tax payable under Part I for any taxation year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have so paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.3.61 or 1029.8.36.0.3.62, in relation to the salaries or wages for the taxation year, where Investissement Québec revokes, in the particular year, a qualification certificate issued to the corporation in relation to the recognized business for the purposes of Division II.6.0.1.7 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part, in relation to the salaries or wages, for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

(a) where the corporation pays, in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.61, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if each of the amounts of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid by the corporation, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, and

ii. 100/35 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(b) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.62, determined in respect of the corporation, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business for its taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ended, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or a preceding calendar year, and

(c) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.0.3.63 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.62 in respect of the corporation for a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.62 in respect of the corporation, in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.0.3.63 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts of assistance in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or in a preceding calendar year, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.0.3.63 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. 100/35 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(d) where, in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.61 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.61 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received by the corporation in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied;

(e) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.62 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any other qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the other corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.62 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied; and

(f) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the excess amount referred to in paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.0.3.63 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the other corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.62 in respect of the corporation for the preceding calendar year exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.62 in respect of the corporation, in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.0.3.63 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.0.3.63 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied.

For the purposes of subparagraphs d to f of the first paragraph, where Investissement Québec revokes in the particular taxation year the qualification certificate issued, for the purposes of Division II.6.0.1.7 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, to the corporation in relation to an eligible employee for a pay period of a calendar year within its eligibility period, in relation to a recognized business, the amount of the salary or wages paid by a corporation to that employee is deemed to be refunded to the corporation in the particular taxation year.

1129.4.3.29. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.0.1.7 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under this Part, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the salaries or wages pursuant to a legal obligation.

2003, c. 9, s. 390.

1129.4.3.30. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027, section 1029.8.36.0.3.66 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2003, c. 9, s. 390.

PART III.1.1.8

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR MAJOR EMPLOYMENT-GENERATING PROJECTS

2006, c. 13, s. 209.

1129.4.3.31. In this Part,

"eligible contract" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.72;

"eligible employee" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.72;

"qualified wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.72;

"wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.72.

1129.4.3.32. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.3.73, on account of its tax payable for a taxation year under Part I, in relation to qualified wages incurred in the taxation year in respect of an eligible employee, in relation to an eligible contract, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "particular year", in which Investissement Québec revokes a qualification certificate issued to the corporation, in relation to the eligible contract, for the purposes of Division II.6.0.1.8 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.3.73 or 1029.8.36.0.3.76, in relation to qualified wages incurred in respect of an eligible employee, in relation to the eligible contract, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under section 1129.4.3.33 for a taxation year preceding the particular year, in relation to the qualified wages.

1129.4.3.33. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.3.73, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to qualified wages incurred in the taxation year in respect of an eligible employee, in relation to an eligible contract, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.3.73 or 1029.8.36.0.3.76, in relation to the qualified wages, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified wages.

If Investissement Québec revokes, in any given taxation year, a qualification certificate issued, for the purposes of Division II.6.0.1.8 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I and in relation to an eligible contract, to a corporation in respect of an employee and in relation to all or part of a preceding taxation year, the amount relating to the wages included in computing the qualified wages incurred by the corporation in respect of the employee, for all or part of the preceding taxation year and in relation to the eligible contract, is, for the purposes of the first and second paragraphs, deemed to be refunded to the corporation in the given taxation year.

However, no tax is payable under this section if section 1129.4.3.32 applies in respect of the qualified wages for the repayment year or a preceding taxation year.

1129.4.3.34. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.0.1.8 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.4.3.32 or 1129.4.3.33, in relation to qualified wages, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2006, c. 13, s. 209.

1129.4.3.35. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2006, c. 13, s. 209.

PART III.1.1.9

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF E-BUSINESS

2009, c. 15, s. 388.

1129.4.3.36. In this Part, "eligible employee", "qualified wages" and "wages" have the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.79.

2009, c. 15, s. 388.

1129.4.3.37. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.3.80, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to qualified wages incurred in the particular taxation year in respect of an eligible employee, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.3.80 or 1029.8.36.0.3.82, in relation to the qualified wages, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified wages.

2009, c. 15, s. 388.

1129.4.3.38. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.0.1.9 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.4.3.37, in relation to qualified wages, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2009, c. 15, s. 388.

1129.4.3.39. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 if it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2009, c. 15, s. 388.

PART III.1.1.10

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR MAJOR DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION PROJECTS

2017, c. 29, s. 213.

1129.4.3.40. In this Part, "eligible digitization activity", "eligible digitization contract", "eligible employee", "qualified wages" and "wages" have the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.84.

2017, c. 29, s. 213.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is tax the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under section 1129.4.3.42 for a taxation year that precedes the particular year in relation to qualified wages incurred in respect of an eligible employee in connection with the eligible digitization contract is exceeded by the amount obtained by applying the percentage specified in the third paragraph to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.3.85 or 1029.8.36.0.3.86 for a taxation year in relation to such qualified wages.

The percentage to which the second paragraph refers is

(a) unless any of subparagraphs b to e applies, 100%;

(b) 80%, where the failure to satisfy the condition referred to in the first paragraph occurs in the fourth year following the time the eligible digitization activities provided for in the eligible digitization contract began to be carried out;

(c) 60%, where the failure to satisfy the condition referred to in the first paragraph occurs in the fifth year following the time the eligible digitization activities provided for in the eligible digitization contract began to be carried out;

(d) 40%, where the failure to satisfy the condition referred to in the first paragraph occurs in the sixth year following the time the eligible digitization activities provided for in the eligible digitization contract began to be carried out; or

(e) 20%, where the failure to satisfy the condition referred to in the first paragraph occurs in the seventh year following the time the eligible digitization activities provided for in the eligible digitization contract began to be carried out.

2017, c. 29, s. 213.

1129.4.3.42. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.3.85, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to qualified wages incurred in the particular taxation year in respect of an eligible employee, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.3.85 or 1029.8.36.0.3.86, in relation to the qualified wages, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified wages.

1129.4.3.43. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.0.1.10 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.4.3.41 or 1129.4.3.42, in relation to qualified wages, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

1129.4.3.44. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2017, c. 29, s. 213.

PART III.1.1.11

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION OF PRINT MEDIA

2019, c. 14, s. 442.

1129.4.3.45. In this Part,

"eligibility period" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.88;

"eligible digital conversion activity" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.88;

"eligible digital conversion contract" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.88;

"eligible digital conversion costs" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.88;

"eligible media" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.88;

"establishment" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"qualified expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.3.88;

"qualified property" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.88;

"qualified wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.88.

In this Part, a print media is deemed to be an eligible media for a particular period that follows the last day of the eligibility period, if the conditions of section 18.4 of Schedule A to the Act respecting the sectoral parameters of certain fiscal measures (chapter P-5.1) are met in its respect for that period.

2019, c. 14, s. 442.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.3.96 or 1029.8.36.0.3.102, in relation to the eligible digital conversion costs, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to such qualified wages or to costs that are taken into consideration in computing such a qualified expenditure, had been refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

However, the tax payable under this section must be computed without reference to any amount relating to costs taken into consideration in computing a qualified expenditure of the corporation that are acquisition costs for a qualified property in respect of which section 1129.4.3.47 applies for the repayment year or applied for a preceding taxation year.

1129.4.3.47. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.3.96, on account of its tax payable under Part I, in relation to a portion of its eligible digital conversion costs that corresponds to the portion of a qualified expenditure of the corporation that relates to the acquisition costs of a qualified property that the corporation incurred, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a particular taxation year if, at any time in the period described in the third paragraph, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of its loss, the involuntary destruction of the property by fire, theft or water, a major breakdown of the property or its obsolescence, to be used exclusively or almost exclusively by the corporation, on the one hand, to carry out eligible digital conversion activities that relate, in whole or in part, to an eligible media of the corporation and, on the other hand, in an establishment of the corporation situated in Québec in which the eligible media is produced or from which it is disseminated.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.3.96 or 1029.8.36.0.3.102, in relation to such a portion of its eligible digital conversion costs, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under section 1129.4.3.46, for a taxation year preceding the particular year, that may reasonably be attributed to such a portion of its eligible digital conversion costs.

The period to which the first paragraph refers is the period that begins on the day after the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year preceding the particular year and ends on the earlier of

(a) the 730th day of the period that begins on the date of the acquisition of the property by the corporation; and

(b) the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, where, at any time, a corporation disposes of a qualified property for proceeds of disposition equal to or greater than 10% of the cost of acquiring it, the corporation is deemed not to have ceased to use, at that time, the property by reason of its obsolescence; in that respect, where the parties to the sale are not dealing with each other at arm's length, the proceeds of disposition of the property are deemed to be equal to its fair market value.

1129.4.3.48. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.3.97, on account of the corporation's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to the partnership's eligible digital conversion costs for the partnership's particular fiscal period that ends in that particular year, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for the taxation year in which ends a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership (in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment") in which an amount that relates to qualified wages, incurred by the partnership, that are included in the eligible digital conversion costs, or to costs that are taken into consideration in computing a qualified expenditure of the partnership that is included in the eligible digital conversion costs is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation or partnership.

fiscal period that ends in that taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8.36.0.3.97, 1029.8.36.0.3.103 and 1029.8.36.0.3.104, for a taxation year, in relation to the eligible digital conversion costs, if

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to such qualified wages or to costs that are taken into consideration in computing such a qualified expenditure, had been refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the eligible digital conversion costs, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

However, the tax payable under this section must be computed without reference to any amount relating to costs that are taken into consideration in computing a qualified expenditure of the partnership that are acquisition costs for a qualified property in respect of which section 1129.4.3.49 applies for the fiscal period of repayment or applied for a preceding fiscal period.

1129.4.3.49. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister for a taxation year, under section 1029.8.36.0.3.97, on account of its tax payable under Part I, in relation to the portion of the partnership's eligible digital conversion costs, for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the year, that corresponds to the portion of a qualified expenditure of the partnership that relates to the acquisition costs of a qualified property that it incurred, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a particular taxation year if, at any time in the period described in the third paragraph, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of its loss, the involuntary destruction of the property by fire, theft or water, a major breakdown of the property or its obsolescence, to be used exclusively or almost exclusively by the partnership, on the one hand, to carry out eligible digital conversion activities that relate, in whole or in part, to an eligible media of the partnership and, on the other hand, in an establishment of the partnership situated in Québec in which the eligible media is produced or from which it is disseminated.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8.36.0.3.97, 1029.8.36.0.3.103 and 1029.8.36.0.3.104, in relation to such a portion of the partnership's eligible digital conversion costs for a fiscal period, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under section 1129.4.3.48, for a taxation year preceding the particular year, that may reasonably be attributed to such a portion of the partnership's eligible digital conversion costs.

The period to which the first paragraph refers is the period that begins on the day after the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year preceding the particular year and ends on the earlier of

(a) the 730th day of the period that begins on the date of the acquisition of the property by the partnership; and

(b) the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, where, at any time, a partnership disposes of a qualified property for proceeds of disposition equal to or greater than 10% of the cost of acquiring it, the partnership is deemed not to have ceased to use, at that time, the property by reason of its obsolescence.

2019, c. 14, s. 442.

1129.4.3.50. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.0.1.11 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules are taken into account:

(a) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.4.3.46 or 1129.4.3.47 in relation to its eligible digital conversion costs is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of wages or an expenditure included in those eligible digital conversion costs, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.4.3.48 or 1129.4.3.49 in relation to the eligible digital conversion costs of a partnership referred to in that section is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership in respect of wages or an expenditure included in those eligible digital conversion costs, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2019, c. 14, s. 442.

1129.4.3.51. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2019, c. 14, s. 442.

PART III.1.1.12

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT TO SUPPORT PRINT MEDIA

2021, c. 14, s. 189.

1129.4.3.52. In this Part,

"eligible employee" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.3.109;

"qualified expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.3.109;

"qualified wages" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.3.109;

"recognized activity" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.109;

"transitional period" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.109;

"wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.109;

"wholly-owned subsidiary" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.109.

2021, c. 14, s. 189.

1129.4.3.53. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.3.111, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to the qualified wages incurred in the particular year in respect of an eligible employee, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.3.111 or 1029.8.36.0.3.115, in relation to the qualified wages, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, had been refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

Where the corporation's particular taxation year includes all or part of the transitional period and where, in the transitional period or part of that period, the corporation's wholly-owned subsidiary for the particular year carried out work on its behalf in relation to recognized activities, the first and second paragraphs apply to an amount relating to the corporation's qualified expenditure for the particular year that may reasonably be attributed to the wages the wholly-owned subsidiary incurred and paid in respect of its eligible employees and that is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, but are to be read

(a) as if "in relation to the qualified wages incurred in the particular year in respect of an eligible employee" and "relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages" in the first paragraph were replaced by "in relation to its qualified expenditure for the particular year" and "attributable to the wages that the wholly-owned subsidiary of the corporation for the particular year incurred and paid in respect of its eligible employees and that are taken into account in computing the qualified expenditure", respectively;

(b) as if "in relation to the qualified wages" wherever it appears in the second paragraph were replaced by "in relation to the qualified expenditure"; and

(c) as if "in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages" in subparagraph a of the second paragraph were replaced by "in relation to the wages taken into account in computing the qualified expenditure".

For the purposes of this section, an amount is deemed to have been, at a particular time, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it if the amount that is attributable to the wages that another corporation that was the corporation's wholly-owned subsidiary for the particular taxation year incurred and paid in the year in respect of its eligible employees was, at that time, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it.

wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under any of sections 1029.8.36.0.3.112, 1029.8.36.0.3.116 and 1029.8.36.0.3.117, in relation to the qualified wages, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, had been refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the qualified wages, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

Where the partnership's particular fiscal period includes all or part of the transitional period and where, in the transitional period or part of that period, the partnership's wholly-owned subsidiary for the particular fiscal period carried out work on its behalf in relation to recognized activities, the first, second and third paragraphs apply to an amount relating to the partnership's qualified expenditure for the particular fiscal period that may reasonably be attributed to the wages the wholly-owned subsidiary incurred and paid in respect of its eligible employees and that is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation, but are to be read

(a) as if "in relation to the qualified wages incurred by the partnership, in respect of an eligible employee, in" and "relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages" in the first paragraph were replaced by "in relation to its qualified expenditure for" and "attributable to the wages that the wholly-owned subsidiary of the partnership for the particular fiscal period incurred and paid in respect of its eligible employees and that are taken into account in computing the qualified expenditure", respectively;

(b) as if "in relation to the qualified wages" wherever it appears in the portion of the second paragraph before subparagraph i of subparagraph a and in subparagraph b of that paragraph were replaced by "in relation to the qualified expenditure"; and

(c) as if "in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages" in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the second paragraph were replaced by "in relation to the wages taken into account in computing the qualified expenditure".

For the purposes of this section, an amount is deemed to have been, at a particular time, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by it if the amount that is attributable to the wages that a corporation that was the partnership's wholly-owned subsidiary for the particular fiscal period incurred and paid in respect of its eligible employees was, at that time, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it.

2021, c. 14, s. 189.

1129.4.3.55. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.0.1.12 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules are taken into account:

(a) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.4.3.53 in relation to qualified wages is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the wages, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.4.3.54 in relation to qualified wages is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

Where the circumstances described in the third paragraph of section 1129.4.3.53 or the fourth paragraph of section 1129.4.3.54 occur, the presumption provided for in subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph applies, as the case may be, in respect of the tax a corporation pays to the Minister under that section in relation to a qualified expenditure of the corporation or of the partnership of which it is a member.

2021, c. 14, s. 189.

1129.4.3.56. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

PART III.1.3

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE NEW ECONOMY

2000, c. 39, s. 238.

1129.4.7. In this Part,

"acquisition costs" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.17;

"Centre national des nouvelles technologies de Québec" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.17;

"Cité du multimédia" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.17;

"eligible employee" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.17;

"eligible facility" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.17;

"eligible rental expenses" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.17;

"information technology development centre" has the meaning assigned by section 771.1;

"qualified centre" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.17;

"qualified property" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.17;

"qualified wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.17;

"rental expenses" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.17;

"specified employee" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.17;

"specified wages" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.17;

"wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.17.

1129.4.8. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.19 or 1029.8.36.0.20, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to qualified wages paid to an eligible employee, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax referred to in the first paragraph is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section 1029.8.36.0.19 or 1029.8.36.0.20 or under section 1029.8.36.0.30, in relation to the qualified wages, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister, under that section 1029.8.36.0.19 or 1029.8.36.0.20 or under section 1029.8.36.0.30, in relation to the qualified wages, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year, in this section referred to as the "payment year", in which the corporation paid the wages to which the amount refunded, paid or allocated relates; and

In addition, if a corporation carried on or could carry on its business in an information technology development centre in a particular taxation year that begins before 21 December 2001 for which the corporation is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister in relation to qualified wages under section 1029.8.36.0.5 or 1029.8.36.0.5.1, as it read for the particular year, the first and second paragraphs apply, in respect of an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages that is, directly or indirectly, refunded, paid or allocated, having regard to the following rules:

(a) the references to sections 1029.8.36.0.19, 1029.8.36.0.20 and 1029.8.36.0.30, wherever they appear in the portion of this section before subparagraph b of the second paragraph, shall be read respectively as references to sections 1029.8.36.0.5, 1029.8.36.0.5.1 and 1029.8.36.0.10, as they formerly read for the particular year; and

(b) subparagraph b of the second paragraph shall be read as follows:

"(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister in relation to the qualified wages for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, under this section or under section 1129.4.4.1, as it read for that preceding taxation year."

Notwithstanding section 1129.4.7, the expressions "eligible employee" and "qualified wages" have, in this section, the meaning assigned by section 1129.4.4, as it read for the payment year, if

(a) the third paragraph applies; or

(b) the payment year begins before 21 December 2001 and the corporation carried on or could carry on its business in an information technology development centre in the particular taxation year referred to in the first paragraph.

2000, c. 39, s. 238; 2002, c. 40, s. 262; 2003, c. 9, s. 393.

1129.4.9. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.22, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to specified wages incurred in the particular year in respect of a specified employee, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the specified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.22 or 1029.8.36.0.31, in relation to the specified wages, exceeds the total of

In addition, if a corporation carried on or could carry on its business in the Cité du multimédia or the Centre national des nouvelles technologies de Québec in a particular taxation year that begins before 21 December 2001 for which the corporation is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister in relation to qualified wages under section 1029.8.36.0.3.30 or 1029.8.36.0.3.40, as it read for the particular year, the first and second paragraphs apply, in respect of an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages that is, directly or indirectly, refunded, paid or allocated, having regard to the following rules:

(a) the references to sections 1029.8.36.0.22 and 1029.8.36.0.31, wherever they appear in the portion of this section before subparagraph b of the second paragraph, shall be read respectively as references to

i. sections 1029.8.36.0.3.30 and 1029.8.36.0.3.35, as they formerly read for the particular year, where the corporation carried on or could carry on its business in the Cité du multimédia in the particular year, or

ii. sections 1029.8.36.0.3.40 and 1029.8.36.0.3.43, as they formerly read for the particular year, where the corporation carried on or could carry on its business in the Centre national des nouvelles technologies de Québec in the particular year;

(b) the expressions “specified wages” and “specified employee”, wherever they appear in the portion of this section before subparagraph b of the second paragraph, shall be read respectively as “qualified wages” and “eligible employee”, having the meaning assigned by

i. section 1129.4.3.13, as it read for the particular year, where the corporation carried on or could carry on its business in the Cité du multimédia in the particular year, or

ii. section 1129.4.3.18, as it read for the particular year, where the corporation carried on or could carry on its business in the Centre national des nouvelles technologies de Québec in the particular year; and

(c) subparagraph b of the second paragraph shall be read as follows:

Notwithstanding section 1129.4.7, the expression “qualified wages” in the portion of the third paragraph before subparagraph a has the meaning assigned by section 1129.4.3.13 or 1129.4.3.18, as it read for the particular year, according to whether the corporation carried on or could carry on its business in the particular year in the Cité du multimédia or in the Centre national des nouvelles technologies de Québec.

2000, c. 39, s. 238; 2002, c. 40, s. 262; 2003, c. 9, s. 394.

1129.4.10. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.25, on account of its tax payable under Part I, in relation to acquisition costs incurred in respect of qualified property or rental expenses paid in respect of such property, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the “repayment year”, in which an amount relating to the acquisition costs or rental expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.25 or 1029.8.36.0.32, in relation to the acquisition costs or rental expenses, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the costs or expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year during which the corporation incurred the acquisition costs or paid the rental expenses to which the amount refunded, paid or allocated relates; and

In addition, if a corporation carried on or could carry on its business in an information technology development centre in a particular taxation year that begins before 21 December 2001 for which the corporation is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister in respect of acquisition costs or rental expenses under section 1029.8.36.0.6, as it read for the particular year, the first and second paragraphs, subject to the fourth paragraph, shall be read as follows:

"1129.4.10. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.6 or 1029.8.36.0.25, on account of its tax payable under Part I, in relation to acquisition costs incurred in respect of qualified property or rental expenses paid in respect of such property, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to the acquisition costs or rental expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister in relation to the acquisition costs or rental expenses, under section 1029.8.36.0.6 or 1029.8.36.0.11 or under section 1029.8.36.0.25 or 1029.8.36.0.32, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister in relation to the acquisition costs or rental expenses, under section 1029.8.36.0.6 or 1029.8.36.0.11 or under section 1029.8.36.0.25 or 1029.8.36.0.32, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the costs or expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year during which the corporation incurred the acquisition costs or paid the rental expenses to which the amount refunded, paid or allocated relates; and

In the text of the first and second paragraphs of this section enacted by the third paragraph, a reference to section 1029.8.36.0.6 or 1029.8.36.0.11 shall be a reference to that section as it read for a taxation year in which an amount is deemed to have been paid under that section.

However, no tax is payable under this section if, for the repayment year, section 1129.4.10.1 applies in respect of the property or if, for a preceding taxation year, that section or section 1129.4.4.3, as it read for that preceding taxation year, applied in respect of the property.

of qualified property, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "particular year", if, at any time in the period described in the third paragraph the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of its loss, the involuntary destruction of the property by fire, theft or water, a major breakdown of the property or its obsolescence, to be used by the corporation principally in a qualified centre.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.25 or 1029.8.36.0.32, in relation to the acquisition costs, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under section 1129.4.10, for a taxation year preceding the particular year, in relation to the acquisition costs.

The period to which the first paragraph refers is the period that begins the day after the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year preceding the particular year and ends on the earlier of the last day of the three-year period following the beginning of the use of the property by the corporation and the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year.

In addition, if a corporation carried on or could carry on its business in an information technology development centre in a taxation year that begins before 21 December 2001 for which the corporation is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister in respect of acquisition costs or rental expenses under section 1029.8.36.0.6, as it read for that taxation year, the first and second paragraphs, subject to the fifth paragraph, shall be read as follows:

"1129.4.10.1. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.6 or 1029.8.36.0.25, on account of its tax payable under Part I, in relation to acquisition costs incurred in respect of qualified property, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "particular year", if, at any time in the period described in the third paragraph the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of its loss, the involuntary destruction of the property by fire, theft or water, a major breakdown of the property or its obsolescence, to be used by the corporation principally in an information technology development centre.

In the text of the first and second paragraphs of this section enacted by the fourth paragraph, a reference to section 1029.8.36.0.6 or 1029.8.36.0.11 shall be a reference to that section as it read for a taxation year in which an amount is deemed to have been paid under that section.

For the purposes of this section, where, at any time, a corporation disposes of qualified property for proceeds of disposition equal to or greater than 10% of the cost of acquiring it, the corporation is deemed not to have ceased to use, at that time, the property by reason of its obsolescence; in that respect, where the parties to the sale are not dealing with each other at arm's length, the proceeds of disposition of the property are deemed to be equal to its fair market value.

1129.4.10.2. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.25.1, on account of its tax payable under Part I, in relation to the eligible rental expenses incurred in respect of an eligible facility, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to the eligible rental expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.25.1 or 1029.8.36.0.32.1, in relation to the eligible rental expenses, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible rental expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year in which the corporation incurred the eligible rental expenses to which the amount refunded, paid or allocated relates; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the eligible rental expenses.

1129.4.10.3. For the purposes of section 1129.4.10.2, the amount determined in accordance with the second paragraph, in relation to the eligible rental expenses incurred by the corporation in a particular taxation year in respect of an eligible facility, is deemed to be refunded to the corporation in a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which Investissement Québec revokes the certificate it had issued in respect of the facility.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of the eligible rental expenses incurred by the corporation in the particular taxation year and on or after the effective date specified in the notice of revocation, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount relating to the expenses that, in a taxation year preceding the repayment year but subsequent to the particular year, was refunded, otherwise paid or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

No tax is payable for a taxation year under section 1129.4.10.2 in respect of any amount that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation, if that amount is included in an amount that is deemed to have been refunded, under this section, in that taxation year or in a preceding taxation year.

1129.4.11. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.0.3 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under any of sections 1129.4.8 to 1129.4.10.2, in relation to an expenditure or property, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the expenditure or property, pursuant to a legal obligation.

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR WAGES IN CONNECTION WITH THE CREATION OF THE INTERNATIONAL TRADE ZONE AT MIRABEL

2000, c. 39, s. 238.

1129.4.13. In this Part,

"eligible employee" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.38;

"qualified wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.38;

"wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.38.

2000, c. 39, s. 238; 2001, c. 51, s. 228; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.4.14. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.40, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to qualified wages incurred in the particular year in respect of an eligible employee, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.40 or 1029.8.36.0.49, in relation to the qualified wages, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified wages.

1129.4.15. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.43, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to qualified wages incurred by the partnership, in respect of an eligible employee, in a particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership ends, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under any of sections 1029.8.36.0.43, 1029.8.36.0.50 and 1029.8.36.0.51, in relation to the qualified wages, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the qualified wages, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation, or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

1129.4.16. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.0.4 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules apply:

(a) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.4.14, in relation to qualified wages is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the wages, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.4.15, in relation to qualified wages is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2000, c. 39, s. 238.

1129.4.17. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2000, c. 39, s. 238.

PART III.1.5

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR CUSTOMS BROKERAGE SERVICES IN CONNECTION WITH THE CREATION OF THE INTERNATIONAL TRADE ZONE AT MIRABEL

2000, c. 39, s. 238.

1129.4.18. In this Part, "qualified brokerage expenditure" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.55.

2000, c. 39, s. 238; 2001, c. 51, s. 216; 2007, c. 12, s. 247.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.57 or 1029.8.36.0.66, in relation to the qualified brokerage expenditure, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to fees included in computing the qualified brokerage expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified brokerage expenditure.

1129.4.20. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.60, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to a qualified brokerage expenditure incurred by the partnership in a particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership ends, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", in which an amount relating to fees included in computing the qualified brokerage expenditure is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under any of sections 1029.8.36.0.60, 1029.8.36.0.67 and 1029.8.36.0.68, in relation to the qualified brokerage expenditure, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, in relation to fees included in computing the qualified brokerage expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the qualified brokerage expenditure, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

2000, c. 39, s. 238; 2002, c. 40, s. 266; 2006, c. 36, s. 229; 2009, c. 15, s. 390.

1129.4.21. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.0.5 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules apply:

(a) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.4.19, in relation to a qualified brokerage expenditure is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.4.20, in relation to a qualified brokerage expenditure is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2000, c. 39, s. 238.

1129.4.22. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2000, c. 39, s. 238.

PART III.1.6

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR ACQUISITION COSTS OR RENTAL EXPENSES IN CONNECTION WITH THE CREATION OF THE INTERNATIONAL TRADE ZONE AT MIRABEL

2000, c. 39, s. 238.

1129.4.23. In this Part,

"acquisition costs" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.72;

"international trade zone" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.38;

"qualified property" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.72;

"recognized business" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.38;

"rental expenses" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.72.

2000, c. 39, s. 238; 2001, c. 51, s. 217; 2004, c. 21, s. 456; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.4.24. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.73, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to acquisition costs incurred or rental expenses paid, in respect of qualified property in the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to the acquisition costs or rental expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.73 or 1029.8.36.0.77, in relation to the acquisition costs or rental expenses, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the costs or expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

However, no tax is payable under this section if section 1129.4.24.1 applies in respect of the property for the repayment year or for a preceding taxation year.

2000, c. 39, s. 238; 2002, c. 40, s. 267; 2004, c. 21, s. 457.

second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "particular year", if, at any time in the period described in the third paragraph, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of its loss, the involuntary destruction of the property by fire, theft or water, a major breakdown of the property or its obsolescence, to be used by the corporation exclusively in the international trade zone and, exclusively or almost exclusively, to earn income from activities shown on the certificate issued to the corporation in respect of the recognized business and carried on in that zone by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.73 or 1029.8.36.0.77, in relation to the acquisition costs, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under section 1129.4.24, for a taxation year preceding the particular year, in relation to the acquisition costs.

The period to which the first paragraph refers is the period that begins the day after the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year preceding the particular year and ends on the day that is the earlier of the last day of the three-year period following the beginning of the use of the property by the corporation and the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, where, at any time, a corporation disposes of qualified property for proceeds of disposition equal to or greater than 10% of the cost of acquiring it, the corporation is deemed not to have ceased to use, at that time, the property by reason of its obsolescence; in that respect, where the parties to the sale are not dealing with each other at arm's length, the proceeds of disposition of the property are deemed to be equal to its fair market value.

1129.4.25. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.74, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to acquisition costs incurred or rental expenses paid by the partnership, in respect of qualified property, in a particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership ends, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", in which an amount relating to the acquisition costs or rental expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under any of sections 1029.8.36.0.74, 1029.8.36.0.78 and 1029.8.36.0.79, in relation to the acquisition costs or rental expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the costs or expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the acquisition costs or rental expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation, or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

However, no tax is payable under this section if section 1129.4.25.1 applies in respect of the property for the fiscal period of repayment or for a preceding fiscal period.

1129.4.25.1. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister for a taxation year, under section 1029.8.36.0.74, on account of its tax payable under Part I, in relation to acquisition costs incurred by the partnership in respect of qualified property in the course of carrying on a recognized business in a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a particular taxation year, in this section referred to as the "particular year", if, at any time in the period described in the third paragraph, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of its loss, the involuntary destruction of the property by fire, theft or water, a major breakdown of the property or its obsolescence, to be used by the partnership exclusively in the international trade zone and, exclusively or almost exclusively, to earn income from activities shown on the certificate issued to the partnership in respect of the recognized business and carried on in that zone by the partnership.

The period to which the first paragraph refers is the period that begins the day after the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year preceding the particular year and ends on the day that is the earlier of the last day of the three-year period following the beginning of the use of the property by the partnership and the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, where, at any time, a partnership disposes of qualified property for proceeds of disposition equal to or greater than 10% of the cost of acquiring it, the partnership is deemed not to have ceased to use, at that time, the property by reason of its obsolescence.

2004, c. 21, s. 460; 2007, c. 12, s. 249.

1129.4.26. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.0.6 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules apply:

(a) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.4.24 or 1129.4.24.1, in relation to acquisition costs or rental expenses is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the costs or expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.4.25 or 1129.4.25.1, in relation to acquisition costs or rental expenses is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the costs or expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2000, c. 39, s. 238; 2004, c. 21, s. 461.

1129.4.27. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2000, c. 39, s. 238.

PART III.1.7

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE CONSTRUCTION, RENOVATION OR ALTERATION OF STRATEGIC BUILDINGS IN THE INTERNATIONAL TRADE ZONE AT MIRABEL

2002, c. 9, s. 124.

1129.4.28. In this Part,

"completion date of the work" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.84;

"eligible expenses" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.84;

"filing period" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.84;

"strategic building" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.84.

2002, c. 9, s. 124; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.4.29. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.85, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to eligible expenses incurred in the particular year in respect of a strategic building, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to the eligible expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.85 or 1029.8.36.0.89, in relation to the eligible expenses, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

However, no tax is payable under this section if section 1129.4.30.1 applies in respect of the strategic building for the repayment year or for a preceding taxation year.

2002, c. 9, s. 124; 2002, c. 40, s. 268.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to,

(a) where the particular year is one of the first five taxation years of the corporation's filing period, the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.85 or 1029.8.36.0.89, in relation to the eligible expenses, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under section 1129.4.29 for the particular year or for a preceding taxation year, in relation to the eligible expenses; or

(b) where the particular year is one of the last four years of the corporation's filing period, the amount determined by the formula

$$A \times [(10 - B) \times 20] / 100.$$

In the formula provided for in subparagraph b of the second paragraph,

(a) A is the amount that would be determined under subparagraph a of the second paragraph, if that subparagraph applied to the particular year; and

(b) B is the number of taxation years, including the particular year, following the taxation year that includes the completion date of the work.

However, no tax is payable under this section if the section applied in respect of the strategic building for a taxation year preceding the particular year or if section 1129.4.30.1 applies in respect of the building for the particular year or for a preceding taxation year.

2002, c. 9, s. 124; 2002, c. 40, s. 268; 2004, c. 21, s. 462; 2007, c. 12, s. 250.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.85 or 1029.8.36.0.89, in relation to the eligible expenses, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under section 1129.4.29 or 1129.4.30, for a taxation year preceding the particular year, in relation to the eligible expenses.

1129.4.31. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.0.7 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under any of sections 1129.4.29, 1129.4.30 and 1129.4.30.1, in relation to eligible expenses in respect of a strategic building is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2002, c. 9, s. 124; 2002, c. 40, s. 270.

1129.4.32. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2002, c. 9, s. 124.

PART III.1.8

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE ADDITIONAL DEDUCTION OF 35% OR 60% IN RESPECT OF CERTAIN INVESTMENTS

2020, c. 16, s. 183.

1129.4.33. Where a taxpayer has deducted, in respect of a property, an amount in computing the taxpayer's income under section 156.7.4 for a taxation year ending before all the conditions prescribed in respect of the property have been met and, in a subsequent taxation year, an event occurs that results in any of those conditions not being able to be met, the taxpayer shall pay a tax for that subsequent taxation year that is equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the tax payable by the taxpayer under Part I for a preceding taxation year for which the taxpayer deducted an amount in computing the taxpayer's income under section 156.7.4 in respect of the property is exceeded by the tax that the taxpayer would have had to pay under Part I for that preceding taxation year if such an amount had not been deducted.

2020, c. 16, s. 183.

1129.4.34. Where a partnership has deducted, in respect of a property, an amount in computing its income under section 156.7.4 for a fiscal period ending before all the conditions prescribed in respect of the property have been met and, in a subsequent fiscal period, an event occurs that results in any of those conditions not being able to be met, each taxpayer who was a member of the partnership at the end of a preceding fiscal period for which the partnership deducted such an amount in respect of the property shall pay a tax, for the taxpayer's taxation year in which that subsequent fiscal period ends, that is equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the tax payable by the taxpayer under Part I for a taxation year in which such a preceding fiscal period ends is exceeded by the tax that the taxpayer would have had to pay for that taxation year under Part I if no amount had been deducted by the partnership under section 156.7.4 in respect of the property.

2020, c. 16, s. 183.

1129.4.35. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024 and 1026.0.1, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

PART III.2.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE SECOND COOPERATIVE INVESTMENT PLAN

2006, c. 37, s. 52.

1129.12.8. In this Part,

"qualification certificate" means a qualification certificate issued either under section 11 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1), as it read before being repealed or under section 5.5 of Schedule C to the Act respecting the sectoral parameters of certain fiscal measures (chapter P-5.1);

"qualified cooperative" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 2 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act;

"qualified federation of cooperatives" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 2 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act;

"qualifying security" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 2 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act.

2006, c. 37, s. 52; 2007, c. 12, s. 304; 2012, c. 1, s. 67.

1129.12.9. If a qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives that holds a qualification certificate has issued qualifying securities in a year, it shall pay tax for that year equal to 30% of the proceeds from the issue of those securities if, at the end of the fiscal period that ended in the calendar year that precedes that year, it does not meet the conditions set out in any of subparagraphs 1 to 5 of the first paragraph of section 3 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1), subparagraph 1 or 2 of the second paragraph of that section 3 or any of subparagraphs 1 to 5 of section 4 of that Act, as the case may be.

1129.12.10. If a qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives is required to pay tax for a calendar year under this Part, it shall, on or before 31 March of the calendar year that follows the calendar year for which the tax is payable,

(a) file with the Minister, without notice or demand, a return under this Part for that year in the prescribed form containing prescribed information;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year.

2006, c. 37, s. 52; 2009, c. 15, s. 392.

2006, c. 37, s. 52.

PART III.2.3

SPECIAL TAX TO ENSURE THE INTEGRITY OF THE SECOND COOPERATIVE INVESTMENT PLAN

2006, c. 37, s. 52.

1129.12.12. In this Part,

"investment under the plan" means any investment held by a qualified cooperative in the form of a share of the capital stock of the corporation that employs its members, or of a debenture issued by the corporation, provided that the debenture was held continuously by the cooperative throughout a 120-day period including the determination time of investments in the corporation;

"qualification certificate" means a qualification certificate issued either under section 11 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1), as it read before being repealed or under section 5.5 of Schedule C to the Act respecting the sectoral parameters of certain fiscal measures (chapter P-5.1);

"qualified cooperative" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 2 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act;

"qualifying security" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 2 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act.

For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a calendar year ending in a taxation year includes a reference to a calendar year ending coincidentally with that taxation year.

1129.12.13. If, in a particular calendar year, a qualified cooperative that is a shareholding workers cooperative, within the meaning of the first paragraph of section 2 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1), and that holds a qualification certificate has issued qualifying securities, redeemed securities issued under that Act or under the cooperative investment plan enacted by Order in Council 1596-85 (1985, G.O. 2, 5580, in French only), acquired an investment under the plan, or disposed of such an investment, the qualified cooperative shall pay tax for that year equal to the regulation amount determined under section 1129.12.14.

The first paragraph ceases to apply from the calendar year in which the qualified cooperative decides to wind-up in accordance with the Cooperatives Act (chapter C-67.2) or the Canada Cooperatives Act (S.C. 1998, c. 1).

2006, c. 37, s. 52; 2013, c. 10, s. 156.

1129.12.14. The regulation amount to which the first paragraph of section 1129.12.13 refers in respect of a qualified cooperative for a particular calendar year is equal to the amount determined by the formula

30% (A - B) + C - D.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount by which the aggregate of the amounts paid in respect of the securities that are issued by the qualified cooperative under the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1) and under the cooperative investment plan enacted by Order in Council 1596-85 (1985, G.O. 2, 5580, in French only) and that are outstanding at the end of the particular calendar year, exceeds an amount equal to 165% of the acquisition cost, determined without taking into account the borrowing costs and the other costs related to their acquisition, of the aggregate of the investments under the plan that the qualified cooperative holds at the end of the particular calendar year;

(b) B is the amount by which the aggregate of the amounts paid in respect of the securities that are issued by the qualified cooperative under the cooperative investment plan and that are outstanding immediately before the issue to the qualified cooperative of its first qualification certificate, exceeds the acquisition cost, determined without taking into account the borrowing costs and the other costs related to their acquisition, of the aggregate of the investments under the plan that the qualified cooperative held at that time;

(c) C is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the qualified cooperative is deemed to have paid to the Minister under Division II.6.5.5 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, on account of its tax payable under that Part for a taxation year preceding its taxation year in which the particular calendar year ends;

(d) D is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the qualified cooperative is required to pay under this Part for a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year; and

(e) where the result of the subtraction of the amounts that A and B represent is less than zero, the result of that subtraction is deemed to be equal to zero;

(f) (subparagraph repealed).

2006, c. 37, s. 52; 2013, c. 10, s. 157.

1129.12.15. If a qualified cooperative is required to pay tax for a calendar year under this Part, it shall, on or before 31 March of the calendar year that follows the calendar year for which the tax is payable,

(a) file with the Minister, without notice or demand, a return under this Part for that year in the prescribed form containing prescribed information;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year.

2006, c. 37, s. 52; 2009, c. 15, s. 393.

1129.12.16. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1001, 1002 and 1037 and Titles II, V and VI of Book IX of Part I apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2006, c. 37, s. 52.

PART III.2.4

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO AN ALLOWABLE REDEMPTION OR REPAYMENT UNDER THE SECOND COOPERATIVE INVESTMENT PLAN

2006, c. 37, s. 52.

1129.12.17. In this Part,

"allowable redemption or repayment" means an allowable redemption or repayment within the meaning of section 2 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1);

"eligible member" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 2 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act;

"qualification certificate" means a qualification certificate issued under section 11 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act;

"qualified cooperative" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 2 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act;

"qualified federation of cooperatives" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 2 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act;

"qualifying security" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 2 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act.

For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a calendar year ending in a taxation year includes a reference to a calendar year ending coincidentally with that taxation year.

1129.12.18. If a qualifying security is the subject of an allowable redemption or repayment by a qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives before 24 June 2009, otherwise than under the circumstances to which section 1129.12.19 applies, the individual referred to in section 965.39.4, the person to whom, where applicable, the security devolved as a consequence of the individual's death, or a trust holding the security and that is governed by a registered retirement savings plan or by a registered retirement income fund the annuitant of which is the individual, is required to pay, for the taxation year in which the redemption or repayment is made, a tax equal to the amount determined by the formula

$$[(1{,}826 - A) / 1{,}826] \times B.$$

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the number of days in the period that begins on the issue date of the qualifying security referred to in the first paragraph and that ends on the day on which the qualifying security is redeemed or repaid; and

(b) B is the lesser of

i. 25% of the acquisition cost of the qualifying security, determined without taking into account the borrowing costs and the other costs related to their acquisition, for the individual or the trust governed by a registered retirement savings plan of which the individual was the annuitant on acquiring the security, and

ii. the amount paid by the qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives for the redemption or repayment of the security.

1129.12.19. If a qualifying security held by a partnership is the subject of an allowable redemption or repayment by a qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives before 24 June 2009, an individual who is a member of the partnership at the end of the partnership's fiscal period in which the redemption or repayment is made, is required to pay, for the taxation year in which the fiscal period ends, a tax equal to the amount determined by the formula

$$[(1{,}826 - A)/1{,}826] \times B \times C.$$

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the number of days in the period that begins on the issue date of the qualifying security referred to in the first paragraph and that ends on the day on which the qualifying security is redeemed or repaid;

(b) B is the lesser of

i. 25% of the acquisition cost of the qualifying security to the partnership, and

ii. the amount paid by the qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives for the redemption or repayment of the security; and

(c) C is the agreed proportion in respect of the individual for the fiscal period referred to in the first paragraph.

For the purposes of this section, the acquisition cost of the qualifying security to the partnership is the aggregate of the costs determined in respect of the partnership's eligible members in accordance with section 965.39.5, without taking into account the borrowing costs and the other costs related to its acquisition.

1129.12.20. If a qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives redeems or repays a qualifying security in respect of which tax is payable under section 1129.12.18 or 1129.12.19, the following rules apply:

(a) the qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives is required to withhold the amount of tax, on behalf of the person who is liable to pay the tax, from the amount it pays or credits to that person because of the redemption or repayment of the security; and

(b) the qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives is required to pay to the Minister the amount so withheld on behalf of that person within 30 days following the day on which the security is redeemed or repaid.

2006, c. 37, s. 52.

1129.12.21. Every qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives is required to pay, on behalf of the person who is liable to pay the tax referred to in section 1129.12.18 or 1129.12.19, any amount that the cooperative or federation of cooperatives did not withhold under section 1129.12.20, and it is authorized to recover the amount so paid from that person.

2006, c. 37, s. 52.

1129.12.22. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1014 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2006, c. 37, s. 52.

PART III.2.5

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO A REDEMPTION UNDER THE FIRST COOPERATIVE INVESTMENT PLAN

2010, c. 25, s. 210.

1129.12.23. In this Part,

"cooperative investment plan" means the cooperative investment plan enacted by Order in Council 1596-85 (1985, G.O. 2, 5580, in French only);

"qualified cooperative" has the meaning assigned by the cooperative investment plan;

"qualifying security" has the meaning assigned by section 6 of the cooperative investment plan.

2010, c. 25, s. 210.

1129.12.24. Every qualified cooperative that carries out, after 23 June 2009 and before 1 January 2010, a block redemption of all of the outstanding qualifying securities of a class or, if applicable, of a series in a class of its capital stock it issued under the cooperative investment plan is required to pay for the calendar year 2009 a tax equal to 50% of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount determined by the following formula in respect of each of those qualifying securities, unless the block redemption is described in the third paragraph:

$$[(1{,}826 - A)/1{,}826] \times B.$$

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the number of days in the period that begins on the issue date of the qualifying security referred to in the first paragraph and that ends on the day on which the qualifying security is redeemed; and

(b) B is the amount paid by the qualified cooperative for the redemption of the qualifying security.

The block redemption to which the first paragraph refers means a block redemption that

(a) meets the requirements of section 8 of the cooperative investment plan in relation to an increase in the reserve;

(b) is covered by an exemption granted by the Minister of Economic Development, Innovation and Export Trade under the first paragraph of section 10.3 of the cooperative investment plan; or

(c) is an exchange operation described in the fourth paragraph.

The exchange operation to which subparagraph c of the third paragraph refers is a conversion of securities, an amalgamation or a reorganization of the capital stock, at the end of which a qualifying security is exchanged for consideration consisting only of preferred shares or fractions of such shares that meet the requirements of paragraphs 3 and 5 of section 6 of the cooperative investment plan.

1129.12.25. If a qualified cooperative is required to pay tax for the calendar year 2009 under section 1129.12.24, it shall, on or before 31 March 2010,

(a) file with the Minister, without notice or demand, a return under this Part for the year in the prescribed form containing prescribed information;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year.

2010, c. 25, s. 210.

1129.12.26. Subject to section 1129.12.28, if a qualifying security issued under the cooperative investment plan is the subject of a redemption by a qualified cooperative after 23 June 2009, otherwise than under the circumstances to which section 1129.12.27 applies, the individual referred to in section 965.37, the person to whom, if applicable, the security devolved as a consequence of the individual's death, or a trust holding the security and that is governed by a registered retirement savings plan or by a registered retirement income fund the annuitant of which is the individual, is required to pay, for the taxation year in which the redemption is made, a tax equal to the amount determined by the formula

[(1,826 - A)/1,826] × B.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the number of days in the period that begins on the issue date of the qualifying security referred to in the first paragraph and that ends on the day on which the qualifying security is redeemed; and

(b) B is the lesser of

i. 25% of the acquisition cost of the qualifying security—determined without taking into account the borrowing costs and the other costs related to its acquisition—to the individual or the trust governed by a registered retirement savings plan of which the individual was the annuitant on acquiring the security, and

ii. the amount paid by the qualified cooperative for the redemption of the qualifying security.

2010, c. 25, s. 210.

1129.12.27. Subject to section 1129.12.28, if a qualifying security issued under the cooperative investment plan and held by a partnership is the subject of a redemption by a qualified cooperative after 23 June 2009, an individual who is a member of the partnership at the end of the partnership's fiscal period in which the redemption is made, is required to pay, for the taxation year in which the fiscal period ends, a tax equal to the amount determined by the formula

[(1,826 - A)/1,826] × B × C.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the number of days in the period that begins on the issue date of the qualifying security referred to in the first paragraph and that ends on the day on which the qualifying security is redeemed;

(b) B is the lesser of

i. 25% of the acquisition cost of the qualifying security to the partnership, and

ii. the amount paid by the qualified cooperative for the redemption of the qualifying security; and

(c) C is the agreed proportion in respect of the individual for the fiscal period referred to in the first paragraph.

For the purposes of this section, the acquisition cost of the qualifying security to the partnership is the aggregate of the costs determined in respect of the partnership's members in accordance with section 965.37.1, without taking into account the borrowing costs and the other costs related to its acquisition.

2010, c. 25, s. 210.

1129.12.28. Sections 1129.12.26 and 1129.12.27 do not apply in respect of the redemption of a qualifying security of a qualified cooperative issued under the cooperative investment plan, if the redemption meets the requirements of section 4 of the plan or is made as part of a block redemption of all the outstanding qualifying securities of a class or, if applicable, of a series in a class of the capital stock of the cooperative.

1129.12.29. If a qualified cooperative redeems a qualifying security in respect of which tax is payable under section 1129.12.26 or 1129.12.27, the following rules apply:

(a) the qualified cooperative is required to withhold the amount of tax, on behalf of the person who is liable to pay the tax, from the amount it pays or credits to that person because of the redemption of the security; and

(b) the qualified cooperative is required to pay to the Minister the amount so withheld on behalf of that person within 30 days following the day on which the security is redeemed.

2010, c. 25, s. 210.

1129.12.30. Every qualified cooperative is required to pay, on behalf of the person who is liable to pay the tax referred to in section 1129.12.26 or 1129.12.27, any amount that the cooperative did not withhold under section 1129.12.29, and it is authorized to recover the amount so paid from that person.

2010, c. 25, s. 210.

1129.12.31. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 if it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, and sections 1000 to 1014 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2010, c. 25, s. 210.

PART III.2.6

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO A REDEMPTION UNDER THE SECOND COOPERATIVE INVESTMENT PLAN

2010, c. 25, s. 210.

1129.12.32. In this Part, "eligible member", "qualified cooperative", "qualified federation of cooperatives" and "qualifying security" have the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 2 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1).

2010, c. 25, s. 210.

1129.12.33. Every qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives that carries out, in a calendar year and after 23 June 2009, a block redemption or repayment of all of the outstanding qualifying securities of a class or, if applicable, of a series in a class of its capital stock it issued under the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1) is required to pay for that year a tax equal to 30% of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount determined by the following formula in respect of each of those qualifying securities, unless the block redemption or repayment is made as part of the winding-up of the qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives, as the case may be, or is an exchange operation described in the third paragraph:

$$[(1{,}826 - A)/1{,}826] \times B.$$

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the number of days in the period that begins on the issue date of the qualifying security referred to in the first paragraph and that ends on the day on which the qualifying security is redeemed or repaid; and

(b) B is the amount paid by the qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives for the redemption or repayment of the qualifying security.

The exchange operation to which the first paragraph refers is a conversion of securities, an amalgamation or a reorganization of the capital stock, at the end of which a qualifying security is exchanged for consideration consisting only of preferred shares or fractions of such shares that meet the requirements of paragraphs 3 and 4 of section 6 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act.

2010, c. 25, s. 210; 2013, c. 10, s. 160.

1129.12.34. If a qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives is required to pay tax for a calendar year under section 1129.12.33, it shall, on or before 31 March of the calendar year that follows the calendar year for which the tax is payable,

(a) file with the Minister, without notice or demand, a return under this Part for the year in the prescribed form containing prescribed information;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year.

2010, c. 25, s. 210.

1129.12.35. If a qualifying security is the subject of a redemption or repayment by a qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives after 23 June 2009, otherwise than under the circumstances to which section 1129.12.36 applies, the individual referred to in section 965.39.4, the person to whom, if applicable, the security devolved as a consequence of the individual's death, or a trust holding the security and that is governed by a registered retirement savings plan or by a registered retirement income fund the annuitant of which is the individual, is required to pay, for the taxation year in which the redemption or repayment is made, a tax equal to the amount determined by the following formula, unless the redemption or repayment is made as part of a block redemption or repayment to which section 1129.12.33 applies or is an exchange operation described in the third paragraph of that section:

$$[(1{,}826 - A)/1{,}826] \times B.$$

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the number of days in the period that begins on the issue date of the qualifying security referred to in the first paragraph and that ends on the day on which the qualifying security is redeemed or repaid; and

(b) B is the lesser of

i. the amount obtained by multiplying the rate specified in the third paragraph by the acquisition cost of the qualifying security—determined without taking into account the borrowing costs and the other costs related to its acquisition—to the individual or the trust governed by a registered retirement savings plan of which the individual was the annuitant on acquiring the security, and

ii. the amount paid by the qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives for the redemption or repayment of the qualifying security.

The rate to which subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the second paragraph refers is 25% if the redemption or repayment complies with the requirements of section 7 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1), and 30% in any other case.

1129.12.36. If a qualifying security held by a partnership is the subject of a redemption or repayment by a qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives after 23 June 2009, an individual who is a member of the partnership at the end of the partnership's fiscal period in which the redemption or repayment is made, is required to pay, for the taxation year in which the fiscal period ends, a tax equal to the amount determined by the following formula, unless the redemption or repayment is made as part of a block redemption or repayment to which section 1129.12.33 applies or is an exchange operation described in the third paragraph of that section:

$$[(1{,}826 - A)/1{,}826] \times B \times C.$$

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the number of days in the period that begins on the issue date of the qualifying security referred to in the first paragraph and that ends on the day on which the qualifying security is redeemed or repaid;

(b) B is the lesser of

i. the amount obtained by multiplying the rate specified in the third paragraph by the acquisition cost of the qualifying security—determined without taking into account the borrowing costs and the other costs related to its acquisition—to the partnership, and

ii. the amount paid by the qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives for the redemption or repayment of the qualifying security; and

(c) C is the agreed proportion in respect of the individual for the fiscal period referred to in the first paragraph.

The rate to which subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the second paragraph refers is 25% if the redemption or repayment complies with the requirements of section 7 of the Cooperative Investment Plan Act (chapter R-8.1.1), and 30% in any other case.

For the purposes of this section, the acquisition cost of the qualifying security to the partnership is the aggregate of the costs determined in respect of the partnership's eligible members in accordance with section 965.39.5, without taking into account the borrowing costs and the other costs related to its acquisition.

1129.12.37. If a qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives redeems or repays a qualifying security in respect of which tax is payable under section 1129.12.35 or 1129.12.36, the following rules apply:

(a) the qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives is required to withhold the amount of tax, on behalf of the person who is liable to pay the tax, from the amount it pays or credits to that person because of the redemption or repayment of the security; and

(b) the qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives is required to pay to the Minister the amount so withheld on behalf of that person within 30 days following the day on which the security is redeemed or repaid.

2010, c. 25, s. 210.

1129.12.38. Every qualified cooperative or qualified federation of cooperatives is required to pay, on behalf of the person who is liable to pay the tax referred to in section 1129.12.35 or 1129.12.36, any amount that the cooperative or federation of cooperatives did not withhold under section 1129.12.37, and it is authorized to recover the amount so paid from that person.

2010, c. 25, s. 210.

1129.12.39. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 if it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, and sections 1000 to 1014 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2010, c. 25, s. 210.

PART III.2.7

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO CERTAIN SHARE ISSUE EXPENSES UNDER THE STOCK SAVINGS PLAN II

2013, c. 10, s. 163.

1129.12.40. In this Part, "eligible issue expenses" and "qualified issuing corporation" have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.59.35.

2013, c. 10, s. 163.

1129.12.41. Every qualified issuing corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.59.37, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to eligible issue expenses incurred by the qualified issuing corporation for the particular year, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which an amount relating to the eligible issue expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the qualified issuing corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the qualified issuing corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.59.37, in relation to the eligible issue expenses, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible issue expenses were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the eligible issue expenses.

2013, c. 10, s. 163.

1129.12.42. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.5.6 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.12.41 in relation to eligible issue expenses is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the expenses pursuant to a legal obligation.

2013, c. 10, s. 163.

1129.12.43. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2013, c. 10, s. 163.

PART III.2.8

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO A TAX-FREE RESERVE OF A QUALIFIED SHIPOWNER

2015, c. 21, s. 507.

1129.12.44. In this Part,

"qualified property" has the meaning assigned by section 979.24;

"qualified shipowner" has the meaning assigned by section 979.24;

"tax-free reserve" of a qualified shipowner means a tax-free reserve within the meaning of section 979.25.

2015, c. 21, s. 507.

1129.12.45. A qualified shipowner is required to pay the tax determined in the second paragraph for a particular taxation year if

(a) the qualified shipowner's tax-free reserve is deemed to end in the particular taxation year because of the application of section 979.32; or

(b) the particular taxation year includes the end of 31 December 2033 and, immediately before that time, qualified property is included in the qualified shipowner's tax-free reserve.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount determined by the formula

$$1\% \times A \times B.$$

In the formula in the second paragraph,

(a) A is the fair market value of the qualified property within the qualified shipowner's tax-free reserve at the end of the taxation year that precedes the particular taxation year where subparagraph a of the first paragraph applies or at the end of 31 December 2033 where subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies; and

(b) B is the number of taxation years in which the qualified shipowner had a tax-free reserve.

2015, c. 21, s. 507.

1129.12.46. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to that first paragraph, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2015, c. 21, s. 507.

PART III.4

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE DISPOSITION OF CERTAIN PROPERTY BY AN ARCHIVAL CENTRE OR A MUSEUM

1993, c. 19, s. 144.

BOOK I

DEFINITIONS

1993, c. 19, s. 144.

1129.16. In this Part,

"certified archival centre" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"eligible entity" means

(a) a certified archival centre;

(b) a recognized museum; or

(c) an institution or a public authority in Canada designated, under subsection 2 of section 32 of the Cultural Property Export and Import Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter C-51), generally or for a specified purpose related to the property referred to in section 1129.17;

"recognized museum" has the meaning assigned by section 1.

1993, c. 19, s. 144; 2002, c. 40, s. 274; 2006, c. 36, s. 231; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

BOOK II

LIABILITY FOR AND AMOUNT OF TAX

1993, c. 19, s. 144.

1129.17. If an archival centre or a museum disposes of a property within nine years after the day the centre or museum acquired it and if the centre or museum was, at the time of the acquisition, a certified archival centre, a museum established under the Act respecting the Montréal Museum of Fine Arts (chapter M-42) or the National Museums Act (chapter M-44) or a recognized museum and the property was a property in respect of which the Conseil du patrimoine culturel du Québec issued a certificate stating that the property was acquired by the centre or museum in accordance with its acquisition and conservation policy and with the directives of the Ministère de la Culture et des Communications, the centre or museum shall pay, for the year in which the property was disposed of, tax equal to 30% of the fair market value of the property at the time of the disposition, unless the property is disposed of to an entity that is, at that time, an eligible entity.

1129.18. Where an archival centre or a museum must, for a year, pay tax under this Part, it shall, within 90 days after the end of the year,

(a) file with the Minister, without notice or demand, a return under this Part for the year in the prescribed form containing prescribed information;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year.

1993, c. 19, s. 144; 2009, c. 15, s. 395.

BOOK III

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1993, c. 19, s. 144.

1129.19. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, sections 1001, 1002 and 1037 and Titles II, V and VI of Book IX of Part I apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

1993, c. 19, s. 144; 1995, c. 1, s. 362; 1995, c. 63, s. 261; 1997, c. 85, s. 304.

PART III.5

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE DISPOSITION OF CERTAIN PROPERTY BY AN INSTITUTION OR PUBLIC AUTHORITY

1993, c. 19, s. 144.

BOOK I

DEFINITION

1993, c. 19, s. 144; 2007, c. 12, s. 252.

1129.20. In this Part, "eligible entity" means

(a) a certified archival centre, within the meaning of section 1;

(b) a recognized museum, within the meaning of section 1; or

(c) an institution or public authority in Canada which is designated, under subsection 2 of section 32 of the Cultural Property Export and Import Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter C-51), generally or for a specified purpose related to the property referred to in section 1129.21.

1993, c. 19, s. 144; 1997, c. 14, s. 265; 2002, c. 40, s. 275; 2006, c. 36, s. 233; 2007, c. 12, s. 253.

BOOK II

LIABILITY FOR AND AMOUNT OF TAX

1993, c. 19, s. 144.

1129.21. Where an institution or public authority disposes of a property, other than a property described in subparagraph a of the third paragraph of section 232, within nine years after the day on which the institution or public authority, as the case may be, acquired it and where the institution or public authority, as the case may be, was, at the time of the acquisition, designated under subsection 2 of section 32 of the Cultural Property Export and Import Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. C-51) generally or for a specified purpose related to the property and the property was, at the time of the acquisition, a property classified in accordance with the Cultural Heritage Act (chapter P-9.002), the institution or public authority, as the case may be, shall pay, for the year in which the property is disposed of, tax equal to 30% of the fair market value of the property at the time of the disposition, except where the property is disposed of to an entity which is, at that time, an eligible entity.

1993, c. 19, s. 144; 2001, c. 53, s. 254; 2003, c. 9, s. 400; 2011, c. 21, s. 234.

1129.22. Where an institution or public authority must, for a year, pay tax under this Part, it shall, within 90 days after the end of the year,

(a) file with the Minister, without notice or demand, a return under this Part for the year in the prescribed form containing prescribed information;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year.

1993, c. 19, s. 144; 2009, c. 15, s. 396.

BOOK III

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1993, c. 19, s. 144.

1129.23. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, sections 1001, 1002 and 1037 and Titles II, V and VI of Book IX of Part I apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

1993, c. 19, s. 144; 1995, c. 1, s. 362; 1995, c. 63, s. 261; 1997, c. 85, s. 305.

PART III.5.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO RECOGNIZED ARTS ORGANIZATIONS

1997, c. 14, s. 266.

1129.23.1. In this Part,

"recognized arts organization" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"taxation year" means a taxation year for the purposes of Chapter III.3 of Title I of Book VIII of Part I.

1997, c. 14, s. 266; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.23.2. A recognized arts organization that fails to comply with the requirement of section 985.28 in its respect for a taxation year shall pay for that year tax equal to the minimum additional amount it would have been required to expend in the year to comply with that requirement.

1997, c. 14, s. 266.

1129.23.3. Where a recognized arts organization is required to pay tax for a taxation year under this Part, it shall, within six months after the end of the year,

(a) file with the Minister, without notice or demand, a return under this Part for the year in the prescribed form containing prescribed information;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year.

1997, c. 14, s. 266; 2009, c. 15, s. 397.

1129.23.4. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1001, 1002, 1005 to 1024 and 1031.1 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

1997, c. 14, s. 266; 2015, c. 36, s. 158.

PART III.5.1.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO REGISTERED MUSEUMS

2006, c. 36, s. 234.

1129.23.4.1. In this Part,

"registered museum" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"taxation year" means a taxation year for the purposes of Chapter III.3.1 of Title I of Book VIII of Part I.

2006, c. 36, s. 234; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.23.4.2. A registered museum that fails to comply with the requirement of section 985.35.3 in its respect for a taxation year shall pay, for that year, tax equal to the minimum additional amount it ought to have expended in that year to comply with that requirement.

2006, c. 36, s. 234.

1129.23.4.3. If a registered museum is required to pay tax for a taxation year under this Part, it shall, within six months after the end of the year,

(a) file with the Minister, without notice or demand, a return under this Part for the year in the prescribed form containing prescribed information;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year.

2006, c. 36, s. 234; 2009, c. 15, s. 398.

1129.23.4.4. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1001, 1002, 1005 to 1024 and 1031.1 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2006, c. 36, s. 234; 2015, c. 36, s. 159.

PART III.5.1.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO REGISTERED CULTURAL OR COMMUNICATIONS ORGANIZATIONS

2006, c. 36, s. 234.

1129.23.4.5. In this Part,

"registered cultural or communications organization" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"taxation year" means a taxation year for the purposes of Chapter III.3.2 of Title I of Book VIII of Part I.

2006, c. 36, s. 234; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.23.4.6. A registered cultural or communications organization that fails to comply with the requirement of section 985.35.13 in its respect for a taxation year shall pay, for that year, tax equal to the minimum additional amount it ought to have expended in that year to comply with that requirement.

2006, c. 36, s. 234.

1129.23.4.7. If a registered cultural or communications organization is required to pay tax for a taxation year under this Part, it shall, within six months after the end of the year,

(a) file with the Minister, without notice or demand, a return under this Part for the year in the prescribed form containing prescribed information;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year.

2006, c. 36, s. 234; 2009, c. 15, s. 399.

1129.23.4.8. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1001, 1002, 1005 to 1024 and 1031.1 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2006, c. 36, s. 234; 2015, c. 36, s. 160.

PART III.5.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO RECOGNIZED POLITICAL EDUCATION ORGANIZATIONS

2004, c. 21, s. 463.

1129.23.5. In this Part,

"recognized political education organization" has the meaning assigned by section 985.36;

(c) where the particular taxation year ends on 31 May 2012, the aggregate of

i. $150,000,000, and

ii. the amount by which the amount determined under this paragraph for the taxation year that ends on 31 May 2011 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in that taxation year for the purchase of a share as first purchaser;

(d) where the particular taxation year ends on 31 May 2013, $175,000,000;

(e) where the particular taxation year ends on 31 May 2014, the aggregate of

i. $200,000,000, and

ii. the amount by which $175,000,000 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in the taxation year that ends on 31 May 2013 for the purchase of a share as first purchaser; or

(f) where the particular taxation year ends on 31 May 2015, to the aggregate of

i. $200,000,000, and

ii. the amount by which the amount determined under this paragraph for the taxation year that ends on 31 May 2014 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in the taxation year for the purchase of a share as first purchaser.

For the purposes of this section, an amount paid for the purchase of a share includes only the issue price paid in respect of the share.

2010, c. 5, s. 194; 2012, c. 8, s. 244; 2013, c. 10, s. 164; 2015, c. 21, s. 510.

1129.27.0.2.2. The Fund shall pay, for a particular taxation year referred to in the second paragraph, a tax equal to 20% of the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in that particular year for the purchase of a share as first purchaser exceeds the amount determined for that particular year under the second paragraph.

The amount referred to in the first paragraph is,

(a) where the particular taxation year ends on 31 May 2017, $250,000,000; or

(b) where the particular taxation year ends on 31 May 2018, the aggregate of

i. $250,000,000, and

ii. the amount by which $250,000,000 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in the taxation year that ends on 31 May 2017 for the purchase of a share as first purchaser;

(c) where the particular taxation year ends on 31 May 2019, the aggregate of

i. $250,000,000, and

ii. the amount by which the amount determined under this paragraph for the taxation year that ends on 31 May 2018 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in that taxation year for the purchase of a share as first purchaser;

(d) where the particular taxation year ends on 31 May 2020, the aggregate of

i. $275,000,000, and

ii. the amount by which the amount determined under this paragraph for the taxation year that ends on 31 May 2019 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in that taxation year for the purchase of a share as first purchaser; or

(e) where the particular taxation year ends on 31 May 2021, the aggregate of

i. $275,000,000, and

ii. the amount by which the amount determined under this paragraph for the taxation year that ends on 31 May 2020 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in that taxation year for the purchase of a share as first purchaser.

For the purposes of this section, an amount paid for the purchase of a share includes only the issue price paid in respect of the share.

1129.27.0.3. Where the Fund is required to pay tax under this Part for a year referred to in any of sections 1129.27.0.2 to 1129.27.0.2.2, it shall, not later than the ninetieth day following the end of the year, pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year.

2004, c. 21, s. 466; 2010, c. 5, s. 195; 2017, c. 1, s. 375.

1129.27.0.4. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1000 to 1014 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2004, c. 21, s. 466.

1129.27.4.2. The Corporation is required to pay, for a particular capitalization period, a tax under this Part equal to any of the following amounts:

(a) if the particular capitalization period begins on 24 March 2006 and ends on 28 February 2007, 35% of the amount by which $725,000,000 is exceeded by the paid-up capital of the shares of the capital stock of the Corporation at the end of the particular capitalization period;

(b) if the particular capitalization period begins after 28 February 2007 and before 1 March 2014, the amount determined by the formula

50% × (A - B);

(c) if the particular capitalization period begins after 28 February 2014 and before 1 March 2016, the amount determined by the formula

45% × (A - B);

(d) if the particular capitalization period begins after 29 February 2016 and before 1 March 2018, the amount determined by the formula

40% × (A – B); or

(e) if the particular capitalization period begins after 28 February 2018 and before 1 March 2021, the amount determined by the formula

35 % × (A − B);

(f) if the particular capitalization period begins after 28 February 2021, the amount determined by the formula

30% × (A − B).

In the formula in subparagraph b of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the paid-up capital of the class “A” shares of the capital stock of the Corporation issued during the particular capitalization period; and

(b) B is the annual limit amount applicable in respect of the particular capitalization period.

1129.27.4.3. If the Corporation is required to pay tax under this Part for a particular capitalization period, the Corporation shall, on or before 31 May following the end of that particular capitalization period,

(a) file with the Minister, without notice or demand, a return under this Part for that particular capitalization period in the prescribed form containing prescribed information;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of its tax payable under this Part for that particular capitalization period; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for that particular capitalization period.

2006, c. 36, s. 237; 2009, c. 15, s. 401.

1129.27.4.4. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1001, 1002 and 1037 and Titles II, V and VI of Book IX of Part I apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2006, c. 36, s. 237.

PART III.6.1.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO SHARE EXCHANGE TRANSACTIONS CARRIED OUT BY CAPITAL RÉGIONAL ET COOPÉRATIF DESJARDINS

2019, c. 14, s. 446.

1129.27.4.5. In this Part,

"conversion period" means a period that begins on 1 March of a year subsequent to the year 2017 and preceding the year 2023 and that ends on the last day of the month of February of the following year;

"Corporation" means the corporation governed by the Act constituting Capital régional et coopératif Desjardins (chapter C-6.1);

"share" means a share or fractional share of the capital stock of the Corporation.

1129.27.4.6. The Corporation is required to pay, for a particular conversion period, tax under this Part equal to

(a) where the particular conversion period begins after 28 February 2018 and before 1 March 2021, 10% of the amount by which $100,000,000 is exceeded by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the value of a consideration that an individual has paid or has undertaken to pay, in the particular conversion period, for the acquisition of a class "B" share of the capital stock of the Corporation; or

(b) where the particular conversion period begins after 28 February 2021 and before 1 March 2023, 10% of the amount by which $50,000,000 is exceeded by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the value of a consideration that an individual has paid, in the particular conversion period, for the acquisition of a class "B" share of the capital stock of the Corporation.

1129.27.4.7. For the purposes of section 1129.27.4.6, the following rules apply:

(a) an individual has undertaken to pay, in a conversion period, a consideration for the acquisition of a class "B" share of the capital stock of the Corporation, where the individual has undertaken to purchase such a share under a promise to purchase by way of exchange, within the meaning assigned to that expression by section 8.1 of the Act constituting Capital régional et coopératif Desjardins (chapter C-6.1), that i. was made by the individual at a particular time in the conversion period that precedes 19 June 2019, and

ii. was accepted by the Corporation after 9 July 2018, but before 19 June 2019; and

(b) the value of a consideration that an individual has paid or has undertaken to pay for the acquisition of a class "B" share of the capital stock of the Corporation is,

i. in the case of a consideration that the individual has undertaken to pay in accordance with paragraph a because of a promise to purchase by way of exchange, the amount determined in respect of the individual, in relation to the promise, under subparagraph a of subparagraph 2 of the second paragraph of section 10.1 of the Act constituting Capital régional et coopératif Desjardins, or

ii. in the case of a consideration paid by the individual, the amount determined in respect of the individual, in relation to the consideration, under subparagraph b of subparagraph 2 of the second paragraph of section 10.1 of the Act constituting Capital régional et coopératif Desjardins.

2019, c. 14, s. 446.

1129.27.4.8. Where the Corporation is required to pay tax under this Part for a conversion period, the Corporation shall, on or before 31 May following the end of that conversion period,

(a) file with the Minister, without notice or demand, a return under this Part for that conversion period in the prescribed form containing prescribed information;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of its tax payable under this Part for that conversion period; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for that conversion period.

2019, c. 14, s. 446.

1129.27.4.9. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, sections 1001, 1002 and 1037 and Titles II, V and VI of Book IX of Part I apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2019, c. 14, s. 446.

PART III.6.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE RECOVERY OF THE TAX CREDIT FOR THE PURCHASE OF CLASS "A" SHARES ISSUED BY CAPITAL RÉGIONAL ET COOPÉRATIF DESJARDINS

2002, c. 9, s. 125; 2019, c. 14, s. 447.

1129.27.5. In this Part,

"Corporation" means the corporation governed by the Act constituting Capital régional et coopératif Desjardins (chapter C-6.1);

"share" means a class "A" share or fractional share of the capital stock of the Corporation.

2002, c. 9, s. 125; 2002, c. 40, s. 278; 2007, c. 12, s. 304; 2019, c. 14, s. 448.

1129.27.6. Subject to section 1129.27.7, where a share is redeemed or purchased by the Corporation less than seven years after its issue date, the individual referred to in section 776.1.5.0.11 or, as the case may be, the person to whom the share devolved as a consequence of the individual's death, is required to pay, for the taxation year in which the redemption or purchase is made, a tax under this Part equal to the amount determined by the formula

$$[(2{,}556 - A)/2{,}556] \times B.$$

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the number of days in the period that begins on the issue date of the share referred to in the first paragraph and that ends on the day on which the share is redeemed or purchased by agreement; and

(b) B is the lesser of

i. the product obtained by multiplying the percentage specified in the third paragraph by the amount paid for the purchase of the share by the individual referred to in the first paragraph, and

ii. the amount paid by the Corporation for the redemption or purchase by agreement of the share.

The percentage to which subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the second paragraph refers is

(a) (subparagraph repealed);

(b) 50%, if the share referred to in the first paragraph was issued before 1 March 2014;

(c) 45%, if the share referred to in the first paragraph was issued after 28 February 2014 and before 1 March 2016;

(d) 40%, if the share referred to in the first paragraph was issued after 29 February 2016 and before 1 March 2018;

(e) 35%, if the share referred to in the first paragraph was issued after 28 February 2018 and before 1 March 2021; or

(f) 30%, if the share referred to in the first paragraph was issued after 28 February 2021.

2002, c. 9, s. 125; 2006, c. 36, s. 238; 2011, c. 6, s. 220; 2015, c. 21, s. 513; 2017, c. 1, s. 378; 2019, c. 14, s. 449; 2021, c. 36, s. 154.

1129.27.7. Section 1129.27.6 does not apply in respect of a share that is redeemed or purchased by the Corporation under

(a) paragraph 3 of section 12 of the Act constituting Capital régional et coopératif Desjardins (chapter C-6.1); or

(b) a provision of the purchase by agreement policy approved by the Minister of Finance in accordance with the second paragraph of section 11 of the Act referred to in paragraph a, under which the Corporation may purchase by agreement a share it issued because no amount was deducted in respect of the share under section 776.1.5.0.11.

2002, c. 9, s. 125.

1129.27.8. Where the Corporation redeems or purchases a share in respect of which tax is payable under section 1129.27.6, the following rules apply:

(a) the Corporation is required to withhold the amount of tax, on behalf of the person who is liable to pay the tax, from the amount paid or credited by the Corporation to that person because of the redemption or purchase of the share; and

(b) the Corporation is required to pay to the Minister the amount so withheld on behalf of that person within 30 days following the day on which the share is redeemed or purchased.

2002, c. 9, s. 125.

1129.27.9. The Corporation is required to pay, on behalf of the person who is liable to pay the tax referred to in section 1129.27.6, any amount that the Corporation did not withhold under section 1129.27.8, and it is authorized to recover the amount so paid from that person.

2002, c. 9, s. 125.

1129.27.10. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1000 to 1014 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2002, c. 9, s. 125; 2004, c. 21, s. 468.

PART III.6.2.1

SPECIAL TAXES RELATING TO THE RECOVERY OF THE TAX CREDITS FOR THE EXCHANGE OF SHARES ISSUED BY CAPITAL RÉGIONAL ET COOPÉRATIF DESJARDINS

2019, c. 14, s. 450.

1129.27.10.1. In this Part,

"Corporation" means the corporation governed by the Act constituting Capital régional et coopératif Desjardins (chapter C-6.1);

"promise to purchase by way of exchange" has the meaning assigned by section 8.1 of the Act constituting Capital régional et coopératif Desjardins;

"share" means a share or fractional share of the capital stock of the Corporation.

2019, c. 14, s. 450.

1129.27.10.2. Where an individual has deducted, from the individual's tax otherwise payable under Part I for a taxation year, an amount under section 776.1.5.0.15.2 in respect of the value of a consideration the individual has undertaken to pay, in the form of a share, under a promise to purchase by way of exchange and where, before the payment of the consideration, the share is redeemed or purchased by agreement by the Corporation, the individual or, as the case may be, the person to whom the share devolved as a consequence of the individual's death, is required to pay, for the taxation year in which the redemption or purchase by agreement is made, tax under this Part equal to the lesser of

(a) the product obtained by multiplying by 10% the amount determined under the third paragraph of section 776.1.5.0.15.2 in respect of the value of the consideration; and

(b) the amount paid by the Corporation for the redemption or purchase by agreement of the share.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, where an individual has not deducted, from the individual's tax otherwise payable under Part I for a taxation year, an amount under section 776.1.5.0.15.2, but the individual's eligible spouse for the year, within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4, has deducted, from the eligible spouse's tax otherwise payable under Part I for the year, an amount, under section 776.41.5, a portion of which may reasonably be attributed to a deduction provided for in section 776.1.5.0.15.2 to which the individual was entitled for the year in respect of the value of a consideration the individual has undertaken to pay, in the form of a share, under a promise to purchase by way of exchange, the individual is deemed to have deducted, from the individual's tax otherwise payable under Part I for the year, an amount in that respect under section 776.1.5.0.15.2.

2019, c. 14, s. 450.

1129.27.10.3. Subject to section 1129.27.10.4, where a class "B" share of the capital stock of the Corporation is redeemed or purchased by agreement by the Corporation less than seven years after its issue date, the individual to whom section 776.1.5.0.15.4 applies, or to whom section 776.1.5.0.15.2 applies if the share was issued as a consequence of a promise to purchase by way of exchange, or, as the case may be, the person to whom the share devolved as a consequence of the individual's death, is required to pay, for the taxation year in which the redemption or purchase by agreement is made, tax under this Part equal to the amount determined by the formula

$$[(2{,}556 - A) / 2{,}556] \times B.$$

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the number of days in the period that begins on the issue date of the share referred to in the first paragraph or, if the share was issued as a consequence of a promise to purchase by way of exchange, on the day that promise was accepted by the Corporation and that ends on the day the share is redeemed or purchased by agreement; and

(b) B is the lesser of the amount paid by the Corporation for the redemption or purchase by agreement of the share and,

i. if the share was issued as a consequence of a promise to purchase by way of exchange, the product obtained by multiplying by 10% the amount determined, under the third paragraph of section 776.1.5.0.15.2, in respect of the value of the consideration that the individual has undertaken to pay under the promise for the purchase of the share, or

ii. in any other case, the product obtained by multiplying by 10% the amount determined, under the third paragraph of section 776.1.5.0.15.4, in respect of the value of the consideration that the individual has paid for the purchase of the share.

2019, c. 14, s. 450.

1129.27.10.4. Section 1129.27.10.3 does not apply in respect of a class "B" share of the capital stock of the Corporation that is redeemed or purchased by agreement by the Corporation under

(a) paragraph 3 of section 12 of the Act constituting Capital régional et coopératif Desjardins (chapter C-6.1); or

(b) a provision of the purchase by agreement policy approved by the Minister of Finance in accordance with the second paragraph of section 11 of the Act constituting Capital régional et coopératif Desjardins, under which the Corporation may purchase by agreement a share it issued because no amount was deducted in respect of the share under section 776.1.5.0.15.2 or 776.1.5.0.15.4.

1129.27.10.5. Where the Corporation redeems or purchases a share forming a consideration payable under a promise to purchase by way of exchange, or a class "B" share of its capital stock, in respect of which tax is payable under section 1129.27.10.2 or 1129.27.10.3, as the case may be, the following rules apply:

(a) the Corporation is required to withhold the amount of that tax, on behalf of the person who is liable to pay it, from the amount paid or credited by the Corporation to that person because of the redemption or purchase of the share; and

(b) the Corporation is required to pay to the Minister the amount so withheld on behalf of that person within 30 days following the day on which the share is redeemed or purchased.

2019, c. 14, s. 450.

1129.27.10.6. The Corporation is required to pay, on behalf of the person who is liable to pay the tax referred to in section 1129.27.10.2 or 1129.27.10.3, as the case may be, any amount that the Corporation did not withhold under section 1129.27.10.5, and it is authorized to recover the amount so paid from that person.

2019, c. 14, s. 450.

1129.27.10.7. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, sections 1000 to 1014 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2019, c. 14, s. 450.

PART III.6.3

Repealed, 2017, c. 1, s. 379.

PART III.6.4

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE HIRING OF FINANCIAL DERIVATIVES SPECIALISTS

2007, c. 12, s. 254.

1129.27.15. In this Part, "qualified wages", "unused portion of the tax credit" and "wages" have the meaning assigned by section 776.1.7.

2007, c. 12, s. 254; 2010, c. 25, s. 211.

1129.27.16. Every corporation that has deducted an amount under section 776.1.8 or 776.1.9 for a taxation year shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages paid by the corporation to an individual for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, other than an amount described in subparagraph i or ii of paragraph b of the definition of "qualified wages" in the first paragraph of section 776.1.7, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation, or obtained by a person or partnership.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the maximum amount that the corporation could have deducted under section 776.1.8 for a particular taxation year preceding the repayment year if it had had sufficient tax payable under Part I for the particular taxation year and if, for the purposes of paragraph b of the definition of "qualified wages" in the first paragraph of section 776.1.7,

i. any amount referred to in the first paragraph for the repayment year or for a preceding taxation year, relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages paid by the corporation to an individual for the particular taxation year, that is received or obtained at or before the end of the repayment year, had been received or obtained in the particular taxation year, and

ii. any amount referred to in the first paragraph of section 776.1.15 for the repayment year or for a preceding taxation year, relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages paid by the corporation to an individual for the particular taxation year, that is paid or deemed to be paid under section 776.1.16 at or before the end of the repayment year, had been paid or deemed to be paid in the particular taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year.

2007, c. 12, s. 254.

1129.27.17. For the purposes of Part I, except Title III.3 of Book V, the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.27.16 in relation to qualified wages, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the qualified wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2007, c. 12, s. 254.

1129.27.18. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2007, c. 12, s. 254.

PART III.6.5

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE NON-REFUNDABLE TAX CREDIT FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF E-BUSINESS

2015, c. 36, s. 162.

1129.27.19. In this Part, "unused portion of the tax credit" of a corporation for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 776.1.19.

2015, c. 36, s. 162.

1129.27.20. Every corporation that has deducted an amount under section 776.1.20 or 776.1.21 for a taxation year shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages, for the purposes of Division II.6.0.1.9 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, paid by the corporation to an individual for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, other than an amount described in subparagraph i or ii of paragraph b of the definition of "qualified wages" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.79, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation, or obtained by a person or partnership.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the maximum amount that the corporation could have deducted under section 776.1.20 for a particular taxation year preceding the repayment year if it had had sufficient tax payable under Part I for the particular taxation year and if, for the purposes of paragraph b of the definition of "qualified wages" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.79,

i. any amount referred to in the first paragraph for the repayment year or for a preceding taxation year, relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages, for the purposes of Division II.6.0.1.9 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, paid by the corporation to an individual for the particular taxation year, that is received or obtained at or before the end of the repayment year, had been received or obtained in the particular taxation year, and

ii. any amount referred to in the first paragraph of section 776.1.24 for the repayment year or for a preceding taxation year, relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages, for the purposes of Division II.6.0.1.9 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, paid by the corporation to an individual for the particular taxation year, that is paid or deemed to be paid under section 776.1.25 at or before the end of the repayment year, had been paid or deemed to be paid in the particular taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year.

1129.27.21. For the purposes of Part I, except Title III.4 of Book V and Division II.6.0.1.9 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.27.20 in relation to qualified wages, for the purposes of that Division II.6.0.1.9, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the qualified wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2015, c. 36, s. 162.

1129.27.22. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2015, c. 36, s. 162.

PART III.6.6

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE NON-REFUNDABLE TAX CREDIT FOR INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL CENTRES

2017, c. 1, s. 380.

1129.27.23. In this Part, "qualified wages", "unused portion of the tax credit" and "wages" have the meaning assigned by section 776.1.27.

2017, c. 1, s. 380.

1129.27.24. Every corporation that has deducted an amount under section 776.1.28 or 776.1.29 for a taxation year shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages paid by the corporation to an individual for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, other than an amount described in subparagraph i or ii of paragraph b of the definition of "qualified wages" in section 776.1.27, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation, or obtained by a person or a partnership.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount deducted by the corporation for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 776.1.28 or under section 776.1.29 in respect of the unused portion of the tax credit of the corporation for a taxation year preceding the repayment year exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the maximum amount that the corporation could have deducted under section 776.1.28 for a particular taxation year preceding the repayment year if it had had sufficient tax payable under Part I for the particular taxation year and if, for the purposes of paragraph b of the definition of "qualified wages" in section 776.1.27,

i. any amount referred to in the first paragraph for the repayment year or for a preceding taxation year, relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages paid by the corporation to an individual for the particular taxation year, that is received or obtained at or before the end of the repayment year, had been received or obtained in the particular taxation year, and

ii. any amount referred to in the first paragraph of section 776.1.32 for the repayment year or for a preceding taxation year, relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages paid by the corporation to an individual for the particular taxation year, that is paid or deemed to be paid under section 776.1.33 at or before the end of the repayment year, had been paid or deemed to be paid in the particular taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year.

2017, c. 1, s. 380.

1129.27.25. For the purposes of Part I, except Title III.5 of Book V, the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.27.24 in relation to qualified wages is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the qualified wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2017, c. 1, s. 380.

1129.27.26. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2017, c. 1, s. 380.

PART III.6.7

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE TAX CREDIT TO FOSTER SYNERGY BETWEEN QUÉBEC BUSINESSES

2021, c. 18, s. 156.

1129.27.27. In this Part,

"authorized investment certificate" has the meaning assigned by section 776.1.36;

"balance of the special tax account payable" of a corporation, at the end of a taxation year, in relation to an authorized investment certificate, means an amount equal to the amount by which its special tax account payable at the end of that year in relation to the certificate exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount determined under subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1129.27.28 in relation to the certificate for a preceding taxation year;

"eligible investment" has the meaning assigned by section 776.1.36;

"excluded share" means a share of the capital stock of a corporation that is disposed of or exchanged by reason of the corporation's or shareholder's bankruptcy or insolvency, unilaterally redeemed by the corporation, or redeemed by the corporation at the shareholder's request where the law confers on the shareholder the right to demand that all its shares be redeemed;

"special tax account payable" of a corporation, at the end of a taxation year, in relation to an authorized investment certificate held by another corporation, means an amount equal to the proportion of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount of a penalty determined under any of sections 1049.14.26 to 1049.14.29, at or before the end of the taxation year, in respect of the other corporation in relation to the certificate, that the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid by the corporation for the acquisition of a share of the capital stock of the other corporation in relation to the certificate is of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount received by the other corporation for the issue of a share of its capital stock in relation to the certificate;

"unused portion of the tax credit" has the meaning assigned by section 776.1.36.

2021, c. 18, s. 156.

1129.27.28. Every corporation that has deducted an amount under section 776.1.38 or 776.1.39 for a taxation year in respect of an eligible investment which includes an amount paid for the acquisition of a share of the capital stock of another corporation, in relation to an authorized investment certificate, and that disposes of or exchanges such a share (other than an excluded share) in a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "transfer year") and before the end of the 60-month period that begins on the day on which the share is issued shall pay, for the transfer year, a tax determined by the formula

A – B.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is an amount equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount deducted by the corporation for a taxation year preceding the transfer year under section 776.1.38, or under section 776.1.39 in respect of the unused portion of the tax credit of the corporation for a taxation year preceding the transfer year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the maximum amount that the corporation could have deducted under section 776.1.38 for a taxation year preceding the transfer year if it had had sufficient tax payable under Part I for that preceding taxation year and if, for the purposes of the definition of "eligible investment" in the first paragraph of section 776.1.36 for the preceding taxation year, no reference were made to any amount paid for the acquisition of a share referred to in the first paragraph that is disposed of or exchanged in the transfer year; and

(b) B is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the balance of the special tax account payable in relation to an authorized investment certificate referred to in the first paragraph at the end of the transfer year, to the extent that the balance does not exceed the portion of the amount determined under subparagraph a that may reasonably be considered to be attributable to one or more shares referred to in the first paragraph that were issued in connection with the certificate.

The first paragraph does not apply in respect of a share acquired in connection with an eligible investment of the corporation, where section 1129.27.29 applies in respect of the eligible investment for the transfer year or applied in respect of the eligible investment for a preceding taxation year.

For the purposes of this section, a corporation is deemed to dispose of or exchange shares that are identical properties in the order in which they were acquired.

2021, c. 18, s. 156.

1129.27.29. Every corporation that has deducted an amount under section 776.1.38 or 776.1.39 for a particular taxation year in respect of an eligible investment in another corporation, in relation to an authorized investment certificate, and that becomes associated with the other corporation, at any time in a taxation year (in this section referred to as the "association year") that begins in the 48-month period following the end of the particular year, shall pay, for the association year, a tax determined by the formula

A – B.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is an amount equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount deducted by the corporation for a taxation year preceding the association year under section 776.1.38, or under section 776.1.39 in respect of the unused portion of the tax credit of the corporation for a taxation year preceding the association year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the maximum amount that the corporation could have deducted under section 776.1.38 for a taxation year preceding the association year if it had had sufficient tax payable under Part I for that preceding taxation year and if no reference were made to any eligible investment of the corporation in a corporation with which it becomes associated, under circumstances described in the first paragraph, at any time in the association year nor to any amount paid in connection with the eligible investment for the acquisition of a share referred to in the first paragraph of section 1129.27.28; and

(b) B is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a balance of the special tax account payable in relation to an authorized investment certificate referred to in the first paragraph at the end of the association year, to the extent that the balance does not exceed the portion of the amount determined under subparagraph a that may reasonably be considered to be attributable to the certificate.

1129.27.30. For the purposes of Part I, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation, at any time, under section 1129.27.28 or 1129.27.29 in relation to an amount paid for the acquisition of a share is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the share, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2021, c. 18, s. 156.

1129.27.31. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2021, c. 18, s. 156.

PART III.7

SPECIAL DUTIES RELATING TO THE TRANSFER OF AN IMMOVABLE MADE BEFORE 18 MARCH 2016

1993, c. 64, s. 191; 2017, c. 1, s. 381.

1129.28. In this Part,

"person" means a person within the meaning assigned by section 1;

"transfer" means a transfer within the meaning assigned by section 1 of the Act respecting duties on transfers of immovables (chapter D-15.1);

"transfer duties" means the duties payable under section 2 of the Act respecting duties on transfers of immovables.

1993, c. 64, s. 191; 1994, c. 22, s. 344; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2002, c. 40, s. 279; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.28.1. In this Part, where there is a transfer of a corporeal immovable and of movables which are permanently physically attached or joined to the immovable without losing their individuality and without being incorporated with the immovable, and which, in the immovable, are used for the operation of a business or the pursuit of activities, the word "immovable" refers to the whole formed by the immovable and the movables.

1129.29. Where, at any time, control of a corporation is acquired by a person or group of persons, where an immovable has been transferred to the corporation before 18 March 2016 and in the 24 months preceding that time, where the transfer is exempt from the payment of transfer duties under section 19 of the Act respecting duties on transfers of immovables (chapter D-15.1) and where it may reasonably be considered that the immovable was transferred in contemplation of the acquisition of control of the corporation by the person or group of persons, the corporation shall pay to the Minister, within 30 days from the date of sending of a notice of assessment, special duties equal to 125% of the amount of the transfer duties that would have been payable following the transfer if that section 19 had not been applicable in respect of the transfer and, where the transfer is not registered, if it had been registered.

1993, c. 64, s. 191; 1994, c. 22, s. 346; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2004, c. 4, s. 16; 2017, c. 1, s. 382.

1129.30. The Minister shall pay to the Minister of Municipal Affairs, Regions and Land Occupancy an amount representing four-fifths of the special duties collected under section 1129.29 and shall transmit to him any information he may need in order to forward such amount to the municipality in whose territory the immovable transferred is situated.

1993, c. 64, s. 191; 1999, c. 43, s. 13; 2003, c. 19, s. 250; 2005, c. 28, s. 196; 2009, c. 26, s. 109.

1129.31. A taxpayer who acquires a right contemplated in paragraph b of section 20 is thereby deemed to acquire the shares to which the right applies if it may reasonably be concluded that one of the principal aims of the acquisition of the right was to avoid the application of section 1129.29.

1993, c. 64, s. 191.

1129.32. Any director of a particular corporation contemplated in section 1129.29 who was in office immediately before the immovable contemplated in that section is again disposed of or transferred, whether in the context of a winding-up or otherwise, and, where applicable, any other corporation by which the particular corporation is controlled, in any manner whatsoever, and any director of that other corporation who was in office at that time, are solidarily liable with the particular corporation for the payment of the special duties prescribed by the said section 1129.29.

1993, c. 64, s. 191; 1995, c. 1, s. 199; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1129.33. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 21.2 to 21.3.1 and 21.4, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, and sections 1010 and 1014 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

For the purposes of section 21.3, paragraph a of section 21 shall read as if the reference therein to "if one is the child, other descendant, brother or sister of the other" were a reference to "if one is the child or other descendant of the other".

1993, c. 64, s. 191; 1995, c. 1, s. 362; 1995, c. 63, s. 261; 1997, c. 85, s. 306; 2006, c. 13, s. 210.

PART III.7.0.1

SPECIAL DUTIES RELATING TO THE TRANSFER OF AN IMMOVABLE MADE AFTER 17 MARCH 2016

2017, c. 1, s. 383.

1129.33.0.1. In this Part,

"transfer" has the meaning assigned by section 1 of the Act respecting duties on transfers of immovables (chapter D-15.1);

"transfer duties" means the duties provided for in section 2 of the Act respecting duties on transfers of immovables and in the first and second paragraphs of section 4.1 of that Act.

2017, c. 1, s. 383.

1129.33.0.2. In this Part, where there is a transfer of a corporeal immovable and of movables which are permanently physically attached or joined to the immovable without losing their individuality and without being incorporated with the immovable, and which, in the immovable, are used for the operation of a business or the pursuit of activities, "immovable" refers to the whole formed by the immovable and the movables.

2017, c. 1, s. 383.

1129.33.0.3. A transferee to whom the second paragraph of section 6 of the Act respecting duties on transfers of immovables (chapter D-15.1) applies who fails to file the notice of disclosure of the transfer of an immovable referred to in that second paragraph within the time limit provided for in that paragraph, although the transferee was required to do so, shall pay to the Minister, within 30 days from the date of sending of a notice of assessment, special duties equal to 150% of the amount of the transfer duties that would be payable in respect of the transfer if that Act were read without reference to its Chapter III, increased by the amount of interest, computed at the rate provided for in section 28 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002), on the amount of those special duties from the date by which the transferee was required to file the notice of disclosure until the day of payment.

However, where the transferee fails to file the notice of disclosure of the transfer of the immovable within the time limit provided for in the second paragraph of section 6 of the Act respecting duties on transfers of immovables, although the transferee was required to do so, and where, after the expiry of that time, the transferee pays to the municipality in whose territory the immovable is situated the transfer duties owed in respect of the transfer before the sending of the notice of assessment referred to in the first paragraph, the amount that the transferee shall pay to the Minister as special duties under the first paragraph is deemed to be equal to the third of the special duties otherwise determined, increased by the amount of interest computed at the rate provided for in section 28 of the Tax Administration Act on that deemed amount from the date by which the transferee was required to file the notice of disclosure until the day of payment.

1129.33.0.4. A transferee to whom the second paragraph of section 6.1 of the Act respecting duties on transfers of immovables (chapter D-15.1) applies who fails to file the notice of disclosure referred to in that second paragraph in respect of an immovable within the time limit provided for in that paragraph shall pay to the Minister, within 30 days from the date of sending of a notice of assessment, special duties equal to 150% of the amount of the transfer duties payable in respect of the immovable under the first or second paragraph of section 4.1 of that Act, increased by the amount of interest, computed at the rate provided for in section 28 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002), on the amount of those special duties from the date by which the transferee was required to file the notice of disclosure until the day of payment.

However, where the transferee fails to file the notice of disclosure within the time limit provided for in the second paragraph of section 6.1 of the Act respecting duties on transfers of immovables and where, after the expiry of that time, the transferee pays to the municipality in whose territory the immovable is situated the transfer duties owed in respect of the immovable before the sending of the notice of assessment referred to in the first paragraph, the amount that the transferee shall pay to the Minister as special duties under the first paragraph in respect of the immovable is deemed to be equal to a third of the special duties otherwise determined, increased by the amount of interest computed at the rate provided for in section 28 of the Tax Administration Act on that deemed amount from the date by which the transferee was required to file the notice of disclosure until the day of payment.

2017, c. 1, s. 383.

1129.33.0.5. The Minister shall pay to the Minister of Municipal Affairs, Regions and Land Occupancy an amount representing two-thirds of the special duties collected under the first paragraph of section 1129.33.0.3 or 1129.33.0.4 and shall transmit to that Minister any information that Minister may need in order to forward such amount to the municipality in whose territory the immovable that is the subject of special duties is situated.

2017, c. 1, s. 383; 2017, c. 29, s. 215.

1129.33.0.6. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, and sections 1010 and 1014 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2017, c. 1, s. 383.

PART III.7.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE USE OF LESS POLLUTING DRY-CLEANING TECHNOLOGY

1997, c. 85, s. 307.

1129.33.1. In this Part, “acquisition costs” and “qualified property” have the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.21.4.

1997, c. 85, s. 307; 2003, c. 9, s. 405; 2007, c. 12, s. 255.

1129.33.2. Every taxpayer who is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.21.5, an amount as partial payment of tax payable for any taxation year under Part I, in relation to acquisition costs in respect of qualified property, shall pay tax, for a particular taxation year, equal

(a) to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.21.5, in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is tax the taxpayer is required to pay under this section in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, where

i. at any time between the taxpayer's filing-due date for the preceding taxation year and the day after the earlier of the day that is the end of the period of 730 days following the beginning of the use of the qualified property by the taxpayer and the taxpayer's filing-due date for the particular year, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of the loss or involuntary destruction of the property by fire, theft or water or of a major breakdown of the property, to be used solely in Québec to earn income from a dry-cleaning business operated

(1) by the taxpayer, and that time is also within the portion of that period in which the taxpayer owns the property, or

(2) by a person who acquired the property from the taxpayer in any of the circumstances described in section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1), and that time is also within the portion of that period in which the person owns the property, or

ii. on or before the taxpayer's filing-due date for the particular year, the validation certificate issued to the taxpayer in relation to the qualified property is revoked; or

(b) where paragraph a does not apply to the particular year nor has been applied to a preceding taxation year in relation to the property and where, during the particular year, an amount relating to those acquisition costs, in respect of which the taxpayer is deemed, under section 1029.8.21.5, to have paid an amount for a taxation year preceding the particular year, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer, to the amount obtained by applying to the amount so refunded, paid or allocated the percentage applied to the acquisition costs for that preceding year under section 1029.8.21.5.

1129.33.3. Every taxpayer who is a member of a partnership and who is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.21.6, an amount as partial payment of tax payable under Part I for any taxation year in respect of the taxpayer's share of an amount of the acquisition costs incurred by the partnership, in respect of a qualified property, in the partnership's fiscal period ending in that year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, the aggregate of

(a) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.21.6, in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is tax the taxpayer is required to pay under this section in respect of the property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, where

i. at any time between the day that is six months after the end of the partnership's fiscal period ending in the preceding taxation year and the day after the earlier of the day that is the end of the period of 730 days following the beginning of the use of the qualified property by the partnership and the day that is six months after the end of the partnership's fiscal period ending in the particular year, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of the loss or involuntary destruction of the property by fire, theft or water or of a major breakdown of the property, to be used solely in Québec to earn income from a dry-cleaning business operated

(1) by the partnership, and that time is also within the portion of that period in which the partnership owns the property, or

(2) by a person who acquired the property from the partnership in any of the circumstances described in section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1), and that time is also within the portion of that period in which the person owns the property, or

ii. on or before the day that is six months after the end of the partnership's fiscal period ending in the particular year, the validation certificate issued to the partnership in relation to the qualified property is revoked;

(b) where paragraph a does not apply to the particular year nor has been applied to a preceding taxation year in relation to the property and where, during a fiscal period of the partnership ending in the particular year, an amount relating to those acquisition costs, in respect of which the taxpayer is deemed, under section 1029.8.21.6, to have paid an amount, in relation to the taxpayer's share of those costs, for a taxation year preceding the particular year, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership, the amount obtained by applying to the taxpayer's share of the amount so refunded, paid or allocated the percentage applied to the taxpayer's share of the amount of the acquisition costs for the particular taxation year under section 1029.8.21.6; and

(c) where paragraph a does not apply in the particular year nor has been applied to a preceding taxation year in relation to the property and, in the particular year, an amount relating to those acquisition costs, in respect of which the taxpayer is deemed, under section 1029.8.21.6, to have paid an amount in relation to the taxpayer's share of those costs, for a taxation year preceding the particular year, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer, the amount obtained by applying to the amount so refunded, paid or allocated the percentage applied to the taxpayer's share of the amount of the acquisition costs for the particular taxation year under section 1029.8.21.6.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the taxpayer's share of an amount refunded, paid or allocated is equal to the agreed proportion of the amount in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular taxation year.

1997, c. 85, s. 307; 2000, c. 39, s. 264; 2007, c. 12, s. 257; 2009, c. 15, s. 403.

1129.33.4. For the purposes of Part I, the following rules apply:

(a) tax paid to the Minister by a taxpayer at any time, under section 1129.33.2, in relation to property is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the taxpayer at that time in respect of the property, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) tax paid to the Minister by a taxpayer at any time, under section 1129.33.3, in relation to property is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of that property, pursuant to a legal obligation.

1997, c. 85, s. 307; 2001, c. 7, s. 169; 2009, c. 15, s. 404.

1129.33.5. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024 and 1026.0.1, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1997, c. 85, s. 307.

PART III.8

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR TRAINING

1995, c. 1, s. 191.

1129.34. In this Part, "qualified training expenditure" has the meaning assigned by Division II.5 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I.

1995, c. 1, s. 191; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1997, c. 14, s. 290; 2002, c. 40, s. 280; 2005, c. 23, s. 249; 2007, c. 12, s. 258.

1129.35. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under Division II.5 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, an amount as partial payment of its tax payable under that Part for a particular taxation year shall, where during a subsequent taxation year, an amount related to a qualified training expenditure or to its share of such an expenditure, in respect of which the corporation is so deemed to have paid an amount, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation, pay for that subsequent year tax equal to the amount obtained by applying to the amount so refunded, paid or allocated, the percentage that was applied to the qualified training expenditure for the particular year under section 1029.8.25, or to its share of such an expenditure under section 1029.8.25.1.

1129.36. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and that is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.25.1, an amount as partial payment of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year in respect of its share of a qualified training expenditure incurred by the partnership in a fiscal period of the partnership shall, where during a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership, an amount related to that expenditure is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership, pay, for the taxation year in which that subsequent fiscal period ends, tax equal to the amount obtained by applying to its share of the amount so refunded, paid or allocated, the percentage that was applied to its share of the qualified training expenditure for the particular taxation year under section 1029.8.25.1.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the corporation's share of an amount refunded, paid or allocated is equal to the agreed proportion of the amount in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular taxation year.

1129.37. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

1995, c. 1, s. 191; 1995, c. 49, s. 236; 1995, c. 63, s. 261.

PART III.9

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR ON-THE-JOB TRAINING PERIODS

1995, c. 1, s. 191.

1129.38. In this Part, "qualified expenditure" has the meaning assigned by Division II.5.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I.

1995, c. 1, s. 191; 1995, c. 63, s. 234; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1997, c. 14, s. 290; 2002, c. 40, s. 281; 2007, c. 12, s. 261.

1129.39. Every taxpayer who is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under Division II.5.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, an amount as partial payment of the taxpayer's tax payable under that Part for a particular taxation year shall, where during a subsequent taxation year, an amount relating to a qualified expenditure or to the taxpayer's share of such an expenditure, in respect of which the taxpayer is so deemed to have paid an amount is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer, pay for that subsequent year tax equal to the amount obtained by applying to the amount so refunded, paid or allocated the percentage applied for the particular year to the qualified expenditure under section 1029.8.33.6 or to the taxpayer's share of such an expenditure under section 1029.8.33.7.

However, the first paragraph applies in respect of an amount refunded, paid or allocated only to the extent,

(a) where the qualified expenditure to which the amount relates was made by the taxpayer, that the amount of the expenditure exceeds the amount that would be determined if each of the particular amounts taken into account for the purpose of determining that amount were reduced, where applicable, by every amount that, not later than in the subsequent taxation year referred to in the first paragraph, was refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment he was required to make, in respect of the particular amount;

(b) where the qualified expenditure to which the amount relates was made by a partnership in a fiscal period, that the taxpayer's share of the amount of the expenditure, determined in accordance with sections 1029.8.33.7 and 1029.8.33.7.1, exceeds the share that would have been so determined had the amount of the expenditure been determined on the assumption that each of the particular amounts taken into account for the purpose of determining that amount had been reduced, where applicable, by the amount determined in its respect in accordance with the third paragraph.

The amount referred to in subparagraph b of the second paragraph in respect of a particular amount is the quotient obtained by dividing the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount relating to the particular amount and which, not later than in the subsequent taxation year referred to in the first paragraph, was refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment he was required to make, by the proportion described in the third paragraph of section 1029.8.33.7 in respect of the qualified expenditure referred to in subparagraph b.

1129.40. Every taxpayer who is a member of a partnership and who is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.33.7, an amount as partial payment of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year in respect of the taxpayer's share of the amount of a qualified expenditure made by the partnership in a particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in that particular year, shall, where during a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership, an amount relating to that expenditure is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership, pay, for the taxation year in which that subsequent fiscal period ends, tax equal to the amount obtained by applying to the taxpayer's share of the amount so refunded, paid or allocated the percentage applied to the taxpayer's share of the qualified expenditure for the particular taxation year under section 1029.8.33.7.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the taxpayer's share of an amount refunded, paid or allocated is equal to the agreed proportion of the amount in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's particular fiscal period.

However, the first paragraph applies in respect of an amount refunded, paid or allocated only to the extent that the amount of the qualified expenditure to which the amount relates exceeds the amount that would be determined if each of the particular amounts taken into account for the purpose of determining that amount were reduced, where applicable, by every amount that, not later than in the subsequent fiscal period referred to in the first paragraph, was refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment it was required to make, in respect of the particular amount.

1129.40.1. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.5.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules are taken into account:

(a) the tax paid at any time by a taxpayer to the Minister under section 1129.39, in relation to a qualified expenditure incurred by the taxpayer, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the taxpayer, in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) the tax paid at any time by a taxpayer to the Minister under section 1129.39 or 1129.40, in relation to a qualified expenditure incurred by the partnership referred to in that section, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2015, c. 21, s. 514; 2022, c. 23, s. 132.

1129.41. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024 and 1026.0.1, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

1995, c. 1, s. 191; 1995, c. 49, s. 236; 1995, c. 63, s. 261; 1997, c. 31, s. 135.

PART III.9.0.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR LABOUR TRAINING IN THE MANUFACTURING, FORESTRY AND MINING SECTORS

2009, c. 15, s. 407; 2010, c. 5, s. 196.

1129.41.0.1. In this Part, "eligible training expenditure" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.33.11.1.

2009, c. 15, s. 407.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 1029.8.33.11.3 or 1029.8.33.11.7, in relation to the eligible training expenditure, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible training expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular taxation year; and

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends under any of sections 1029.8.33.11.4, 1029.8.33.11.8 and 1029.8.33.11.9, in relation to the eligible training expenditure, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible training expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the eligible training expenditure, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

2009, c. 15, s. 407; 2022, c. 23, s. 133.

1129.41.0.4. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.5.1.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules are taken into account:

(a) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.41.0.2, in relation to an eligible training expenditure, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation, in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.41.0.3, in relation to an eligible training expenditure, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2009, c. 15, s. 407; 2022, c. 23, s. 134.

1129.41.0.5. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 if it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2009, c. 15, s. 407.

PART III.9.0.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR FRANCIZATION IN THE WORKPLACE

2009, c. 15, s. 407.

1129.41.0.6. In this Part, "eligible training expenditure" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.33.11.11.

2009, c. 15, s. 407.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 1029.8.33.11.13 or 1029.8.33.11.17, in relation to the eligible training expenditure, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible training expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular taxation year; and

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends under any of sections 1029.8.33.11.14, 1029.8.33.11.18 and 1029.8.33.11.19, in relation to the eligible training expenditure, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible training expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the eligible training expenditure, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

2009, c. 15, s. 407; 2022, c. 23, s. 135.

1129.41.0.9. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.5.1.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules are taken into account:

(a) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.41.0.7, in relation to an eligible training expenditure, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation, in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.41.0.8, in relation to an eligible training expenditure, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2009, c. 15, s. 407; 2022, c. 23, s. 136.

1129.41.0.10. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 if it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2009, c. 15, s. 407.

PART III.9.0.3

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE TRAINING OF WORKERS EMPLOYED BY SMALL AND MEDIUM-SIZED BUSINESSES

2019, c. 14, s. 451.

1129.41.0.11. In this Part, "eligible training fees" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.33.11.21.

2019, c. 14, s. 451.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 1029.8.33.11.22 or 1029.8.33.11.26, in relation to the eligible training fees, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the salary or wages considered in the eligible training fees, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the eligible training fees.

1129.41.0.13. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.33.11.23, on account of the corporation's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to eligible training fees of the partnership for the partnership's particular fiscal period that ends in that particular year, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for the taxation year in which ends a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership (in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment") in which an amount relating to salary or wages considered in the eligible training fees is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends under any of sections 1029.8.33.11.23, 1029.8.33.11.27 and 1029.8.33.11.28, in relation to the eligible training fees, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the salary or wages considered in the eligible training fees, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the eligible training fees, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

2019, c. 14, s. 451.

1129.41.0.14. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.5.1.3 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules are taken into consideration:

(a) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.41.0.12, in relation to eligible training fees, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of those fees, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.41.0.13, in relation to eligible training fees of a partnership referred to in that section, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the partnership at that time in respect of those fees, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2019, c. 14, s. 451.

1129.41.0.15. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2019, c. 14, s. 451.

PART III.9.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT IN RESPECT OF TIP REPORTING

1997, c. 85, s. 308.

1129.41.1. In this Part, "qualified expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.33.12.

1997, c. 85, s. 308; 2007, c. 12, s. 264.

1129.41.2. Every taxpayer who, in relation to a qualified expenditure, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.33.13 or 1029.8.33.14, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year shall, where, during a subsequent taxation year, an amount relating to a qualified expenditure or to the taxpayer's share of an aggregate of qualified expenditures, in respect of which the taxpayer is so deemed to have paid an amount is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer, pay, for that subsequent year, a tax equal to

(a) where a percentage was applied for the particular year to reduce the qualified expenditure under section 1029.8.33.13 or 1029.8.33.14, the product obtained by multiplying the amount so refunded, paid or allocated by that percentage; and

(b) in any other case, the amount so refunded, paid or allocated.

1997, c. 85, s. 308; 2000, c. 39, s. 240; 2004, c. 21, s. 472.

1129.41.3. Every taxpayer who is a member of a partnership and who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.33.14, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year in respect of the taxpayer's share of an aggregate of qualified expenditures determined in respect of the partnership for a fiscal period of the partnership shall, where, during a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership, an amount relating to such expenditures is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership, pay, for the taxation year in which that subsequent fiscal period ends, a tax equal to the taxpayer's share, for that subsequent fiscal period, of

(a) where a percentage was applied, for the fiscal period that ends in the particular taxation year, to reduce the qualified expenditure under section 1029.8.33.14, the product obtained by multiplying the amount so refunded, paid or allocated by that percentage; and

(b) in any other case, the amount so refunded, paid or allocated.

1129.41.3.1. Every taxpayer who, in relation to a qualified expenditure referred to in subparagraph d of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.33.13, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under that section, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year shall, where, on or before the day that is 12 months after the taxpayer's filing-due date for that particular year, part or all of the aggregate of the indemnities pertaining to the annual leave which constitutes the qualified expenditure has not been paid to the employees, pay, for the taxation year in which the 12-month period following the taxpayer's filing-due date for the particular taxation year ends, a tax equal to

(a) where a percentage was applied for the particular year to reduce the qualified expenditure under section 1029.8.33.13, the product obtained by multiplying the aggregate of part or all of the indemnities that have not been paid and the amount payable under the provisions mentioned in subparagraphs i and iii to v of paragraph a of the definition of "qualified expenditure" in section 1029.8.33.12 in relation to the indemnities, by that percentage; and

(b) in any other case, the aggregate described in paragraph a.

1129.41.3.2. Every taxpayer who is a member of a partnership and who, in relation to the taxpayer's share of a qualified expenditure referred to in subparagraph d of the fourth paragraph of section 1029.8.33.14, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under that section, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year in which a particular fiscal period of the partnership ended shall, where, on or before the day that is 18 months after the end of the particular fiscal period, part or all of the aggregate of the indemnities pertaining to the annual leave which constitutes the qualified expenditure has not been paid to the employees, pay, for the taxation year in which the 18-month period following the end of the particular fiscal period ends, a tax equal to the taxpayer's share of

(a) where a percentage was applied for the particular fiscal period to reduce the qualified expenditure under section 1029.8.33.14, the product obtained by multiplying the aggregate of part or all of the indemnities that have not been paid and the amount payable under the provisions mentioned in subparagraphs i and iii to v of paragraph a of the definition of "qualified expenditure" in section 1029.8.33.12 in relation to the indemnities, by that percentage; and

(b) in any other case, the aggregate described in paragraph a.

2000, c. 39, s. 241; 2004, c. 21, s. 472; 2005, c. 38, s. 311.

1129.41.4. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.5.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules apply:

(a) the tax paid to the Minister by a taxpayer at any time, under section 1129.41.2 or 1129.41.3.1, in relation to a qualified expenditure is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the taxpayer at that time in respect of that expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) the tax paid to the Minister by a taxpayer at any time, under section 1129.41.3 or 1129.41.3.2, in relation to a qualified expenditure is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the partnership referred to in that section at that time in respect of that expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation.

1997, c. 85, s. 308; 2000, c. 39, s. 242.

1129.41.5. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1000 to 1024 and 1026.0.1, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1997, c. 85, s. 308.

PART III.10

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE DESIGN TAX CREDIT

1995, c. 1, s. 191.

1129.42. In this Part, "contract payment", "qualified designer", "qualified outside consultant", "qualified patternmaker" and "wages" have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.4.

1995, c. 1, s. 191; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1997, c. 14, s. 290; 2002, c. 40, s. 282; 2006, c. 13, s. 211; 2007, c. 12, s. 265; 2009, c. 5, s. 523.

(a) an amount relating to the expenditure is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation; or

(b) a contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance is received by a person or partnership and the contract payment or assistance would have reduced, in accordance with subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.18, the wages paid to a qualified designer or qualified patternmaker by the person or partnership and to which the expenditure is attributable, if the person or partnership had received it, had been entitled to receive it or could reasonably have expected to receive it on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the particular taxation year.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 1029.8.36.5 or 1029.8.36.20, in relation to the expenditure, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the repayment year, in relation to the expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular taxation year, and

ii. every contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph that is received by the person or partnership at or before the end of the repayment year, were received in the particular taxation year; and

1129.44. Every corporation that is a member of a particular partnership and that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.6, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in respect of an expenditure that, in relation to a design activity carried out under a contract entered into with a qualified outside consultant, the particular partnership incurred in the particular partnership's particular fiscal period that ends in the particular year, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for the taxation year in which ends a subsequent fiscal period of the particular partnership (in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment") in which

(a) an amount relating to the expenditure is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the particular partnership or to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the particular partnership or the corporation; or

(b) a contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance is received by a person or another partnership and the contract payment or assistance would have reduced, in accordance with subparagraph i of subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.18, the corporation's share of wages that are paid to a qualified designer or qualified patternmaker by the person or the other partnership and to whom the expenditure is attributable, if the person or the other partnership had received it, had been entitled to receive it or could reasonably have expected to receive it on or before the day that is six months after the end of the particular fiscal period.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the particular partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends, under any of sections 1029.8.36.6, 1029.8.36.21 and 1029.8.36.22, in relation to the expenditure, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, in relation to the expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. every contract payment, government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph that is received by the person or the other partnership at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, were received in the particular fiscal period; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the expenditure, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the particular partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the particular partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the particular partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

1995, c. 1, s. 191; 1995, c. 63, s. 236; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2000, c. 39, s. 264; 2006, c. 13, s. 212; 2006, c. 36, s. 239; 2009, c. 5, s. 525; 2009, c. 15, s. 408.

1129.44.1. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.7, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year in relation to wages incurred in that particular year shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to the wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.7 or 1029.8.36.23, in relation to the wages, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the wages.

1129.44.2. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.7.1, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to wages incurred by the partnership in a particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the particular year, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership ends, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", in which an amount relating to the wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year, under any of sections 1029.8.36.7.1, 1029.8.36.23.1 and 1029.8.36.23.2, in relation to the wages, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the wages, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

2006, c. 13, s. 213; 2006, c. 36, s. 240; 2009, c. 15, s. 409.

1129.44.2.1. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules are taken into account:

(a) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.43 or 1129.44.1, in relation to an expenditure or wages, as the case may be, incurred by the corporation, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation, in respect of the expenditure or wages, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.44 or 1129.44.2, in relation to an expenditure or wages, as the case may be, incurred by the partnership referred to in that section, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership, in respect of the expenditure or wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

1129.44.3. (Repealed).

1995, c. 1, s. 191; 1995, c. 49, s. 236; 1995, c. 63, s. 261.

PART III.10.0.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE ACQUISITION OF PIG MANURE TREATMENT FACILITIES

2007, c. 12, s. 267.

1129.45.0.1. In this Part,

"eligible expenses" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.53.10;

"eligible facility" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.53.10.

2007, c. 12, s. 267.

1129.45.0.2. Every taxpayer that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.53.11, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to the eligible expenses of the taxpayer for the particular year, in respect of an eligible facility, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to the eligible expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer.

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the eligible expenses.

1129.45.0.3. Every taxpayer that is a member of a partnership and is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.53.12, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to the eligible expenses of the partnership for the partnership's particular fiscal period that ends in that particular year, in respect of an eligible facility, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership ends, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", in which an amount relating to the eligible expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or taxpayer.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends under any of sections 1029.8.36.53.12, 1029.8.36.53.18 and 1029.8.36.53.19, in relation to the eligible expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the eligible expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the fiscal period of repayment.

2007, c. 12, s. 267; 2009, c. 15, s. 410; 2022, c. 23, s. 138.

1129.45.0.4. For the purposes of Part I, the following rules are taken into account:

(a) the tax paid at any time by a taxpayer to the Minister under section 1129.45.0.2, in relation to eligible expenses, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the taxpayer, in respect of the expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) the tax paid at any time by a taxpayer to the Minister under section 1129.45.0.3, in relation to eligible expenses, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2007, c. 12, s. 267; 2022, c. 23, s. 139.

1129.45.0.5. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024 and 1026.0.1, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2007, c. 12, s. 267.

PART III.10.0.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT IN RESPECT OF INTEREST PAYABLE ON FINANCING OBTAINED UNDER THE SELLER-LENDER FORMULA OF LA FINANCIÈRE AGRICOLE DU QUÉBEC

2015, c. 24, s. 157.

1129.45.0.6. In this Part, "eligible expenses" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.53.20.1.

2015, c. 24, s. 157.

1129.45.0.7. Every taxpayer who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.53.20.2, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to the eligible expenses of the taxpayer for the particular year, in respect of qualified financing, is required to pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which an amount relating to the eligible expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 1029.8.36.53.20.2 or 1029.8.36.53.20.6, in relation to the eligible expenses, exceeds the total of

1029.8.36.53.20.6, in relation to the eligible expenses, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the eligible expenses.

1129.45.0.8. Every taxpayer who is a member of a partnership and is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.53.20.3, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to the eligible expenses of the partnership for the partnership's particular fiscal period that ends in that particular year, in respect of qualified financing, is required to pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership ends (in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment") in which an amount relating to the eligible expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or taxpayer.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends under any of sections 1029.8.36.53.20.3, 1029.8.36.53.20.7 and 1029.8.36.53.20.8, in relation to the eligible expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the eligible expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the fiscal period of repayment.

2015, c. 24, s. 157; 2022, c. 23, s. 140.

1129.45.0.9. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.4.2.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules are taken into account:

(a) the tax paid at any time by a taxpayer to the Minister under section 1129.45.0.7, in relation to eligible expenses, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the taxpayer, in respect of the expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) the tax paid at any time by a taxpayer to the Minister under section 1129.45.0.8, in relation to eligible expenses, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2015, c. 24, s. 157; 2022, c. 23, s. 141.

1129.45.0.10. Unless otherwise provided for in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024 and 1026.0.1, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2015, c. 24, s. 157.

PART III.10.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CONSTRUCTION OR CONVERSION OF VESSELS

1997, c. 14, s. 267; 1999, c. 83, s. 251.

1129.45.1. In this Part, "construction expenditure", "conversion expenditure", "cost of construction", "cost of conversion", "eligible vessel", "qualified construction expenditure" and "qualified conversion expenditure" have the meaning assigned by Division II.6.5 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I.

1997, c. 14, s. 267; 1999, c. 83, s. 252; 2002, c. 40, s. 283; 2007, c. 12, s. 304; 2009, c. 5, s. 526.

(a) an amount relating to an expenditure included in computing a qualified construction expenditure of the corporation in respect of the vessel, or the cost of construction of the vessel to the corporation is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation; or

(b) government assistance or non-government assistance is received by a person or partnership and the assistance would have reduced, in accordance with subparagraph a.1 of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.36.54 or subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.36.55, the amount of a portion of a consideration paid in respect of a construction expenditure of the corporation in respect of the vessel or the cost of construction of the vessel to the corporation, if the person or partnership had received it, had been entitled to receive it or could reasonably have expected to receive it on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year in which the corporation paid the portion of the consideration or incurred the portion of the cost of construction to which the assistance relates.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.55, in relation to the eligible vessel, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the repayment year, in relation to an expenditure included in computing a qualified construction expenditure of the corporation in respect of the vessel or in computing the cost of construction of the vessel to the corporation, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year in which the corporation incurred the expenditure to which the amount refunded, paid or allocated relates, and

ii. every government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph that is received by a person or partnership at or before the end of the repayment year, were received in the taxation year in which the corporation paid the portion of the consideration or incurred the portion of the cost of construction to which the assistance relates; and

1997, c. 14, s. 267; 1999, c. 83, s. 253; 2002, c. 40, s. 284; 2009, c. 5, s. 527.

(a) an amount relating to an expenditure included in computing a qualified conversion expenditure of the corporation in respect of the vessel, or the cost of conversion of the vessel to the corporation is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation; or

(b) government assistance or non-government assistance is received by a person or partnership and the assistance would have reduced, in accordance with subparagraph a.1 of the third paragraph of section 1029.8.36.54 or subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.36.55.1, the amount of a portion of a consideration paid in respect of a conversion expenditure of the corporation in respect of the vessel or the cost of conversion of the vessel to the corporation, if the person or partnership had received it, had been entitled to receive it or could reasonably have expected to receive it on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year in which the corporation paid the portion of the consideration or incurred the portion of the cost of conversion to which the assistance relates.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.55.1, in relation to the eligible vessel, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the repayment year, in relation to an expenditure included in computing a qualified conversion expenditure of the corporation in respect of the vessel or in computing the cost of conversion of the vessel to the corporation, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year in which the corporation incurred the expenditure to which the amount refunded, paid or allocated relates, and

ii. every government assistance or non-government assistance referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph that is received by a person or partnership at or before the end of the repayment year, were received in the taxation year in which the corporation paid the portion of the consideration or incurred the portion of the conversion cost to which the assistance relates; and

1129.45.2.2. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.5 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time under section 1129.45.2 or 1129.45.2.1, in relation to an expenditure, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2015, c. 21, s. 516.

1129.45.3. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1997, c. 14, s. 267.

PART III.10.1.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR RAILWAY UNDERTAKINGS

2000, c. 39, s. 243.

1129.45.3.1. In this Part, "property taxes" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.59.1.

2000, c. 39, s. 243; 2001, c. 51, s. 228; 2007, c. 12, s. 268.

1129.45.3.2. Every taxpayer who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.59.2, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to the taxpayer's property taxes for the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to the property taxes is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.59.2 or 1029.8.36.59.5, in relation to the property taxes, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the property taxes, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the property taxes.

1129.45.3.3. Every taxpayer who is a member of a partnership and who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.59.3, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to property taxes of the partnership for a particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership ends, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", in which an amount relating to the property taxes is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or taxpayer.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under any of sections 1029.8.36.59.3, 1029.8.36.59.6 and 1029.8.36.59.7, in relation to the property taxes, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8.36.59.3, 1029.8.36.59.6 and 1029.8.36.59.7, for a taxation year, in relation to the property taxes, if

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the property taxes, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the property taxes, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer, or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the fiscal period of repayment.

2000, c. 39, s. 243; 2002, c. 40, s. 286; 2006, c. 36, s. 241; 2009, c. 15, s. 411.

1129.45.3.4. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.5.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules apply:

(a) the tax that a taxpayer pays to the Minister at any time under section 1129.45.3.2 in relation to property taxes is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the taxpayer at that time in respect of the property taxes pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) the tax that a taxpayer pays to the Minister at any time under section 1129.45.3.3 in relation to property taxes is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the property taxes pursuant to a legal obligation.

2000, c. 39, s. 243.

1129.45.3.5. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024 and 1026.0.1, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2000, c. 39, s. 243; 2002, c. 40, s. 287.

PART III.10.1.1.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE CONSTRUCTION AND MAJOR REPAIR OF PUBLIC ACCESS ROADS AND BRIDGES IN FOREST AREAS

2005, c. 1, s. 282; 2006, c. 36, s. 242.

1129.45.3.5.1. In this Part,

"eligible access road or bridge" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.59.12;

"eligible expenses" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.59.12.

2005, c. 1, s. 282; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.45.3.5.2. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.59.13, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to the eligible expenses of the corporation for the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to the eligible expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 1029.8.36.59.13 or 1029.8.36.59.16, in relation to the eligible expenses, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the eligible expenses.

1129.45.3.5.3. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.59.14, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to the eligible expenses of the partnership for the partnership's particular fiscal period that ends in the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership ends, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", in which an amount relating to the eligible expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under any of sections 1029.8.36.59.14, 1029.8.36.59.17 and 1029.8.36.59.18, in relation to the eligible expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the eligible expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

1129.45.3.5.4. For the purposes of sections 1129.45.3.5.2 and 1129.45.3.5.3, the amount determined in the second paragraph, in relation to eligible expenses of a corporation for a particular taxation year or of a partnership for a particular fiscal period, in respect of an eligible access road or bridge of the corporation or partnership, is deemed to be refunded to the corporation in a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", or to the partnership in a subsequent fiscal period, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", where the Minister of Natural Resources and Wildlife revokes, in the repayment year or in the fiscal period of repayment, the certificate that was issued in respect of the eligible access road or bridge.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of the eligible expenses of the corporation for the particular year, or of the partnership for the particular fiscal period, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount relating to those expenses that, in a taxation year preceding the repayment year but subsequent to the particular year, or in a fiscal period preceding the fiscal period of repayment but subsequent to the particular fiscal period, was refunded, otherwise paid or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation or partnership.

No tax is payable for a taxation year under section 1129.45.3.5.2 or 1129.45.3.5.3, in respect of any amount that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation, the partnership or another corporation that is a member of the partnership, or is allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation, the partnership or the other corporation, if that amount is included in an amount that is deemed to have been refunded, under this section, in that taxation year or a preceding taxation year or in a fiscal period that ends in that taxation year or in a preceding taxation year.

2005, c. 1, s. 282; 2006, c. 3, s. 35.

1129.45.3.5.5. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.5.3 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules apply:

(a) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.45.3.5.2, in relation to eligible expenses is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.45.3.5.3, in relation to eligible expenses is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2005, c. 1, s. 282.

1129.45.3.5.6. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2005, c. 1, s. 282.

PART III.10.1.1.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT TO PROMOTE THE HIRING OF NEW GRADUATES IN THE RESOURCE REGIONS

2005, c. 1, s. 282.

1129.45.3.5.7. In this Part,

"eligible employee" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.59.21;

"qualified wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.59.21;

"wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.59.21.

1129.45.3.5.8. Every taxpayer who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.59.24, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to qualified wages incurred in the particular year in respect of an eligible employee, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.59.24 or 1029.8.36.59.27, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified wages.

2005, c. 1, s. 282.

1129.45.3.5.9. Every taxpayer who is a member of a partnership and who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.59.25, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to qualified wages incurred by the partnership, in respect of an eligible employee, in a particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership ends, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or taxpayer.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under any of sections 1029.8.36.59.25, 1029.8.36.59.28 and 1029.8.36.59.29, in relation to the qualified wages, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the qualified wages, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer, or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the fiscal period of repayment.

2005, c. 1, s. 282; 2006, c. 36, s. 244; 2009, c. 15, s. 413; 2022, c. 23, s. 143.

1129.45.3.5.10. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.5.4 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules apply:

(a) tax paid to the Minister by a taxpayer at any time, under section 1129.45.3.5.8, in relation to qualified wages is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the taxpayer in respect of the wages pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) tax paid to the Minister by a taxpayer at any time, under section 1129.45.3.5.9, in relation to qualified wages is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the wages pursuant to a legal obligation.

2005, c. 1, s. 282.

subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2005, c. 1, s. 282.

PART III.10.1.1.3

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR DAMAGE INSURANCE FIRMS

2015, c. 21, s. 517.

1129.45.3.5.12. In this Part, "qualified expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.59.42.

2015, c. 21, s. 517.

1129.45.3.5.13. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.59.44, on account of its tax payable under Part I, in relation to a qualified expenditure, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which an amount relating to an expenditure included in computing the qualified expenditure is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under either of those sections, in relation to the qualified expenditure, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to an expenditure included in computing the qualified expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the corporation's last taxation year ended before 1 January 2013; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified expenditure.

1129.45.3.5.14. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.5.7 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time under this Part, in relation to a qualified expenditure of the corporation, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2015, c. 21, s. 517.

1129.45.3.5.15. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2015, c. 21, s. 517.

PART III.10.1.1.4

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT TO FOSTER THE RETENTION OF EXPERIENCED WORKERS

2020, c. 16, s. 184.

1129.45.3.5.16. In this Part, "qualified expenditure" and "specified expenditure" have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.59.49.

2020, c. 16, s. 184.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 1029.8.36.59.50 or 1029.8.36.59.54, in relation to the qualified expenditure or the specified expenditure, as the case may be, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the qualified expenditure or the specified expenditure, as the case may be, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified expenditure or the specified expenditure, as the case may be.

1129.45.3.5.18. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.59.50, on account of the corporation's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to a qualified expenditure or specified expenditure of the partnership for the partnership's particular fiscal period that ends in that particular year, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for the taxation year in which ends a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership (in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment") in which an amount relating to the qualified expenditure or the specified expenditure, as the case may be, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends under any of sections 1029.8.36.59.50, 1029.8.36.59.55 and 1029.8.36.59.56, in relation to the qualified expenditure or the specified expenditure, as the case may be, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the qualified expenditure or the specified expenditure, as the case may be, if

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the qualified expenditure or the specified expenditure, as the case may be, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the qualified expenditure or the specified expenditure, as the case may be, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

2020, c. 16, s. 184.

1129.45.3.5.19. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.5.8 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules are taken into consideration:

(a) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.45.3.5.17, in relation to its qualified expenditure or its specified expenditure, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of that expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.45.3.5.18, in relation to the qualified expenditure or the specified expenditure of a partnership referred to in that section, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the partnership at that time in respect of that expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2020, c. 16, s. 184.

1129.45.3.5.20. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2020, c. 16, s. 184.

PART III.10.1.1.5

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE CONTINUED EMPLOYMENT OF PERSONS WITH A SEVERELY LIMITED CAPACITY FOR EMPLOYMENT

2021, c. 14, s. 190; 2023, c. 2, s. 68.

1129.45.3.5.21. In this Part, "qualified expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.59.58.

2021, c. 14, s. 190.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 1029.8.36.59.59 or 1029.8.36.59.62, in relation to the qualified expenditure, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the qualified expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified expenditure.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends under any of sections 1029.8.36.59.59, 1029.8.36.59.63 and 1029.8.36.59.64, in relation to the qualified expenditure, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the qualified expenditure were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the qualified expenditure, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

2021, c. 14, s. 190.

1129.45.3.5.24. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.5.9 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules are taken into consideration:

(a) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.45.3.5.22, in relation to its qualified expenditure, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of that expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.45.3.5.23, in relation to the qualified expenditure of a partnership referred to in that section, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the partnership at that time in respect of that expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2021, c. 14, s. 190.

1129.45.3.5.25. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2021, c. 14, s. 190.

PART III.10.1.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR JOB CREATION IN THE OPTICS INDUSTRY IN THE QUÉBEC AREA

2001, c. 51, s. 218.

1129.45.3.6. In this Part,

"base period" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.1;

"recognized business" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.1;

"salary or wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.1.

For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a calendar year ending in a taxation year includes a reference to a calendar year ending coincidentally with that taxation year.

(a) where the corporation pays, in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation in its base period for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.2, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in its respect, that relates to the preceding calendar year exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if each of the amounts of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid by the corporation, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid by the corporation in a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year and is a repayment to which this subparagraph has applied;

(b) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in its base period for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.3, determined in respect of the corporation, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business in the Québec area for its taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ended, the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in respect of the corporation in relation to the preceding calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or a preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year and is a repayment to which this subparagraph has applied;

(c) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation for its base period, for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.4 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year, in this paragraph referred to as the "particular group", and with which the corporation was associated at that time, the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.3 in respect of the corporation for the preceding calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.3 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.4 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts of assistance in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or in a preceding calendar year, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.4 had been attributed to a corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid, in a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, by a member corporation of the particular group and is a repayment of assistance, relating to such a salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied;

(d) where, in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.2 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, other than a salary or wages paid in the base period of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.2 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received by the corporation in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied;

(e) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.3 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any other qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business in the Québec area for its taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ended, other than a salary or wages paid in the base period of the other corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.3 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied; and

(f) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the excess amount referred to in paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.4 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, other than salary or wages paid in the base period of the other corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.3 in respect of the corporation for the preceding calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.3 in respect of the corporation, in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.4 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.4 had been attributed to a corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied.

1129.45.3.8. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.6.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under this Part, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the salaries or wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2001, c. 51, s. 218.

1129.45.3.9. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027, section 1029.8.36.72.8 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2001, c. 51, s. 218.

PART III.10.1.3

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR JOB CREATION IN THE ALUMINUM INDUSTRY IN THE SAGUENAY–LAC-SAINT-JEAN AREA

2001, c. 51, s. 218.

1129.45.3.10. In this Part,

"base period" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.72.15;

"recognized business" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.72.15;

"salary or wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.15.

For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a calendar year ending in a taxation year includes a reference to a calendar year ending coincidentally with that taxation year.

certificate issued to the corporation for the purposes of Division II.6.6.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I.

2002, c. 40, s. 290.

1129.45.3.11. Every corporation that, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.16 or 1029.8.36.72.17, on account of the corporation's tax payable under Part I for any taxation year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to 40% of the aggregate of the following amounts, except where section 1129.45.3.10.1 applies in relation to the salaries or wages for the taxation year or a preceding taxation year:

(a) where the corporation pays, in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.16, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if each of the amounts of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid by the corporation, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(b) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.17, determined in respect of the corporation, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business for its taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ended, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or a preceding calendar year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(c) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.18 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.17 in respect of the corporation for a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.17 in respect of the corporation, in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.18 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts of assistance in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or in a preceding calendar year, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.18 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(d) where, in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.16 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.16 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received by the corporation in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this paragraph has applied;

(e) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.17 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any other qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business in the Saguenay–Lac-Saint-Jean area, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the other corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.17 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this paragraph has applied; and

(f) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the excess amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.18 that relates to a

calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the other corporation in relation to that recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.17 in respect of the corporation for the preceding calendar year exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.17 in respect of the corporation, in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.18 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.18 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this paragraph has applied.

1129.45.3.12. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.6.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under this Part, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the salaries or wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

1129.45.3.13. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027, section 1029.8.36.72.22 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2001, c. 51, s. 218.

PART III.10.1.4

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR JOB CREATION IN THE MANUFACTURING OR ENVIRONMENTAL SECTOR IN THE ANGUS TECHNOPOLE

2001, c. 51, s. 218.

1129.45.3.14. In this Part,

"base period" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.29;

"recognized business" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.29;

"salary or wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.29.

For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a calendar year ending in a taxation year includes a reference to a calendar year ending coincidentally with that taxation year.

(a) where the corporation pays, in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation in its base period for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.30, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in its respect, that relates to the preceding calendar year exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if each of the amounts of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid by the corporation, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid by the corporation in a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year and is a repayment to which this subparagraph has applied;

(b) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in its base period for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.31, determined in respect of the corporation, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business in the Angus Technopole for its taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ended, the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in respect of the corporation in relation to the preceding calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or a preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid in a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year and is a repayment to which this subparagraph has applied;

(c) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation for its base period for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.32 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year, in this paragraph referred to as the "particular group", and with which the corporation was associated at that time, the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.31 in respect of the corporation for the preceding calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.31 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.32 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts of assistance in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or in a preceding calendar year, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.32 had been attributed to a corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid, in a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, by a member corporation of the particular group and is a repayment of assistance relating to such a salary or wages to which this subparagraph has applied;

(d) where, in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.30 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, other than salary or wages paid in the base period of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.30 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received by the corporation in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied;

(e) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.31 determined in respect of the corporation, in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any other qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business in the Angus Technopole for its taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ended, other than salary or wages paid in the base period of the other corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.31 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied; and

(f) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to the salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the excess amount referred to in paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.32 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, other than salary or wages paid in the base period of the other corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.31 in respect of the corporation for the preceding calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.31 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.32 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.32 had been attributed to a corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied.

1129.45.3.16. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.6.3 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under this Part, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the salaries or wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2001, c. 51, s. 218.

1129.45.3.17. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027, section 1029.8.36.72.36 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2001, c. 51, s. 218.

PART III.10.1.5

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR JOB CREATION IN THE GASPÉSIE REGION AND IN CERTAIN MARITIME REGIONS OF QUÉBEC

2002, c. 9, s. 126.

1129.45.3.18. In this Part,

"base period" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.72.43;

"eligible region" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.43;

"recognized business" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.43;

"salary or wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.43.

For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a calendar year ending in a taxation year includes a reference to a calendar year ending coincidentally with that taxation year.

1129.45.3.18.1. Every corporation that, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.44 or 1029.8.36.72.45, on account of its tax payable under Part I for any taxation year, shall pay for a particular taxation year a tax equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have so paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.44 or 1029.8.36.72.45, in relation to the salaries or wages for the taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part, in relation to the salaries or wages for a taxation year preceding the particular year, if in the particular year, Investissement Québec revokes a qualification certificate issued to the corporation for the purposes of Division II.6.6.4 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I.

The cancellation by Investissement Québec, at the request of a corporation, of a qualification certificate issued to the corporation, in relation to a recognized business referred to in paragraph b or e of the definition of "recognized business" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.43, or in paragraph f of that definition in relation to a business whose activities are related to the activities of a business referred to in that paragraph b or e, does not constitute a revocation of the certificate for the purposes of this Part.

1129.45.3.19. Every corporation that, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.44 or 1029.8.36.72.45, on account of the corporation's tax payable under Part I for any taxation year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to 40% of the aggregate of the following amounts, except where section 1129.45.3.18.1 applies in relation to the salaries or wages for the taxation year or a preceding taxation year:

(a) where the corporation pays, in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.44, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if each of the amounts of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid by the corporation, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(b) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.45, determined in respect of the corporation, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business for its taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ended, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or a preceding calendar year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(c) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee

by the other corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.46 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.45 in respect of the corporation for a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.45 in respect of the corporation, in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.46 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts of assistance in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or in a preceding calendar year, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.46 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(d) where, in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.44 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.44 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received by the corporation in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this paragraph has applied;

(e) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.45 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any other qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business in an eligible region, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the other corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.45 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this paragraph has applied; and

(f) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the excess amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.46 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the other corporation in relation to that recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.45 in respect of the corporation for the preceding calendar year exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.45 in respect of the corporation, in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.46 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.46 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this paragraph has applied.

1129.45.3.20. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.6.4 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under this Part, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the salaries or wages pursuant to a legal obligation.

2002, c. 9, s. 126.

1129.45.3.21. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027, section 1029.8.36.72.49 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2002, c. 9, s. 126.

PART III.10.1.6

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDITS FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE FIELDS OF BIOTECHNOLOGY AND NUTRACEUTICALS

2002, c. 9, s. 126; 2004, c. 21, s. 477.

1129.45.3.22. In this Part,

"base period" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.56;

"eligibility period" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.72.56;

"eligible employee" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.56;

"recognized business" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.56;

"salary or wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.56.

For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a calendar year ending in a taxation year includes a reference to a calendar year ending coincidentally with that taxation year.

1129.45.3.22.1. Every corporation that, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under Division II.6.6.5 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, on account of its tax payable under Part I for any taxation year, shall pay for a particular taxation year a tax equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have so paid to the Minister, under that division, in relation to the salaries or wages, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part, in relation to the salaries or wages for a taxation year preceding the particular year, if in the particular year, Investissement Québec revokes a qualification certificate issued to the corporation in relation to the recognized business for the purposes of that division.

1129.45.3.23. Every corporation that, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under Division II.6.6.5 of Chapter III. 1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, on account of the corporation's tax payable under Part I for any taxation year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to 40% of the aggregate of the following amounts, except where section 1129.45.3.22.1 applies in relation to the salaries or wages for the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year:

(a) where the corporation pays, in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.57 or 1029.8.36.72.61.1, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if each of the amounts of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid by the corporation, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(b) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.58 or 1029.8.36.72.61.2, determined in respect of the corporation, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business for its taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ended, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or a preceding calendar year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(c) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.59 or 1029.8.36.72.61.3 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.58 or 1029.8.36.72.61.2 in respect of the corporation for a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.58 or 1029.8.36.72.61.2 in respect of the corporation, in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.59 or 1029.8.36.72.61.3 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts of assistance in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or in a preceding calendar year, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.59 or 1029.8.36.72.61.3 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(d) where, in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.57 or 1029.8.36.72.61.1 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, other than salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.57 or 1029.8.36.72.61.1 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received by the corporation in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied;

(e) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.58 or 1029.8.36.72.61.2 determined in respect of the corporation, in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any other qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business, other than salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the other corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.58 or 1029.8.36.72.61.2 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied; and

(f) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the excess amount referred to in paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.59 or 1029.8.36.72.61.3 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, other than salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the other corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.58 or 1029.8.36.72.61.2 in respect of the corporation for the preceding calendar year exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.58 or 1029.8.36.72.61.2 in respect of the corporation, in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.59 or 1029.8.36.72.61.3 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.59 or 1029.8.36.72.61.3 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied.

For the purposes of subparagraphs d to f of the first paragraph, where Investissement Québec revokes in the particular taxation year the qualification certificate issued, for the purposes of Division II.6.6.5 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, to the corporation in relation to an eligible employee for a pay period in a calendar year within its eligibility period, in relation to a recognized business, the amount of the salary or wages paid by a corporation to that employee is deemed to be refunded to the corporation in the particular taxation year.

1129.45.3.24. For the purposes of Part I, except for Division II.6.6.5 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under this Part, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the salaries or wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2002, c. 9, s. 126.

1129.45.3.25. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027, section 1029.8.36.72.63 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2002, c. 9, s. 126.

PART III.10.1.7

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR JOB CREATION IN THE RESOURCE REGIONS

2002, c. 40, s. 296.

1129.45.3.26. In this Part,

"base period" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.72.70;

"eligible region" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.70;

"recognized business" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.72.70;

"salary or wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.70.

For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a calendar year ending in a taxation year includes a reference to a calendar year ending coincidentally with that taxation year.

1129.45.3.27. Every corporation that, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.71 or 1029.8.36.72.72, on account of its tax payable under Part I for any taxation year, shall pay for a particular taxation year a tax equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have so paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.71 or 1029.8.36.72.72, in relation to the salaries or wages for the taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part, in relation to the salaries or wages for a taxation year preceding the particular year, if in the particular year, Investissement Québec revokes a qualification certificate issued to the corporation in relation to the recognized business for the purposes of Division II.6.6.6 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I.

1129.45.3.28. Every corporation that, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.71 or 1029.8.36.72.72, on account of the corporation's tax payable under Part I for any taxation year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to 40% of the aggregate of the following amounts, except where section 1129.45.3.27 applies in relation to the salaries or wages for the taxation year or a preceding taxation year:

(a) where the corporation pays, in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.71, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if each of the amounts of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid by the corporation, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(b) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.72, determined in respect of the corporation, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business for its taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ended, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or a preceding calendar year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(c) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.73 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.72 in respect of the corporation for a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.72 in respect of the corporation, in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.73 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts of assistance in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or in a preceding calendar year, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.73 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(d) where, in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.71 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.71 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received by the corporation in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this paragraph has applied;

(e) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.72 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any other qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business in an eligible region, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the other corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.72 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this paragraph has applied; and

(f) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the excess amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.73 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the other corporation in relation to that recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.72 in respect of the corporation for the preceding calendar year exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.72 in respect of the corporation, in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.73 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.73 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this paragraph has applied.

1129.45.3.29. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.6.6 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under this Part, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the salaries or wages pursuant to a legal obligation.

2002, c. 40, s. 296.

1129.45.3.30. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027, section 1029.8.36.72.76 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2002, c. 40, s. 296.

PART III.10.1.7.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR JOB CREATION IN THE RESOURCE REGIONS, IN THE ALUMINUM VALLEY AND IN THE GASPÉSIE AND CERTAIN MARITIME REGIONS OF QUÉBEC

2004, c. 21, s. 482.

1129.45.3.30.1. In this Part,

"base period" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.1;

"eligibility period" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.72.82.1;

"eligible employee" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.1;

"recognized business" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.1;

"salary or wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.1.

For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a calendar year ending in a taxation year includes a reference to a calendar year ending coincidentally with that taxation year.

1129.45.3.30.2. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under any of sections 1029.8.36.72.82.2, 1029.8.36.72.82.3, 1029.8.36.72.82.3.2 and 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3, on account of its tax payable under Part I, for any given taxation year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, if Investissement Québec revokes in the particular year a qualification certificate issued, in relation to a calendar year that ended in the given taxation year, to the corporation in relation to a recognized business for the purposes of Division II.6.6.6.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, a tax equal to the amount by which the amount that the corporation is deemed to have so paid to the Minister, under any of sections 1029.8.36.72.82.2, 1029.8.36.72.82.3, 1029.8.36.72.82.3.2 and 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3, for the given taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the amount that the corporation would be deemed to have so paid to the Minister, under any of sections 1029.8.36.72.82.2, 1029.8.36.72.82.3, 1029.8.36.72.82.3.2 and 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3, for the given taxation year if the revoked qualification certificate had not been issued to the corporation by Investissement Québec and if the period specified in any qualification certificate issued to the corporation in relation to an employee whose duties relate directly to activities of the corporation described in the revoked qualification certificate, were adjusted to take the revocation into account; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part, in relation to the given taxation year, for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

The cancellation by Investissement Québec, at the request of a corporation, of a qualification certificate issued to the corporation, in relation to a recognized business referred to in paragraph b or d of the definition of "eligible region" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.1, does not constitute a revocation of the certificate for the purposes of this Part.

1129.45.3.30.3. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under any of sections 1029.8.36.72.82.2, 1029.8.36.72.82.3, 1029.8.36.72.82.3.2 and 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3, on account of its tax payable under Part I, for any taxation year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to the aggregate of the following amounts, unless section 1129.45.3.30.2 applies in respect of the corporation in relation to that taxation year:

(a) where the corporation pays, in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation in respect of its base period, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.2 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.2, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.2 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.2 on account of its tax payable under Part I for a taxation year in which a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.2 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.2 on account of its tax payable under Part I for the taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends if each of the amounts of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid by the corporation, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(b) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of its base period, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.3 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3, determined in respect of the corporation, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business for its taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ended, the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.3 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3 on account of its tax payable under Part I for a taxation year in which a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.3 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3 on account of its tax payable under Part I for the taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or a preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(c) where the corporation pays, in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation in respect of its base period, for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in any of subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.4 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.3 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3 on account of its tax payable under Part I for a taxation year in which a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.3 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3 on account of its tax payable under Part I for the taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends if, for the purposes of section 1029.8.36.72.82.4 and section 1029.8.36.72.82.4.1 or 1029.8.36.72.82.4.2, in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts of assistance in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or in a preceding calendar year, and if the amount determined pursuant to any of sections 1029.8.36.72.82.4, 1029.8.36.72.82.4.1 and 1029.8.36.72.82.4.2, as the case may be, had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(d) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of the base period of a qualified corporation that is a member of a group of associated corporations referred to in section 1029.8.36.72.82.4, for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in any of subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of that section that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were a member of the group at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.82.3 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a taxation year in which a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.3 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3 on account of its tax payable under Part I for the taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends if, for the purposes of section 1029.8.36.72.82.4 and section 1029.8.36.72.82.4.1 or 1029.8.36.72.82.4.2, in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts of assistance in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or in a preceding calendar year, and if the amount determined pursuant to any of sections 1029.8.36.72.82.4, 1029.8.36.72.82.4.1 and 1029.8.36.72.82.4.2, as the case may be, had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(e) where, in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation, that are included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.2 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.2 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, other than salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the corporation, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.2 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.2 on account of its tax payable under Part I for a taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.2 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.2 on account of its tax payable under Part I for the taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received by the corporation in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this subparagraph for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in respect of an amount so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the salary or wages;

(f) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that are included in computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.3 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business, other than salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the corporation, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.3 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3 on account of its tax payable under Part I for a taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.3 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3 on account of its tax payable under Part I for the taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received by the corporation in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this subparagraph for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in respect of an amount so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the salary or wages; and

(g) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the excess amount referred to in any of subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.4 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of any of the associated corporations, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.3 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3 on account of its tax payable under Part I for a taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.3 or 1029.8.36.72.82.3.3 on account of its tax payable under Part I for the taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends in respect of the corporation, in relation to the preceding calendar year, if, for the purposes of section 1029.8.36.72.82.4 and section 1029.8.36.72.82.4.1 or 1029.8.36.72.82.4.2, in relation to the preceding calendar year, every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and if the amount determined pursuant to any of sections 1029.8.36.72.82.4, 1029.8.36.72.82.4.1 and 1029.8.36.72.82.4.2, as the case may be, had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this subparagraph for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in respect of an amount so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the salary or wages.

For the purposes of subparagraphs e to g of the first paragraph, where Investissement Québec revokes in the particular taxation year the qualification certificate issued, for the purposes of Division II.6.6.6.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, to the corporation in relation to an eligible employee for a pay period of a calendar year within the corporation's eligibility period, the amount of the salary or wages paid to the employee by a corporation is deemed to be refunded to the corporation in the particular taxation year.

1129.45.3.30.4. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.6.6.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under this Part, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the salaries or wages pursuant to a legal obligation.

1129.45.3.30.5. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027, section 1029.8.36.72.82.7 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2004, c. 21, s. 482.

PART III.10.1.7.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT TO PROMOTE EMPLOYMENT IN THE GASPÉSIE AND CERTAIN MARITIME REGIONS OF QUÉBEC

2005, c. 23, s. 253; 2010, c. 25, s. 213; 2021, c. 18, s. 157.

1129.45.3.30.6. In this Part,

"base amount" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.13;

"base period" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.13;

"eligibility period" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.72.82.13;

"eligible employee" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.13;

"recognized business" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.13;

"salary or wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.13.

For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a calendar year ending in a taxation year includes a reference to a calendar year ending coincidentally with that taxation year.

1129.45.3.30.7. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.82.14 or 1029.8.36.72.82.15, on account of its tax payable under Part I, for any given taxation year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, if Investissement Québec revokes in the particular year a qualification certificate issued, in relation to a calendar year that ended in the given taxation year, to the corporation in relation to a recognized business for the purposes of Division II.6.6.6.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, a tax equal to the amount by which the amount that the corporation is deemed to have so paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.82.14 or 1029.8.36.72.82.15, for the given taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the amount that the corporation would be deemed to have so paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.82.14 or 1029.8.36.72.82.15, for the given taxation year if the revoked qualification certificate had not been issued to the corporation by Investissement Québec and if the period specified in any qualification certificate issued to the corporation in relation to an employee whose duties relate directly to activities of the corporation described in the revoked qualification certificate, were adjusted to take the revocation into account; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part, in relation to the given taxation year, for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

1129.45.3.30.8. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.82.14 or 1029.8.36.72.82.15, on account of its tax payable under Part I, for any taxation year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to the aggregate of the following amounts, unless section 1129.45.3.30.7 applies in respect of the corporation in relation to that taxation year:

(a) if the corporation pays, in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation and that is included in its base amount, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.14, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section on account of its tax payable under Part I for a taxation year in which a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.14 on account of its tax payable under Part I for the taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends if each of the amounts of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid by the corporation, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(b) if any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of the corporation's base period, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.15, determined in respect of the corporation, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business for its taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ended, the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section on account of its tax payable under Part I for a taxation year in which a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.15 on account of its tax payable under Part I for the taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or a preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(c) if the corporation pays, in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation and that is included in its base amount, for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in paragraph b or c of section 1029.8.36.72.82.16 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.15 on account of its tax payable under Part I for a taxation year in which a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.15 on account of its tax payable under Part I for the taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends if, for the purposes of sections 1029.8.36.72.82.16 and 1029.8.36.72.82.16.1 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts of assistance in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or in a preceding calendar year, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.82.16 or 1029.8.36.72.82.16.1 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(d) if any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of the base period of a qualified corporation that is a member of a group of associated corporations referred to in section 1029.8.36.72.82.16, for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in paragraph b or c of that section that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were a member of the group at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.82.15, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a taxation year in which a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.15 on account of its tax payable under Part I for the taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends if, for the purposes of sections 1029.8.36.72.82.16 and 1029.8.36.72.82.16.1 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts of assistance in respect of the salary or wages

had been reduced by any amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or in a preceding calendar year, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.82.16 or 1029.8.36.72.82.16.1 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(e) if, in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.14 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the corporation, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section on account of its tax payable under Part I for a taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.14 on account of its tax payable under Part I for the taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received by the corporation in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this subparagraph for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in respect of an amount so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the salary or wages;

(f) if, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.15 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any other qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the corporation, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section on account of its tax payable under Part I for a taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.15 on account of its tax payable under Part I for the taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this subparagraph for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in respect of an amount so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the salary or wages; and

(g) if, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the excess amount referred to in paragraph b or c of section 1029.8.36.72.82.16 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of any of the associated corporations, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.15 on account of its tax payable under Part I for a taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.72.82.15 on account of its tax payable under Part I for the taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ends in respect of the corporation, in relation to the preceding calendar year, if, for the purposes of sections 1029.8.36.72.82.16 and 1029.8.36.72.82.16.1 in relation to the preceding calendar year, every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.82.16 or 1029.8.36.72.82.16.1 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this subparagraph for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in respect of an amount so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the salary or wages.

For the purposes of subparagraphs e to g of the first paragraph, if Investissement Québec revokes in the particular taxation year the qualification certificate issued, for the purposes of Division II.6.6.6.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, to the corporation in relation to an eligible employee for a pay period of a calendar year within the corporation's eligibility period, the amount of the salary or wages paid to the employee by a corporation is deemed to be refunded to the corporation in the particular taxation year.

1129.45.3.30.9. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.6.6.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time under this Part, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the salaries or wages pursuant to a legal obligation.

2005, c. 23, s. 253.

1129.45.3.30.10. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027, section 1029.8.36.72.82.19 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2005, c. 23, s. 253.

PART III.10.1.8

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR JOB CREATION IN THE CARREFOURS DE L'INNOVATION

2003, c. 9, s. 409.

1129.45.3.31. In this Part,

"base period" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.83;

"eligibility period" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.72.83;

"eligible employee" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.83;

"eligible site" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.83;

"recognized business" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.72.83;

"salary or wages" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.83.

For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a calendar year ending in a taxation year includes a reference to a calendar year ending coincidentally with that taxation year.

1129.45.3.32. Every corporation that, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.84 or 1029.8.36.72.85, on account of its tax payable under Part I for any taxation year, shall pay for a particular taxation year a tax equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have so paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.84 or 1029.8.36.72.85, in relation to the salaries or wages, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under this Part, in relation to the salaries or wages for a taxation year preceding the particular year, if in the particular year, Investissement Québec revokes a qualification certificate issued to the corporation in relation to the recognized business for the purposes of Division II.6.6.7 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I.

1129.45.3.33. Every corporation that, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.72.84 or 1029.8.36.72.85, on account of the corporation's tax payable under Part I for any taxation year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to 40% of the aggregate of the following amounts, except where section 1129.45.3.32 applies in relation to the salaries or wages for the taxation year or a preceding taxation year:

(a) where the corporation pays, in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.84, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in its respect, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if each of the amounts of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid by the corporation, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(b) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.85, determined in respect of the corporation, that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business for its taxation year in which the preceding calendar year ended, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount referred to in that subparagraph a, determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to that subparagraph a in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of assistance paid in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or a preceding calendar year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(c) where any other corporation pays, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, an amount that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salary or wages paid to an employee by the other corporation in respect of its base period, in relation to the recognized business, for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.86 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.85 in respect of the corporation for a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.85 in respect of the corporation, in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.86 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts of assistance in respect of the salary or wages had been reduced by any amount paid, in respect of such an amount of assistance, as repayment in the particular calendar year or in a preceding calendar year, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.86 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. 100/40 of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax paid by the corporation under this Part for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, in relation to a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of such a salary or wages;

(d) where, in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by the corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.84 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.84 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received by the corporation in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied;

(e) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.85 determined in respect of the corporation in relation to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year at the end of which the corporation was not associated with any other qualified corporation carrying on a recognized business, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the other corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.85 in respect of the corporation in relation to that preceding calendar year if every amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied; and

(f) where, in the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount, in relation to a salary or wages paid to an employee by any other corporation, that is included in computing the excess amount referred to in paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.86 that relates to a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, in respect of all the corporations that were associated with each other at the end of that preceding calendar year and with which the corporation was associated at that time, other than a salary or wages paid in respect of the base period of the other corporation in relation to the recognized business, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the other corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by it, the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.85 in respect of the corporation for the preceding calendar year exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been determined pursuant to subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.85 in respect of the corporation, in relation to that preceding calendar year if, for the purposes of paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.72.86 in relation to that preceding calendar year, each of the amounts that was so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the particular taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, had been government assistance received in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such a salary or wages, and if the amount determined pursuant to section 1029.8.36.72.86 had been attributed to the corporation in the same proportion as that determined in its respect in relation to the preceding calendar year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated in a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salary or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied.

For the purposes of subparagraphs d to f of the first paragraph, where Investissement Québec revokes in the particular taxation year the qualification certificate issued, for the purposes of Division II.6.6.7 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, to the corporation in relation to an eligible employee for a pay period in a calendar year within the corporation's eligibility period, in relation to a recognized business, the amount of the salary or wages paid by a corporation to that employee is deemed to be refunded to the corporation in the particular taxation year.

1129.45.3.34. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.6.7 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under this Part, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a recognized business, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the salaries or wages pursuant to a legal obligation.

2003, c. 9, s. 409.

1129.45.3.35. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027, section 1029.8.36.72.89 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2003, c. 9, s. 409.

PART III.10.1.9

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE PRODUCTION OF ETHANOL IN QUÉBEC

2006, c. 36, s. 245.

1129.45.3.36. In this Part, "eligible production of ethanol" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.94.

2006, c. 36, s. 245; 2007, c. 12, s. 270.

(a) an amount that may reasonably be considered to be an amount relating to its eligible production of ethanol for a particular month of the particular taxation year that, because of paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.0.99, would be included in the aggregate determined in its respect for the particular taxation year under that section if it was received by the corporation in that taxation year, is received by the corporation;

(b) an amount that may reasonably be considered to be an amount relating to its eligible production of ethanol for a particular month of the particular taxation year that, because of paragraph b of section 1029.8.36.0.99, would be included in the aggregate determined in its respect for the particular taxation year under that section if it was obtained by a person or partnership in that taxation year, is obtained by the person or partnership; and

(c) all or a portion of its eligible production of ethanol for a particular month of the particular taxation year that was carried out before 18 March 2011 is sold to a person or partnership that is not the holder of a collection officer's permit issued under the Fuel Tax Act (chapter T-1) or ceases to be reasonably considered to be expected to be sold subsequently to such a holder.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.95 or 1029.8.36.0.101 for a taxation year preceding the year concerned in relation to its eligible production of ethanol for a particular month of the particular taxation year, exceeds the total of

(a) the amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular taxation year under section 1029.8.36.0.95 if any of the events described in any of subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph or in subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.101, that occurred in the year concerned or a preceding taxation year in relation to its eligible production of ethanol for a particular month of the particular taxation year, occurred in the particular taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the year concerned in relation to its eligible production of ethanol for a particular month of the particular taxation year.

For the purposes of this section, the corporation is deemed to be selling its eligible production of ethanol in the order in which it carried out the production.

2006, c. 36, s. 245; 2011, c. 34, s. 117.

production of ethanol, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the eligible production of ethanol, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2006, c. 36, s. 245.

1129.45.3.39. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2006, c. 36, s. 245.

PART III.10.1.9.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE PRODUCTION OF BIODIESEL FUEL IN QUÉBEC

2017, c. 29, s. 216.

1129.45.3.39.1. In this Part, "eligible production of biodiesel fuel" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.106.1.

2017, c. 29, s. 216.

1129.45.3.39.2. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.106.2, on account of its tax payable under Part I, for a particular taxation year, in relation to its eligible production of biodiesel fuel for a particular month of that taxation year, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "year concerned") in which either of the following events occurs:

(a) an amount that may reasonably be considered to be an amount relating to its eligible production of biodiesel fuel for a particular month of the particular taxation year that, because of paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.0.106.4, would have been included in the aggregate determined in its respect for the particular taxation year under that section if it had been received by the corporation in that taxation year, is received by the corporation; or

(b) an amount that may reasonably be considered to be an amount relating to its eligible production of biodiesel fuel for a particular month of the particular taxation year that, because of paragraph b of section 1029.8.36.0.106.4, would have been included in the aggregate determined in its respect for the particular taxation year under that section if it had been obtained by a person or partnership in that taxation year, is obtained by the person or partnership.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.106.2 or 1029.8.36.0.106.5 for a taxation year preceding the year concerned in relation to its eligible production of biodiesel fuel for a particular month of the particular taxation year, exceeds the total of

(a) the amount that the corporation would have been deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular taxation year under section 1029.8.36.0.106.2 if any of the events described in subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph or in subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.106.5, that occurred in the year concerned or a preceding taxation year in relation to its eligible production of biodiesel fuel for a particular month of the particular taxation year, had occurred in the particular taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the year concerned in relation to its eligible production of biodiesel fuel for a particular month of the particular taxation year.

2017, c. 29, s. 216.

1129.45.3.39.3. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.0.9.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.45.3.39.2, in relation to an eligible production of biodiesel fuel, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the eligible production of biodiesel fuel, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2017, c. 29, s. 216.

1129.45.3.39.4. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2017, c. 29, s. 216.

PART III.10.1.9.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE PRODUCTION OF PYROLYSIS OIL IN QUÉBEC

2019, c. 14, s. 452.

1129.45.3.39.5. In this Part, "eligible production of pyrolysis oil" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.106.7.

2019, c. 14, s. 452.

(a) an amount that may reasonably be considered to be an amount relating to its eligible production of pyrolysis oil for a particular month of the particular taxation year that, because of paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.0.106.12, would have been included in the aggregate determined in its respect for the particular taxation year under that section if it had been received by the corporation in that taxation year, is received by the corporation; or

(b) an amount that may reasonably be considered to be an amount relating to its eligible production of pyrolysis oil for a particular month of the particular taxation year that, because of paragraph b of section 1029.8.36.0.106.12, would have been included in the aggregate determined in its respect for the particular taxation year under that section if it had been obtained by a person or partnership in that taxation year, is obtained by the person or partnership.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.106.9 or 1029.8.36.0.106.13 for a taxation year preceding the year concerned in relation to its eligible production of pyrolysis oil for a particular month of the particular taxation year, exceeds the total of

(a) the amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular taxation year under section 1029.8.36.0.106.9 if any of the events described in the first paragraph or in subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.106.13, that occurred in the year concerned or a preceding taxation year in relation to its eligible production of pyrolysis oil for a particular month of the particular taxation year, occurred in the particular taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the year concerned in relation to its eligible production of pyrolysis oil for a particular month of the particular taxation year.

2019, c. 14, s. 452.

1129.45.3.39.7. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.0.9.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.45.3.39.6, in relation to an eligible production of pyrolysis oil, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the eligible production of pyrolysis oil, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2019, c. 14, s. 452.

1129.45.3.39.8. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2019, c. 14, s. 452.

PART III.10.1.9.3

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE PRODUCTION OF BIOFUEL IN QUÉBEC

2023, c. 2, s. 69.

1129.45.3.39.9. In this Part, "eligible production of biofuel" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.106.15.

2023, c. 2, s. 69.

1129.45.3.39.10. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.106.17, on account of its tax payable under Part I, for a particular taxation year, in relation to its eligible production of biofuel for a particular month of that taxation year, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "year concerned") in which either of the following events occurs:

(a) an amount that may reasonably be considered to be an amount relating to its eligible production of biofuel for a particular month of the particular taxation year that, because of paragraph a of section 1029.8.36.0.106.21, would have been included in the aggregate determined in its respect for the particular taxation year under that section if it had been received by the corporation in that taxation year, is received by the corporation; or

(b) an amount that may reasonably be considered to be an amount relating to its eligible production of biofuel for a particular month of the particular taxation year that, because of paragraph b of section 1029.8.36.0.106.21, would have been included in the aggregate determined in its respect for the particular taxation year under that section if it had been obtained by a person or partnership in that taxation year, is obtained by the person or partnership.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.106.17 or 1029.8.36.0.106.22 for a taxation year preceding the year concerned in relation to its eligible production of biofuel for a particular month of the particular taxation year, exceeds the total of

(a) the amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for the particular taxation year under section 1029.8.36.0.106.17 if any of the events described in the first paragraph or in subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.106.22, that occurred in the year concerned or a preceding taxation year in relation to its eligible production of biofuel for a particular month of the particular taxation year, occurred in the particular taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the year concerned in relation to its eligible production of biofuel for a particular month of the particular taxation year.

2023, c. 2, s. 69.

1129.45.3.39.11. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.0.9.3 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.45.3.39.10, in relation to an eligible production of biofuel, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the eligible production of biofuel, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2023, c. 2, s. 69.

1129.45.3.39.12. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2023, c. 2, s. 69.

PART III.10.1.10

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT TO FOSTER THE MODERNIZATION OF THE TOURIST ACCOMMODATION OFFERING

2013, c. 10, s. 165.

1129.45.3.40. In this Part, "qualified expenditure" and "qualified tourist accommodation establishment" have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.107.

2013, c. 10, s. 165.

1129.45.3.41. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under Division II.6.0.10 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to a qualified expenditure of the corporation for the particular taxation year or to a qualified expenditure of a partnership of which the corporation is a member for a particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the particular taxation year, in respect of a qualified tourist accommodation establishment, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which

(a) an amount relating to an amount included in computing the corporation's qualified expenditure is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation; or

(b) a fiscal period of the partnership ends (in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment") in which an amount relating to an amount included in computing the partnership's qualified expenditure is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under Division II. 6.0.10 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, in relation to a qualified expenditure referred to in the first paragraph for a taxation year preceding the repayment year or, if the tax becomes payable in whole or in part because of the application of subparagraph b of the first paragraph, would be so deemed to have paid to the Minister if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister in relation to a qualified expenditure referred to in the first paragraph under Division II.6.0.10 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I for a taxation year preceding the repayment year if

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in respect of an amount included in computing a qualified expenditure of the corporation, or at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, in respect of an amount included in computing a qualified expenditure of the partnership, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year or the particular fiscal period, as the case may be, and

ii. the agreed proportion, in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that preceding taxation year, were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is

i. a tax that the corporation must pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year in relation to an amount relating to an amount included in computing the corporation's qualified expenditure that is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation, or

ii. a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the repayment year in relation to an amount relating to an amount included in computing the partnership's qualified expenditure that is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

1129.45.3.42. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.0.10 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under this Part, in relation to a qualified expenditure of the corporation or of a partnership, in respect of a qualified tourist accommodation establishment, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation or partnership in respect of that expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2013, c. 10, s. 165.

1129.45.3.43. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2013, c. 10, s. 165.

PART III.10.1.11

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE MARKET DIVERSIFICATION OF MANUFACTURING BUSINESSES

2013, c. 10, s. 165.

1129.45.3.44. In this Part, "eligible certification costs" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.0.119.

2013, c. 10, s. 165.

1129.45.3.45. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.120, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to eligible certification costs of the corporation for the particular year, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which an amount relating to those eligible certification costs is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.120 or 1029.8.36.0.123, in relation to those eligible certification costs, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.120 or 1029.8.36.0.123, in relation to those eligible certification costs, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to those eligible certification costs, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to those eligible certification costs.

2013, c. 10, s. 165.

1129.45.3.46. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.0.11 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.45.3.45, in relation to eligible certification costs, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of those costs, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2013, c. 10, s. 165.

1129.45.3.47. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2013, c. 10, s. 165.

PART III.10.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR JOB CREATION IN THE CLOTHING AND FOOTWEAR INDUSTRY

1999, c. 83, s. 254.

1129.45.4. In this Part, "clothing", "eligible employee", "group of associated employers", "initial calendar year" and "salary or wages" have the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.73.

For the purposes of this Part, a reference to a calendar year ending in a taxation year or fiscal period includes a reference to a calendar year ending coincidentally with that taxation year or fiscal period, as the case may be.

1129.45.5. Every taxpayer who, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a business of making or manufacturing clothing or footwear, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.76 or 1029.8.36.78, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I, for any taxation year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, a tax equal to 20% of the aggregate of

(a) where the taxpayer, during the particular taxation year, pays an amount, pursuant to a legal obligation, that may reasonably be considered to be repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salaries or wages paid by the taxpayer to an eligible employee during the taxpayer's initial calendar year in relation to the business for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.76 determined in respect of a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is equal to the amount by which the excess amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.76 determined in respect of the taxpayer for a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been the excess amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.76 determined in respect of the taxpayer for that preceding calendar year if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid by the taxpayer as repayment of such assistance on or before the end of the particular taxation year had reduced the amount of government assistance or non-government assistance received by the taxpayer during the taxpayer's initial calendar year in relation to that business and attributable to such salaries or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid by the taxpayer during a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year and that is a repayment to which this subparagraph has applied in relation to that business;

(b) where a person or partnership, during the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pays an amount, pursuant to a legal obligation, that may reasonably be considered to be repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salaries or wages paid to an eligible employee in the course of carrying on a business of making or manufacturing clothing or footwear, for the initial calendar year of the person or partnership in relation to the business, for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in section 1029.8.36.80 determined in respect of a group of associated employers of which the person or partnership was a member at the end of a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, the aggregate of all amounts, to which the proportion determined in respect of the taxpayer, as a member of the group of associated employers, in accordance with the second paragraph for the preceding calendar year is applied, each of which is equal to the amount by which the excess amount referred to in section 1029.8.36.80 determined in respect of the group of associated employers for a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been the excess amount referred to in section 1029.8.36.80 determined in respect of the group of associated employers for that preceding calendar year if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid by a person or partnership as repayment of such assistance on or before the end of the particular taxation year had reduced the amount of government assistance or non-government assistance received by the person or partnership and attributable to such salaries or wages paid to an eligible employee during the initial calendar year of the person or partnership in relation to the business of making or manufacturing clothing or footwear, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid during a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year by a person or partnership as a member of the group of associated employers and that is a repayment of assistance relating to such salaries or wages to which the first paragraph has applied;

(c) where, during the particular taxation year, an amount in relation to salaries or wages paid to an eligible employee by the taxpayer in the course of carrying on the business, that are included in computing the particular excess amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.76 determined in respect of the taxpayer in relation to a calendar year preceding the calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, other than the taxpayer's initial calendar year, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer, the amount by which the particular excess amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the excess amount that would be determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.76 in respect of the taxpayer in relation to that preceding calendar year if any amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated on or before the end of the particular taxation year in relation to the salaries or wages were government assistance or non-government assistance received by the taxpayer in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such salaries or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated during a preceding taxation year, in relation to the salaries or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied; and

(d) where, during the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount in relation to salaries or wages paid to an eligible employee by a person or partnership in the course of carrying on a business of making or manufacturing clothing or footwear, that are included in computing the particular excess amount referred to in section 1029.8.36.80 determined, in respect of a group of associated employers, in relation to a calendar year preceding the calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, other than the initial calendar year of the person or partnership, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the person or partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the person or partnership, the proportion determined, in respect of the taxpayer as a member of the group of associated employers, in accordance with the second paragraph, for the preceding calendar year, of the amount by which the particular excess amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the excess amount that would be determined under section 1029.8.36.80, in respect of the group of associated employers, in relation to the preceding calendar year if any amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated on or before the end of the particular taxation year in relation to the salaries or wages, were government assistance or non-government assistance received by the person or partnership in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such salaries or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated during a preceding taxation year in relation to the salaries or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied.

The proportion to which subparagraphs b and d of the first paragraph refer, determined in respect of a taxpayer for a calendar year, is the proportion that the amount attributed to the taxpayer pursuant to the agreement filed in accordance with the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.78 by the taxpayer, as a member of the group of associated employers referred to in that section, at the end of the calendar year, is of the aggregate of all the amounts attributed pursuant to the agreement.

1999, c. 83, s. 254; 2001, c. 7, s. 169; 2003, c. 9, s. 411.

1129.45.6. Every taxpayer who is a member of a particular partnership and who, in relation to salaries or wages paid by the particular partnership in the course of carrying on a business of making or manufacturing clothing or footwear, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.77 or 1029.8.36.79, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I, for a taxation year, shall pay, for any particular taxation year, a tax equal to 20% of the aggregate of

(a) where the particular partnership, during the particular fiscal period of the partnership ending in the particular taxation year, pays an amount, pursuant to a legal obligation, that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salaries or wages paid by the partnership to an eligible employee during the partnership's initial calendar year in relation to the business for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.77 determined in respect of a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year ending in the particular fiscal period, the taxpayer's share of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is equal to the amount by which the excess amount referred to in that subparagraph a determined in respect of the taxpayer for a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been the excess amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of that section 1029.8.36.77 determined in respect of the particular partnership for that preceding calendar year if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid by the partnership as repayment of such assistance on or before the end of the particular fiscal period had reduced the amount of government assistance or non-government assistance received by the partnership during the partnership's initial calendar year in relation to that business and attributable to such salaries or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid by the partnership during a fiscal period preceding the particular fiscal period and that is a repayment to which this subparagraph has applied in relation to that business;

(b) where a person or partnership, during the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, pays an amount, pursuant to a legal obligation, that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of government assistance or non-government assistance that reduced the amount of the salaries or wages paid to an eligible employee in the course of carrying on a business of making or manufacturing clothing or footwear, for the initial calendar year of the person or partnership in relation to the business, for the purpose of computing the excess amount referred to in section 1029.8.36.80 determined in respect of a group of associated employers of which the person or partnership was a member at the end of a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, the taxpayer's share of the aggregate of all amounts, to which the proportion determined in respect of the taxpayer, as a member of the group of associated employers, in accordance with the second paragraph for the preceding calendar year is applied, each of which is equal to the amount by which the excess amount referred to in section 1029.8.36.80 determined in respect of the group of associated employers for a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year exceeds the aggregate of

i. the amount that would have been the excess amount referred to in section 1029.8.36.80 determined in respect of the group of associated employers for that preceding calendar year if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid by a person or partnership as repayment of such assistance on or before the end of the particular taxation year had reduced the amount of government assistance or non-government assistance received by the person or partnership and attributable to such salaries or wages paid to an eligible employee during the initial calendar year of the person or partnership in relation to the business of making or manufacturing clothing or footwear, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid during a calendar year preceding the particular calendar year by a person or partnership as a member of the group of associated employers and that is a repayment of assistance relating to such salaries or wages to which this paragraph has applied;

(c) where, during the particular fiscal period of the particular partnership ending in the particular taxation year, an amount in relation to salaries or wages paid to an eligible employee by the particular partnership in the course of carrying on the business, that are included in computing the particular excess amount referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.77 determined in respect of the particular partnership in relation to a calendar year preceding the calendar year ending in the particular fiscal period, other than the particular partnership's initial calendar year, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the particular partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the particular partnership, the taxpayer's share of the amount by which the particular excess amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the excess amount that would be determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.77 in respect of the particular partnership in relation to that preceding calendar year if any amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated on or before the end of the particular fiscal period in relation to the salaries or wages were government assistance or non-government assistance received by the particular partnership in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such salaries or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated during a fiscal period preceding the particular fiscal period, in relation to the salaries or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied; and

(d) where, during the particular calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, an amount in relation to salaries or wages paid to an eligible employee by a person or partnership in the course of carrying on a business of making or manufacturing clothing or footwear, that are included in computing the particular excess amount referred to in section 1029.8.36.80 determined, in respect of a group of associated employers, in relation to a calendar year preceding the calendar year ending in the particular taxation year, other than the initial calendar year of the person or partnership, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the person or partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the person or partnership, the taxpayer's share of the proportion determined, in respect of the particular partnership as a member of the group of associated employers, in accordance with the second paragraph, for the preceding calendar year, of the amount by which the particular excess amount exceeds the aggregate of

i. the excess amount that would be determined under section 1029.8.36.80, in respect of the group of associated employers, in relation to the preceding calendar year if any amount that was so refunded, paid or allocated on or before the end of the particular taxation year in relation to the salaries or wages, were government assistance or non-government assistance received by the person or partnership in the preceding calendar year and attributable to such salaries or wages, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount so refunded, paid or allocated during a preceding taxation year in relation to the salaries or wages, to which this subparagraph has applied.

The proportion to which subparagraphs b and d of the first paragraph refer, determined in respect of a partnership for a calendar year, is equal to the proportion that the amount attributed to the partnership pursuant to the agreement filed in accordance with section 1029.8.36.79 by the partnership as a member of the group of associated employers referred to in that section, at the end of the calendar year, is of the aggregate of all the amounts attributed pursuant to the agreement.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the taxpayer's share of an amount is equal to the agreed proportion of the amount in respect of the taxpayer for the particular partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular taxation year.

1999, c. 83, s. 254; 2001, c. 7, s. 169; 2009, c. 15, s. 416.

1129.45.7. For the purposes of this Part, the following rules apply:

(a) where, at a particular time, a taxpayer who is a member of a partnership has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive assistance referred to in subparagraph i of any of subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.83, the amount of the assistance that is attributable to salaries or wages paid by the partnership is deemed to be such assistance attributable to the salaries or wages received by the partnership at that time; and

(b) the repayment, at a particular time, of assistance referred to in paragraph a by a taxpayer who is a member of a partnership, that is attributable to salaries or wages paid by the partnership is deemed to be made by the partnership at that time as a repayment of such assistance attributable to the salaries or wages.

1129.45.7.1. For the purposes of Part I, tax paid to the Minister by a taxpayer at any time, under this Part, in relation to salaries or wages paid in the course of carrying on a business of making or manufacturing clothing or footwear is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the taxpayer at that time in respect of such salaries or wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

1999, c. 83, s. 254; 2001, c. 7, s. 169; 2009, c. 15, s. 417.

1129.45.8. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024 and 1026.0.1, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027, section 1029.8.36.84 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1999, c. 83, s. 254.

PART III.10.3

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREATION OF INVESTMENT FUNDS

1999, c. 83, s. 254.

1129.45.9. In this Part,

"qualified investment fund" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.89;

"qualified start-up expenditure" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.89.

1999, c. 83, s. 254; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.45.10. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.90, on account of its tax payable under Part I shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to an expenditure included in a qualified start-up expenditure of the corporation in respect of a qualified investment fund is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.90, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to an expenditure included in a qualified start-up expenditure of the corporation for a taxation year, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year.

1129.45.11. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.8 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under this Part, in relation to an expenditure in respect of a qualified investment fund, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of that expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation.

1129.45.12. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1999, c. 83, s. 254.

PART III.10.4

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO FUND MANAGERS

1999, c. 83, s. 254.

1129.45.13. In this Part, "qualified wages" and "wages" have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.95.

1999, c. 83, s. 254; 2007, c. 12, s. 304; 2010, c. 25, s. 215.

1129.45.14. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.96, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to qualified wages paid to an individual for the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.96 or 1029.8.36.98, in relation to the qualified wages, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.96 or 1029.8.36.98, in relation to the qualified wages, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified wages.

1129.45.15. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.9 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid, at any time, by a corporation to the Minister under this Part in relation to qualified wages is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of those wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

1999, c. 83, s. 254; 2001, c. 7, s. 169.

1129.45.16. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1999, c. 83, s. 254.

PART III.10.5

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO SOLICITATION EXPENDITURE

1999, c. 86, s. 89.

1129.45.17. In this Part, "qualified solicitation expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.102.

1999, c. 86, s. 89; 2002, c. 40, s. 299; 2007, c. 12, s. 272.

1129.45.18. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.104, on account of its tax payable under Part I shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to a qualified solicitation expenditure of the corporation is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to a qualified solicitation expenditure of the corporation for a taxation year, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year.

1129.45.19. Every taxpayer who is a member of a partnership and who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.105, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I, in relation to that partnership, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership ends, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", in which an amount relating to a qualified solicitation expenditure of the partnership is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or taxpayer.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under section 1029.8.36.105, in relation to that partnership, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, in relation to a qualified solicitation expenditure of the partnership for a fiscal period, were refunded, paid or allocated in that fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, in relation to the partnership, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the fiscal period of repayment.

1999, c. 86, s. 89; 2002, c. 40, s. 300; 2006, c. 36, s. 246; 2009, c. 15, s. 418.

1129.45.20. For the purposes of Part I, the following rules are taken into account:

(a) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.45.18, in relation to a qualified solicitation expenditure, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation, in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) the tax paid at any time by a taxpayer to the Minister under section 1129.45.19, in relation to a qualified solicitation expenditure, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation.

1999, c. 86, s. 89; 2001, c. 7, s. 169; 2009, c. 5, s. 529; 2022, c. 23, s. 144.

1129.45.21. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024 and 1026.0.1, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

1999, c. 86, s. 89; 2002, c. 40, s. 301.

PART III.10.6

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO SPECIALIST TRAINING

1999, c. 86, s. 89.

1129.45.22. In this Part,

"qualified wages" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.115;

"wages" means the income computed under Chapters I and II of Title II of Book III of Part I.

1999, c. 86, s. 89; 2002, c. 40, s. 302; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.45.23. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.116, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to the qualified wages attributed to the particular year and paid to an individual by the corporation, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.116 or 1029.8.36.121, in relation to the qualified wages, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.116 or 1029.8.36.121, in relation to the qualified wages, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified wages.

1129.45.24. Every taxpayer who is a member of a partnership and who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.117, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to the qualified wages attributed to a particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the particular year and paid to an individual by the partnership, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership ends, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or taxpayer.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under section 1029.8.36.117, 1029.8.36.122 or 1029.8.36.123, in relation to the qualified wages, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the qualified wages, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer, or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the fiscal period of repayment.

1999, c. 86, s. 89; 2002, c. 40, s. 303; 2006, c. 36, s. 247; 2009, c. 15, s. 419.

1129.45.25. For the purposes of Part I, the following rules are taken into account:

(a) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.45.23, in relation to qualified wages, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation, in respect of the wages, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) the tax paid at any time by a taxpayer to the Minister under section 1129.45.24, in relation to qualified wages, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

1999, c. 86, s. 89; 2001, c. 7, s. 169; 2022, c. 23, s. 145.

1129.45.26. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564, where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024 and 1026.0.1, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

1999, c. 86, s. 89; 2002, c. 40, s. 304.

PART III.10.7

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO SOLICITATION EXPENDITURE IN RESPECT OF A FOREIGN INVESTMENT FUND

2001, c. 51, s. 220.

1129.45.27. In this Part, "qualified solicitation expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.125.

2001, c. 51, s. 220; 2002, c. 40, s. 305; 2007, c. 12, s. 273.

1129.45.28. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.129, on account of its tax payable under Part I shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to a qualified solicitation expenditure made by the corporation is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to a qualified solicitation expenditure made by the corporation, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year in which the corporation made the expenditure; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year.

1129.45.29. Every taxpayer who is a member of a partnership and who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.132, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I, in relation to the partnership, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership ends, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", in which an amount relating to a qualified solicitation expenditure made by the partnership is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or taxpayer.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under section 1029.8.36.132, in relation to the partnership, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer

for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under that section, for a taxation year, in relation to the partnership, if

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to a qualified solicitation expenditure made by the partnership, were refunded, paid or allocated in the fiscal period in which the partnership made the expenditure, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, in relation to the partnership, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, if the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer, or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the taxpayer for the fiscal period of repayment.

2001, c. 51, s. 220; 2002, c. 40, s. 306; 2006, c. 36, s. 248; 2009, c. 15, s. 420.

1129.45.30. For the purposes of Part I, the following rules are taken into account:

(a) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.45.28, in relation to a qualified solicitation expenditure, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation, in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) the tax paid at any time by a taxpayer to the Minister under section 1129.45.29, in relation to a qualified solicitation expenditure, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2001, c. 51, s. 220; 2022, c. 23, s. 146.

1129.45.31. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024 and 1026.0.1, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2001, c. 51, s. 220; 2002, c. 40, s. 307.

PART III.10.8

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO FINANCIAL ANALYSTS SPECIALIZED IN SECURITIES OF QUÉBEC CORPORATIONS OR IN FINANCIAL DERIVATIVES

2002, c. 9, s. 128; 2003, c. 9, s. 412.

1129.45.32. In this Part, "qualified wages" and "wages" have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.147.

2002, c. 9, s. 128; 2007, c. 12, s. 304; 2010, c. 25, s. 216.

1129.45.33. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.152, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to qualified wages paid to an individual for the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.152 or 1029.8.36.154, in relation to the qualified wages, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.152 or 1029.8.36.154, in relation to the qualified wages, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified wages.

1129.45.34. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.13 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid, at any time, by a corporation to the Minister under this Part in relation to qualified wages is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of those wages pursuant to a legal obligation.

2002, c. 9, s. 128.

1129.45.35. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2002, c. 9, s. 128.

PART III.10.9

SPECIAL TAX IN RESPECT OF THE CREDIT RELATING TO COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN CORPORATIONS AND STOCK MARKET INVESTORS

2002, c. 40, s. 309.

1129.45.36. In this Part,

"communications expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.157;

"eligible communications expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.157;

"eligible road show" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.157.

2002, c. 40, s. 309; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.163 or 1029.8.36.165, in relation to its eligible communications expenditure for the particular year, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.163 or 1029.8.36.165, in relation to the eligible communications expenditure, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to expenses taken into account in determining a communications expenditure included in computing the eligible communications expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the eligible communications expenditure.

However, no tax is payable under this section if section 1129.45.39 applies, for the repayment year or a preceding taxation year, in respect of the eligible communications expenditure.

1129.45.38. For the purposes of section 1129.45.37, the amount determined in the second paragraph, in relation to particular expenses taken into account in determining a communications expenditure included in computing the eligible communications expenditure of the corporation for a particular taxation year, is deemed to be refunded to the corporation in a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which the Minister of Finance revokes the certificate that was issued to the corporation for the particular year in respect of the eligible road show for which the communications expenditure was incurred.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the particular expenses exceed the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount relating to the particular expenses that, in a taxation year preceding the repayment year but subsequent to the particular year, was refunded, otherwise paid or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

No tax is payable for a taxation year under section 1129.45.37, in respect of any amount that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation, or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation, if that amount is included in an amount that is deemed to have been refunded, under this section, in that taxation year or in a preceding taxation year.

2002, c. 40, s. 309.

its eligible communications expenditure for the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "revocation year", in which the Minister of Finance revokes the certificate referred to in the definition of "qualified corporation", in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.157, that was issued to the corporation for the particular year.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.163 or 1029.8.36.165, in relation to the eligible communications expenditure, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under section 1129.45.37, for a taxation year preceding the revocation year, in relation to the eligible communications expenditure.

1129.45.40. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.14 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid, at any time, by a corporation to the Minister under this Part in relation to an eligible communications expenditure is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of the expenditure pursuant to a legal obligation.

2002, c. 40, s. 309.

1129.45.41. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2002, c. 40, s. 309.

PART III.10.9.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDITS TO FOSTER THE PARTICIPATION OF SECURITIES DEALERS ON THE NASDAQ STOCK EXCHANGE

2003, c. 9, s. 413.

1129.45.41.1. In this Part,

"expenditure in respect of administrative costs" of a corporation for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.166.1;

"expenditure in respect of labour recruitment and training" of a corporation for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.166.1;

"expenditure in respect of technological equipment" of a corporation for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.166.1;

"expenditure in respect of the eligible transaction management system" of a corporation for a taxation year has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.166.1.

2003, c. 9, s. 413; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.45.41.2. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.9, on account of its tax payable under Part I shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to expenses or professional fees that were included in computing the expenditure in respect of administrative costs of the corporation for a taxation year is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.9 or 1029.8.36.166.26, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of those sections, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the expenses or professional fees that were included in computing the expenditure in respect of administrative costs of the corporation for a taxation year, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year.

However, no tax is payable under this section if section 1129.45.41.6 applies, for the repayment year or a preceding taxation year, in respect of the expenditure in respect of administrative costs of the corporation for a taxation year.

2003, c. 9, s. 413.

1129.45.41.3. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.12, on account of its tax payable under Part I shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to expenses that were included in computing the expenditure in respect of technological equipment of the corporation for a taxation year is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.12 or 1029.8.36.166.27, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of those sections, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the expenses that were included in computing the expenditure in respect of technological equipment of the corporation for a taxation year, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year.

However, no tax is payable under this section if section 1129.45.41.7 applies, for the repayment year or a preceding taxation year, in respect of the expenditure in respect of technological equipment of the corporation for a taxation year.

2003, c. 9, s. 413.

1129.45.41.4. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.15, on account of its tax payable under Part I shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to expenses that were included in computing the expenditure in respect of labour recruitment and training of the corporation for a taxation year is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.15 or 1029.8.36.166.28, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of those sections, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the expenses that were included in computing the expenditure in respect of labour recruitment and training of the corporation for a taxation year, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year.

However, no tax is payable under this section if section 1129.45.41.8 applies, for the repayment year or a preceding taxation year, in respect of the expenditure in respect of labour recruitment and training of the corporation for a taxation year.

2003, c. 9, s. 413.

1129.45.41.5. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.18, on account of its tax payable under Part I shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to expenses or a royalty that were included in computing the expenditure in respect of the eligible transaction management system of the corporation for a taxation year is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.18 or 1029.8.36.166.29, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of those sections, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the expenses or a royalty that were included in computing the expenditure in respect of the eligible transaction management system of the corporation for a taxation year, were refunded, paid or allocated in the taxation year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year.

However, no tax is payable under this section if section 1129.45.41.9 applies, for the repayment year or a preceding taxation year, in respect of the expenditure in respect of the eligible transaction management system of the corporation for a taxation year.

2003, c. 9, s. 413.

1129.45.41.6. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.9, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to its expenditure in respect of administrative costs for the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "revocation year", in which the Minister of Finance revokes the qualification certificate referred to in the definition of "qualified corporation" in section 1029.8.36.166.1 that was issued to the corporation for the particular year.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.9 or 1029.8.36.166.26, in relation to the expenditure in respect of administrative costs, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under section 1129.45.41.2, for a taxation year preceding the revocation year, in relation to the expenditure in respect of administrative costs.

1129.45.41.7. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.12, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to its expenditure in respect of technological equipment for the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "revocation year", in which the Minister of Finance revokes the qualification certificate referred to in the definition of "qualified corporation" in section 1029.8.36.166.1 that was issued to the corporation for the particular year.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.12 or 1029.8.36.166.27, in relation to the expenditure in respect of technological equipment, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under section 1129.45.41.3, for a taxation year preceding the revocation year, in relation to the expenditure in respect of technological equipment.

1129.45.41.8. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.15, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to its expenditure in respect of labour recruitment and training for the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "revocation year", in which the Minister of Finance revokes the qualification certificate referred to in the definition of "qualified corporation" in section 1029.8.36.166.1 that was issued to the corporation for the particular year.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.15 or 1029.8.36.166.28, in relation to the expenditure in respect of labour recruitment and training, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under section 1129.45.41.4, for a taxation year preceding the revocation year, in relation to the expenditure in respect of labour recruitment and training.

2003, c. 9, s. 413.

1129.45.41.9. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.18, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to its expenditure in respect of the eligible transaction management system for the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "revocation year", in which the Minister of Finance revokes the qualification certificate referred to in the definition of "qualified corporation" in section 1029.8.36.166.1 or the certificate referred to in the definition of "eligible transaction management system" in that section that was issued to the corporation for the particular year.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.18 or 1029.8.36.166.29, in relation to the expenditure in respect of the eligible transaction management system, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under section 1129.45.41.5, for a taxation year preceding the revocation year, in relation to the expenditure in respect of the eligible transaction management system.

1129.45.41.10. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.14.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the tax paid, at any time, by a corporation to the Minister under this Part in relation to its expenditure in respect of administrative costs, its expenditure in respect of technological equipment, its expenditure in respect of labour recruitment and training or its expenditure in respect of the eligible transaction management system, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time pursuant to a legal obligation.

2003, c. 9, s. 413.

1129.45.41.11. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2003, c. 9, s. 413.

PART III.10.9.2

SPECIAL TAX IN RESPECT OF THE CREDIT FOR INVESTMENTS RELATING TO MANUFACTURING AND PROCESSING EQUIPMENT

2009, c. 15, s. 421.

1129.45.41.12. In this Part, "eligible expenses" and "qualified property" have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.166.40.

2009, c. 15, s. 421.

1129.45.41.13. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.43, 1029.8.36.166.46 and 1029.8.36.166.47, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to its eligible expenses for the year in respect of a qualified property, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which an amount relating to the eligible expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.43, 1029.8.36.166.46, 1029.8.36.166.47 and 1029.8.36.166.55, in relation to the eligible expenses, exceeds the total of

However, no tax is payable under this section, in relation to the eligible expenses in respect of a property referred to in the first paragraph, if section 1129.45.41.15 applies in respect of the property for the repayment year or applied in respect of the property for a preceding taxation year.

2009, c. 15, s. 421.

1129.45.41.14. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.44, 1029.8.36.166.46 and 1029.8.36.166.47, on account of the corporation's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to the partnership's eligible expenses, in respect of a qualified property, for the partnership's particular fiscal period that ends in that particular year, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for the taxation year in which ends a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership (in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment") in which an amount relating to the eligible expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.44, 1029.8.36.166.46, 1029.8.36.166.47, 1029.8.36.166.56 and 1029.8.36.166.57, in relation to the eligible expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.44, 1029.8.36.166.46, 1029.8.36.166.47, 1029.8.36.166.56 and 1029.8.36.166.57, for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the eligible expenses, if

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the eligible expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

However, no tax is payable under this section, in relation to the eligible expenses in respect of a property referred to in the first paragraph, if section 1129.45.41.16 applies in respect of the property for the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends or applied in respect of the property in a preceding taxation year.

1129.45.41.15. Every corporation that, in relation to its eligible expenses in respect of a qualified property, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.43, 1029.8.36.166.46 and 1029.8.36.166.47, on account of its tax payable under Part I for any taxation year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, the tax computed under the second paragraph, if at any time between the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year preceding the particular year and the day after the day that is the end of the period of 730 days following the beginning of the use of the qualified property by the first purchaser of the property or by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired it in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1) applies, or, if it precedes the day that is the end of the period of 730 days, the filing-due date, for the particular year, of the purchaser that owns the property at the end of the particular year, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of its loss, of its involuntary destruction by fire, theft or water, or of a major breakdown of the property, to be used solely in Québec to earn income from a business carried on

(a) by the first purchaser of the property and if that time is also in the portion of that period in which the first purchaser owns the property; or

(b) by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired it in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act applies, and if that time is also in the portion of that period in which the subsequent purchaser owns the property.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.43, 1029.8.36.166.46, 1029.8.36.166.47 and 1029.8.36.166.55, in relation to its eligible expenses in respect of the qualified property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under section 1129.45.41.13, in relation to its eligible expenses in respect of the property, for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

1129.45.41.16. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.44, 1029.8.36.166.46 and 1029.8.36.166.47, on account of the corporation's tax payable under Part I for any given taxation year in relation to its share of the partnership's eligible expenses in respect of a qualified property in a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the given year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, the tax computed under the second paragraph, if at any time between the day that is six months after the end of the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year preceding the particular year and the day after the earlier of the day that is the end of the period of 730 days following the beginning of the use of the qualified property by the first purchaser of the property or by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired it in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1) applies, and the day that is six months after the end of the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular year, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of its loss, of its involuntary destruction by fire, theft or water, or of a major breakdown of the property, to be used solely in Québec to earn income from a business carried on

(a) by the first purchaser of the property and if that time is also in the portion of that period in which the first purchaser owns the property, or

(b) by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired it in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act applies, and if that time is also in the portion of that period in which the subsequent purchaser owns the property.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.44, 1029.8.36.166.46, 1029.8.36.166.47, 1029.8.36.166.56 and 1029.8.36.166.57, in respect of the qualified property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under section 1129.45.41.14, in respect of the property, for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

1129.45.41.17. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.14.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under this Part, in relation to eligible expenses in respect of a qualified property, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time in respect of those expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation, by

(a) the partnership referred to in section 1129.45.41.14 or 1129.45.41.16, in the case of tax paid under that section; or

(b) the corporation, in any other case.

2009, c. 15, s. 421.

1129.45.41.18. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 if it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2009, c. 15, s. 421.

PART III.10.9.2.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT IN RESPECT OF A BUILDING USED IN CONNECTION WITH MANUFACTURING OR PROCESSING ACTIVITIES

2015, c. 21, s. 519.

1129.45.41.18.1. In this Part, "expenditure of a capital nature", "qualified building" and "qualified expenditure" have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.166.60.1.

2015, c. 21, s. 519.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 1029.8.36.166.60.8 or 1029.8.36.166.60.14 in relation to the qualified expenditure, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 1029.8.36.166.60.8 or 1029.8.36.166.60.14 in relation to the qualified expenditure, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated in relation to the qualified expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister in relation to the qualified expenditure under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year or under the third paragraph of section 1129.45.41.18.4 for the repayment year or for a preceding taxation year.

However, no tax is payable under this section in relation to the qualified expenditure in respect of a building referred to in the first paragraph if the first paragraph of section 1129.45.41.18.4 applies in respect of the building for the repayment year or for a preceding taxation year.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.9, 1029.8.36.166.60.15 and 1029.8.36.166.60.16, in relation to the qualified expenditure, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.9, 1029.8.36.166.60.15 and 1029.8.36.166.60.16, for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the qualified expenditure, if

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated in relation to the qualified expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the qualified expenditure, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, or is required to pay under the third paragraph of section 1129.45.41.18.5 for the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends or for a preceding taxation year.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

However, no tax is payable under this section in relation to the qualified expenditure in respect of a building referred to in the first paragraph if the first paragraph of section 1129.45.41.18.5 applies in respect of the building for the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends or for a preceding taxation year.

1129.45.41.18.4. Every corporation that, in relation to a qualified expenditure in respect of a qualified building, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.60.8, on account of its tax payable under Part I for any taxation year, is required to pay, for a particular taxation year, the tax referred to in the second paragraph if the corporation, before it begins to use the qualified building in a manner consistent with paragraph b of the definition of "qualified building" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.166.60.1, disposes of it at any time between the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year preceding the particular year and the day after the day that is the end of the 48-month period following the last day of the taxation year where, for the first time, the corporation incurred an expenditure of a capital nature in respect of the qualified building or, if it is earlier, the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year, or if that 48-month period ends in the particular year, did not use the qualified building at any time in the 48-month period in a manner consistent with that paragraph b, unless the disposition or failure to use arises by reason of the involuntary destruction of the qualified building by fire, theft or water.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year under section 1029.8.36.166.60.8 or 1029.8.36.166.60.14, in respect of the qualified building, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under section 1129.45.41.18.2 in respect of the qualified building for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

Every corporation that, in relation to a qualified expenditure in respect of a qualified building, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.60.8, on account of its tax payable under Part I for any taxation year and that began to use the qualified building in a manner consistent with paragraph b of the definition of "qualified building" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.166.60.1 within a 48-month period following the last day of the taxation year where, for the first time, it incurred an expenditure of a capital nature in respect of the qualified building, is required to pay, for a particular taxation year, the tax determined under the fourth paragraph if, at any given time between the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year preceding the particular year and the day after the day that is the end of the 48-month period that begins on the day on which the use began or, if it is earlier, the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year, the corporation disposes of the qualified building or ceases to use it in a manner consistent with that paragraph b, otherwise than by reason of the involuntary destruction of the qualified building by fire, theft or water.

The tax to which the third paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.60.8 or 1029.8.36.166.60.14, in respect of the qualified building, for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, exceeds the total of

(a) the proportion of the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year under section 1029.8.36.166.60.8 or 1029.8.36.166.60.14, in respect of the qualified building, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax required to be paid by the corporation under section 1129.45.41.18.2, in respect of the qualified building for a taxation year preceding the particular year, that the number of months in the period that begins on the day on which the qualified building began to be used in a manner consistent with paragraph b of the definition of "qualified building" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.166.60.1 and that ends at the given time referred to in the third paragraph is of 48; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax required to be paid by the corporation under section 1129.45.41.18.2, in respect of the qualified building, for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

For the purposes of this section, the following rules apply

(a) a month means a period that begins on a particular day in a calendar month and that ends

i. on the day immediately before the day in the following calendar month that has the same calendar number as the particular day, or

ii. where the following calendar month does not have a day that has the same calendar number as the particular day, on the last day of the following month;

(b) a qualified building is deemed to be used in a manner consistent with paragraph b of the definition of "qualified building" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.166.60.1 for an entire month if the building is so used for more than 15 days in the month;

(c) a qualified building that temporarily ceases to be used in a manner consistent with paragraph b of the definition of "qualified building" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.166.60.1 is deemed to be used in a manner consistent with that paragraph b if the Minister is of the opinion that the use ceased for reasonable grounds; and

(d) where the qualified corporation disposes of a qualified building to a corporation with which it is associated at the time of the disposition, the qualified building is deemed to not have been disposed of at that time and the qualified corporation is deemed, from that time and for the purposes of this subparagraph, to be the same person as the purchaser of the qualified building.

1129.45.41.18.5. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.60.9 on account of its tax payable under Part I for any given taxation year, in relation to a qualified expenditure of the partnership in respect of a qualified building, for the particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the given taxation year, is required to pay, for a particular taxation year, the tax referred to in the second paragraph if the partnership, before it begins to use the qualified building in a manner consistent with paragraph b of the definition of "qualified building" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.166.60.1, disposes of it at any time between the day that is six months after the end of the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year preceding the particular year and the day after the day that is the end of the 48-month period following the last day of the fiscal period where, for the first time, the partnership incurred an expenditure of a capital nature in respect of the qualified building or, if it is earlier, the day that is six months after the end of the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular year or, if the 48-month period ends in the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular year, did not use the qualified building at any time in the 48-month period in a manner consistent with that paragraph b, unless the disposition or failure to use arises by reason of the involuntary destruction of the qualified building by fire, theft or water.

Where a corporation that is a member of a partnership is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.60.9 on account of its tax payable under Part I for any given taxation year, in relation to a qualified expenditure of the partnership in respect of a qualified building for the particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the given taxation year, and the partnership began to use the qualified building in a manner consistent with paragraph b of the definition of "qualified building" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.166.60.1 within a 48-month period following the last day of the fiscal period where, for the first time, the partnership incurred an expenditure of a capital nature in respect of the qualified building, the corporation is required to pay, for a particular taxation year, the tax determined under the fourth paragraph if, at any given time between the day that is six months after the end of the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year preceding the particular year and the day after the day that is the end of the 48-month period that begins on the day on which the use began or, if it is earlier, the day that is six months after the end of the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular year, the partnership disposes of the qualified building or ceases to use it in a manner consistent with that paragraph b, otherwise than by reason of the involuntary destruction of the qualified building by fire, theft or water.

The tax to which the third paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.9, 1029.8.36.166.60.15 and 1029.8.36.166.60.16, in respect of the qualified building, for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, exceeds the total of

(a) the proportion of the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.9, 1029.8.36.166.60.15 and 1029.8.36.166.60.16, in respect of the qualified building, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax required to be paid by the corporation under section 1129.45.41.18.3, in respect of the qualified building, for a taxation year preceding the particular year, that the number of months in the period that begins on the day on which the

qualified building began to be used in a manner consistent with paragraph b of the definition of "qualified building" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.166.60.1 and that ends at the given time referred to in the third paragraph is of 48; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax required to be paid by the corporation under section 1129.45.41.18.3, in respect of the qualified building, for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

For the purposes of this section, the following rules apply:

(a) a month means a period that begins on a particular day in a calendar month and that ends

i. on the day immediately before the day in the following calendar month that has the same calendar number as the particular day, or

ii. where the following calendar month does not have a day that has the same calendar number as the particular day, on the last day of the following month;

(b) a qualified building is deemed to be used in a manner consistent with paragraph b of the definition of "qualified building" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.166.60.1 for an entire month if the building is so used for more than 15 days in the month; and

(c) a qualified building that temporarily ceases to be used in a manner consistent with paragraph b of the definition of "qualified building" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.166.60.1 is deemed to be used in a manner consistent with that paragraph b if the Minister is of the opinion that the use ceased for reasonable grounds.

2015, c. 21, s. 519.

1129.45.41.18.6. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.14.2.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time under this Part, in relation to a qualified expenditure in respect of a qualified building, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time in respect of that expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation, by

(a) the partnership referred to in section 1129.45.41.18.3 or 1129.45.41.18.5, as the case may be, in the case of tax paid under that section; or

(b) the corporation, in any other case.

2015, c. 21, s. 519.

1129.45.41.18.7. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2015, c. 21, s. 519.

PART III.10.9.2.2

SPECIAL TAX IN RESPECT OF THE TAX CREDIT RELATING TO INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY INTEGRATION

2015, c. 21, s. 519.

1129.45.41.18.8. In this Part, "eligible expenses" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.166.60.19.

2015, c. 21, s. 519.

1129.45.41.18.9. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.60.27, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to eligible expenses of the corporation for the particular year, is required to pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which an amount relating to the eligible expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 1029.8.36.166.60.27 or 1029.8.36.166.60.31, in relation to the eligible expenses, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 1029.8.36.166.60.27 or 1029.8.36.166.60.31 in relation to the eligible expenses if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year in relation to the eligible expenses.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.28, 1029.8.36.166.60.32 and 1029.8.36.166.60.33, in relation to the eligible expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.28, 1029.8.36.166.60.32 and 1029.8.36.166.60.33 for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the eligible expenses, if

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the eligible expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

2015, c. 21, s. 519; 2022, c. 23, s. 149.

1129.45.41.18.11. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.14.2.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under this Part, in relation to eligible expenses, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time in respect of those expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation, by

(a) the corporation, in the case of tax paid under section 1129.45.41.18.9; or

(b) the partnership referred to in section 1129.45.41.18.10, in the case of tax paid under that section.

2015, c. 21, s. 519.

1129.45.41.18.12. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2015, c. 21, s. 519.

PART III.10.9.2.3

SPECIAL TAX CONCERNING THE CREDIT RELATING TO INVESTMENT AND INNOVATION

2021, c. 14, s. 191.

1129.45.41.18.13. In this Part, “specified expenses” and “specified property” have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.166.60.36.

2021, c. 14, s. 191.

1129.45.41.18.14. Every corporation that, in relation to its specified expenses for a particular taxation year in respect of a specified property, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.48, 1029.8.36.166.60.51 and 1029.8.36.166.60.52, for any taxation year, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the “repayment year”) in which an amount relating to the specified expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.48, 1029.8.36.166.60.51, 1029.8.36.166.60.52 and 1029.8.36.166.60.60, in relation to its specified expenses for the particular year, exceeds the total of

specified expenses, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the specified expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the specified expenses.

However, no tax is payable under this section, in relation to the specified expenses in respect of a property referred to in the first paragraph, if section 1129.45.41.18.16 applies in respect of the property for the repayment year or applied in respect of the property for a preceding taxation year.

1129.45.41.18.15. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and is, in relation to the partnership's specified expenses, in respect of a specified property, for a particular fiscal period of the partnership, deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.49, 1029.8.36.166.60.51 and 1029.8.36.166.60.52, for any taxation year, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for the taxation year in which ends a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership (in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment") in which an amount relating to the specified expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.49, 1029.8.36.166.60.51, 1029.8.36.166.60.52, 1029.8.36.166.60.61 and 1029.8.36.166.60.62, in relation to the partnership's specified expenses for the particular fiscal year, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the specified expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation would be required to pay to the Minister under this section, for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the specified expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

However, no tax is payable under this section, in relation to the specified expenses in respect of a property referred to in the first paragraph, if section 1129.45.41.18.17 applies in respect of the property for the taxation year in which the fiscal period of repayment ends or applied in respect of the property in a preceding taxation year.

1129.45.41.18.16. Every corporation that, in relation to its specified expenses in respect of a specified property, is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.48, 1029.8.36.166.60.51 and 1029.8.36.166.60.52, for any taxation year, shall pay, for a particular taxation year, the tax computed under the second paragraph where, at any time after the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year preceding the particular year and during the period described in the third paragraph, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of its loss, of its involuntary destruction by fire, theft or water, or of a major breakdown of the property, to be used, where the property is referred to in subparagraph v of paragraph b of the definition of "specified property" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.166.60.36, mainly in Québec or, in any other case, solely in Québec, to earn income from a business carried on

(a) by the first purchaser of the property, where the first purchaser owns it at the time referred to in the portion before this subparagraph; or

(b) by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired it in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1) applies, where the subsequent purchaser owns it at the time referred to in the portion before subparagraph a.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.48, 1029.8.36.166.60.51, 1029.8.36.166.60.52 and 1029.8.36.166.60.60, in relation to its specified expenses in respect of the specified property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under section 1129.45.41.18.14, in relation to those specified expenses, for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

The period to which the first paragraph refers is the period that begins on the particular day on which the property begins to be used by its first purchaser or by a subsequent purchaser that acquired the property in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act applies and ends on the earlier of

(a) the 730th day following the particular day; and

(b) the corporation's filing-due date for the particular taxation year.

2021, c. 14, s. 191.

(a) by the first purchaser of the property, where the first purchaser owns it at the time referred to in the portion before this subparagraph; or

(b) by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired it in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1) applies, where the subsequent purchaser owns it at the time referred to in the portion before subparagraph a.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under any of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.49, 1029.8.36.166.60.51, 1029.8.36.166.60.52, 1029.8.36.166.60.61 and 1029.8.36.166.60.62, in relation to the partnership's specified expenses in respect of the specified property for a taxation year preceding the particular year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay under section 1129.45.41.18.15, in relation to those specified expenses, for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

The period to which the first paragraph refers is the period that begins on the particular day on which the property begins to be used by its first purchaser or by a subsequent purchaser that acquired the property in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act applies and ends on the earlier of

(a) the 730th day following the particular day; and

(b) the last day of the six-month period following the end of the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular year.

2021, c. 14, s. 191; 2021, c. 18, s. 160.

1129.45.41.18.18. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.14.2.3 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules must be taken into account:

(a) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.45.41.18.14 or 1129.45.41.18.16, in relation to specified expenses, in respect of a specified property, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of those expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under section 1129.45.41.18.15 or 1129.45.41.18.17 in relation to specified expenses, in respect of a specified property, of a partnership referred to in that section, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the partnership at that time in respect of those expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2021, c. 14, s. 191.

1129.45.41.18.19. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2021, c. 14, s. 191.

PART III.10.9.3

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL CENTRES

2011, c. 1, s. 108.

1129.45.41.19. In this Part, "eligible employee", "qualified wages" and "wages" have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.166.61.

2011, c. 1, s. 108.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.62 or 1029.8.36.166.63, in relation to the qualified wages, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.62 or 1029.8.36.166.63, in relation to the qualified wages, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified wages.

1129.45.41.21. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.14.3 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.45.41.20, in relation to qualified wages, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the wages, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2011, c. 1, s. 108.

1129.45.41.22. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 if it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2011, c. 1, s. 108.

PART III.10.9.4

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR THE HIRING OF EMPLOYEES BY NEW FINANCIAL SERVICES CORPORATIONS

2013, c. 10, s. 166.

1129.45.41.23. In this Part, "eligible employee" and "qualified wages" have the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.166.65.

2013, c. 10, s. 166.

1129.45.41.24. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.66, on account of its tax payable for a particular taxation year under Part I, in relation to qualified wages incurred in the particular taxation year in respect of an eligible employee, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which an amount relating to wages included in computing the qualified wages is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.66 or 1029.8.36.166.67, in relation to the qualified wages, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.66 or 1029.8.36.166.67, in relation to the qualified wages, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to wages included in computing the qualified wages, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified wages.

2013, c. 10, s. 166.

1129.45.41.25. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.14.4 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.45.41.24, in relation to qualified wages, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the wages, pursuant to a legal obligation to do so.

2013, c. 10, s. 166.

1129.45.41.26. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2013, c. 10, s. 166.

PART III.10.9.5

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR NEW FINANCIAL SERVICES CORPORATIONS

2013, c. 10, s. 166.

1129.45.41.27. In this Part, "qualified expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.166.69.

2013, c. 10, s. 166.

1129.45.41.28. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.166.70, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to a qualified expenditure incurred in the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") in which an amount relating to an expenditure included in computing the qualified expenditure is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.70 or 1029.8.36.166.78, in relation to the qualified expenditure, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.166.70 or 1029.8.36.166.78, in relation to the qualified expenditure, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to an expenditure included in computing the qualified expenditure, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the qualified expenditure.

2013, c. 10, s. 166.

1129.45.41.29. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.14.5 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time, under this Part, in relation to a qualified expenditure of the corporation is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid by the corporation at that time in respect of that expenditure, pursuant to a legal obligation to do so.

2013, c. 10, s. 166.

1129.45.41.30. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2013, c. 10, s. 166.

PART III.10.10

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT RELATING TO MINING OR OTHER RESOURCES

2002, c. 40, s. 309; 2023, c. 2, s. 70.

1129.45.42. In this Part, "eligible expenses" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.167.

2002, c. 40, s. 309; 2007, c. 12, s. 274.

1129.45.43. Every corporation that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.168 or 1029.8.36.170, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to the eligible expenses of the corporation for the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to the eligible expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 1029.8.36.168 or 1029.8.36.170 or under any of sections 1029.8.36.171.1, 1029.8.36.171.2 and 1029.8.36.173, in relation to the eligible expenses, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year preceding the repayment year under section 1029.8.36.168 or 1029.8.36.170 or under any of sections 1029.8.36.171.1, 1029.8.36.171.2 and 1029.8.36.173, in relation to the eligible expenses, if every amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in relation to the eligible expenses.

1129.45.44. Every corporation that is a member of a partnership and that is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.169 or 1029.8.36.171, on account of its tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to the eligible expenses of the partnership for the partnership's particular fiscal period that ends in the particular year, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for the taxation year in which a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership ends, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of repayment", in which an amount relating to the eligible expenses is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends under section 1029.8.36.169 or 1029.8.36.171 or under any of sections 1029.8.36.171.1, 1029.8.36.171.2, 1029.8.36.174 and 1029.8.36.175, in relation to the eligible expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.169 or 1029.8.36.171 or under any of sections 1029.8.36.171.1, 1029.8.36.171.2, 1029.8.36.174 and 1029.8.36.175, for a taxation year in which a fiscal period of the partnership preceding the fiscal period of repayment ends, in relation to the eligible expenses, if

i. every amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of repayment, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the eligible expenses, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular fiscal period, and

ii. the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for that preceding fiscal period were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment; and

repayment ends, in relation to the eligible expenses, if the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year were the same as that for the fiscal period of repayment.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the fiscal period of repayment.

2002, c. 40, s. 309; 2004, c. 21, s. 486; 2006, c. 36, s. 249; 2009, c. 15, s. 422; 2022, c. 23, s. 150.

1129.45.44.1. For the purposes of Part I, except Division II.6.15 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX, the following rules are taken into account:

(a) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.45.43, in relation to eligible expenses incurred after 12 June 2003, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation, in respect of the expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation; and

(b) the tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under section 1129.45.44, in relation to eligible expenses incurred after 12 June 2003, is deemed to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section in respect of the expenses, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2006, c. 36, s. 250; 2022, c. 23, s. 151.

1129.45.45. Except where inconsistent with this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2002, c. 40, s. 309.

PART III.10.11

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO QUALIFIED PATRONAGE DIVIDENDS OF COOPERATIVES

2004, c. 21, s. 487.

1129.45.46. In this Part,

"qualification certificate" means the qualification certificate referred to in the definition of "qualified cooperative" in section 726.27;

"qualified patronage dividend" of a cooperative or a federation of cooperatives means a patronage dividend allocated by the cooperative or federation of cooperatives in the form of a preferred share received after 21 February 2002 and before 1 January 2026 by a member of the cooperative or federation of cooperatives.

2004, c. 21, s. 487; 2007, c. 12, s. 304; 2013, c. 10, s. 167; 2023, c. 2, s. 71.

1129.45.47. Where, in a taxation year, the Minister of Economy and Innovation revokes a qualification certificate issued to a cooperative or a federation of cooperatives, the cooperative or federation of cooperatives shall pay for the year a tax equal to 10% of the amount that is the aggregate of all qualified patronage dividends it allocated in respect of a taxation year covered by the notice of revocation of the qualification certificate.

1129.45.48. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2004, c. 21, s. 487.

PART III.11

ADDITIONAL TAX FOR MANUFACTURERS OF TOBACCO PRODUCTS

1995, c. 49, s. 235.

1129.46. In this Part, "establishment" has the meaning assigned by section 1.

1995, c. 49, s. 235; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1997, c. 14, s. 290; 2002, c. 40, s. 310; 2007, c. 12, s. 275.

1129.47. Every corporation having an establishment in Québec at any time in a taxation year shall pay a tax for that year equal to the product obtained by multiplying the amount determined under section 1129.48 in respect of the corporation for the year by the proportion that

(a) the number of days in the year that are after 8 February 1994 and before 9 February 1997, is of

(b) the number of days in the year.

1995, c. 49, s. 235; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1129.48. The amount referred to in section 1129.47 in respect of a corporation for a taxation year is equal to the lesser of

(a) the tax payable by the corporation for its taxation year 1993 under Part IV, and

(b) the amount determined in respect of the corporation for the year by the formula

$$A \times B.$$

For the purposes of the formula in subparagraph b of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount that would be determined in respect of the corporation for the year under the definition of "Part I tax on tobacco manufacturing profits" in subsection 2 of section 182 of the Income Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter 1, 5th Supplement), if the reference therein to "21%" were read as "4.45%"; and

(b) B is the ratio between the business carried on by the corporation in Québec in the year and the total business carried on by the corporation in Canada or in Québec and elsewhere in the year, as determined by regulation.

1995, c. 49, s. 235; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1129.49. Every corporation shall pay to the Minister, on or before the later of 6 January 1996 and the last day of the second month after the end of its taxation year, its tax payable under this Part for the year.

1995, c. 49, s. 235; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1129.50. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

1995, c. 49, s. 235.

PART III.12

TAX ON ENVIRONMENTAL TRUSTS

1996, c. 39, s. 270; 2000, c. 5, s. 285.

1129.51. In this Part,

"balance-due day" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"Canada" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"environmental trust" means a trust

(a) each trustee of which is

i. the State, Her Majesty in right of Canada or Her Majesty in right of a province, other than Québec, or

ii. a corporation resident in Canada that is licensed or otherwise authorized under the laws of Canada or a province to offer its services as trustee in Canada;

(b) that is maintained for the sole purpose of funding the reclamation of a qualifying site;

(c) that is, or may become, required to be maintained under

i. a qualifying contract, or

ii. a qualifying law or order; and

(d) that is not an excluded trust;

"excluded trust", at a particular time, means a trust that

(a) has as its object at that time the reclamation of a well;

(b) is not maintained at that time to secure the reclamation obligations of one or more persons or partnerships that are beneficiaries under the trust;

(c) borrows money at that time;

(d) if the trust is not a trust to which paragraph e applies, acquires at that time any property that is not described in any of paragraphs a, b and f of the definition of "qualified investment" in section 204 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.));

(e) if the trust is created after 31 December 2011 (or if the trust was created before 1 January 2012, it made a valid election under paragraph e of the definition of "excluded trust" in subsection 1 of section 211.6 of the Income Tax Act),

i. acquires at that time any property that is not described in any of paragraphs a, b, c, c.1, d and f of the definition of "qualified investment" in section 204 of the Income Tax Act, or

ii. holds at that time a prohibited investment;

(f) is not a qualifying environmental trust for the purposes of the Income Tax Act because of a valid election made by it to that effect under paragraph f of the definition of "excluded trust" in subsection 1 of section 211.6 of that Act; or

(g) was, at any time before the particular time but during its existence, not an environmental trust (within the meaning of section 21.40 as it applied at that time);

"prohibited investment", of a trust at any time, means a property that

(a) at the time it was acquired by the trust, was described in any of paragraphs c, c.1 and d of the definition of "qualified investment" in section 204 of the Income Tax Act; and

(b) was issued by

i. a person or partnership that has contributed property to, or that is a beneficiary under, the trust,

ii. a person that is related to, or a partnership that is affiliated with, a person or partnership that has contributed property to, or that is a beneficiary under, the trust, or

iii. a particular person or partnership if

(1) another person or partnership holds a significant interest (within the meaning of subsection 4 of section 207.01 of the Income Tax Act with the necessary modifications) in the particular person or partnership, and

(2) the holder of that significant interest has contributed property to, or is a beneficiary under, the trust;

"property" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"province" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"qualifying contract", in respect of a trust, means a contract entered into with the State, Her Majesty in right of Canada or Her Majesty in right of a province, other than Québec, on or before the later of 1 January 1996 and the day that is one year after the day on which the trust was created;

"qualifying law or order", in respect of a trust, means

(a) a law of Canada or a province that was enacted on or before the later of 1 January 1996 and the day that is one year after the day on which the trust was created; and

(b) if the trust was created after 31 December 2011, an order made

i. by a tribunal constituted under a law described in paragraph a, and

ii. on or before the day that is one year after the day on which the trust was created;

"qualifying site", in respect of a trust, means a site in Canada that is or has been used primarily for, or for any combination of,

(a) the operation of a mine;

(b) the extraction of clay, peat, sand, shale or aggregates (including dimension stone and gravel);

(c) the deposit of waste; or

(d) if the trust was created after 31 December 2011, the operation of a pipeline;

"trust" has the meaning assigned by Part I.

For the purposes of this Part, a person is related to, or a partnership is affiliated with, a person or partnership when the person is related to, or the partnership is affiliated with, a person or partnership for the purposes of Part I.

Chapter V.2 of Title II of Book I of Part I applies in relation to an election made under paragraph e or f of the definition of "excluded trust" in subsection 1 of section 211.6 of the Income Tax Act.

1129.51.1. For the purposes of this Part, an environmental trust is deemed to be resident in the province in which the site in respect of which the trust is maintained is situated and in no other province.

2013, c. 10, s. 170.

1129.52. Every trust that, at the end of a taxation year, is an environmental trust resident in Québec (other than a trust that is at that time described in paragraph p or q of section 998) shall pay a tax for the year equal to the amount obtained by applying the basic rate that would be determined in its respect for the year under section 771.0.2.3.1 if the trust were a corporation other than a financial institution or an oil refining corporation, within the meaning assigned to those expressions by section 771.1, to its income determined under Part I for the year.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the income under Part I of an environmental trust shall be computed as if this Act were read without reference to sections 652, 653 to 657.4, 659 to 668.3, 669.1 to 671.4, 680, 681, 684 to 688.2, 690.0.1 and 691 to 692 and without reference to the portion of the income that may reasonably be considered to be the share of a person exempt from tax under Part I.

1129.53. Every trust that, at the end of a taxation year, is an environmental trust resident in Québec shall

(a) file with the Minister, on or before its filing-due date for the year, a return under this Part for the year in prescribed form, without notice or demand therefor;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year on or before its balance-due day for the year.

1996, c. 39, s. 270; 2000, c. 5, s. 288.

1129.54. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1000 to 1024 and 1031.1 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1996, c. 39, s. 270; 2013, c. 10, s. 172; 2015, c. 36, s. 163.

PART III.12.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR RACEHORSE MAINTENANCE

2002, c. 40, s. 311.

1129.54.1. In this Part,

"eligible horse" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.53.1;

"qualified expenditure" has the meaning assigned by section 1029.8.36.53.1.

2002, c. 40, s. 311; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.54.2. Every taxpayer who is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.53.2, on account of the taxpayer's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, in relation to the aggregate of the qualified expenditures made by the taxpayer in the particular year in respect of an eligible horse, shall pay the tax referred to in the second paragraph for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which an amount relating to any of the qualified expenditures is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the taxpayer or allocated to a payment to be made by the taxpayer.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.53.2 or 1029.8.36.53.5, in relation to the aggregate of the qualified expenditures, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the taxpayer would be deemed to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.53.2 or 1029.8.36.53.5, in relation to the aggregate of the qualified expenditures, if every amount that is so refunded, paid or allocated at or before the end of the repayment year, in relation to any of the qualified expenditures, were refunded, paid or allocated in the particular year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the taxpayer is required to pay to the Minister under this section for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, in respect of the aggregate of the qualified expenditures.

2002, c. 40, s. 311.

1129.54.3. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024 and 1026.0.1, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2002, c. 40, s. 311.

PART III.13

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE FINANCING OF A UNIVERSITY RESEARCH CONTRACT

1997, c. 14, s. 268.

1129.55. In this Part,

"eligible university entity" has the meaning assigned by paragraph f of section 1029.8.1;

"qualified expenditure" has the meaning assigned by paragraph d.1 of section 1029.8.1;

"scientific research and experimental development" has the meaning assigned by subsections 2 to 4 of section 222;

"university foundation" has the meaning assigned by paragraph f.1 of section 1029.8.1;

"university research contract" has the meaning assigned by paragraph b of section 1029.8.1.

1997, c. 14, s. 268; 2000, c. 5, s. 289; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1129.56. A university foundation that has become surety for a corporation in respect of the payment of amounts used for the financing of scientific research and experimental development provided for in a university research contract entered into between the corporation and an eligible university entity and that pays, for the first time, an amount under the suretyship shall pay, for its taxation year that includes the day that is two years following the day of that payment, tax equal to the amount determined by the formula

50% (A − B).

For the purposes of the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.6, as partial payment of its tax payable pursuant to Part I for a taxation year in respect of the amount of a qualified expenditure paid by the corporation to an eligible university entity as part of the university research contract;

(b) B is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount the corporation would be deemed to have paid to the Minister, under the said section 1029.8.6, as partial payment of its tax payable pursuant to Part I for a taxation year if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount of a qualified expenditure paid as part of the contract were reduced by the amount furnished under the suretyship.

However, the amount of tax determined under the first paragraph shall be reduced by the proportion of that amount that the portion of the amount that the university foundation was required to pay under the suretyship and that was repaid to it by the corporation is of the amount that the university foundation was required to pay under the suretyship.

1129.57. Where a university foundation is required to pay tax under this Part for a taxation year, it shall, within 60 days after the end of the year,

(a) send to the Minister, without notice or demand therefor, a return under this Part for the year in prescribed form;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year.

1997, c. 14, s. 268.

1129.58. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1001, 1002 and 1037 and Titles II, V and VI of Book IX of Part I apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1997, c. 14, s. 268; 1997, c. 85, s. 309.

PART III.14

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO FLOW-THROUGH SHARES

1998, c. 16, s. 246.

1129.59. In this Part, “flow-through share” has the meaning assigned by section 359.1.

1998, c. 16, s. 246; 2007, c. 12, s. 276.

1129.60. Every corporation that purported to renounce an amount in a calendar year under section 359.2 or 359.2.1, because of the application of section 359.8, shall pay a tax, for each month of the year, except the month of January, unless section 1129.60.1 is applicable to the corporation in respect of the amount so renounced, equal to the amount determined in its respect by the formula

[(A - B)/2] × (C/12 + D/10).

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation purported to renounce in the calendar year under section 359.2 or 359.2.1 because of the application of section 359.8 in respect of expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with production or potential production in Québec;

(b) B is the aggregate of all expenses described in paragraph a of section 359.8 that are incurred by the end of the month by the corporation and in respect of the renunciation in respect of which an amount is included in the aggregate referred to in subparagraph a;

(c) C is the rate of interest prescribed for the purposes of subsection 3 of section 164 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)) for the month; and

(d) D is one where the month is December, and zero in any other case.

1998, c. 16, s. 246; 2009, c. 5, s. 531.

1129.60.1. If a corporation purported to renounce an amount in a particular calendar year under section 359.2 or 359.2.1, because of the application of section 359.8, in respect of expenses it has incurred in the subsequent calendar year, and if those expenses are deemed under section 359.8.1 to have been incurred on the last day of the calendar year preceding the particular calendar year, the following rules apply:

(a) the corporation shall pay a tax, for each month of the particular calendar year, except the month of January, equal to the amount determined by the formula

[(A - B)/2] × (C/12); and

(b) the corporation shall pay a tax, for each month of the subsequent calendar year, equal to the amount determined by the formula

[(A - B)/2] × (C/12 + D/10).

In the formulas in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the corporation purported to renounce in the particular calendar year under section 359.2 or 359.2.1, because of the application of section 359.8, in respect of expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with production or potential production in Québec;

(b) B is the aggregate of all the expenses that are incurred by the corporation at or before the end of the month in the particular calendar year or in the subsequent calendar year and that relate to a renunciation in respect of which an amount is included in the aggregate referred to in subparagraph a;

(c) C is the rate of interest prescribed for the purposes of subsection 3 of section 164 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)) for the month; and

(d) D is 1 if the month for which a tax is determined under this Part for the subsequent taxation year is the month of December of that year, and zero in any other case.

2009, c. 5, s. 532.

1129.61. Where a corporation is required to pay tax under this Part in respect of one month in a calendar year, it shall, before 1 March of the following calendar year,

(a) file with the Minister, without notice or demand therefor, a return for the year under this Part in prescribed form;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of tax payable under this Part by it in respect of each month in the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of tax payable under this Part by it in respect of each month in the year.

1998, c. 16, s. 246.

1129.61.1. Where an agreement referred to in section 359.8 is entered into after 31 December 2018 and before 1 January 2021, the following rules apply:

(a) for the purposes of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1129.60 and, in the cases to which subparagraph iii applies, section 359.8, the expenses referred to in paragraph a of section 359.8 that are incurred by a corporation in respect of the agreement in a particular month of a calendar year are deemed to have been incurred

i. in the month of January 2020, if the expenses were incurred in the calendar year 2020 and the agreement was entered into in the calendar year 2019,

ii. in the month of January 2021, if the expenses were incurred in the calendar year 2021 and the agreement was entered into in the calendar year 2020, and

iii. 12 months earlier, in any other case; and

(b) section 1129.61 is to be read as if "the following calendar year" in the portion before paragraph a were replaced by "the second following calendar year".

2021, c. 36, s. 155.

1129.62. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1001, 1002 and 1037 and Titles II, V and VI of Book IX of Part I apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

1998, c. 16, s. 246.

PART III.15

SPECIAL TAX IN RESPECT OF REGISTERED EDUCATION SAVINGS PLANS

2000, c. 5, s. 290.

1129.63. In this Part,

"accumulated income payment" has the meaning assigned by section 890.15;

"public primary caregiver" has the meaning assigned by section 890.15;

"registered education savings plan" means a plan that is a registered education savings plan for the purposes of Part I;

"subscriber" has the meaning that would be assigned by sections 890.15 and 890.17, if the definition of that expression in section 890.15 were read without reference to subparagraph iii of paragraph b thereof.

2000, c. 5, s. 290; 2007, c. 12, s. 304; 2010, c. 25, s. 217; 2015, c. 21, s. 521.

1129.64. Every person (other than a public primary caregiver that is exempt from tax under Part I) shall pay a tax under this Part, for a taxation year, equal to the amount determined by the formula

$$0.08 (A + B - C).$$

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an accumulated income payment made at any time that is required to be included in computing the person's income under Part I for the year and that is

i. under a registered education savings plan under which the person is a subscriber at that time, or

ii. under a registered education savings plan under which there is no subscriber at that time, where the person has been a spouse of an individual who was a subscriber under the plan;

(b) B is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an accumulated income payment that is required to be included in computing the person's income under Part I for the year but is not included in the value of A in respect of the person for the year; and

(c) C is the lesser of

i. the lesser of the value determined under subparagraph a in respect of the person for the year and the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount deducted by the person under paragraph b of section 339, where that paragraph refers to sections 922 and 923, in computing the person's income under Part I for the year, and

ii. the amount by which $50,000 exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount determined under subparagraph i in respect of the person for a preceding taxation year.

2000, c. 5, s. 290; 2001, c. 53, s. 255; 2015, c. 21, s. 522.

1129.65. Every person who is liable to pay tax under this Part for a taxation year shall, on or before the person's filing-due date for the year,

(a) file with the Minister a return for the year under this Part in prescribed form and containing prescribed information, without notice or demand therefor;

(b) estimate in the return the amount of tax payable under this Part by the person for the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of tax payable under this Part by the person for the year.

2000, c. 5, s. 290.

1129.66. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1001 to 1014, 1025 to 1026.2 and 1031.1 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2000, c. 5, s. 290; 2015, c. 36, s. 164.

PART III.15.1

SPECIAL TAXES RELATING TO THE CREDIT TO PROMOTE EDUCATION SAVINGS

2009, c. 5, s. 533.

1129.66.1. In this Part,

"balance-due day" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"beneficiary" has the meaning assigned by section 890.15;

"brother" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.126;

"CLB account" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.126;

"education savings incentive" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.128;

"education savings incentive account" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.126;

"educational assistance payment" has the meaning assigned by section 890.15;

"grant account" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.126;

"increase amount" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.126;

"registered education savings plan" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"sister" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 1029.8.126;

"trust" has the meaning assigned by section 890.15.

2009, c. 5, s. 533.

1129.66.2. If a contribution in respect of which an amount on account of an education savings incentive was received under section 1029.8.128 by a particular trust governed by a registered education savings plan, is withdrawn from the plan, otherwise than in connection with an eligible withdrawal or a transfer to another trust governed by another registered education savings plan, and no beneficiary under the plan is eligible to receive an educational assistance payment, the particular trust shall pay, for the taxation year in which the contribution is withdrawn, tax equal to the lesser of

(a) the balance of the plan's education savings incentive account immediately before the end of the year; and

(b) the amount determined by the formula

$$A/B \times C.$$

In the formula in subparagraph b of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the balance of the plan's education savings incentive account immediately before the end of the year;

(b) B is the aggregate of the contributions made to the plan immediately before the end of the year in respect of which an education savings incentive was received by the particular trust, except such a contribution that was withdrawn from the plan in a preceding taxation year; and

(c) C is the amount of the contribution withdrawn from the plan.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, "eligible withdrawal" means a withdrawal that is all or part of an excess amount of contributions to the registered education savings plan if the withdrawal is intended to reduce the amount of tax payable under Part X.4 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)).

2009, c. 5, s. 533.

1129.66.3. If, in a taxation year, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion, determined in accordance with section 1029.8.142, of an educational assistance payment received by a beneficiary that is attributable to the education savings incentive, exceeds $3,600, the beneficiary shall pay for the year tax equal to the excess amount.

2009, c. 5, s. 533.

1129.66.4. If any of the events mentioned in the second paragraph occurs in a taxation year, a trust governed by a registered education savings plan shall pay, for that year, tax equal to the lesser of

(a) the balance of the plan's education savings incentive account immediately before the event occurs; and

(b) the amount determined by the formula

$$(A \times B)/(B + C + D).$$

The events to which the first paragraph refers are the following:

(a) the cessation of the plan's existence;

(b) the revocation of the plan's registration;

(c) the payment of an amount referred to in paragraph b or d of the definition of "trust" in section 890.15;

(d) the making of an educational assistance payment to an individual who is not a beneficiary under the plan;

(e) the replacement of a beneficiary under the plan by another beneficiary, except for a recognized replacement described in the second paragraph of section 1029.8.135; and

(f) the transfer of properties held by the trust governed by the plan to another trust governed by another registered education savings plan, except for an authorized transfer described in the second paragraph of section 1029.8.136.

In the formula in subparagraph b of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the fair market value of the properties held by the trust governed by the plan immediately before the event occurs;

(b) B is the balance of the plan's education savings incentive account immediately before the event occurs;

(c) C is the aggregate of

i. the balance of the plan's grant account immediately before the event occurs, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the balance of a CLB account of the plan immediately before the event occurs; and

(d) D is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the balance of an account of assistance paid under a designated provincial program, within the meaning of section 890.15, of the plan immediately before the event occurs.

2009, c. 5, s. 533; 2021, c. 18, s. 161.

1129.66.5. If a trust governed by a registered education savings plan received an amount deemed under section 1029.8.128 to be an overpayment of its tax payable on account of an increase amount and if, in a calendar year, an individual who is neither the brother nor the sister of the other beneficiaries under the plan becomes a beneficiary under the plan, the trust shall pay, for that year, tax equal to the lesser of

(a) the balance of the plan's education savings incentive account immediately before the time the individual becomes a beneficiary; and

(b) the amount by which the fair market value of the properties held by the trust, immediately before the time the individual becomes a beneficiary, exceeds the aggregate of the balances of the plan's grant account and CLB accounts immediately before that time.

2009, c. 5, s. 533.

1129.66.6. A trust that is required to pay tax under this Part for a taxation year shall, on or before the trust's filing-due date for the year,

(a) file with the Minister, without notice or demand, a return under this Part in the prescribed form containing prescribed information;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of its tax payable under this Part for the year.

2009, c. 5, s. 533.

1129.66.7. A beneficiary shall pay to the Minister for a taxation year, on or before the beneficiary's balance-due day for the year, the beneficiary's tax payable under this Part for the year.

2009, c. 5, s. 533.

1129.66.8. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, sections 1000 to 1014 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2009, c. 5, s. 533.

PART III.15.2

SPECIAL TAX ON EXCESS PROFIT SHARING PLAN AMOUNTS

2015, c. 21, s. 523.

1129.66.9. In this Part,

"balance-due day" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"employer" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"excess profit sharing plan amount", of a specified employee for a taxation year in respect of an employer, means the amount determined by the formula

A - (20% × B);

"profit sharing plan" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"specified employee" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"trust" has the meaning assigned by section 1.

In the formula in the definition of "excess profit sharing plan amount" in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the portion of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid by the employer of the specified employee (or by a corporation with which the employer does not deal at arm's length) to a trust governed by a profit sharing plan that is allocated for the year to the specified employee; and

(b) B is the specified employee's income for the year from an office or employment with the employer computed under Chapters I and II of Title II of Book III of Part I, except Divisions V and VI of that Chapter II.

2015, c. 21, s. 523.

1129.66.10. If a specified employee has an excess profit sharing plan amount for a taxation year, the specified employee shall pay a tax for the year equal to the amount determined by the formula

A × B.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the rate specified in paragraph d of section 750; and

(b) B is the aggregate of all excess profit sharing plan amounts of the specified employee for the year.

2015, c. 21, s. 523.

1129.66.11. If a specified employee would otherwise be required to pay tax under section 1129.66.10, the Minister may waive or cancel all or part of the tax if the Minister considers it just and equitable to do so having regard to all the circumstances.

2015, c. 21, s. 523.

1129.66.12. Every person who is required to pay tax under this Part for a taxation year shall

(a) on or before the person's filing-due date for the year, file with the Minister a return for the year under this Part in the prescribed form containing prescribed information; and

(b) on or before the person's balance-due day for the year, pay to the Minister the amount of tax payable under this Part by the person for the year.

2015, c. 21, s. 523.

1129.66.13. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, sections 1001 to 1014, 1025 to 1026.2, 1031 to 1034.0.2, 1035 to 1044.0.2 and 1045 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2015, c. 21, s. 523.

PART III.16

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO AN INCOME-AVERAGING ANNUITY PAYMENT RESPECTING INCOME FROM ARTISTIC ACTIVITIES

2005, c. 23, s. 254.

1129.67. In this Part,

"income-averaging annuity payment respecting income from artistic activities" means an amount paid as an annuity payment under an income-averaging annuity contract respecting income from artistic activities, or an amount referred to in paragraph d.1 of section 312;

"income-averaging annuity respecting income from artistic activities" has the meaning assigned by section 1.

2005, c. 23, s. 254; 2007, c. 12, s. 304; 2009, c. 15, s. 423; 2010, c. 25, s. 218.

1129.68. An individual who receives, in a taxation year, an income-averaging annuity payment respecting income from artistic activities is required to pay a tax under this Part for the year equal to 25.75% of the income-averaging annuity payment respecting income from artistic activities.

Every person who makes, in a taxation year, an income-averaging annuity payment respecting income from artistic activities to an individual must deduct or withhold, from the income-averaging annuity payment respecting income from artistic activities, the amount of tax referred to in the first paragraph that the individual is liable to pay for the year in respect of that payment, and pay to the Minister the amount so deducted or withheld, as tax on behalf of the individual, within 30 days after the date of payment of the income-averaging annuity payment respecting income from artistic activities.

Every person who makes an income-averaging annuity payment respecting income from artistic activities to an individual must pay, as tax on behalf of the individual, any amount the person did not deduct or withhold under the second paragraph and is authorized to recover from that individual the amount so paid.

2005, c. 23, s. 254; 2015, c. 21, s. 524.

1129.69. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1001, 1002 and 1037 and Titles II, V and VI of Book IX of Part I apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2005, c. 23, s. 254.

PART III.16.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE CREDIT FOR CULTURAL PATRONAGE

2015, c. 21, s. 525.

1129.69.1. In this Part, "registered pledge" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 752.0.10.1.

2015, c. 21, s. 525.

1129.69.2. An individual who has deducted an amount in computing tax payable for a particular taxation year under section 752.0.10.6.2, in relation to a registered pledge, is required to pay tax, the amount of which is determined under the second paragraph, for the year (in this section referred to as the "year of the default") in which the registered pledge is, because of subparagraph i of paragraph b of section 752.0.10.15.5, deemed never to have been registered.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers in respect of the particular year is equal to the aggregate of

(a) the amount (in subparagraph b referred to as the "excess tax credit amount") which corresponds,

i. where the particular year precedes the taxation year 2017, to the amount obtained by multiplying by 6% the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the eligible amount of a gift that was taken into account in determining the amount that the individual deducted under section 752.0.10.6.2 for the particular year, in relation to the pledge, and

ii. where the particular year is subsequent to the taxation year 2016, to the amount determined by the formula

$(A \times B) + (C \times D)$; and

(b) the amount of interest computed on the excess tax credit amount at the rate set under section 28 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) for the period beginning on 1 May of the year following the particular year and ending before the beginning of the year of the default.

In the formula in subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of the second paragraph,

(a) A is a rate of 4.25%;

(b) B is the lesser of

i. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the eligible amount of a gift that was taken into account in determining the amount that the individual deducted under section 752.0.10.6.2 for the particular year, in relation to the pledge, and

ii. the amount by which the individual's taxable income determined under Part I for the particular year exceeds the amount in dollars referred to in paragraph d of section 750 which, with reference to section 750.2, is applicable for the particular year;

(c) C is a rate of 6%; and

(d) D is the amount by which the aggregate referred to in subparagraph i of subparagraph b exceeds the amount determined under subparagraph ii of that subparagraph b in respect of the individual for the particular year.

The first paragraph does not apply in respect of a particular taxation year for which the Minister may redetermine the tax, interest and penalties under Part I in accordance with subsection 2 of section 1010.

2015, c. 21, s. 525; 2019, c. 14, s. 453.

1129.69.3. An individual who is required to pay tax under this Part for a taxation year shall, on or before the individual's filing-due date for the year,

(a) file with the Minister, without notice or demand, a return under this Part in the prescribed form containing prescribed information;

(b) estimate, in the return, the amount of the individual's tax payable under this Part for the year; and

(c) pay to the Minister the amount of the individual's tax payable under this Part for the year.

2015, c. 21, s. 525.

1129.69.4. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, sections 1001, 1002 and 1037 and Titles II, V and VI of Book IX of Part I apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2015, c. 21, s. 525.

PART III.17

TAX RELATING TO SIFT ENTITIES

2009, c. 5, s. 534.

1129.70. In this Part, unless the context indicates otherwise,

"Canadian immovable or resource property" means

(a) a property that would, but for the definition of "immovable property", be an immovable property situated in Canada;

(b) a Canadian resource property;

(c) a timber resource property;

(d) a share of the capital stock of a corporation, a capital or income interest in a trust or an interest in a partnership, if more than 50% of the fair market value of the share or interest is derived directly or indirectly from one or any combination of properties described in any of paragraphs a to c, other than

i. a share of a taxable Canadian corporation, ii. a capital or income interest in a SIFT trust or in a trust that would be a SIFT trust if the definition of "SIFT trust" had effect from 31 October 2006,

iii. an interest in a SIFT partnership or in a partnership that would be a SIFT partnership if the definition of "SIFT partnership" had effect from 31 October 2006, or

iv. a capital or income interest in a real estate investment trust; or

(e) any right in or to a property described in any of paragraphs a to d;

“Canadian resident partnership” at any time means a partnership that, at that time,

(a) is a Canadian partnership, within the meaning of section 1;

(b) would, if it were a corporation, be resident in Canada, being thus considered a partnership that has its central management and control in Canada; or

(c) was formed under the laws of a province;

“capital or income interest” in a trust has, in the case of a capital interest in a trust or an income interest in a trust, the meaning assigned to those expressions by section 683;

“determined gross revenue” , of an entity for a taxation year, means the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount received or receivable in the year (depending on the method regularly followed by the entity in computing the entity’s income) by the entity exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the cost to the entity of a property disposed of in the year;

“eligible resale property” , of an entity, means an immovable property (other than capital property) of the entity

(a) that is contiguous to an immovable property that is capital property or eligible resale property held by the entity or another entity affiliated with the entity; and

(b) the holding of which is ancillary to the holding of the immovable property described in paragraph a;

“entity” means a corporation, trust or partnership;

“equity”, of an entity, means

(a) if the entity is a corporation, a share of its capital stock;

(b) if the entity is a trust, a capital or income interest in the entity;

(c) if the entity is a partnership, an interest as a member of the entity;

(d) a liability of the entity (and, for purposes of the definition of “publicly-traded liability”, a security of the entity that is a liability of another entity) if

i. the liability is convertible into, or exchangeable for, equity of the entity or of another entity, or

ii. any amount paid or payable in respect of the liability is contingent on the use of or production from property, is determined on the basis of such use or production, or is computed by reference to revenue, profit, cash flow, commodity price or any other similar criterion or by reference to dividends paid or payable to shareholders of any class of shares of the capital stock of a corporation, or to income or capital paid or payable to any member of a partnership or beneficiary under a trust; and

(e) a right to, or to acquire, anything described in this paragraph and any of paragraphs a to d;

“equity value” of an entity at any time means the fair market value at that time of the aggregate of

(a) if the entity is a corporation, all of the issued and outstanding shares of its capital stock;

(b) if the entity is a trust, all of the capital or income interests in the entity; and

(c) if the entity is a partnership, all of the interests in the entity;

“establishment” has the meaning assigned by sections 12 to 16.2;

“excluded subsidiary entity”, for a taxation year, means an entity none of the equity of which is at any time in the year

(a) listed on a stock exchange or other public market or traded on such an exchange or other market; nor

(b) held by any person or partnership other than

i. a real estate investment trust,

ii. a taxable Canadian corporation,

iii. a SIFT trust or a trust that would be a SIFT trust but for subsection 3 of section 534 of the Act giving effect to the Budget Speech delivered on 24 May 2007, to the 1 June 2007 Ministerial Statement Concerning the Government's 2007-2008 Budgetary Policy and to certain other budget statements (2009, chapter 5),

iv. a SIFT partnership or a partnership that would be a SIFT partnership but for subsection 3 of section 534 of the Act giving effect to the Budget Speech delivered on 24 May 2007, to the 1 June 2007 Ministerial Statement Concerning the Government's 2007-2008 Budgetary Policy and to certain other budget statements, iv.1. a person or partnership that does not have, in connection with the holding of a security of the entity, property the value of which is determined, all or in part, by reference to a security that is listed on a stock exchange or other public market or traded on such an exchange or other market, or

v. an excluded subsidiary entity for the year;

"immovable property" of a taxpayer includes a security held by the taxpayer that is a security of a trust that satisfies the conditions set out in paragraphs a to d of the definition of "real estate investment trust" or a security of another entity that would, if it were a trust, satisfy those conditions, or a real right in an immovable, other than a right to a rental or royalty described in paragraph d or d.1 of section 370, but does not include a depreciable property, other than

(a) a property included, for the purposes of Part I, in Class 1, 3 or 31 of Schedule B to the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1), otherwise than by an election permitted by regulation;

(b) a property ancillary to the ownership or utilization of a property described in paragraph a; or

(c) a lease in, or a leasehold interest in respect of, land or property described in paragraph a;

"investment", in a trust or partnership, means the following property, but does not include an unaffiliated publicly-traded liability of the trust or partnership, nor regulated innovative capital:

(a) a property that is a security of the trust or partnership, or

(b) a right which may reasonably be considered to replicate a return on, or the value of, a security of the trust or partnership;

"non-portfolio earnings" of a SIFT entity for a taxation year means the aggregate of

(a) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the entity's income for the year determined under Part I and derived from a business carried on by it in Canada or from a non-portfolio property (other than income that is a taxable dividend received by the entity), exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the entity's loss for the year determined under Part I and derived from a business carried on by it in Canada or from a non-portfolio property; and

(b) the amount by which the aggregate of the allowable capital losses of the entity determined under Part I and derived from dispositions of non-portfolio properties during the year is exceeded by the aggregate of

i. the taxable capital gains of the entity determined under Part I and derived from dispositions of non-portfolio properties during the year, and

ii. if the entity is a SIFT trust, one half of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is deemed under section 1106 to be a capital gain of the trust for the year in respect of its non-portfolio properties for the year;

"non-portfolio property" , of a particular entity for a taxation year, means a property, held by the particular entity at any time in the year, that is

(a) a security of a subject entity (other than a portfolio investment entity), if at that time the particular entity holds

i. securities of the subject entity that have a total fair market value that is greater than the amount that is 10% of the equity value of the subject entity, or

ii. securities of the subject entity and securities of entities affiliated with the subject entity that together have a total fair market value that is greater than the amount that is 50% of the equity value of the particular entity;

(b) a Canadian immovable or resource property, if at any time in the year the total fair market value of all properties held by the particular entity that are Canadian immovable or resource properties is greater than the amount that is 50% of the equity value of the particular entity; or

(c) a property that the particular entity, or a person or partnership with whom the particular entity does not deal at arm's length, uses at that time in the course of carrying on a business in Canada;

"portfolio investment entity" at any time means an entity that does not at that time hold any non-portfolio property;

"public market" includes any trading system or other organized facility on which securities that are qualified for public distribution are listed or traded, but does not include a facility that is operated solely to carry out the issuance of a security or its redemption, acquisition or cancellation by its issuer;

"publicly-traded liability", of an entity, means a liability that is a security of the entity, that is not equity of the entity and that is listed on a stock exchange or other public market or traded on such an exchange or other market;

"qualified property" , of a trust at a particular time, means a property that, at that time, is held by the trust and is

(a) an immovable property that is capital property, an eligible resale property, an indebtedness of a Canadian corporation represented by a bankers' acceptance, a property described in paragraph a or b of the definition of "qualified investment" in section 204 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)) or a deposit with a savings and credit union;

(b) a security of a subject entity all or substantially all of the determined gross revenue of which, for its taxation year that ends in the trust's taxation year that includes that time, is from maintaining, improving, leasing or managing immovable properties that are capital properties of the trust or of another entity of which the trust holds a share or an interest, including immovable properties that the trust, or an entity of which the trust holds a share or an interest, holds together with one or more other persons or partnerships;

(c) a security of a subject entity, if the entity holds no property other than

i. titles of ownership in immovable properties of the trust or of another subject entity all of the securities of which are held by the trust, including immovable properties that the trust or the other subject entity holds together with one or more other persons or partnerships, or

ii. property described in paragraph d; or

(d) ancillary to the earning by the trust of amounts described in subparagraph i or iii of paragraph b of the definition of "real estate investment trust", other than a property that is

i. part of an equity of an entity, or

ii. a mortgage, hypothecary claim, mezzanine loan or similar obligation;

"real estate investment trust" for a taxation year means a trust that is resident in Canada throughout the year, if

(a) at each time in the taxation year the fair market value at that time of all non-portfolio properties that are qualified properties held by the trust is at least equal to 90% of the fair market value at that time of all non-portfolio properties held by the trust;

(b) not less than 90% of the trust's determined gross revenue for the year is from one or any combination of the following sources:

i. rent from immovable properties,

ii. interest,

iii. dispositions of immovable properties that are capital properties,

iv. dividends,

v. royalties, and

vi. dispositions of eligible resale properties;

(c) not less than 75% of the trust's determined gross revenue for the year is from one or any combination of the following sources:

i. rent from immovable properties,

ii. interest payable on debts secured by hypothecs on immovable properties, and

iii. dispositions of immovable properties that are capital properties;

(d) at each time in the year an amount, which is equal to 75% or more of the equity value of the trust at that time, is the amount that is the fair market value of all properties held by the trust each of which is an immovable property that is capital property, an eligible resale property, an indebtedness of a Canadian corporation represented by a bankers' acceptance, a property described in paragraph a or b of the definition of "qualified investment" in section 204 of the Income Tax Act or a deposit with a savings and credit union; and

(e) investments in the trust are listed, at any time in the year, on a stock exchange or other public market or traded on such an exchange or other market;

"regulated innovative capital" means equity of a trust, if

(a) since 1 November 2006, the equity has been authorized, by the Superintendent of Financial Institutions of Canada, by the Autorité des marchés financiers or by a provincial regulatory authority having powers similar to those of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions of Canada, as Tier 1 or Tier 2 capital of a financial institution (within the meaning of subsection 1 of section 181 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.));

(b) the terms and conditions of the equity have not changed after 1 August 2008;

(c) the trust has not issued any equity after 31 October 2006; and

(d) the trust does not hold any non-portfolio property other than

i. liabilities of the financial institution, and

ii. shares of the capital stock of the financial institution that were acquired by the trust for the sole purpose of satisfying a right to require the trust to accept, as demanded by a holder of the equity, the surrender of the equity;

"rent from immovable properties" includes rent or similar payments for the use of, or right to use, immovable properties and the amounts paid for services ancillary to the rental of immovable properties and customarily supplied or rendered in connection with the rental of immovable properties, but does not include

(a) amounts paid for services supplied or rendered, other than such ancillary services, to the tenants of immovable properties;

(b) fees for managing or operating immovable properties;

(c) amounts paid for the occupation of, use of, or right to use a room in a hotel or other similar lodging facility; or

(d) rent based on profits;

"security" of a particular entity means any right, whether immediate or future and whether absolute or contingent, conferred by the particular entity or by an entity that is affiliated with the particular entity, to receive an amount that can reasonably be considered to be all or any part of the capital, of the revenue or of the income of the particular entity, or as interest paid or payable by the particular entity, and includes

(a) a liability of the particular entity;

(b) if the particular entity is a corporation,

i. a share of the capital stock of the corporation, and

ii. a right to control in any manner whatever the voting rights of a share of the capital stock of the corporation;

(c) if the particular entity is a trust, a capital or income interest in the particular entity;

(d) if the particular entity is a partnership, an interest as a member of the particular entity; and

(e) a right to, or to acquire, anything described in this paragraph and any of paragraphs a to d;

"SIFT entity", being a specified investment flow-through entity, means a SIFT trust or a SIFT partnership;

"SIFT partnership", being a specified investment flow-through partnership, for a taxation year, means a partnership other than an excluded subsidiary entity for the year that meets the following conditions at any time during the year:

(a) the partnership is a Canadian resident partnership;

(b) investments in the partnership are listed on a stock exchange or other public market or traded on such an exchange or other market; and

(c) the partnership holds one or more non-portfolio properties;

"SIFT partnership balance-due day" for a taxation year means the day, determined in accordance with section 1086R80 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act, on or before which the partnership return provided for in section 1086R78 of that Regulation is required to be filed for the year;

"SIFT trust", being a specified investment flow-through trust, for a taxation year means a trust (other than a real estate investment trust or an excluded subsidiary entity for the year) that meets the following conditions at any time during the year:

(a) the trust is resident in Canada;

(b) investments in the trust are listed on a stock exchange or other public market or traded on such an exchange or other market; and

(c) the trust holds one or more non-portfolio properties;

"subject entity" means a person or partnership that is

(a) a corporation resident in Canada;

(b) a trust resident in Canada;

(c) a Canadian resident partnership; or

(d) a person not resident in Canada, or a partnership that is not described in paragraph c, the principal source of income of which is one or any combination of sources in Canada;

"taxable distributions amount", of a SIFT trust for a taxation year, means the lesser of

(a) the taxable income for the year of the SIFT trust, determined under Part I, or, if the SIFT trust is not subject to taxation under Part I, the amount that would be its taxable income for the year if it were determined in accordance with Part I, on the assumption that its income is equal to the amount determined in its respect in accordance with paragraph b; and

(b) the amount determined by the formula

A/(1 - (B + C));

"taxable non-portfolio earnings" of a SIFT partnership, for a taxation year, means the lesser of

(a) the amount that would, if the SIFT partnership were a taxpayer for the purposes of Part I and if section 600 were read without reference to its paragraph d, be its income for the year as determined under section 28; and

(b) its non-portfolio earnings for the year;

"taxation year" means

(a) in the case of a partnership, a fiscal period within the meaning of Part I;

(b) in the case of a trust, a calendar year; and

(c) in any other case, a taxation year within the meaning of Part I;

"unaffiliated publicly-traded liability", of an entity at any time means a publicly-traded liability of the entity if, at that time the fair market value of all publicly-traded liabilities of the entity that are held at that time by persons or partnerships that are not affiliated with the entity is at least 90% of the fair market value of all publicly-traded liabilities of the entity.

In the formula in the definition of "taxable distributions amount" in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the SIFT trust's non-deductible distributions amount for the taxation year, within the meaning of section 663.4;

(b) B is the basic rate, expressed as a decimal fraction, that is determined in respect of the SIFT trust for the taxation year under the third paragraph of section 1129.71 or, if the SIFT trust has an establishment outside Québec in the year, the aggregate of the following rates:

i. that basic rate represented by the proportion that its business carried on in Québec is of the aggregate of its business carried on in Canada or in Québec and elsewhere, as that proportion would be determined under Chapters I and II of Title XXVII of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act if the SIFT trust were a corporation, and

ii. the provincial SIFT tax rate, within the meaning assigned by subsection 1 of section 248 of the Income Tax Act and expressed as a percentage, that would be applicable to the SIFT trust for the year if that definition applied in respect of the SIFT trust for that year and if section 414 of the Income Tax Regulations (C.R.C., c. 945) made under that Act were read without reference to its subsection 4; and

(c) C is the net corporate income tax rate, within the meaning assigned by subsection 1 of section 248 of the Income Tax Act for the taxation year.

Any amount deducted by a SIFT trust, in accordance with paragraph a of the definition of "taxable distributions amount" in the first paragraph, in computing the amount that would have been its taxable income for a taxation year in which it is not subject to tax under Part I, is deemed to have been deducted in computing its taxable income for the year for the purposes of Part I.

1129.70.1. The second paragraph applies to an entity for a taxation year in respect of an amount and another entity (in this section referred to as the "parent entity", "specified amount" and "source entity", respectively), if

(a) at any time in the taxation year the parent entity is affiliated with the source entity or holds securities of the source entity that are described in any of paragraphs a to c of the definition of "equity" in the first paragraph of section 1129.70 and have a fair market value that is greater than the amount that is 10% of the equity value of the source entity;

(b) the specified amount is included in computing the parent entity's determined gross revenue for the taxation year in respect of a security of the source entity held by the parent entity; and

(c) in the case of a source entity that is described in paragraph b of the definition of "qualified property" in the first paragraph of section 1129.70 in respect of the parent entity at each time during the taxation year at which the parent entity holds securities of the source entity, the specified amount cannot reasonably be considered to be derived from the source entity's determined gross revenue from maintaining, improving, leasing or managing immovable properties that are capital properties of the parent entity or of an entity of which the parent entity holds a share or an interest, including immovable properties that the parent entity, or an entity of which the parent entity holds a share or an interest, holds together with one or more other persons or partnerships.

For the purposes of the definition of "real estate investment trust" in the first paragraph of section 1129.70, the specified amount, to the extent that it can reasonably be considered to be derived from the source entity's determined gross revenue, is deemed to be included in the parent entity's determined gross revenue and to have the same character as that of the source entity and not any other character.

1129.70.2. For the purposes of the definition of "real estate investment trust" in the first paragraph of section 1129.70, the following rules apply:

(a) if an amount is included in the determined gross revenue of a trust for a taxation year and it results from an agreement that can reasonably be considered to have been made by the trust to reduce its risk from fluctuations in interest rates in respect of debt incurred by the trust to acquire or refinance immovable property, the amount is deemed to have the same character as the determined gross revenue in respect of the immovable property and not any other character; and

(b) where an immovable property is situated in a country other than Canada and either of the following amounts is included in the determined gross revenue of a trust for a taxation year, the amount is deemed to have the same character as the determined gross revenue in respect of the immovable property and not any other character:

i. the amount that is a gain from fluctuations in the value of the currency of that country relative to Canadian currency recognized on revenue in respect of the immovable property or debt incurred by the trust for the purpose of earning revenue in respect of the immovable property, or

ii. the amount that results from an agreement that provides for the purchase, sale or exchange of currency, and can reasonably be considered to have been made by the trust to reduce its risk from currency fluctuations described in subparagraph i.

2017, c. 1, s. 386; 2020, c. 16, s. 187.

1129.71. A SIFT entity for a taxation year that has an establishment in Québec at any time in the year shall pay tax under this Part that is equal to the amount determined by the formula

$A \times B$.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is

i. if the SIFT entity is a SIFT trust for the year, its taxable distributions amount for the year, or

ii. if the SIFT entity is a SIFT partnership for the year, the taxable non-portfolio earnings of the partnership for the year; and

(b) B is the basic rate determined in respect of the entity for the year under the third paragraph.

For the purposes of subparagraph b of the second paragraph, the basic rate that must be determined in respect of a SIFT entity for a taxation year is equal to

(a) if the taxation year begins before 1 January 2009, the total of

i. the proportion of 9.9% that the number of days in the taxation year that follow 31 December 2006 but precede 1 June 2007 is of the number of days in the taxation year,

ii. the proportion of 11.9% if the SIFT entity would be a financial institution or an oil refining corporation, within the meaning of section 771.1, if it were a corporation, or of 9.9% in any other case, that the number of days in the taxation year that follow 31 May 2007 but precede 1 January 2008 is of the number of days in the taxation year,

iii. the proportion of 11.9% if the SIFT entity would be a financial institution or an oil refining corporation, within the meaning of section 771.1, if it were a corporation, or of 11.4% in any other case, that the number of days in the taxation year that follow 31 December 2007 but precede 1 January 2009 is of the number of days in the taxation year, and

iv. the proportion of 11.9% that the number of days in the taxation year that follow 31 December 2008 is of the number of days in the taxation year;

(b) if the taxation year begins after 31 December 2008 and ends before 1 January 2017, 11.9%; and

(c) if the taxation year ends after 31 December 2016, the total of

i. the proportion of 11.9% that the number of days in the taxation year that precede 1 January 2017 is of the number of days in the taxation year,

ii. the proportion of 11.8% that the number of days in the taxation year that follow 31 December 2016 but precede 1 January 2018 is of the number of days in the taxation year,

iii. the proportion of 11.7% that the number of days in the taxation year that follow 31 December 2017 but precede 1 January 2019 is of the number of days in the taxation year,

iv. the proportion of 11.6% that the number of days in the taxation year that follow 31 December 2018 but precede 1 January 2020 is of the number of days in the taxation year, and

v. the proportion of 11.5% that the number of days in the taxation year that follow 31 December 2019 is of the number of days in the taxation year.

If a SIFT entity referred to in the first paragraph has an establishment outside Québec in the year, its tax payable under this Part for the year is equal to the portion of that tax otherwise determined that is the proportion that the business it carries on in Québec is of the entire business it carries on in Canada or in Québec and elsewhere, as it would be determined under Chapters I and II of Title XXVII of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1), if the SIFT entity were a corporation.

For the purposes of this Part, a SIFT entity for a taxation year that has non-portfolio properties for the year is deemed to carry on a business in respect of those non-portfolio properties.

2009, c. 5, s. 534; 2009, c. 15, s. 425; 2017, c. 1, s. 387.

1129.72. This Part applies without reference to section 603.1.

2009, c. 5, s. 534.

1129.73. Every member of a SIFT partnership that is liable to pay tax under this Part for a taxation year shall—on or before the day, determined in accordance with section 1086R80 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1), on which the partnership return provided for in section 1086R78 of that Regulation is required to be filed for the year—file with the Minister a return for the year in the prescribed form containing an estimate of the amount of tax payable by the partnership under this Part for the year.

1129.74. For the purposes of section 1129.73, a return filed with the Minister by a particular member of a partnership who has the authority to act on its behalf, in relation to a taxation year of the partnership, is deemed to have been filed with the Minister by each member of the partnership for the year if the particular member has filed the return for the year in accordance with this Part.

In those circumstances, a return filed with the Minister by another member of the partnership for the year is deemed not to be valid and not to have been filed by a member of the partnership.

2009, c. 5, s. 534; 2015, c. 21, s. 526.

1129.75. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, Book I of Part I and sections 647, 1000 to 1024, 1027 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part and, for the purpose of applying this Part to a SIFT entity that is a SIFT partnership,

(a) the notice of assessment referred to in section 1008 in respect of tax payable under this Part is valid despite the fact that a partnership is not a person; and

(b) despite section 1010, the Minister may at any time make an assessment or reassessment of tax payable under this Part or Part I to give effect to a determination made by the Minister under section 1007.1, including an assessment or reassessment of tax payable under Part I in respect of the disposition of an interest in a SIFT partnership by a member of the partnership.

2009, c. 5, s. 534; 2010, c. 25, s. 220; 2017, c. 1, s. 388.

1129.76. A SIFT partnership shall pay to the Minister its tax payable under this Part for a taxation year on or before its SIFT partnership balance-due day for the year.

2009, c. 5, s. 534.

PART III.18

TAX ON PROPERTY INCOME OF SPECIFIED TRUSTS FROM THE RENTAL OF SPECIFIED IMMOVABLES

2013, c. 10, s. 173.

1129.77. In this Part,

"specified immovable" means an immovable property situated in Québec that is used principally for the purpose of earning or producing gross revenue that is rent;

"specified trust" for a taxation year means an inter vivos trust that was not resident, nor is deemed under paragraph a of section 595 to have been resident, in Canada at any time in the year and that is not exempt from tax payable under Part I because of Book VIII of that Part;

"taxation year" means a calendar year or, if applicable, the period determined in accordance with paragraph a.1 of section 785.1 or subparagraph a.0.1 of the first paragraph of section 785.2.

1129.78. A specified trust for a taxation year that, at any time in the year, owns a specified immovable or is a member of a partnership that owns a specified immovable shall pay a tax under this Part for the year that is equal to the product obtained by multiplying 4.47% by the property income of the specified trust from the rental of specified immovables for the year.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, each member of a partnership, at any time, is deemed to be a member of another partnership of which the first partnership is a member at that time.

2013, c. 10, s. 173; 2015, c. 21, s. 527; 2017, c. 29, s. 217.

1129.79. For the purposes of section 1129.78, the property income of a specified trust from the rental of specified immovables for a taxation year means the amount by which the amount that is the trust's income for the year from the rental of a specified immovable computed under Titles III and XI of Book III of Part I, except to the extent that the income is otherwise included under subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1089 in computing the trust's income earned in Québec for the year, exceeds the amount that is the trust's loss for the year from the rental of a specified immovable computed under those Titles III and XI, except to the extent that the loss is otherwise taken into consideration under subparagraph i of the first paragraph of section 1089 in computing the trust's income earned in Québec for the year or could be so taken into consideration if the trust had sufficient income for that purpose.

2013, c. 10, s. 173.

1129.80. For the purposes of section 1129.79, in computing the property income of a specified trust from the rental of specified immovables owned by the trust for a taxation year, a trust that becomes resident in Canada at a particular time is deemed to dispose, at the time (in this section referred to as the "time of disposition") immediately preceding the end of the trust's taxation year that ends immediately before the particular time, of each specified immovable then owned by the trust for proceeds of disposition equal to its fair market value at the time of disposition.

2013, c. 10, s. 173.

1129.81. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, Book I of Part I, sections 647, 1000 to 1014, 1026 to 1026.1 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2013, c. 10, s. 173.

1130.1. For the purposes of this Part, a corporation is associated with another corporation where it is associated, within the meaning of sections 21.20 to 21.25 and 781.1, with the other corporation.

2003, c. 9, s. 417.

1130.2. In this Part, where a Minister other than the Minister of Revenue or a body replaces or revokes a certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document that has been issued to a person or a partnership, the following rules apply in respect of the document, unless a more specific similar rule applies to it:

(a) the replaced document is null as of the date of its coming into force or of its deemed coming into force and the new document is deemed, unless it provides otherwise, to come into force as of that date and to have been issued at the time the replaced document was issued or is deemed to have been issued; and

(b) the revoked document is null as of the effective date of the revocation and is deemed not to have been issued, obtained or held as of that date.

Where a document is, without being replaced, amended by the revocation or replacement of any of its parts or in any other manner, the document before the amendment and the document as amended are deemed, for the purposes of this section, to be separate documents the first of which (referred to as the "replaced document") has been replaced by the second (referred to as the "new document").

Where, in the circumstances described in the second paragraph, a document is amended only for a part of its period of validity, the new document is deemed to describe both the situation prevailing before the amendment, as proven by the content of the replaced document, and the new situation, as proven by the content of the new document.

BOOK II

LIABILITY FOR AND AMOUNT OF THE TAX

1972, c. 23; 1979, c. 38, s. 27.

1131. Any corporation having an establishment in Québec at any time in a taxation year shall pay, in respect of that year, a tax on its paid-up capital shown in its financial statements for the year or, in the case of an authorized foreign bank, on its paid-up capital for the year.

1972, c. 23, s. 844; 1973, c. 17, s. 134; 1979, c. 38, s. 27; 1995, c. 1, s. 193; 1995, c. 63, s. 238; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2004, c. 8, s. 206.

1132. The tax payable by a corporation in respect of each taxation year is equal,

(a) in the case of a bank, a savings and credit union, a loan corporation, a trust corporation or a corporation trading in securities, to the amount obtained by applying the rate determined in its respect for the year under section 1132.4 to its paid-up capital;

(b) (paragraph repealed);

(c) in the case of any other corporation, except a corporation that is an insurer within the meaning assigned by the Insurers Act (chapter A-32.1), a cooperative, or a mining corporation that has not reached the production stage, to the amount obtained by applying the rate determined in its respect for the year under section 1132.5 to its paid-up capital.

1972, c. 23, s. 845; 1972, c. 26, s. 79; 1979, c. 38, s. 27; 1980, c. 13, s. 108; 1981, c. 12, s. 14; 1982, c. 26, s. 303; 1982, c. 56, s. 26; 1983, c. 20, s. 6; 1983, c. 44, s. 45; 1992, c. 1, s. 205; 1993, c. 64, s. 192; 1995, c. 63, s. 239; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1997, c. 14, s. 270; 1999, c. 83, s. 256; 2000, c. 39, s. 245; 2003, c. 9, s. 418; 2005, c. 38, s. 312; 2018, c. 23, s. 811.

1132.1. (Repealed).

1987, c. 21, s. 88; 1990, c. 7, s. 208; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2000, c. 39, s. 246.

1132.2. (Repealed).

1990, c. 7, s. 209; 1991, c. 8, s. 95; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2000, c. 39, s. 246.

1132.3. (Repealed).

1991, c. 8, s. 96; 1992, c. 1, s. 206; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2000, c. 39, s. 246.

1132.4. The rate referred to in paragraph a of section 1132 in respect of a corporation for a taxation year that begins before 1 January 2011 is equal to

(a) if the taxation year begins and ends in the same calendar year, the base percentage for that calendar year; and

(b) if subparagraph a does not apply, the total of the percentages each of which is the proportion of the base percentage for a calendar year that the number of days in the taxation year that are included in that calendar year is of the number of days in the taxation year.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the base percentage for a calendar year is equal to

(a) 1.2%, for the calendar year 2005;

(b) 1.05%, for the calendar year 2006;

(c) 0.98%, for the calendar year 2007;

(d) 0.72%, for the calendar year 2008;

(e) 0.48%, for the calendar year 2009; and

(f) 0.24%, for the calendar year 2010.

2005, c. 38, s. 313; 2009, c. 5, s. 536.

1132.5. The rate referred to in paragraph c of section 1132 in respect of a corporation for a taxation year that begins before 1 January 2011 is equal to

(a) if the taxation year begins and ends in the same calendar year, the base percentage for that calendar year; and

(b) if subparagraph a does not apply, the total of the percentages each of which is the proportion of the base percentage for a calendar year that the number of days in the taxation year that are included in that calendar year is of the number of days in the taxation year.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the base percentage for a calendar year is equal to

(a) 0.6%, for the calendar year 2005;

(b) 0.525%, for the calendar year 2006;

(c) 0.49%, for the calendar year 2007;

(d) 0.36%, for the calendar year 2008;

(e) 0.24%, for the calendar year 2009; and

(f) 0.12%, for the calendar year 2010.

2005, c. 38, s. 313; 2009, c. 5, s. 537.

1133. Where a corporation contemplated in section 1131 has an establishment situated outside Québec, the tax payable by that corporation is equal to that part of the tax established pursuant to section 1132 represented by the ratio between the business carried on by it in Québec and the aggregate of the business carried on by it in Canada or in Québec and elsewhere, as determined by regulation.

1972, c. 23, s. 846; 1979, c. 38, s. 27; 1987, c. 21, s. 89; 1992, c. 1, s. 207; 1995, c. 1, s. 199; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1134. Where the taxation year of a corporation covers a period of less than three hundred and fifty-nine days, that corporation must pay the tax otherwise established in the proportion that the number of days in its taxation year is to three hundred and sixty-five.

1972, c. 23, s. 847; 1973, c. 18, s. 33; 1979, c. 38, s. 27; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1135. In no case may the tax payable by a corporation, other than a corporation referred to in subparagraph d, that is a farming corporation or a corporation whose activities consist mainly in carrying on a fishing business be less than $125, or the tax payable by another corporation that is not one of the following corporations be less than $250:

(a) (subparagraph repealed);

(b) (subparagraph repealed);

(c) a corporation referred to in section 61 of the Act respecting international financial centres (chapter C-8.3);

(d) a corporation whose activities in the taxation year, and those of any partnership of which the corporation is a member, in the fiscal period of that partnership that ends in the taxation year, consist solely in carrying on eligible activities of a recognized business carried on by the corporation in the taxation year or by the partnership in the fiscal period, during any of the following periods:

i. the eligibility period of the corporation or partnership, as the case may be, in respect of a major investment project relating to the recognized business,

ii. the base period applicable to the corporation or partnership, as the case may be, in respect of those eligible activities, or

iii. the exemption period applicable to the corporation in respect of those eligible activities; and

(e) a tax-exempt corporation under sections 1143 and 1144.

However, the first paragraph applies to a corporation only if the corporation is referred to in paragraph a of section 1132 or prescribed for the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1143 and if its taxation year begins before 1 January 2011.

1972, c. 23, s. 848; 1972, c. 26, s. 80; 1973, c. 17, s. 135; 1979, c. 38, s. 27; 1986, c. 15, s. 199; 1987, c. 21, s. 90; 1990, c. 7, s. 210; 1991, c. 8, s. 97; 1992, c. 1, s. 208; 1993, c. 64, s. 193; 1995, c. 63, s. 240; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1997, c. 14, s. 271; 1999, c. 86, s. 90; 2000, c. 39, s. 247; 2002, c. 9, s. 130; 2003, c. 9, s. 419; 2009, c. 5, s. 538.

1135.1. If a corporation to which Title I of Book III applies is the owner at the end of a particular taxation year of a property described in any of sections 1135.3 to 1135.3.1 that the corporation acquired in that year, or is a member of a partnership at the end of a particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the corporation's particular taxation year and at that time the partnership is the owner of a property described in any of sections 1135.3 to 1135.3.1 that the partnership acquired in that particular fiscal period, the corporation may deduct from its tax otherwise payable under this Part for the particular taxation year a particular amount equal to the aggregate of

(a) 5% of the aggregate of

i. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the aggregate of the costs incurred by the corporation in the particular taxation year to acquire such property described in section 1135.3, except an amount incurred with a person with whom the corporation or a specified shareholder of the corporation does not deal at arm's length, that are related to a business carried on by the corporation in the particular year in Québec, other than a recognized business in connection with which a major investment project is carried out or is in the process of being carried out, and that are included, at the end of that year, in the capital cost of the property, to the extent that those costs are paid, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance, attributable to such costs, that the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive on or before the corporation's filing-due date for that particular year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the corporation's share of the amount by which the aggregate of the costs incurred by the partnership in the particular fiscal period to acquire such property described in section 1135.3, except an amount incurred with a person with whom a corporation that is a member of the partnership or a specified shareholder of that corporation does not deal at arm's length, that are related to a business carried on by the partnership in the particular fiscal period in Québec, other than a recognized business in connection with which a major investment project is carried out or is in the process of being carried out, and that are included, at the end of that particular fiscal period, in the capital cost of the property, to the extent that those costs are paid, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance, attributable to such costs, that the partnership has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive on or before the day that is six months after the end of that particular fiscal period, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance, attributable to such costs, that the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive on or before the day that is six months after the end of that particular fiscal period;

(a.1) 10% of the aggregate of

i. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the aggregate of the costs incurred by the corporation in the particular taxation year to acquire such a property described in section 1135.3.0.1, except an amount incurred with a person with whom the corporation or a specified shareholder of the corporation does not deal at arm's length, that are related to a business carried on by the corporation in the particular year in Québec, other than a recognized business in connection with which a major investment project is carried out or is in the process of being carried out, and that are included, at the end of that year, in the capital cost of the property, to the extent that those costs are paid, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance, attributable to such costs, that the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive on or before the corporation's filing-due date for that particular year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the corporation's share of the amount by which the aggregate of the costs incurred by the partnership in the particular fiscal period to acquire such a property described in section 1135.3.0.1, except an amount incurred with a person with whom a corporation that is a member of the partnership or a specified shareholder of that corporation does not deal at arm's length, that are related to a business carried on by the partnership in the particular fiscal period in Québec, other than a recognized business in connection with which a major investment project is carried out or is in the process of being carried out, and that are included, at the end of that particular fiscal period, in the capital cost of the property, to the extent that those costs are paid, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance, attributable to such costs, that the partnership has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive on or before the day that is six months after the end of that particular fiscal period, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance, attributable to such costs, that the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive on or before the day that is six months after the end of that particular fiscal period; and

(b) 15% of the aggregate of

i. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the aggregate of the costs incurred by the corporation in the particular taxation year to acquire such property described in section 1135.3.1, except an amount incurred with a person with whom the corporation or a specified shareholder of the corporation does not deal at arm's length, that are related to a business carried on by the corporation in the particular year in Québec, other than a recognized business in connection with which a major investment project is carried out or is in the process of being carried out, and that are included, at the end of that year, in the capital cost of the property, to the extent that those costs are paid, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance, attributable to such costs, that the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive on or before the corporation's filing-due date for that particular year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the corporation's share of the amount by which the aggregate of the costs incurred by the partnership in the particular fiscal period to acquire such property described in section 1135.3.1, except an amount incurred with a person with whom a corporation that is a member of the partnership or a specified shareholder of that corporation does not deal at arm's length, that are related to a business carried on by the partnership in the particular fiscal period in Québec, other than a recognized business in connection with which a major investment project is carried out or is in the process of being carried out, and that are included, at the end of that particular fiscal period, in the capital cost of the property, to the extent that those costs are paid, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance, attributable to such costs, that the partnership has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive on or before the day that is six months after the end of that particular fiscal period, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance, attributable to such costs, that the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive on or before the day that is six months after the end of that particular fiscal period.

For the purpose of computing the payments that a corporation referred to in the first paragraph is required to make under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1027, or any of sections 1145, 1159.7, 1175 and 1175.19 if they refer to that subparagraph a, the following rules apply:

(a) the corporation shall estimate its tax payable for the particular taxation year under this Part as if that tax were computed without reference to the first paragraph; and

(b) the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the aggregate of its tax payable for the particular taxation year under Part I and of its tax payable for the particular year under this Part and Parts IV.1, VI and VI.1, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

i. the amount by which the amount determined in accordance with the first paragraph for the particular year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the particular year but before that date, and

ii. the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I and this section, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under that Chapter III.1, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the costs that are included, at the end of a taxation year or fiscal period, in the capital cost of a property do not include the costs so included under section 180 or 182.

1135.2. A corporation to which Title I of Book III applies may deduct from its tax otherwise payable under this Part for a particular taxation year, determined before the application of section 1135.1, an amount not exceeding the amount by which the balance of the amount that the corporation has not deducted under the first paragraph of section 1135.1, in respect of the costs referred to in that paragraph, for any given taxation year preceding the particular year, otherwise than because of the application of section 1135.8 or 1135.8.1, in this section referred to as the "particular balance", exceeds any amount deducted under this section, in respect of those costs, for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

However, the amount that the corporation may deduct under the first paragraph, in respect of the costs referred to in that paragraph and incurred by the corporation or by a partnership of which it was a member at the end of the fiscal period of the partnership ending in the given taxation year, must be reduced by the amount determined under the third paragraph if

(a) in the particular year or a preceding taxation year, an amount relating to the costs incurred by the corporation, other than an amount having reduced the amount of those costs in accordance with any of subparagraphs a to b of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 or section 1135.4, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation; or

(b) in a fiscal period of a partnership ending in the particular year or in a preceding taxation year and at the end of which the corporation is a member of that partnership, an amount relating to the costs incurred by that partnership, other than an amount having reduced the amount of those costs, or the corporation's share of the amount of those costs, in accordance with any of subparagraphs a to b of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 or section 1135.4, is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The amount to which the second paragraph refers is the amount by which the particular balance exceeds the amount that would be the amount of the particular balance if

(a) any amount referred to in subparagraph a or b of the second paragraph that is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation were directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation in the given taxation year; and

(b) any amount referred to in subparagraph b of the second paragraph that is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to a partnership referred to in that subparagraph b or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership were directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership in the partnership's fiscal period ending in the given taxation year.

If, in respect of the costs referred to in the first paragraph, a person other than the corporation, or a partnership other than the particular partnership that incurred those costs, has obtained, at a particular time, a benefit or advantage that would have reduced those costs in accordance with section 1135.4 if the person or partnership had obtained it, had been entitled to obtain it or could reasonably have expected to obtain it on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the given taxation year, or on or before the day that is six months after the end of the fiscal period of the particular partnership that ends in the given taxation year, the benefit or advantage is, for the purposes of the second and third paragraphs,

(a) if those costs were incurred by the corporation, deemed to be an amount that is paid to the corporation at that time; or

(b) if those costs were incurred by the particular partnership, deemed to be

i. an amount that is paid to the particular partnership at that time, when the benefit or advantage has been obtained by another partnership or by a person other than the person referred to in subparagraph ii, or

ii. an amount that is paid to the corporation at that time, when the benefit or advantage has been obtained by a person with whom the corporation is not dealing at arm's length.

2005, c. 38, s. 314; 2006, c. 36, s. 252; 2007, c. 12, s. 278; 2009, c. 5, s. 540.

1135.3. The property to which the first paragraph of section 1135.1 refers is a property included in Class 29 of Schedule B to the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1), if the property is acquired after 18 March 2007, or in Class 43 of that Schedule in any other case, other than a property described in section 1135.3.0.1 or 1135.3.1, that

(a) is acquired after 21 April 2005, but is not a property acquired pursuant to an obligation in writing entered into before 22 April 2005 or the construction of which, if applicable, by or on behalf of the purchaser, had begun by 21 April 2005, nor any other property acquired after 13 March 2008 that is not a property acquired pursuant to an obligation in writing entered into before 14 March 2008 or the construction of which, if applicable, by or on behalf of the purchaser, had begun by 13 March 2008;

(b) begins to be used within a reasonable time after being acquired;

(c) is used solely in Québec and mainly in the course of carrying on a business; and

(d) was not, before its acquisition, used for any purpose or acquired to be used or leased for any purpose whatever.

2005, c. 38, s. 314; 2006, c. 36, s. 253; 2009, c. 5, s. 541; 2009, c. 15, s. 428; 2011, c. 6, s. 221.

1135.3.0.1. The property to which the first paragraph of section 1135.1 and section 1135.3 refer is a property included in Class 29 of Schedule B to the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1), if the property is acquired after 18 March 2007, or in Class 43 of that Schedule in any other case, other than a property described in section 1135.3.1, that

(a) is acquired after 20 February 2007, but is not a property acquired pursuant to an obligation in writing entered into before 21 February 2007 or the construction of which, if applicable, by or on behalf of the purchaser, had begun by 20 February 2007, nor any other property acquired after 13 March 2008 that is not a property acquired pursuant to an obligation in writing entered into before 14 March 2008 or the construction of which, if applicable, by or on behalf of the purchaser, had begun by 13 March 2008;

(b) begins to be used within a reasonable time after being acquired;

(c) is used solely in Québec and mainly in the course of carrying on a business; and

(d) was not, before its acquisition, used for any purpose or acquired to be used or leased for any purpose whatever.

2009, c. 5, s. 542; 2009, c. 15, s. 429; 2011, c. 6, s. 222.

1135.3.1. The property to which the first paragraph of section 1135.1 and sections 1135.3 and 1135.3.0.1 refer is a property included in Class 29 of Schedule B to the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1), if the property is acquired after 18 March 2007, or in Class 43 of that Schedule in any other case, that

(a) is a property acquired after 23 March 2006 (other than a property described in paragraph b, a property acquired pursuant to an obligation in writing entered into before 24 March 2006 or the construction of which, if applicable, by or on behalf of the purchaser, had begun by 23 March 2006, or any other property acquired after 13 March 2008 that is not a property acquired pursuant to an obligation in writing entered into before 14 March 2008 or the construction of which, if applicable, by or on behalf of the purchaser, had begun by 13 March 2008) and that

i. begins to be used within a reasonable time after being acquired,

ii. is used solely in Québec in the course of carrying on a business and mainly in

(1) sawmill and wood preservation activities included in the group described under code 3211 of the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) Canada, as amended from time to time and published by Statistics Canada,

(2) activities involved in the manufacturing of veneer, plywood and engineered wood products included in the group described under code 3212 of the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) Canada, as amended from time to time and published by Statistics Canada, excluding activities involved in the manufacturing of structural wood products included in the class described under code 321215 of that publication, or

(3) activities relating to pulp, paper and paperboard mills included in the group described under code 3221 of the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) Canada, as amended from time to time and published by Statistics Canada, and

iii. was not, before its acquisition, used for any purpose or acquired to be used or leased for any purpose whatever; or

(b) is a property acquired after 23 November 2007 (other than a property acquired pursuant to an obligation in writing entered into before 24 November 2007 or the construction of which, if applicable, by or on behalf of the purchaser, had begun by 23 November 2007, or any other property acquired after 13 March 2008 that is not a property acquired pursuant to an obligation in writing entered into before 14 March 2008 or the construction of which, if applicable, by or on behalf of the purchaser, had begun by 13 March 2008) and that

i. begins to be used within a reasonable time after being acquired,

ii. is used solely in Québec and mainly in the course of carrying on a business, and

iii. was not, before its acquisition, used for any purpose or acquired to be used or leased for any purpose whatever.

2006, c. 36, s. 254; 2009, c. 5, s. 543; 2009, c. 15, s. 430; 2011, c. 6, s. 223.

1135.4. If, in respect of costs incurred by a particular corporation or a particular partnership to acquire a property described in any of sections 1135.3 to 1135.3.1, a person or a partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain a benefit or advantage, other than a benefit or advantage that may reasonably be attributed to the acquisition of that property, whether in the form of a reimbursement, compensation or guarantee, in the form of proceeds of disposition of a property which exceed the fair market value of the property, or in any other form or manner, the following rules apply:

(a) for the purpose of computing the amount that the particular corporation may deduct in computing its tax otherwise payable under the first paragraph of section 1135.1 for a particular taxation year, the amount determined in accordance with subparagraph i of any of subparagraphs a to b of that first paragraph, in respect of the particular corporation for the particular year, in relation to those costs, is to be reduced by the amount of that benefit or advantage that the person or partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain on or before the particular corporation's filing-due date for the particular year; and

(b) for the purpose of computing the amount that the particular corporation may deduct in computing its tax otherwise payable under the first paragraph of section 1135.1 for a particular taxation year, if the particular corporation is a member of the particular partnership at the end of the fiscal period of the particular partnership that ends in the particular year, the amount determined in accordance with subparagraph ii of any of subparagraphs a to b of that first paragraph, in respect of the particular corporation for the particular year, in relation to those costs, is to be reduced

i. by its share, for that fiscal period, of the amount of that benefit or advantage, relating to those costs, that the person, other than a person referred to in subparagraph ii, or the partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain on or before the day that is six months after the end of that fiscal period, and

ii. by the amount of that benefit or advantage, relating to those costs, that the particular corporation or a person with which it does not deal at arm's length has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain on or before the day that is six months after the end of that fiscal period;

(c) (paragraph repealed).

1135.5. For the purposes of sections 1135.1, 1135.2, 1135.4 and 1135.7.3, the share of a corporation or partnership that is a member of a particular partnership, for a fiscal period of that particular partnership, of an amount is equal to the agreed proportion of the amount in respect of the corporation or partnership for that fiscal period.

2005, c. 38, s. 314; 2007, c. 12, s. 280; 2009, c. 15, s. 431.

1135.6. If a corporation pays at a particular time in a taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, a particular amount, in relation to costs incurred to acquire a property described in section 1135.3, that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of an amount of assistance referred to in subparagraph i or ii of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 that, for the purpose of determining the amount that the corporation could deduct, in respect of those costs, in computing its tax otherwise payable for a preceding taxation year under this Part, reduced the amount determined, in respect of the corporation, under that subparagraph i or ii, the following rules apply:

(a) the particular amount is deemed, for the purposes of sections 1135.1 to 1135.12, to have been paid at the particular time by the corporation as costs to acquire, in the year, a property of which the corporation is the owner at the end of the year and that meets the conditions set out in section 1135.3; and

(b) the costs referred to in paragraph a are deemed to be related to a business that the corporation carries on in the year in Québec and included, at the end of that year, in the capital cost of the property.

1135.6.0.1. If a corporation pays at a particular time in a taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, a particular amount, in relation to costs incurred to acquire a property described in section 1135.3.0.1, that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of an amount of assistance referred to in subparagraph i or ii of subparagraph a.1 of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 that, for the purpose of determining the amount that the corporation could deduct, in respect of those costs, in computing its tax otherwise payable for a preceding taxation year under this Part, reduced the amount determined, in respect of the corporation, under that subparagraph i or ii, the following rules apply:

(a) the particular amount is deemed, for the purposes of sections 1135.1 to 1135.12, to have been paid at the particular time by the corporation as costs to acquire, in the year, a property of which the corporation is the owner at the end of the year and that meets the conditions set out in section 1135.3.0.1; and

(b) the costs referred to in paragraph a are deemed to be related to a business that the corporation carries on in the year in Québec and included, at the end of that year, in the capital cost of the property.

1135.6.1. If a corporation pays at a particular time in a taxation year, pursuant to a legal obligation, a particular amount, in relation to costs incurred to acquire a property described in section 1135.3.1, that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of an amount of assistance referred to in subparagraph i or ii of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 that, for the purpose of determining the amount that the corporation could deduct, in respect of those costs, in computing its tax otherwise payable for a preceding taxation year under this Part, reduced the amount determined, in respect of the corporation, under that subparagraph i or ii, the following rules apply:

(a) the particular amount is deemed, for the purposes of sections 1135.1 to 1135.12, to have been paid at the particular time by the corporation as costs to acquire, in the year, a property of which the corporation is the owner at the end of the year and that meets the conditions set out in section 1135.3.1; and

(b) the costs referred to in subparagraph a are deemed to be related to a business that the corporation carries on in the year in Québec and included, at the end of that year, in the capital cost of the property.

1135.7. If a partnership pays at a particular time in a particular fiscal period, pursuant to a legal obligation, a particular amount, in relation to costs incurred to acquire a property described in section 1135.3, that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of an amount of assistance referred to in subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 that, for the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation that is a member of the partnership could deduct, in respect of those costs, in computing its tax otherwise payable under this Part for a taxation year in which ends a fiscal period of the partnership that precedes the particular fiscal period, reduced the amount determined, in respect of the corporation, under that subparagraph ii, the following rules apply:

(a) the particular amount is deemed, for the purposes of sections 1135.1 to 1135.12, to have been paid at the particular time by the partnership as costs to acquire, in the particular fiscal period, a property of which the partnership is the owner at the end of that particular fiscal period and that meets the conditions set out in section 1135.3; and

(b) the costs referred to in paragraph a are deemed to be related to a business that the partnership carries on in the particular fiscal period in Québec and included, at the end of that fiscal period, in the capital cost of the property.

1135.7.0.1. If a partnership pays at a particular time in a particular fiscal period, pursuant to a legal obligation, a particular amount, in relation to costs incurred to acquire a property described in section 1135.3.0.1, that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of an amount of assistance referred to in subparagraph ii of subparagraph a.1 of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 that, for the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation that is a member of the partnership could deduct, in respect of those costs, in computing its tax otherwise payable under this Part for a taxation year in which ends a fiscal period of the partnership that precedes the particular fiscal period, reduced the amount determined, in respect of the corporation, under that subparagraph ii, the following rules apply:

(a) the particular amount is deemed, for the purposes of sections 1135.1 to 1135.12, to have been paid at the particular time by the partnership as costs to acquire, in the particular fiscal period, a property of which the partnership is the owner at the end of that particular fiscal period and that meets the conditions set out in section 1135.3.0.1; and

(b) the costs referred to in paragraph a are deemed to be related to a business that the partnership carries on in the particular fiscal period in Québec and included, at the end of that fiscal period, in the capital cost of the property.

2009, c. 5, s. 549.

1135.7.1. If a partnership pays at a particular time in a particular fiscal period, pursuant to a legal obligation, a particular amount, in relation to costs incurred to acquire a property described in section 1135.3.1, that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of an amount of assistance referred to in subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 that, for the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation that is a member of the partnership could deduct, in respect of those costs, in computing its tax otherwise payable under this Part for a taxation year in which ends a fiscal period of the partnership that precedes the particular fiscal period, reduced the amount determined, in respect of the corporation, under that subparagraph ii, the following rules apply:

(a) the particular amount is deemed, for the purposes of sections 1135.1 to 1135.12, to have been paid at the particular time by the partnership as costs to acquire, in the particular fiscal period, a property of which the partnership is the owner at the end of that particular fiscal period and that meets the conditions set out in section 1135.3.1; and

(b) the costs referred to in subparagraph a are deemed to be related to a business that the partnership carries on in the particular fiscal period in Québec and included, at the end of that fiscal period, in the capital cost of the property.

1135.7.2. For the purposes of sections 1135.6 to 1135.7.1, an amount of assistance is deemed to be repaid by a corporation or partnership at a particular time, pursuant to a legal obligation, if that amount

(a) reduced the amount determined in accordance with subparagraph i or ii of any of subparagraphs a to b of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 for the purpose of determining the amount that the corporation or a corporation that is a member of the partnership could deduct, in respect of the costs referred to in that first paragraph, in computing its tax otherwise payable for a taxation year under this Part;

(b) was not received by the corporation or partnership; and

(c) ceased at that time to be an amount that the corporation or partnership may reasonably expect to receive.

2007, c. 12, s. 285; 2009, c. 5, s. 551.

1135.7.3. If a particular partnership is a member of another partnership at the end of a fiscal period of that other partnership in which that other partnership has incurred costs referred to in subparagraph ii of any of subparagraphs a to b of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 to acquire a property referred to in that subparagraph ii of which it is the owner at that time, the particular partnership is deemed, for the purposes of sections 1135.1 to 1135.12 and Part VI.1.1 in respect of those costs, to have also acquired, in the course of carrying on a business in Québec, the property in the fiscal period of the particular partnership in which the fiscal period of the other partnership ends or the end of which coincides with the end of the fiscal period of the other partnership, and to be the owner of the property at the end of that fiscal period, and

(a) to have incurred and paid in a particular fiscal period its share of the amounts or costs incurred and paid by the other partnership in its fiscal period that ends in the particular fiscal period or the end of which coincides with the end of the particular fiscal period; and

(b) to have received, to be entitled to receive or to reasonably expect to receive in a particular fiscal period, its share of the amounts that the other partnership has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the day that is six months after the end of the fiscal period of the other partnership that ends in that particular fiscal period or the end of which coincides with the end of the particular fiscal period.

2007, c. 12, s. 285; 2009, c. 5, s. 552.

1135.8. No amount may be deducted by a corporation, for a taxation year, under sections 1135.1 and 1135.2, in relation to a property described in section 1135.3 or 1135.3.0.1 or paragraph b of section 1135.3.1, in respect of costs incurred to acquire the property, if, at any time before the day after the day that is the end of the period of 730 days following the beginning of the use of the property by the first purchaser or by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired the property in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1) applies, or, if it precedes the day that is the end of that period, the corporation's filing-due date, for that taxation year, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of the loss or involuntary destruction of the property by fire, theft or water or of a major breakdown of the property, to be used solely in Québec to earn income from a business carried on

(a) by the first purchaser of the property and if that time is also in the portion of that period in which the first purchaser owns the property; or

(b) by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired the property in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act applies, and if that time is also in the portion of that period in which the subsequent purchaser owns the property.

2005, c. 38, s. 314; 2006, c. 36, s. 260; 2009, c. 5, s. 553; 2009, c. 15, s. 432.

1135.8.1. No amount may be deducted by a corporation, for a taxation year, under sections 1135.1 and 1135.2, in relation to a property described in paragraph a of section 1135.3.1, in respect of costs incurred to acquire the property, if, at any time before the day after the day that is the end of the period of 730 days following the beginning of the use of the property by the first purchaser or by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired the property in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1) applies, or, if it precedes the day that is the end of that period, the corporation's filing-due date, for that taxation year, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of the loss or involuntary destruction of the property by fire, theft or water or of a major breakdown of the property, to be used solely in Québec in connection with the activities, described in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 1135.3.1, of a business carried on

(a) by the first purchaser of the property and if that time is also in the portion of that period in which the first purchaser owns the property; or

(b) by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired the property in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act applies, and if that time is also in the portion of that period in which the subsequent purchaser owns the property.

2006, c. 36, s. 261; 2009, c. 5, s. 554; 2009, c. 15, s. 433.

1135.9. If, at any time, control of a corporation is acquired by a person or group of persons, no amount may be deducted by the corporation, under section 1135.2, in computing its tax otherwise payable under this Part for a taxation year ending after that time.

However, the corporation may deduct, under section 1135.2, from its tax otherwise payable under this Part for a particular taxation year ending after that time, the balance of the amount the corporation has not deducted, under section 1135.1, for a taxation year ending before that time, otherwise than because of the application of section 1135.8 or 1135.8.1, that may reasonably be considered to be attributable to costs to acquire a property described in any of sections 1135.3 to 1135.3.1 that were incurred in the course of carrying on a business, if the corporation carried on the business throughout the particular year for profit or with a reasonable expectation of profit.

The amount that the corporation may deduct in respect of the balance referred to in the second paragraph is to be determined as if the reference to the tax otherwise payable under this Part were a reference to the portion of the tax otherwise payable under this Part by the corporation for the particular year that may reasonably be attributed to the carrying on of that business and, if the corporation sold, leased, rented or developed properties or rendered services in the course of carrying on that business before that time, of any other business substantially all the income of which is derived from the sale, leasing, rental or development, as the case may be, of similar properties, or the rendering of similar services.

1135.9.1. A corporation deemed to have acquired a property at a particular time under paragraph b of section 125.1 is deemed, for the purposes of sections 1135.1 to 1135.8.1, to have acquired the property at that time at a cost of acquisition, incurred and paid at that time, equal to the fair market value of the property at that time, and to own the property from that time to the time at which it is deemed to dispose of the property under paragraph f of section 125.1.

1135.9.2. Sections 1029.6.0.1.8.1 and 1029.6.0.1.8.2 apply, with the necessary modifications, to sections 1135.1 to 1135.12, except where inconsistent with those sections.

2007, c. 12, s. 286.

1135.10. (Repealed).

2005, c. 38, s. 314; 2006, c. 13, s. 215.

1135.11. (Repealed).

2005, c. 38, s. 314; 2006, c. 13, s. 215.

1135.12. For the purposes of this Part, government assistance or non-government assistance does not include

(a) an amount deducted by a corporation under section 1135.1 or 1135.2 from its tax otherwise payable under this Part; or

(b) an amount deducted or deductible under subsection 5 or 6 of section 127 of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C., 1985, chapter 1, 5th Suppl.) that can reasonably be attributed to the acquisition of a qualified property, within the meaning of subsection 9 of section 127 of that Act.

BOOK III

COMPUTATION OF PAID-UP CAPITAL

1972, c. 23; 1979, c. 38, s. 27.

TITLE I

CORPORATIONS OTHER THAN BANKS, SAVINGS AND CREDIT UNIONS, LOAN CORPORATIONS, TRUST CORPORATIONS AND CORPORATIONS TRADING IN SECURITIES

1972, c. 23; 1979, c. 38, s. 27; 1980, c. 13, s. 109; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1997, c. 14, s. 272.

1136. (1) In this Part, the paid-up capital of a corporation includes:

(a) the paid-up capital stock and any other participating interest in the nature of capital stock;

(b) the surpluses, provisions and reserves, except those for amortization or depletion, those permitted by Part I to the extent that they were deducted in computing income under that Part and those for losses, in respect of a contract of lease or of leasing, that a corporation carrying on lease or leasing activities cannot deduct in computing its income under that Part;

(b.0.1*)* the future tax liabilities;

(b.1*) (paragraph repealed);*

(b.2*)* where the corporation is a qualified corporation for the taxation year and the amount of the corporation's deficit would be nil, but for the eligible activities of any recognized business carried on by the corporation or by any partnership of which the corporation is a member, that are carried on during the base period applicable to the corporation or partnership, as the case may be, in respect of the eligible activities, or the amount of the corporation's surpluses is less than the amount that would be those surpluses, but for the eligible activities, an amount equal to the lesser of

i. the amount that would be the corporation's deficit if only the eligible activities were taken into account, and

ii. the amount by which the amount that would be the corporation's surpluses if no reference were made to the eligible activities, exceeds the amount of the surpluses that are included in computing the corporation's paid-up capital for the taxation year under paragraph b;

(b.3*)* the amount of the corporation's deferred unrealized foreign exchange gains at the end of the taxation year;

(c) a debt contracted or assumed by it, the payment of which is secured, in part or in whole, by a property of the corporation, other than a debt contracted or assumed by the corporation within the preceding six months and that is a trade account payable as consideration for the acquisition of a good or the supply of a service, or a tax payable in connection with the acquisition of a good or the supply of a service where the acquisition or supply gave rise to a trade account payable or would give rise to a trade account payable if the consideration for the acquisition or supply were unpaid;

(d) the loans and advances granted directly or indirectly to the corporation;

(e) any other debt provided it has existed for more than six months;

(f) bankers' acceptances and other similar securities accepted by a bank or other person, which constitute liabilities of the corporation.

(2) A debt repaid before the end of the taxation year is deemed to be a debt at the end of that year if it is established that the repayment was made as part of a series of loans and repayments in order to unduly reduce the paid-up capital.

(3) A corporation having an interest in a partnership or in a joint venture shall include in computing its paid-up capital the amounts that would be included in computing the paid-up capital of that partnership or joint venture under this section and sections 1137 and 1138, if that partnership or joint venture were a corporation and no reference were made to paragraph b.1.2 of section 1137, in the proportion that the share of the corporation of the income or loss of the partnership or the joint venture, for the fiscal period of the partnership or joint venture ending in the corporation's taxation year, is of the income or loss of the partnership or joint venture for that fiscal period, on the assumption that, if the income and loss of the partnership or the joint venture for that fiscal period are nil, the income of the partnership or joint venture for that fiscal period is equal to $1,000,000.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, if the share of an amount of $1,000,000 in profits of a partnership for a fiscal period that is attributable to a corporation, on account of its interest in the partnership, is at least $200,000, the following rules apply:

(a) the corporation shall include in computing its paid-up capital its share of the retained profits shown in the partnership's financial statements, except to the extent that the share is otherwise included in the corporation's paid-up capital or to the extent that the Minister is of the opinion that the generally accepted accounting principles allow for the share to not be so included in computing the corporation's paid-up capital; and

(b) the corporation may deduct in computing its paid-up capital its share of the unallocated deficit shown in the partnership's financial statements, except to the extent that the share is otherwise deducted in computing the corporation's paid-up capital or to the extent that the Minister is of the opinion that the generally accepted accounting principles do not allow for the share to be so deducted in computing the corporation's paid-up capital.

However, the corporation shall not include nor deduct in computing its paid-up capital any amount shown in the financial statements of the partnership or joint venture resulting from an operation between the partnership or the joint venture and its members.

1972, c. 23, s. 849; 1972, c. 26, s. 81; 1979, c. 38, s. 27; 1986, c. 15, s. 200; 1991, c. 8, s. 98; 1993, c. 19, s. 145; 1995, c. 63, s. 241; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1997, c. 14, s. 273; 1999, c. 86, s. 91; 2000, c. 39, s. 248; 2001, c. 7, s. 165; 2002, c. 40, s. 312; 2003, c. 9, s. 420; 2005, c. 38, s. 315; 2009, c. 5, s. 556.

1137. In computing its paid-up capital, a corporation may deduct

(a) the amount of its deficit;

(b) the costs pertaining to the issue of shares or bonds, including discount, provided they were not used to reduce its surplus or its paid-up capital;

(b.0.1*)* where it has included in that computation for the taxation year an amount relating to the financing of new automotive equipment that it has acquired for the purpose of resale, an amount equal to 50% of the lesser of the amount shown in its financial statements in relation to such automotive equipment it has in stock and the amount so included in that computation;

(b.0.2*)* the provision for the redemption of retractable or mandatorily redeemable shares issued at the end of the taxation year, provided the redemption value of those shares was included in that computation;

(b.1*)* the amount of its future tax assets;

(b.1.1*)* the amount of the corporation's deferred unrealized foreign exchange losses at the end of the taxation year;

(b.1.2*)* the amount determined for the taxation year under section 1137.0.0.2, unless the corporation is for that year a prescribed corporation for the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1143;

(b.2*)* where it holds, at the end of the taxation year, in respect of an eligible vessel, a valid certificate issued by the Minister of Economic Development, Innovation and Export Trade, where the taxation year is included in its deduction period and where it encloses with the fiscal return it is required to file for the year under section 1000, by reason of section 1145, a copy of that certificate, the aggregate of

i. the amount by which its eligible acquisition costs for the year in respect of the eligible vessel exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance attributable to such costs, that the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or can reasonably expect to receive on or before its filing-due date for that year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid by the corporation in the year, or in a preceding taxation year, as a repayment of assistance referred to in subparagraph i;

(b.2.1*)* where it holds, at the end of the taxation year, in respect of an eligible vessel, a valid certificate issued by the Minister of Economic Development, Innovation and Export Trade, where the taxation year is included in its deduction period and where it encloses with its fiscal return it is required to file for the year under section 1000, by reason of section 1145, a copy of that certificate, the aggregate of

i. the amount by which its eligible conversion costs for the year in respect of the eligible vessel exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance attributable to such costs, that the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive on or before its filing-due date for that year, and

ii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid by the corporation in the year, or in a preceding taxation year, as a repayment of assistance referred to in subparagraph i;

(b.3*)* subject to the first paragraph of section 1137.2, where the corporation is the owner at the end of a taxation year of property described in the first paragraph of section 1137.5 and where that year is the year in which it acquired the property or the year following that year, an amount equal to the amount by which the aggregate of the costs it incurred to acquire the property in the year in which it acquired the property, except an amount incurred with a person with whom the corporation or a specified shareholder of the corporation does not deal at arm's length, that are related to a business carried on by the corporation in the year in Québec, and that are included, at the end of that year, in the capital cost of the property, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of any government assistance or non-government assistance attributable to such costs, that the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive on or before the corporation's filing-due date for that year;

(b.4*)* subject to the second paragraph of section 1137.2, where the corporation is, at the end of a taxation year, the owner of property described in the first paragraph of section 1137.5 as a consequence of the transfer of the property to the corporation in any of the circumstances described in section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1), by a corporation, referred to as the "transferor" in this paragraph and in the second paragraph of section 1137.2, and the transferor would have been, had it been the owner of the property at the end of that year, entitled to deduct under paragraph b.3 an amount in computing its paid-up capital in respect of the property for its taxation year that includes the time of the transfer, an amount equal to the amount by which the amount that the transferor would have been entitled to so deduct in respect of the property under that paragraph b.3 in computing its paid-up capital for the year that includes the time of the transfer, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance attributable to the property, that the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive on or before the corporation's filing-due date for its taxation year;

(b.5*)* an amount equal to 33 1/3% of the portion of its paid-up capital that would, but for this paragraph, be determined under sections 1136 to 1138 that

i. the greater of

(1) its gross revenue for the taxation year from a mineral resource owned or operated by it, and

(2) the capital cost, to the corporation, of property acquired in the year in the course of a major expansion that results in any of the consequences described in subparagraphs 1 and 2 of subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of Class 28 of Schedule B to the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act, that is added to the capital cost, to the corporation, of the property of Class 41 of that Schedule, is of

ii. the aggregate of its gross revenue for that year and, where applicable, the amount by which the amount determined under subparagraph 2 of subparagraph i of this paragraph exceeds the amount determined under subparagraph 1 of that subparagraph;

(c) (paragraph repealed);

(d) where the corporation is a qualified corporation for the taxation year, any amount included by the corporation in that computation for the taxation year otherwise than under paragraph b.2 of subsection 1 of section 1136, to the extent that that amount is not otherwise deducted in that computation and is attributable to the eligible activities of a recognized business carried on by the corporation or by any partnership of which the corporation is a member, that are carried on during the base period applicable to the corporation or partnership, as the case may be, in respect of the eligible activities; and

(e) where the corporation is a qualified corporation for the taxation year and the amount of the corporation's deficit is less than the amount that would be the corporation's deficit, but for the eligible activities of any recognized business carried on by the corporation or by any partnership of which the corporation is a member, that are carried on during the base period applicable to the corporation or partnership, as the case may be, in respect of the eligible activities, an amount equal to the amount by which the amount that would be the corporation's deficit, if no reference were made to the eligible activities, exceeds the amount deducted by the corporation in computing its paid-up capital for the taxation year under paragraph a.

1972, c. 23, s. 850; 1979, c. 38, s. 27; 1986, c. 15, s. 201; 1990, c. 7, s. 211; 1995, c. 63, s. 242; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1997, c. 14, s. 274; 1997, c. 31, s. 137; 1997, c. 85, s. 311; 1999, c. 8, s. 20; 1999, c. 83, s. 257; 1999, c. 86, s. 92; 2000, c. 39, s. 249; 2001, c. 7, s. 166; 2001, c. 51, s. 222; 2002, c. 40, s. 313; 2003, c. 9, s. 421; 2004, c. 21, s. 489; 2005, c. 38, s. 316; 2006, c. 8, s. 31; 2006, c. 13, s. 216; 2009, c. 15, s. 435; 2021, c. 14, s. 192.

1137.0.0.1. An amount that a corporation may deduct in computing its paid-up capital under section 1137, otherwise than because of paragraph d or e of that section, does not include the portion of that amount attributable to eligible activities of a recognized business carried on by the corporation or any partnership of which the corporation is a member, carried out during the base period applicable to the corporation or the partnership in respect of those eligible activities.

1999, c. 86, s. 93; 2000, c. 39, s. 250; 2005, c. 38, s. 317.

1137.0.0.2. The amount referred to in paragraph b.1.2 of section 1137 for a taxation year in respect of a corporation is equal to the amount determined by the formula

$$A \times [B - (C \times B)].$$

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is

i. where, in the taxation year, the corporation is not associated with any corporation other than a corporation referred to in the second paragraph of section 1135, 1,

ii. where, in the taxation year, the corporation is associated with one or more corporations other than a corporation referred to in the second paragraph of section 1135, all the corporations that are associated with each other during the year have filed with the Minister an agreement in prescribed form whereby they attribute a deduction percentage to one or more of them for the year for the purposes of this section, and the deduction percentage or the total of deduction percentages so attributed, as the case may be, does not exceed 100%, the deduction percentage so attributed to the corporation for the year or, in the absence of such an attribution in its respect, zero, and

iii. in any other case, zero;

(b) B is

i. where the taxation year is a 2003 taxation year that includes 31 December 2002, the proportion of $250,000 that the number of days in the taxation year after that date is of the number of days in the taxation year, ii. where the taxation year is a 2003 taxation year that does not include 31 December 2002, $250,000,

iii. where the taxation year is a 2004 taxation year that includes 31 December 2003, the total of

(1) the proportion of $250,000 that the number of days in the taxation year before 1 January 2004 is of the number of days in the taxation year, and

(2) the proportion of $600,000 that the number of days in the taxation year after 31 December 2003 is of the number of days in the taxation year,

iv. where the taxation year is a 2004 taxation year that does not include 31 December 2003, $600,000,

v. where the taxation year is a 2005 taxation year that includes 31 December 2004, the total of

(1) the proportion of $600,000 that the number of days in the taxation year before 1 January 2005 is of the number of days in the taxation year, and

(2) the proportion of $1,000,000 that the number of days in the taxation year after 31 December 2004 is of the number of days in the taxation year, and

vi. in any other case, $1,000,000; and

(c) C is the proportion, expressed as a percentage not exceeding 100%, that the amount by which the paid-up capital attributed to the corporation for the taxation year exceeds the amount determined under subparagraph b in respect of the corporation for the taxation year is of three times that amount determined under subparagraph b.

For the purposes of subparagraph c of the second paragraph, the paid-up capital attributed to the corporation for a taxation year is equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is

(a) the paid-up capital of the corporation determined without reference to section 1138.2.6 for the preceding taxation year, or, if the taxation year is the first fiscal period of the corporation, its paid-up capital determined without reference to paragraph b.1.2 of section 1137 and section 1138.2.6 on the basis of its financial statements at the beginning of that fiscal period; or

(b) where, in the taxation year, the corporation is associated with another corporation, the paid-up capital of that other corporation determined without reference to section 1138.2.6 for its last taxation year that ended before the beginning of the taxation year of the corporation, or, if that other corporation has no such taxation year, its paid-up capital determined without reference to paragraph b.1.2 of section 1137 and section 1138.2.6 on the basis of its financial statements at the beginning of its first fiscal period.

For the purposes of subparagraph b of the third paragraph, where the other corporation referred to in that subparagraph is an insurer, within the meaning of the Insurers Act (chapter A-32.1), other than a corporation referred to in paragraph a of section 1132, its paid-up capital shall be established in accordance with Title II as if it were a bank and paragraph a of section 1140 were replaced by paragraph a of subsection 1 of section 1136.

2003, c. 9, s. 422; 2005, c. 23, s. 255; 2009, c. 15, s. 436; 2010, c. 25, s. 221; 2018, c. 23, s. 811.

1137.0.1. For the purposes of paragraph b.5 of section 1137, the following rules apply:

(a) the gross revenue of a corporation for a taxation year from a mineral resource owned or operated by it includes its gross revenue for the year attributable to the processing, to any stage that is not beyond the prime metal stage or its equivalent, of ore, metals or minerals from that source, but does not include its gross revenue for the year attributable to processing beyond that stage; and

(b) if a corporation is a member of a partnership, the gross revenue of the partnership from a mineral resource owned or operated by it and its gross revenue are deemed to constitute, respectively, a gross revenue of the corporation from a mineral resource owned or operated by it and a gross revenue of the corporation, in a proportion equal to the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year of the corporation, and are deemed not to constitute income for the partnership.

1999, c. 83, s. 258; 2009, c. 15, s. 437.

1137.1. For the purposes of paragraphs b.2 and b.2.1 of section 1137, an amount is deemed to be paid by a corporation at a particular time as a repayment of assistance where that amount

(a) reduced, because of subparagraph i of paragraph b.2 of section 1137 or subparagraph i of paragraph b. 2.1 of that section, the amount deductible by a corporation in computing its paid-up capital for a taxation year;

(b) was not received by the corporation; and

(c) ceased at that particular time to be an amount that the corporation may reasonably expect to receive.

1997, c. 14, s. 275; 1999, c. 8, s. 20; 1999, c. 83, s. 259; 2003, c. 29, s. 135; 2006, c. 8, s. 31; 2012, c. 8, s. 246.

1137.1.1. Where a particular corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before its filing-due date for a particular taxation year, government assistance or non-government assistance, attributable to an eligible vessel referred to in paragraph b.2 or b.2.1 of section 1137 that is owned by a partnership in which the particular corporation has an interest at the end of the fiscal period of the partnership ending in the particular year, the partnership is deemed, for the purposes of those paragraphs b.2 and b.2.1 and for the purpose of determining the amount the particular corporation is required to include in computing its paid-up capital, because of subsection 3 of section 1136, in respect of its interest in the partnership, to have received, to be entitled to receive or to reasonably expect to receive, at the end of that fiscal period, the assistance attributable to the eligible vessel in an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying the amount of that assistance by the quotient obtained by dividing 1 by the proportion determined, pursuant to subsection 3 of that section 1136, in respect of the particular corporation, in relation to its interest in the partnership, for that particular year.

1137.2. A corporation may deduct, under paragraph b.3 of section 1137, an amount in computing its paid-up capital for a taxation year, in respect of property referred to in that paragraph b.3 that is described in subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1137.5 and that is acquired by the corporation for the carrying on of an activity described in subparagraph d of the second paragraph of that section, only if the corporation holds at the end of the year, in respect of that activity, a qualification certificate issued by Tourisme Québec certifying that the recreational facilities it operates are conducive to promoting tourism in Québec and if it encloses a copy of the qualification certificate with the fiscal return it is required to file for the year under section 1000, because of section 1145.

For the purposes of paragraph b.4 of section 1137, the following rules apply:

(a) a corporation may deduct, under that paragraph b.4, an amount in computing its paid-up capital for a taxation year, in respect of property referred to in that paragraph b.4 that is described in subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1137.5 and that was acquired by the transferor referred to in that paragraph b.4 for the carrying on of an activity described in subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 1137.5, only if the corporation encloses a copy of the qualification certificate issued by Tourisme Québec to the transferor in respect of that activity with the fiscal return it is required to file for the year under section 1000, because of section 1145; and

(b) a corporation may deduct an amount, under that paragraph b.4, in respect of property referred to in that paragraph, in computing its paid-up capital for a particular taxation year only if the particular year is

i. where the transferor's taxation year that includes the time of the transfer referred to in that paragraph b.4 is the year in which it acquired the property, the corporation's taxation year that includes the time of the transfer and the year following that year, or

ii. where the transferor's taxation year includes the time of the transfer referred to in that paragraph b.4, follows the year in which the transferor acquired the property, the corporation's taxation year that includes the time of the transfer.

1997, c. 85, s. 312; 2003, c. 9, s. 423.

1137.3. Where, at a particular time, a corporation in a taxation year pays a particular amount, in relation to property, that may reasonably be considered to be the repayment of particular assistance that reduced, pursuant to paragraph b.3 or b.4 of section 1137, the amount that the corporation, or a corporation from which it acquired the property, was entitled to deduct, in respect of the property, in computing its paid-up capital under those paragraphs, the following rules apply:

(a) the particular amount is deemed to have been incurred at that particular time by the corporation as costs, in the year in which it paid the particular amount, to acquire property described in the first paragraph of section 1137.5 which it owned at the end of the year;

(b) the corporation may deduct the particular amount in computing its paid-up capital for a taxation year

i. that is, where the particular assistance reduced an amount that could have been deducted, pursuant to paragraph b.3 or b.4 of section 1137, the taxation year in which the property was acquired by the corporation or, where paragraph b.4 applies, by the transferor referred to therein, the year in which it paid the particular amount or the year following that year, or

ii. that is, where the assistance reduced an amount that could have been deducted, pursuant to paragraph b.3 or b.4 of section 1137, the taxation year following the year in which the property was acquired by the corporation or, where paragraph b.4 applies, by the transferor referred to therein, the year in which it pays the particular amount; and

(c) the amount that the corporation deducts, for a particular taxation year, from its paid-up capital under subparagraph b is deemed to have been deducted by the corporation under paragraph b.3 of section 1137 in computing its paid-up capital for that particular year.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, an amount is deemed to be an amount paid, at a particular time, as repayment of assistance by a corporation, where

(a) it reduced, because of paragraphs b.3 and b.4 of section 1137, the amount deductible by the corporation under either of those paragraphs in computing its paid-up capital for a taxation year;

(b) it has not been received by the corporation; and

(c) it ceased, at the particular time, to be an amount the corporation may reasonably expect to receive.

1997, c. 85, s. 312; 1999, c. 83, s. 261.

1137.4. Notwithstanding paragraphs b.3 and b.4 of section 1137, no deduction shall be made for a taxation year, in relation to property described in the first paragraph of section 1137.5, in respect of costs incurred to acquire the property, where

(a) in the case where the property is described in subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1137.5 and was acquired in connection with an activity described in subparagraph d of the second paragraph of that section 1137.5, the qualification certificate issued by Tourisme Québec in respect of that activity is revoked on or before the filing-due date for that year of the purchaser of the property that is the owner of the property at the end of that year;

(b) at any time before the day after the earlier of the day that is the end of the period of 730 days following the beginning of the use of the property by the first purchaser or by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired the property in any of the circumstances described in section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1), and the filing-due date, for that taxation year, of the purchaser that is the owner of the property at the end of that year, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of the loss or involuntary destruction of the property by fire, theft or water or of a major breakdown of the property, to be used solely in Québec to earn income for a business carried on

i. by the first purchaser of the property and where that time is also in the portion of that period in which the first purchaser owns the property, or

ii. by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired the property in any of the circumstances described in section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act, and where that time also is in the portion of that period in which the subsequent purchaser owns the property.

Where the property is general-purpose electronic data processing equipment referred to in subparagraph b of the second paragraph of Class 12 of Schedule B to the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act and the property is installed in Québec, the word “solely” shall be replaced, in subparagraph b of the first paragraph, by the word “primarily”.

1997, c. 85, s. 312; 2001, c. 51, s. 223; 2003, c. 9, s. 424; 2009, c. 15, s. 438.

1137.5. The property to which paragraphs b.3 and b.4 of section 1137 refer is any property, other than property acquired pursuant to an obligation in writing entered into before 26 March 1997 or, where applicable, the construction of which, by or on behalf of the purchaser, had begun by 25 March 1997, that is acquired after 25 March 1997 and before 13 June 2003, or after 12 June 2003 and before 13 June 2004 if the property is acquired pursuant to an obligation in writing entered into before 13 June 2003 or, where applicable, if the construction of the property, by or on behalf of the purchaser, had begun before 13 June 2003, and that is

(a) property referred to in subparagraph b of the second paragraph of Class 12 of Schedule B to the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1), if, before its acquisition, it was not used for any purpose or acquired to be used or leased for any purpose whatever;

(b) a building situated in Québec or part of such a building in respect of which an amount would be included, but for section 93.6, in computing the undepreciated capital cost of the depreciable property of a prescribed class, if the building or the part of the building, before its acquisition, was not used for any purpose or acquired to be used or leased for any purpose whatever, and

i. is used by the purchaser, directly or indirectly, mainly to manufacture or process items for sale or lease, or is intended to be so used, or

ii. is leased in the normal course of carrying on the business of the purchaser to a lessee who may reasonably be considered to be using, or who may reasonably be expected to use, the building or the part of the building, directly or indirectly, mainly to manufacture or process items for sale or lease;

*(b.1)* a building situated in Québec or part of such a building, in respect of which an amount would be included, but for section 93.6, in computing the undepreciated capital cost of the depreciable property of a prescribed class, if the building or the part of the building, before its acquisition, was not used for any purpose or acquired to be used or leased for any purpose whatever, and

i. is used by the purchaser, directly or indirectly, mainly in the processing of mineral ores recovered from a mineral resource that is located in a country other than Canada, or is intended to be so used, or

ii. is leased in the normal course of carrying on the business of the purchaser to a lessee who may reasonably be considered to be using, or who may reasonably be expected to use, the building or the part of the building, directly or indirectly, mainly in the processing of mineral ores recovered from a mineral resource that is located in a country other than Canada;

(c) equipment or a building situated in Québec or part of such a building, in respect of which an amount would be included, but for section 93.6, in computing the undepreciated capital cost of the depreciable property of a prescribed class, if the equipment or building or the part of the building, before its acquisition, was not used for any purpose or acquired to be used or leased for any purpose whatever, and

i. is used by the purchaser, directly or indirectly, mainly as part of an activity described in the second paragraph, or is intended to be so used, or

ii. is leased in the normal course of carrying on the business of the purchaser to a lessee who may reasonably be considered to be using, or who may reasonably be expected to use, the equipment or building or the part of the building, directly or indirectly, mainly as part of an activity described in the second paragraph.

An activity referred to in any of the subparagraphs of subparagraph c of the first paragraph is

(a) the operation of a tourist accommodation establishment, within the meaning of the regulations under the Act respecting Tourist Accommodation Establishments (chapter E-14.2), situated in Québec, with the exception of an educational institution, within the meaning of those regulations;

(b) the carrying on in Québec, for recreational purposes, of a business consisting in renting boats, airplanes or vehicles other than automobiles;

(c) the carrying on of a business consisting in offering holiday packages in Québec, including lodging and transportation in Québec as well as related recreational activities; or

(d) the carrying on of recreational activities in Québec in respect of which Tourisme Québec has issued a qualification certificate certifying that the recreational facilities are conducive to promoting tourism in Québec, except the following facilities:

i. a cinema or a drive-in,

ii. an amusement arcade,

iii. a bowling alley,

iv. a skating rink,

v. a sports club,

vi. a pool,

vii. a bingo hall,

viii. a casino,

ix. a community centre,

x. a playground,

xi. a private club.

1137.6. Where a particular corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before its filing-due date for a particular taxation year, government assistance or non-government assistance, attributable to particular property referred to in paragraph b.3 or b.4 of section 1137 and that is owned by a partnership in which the particular corporation has an interest at the end of the fiscal period of the partnership ending in the particular year, the partnership is deemed, for the purposes of those paragraphs b.3 and b.4 and for the purpose of determining the amount the particular corporation is required to include in computing its paid-up capital, because of subsection 3 of section 1136, in respect of its interest in the partnership, to have received, to be entitled to receive or to reasonably expect to receive, at the end of that fiscal period, the assistance attributable to the particular property in an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying the amount of that assistance by the quotient obtained by dividing 1 by the proportion determined, pursuant to subsection 3 of that section 1136, in respect of the particular corporation, in relation to its interest in the partnership, for that particular year.

1137.7. Subject to any special provision of this Part, where, in respect of particular costs, an amount is deducted under any of paragraphs b.2 to b.4 of section 1137, by a corporation in computing its paid-up capital for a taxation year, no other deduction may be made by the corporation, for any taxation year under any other of those paragraphs, in respect of all or part of a cost or expenditure, included in the particular costs.

1997, c. 85, s. 312.

1137.8. For the purposes of this Part, where, at any time after 11 June 2003, control of a corporation that is a member of a partnership that carries on, at that time, a recognized business is acquired by a person or group of persons, the definition of "base period" in section 1130 shall be read as follows:

""base period" means a base period within the meaning that would be assigned by section 737.18.6 if subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 737.18.9.2 were read as follows:

"(b) where the recognized business is carried on by the partnership, the base period applicable to the partnership, in respect of the eligible activities of the recognized business, is deemed, for the purpose of computing the amount of tax payable under Part IV by the corporation for the taxation year that includes that time and for a subsequent taxation year, to end at that time.";".

However, the first paragraph does not apply if the acquisition of control

(a) occurs before 1 July 2004 and Investissement Québec certifies that it results from a transaction that was sufficiently advanced on 11 June 2003 and was binding on the parties on that date;

(b) is by a corporation carrying on at that time a recognized business, by a person or group of persons that controls such a corporation, or by a group of persons each member of which is such a corporation or a person who, alone or together with other members of the group, controls such a corporation;

(c) derives from the exercise after 11 June 2003 of one or more rights described in paragraph b of section 20 that were acquired before 12 June 2003; or

(d) derives from the performance after 11 June 2003 of one or more obligations described in the third paragraph of section 21.3.5 that were contracted before 12 June 2003.

Sections 21.2 to 21.3.3 and 21.4 to 21.4.1 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this section.

1138. (1) The paid-up capital of a corporation computed after the application of sections 1136 and 1137 shall be reduced in the proportion that the aggregate of the following value and amounts is of the total of its assets:

(a) the value of its investments in shares and bonds of other corporations;

(a.1) the value of its investments in permanent shares of a savings and credit union and any participating interest in the nature of a permanent share of a savings and credit union;

(b) the amount of loans and advances to other corporations;

(c) the amounts of the loans and advances to a partnership or joint venture, to the extent that the amounts of the loans or advances are included in computing the paid-up capital of a corporation that has an interest in the partnership or joint venture;

(d) the amounts of the bankers' acceptances and other similar securities accepted by a bank or any other person which are assets thereof, to the extent that such acceptances and other securities are for the benefit of a corporation;

(d.1) the amount of debts resulting from the selling of property or the provision of services to another corporation, where those debts are secured, in whole or in part, by a property of that other corporation;

(d.2) except where they are described in any of paragraphs a to d.1 or would be described therein but for subsections 2 to 2.1.3, the amount of debts that are owed

i. by another corporation, except a corporation referred to in paragraph a of section 1132, and that are secured, in whole or in part, by a property of that other corporation or have been in existence for more than six months, or

ii. by a loan corporation, a trust corporation or a corporation trading in securities, to which the corporation is related;

(e) the amount referred to in section 1138.4.

(1.1) For the purposes of subsection 1, the value of a share is deemed equal to its cost where the amount included in the assets is less than that cost; in such a case, the amount by which the cost exceeds that amount must be included in the paid-up capital of the corporation if it is not already included therein under section 1136.

(2) The following are deemed not to be loans and advances to other corporations:

(a) (paragraph repealed);

(b) amounts receivable by a subsidiary from its parent corporation whose head office is outside Canada;

(c) (paragraph repealed).

(2.0.1) (Subsection repealed).

(2.1) (Subsection repealed).

(2.1.0.1) For the purposes of this section,

(a) a debt that, but for this subparagraph, would be a loan or an advance to a corporation, a partnership or a joint venture, is deemed not to be such a loan or such an advance, in a taxation year, where it has been substituted for a debt that was not, immediately before the substitution, such a loan or such an advance and where, in that year, the creditor and the debtor of the debt are associated corporations, in the case where the creditor and the debtor are corporations, or do not deal at arm's length, in the other cases;

(b) a debt that, but for this paragraph, would be a loan or an advance is deemed not to be such a loan or such an advance, in a taxation year, where

i. the debt was acquired, in the year or in a preceding taxation year, by a person, a partnership or a joint venture, called "acquirer" in this paragraph, from a person, partnership or joint venture, called "assignor" in this paragraph, and the acquirer and assignor are associated at the time of the acquisition, in the case where the acquirer and the assignor are corporations, or do not deal at arm's length at that time, in the other cases,

ii. the debt is a debt that, before its disposition by the assignor, was substituted for a debt that was not, immediately before the substitution, a loan or an advance to a corporation, a partnership or a joint venture and in respect of which, at the time of the substitution, the creditor and debtor were associated corporations, in the case where the creditor and the debtor are corporations, or did not deal at arm's length, in the other cases, and

iii. in the taxation year, the acquirer and debtor are associated corporations, in the case where the acquirer and the debtor are corporations, or do not deal at arm's length in the other cases.

(2.1.0.2) For the purposes of this subsection and subsection 2.1.0.1,

(a) where an acquirer, within the meaning of subparagraph i of paragraph b of subsection 2.1.0.1, acquires a debt from a particular assignor that is an assignor within the meaning of that subparagraph i and had itself acquired the debt from another such assignor to which it was associated, in the case where the assignors are corporations, or with which it did not deal at arm's length, in the other cases, the acquirer is deemed to acquire the debt from the other assignor at the time at which the particular assignor had acquired the debt from the other assignor and to be associated at that time with the other assignor, in the case where the acquirer and the other assignor are corporations, or not to deal at arm's length at that time with the other assignor, in the other cases;

(b) (paragraph repealed);

(c) to determine whether a partnership or a joint venture does not, at a particular time, deal at arm's length with a person, another partnership or another joint venture, each partnership or joint venture is deemed to be, at that particular time and for the purposes of sections 17 to 21, a person.

(2.1.1) Bankers' acceptances and other similar securities the drawer of which is a corporation authorized to receive deposits of money and not referred to in subparagraph ii of paragraph d.2 of subsection 1 are deemed not to be bankers' acceptances or other similar securities referred to in subsection 1.

(2.1.1.1) For the purposes of subsection 1, an investment in bonds of another corporation, a loan or advance to another corporation, a banker's acceptance and a similar security for the benefit of another corporation or a debt described in paragraph d.1 of that subsection 1 that is owed by another corporation is deemed not to be such property where the other corporation is a corporation referred to in paragraph a of section 1132 that is not related to the corporation, except where that property is included in the long-term debt of the other corporation or is, where that other corporation is a corporation trading in securities, a subordinated loan or another debt of that corporation whose repayment is subject to the prior approval of an agency empowered to regulate trading in securities.

(2.1.2) For the purposes of subsection 1, an investment in shares of a bank or a particular corporation related to a bank or a savings and credit union, a loan or an advance to such a particular corporation, an investment in bonds of another corporation, a property described in paragraph a.1 of subsection 1, a property described in paragraph b or c of that subsection that is a commercial paper, a property described in that paragraph c that is an investment in bonds of a partnership or a property described in any of paragraphs d to d.2 of that subsection, is deemed not to be such a property if it was not held without interruption by the corporation throughout a 120-day period that includes the date of the end of its taxation year.

(2.1.2.1) For the purposes of paragraphs d.1 and d.2 of subsection 1, a debt referred to in any of those paragraphs, that is owed by a corporation, is deemed not to be such property where it is a debt that has been owed by that corporation for six months or less and that is a trade account receivable as consideration for the disposition of a property or the provision of a service, or a tax receivable in relation to the disposition of a property or the provision of a service where the disposition or provision gave rise to a trade account receivable or would give rise to a trade account receivable if the consideration for the disposition or provision were unpaid.

(2.1.2.2) For the purposes of subsection 1, the amount of the debts referred to in paragraphs d.1 and d.2 of that subsection must be reduced by the part, attributable to those debts, of the reserve for doubtful debts that is deducted, in accordance with subsection 3, in computing the amount of the assets of the corporation.

(2.1.2.3) For the purposes of subsection 1 and despite section 1.7, a reference to another corporation in subsection 1 is deemed not to be a reference to a government of a country, province, state or to another political subdivision of a country, other than a municipality or municipal body performing government functions.

(2.1.3) For the purposes of paragraph d.1 of subsection 1, a debt resulting from the selling of property or the provision of services to another corporation is deemed not to be such a debt where that other corporation is

(a) a corporation authorized to receive deposits of money and not referred to in subparagraph ii of paragraph d.2 of subsection 1; or

(b) a corporation that is the parent corporation of the corporation and whose head office is outside Canada.

(2.1.4) For the purposes of subsection 2.1.2, the particular corporation referred to in that subsection is deemed not to be related to a bank or savings and credit union in respect of an investment by another corporation in shares of the particular corporation or a loan or an advance by that other corporation to the particular corporation, if the particular corporation is not related to the bank or the savings and credit union at any time during the period the other corporation holds the investment or is the creditor of the loan or the advance.

(2.2) No reduction of the paid-up capital shall be permitted under subsection 1 in respect of a loan, an advance, a debt described in paragraph d.2 of that subsection, or a banker's acceptance or a similar security if it is established that the loan, advance, debt or banker's acceptance or security was made or issued as part of a series of loans, advances, such debts or banker's acceptances or similar securities and repayments or transactions with a view to unduly reducing the paid-up capital.

(3) The amount of the assets of a corporation is that shown in the corporation's financial statements, after deduction of the provisions and reserves for amortization or depletion, of the reserve for doubtful debts provided it was deducted in computing income under Part I, and of any amount deducted in computing the corporation's paid-up capital under any of paragraphs b, b.1 and b.1.1 of section 1137, to which is added

(a) any amount having reduced the amount of the assets that must be included in the paid-up capital, and

(b) the amount of the assets of a partnership or a joint venture in the proportion that the share of that corporation of the income or loss of the partnership or the joint venture is of the income or loss of the partnership or the joint venture, on the assumption that, if the income and loss of the partnership or joint venture for a fiscal period are nil, the income of the partnership or joint venture for that fiscal period is equal to $1,000,000, reduced by the amount of the interest of the corporation in the partnership or joint venture shown as an asset in its financial statements.

(3.1) For the purposes of subsection 3, a corporation may deduct, in computing the amount of its assets, an amount shown in its financial statements resulting from a transaction between a partnership or a joint venture and its members, except to the extent that the transaction increased the amount of the corporation's interest in the partnership or joint venture, shown as an asset in its financial statements.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph b of subsection 3, a corporation shall not include in computing the amount of its assets any amount shown in the financial statements of the partnership or joint venture resulting from an operation between the partnership or joint venture and its members.

1138.0.1. A qualified corporation, within the meaning of sections 771.5 to 771.7, for a taxation year may deduct, if it is not described in section 1138.1, in computing its paid-up capital for the year, after the application of section 1138, an amount equal to 75% of the lesser of

(a) its paid-up capital for the year, computed after the application of section 1138, minus the amount that, where applicable, could be deducted from the paid-up capital of the corporation for the year under section 1138.2.5 if "75% of the amount" in the first paragraph of section 57 of the Act respecting international financial centres (chapter C-8.3) were replaced by "the amount"; and

(b) $3,000,000.

Notwithstanding the first paragraph, the amount deductible by such a corporation in computing its paid-up capital under this section, for its taxation year that includes the last day of its exemption period, within the meaning of the first paragraph of section 771.1, is equal to such proportion of the amount that, but for this paragraph, would be determined under the first paragraph that the number of days in the year included in that exemption period is of the number of days in the year.

1138.1. Every farming corporation or every corporation whose activities consist mainly in carrying on a fishing business may deduct $5,000,000 in computing its paid-up capital, following the application of section 1138.

However, if the corporation is associated in a taxation year with one or several other corporations referred to in the first paragraph, the amount it may deduct for the year under this section is equal to the product obtained by multiplying $5,000,000 by

(a) if all the corporations associated with each other during the year have filed with the Minister an agreement in the prescribed form whereby they attribute a deduction percentage to one or more of them for the year for the purposes of this section, and the deduction percentage or the total of deduction percentages so attributed, as the case may be, does not exceed 100%, the deduction percentage so attributed to the corporation for the year or, in the absence of such an attribution in its respect, zero; and

(b) in any other case, zero.

Where two corporations are deemed, under section 21.21, to be associated with each other at any time by reason that they are associated, or deemed to be associated under that section, at that time with the same corporation, in this paragraph referred to as the "third corporation", the following rules apply if the third corporation so elects in prescribed form for its taxation year that includes that time:

(a) for the purpose of determining whether, for the purposes of this section, the two corporations are deemed to be associated with each other under section 21.21, the third corporation is deemed not to be associated with either of those two corporations in that taxation year; and

(b) the amount that the third corporation may deduct for that taxation year under this section is nil.

1138.2.1. The paid-up capital, for a taxation year, of a corporation that is an exempt corporation for the year, within the meaning of sections 771.12 and 771.13, shall be reduced by the amount determined by the formula

$$A \times B \times C.$$

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is,

i. if the corporation's taxation year includes the first or last day of its eligibility period, within the meaning of section 771.1, or part of the year is excluded from that eligibility period because of the application of the fourth paragraph of section 771.1, the proportion that the number of days in the year included in that eligibility period is of the number of days in the year, and

ii. in any other case, 1;

(b) B is

i. 75%, if the corporation is referred to in subparagraph iii of paragraph a of section 771.12 and any of the conditions mentioned in subparagraphs 1 and 2 of subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 771.8.5 is met in its respect, and

ii. 100%, in any other case; and

(c) C is the corporation's paid-up capital for that year, computed before the application of this section.

1138.2.2. A corporation that carries on, in a taxation year, a recognized business in connection with which a major investment project was carried out or is in the process of being carried out, or is a member of a partnership that carries on, in a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the year, such a recognized business, may deduct from its paid-up capital otherwise determined for the year under this Title, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is, in relation to a particular major investment project of the corporation or partnership, the proportion of the amount that would be the corporation's paid-up capital otherwise determined for the year under this Title if such capital were established on the sole basis of the financial statements referred to in subparagraph c or d of the second paragraph in relation to the particular major investment project, that the number of days in the eligibility period of the corporation for the year or of the partnership for the fiscal period, as the case may be, in relation to the particular major investment project, is of the number of days in the taxation year or fiscal period, as the case may be.

However, a deduction is allowed under the first paragraph for a taxation year in respect of a major investment project of the corporation or partnership, only if the corporation encloses, with its fiscal return it is required to file under section 1000 for the year, the following documents:

(a) the prescribed form containing the prescribed information;

(b) a copy of the initial qualification certificate issued to the corporation or partnership in relation to the major investment project, and of any annual qualification certificate for the taxation year of the corporation or the fiscal period of the partnership issued in relation to the major investment project;

(c) where the recognized business is carried on by the corporation, the financial statements of the corporation prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles but pertaining only to the eligible activities of the corporation, in relation to the major investment project, and, if applicable, the financial statements of a joint venture in which the corporation has an interest, prepared in accordance with those principles but pertaining only to the activities carried on by the joint venture that would be eligible activities of a corporation, in relation to the major investment project, if the joint venture were a corporation; and

(d) where the recognized business is carried on by the partnership,

i. the financial statements of the partnership prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles but pertaining only to the eligible activities of the partnership, in relation to the major investment project,

ii. if applicable, the financial statements of a joint venture in which the partnership has an interest, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles but pertaining only to the activities carried on by the joint venture that would be eligible activities of a partnership, in relation to the major investment project, if the joint venture were a partnership, and

iii. the financial statements of the corporation prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles but pertaining only to the elements attributable to the eligible activities of the partnership, in relation to the major investment project, and, where applicable, only to the elements attributable to the activities referred to in subparagraph ii.

For the purposes of subparagraph b of the second paragraph, where, at any time, a corporation or partnership acquires from another corporation or partnership all or substantially all of a recognized business, and the Minister of Finance previously authorized the acquisition for the purposes of this Book, the initial qualification certificate issued to the other corporation or partnership, in relation to the major investment project, is deemed to have been issued, from that time, to the corporation or partnership, as the case may be.

The amounts reported in the financial statements referred to in subparagraph c or d of the second paragraph of the corporation, partnership or joint venture must be the same as the amounts that, in respect of eligible activities, activities or elements attributable to eligible activities or activities referred to in that subparagraph, were taken into account in determining the amounts reported in the financial statements of the corporation, partnership or joint venture, as the case may be, otherwise prepared under this Part.

1138.2.2.1. For the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation may deduct, under section 1138.2.2, from its paid-up capital otherwise determined for a taxation year under this Title, the following rules apply if one or more other partnerships (each of which is in this section referred to as an "interposed partnership") are interposed between that corporation and a given partnership that carries on a recognized business referred to in that section in any fiscal period of the given partnership:

(a) the corporation is deemed to be a member of a particular partnership at the end of a particular fiscal period of the particular partnership and that particular fiscal period is deemed to end in the corporation's taxation year in which ends the fiscal period of the interposed partnership of which it is directly a member, if

i. the particular fiscal period is that which ends in the fiscal period of the interposed partnership that is a member of the particular partnership at the end of that particular fiscal period, and

ii. the corporation is a member, or deemed to be a member under this paragraph, of the interposed partnership described in subparagraph i at the end of the interposed partnership's fiscal period in which the particular fiscal period ends; and

(b) subparagraph iii of subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 1138.2.2 is to be read as if "the financial statements of the corporation" was replaced by "the financial statements of the corporation and of any other partnership of which the corporation is a member, or deemed to be a member under paragraph a of section 1138.2.2.1,".

2009, c. 15, s. 439.

1138.2.2.2. Section 1138.2.2.1 does not apply in respect of a corporation, in relation to a given partnership, if the Minister is of the opinion that the interposition, between the corporation and the given partnership, of one or more other partnerships is part of an operation or transaction or of a series of operations or transactions, one of the purposes of which is to cause the corporation to be able to deduct, under section 1138.2.2, from its paid-up capital otherwise determined for a taxation year under this Title, an amount greater than the amount that the corporation could have so deducted for that taxation year, but for that interposition.

2005, c. 38, s. 320.

1138.2.6. A manufacturing corporation for a taxation year may deduct from its paid-up capital otherwise determined for the year under this Title, an amount equal to

(a) if the proportion of the manufacturing or processing activities of the corporation for the year is at least 50%, the corporation's paid-up capital for the year, determined before the application of this section; and

(b) if the proportion of the manufacturing or processing activities of the corporation for the year is less than 50%, the amount determined by the formula

A × (B - 20%)/30%.

In the formula in subparagraph b of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the corporation's paid-up capital for the year, determined before the application of this section; and

(b) B is the proportion of the manufacturing or processing activities of the corporation for the year.

Any amount otherwise deductible in computing the corporation's paid-up capital for the year under this Title, after the application of section 1138, is to be determined without reference to this section.

1138.4. The amount to which subsection 1 of section 1138 refers is, in respect of a corporation that throughout a taxation year was not resident in Canada, equal to the value, for that year, of property that is a ship or aircraft operated by the corporation in international traffic, within the meaning of section 1, or is movable property used in its business of transporting persons or goods by ship or aircraft in international traffic, where the property is used by the corporation in, or held by it in the year in the course of, carrying on any business during the year through an establishment in Canada.

However, the reduction provided for in subsection 1 of section 1138 shall apply in respect of the amount referred to in the first paragraph only if the country in which the corporation is resident imposed neither a capital tax for the year on similar property nor a tax for the year on the income from the operation of a ship or aircraft in international traffic, of any corporation resident in Canada during the year.

1140. In this Part, the paid-up capital of a bank, other than an authorized foreign bank, includes

(a) the paid-up capital stock;

(b) the general reserve and the other reserves and provisions, except those for amortization or depletion, those that are permitted by Part I to the extent that they were deducted in computing income under that Part and those for losses, in respect of a contract of lease or of leasing, that a bank carrying on lease or leasing activities cannot deduct in computing its income under that Part;

(b.1) the future tax liabilities;

(c) the surpluses and the undivided profits;

(d) long-term debt.

1140.1. In this Part, the paid-up capital of an authorized foreign bank for a taxation year is equal to the aggregate of

(a) 10% of the aggregate of all amounts, each of which is the risk-weighted amount at the end of the year of an on-balance sheet asset of the bank or of an off-balance sheet exposure of the bank in respect of its Canadian banking business that the bank would be required to report under the OSFI risk-weighting guidelines if those guidelines applied and required a report at that time; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts, each of which is an amount at the end of the year in respect of the bank's Canadian banking business that

i. if the bank were a bank listed in Schedule II to the Bank Act (Statutes of Canada, 1991, chapter 46), would be required under the risk-based capital adequacy guidelines issued by the Superintendent of Financial Institutions of Canada and applicable at that time to be deducted from the bank's capital in determining the amount of capital available to satisfy the Superintendent's requirement that capital equal a particular proportion of risk-weighted assets and exposures, and

ii. is not an amount in respect of a loss protection facility required to be deducted from capital under the guidelines of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions of Canada respecting asset securitization applicable at that time.

2004, c. 8, s. 208.

1141. In this Part, the paid-up capital of a loan corporation or a trust corporation includes

(a) the paid-up capital stock;

(b) the general reserve and the other reserves and provisions, except those for amortization or depletion, those that are permitted by Part I to the extent that they were deducted in computing income under that Part and those for losses, in respect of a contract of lease or of leasing, that a loan company or a trust company carrying on lease or leasing activities cannot deduct in computing its income under that Part;

(b.1) the future tax liabilities;

(c) the surplus;

(d) long-term debt;

(e) any other debt owing to a corporation to which the corporation is related, other than a corporation referred to in paragraph a of section 1132, except a debt contracted or assumed by the corporation within the preceding six months and that is a trade account payable as consideration for the acquisition of a good or the provision of a service, or a tax payable in connection with the acquisition of a good or the provision of a service where the acquisition or provision gave rise to a trade account payable or would give rise to a trade account payable if the consideration for the acquisition or provision were unpaid.

1141.1. In this Part, the paid-up capital of a corporation trading in securities includes

(a) the paid-up capital stock;

(b) the general reserve and the other reserves and provisions, except those for amortization or depletion, those that are permitted by Part I to the extent that they were deducted in computing income under that Part and those for losses, in respect of a contract of lease or of leasing, that a corporation trading in securities carrying on lease or leasing activities cannot deduct in computing its income under that Part;

(b.1) the future tax liabilities;

(c) the subordinated loans and the other debts whose repayment is subject to the prior approval of an agency empowered to regulate trading in securities;

(d) the surplus;

(e) long-term debt;

(f) any other debt owing to a corporation to which the corporation is related, other than a corporation referred to in paragraph a of section 1132, except a debt contracted or assumed by the corporation within the preceding six months and that is a trade account payable as consideration for the acquisition of a good or the provision of a service, or a tax payable in connection with the acquisition of a good or the provision of a service where the acquisition or provision gave rise to a trade account payable or would give rise to a trade account payable if the consideration for the acquisition or provision were unpaid.

1141.1.0.1. For the purposes of sections 1141 and 1141.1, a debt repaid before the end of the taxation year is deemed to be a debt at the end of that year if it is established that the repayment was made as part of a series of loans and repayments with a view to unduly reducing the paid-up capital.

2002, c. 40, s. 319.

1141.1.1. A corporation referred to in any of sections 1140, 1141 and 1141.1 shall also, in computing its paid-up capital for a taxation year, include an amount equal to 50% of the total of all amounts each of which is

(a) the value at the end of the year of an asset of the corporation, other than property held by the corporation primarily for the purpose of resale that was acquired by the corporation in the year or the preceding taxation year, as a consequence of another person's default, or anticipated default, in respect of a debt owed to the corporation, that is corporeal property; and

(b) the corporation's share, in respect of a partnership of which the corporation is a member at the end of the year, of the value of an asset of the partnership, at the end of the partnership's last fiscal period ending at or before the end of the year, that is corporeal property.

For the purposes of subparagraph b of the first paragraph, the corporation's share of the value of corporeal property of a partnership is equal to the agreed proportion of the value in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period referred to in that subparagraph b.

1141.1.2. A corporation referred to in section 1140.1 shall also include, in computing its paid-up capital for a taxation year, an amount equal to 50% of the total of all amounts each of which is

(a) the value at the end of the year of an asset of the corporation, other than property held by the corporation primarily for the purpose of resale that was acquired by the corporation in the year or the preceding taxation year, as a consequence of another person's default, or anticipated default, in respect of a debt owed to the corporation, that is corporeal property; or

(b) the corporation's share, in respect of a partnership of which the corporation is a member at the end of the year, of the value of an asset of the partnership, at the end of the partnership's last fiscal period ending at or before the end of the year, that is corporeal property.

For the purposes of subparagraph b of the first paragraph, the corporation's share of the value of corporeal property of a partnership is equal to the agreed proportion of the value in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period referred to in that subparagraph b.

1141.2.1. Every corporation contemplated in section 1140, 1141 or 1141.1 may, in computing its paid-up capital for a taxation year, deduct the aggregate of the following amounts:

(a) the amount of its future tax assets;

(b) the amount determined for the year in respect of the corporation according to the formula

$$A \times C / B.$$

For the purposes of the formula in subparagraph b of the first paragraph:

(a) A is the total of all amounts each of which is the value, at the end of the taxation year, of the asset of the corporation that is

i. a share of the capital stock or the long-term debt of another corporation referred to in this Title to which the corporation is related, or

ii. a subordinated loan or another debt, whose repayment is subject to the prior approval of an agency empowered to regulate trading in securities, of another corporation that is a corporation trading in securities to which the corporation is related;

(b) B is the ratio between the business carried on in Québec by the corporation in the year and the total business carried on by the corporation in Québec and elsewhere in the year;

(c) C is the ratio between the business carried on in Québec by the other corporation in its taxation year ending in the year of the corporation and the total business carried on in Québec and elsewhere by the other corporation in that taxation year.

In the second paragraph, the ratio between the business carried on in Québec and the total business carried on in Québec and elsewhere in respect of a corporation means the ratio determined by regulation made under subsection 2 of section 771.

1141.2.1.1.1. Every corporation referred to in section 1140.1 may, in computing its paid-up capital for a taxation year, deduct the amount determined by the formula

A × C / B.

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the total of all amounts each of which is the amount, at the end of the taxation year, of an asset of the corporation that the corporation used or held in the year in the course of carrying on its Canadian banking business, determined before the application of risk weights that the corporation would be required to report under the OSFI risk-weighting guidelines if those guidelines applied and required such report at the end of the year and that is a share of the capital stock or the long-term debt of another corporation referred to in this Title to which the corporation is related;

(b) B is the proportion that the business carried on in Québec by the corporation in the year is of the total business carried on in Québec and elsewhere by the corporation in the year; and

(c) C is the proportion that the business carried on in Québec by the other corporation in its taxation year ending in the year of the corporation is of the total business carried on in Québec and elsewhere by the other corporation in that taxation year.

In the second paragraph, the proportion that the business carried on in Québec is of the total business carried on in Québec and elsewhere in respect of a corporation is the proportion determined in accordance with the regulations made under subsection 2 of section 771.

1141.3. A corporation referred to in this Title that is a qualified corporation, within the meaning of sections 771.5 to 771.7, for a taxation year may deduct in computing its paid-up capital for that year an amount equal to 75% of the lesser of

(a) its paid-up capital for the year, computed without reference to this section and sections 1141.8 to 1141.11, minus the amount that, where applicable, could be deducted from the paid-up capital of the corporation for the year under section 1141.9, 1141.10 or 1141.11, as the case may be, if "75% of the amount" in the first paragraph of section 57 of the Act respecting international financial centres (chapter C-8.3) were replaced by "the amount", and if "75% of the product" in the first paragraph of section 57.1 of that Act were replaced by "the product"; and

(b) $3,000,000.

Notwithstanding the first paragraph, the amount deductible by such a corporation in computing its paid-up capital under this section, for its taxation year that includes the last day of its exemption period, within the meaning of the first paragraph of section 771.1, is equal to such proportion of the amount that, but for this paragraph, would be determined under the first paragraph that the number of days in the year included in that exemption period is of the number of days in the year.

1141.8. A corporation that carries on, in a taxation year, a recognized business in connection with which a major investment project was carried out or is in the process of being carried out, or is a member of a partnership that carries on, in a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the year, such a recognized business, may deduct from its paid-up capital otherwise determined for the year under this Title, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is, in relation to a particular major investment project of the corporation or partnership, the proportion of the amount that would be the corporation's paid-up capital otherwise determined for the year under this Title if such capital were established on the sole basis of the financial statements referred to in subparagraph c or d of the second paragraph in relation to the particular major investment project, that the number of days in the eligibility period of the corporation for the year or of the partnership for the fiscal period, as the case may be, in relation to the particular major investment project, is of the number of days in the taxation year or fiscal period, as the case may be.

However, a deduction is allowed under the first paragraph for a taxation year in respect of a major investment project of the corporation or partnership, only if the corporation encloses, with its fiscal return it is required to file under section 1000 for the year, the following documents:

(a) the prescribed form containing the prescribed information;

(b) a copy of the initial qualification certificate issued to the corporation or partnership in relation to the major investment project, and of any annual qualification certificate for the taxation year of the corporation or the fiscal period of the partnership issued in relation to the major investment project;

(c) where the recognized business is carried on by the corporation, the financial statements of the corporation prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles but pertaining only to the eligible activities of the corporation, in relation to the major investment project; and

(d) where the recognized business is carried on by the partnership, the financial statements of the partnership prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles but pertaining only to the eligible activities of the partnership, in relation to the major investment project, and the financial statements of the corporation prepared in accordance with those principles but pertaining only to the elements attributable to eligible activities of the partnership, in relation to the major investment project.

For the purposes of subparagraph b of the second paragraph, where, at any time, a corporation or partnership acquires from another corporation or partnership all or substantially all of a recognized business, and the Minister of Finance previously authorized the acquisition for the purposes of this Book, the initial qualification certificate issued to the other corporation or partnership, in relation to the major investment project, is deemed to be issued, from that time, to the corporation or partnership, as the case may be.

The amounts reported in the financial statements referred to in subparagraph c or d of the second paragraph of the corporation or partnership must be the same as the amounts that, in respect of eligible activities or elements attributable to eligible activities referred to in that subparagraph, were taken into account in determining the amounts reported in the financial statements of the corporation or partnership, as the case may be, otherwise prepared under this Part.

1141.8.1. For the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation may deduct, under section 1141.8, from its paid-up capital otherwise determined for a taxation year under this Title, the following rules apply if one or more other partnerships (each of which is in this section referred to as an "interposed partnership") are interposed between that corporation and a given partnership that carries on a recognized business referred to in that section in any fiscal period of the given partnership:

(a) the corporation is deemed to be a member of a particular partnership at the end of a particular fiscal period of the particular partnership and that particular fiscal period is deemed to end in the corporation's taxation year in which ends the fiscal period of the interposed partnership of which it is directly a member, if

i. the particular fiscal period is that which ends in the fiscal period of the interposed partnership that is a member of the particular partnership at the end of that particular fiscal period, and

ii. the corporation is a member, or deemed to be a member under this paragraph, of the interposed partnership described in subparagraph i at the end of the interposed partnership's fiscal period in which the particular fiscal period ends; and

(b) subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 1141.8 is to be read as if "and the financial statements of the corporation" was replaced by "and the financial statements of the corporation and of any other partnership of which the corporation is a member, or deemed to be a member under paragraph a of section 1141.8.1,".

2009, c. 15, s. 443.

1141.8.2. Section 1141.8.1 does not apply in respect of a corporation, in relation to a given partnership, if the Minister is of the opinion that the interposition, between the corporation and the given partnership, of one or more other partnerships is part of an operation or transaction or of a series of operations or transactions, one of the purposes of which is to cause the corporation to be able to deduct, under section 1141.8, from its paid-up capital otherwise determined for a taxation year under this Title, an amount greater than the amount that the corporation could have so deducted for that taxation year, but for that interposition.

2009, c. 15, s. 443.

1141.9. A corporation referred to in section 1140 may deduct from its paid-up capital otherwise determined for a taxation year under this Title the amount provided for in its respect for the year in section 57 or 60.1 of the Act respecting international financial centres (chapter C-8.3).

2005, c. 38, s. 328.

1141.10. A corporation referred to in section 1140.1 may deduct from its paid-up capital otherwise determined for a taxation year under this Title the amount provided for in its respect for the year in section 57.1 of the Act respecting international financial centres (chapter C-8.3).

2005, c. 38, s. 328.

1141.11. A corporation referred to in any of sections 1141, 1141.1 and 1141.2.2 may deduct from its paid-up capital otherwise determined for a taxation year under this Title the amount provided for in its respect for the year in section 57 of the Act respecting international financial centres (chapter C-8.3).

2005, c. 38, s. 328.

BOOK IV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1979, c. 38, s. 27.

1142. For the purposes of this Part, a corporation must file the financial statements of a partnership or joint venture in which it has an interest with respect to the fiscal period the end of which coincides with that of the fiscal period of the corporation or, as the case may be, which immediately precedes it.

1972, c. 23, s. 855; 1979, c. 38, s. 27; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1143. A corporation is exempt from capital tax where a corporation is

(a) a corporation, other than a prescribed corporation, that is exempt from tax under sections 980 to 996 or 998 and 998.1; or

(b) a corporation whose property is deemed to be the property of an inter vivos trust referred to in section 851.25.

The same applies to a security fund belonging to the group of the Fédération des caisses Desjardins du Québec established under the Act respecting financial services cooperatives (chapter C-67.3), and to Aéroports de Montréal, a corporation incorporated under Part II of the Canada Corporations Act (R.S.C. 1970, c. C-32), if the requirements of paragraphs a and b of subsection 1 of section 8 of the Airport Transfer (Miscellaneous Matters) Act (S.C. 1992, c. 5) are met in respect of the latter corporation for the taxation year.

However, a corporation withdrawn by section 192 from the application of section 985 is not exempt from tax.

Furthermore, a corporation that is a charity within the meaning of section 1, or whose property is deemed to be the property of an inter vivos trust contemplated in section 851.25, and that is exempt from tax under the first paragraph, must nevertheless pay the tax on its paid-up capital which pertains to a business carried on by it.

1972, c. 23, s. 856; 1979, c. 38, s. 27; 1981, c. 12, s. 15; 1995, c. 49, s. 236; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1997, c. 14, s. 281; 1999, c. 83, s. 268; 2000, c. 5, s. 291; 2000, c. 29, s. 658.

1143.0.1. No prescribed corporation for the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1143 may deduct an amount under section 1138.2.2, 1138.2.4 or 1141.8.

However, the first paragraph does not apply in respect of a deduction provided for in section 1138.2.2 or 1141.8 in relation to a major investment project in respect of which an application to obtain that deduction, accompanied by the required documents, was sent to the Minister of Finance before 11 March 2003.

2005, c. 1, s. 287.

1143.1. The Minister may, where a corporation applies therefor in writing, recognize a corporation as a loan corporation from the date or the taxation year, as the case may be, indicated by the Minister in a letter sent to the corporation.

1997, c. 85, s. 318.

1143.2. The Minister may revoke the recognition of a corporation as a loan corporation if the Minister considers that the conditions determined by the Minister to maintain the recognition are no longer met by the corporation, or if the corporation makes a request that the recognition be revoked.

The revocation takes effect from the date or the taxation year, as the case may be, indicated by the Minister in the notice sent to the corporation by the Minister.

1997, c. 85, s. 318.

1144. The Government may make regulations

(a) exempting from capital tax, on the conditions prescribed by it, any corporation in the process of winding-up or under sequestration, any inactive corporation, or any corporation incorporated for cultural or agricultural purposes or for drainage or water supply purposes;

(b) determining what constitutes an investment;

(c) determining the paid-up capital of a corporation that is not resident in Canada;

(d) prescribing the measures required for the application of this Part.

PART IV.1

COMPENSATION TAX FOR FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

1993, c. 19, s. 148.

BOOK I

INTERPRETATION

1993, c. 19, s. 148; 1997, c. 14, s. 283.

1159.1. In this Part, unless the context indicates otherwise,

"amount paid as wages" means the aggregate of all amounts each of which is wages paid by a financial institution to an employee who reports for work at its establishment in Québec, that it is deemed to pay to the employee or that it pays in respect of the employee, or to an employee to whom those wages, if the employee is not required to report for work at an establishment of the financial institution, are paid, deemed to be paid or paid in respect of the employee from such an establishment in Québec;

"bank" means a bank, within the meaning of section 1, that has an establishment in Québec in a taxation year;

"base wages" means the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount paid by a person, in respect of an individual, to a trustee or custodian under a profit sharing plan, an employee trust or an employee benefit plan, within the meaning assigned to those expressions by section 1, and

(a) any amount, other than an amount described in section 1159.1.0.1, that is paid, allocated, granted or awarded by the person and that is included under Chapters I and II of Title II of Book III of Part I, except the second paragraph of section 39.6 and section 58.0.1, as it read before being repealed, in computing the individual's income from an office or employment or that would be included in computing that income if the individual were subject to tax under Part I; and

(b) any amount that the person is deemed to pay to the individual under section 1019.7 or 1159.1.0.2;

"corporation trading in securities" means a corporation that is a registered securities dealer within the meaning of section 1 and that has an establishment in Québec in a taxation year;

"employee" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"establishment" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"financial institution" means a financial institution referred to in paragraph a of subsection 1 of section 149 of the Excise Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. E-15), with the exception of

(a) a corporation established under the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. C-3),

(b) a State body or corporation mentioned in Schedules A and B to the Reciprocal Taxation Memorandum of Agreement/Canada-Québec entered into on 21 December 1990, and

(c) a body or corporation of Her Majesty in right of Canada that is not mentioned in Schedule I to the Federal-Provincial Fiscal Arrangements Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. F-8);

"financial service" has the meaning assigned by section 123 of the Excise Tax Act;

"independent corporation trading in securities" means a corporation trading in securities that, in a taxation year, is not associated, within the meaning of Part I, with a bank, a credit union or an insurance corporation;

"independent loan corporation" means a loan corporation that, in a taxation year, is not associated, within the meaning of Part I, with a bank, a credit union or an insurance corporation;

"independent trust corporation" means a trust corporation that, in a taxation year, is not associated, within the meaning of Part I, with a bank, a credit union or an insurance corporation;

"insurance corporation" means an insurance corporation within the meaning of section 1166 that is liable to pay tax under Part VI;

"legal representative" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"loan corporation" means a corporation that has an establishment in Québec in a taxation year and that is

(a) a corporation, other than a trust corporation, authorized by the legislation of Canada or of a province to accept deposits from the public;

(b) a corporation all or substantially all of the assets of which are shares or debts of corporations referred to in Title II of Book III of Part IV to which it is related for the purposes of that Part; or

(c) a corporation recognized by the Minister in accordance with section 1143.1 and whose recognition is in force;

"maximum amount subject to tax" of a person for a taxation year means, subject to sections 1159.1.0.0.1 and 1159.1.0.0.2,

(a) in the case of a bank, a loan corporation (other than an independent loan corporation), a trust corporation (other than an independent trust corporation) or a corporation trading in securities (other than an independent corporation trading in securities), $1,100,000,000;

(b) in the case of a savings and credit union, $550,000,000;

(b.1) in the case of an independent loan corporation, an independent trust corporation or an independent corporation trading in securities,

i. where the year begins after 31 March 2020, $275,000,000, and

ii. where the year ends after 31 March 2020 and includes that date,

(1) for the purposes of subparagraph i of subparagraph a.1 of the first paragraph of section 1159.3, enacted by subparagraph a.1 of the first paragraph of section 1159.3.3.3, the product obtained by multiplying $275,000,000 by the proportion that the number of days in the year that follow 31 March 2020 is of 365, and

(2) for the purposes of subparagraphs ii and iii of subparagraph a.1 of the first paragraph of section 1159.3, enacted by subparagraph a.1 of the first paragraph of section 1159.3.3.3, the product obtained by multiplying $1,100,000,000 by the proportion that the number of days in the year that precede 1 April 2020 is of 365; and

(c) in the case of a person who is referred to in neither paragraph b.1 nor any of subparagraphs a to d.1 of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 and who made, with a person referred to in any of those subparagraphs a to d.1, an election under subsection 1 of section 150 of the Excise Tax Act that is in effect in the year, $275,000,000;

"person" has the meaning assigned by section 123 of the Excise Tax Act;

"professional order" has the meaning assigned by section 1 of the Professional Code (chapter C-26);

"savings and credit union" has the meaning assigned by section 797;

"supply" has the meaning assigned by section 123 of the Excise Tax Act;

"taxation year" has the meaning assigned by Part I and, in the case of a person other than a person within the meaning of Part I, means a calendar year;

"trust corporation" means a corporation that is authorized under the legislation of Canada or of a province to provide trustee services and that has an establishment in Québec in a taxation year;

"wages" means base wages, except wages paid by a financial institution to a person who is, within the meaning of an agreement on social security that provides for the reciprocal coverage of health insurance plans, entered into between the Gouvernement du Québec and the government of a foreign country, a worker on secondment, for the period in which the person is such a seconded worker, if under the agreement the person is subject only to the legislation of the foreign country to which the reciprocal coverage applies.

1993, c. 19, s. 148; 1995, c. 63, s. 253; 1997, c. 3, s. 67; 1997, c. 14, s. 290; 1998, c. 16, s. 247; 1999, c. 89, s. 53; 2000, c. 5, s. 292; 2002, c. 40, s. 322; 2005, c. 38, s. 329; 2007, c. 12, s. 304; 2011, c. 1, s. 109; 2011, c. 34, s. 118; 2012, c. 8, s. 250; 2013, c. 10, s. 174; 2015, c. 21, s. 528; 2019, c. 14, s. 455; 2021, c. 14, s. 193.

1159.1.0.0.1. For the purposes of the definition of "maximum amount subject to tax" in section 1159.1, a person's maximum amount subject to tax for the person's taxation year that includes 1 April 2018 is equal to the proportion of the person's maximum amount subject to tax for the year otherwise determined that the number of days in the taxation year that follow 31 March 2018 is of 365.

2019, c. 14, s. 456; 2021, c. 36, s. 156.

1159.1.0.0.2. For the purposes of the definition of "maximum amount subject to tax" in section 1159.1, a person's maximum amount subject to tax for a taxation year that has less than 365 days (other than a taxation year of the person that includes 1 April 2018) is equal to the proportion of the person's maximum amount subject to tax for the year otherwise determined that the number of days in the taxation year is of 365.

The first paragraph does not apply for the purpose of determining the maximum amount subject to tax of an independent trust corporation, an independent loan corporation or an independent corporation trading in securities for its taxation year that ends after 31 March 2020 and includes that date.

2019, c. 14, s. 456; 2021, c. 14, s. 194; 2021, c. 36, s. 157.

1159.1.0.0.3. For the purposes of this Part, where a particular financial institution pays, at a particular time in a taxation year, wages to an employee while the employee renders services to another financial institution in an establishment of the other financial institution situated in Québec, where the services rendered by the employee to the other financial institution are rendered as part of the regular and ongoing activities of the other financial institution and are of the same type as services rendered by employees of the other financial institution, where the particular financial institution is not dealing at arm's length with the other financial institution at the particular time and where it may reasonably be considered that the wages are paid in order to allow the particular financial institution to reach more quickly the maximum amount subject to tax determined in its respect for the taxation year, the following rules apply:

(a) the wages paid by the particular financial institution to the employee are deemed to be wages paid by the other financial institution at the particular time; and

(b) the wages deemed to be paid by the other financial institution are deemed not to have been paid by the particular financial institution.

2019, c. 14, s. 456.

1159.1.0.1. The amount to which paragraph a of the definition of "base wages" in section 1159.1 refers is

(a) an amount equal to the value of the benefit that is received or enjoyed by the individual referred to in that paragraph a because of, or in the course of, the individual's office or employment, and that is derived from the amount paid by the person referred to in that paragraph a to obtain, for the benefit of the individual and after 31 December 2012, a share, within the meaning of section 1, referred to in paragraph a or b of section 776.1.1; or

(b) hourly, half-day or full-day fees that the individual referred to in that paragraph a receives as

i. a member, appointed by the Government, of a commission, including a public inquiry commission, an evaluation committee, a committee or panel of experts or a working group created for a definite period of time, or

ii. a member of a candidate selection or review committee formed for that purpose under an Act of Québec.

2013, c. 10, s. 175; 2015, c. 24, s. 158.

1159.1.0.2. A particular person is deemed to pay to an individual who is referred to in paragraph a of the definition of "base wages" in section 1159.1, and who is the particular person's employee, any particular amount that is described in that paragraph a and is paid, allocated, granted or awarded to the individual because of, or in the course of, the individual's office or employment by a person who is not dealing at arm's length with the particular person, unless the particular amount would not be required to be included in computing the individual's income under Chapters I and II of Book III of Part I if it were paid, allocated, granted or awarded, as the case may be, to the individual by the particular person.

2015, c. 21, s. 529.

1159.1.1. For the purposes of the definition of "amount paid as wages" in section 1159.1,

(a) an employee who reports for work at an establishment of the financial institution that pays his wages,

i. in respect of wages that are not described in subparagraph ii, means an employee who reports for work at that establishment for his regular pay period to which the wages relate, and

ii. in respect of wages that are paid as a premium, an increase with retroactive effect or a vacation pay, that are paid to a trustee or custodian in respect of the employee or that do not relate to a regular pay period of the employee, means an employee who ordinarily reports for work at that establishment;

(b) where, during a regular pay period of an employee, the employee reports for work at an establishment of the financial institution situated in Québec and at an establishment of the financial institution situated outside Québec, the employee is deemed for that period, in respect of wages that are not described in subparagraph ii of paragraph a,

i. except where subparagraph ii applies, to report for work only at the establishment situated in Québec, and

ii. to report for work only at the establishment situated outside Québec where, during that period, he reports for work mainly at such an establishment of the financial institution; and

(c) where an employee ordinarily reports for work at an establishment of the financial institution situated in Québec and at an establishment of the financial institution situated outside Québec, the employee is deemed, in respect of the wages described in subparagraph ii of paragraph a, to report for work only at the establishment situated in Québec.

1997, c. 14, s. 284; 2005, c. 38, s. 330.

1159.1.2. For the purposes of this Part, a reference to wages that a financial institution pays or has paid is a reference to wages that the financial institution pays, allocates, grants or awards or has paid, allocated, granted or awarded.

2005, c. 38, s. 331.

BOOK II

LIABILITY FOR AND AMOUNT OF THE TAX

1993, c. 19, s. 148.

1159.2. Every person that is a financial institution at any time in a taxation year shall pay a compensation tax for that year.

1993, c. 19, s. 148; 2015, c. 21, s. 530; 2017, c. 29, s. 218; 2021, c. 36, s. 158.

1159.3. Subject to the first paragraph of sections 1159.3.1 to 1159.3.4, the compensation tax a person referred to in section 1159.2 is required to pay for a taxation year is equal to,

(a) in the case of a bank, a loan corporation, a trust corporation or a corporation trading in securities, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of

i. 0.25% of its paid-up capital as established for the year under Title II of Book III of Part IV, computed without reference to sections 1141.3 to 1141.11, and

ii. 2% of the amount paid as wages in the year;

(b) in the case of an insurance corporation, the aggregate of

i. 0.35% of any premium payable in respect of which tax is to be paid in the year under Book II of Part VI, without reference to subparagraph b of the third paragraph of section 1167 and section 1170.1, and

ii. 0.35% of any taxable premium that is paid in respect of which tax is to be paid in the year under Book III of Part VI;

iii. (subparagraph repealed);

(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, 2.5% of the amount paid as wages in the year;

(d) in the case of a person referred to in either of subparagraphs a and c that is also an insurance corporation, the aggregate of

i. the amount otherwise determined in the person's respect under subparagraph a or c, as the case may be, and

ii. 0.35% of any taxable premium that is paid in respect of which tax is to be paid in the year under Book III of Part VI;

(d.1) in the case of a professional order that has set up an insurance fund, in accordance with section 86.1 of the Professional Code (chapter C-26), 0.35% of the amount established for the year in respect of the insurance fund in accordance with section 85.2 of that Code;

(e) in the case of any other person, 1% of the amount paid as wages in the year.

However, subject to the second paragraph of sections 1159.3.1 to 1159.3.4, if a person is not a financial institution throughout its taxation year, the compensation tax the person is required to pay for the year is equal to,

(a) in the case of a bank, a loan corporation, a trust corporation or a corporation trading in securities, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of

i. 0.25% of the product obtained by multiplying its paid-up capital as established for the year under Title II of Book III of Part IV, computed without reference to sections 1141.3 to 1141.11, by the proportion that the number of days in its taxation year during which it was a financial institution is of the number of days in its taxation year, and

ii. 2% of the amount paid as wages during the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution;

(b) in the case of an insurance corporation, the aggregate of

i. 0.35% of the product obtained by multiplying any premium payable in respect of which tax is to be paid in the year under Book II of Part VI, without reference to subparagraph b of the third paragraph of section 1167 and section 1170.1, by the proportion that the number of days in its taxation year during which it was a financial institution is of the number of days in its taxation year, and

ii. 0.35% of the product obtained by multiplying any taxable premium that is paid in respect of which tax is to be paid in the year under Book III of Part VI by the ratio between the number of days in its taxation year during which it was a financial institution and the number of days in its taxation year;

iii. (subparagraph repealed);

(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, 2.5% of the amount paid as wages during the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution;

(d) in the case of a person referred to in either of subparagraphs a and c that is also an insurance corporation, the aggregate of

i. the amount otherwise determined in its respect under subparagraph a or c, as the case may be, and

ii. 0.35% of the product obtained by multiplying the amount of any taxable premium that is paid in respect of which tax is to be paid in the year under Book III of Part VI by the ratio between the number of days in its taxation year during which it was a financial institution and the number of days in its taxation year;

(e) in the case of any other person, except a professional order that has set up an insurance fund, in accordance with section 86.1 of the Professional Code, 1% of the amount paid as wages during the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, where a person is a financial institution, with the exception of a corporation that is deemed to be a financial institution by reason of an election made by it under section 150 of the Excise Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. E-15), at any time in its taxation year, it is deemed to be such an institution throughout the period commencing at that time and ending on the last day of its taxation year.

1159.3.1. If the taxation year for which a compensation tax is computed under the first paragraph of section 1159.3 ends before 1 January 2013 and is included, in whole or in part, in the period beginning on 31 March 2010 and ending on 31 December 2012 (in this section referred to as the "rate increase period"), the following rules apply:

(a) subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"ii. the aggregate of 3.9% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that is included in the rate increase period and 2% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that is not included in that period;" ;

(b) the rate mentioned in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph b, in subparagraph ii of subparagraph d and in subparagraph d.1 of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is replaced by a rate equal to the total of

i. the proportion of 0.55% that the number of days in the taxation year that are included in the rate increase period is of the number of days in the taxation year, and

ii. the proportion of 0.35% that the number of days in the taxation year that are not included in the rate increase period is of the number of days in the taxation year;

(c) subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 3.8% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that is included in the rate increase period and 2.5% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that is not included in that period;" ; and

(d) subparagraph e of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(e) in the case of any other person, the aggregate of 1.5% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that is included in the rate increase period and 1% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that is not included in that period."

If the taxation year for which a compensation tax is computed under the second paragraph of section 1159.3 ends before 1 January 2013 and is included, in whole or in part, in the rate increase period, the following rules apply:

(a) subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"ii. the aggregate of 3.9% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that are included in the rate increase period and 2% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that are not included in that period;" ;

(b) the rate mentioned in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph b and in subparagraph ii of subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is replaced by a rate equal to the total of

i. the proportion of 0.55% that the number of days in the taxation year, included in the rate increase period, during which the person was a financial institution is of the number of days in the taxation year during which the person was a financial institution, and

ii. the proportion of 0.35% that the number of days in the taxation year, not included in the rate increase period, during which the person was a financial institution is of the number of days in the taxation year during which the person was a financial institution;

(c) subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 3.8% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that are included in the rate increase period and 2% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that are not included in that period;" ; and

(d) subparagraph e of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(e) in the case of any other person, except a professional order that has set up an insurance fund, in accordance with section 86.1 of the Professional Code (chapter C-26), the aggregate of 1.5% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that are included in the rate increase period and 1% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that are not included in that period.".

1159.3.2. If the taxation year for which a compensation tax is computed under the first paragraph of section 1159.3 ends after 31 December 2012 and before 3 December 2014, the following rules apply:

(a) subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 are to be read as follows:

"i. the proportion of 0.25% of its paid-up capital as established for the year under Title II of Book III of Part IV, computed without reference to sections 1141.3 to 1141.11, that the number of days in its taxation year that precede 1 January 2013 is of the number of days in its taxation year, and

"ii. the aggregate of 2.8% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 31 December 2012 and 3.9% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 January 2013;";

(b) the rate mentioned in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph b, subparagraph ii of subparagraph d and subparagraph d.1 of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is replaced by a rate equal to the total of

i. the proportion of 0.3% that the number of days in the taxation year that follow 31 December 2012 is of the number of days in the taxation year, and

ii. the proportion of 0.55% that the number of days in the taxation year that precede 1 January 2013 is of the number of days in the taxation year;

(c) subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 2.2% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 31 December 2012 and 3.8% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 January 2013;";

(d) subparagraph e of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(e) in the case of a person who is not referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d.1 and who made, with a person referred to in any of those subparagraphs, an election under subsection 1 of section 150 of the Excise Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. E-15) that is in effect in the year, the aggregate of 0.9% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year during which the election was in effect and that follows 31 December 2012 and 1.5% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 January 2013;"; and

(e) the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as if the following subparagraph were added after subparagraph e:

"(f) in the case of any other person, 1.5% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 January 2013.".

If the taxation year for which a compensation tax is computed under the second paragraph of section 1159.3 ends after 31 December 2012 and before 3 December 2014, the following rules apply:

(a) subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 are to be read as follows:

"i. the proportion of 0.25% of its paid-up capital as established for the year under Title II of Book III of Part IV, computed without reference to sections 1141.3 to 1141.11, that the number of days in its taxation year during which it was a financial institution that precede 1 January 2013 is of the number of days in its taxation year, and

"ii. the aggregate of 2.8% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 December 2012 and 3.9% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 January 2013;";

(b) the rate mentioned in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph b and subparagraph ii of subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is replaced by a rate equal to the total of

i. the proportion of 0.3% that the number of days in the taxation year during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 December 2012 is of the number of days in the taxation year during which the person was a financial institution, and

ii. the proportion of 0.55% that the number of days in the taxation year during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 January 2013 is of the number of days in the taxation year during which the person was a financial institution;

(c) subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 2.2% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 December 2012 and 3.8% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 January 2013;";

(d) subparagraph e of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(e) in the case of a person who is not referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d and who made, with a person referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d.1 of the first paragraph, an election under subsection 1 of section 150 of the Excise Tax Act that is in effect in the year, the aggregate of 0.9% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution and the election was in effect and that follow 31 December 2012 and 1.5% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 January 2013;"; and

(e) the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as if the following subparagraph were added after subparagraph e:

"(f) in the case of any other person, except a professional order that has set up an insurance fund in accordance with section 86.1 of the Professional Code (chapter C-26), 1.5% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 January 2013."

2015, c. 21, s. 533.

1159.3.3. If the taxation year for which a compensation tax is computed under the first paragraph of section 1159.3 ends after 2 December 2014 and before 1 April 2018, the following rules apply:

(a) subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(a) in the case of a bank, a loan corporation, a trust corporation or a corporation trading in securities, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 4.48% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 2 December 2014 and 2.8% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 3 December 2014;";

(b) the rate mentioned in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph b, subparagraph ii of subparagraph d and subparagraph d.1 of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is replaced by a rate equal to the total of

i. the proportion of 0.48% that the number of days in the taxation year that follow 2 December 2014 is of the number of days in the taxation year, and

ii. the proportion of 0.3% that the number of days in the taxation year that precede 3 December 2014 is of the number of days in the taxation year;

(c) subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 3.52% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 2 December 2014 and 2.2% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 3 December 2014;"; and

(d) subparagraph e of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(e) in the case of a person who is not referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d.1 and who made, with a person referred to in any of those subparagraphs, an election under subsection 1 of section 150 of the Excise Tax Act (R.R.C. 1985, c. E-15) that is in effect in the year, the aggregate of 1.44% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year during which the election was in effect and that follows 2 December 2014 and 0.9% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year in which the election was in effect that precedes 3 December 2014."

If the taxation year for which a compensation tax is computed under the second paragraph of section 1159.3 ends after 2 December 2014 and before 1 April 2018, the following rules apply:

(a) subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(a) in the case of a bank, a loan corporation, a trust corporation or a corporation trading in securities, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 4.48% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 2 December 2014 and 2.8% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 3 December 2014;";

(b) the rate mentioned in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph b and subparagraph ii of subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is replaced by a rate equal to the total of

i. the proportion of 0.48% that the number of days in the taxation year during which the person was a financial institution that follow 2 December 2014 is of the number of days in the taxation year during which the person was a financial institution, and

ii. the proportion of 0.3% that the number of days in the taxation year during which the person was a financial institution that precede 3 December 2014 is of the number of days in the taxation year during which the person was a financial institution;

(c) subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 3.52% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 2 December 2014 and 2.2% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 3 December 2014;"; and

(d) subparagraph e of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(e) in the case of a person who is not referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d and who made, with a person referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d.1 of the first paragraph, an election under subsection 1 of section 150 of the Excise Tax Act that is in effect in the year, the aggregate of 1.44% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution and the election was in effect and that follow 2 December 2014 and 0.9% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution and in which the election was in effect that precede 3 December 2014."

2015, c. 21, s. 533; 2017, c. 29, s. 219; 2019, c. 14, s. 457.

1159.3.3.1. Where the taxation year for which a compensation tax is computed under the first paragraph of section 1159.3 ends after 31 March 2018 and before 1 April 2019, the following rules apply:

(a) subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(a) in the case of a bank, a loan corporation, a trust corporation or a corporation trading in securities, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of

i. 4.29% of the lesser of its maximum amount subject to tax for the year and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 31 March 2018, and

ii. 4.48% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2018;";

(b) the rate mentioned in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph b, subparagraph ii of subparagraph d and subparagraph d.1 of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is replaced by a rate of 0.48%;

(c) subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of

i. 3.39% of the lesser of its maximum amount subject to tax for the year and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 31 March 2018, and

ii. 3.52% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2018;"; and

(d) subparagraph e of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(e) in the case of a person who is not referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d.1 and who made, with a person referred to in any of those subparagraphs, an election under subsection 1 of section 150 of the Excise Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter E-15) that is in effect in the year, the aggregate of

i. 1.37% of the lesser of its maximum amount subject to tax for the year and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year during which the election was in effect that follows 31 March 2018, and

ii. 1.44% of the amount paid as wages in the part of the year in which the election was in effect that precedes 1 April 2018."

Where the taxation year for which a compensation tax is computed under the second paragraph of section 1159.3 ends after 31 March 2018 and before 1 April 2019, the following rules apply:

(a) subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(a) in the case of a bank, a loan corporation, a trust corporation or a corporation trading in securities, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 4.29% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 March 2018 and 4.48% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 April 2018;";

(b) the rate mentioned in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph b and subparagraph ii of subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is replaced by a rate of 0.48%;

(c) subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 3.39% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 March 2018 and 3.52% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 April 2018;"; and

(d) subparagraph e of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(e) in the case of a person who is not referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d and who made, with a person referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d.1 of the first paragraph, an election under subsection 1 of section 150 of the Excise Tax Act that is in effect in the year, the aggregate of 1.37% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution and the election was in effect that follow 31 March 2018 and 1.44% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution and in which the election was in effect that precede 1 April 2018."

2019, c. 14, s. 458.

1159.3.3.2. Where the taxation year for which a compensation tax is computed under the first paragraph of section 1159.3 ends after 31 March 2019 and before 1 April 2020, the following rules apply:

(a) subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(a) in the case of a bank, a loan corporation, a trust corporation or a corporation trading in securities, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of

(c) subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 3.3% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 March 2019, 3.39% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 March 2018 and precede 1 April 2019 and 3.52% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 April 2018;"; and

(d) subparagraph e of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(e) in the case of a person who is not referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d and who made, with a person referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d.1 of the first paragraph, an election under subsection 1 of section 150 of the Excise Tax Act that is in effect in the year, the aggregate of 1.34% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution and the election was in effect that follow 31 March 2019, 1.37% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution and in which the election was in effect that follow 31 March 2018 and precede 1 April 2019 and 1.44% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution and in which the election was in effect that precede 1 April 2018."

2019, c. 14, s. 458.

1159.3.3.3. Where the taxation year for which a compensation tax is computed under the first paragraph of section 1159.3 ends after 31 March 2020 and before 1 April 2022, the following rules apply:

(a) subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(a) in the case of a bank, a loan corporation (other than an independent loan corporation), a trust corporation (other than an independent trust corporation) or a corporation trading in securities (other than an independent corporation trading in securities), subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of

i. 4.14% of the lesser of the amount by which its maximum amount subject to tax for the year exceeds the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2020 and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 31 March 2020,

ii. 4.22% of the lesser of the amount by which its maximum amount subject to tax for the year exceeds the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2019 and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 31 March 2019 and precedes 1 April 2020, and

iii. 4.29% of the lesser of its maximum amount subject to tax for the year and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2019;";

(a.1*)* the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as if the following subparagraph were inserted after subparagraph a:

"(a.1) in the case of an independent loan corporation, an independent trust corporation or an independent corporation trading in securities, the aggregate of

i. 1.32% of the lesser of its maximum amount subject to tax for the year, determined in accordance with subparagraph i of paragraph b.1 of the definition of "maximum amount subject to tax" in section 1159.1 or in accordance with subparagraph 1 of subparagraph ii of that paragraph b.1, as the case may be, and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 31 March 2020,

ii. 4.22% of the lesser of the amount by which its maximum amount subject to tax for the year, determined, if the year includes 31 March 2020, in accordance with subparagraph 2 of subparagraph ii of paragraph b.1 of the definition of "maximum amount subject to tax" in section 1159.1, exceeds the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2019 and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 31 March 2019 and precedes 1 April 2020, and

iii. 4.29% of the lesser of its maximum amount subject to tax for the year, determined, if the year includes 31 March 2020, in accordance with subparagraph 2 of subparagraph ii of paragraph b.1 of the definition of "maximum amount subject to tax" in section 1159.1, and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2019;";

(b) the rate mentioned in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph b, subparagraph ii of subparagraph d and subparagraph d.1 of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is replaced by a rate of 0.48%;

(c) subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of

i. 3.26% of the lesser of the amount by which its maximum amount subject to tax for the year exceeds the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2020 and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 31 March 2020,

ii. 3.3% of the lesser of the amount by which its maximum amount subject to tax for the year exceeds the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2019 and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 31 March 2019 and precedes 1 April 2020, and

iii. 3.39% of the lesser of its maximum amount subject to tax for the year and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2019;"; and

(d) subparagraph e of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(e) in the case of a person who is not referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d.1 and who made, with a person referred to in any of those subparagraphs, an election under subsection 1 of section 150 of the Excise Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter E-15) that is in effect in the year, the aggregate of

i. 1.32% of the lesser of the amount by which its maximum amount subject to tax for the year exceeds the amount paid as wages in the part of the year during which the election was in effect that precedes 1 April 2020 and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year during which the election was in effect that follows 31 March 2020,

ii. 1.34% of the lesser of the amount by which its maximum amount subject to tax for the year exceeds the amount paid as wages in the part of the year in which the election was in effect that precedes 1 April 2019 and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year during which the election was in effect that follows 31 March 2019 and precedes 1 April 2020, and

iii. 1.37% of the lesser of its maximum amount subject to tax for the year and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year during which the election was in effect that precedes 1 April 2019."

Where the taxation year for which a compensation tax is computed under the second paragraph of section 1159.3 ends after 31 March 2020 and before 1 April 2022, the following rules apply:

(a) subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(a) in the case of a bank, a loan corporation (other than an independent loan corporation), a trust corporation (other than an independent trust corporation) or a corporation trading in securities (other than an independent corporation trading in securities), subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 4.14% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 March 2020, 4.22% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 March 2019 and precede 1 April 2020 and 4.29% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 April 2019;";

(a.1) the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as if the following subparagraph were inserted after subparagraph a:

"(a.1) in the case of an independent loan corporation, an independent trust corporation or an independent corporation trading in securities, the aggregate of 1.32% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 March 2020, 4.22% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 March 2019 and precede 1 April 2020 and 4.29% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 April 2019;";

(b) the rate mentioned in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph b and subparagraph ii of subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is replaced by a rate of 0.48%;

(c) subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 3.26% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 March 2020, 3.3% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 March 2019 and precede 1 April 2020 and 3.39% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 April 2019;"; and

(d) subparagraph e of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(e) in the case of a person who is not referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d and who made, with a person referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d.1 of the first paragraph, an election under subsection 1 of section 150 of the Excise Tax Act that is in effect in the year, the aggregate of 1.32% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution and the election was in effect that follow 31 March 2020, 1.34% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution and in which the election was in effect that follow 31 March 2019 and precede 1 April 2020 and 1.37% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution and in which the election was in effect that precede 1 April 2019."

2019, c. 14, s. 458; 2021, c. 14, s. 195.

1159.3.4. If the taxation year for which a compensation tax is computed under the first paragraph of section 1159.3 ends after 31 March 2022, the following rules apply:

(a) subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(a) in the case of a bank, a loan corporation (other than an independent loan corporation), a trust corporation (other than an independent trust corporation) or a corporation trading in securities (other than an independent corporation trading in securities), subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of

i. 2.8% of the lesser of the amount by which its maximum amount subject to tax for the year exceeds the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2022 and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 31 March 2022, and

ii. 4.14% of the lesser of its maximum amount subject to tax for the year and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2022;";

(a.1*)* the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as if the following subparagraph were inserted after subparagraph a:

"(a.1) in the case of an independent loan corporation, an independent trust corporation or an independent corporation trading in securities, the aggregate of

i. 0.9% of the lesser of the amount by which its maximum amount subject to tax for the year exceeds the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2022 and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 31 March 2022, and

ii. 1.32% of the lesser of its maximum amount subject to tax for the year and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2022;";

(b) the rate mentioned in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph b, subparagraph ii of subparagraph d and subparagraph d.1 of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is replaced by a rate equal to the total of

i. the proportion of 0.3% that the number of days in the taxation year that follow 31 March 2022 is of the number of days in the taxation year, and

ii. the proportion of 0.48% that the number of days in the taxation year that precede 1 April 2022 is of the number of days in the taxation year;

(c) subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of

i. 2.2% of the lesser of the amount by which its maximum amount subject to tax for the year exceeds the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2022 and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that follows 31 March 2022, and

ii. 3.26% of the lesser of its maximum amount subject to tax for the year and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year that precedes 1 April 2022;"; and

(d) subparagraph e of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(e) in the case of a person who is not referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d.1 and who made, with a person referred to in any of those subparagraphs, an election under subsection 1 of section 150 of the Excise Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. E-15) that is in effect in the year, the aggregate of

i. 0.9% of the lesser of the amount by which its maximum amount subject to tax for the year exceeds the amount paid as wages in the part of the year in which the election was in effect that precedes 1 April 2022 and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year during which the election was in effect that follows 31 March 2022, and

ii. 1.32% of the lesser of its maximum amount subject to tax for the year and the amount paid as wages in the part of the year in which the election was in effect that precedes 1 April 2022.".

If the taxation year for which a compensation tax is computed under the second paragraph of section 1159.3 ends after 31 March 2022, the following rules apply:

(a) subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(a) in the case of a bank, a loan corporation (other than an independent loan corporation), a trust corporation (other than an independent trust corporation) or a corporation trading in securities (other than an independent corporation trading in securities), subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 2.8% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 March 2022 and 4.14% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 April 2022;";

(a.1) the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as if the following subparagraph were inserted after subparagraph a:

"(a.1) in the case of an independent loan corporation, an independent trust corporation or an independent corporation trading in securities, the aggregate of 0.9% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 March 2022 and 1.32% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 April 2022;";

(b) the rate mentioned in subparagraphs i and ii of subparagraph b and subparagraph ii of subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is replaced by a rate equal to the total of

i. the proportion of 0.3% that the number of days in the taxation year during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 March 2022 is of the number of days in the taxation year during which the person was a financial institution, and

ii. the proportion of 0.48% that the number of days in the taxation year during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 April 2022 is of the number of days in the taxation year during which the person was a financial institution;

(c) subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(c) in the case of a savings and credit union, subject to subparagraph d, the aggregate of 2.2% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that follow 31 March 2022 and 3.26% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution that precede 1 April 2022;"; and

(d) subparagraph e of the second paragraph of section 1159.3 is to be read as follows:

"(e) in the case of a person who is not referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d and who made, with a person referred to in any of subparagraphs a to d.1 of the first paragraph, an election under subsection 1 of section 150 of the Excise Tax Act that is in effect in the year, the aggregate of 0.9% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution and the election was in effect that follow 31 March 2022 and 1.32% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution and in which the election was in effect that precede 1 April 2022."

2015, c. 21, s. 533; 2017, c. 29, s. 220; 2019, c. 14, s. 459; 2021, c. 14, s. 196; 2021, c. 36, s. 159.

1159.4. Where, in a taxation year, a corporation is deemed to be a financial institution by reason of the election made by the corporation under subsection 1 of section 150 of the Excise Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter E-15), or a savings and credit union is deemed to have made such an election under subsection 6 of the said section, and, for the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the corporation or savings and credit union was a financial institution, the value of its supplies that are financial services is less than 90% of the value of the aggregate of its supplies, the amount of the compensation tax is the amount determined by the formula

$$A \times B / C.$$

For the purposes of the formula set forth in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount of the compensation tax that would otherwise be computed under section 1159.3 if that section were read without reference to the third paragraph thereof;

(b) B is the value of the supplies of the corporation or the savings and credit union, as the case may be, that are financial services for the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which it was a financial institution, and

(c) C is the value of the aggregate of the supplies of the corporation or the savings and credit union, as the case may be, for the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which it was a financial institution.

1993, c. 19, s. 148; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1159.5. Where a financial institution referred to in subparagraph a of the first or second paragraph of section 1159.3 has an establishment situated outside Québec, subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the first or second paragraph, as the case may be, of the said section shall be construed as though the amount determined thereunder were equal to such proportion of the amount that would otherwise be determined thereunder as the business carried on by it in Québec is of the aggregate of the business carried on by it in Canada or in Québec and elsewhere, as determined by regulation.

1993, c. 19, s. 148; 1995, c. 1, s. 199.

1159.6. Where the taxation year of a financial institution referred to in subparagraph a of the first or second paragraph of section 1159.3 covers a period of less than 359 days, subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the first or second paragraph, as the case may be, of the said section shall be construed as though the amount determined thereunder were equal to such proportion of the amount that would otherwise be determined thereunder as the number of days in its taxation year is of 365.

1993, c. 19, s. 148.

BOOK III

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1993, c. 19, s. 148.

1159.7. Except where inconsistent with this Part, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549 and sections 1000 to 1027.0.3 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

Furthermore, for the purposes of this Part, the following rules apply:

(a) an insurance corporation that is not a corporation is deemed to be a corporation;

(b) the fiscal period of any corporation that is deemed to be a corporation under subparagraph a is deemed to be the taxation year of the corporation.

1993, c. 19, s. 148; 1993, c. 64, s. 198; 1995, c. 49, s. 236; 1995, c. 63, s. 261; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2005, c. 1, s. 289; 2006, c. 13, s. 221; 2009, c. 15, s. 445.

1159.8. Despite section 1000, every person other than a corporation shall file with the Minister in prescribed form, without notice or demand, a fiscal return containing prescribed information for each taxation year for which the person is required to pay tax under this Part, in respect of such portion of the tax as is determined by reference to the percentage of the amount paid as wages referred to in subparagraph e of the first or second paragraph of section 1159.3 or in subparagraph f of that first or second paragraph, enacted by subparagraph e of the first paragraph of section 1159.3.2 and subparagraph e of the second paragraph of that section, respectively.

Such return must be filed by the following persons and within the following time:

(a) in the case of a person who has died without making the return, by his legal representatives within 90 days after the person's death;

(b) in the case of a succession or trust, by the liquidator of the succession, the executor or the trustee, on or before the last day of February in the next calendar year;

(c) in the case of a person other than a person within the meaning of section 1, by the person or on his behalf, on or before the last day of February in the next calendar year;

(d) in the case of any other person, by that person or, if he is unable for any reason to file the return, by his adviser or legal representative, on or before the last day of February in the next calendar year;

(e) where no return has been filed pursuant to any of paragraphs a to d, by the person required by notice in writing from the Minister to file the return, within such time as the notice specifies.

Notwithstanding the second paragraph, the person who is required to file the return in prescribed form referred to in the first paragraph is the person who files or is required to file the return in prescribed form referred to in section 1086R1 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1).

1159.9. Notwithstanding section 1159.8, every person who, on the date on or before which an amount is to be paid by the person to the Minister under section 1159.10, ceases or fails to pay the amount shall file the fiscal return provided for in section 1159.8 in prescribed form as referred to therein on or before the twentieth day of the month following that in which an amount was last paid by him.

1993, c. 19, s. 148.

1159.10. Notwithstanding sections 1025 and 1026, every person, other than a corporation, who is liable to pay tax under this Part for a taxation year shall, in respect of such portion of the tax as is determined by reference to the percentage of the amount paid as wages referred to in subparagraph e of the first or second paragraph of section 1159.3, pay to the Minister, in respect of each month of that year during which the person was a financial institution, on or before the date on or before which the person is required to pay any amount to the Minister under section 1015 in respect of that month, an amount equal to the percentage of the amount paid as wages in respect of that month.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, in respect of the amount paid as wages after 31 December 2012 and before 12 July 2013, section 1159.3 is to be read without reference to subparagraph f of the first and second paragraphs, enacted by subparagraph e of the first and second paragraphs of section 1159.3.2, and as if subparagraph e of the first paragraph of section 1159.3 and subparagraph e of the second paragraph of that section were read respectively as follows:

"(e) in the case of any other person, 0.9% of the amount paid as wages;";

"(e) in the case of any other person, except a professional order that has set up an insurance fund in accordance with section 86.1 of the Professional Code, 0.9% of the amount paid as wages in the part or parts of the year, as the case may be, during which the person was a financial institution;".

1993, c. 19, s. 148; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2015, c. 21, s. 535.

1159.11. (Repealed).

1159.16. (Repealed).

1993, c. 19, s. 148; 1995, c. 63, s. 255.

1159.17. Where a person referred to in section 1171 is, at the time of the making of the insurance contract referred to in that section, a financial institution, the person shall, when filing the notice referred to in subsection 1 of that section, pay to the Minister a compensation tax equal to the percentage, specified in the second paragraph, of the amount of the premium payable by the person and in respect of which a tax must be paid under that section.

The percentage to which the first paragraph refers is equal to

(a) 0.35% in respect of a premium payable by a person before 31 March 2010;

(b) 0.55% in respect of a premium payable by a person during the period beginning on 31 March 2010 and ending on 31 December 2012;

(c) 0.3% in respect of a premium payable by a person during the period beginning on 1 January 2013 and ending on 2 December 2014;

(d) 0.48% in respect of a premium payable by a person during the period beginning on 3 December 2014 and ending on 31 March 2022; or

(e) 0.3% in respect of a premium payable by a person after 31 March 2022.

PART VI

TAX ON CAPITAL OF INSURANCE CORPORATIONS

1972, c. 23; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

BOOK I

RULES OF INTERPRETATION

1993, c. 19, s. 149; 2012, c. 8, s. 251.

1166. In this Part, unless the context indicates otherwise,

"amount allocated to the payment of a benefit" means the aggregate of benefits, other than benefits derived from a fund of an uninsured employee benefit plan, paid, in a taxation year, under an uninsured employee benefit plan, to the beneficiaries under the plan;

"carrying on business in Québec" means owning any property in Québec, having an establishment in Québec or exercising any of the corporate rights, powers or objects of a corporation in Québec;

"contribution" includes assessments, premium deposits, registration fees and any other compensation in respect of an uninsured employee benefit plan;

"establishment" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"fiscal period" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

"fund of an uninsured employee benefit plan" means the aggregate of contributions, other than an amount described in the second paragraph, paid in a taxation year under an uninsured employee benefit plan, if the aggregate of contributions paid during any month in that year exceeds the amount required to pay the foreseeable benefits payable in that month and within 30 days after the end of that month;

"insurance corporation" means an insurer, within the meaning given to that expression by the Insurers Act (chapter A-32.1), and includes any person, trust, association or group of persons administering an uninsured employee benefit plan or paying any amount into a fund of an uninsured employee benefit plan;

"month" means, where a taxation year commences on a day in a calendar month other than the first day of the month, any period commencing on that day in any calendar month within the taxation year, other than the month in which the year ends, and ending on the day immediately preceding that day in the calendar month following that month or, for the month in which the taxation year ends, on the day on which the taxation year ends, or where there is no such immediately preceding day in the following month, on the last day of that month;

"premium" means

(a) any amount payable as consideration for an insurance contract including the first premium and every other premium payable subsequently under such contract;

(b) premium deposits, assessments, registration fees, contributions of members and any other compensation given to benefit by an insurance contract;

"taxable premium" means a fund of an uninsured employee benefit plan and an amount allocated to the payment of a benefit;

"taxation year" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

"uninsured employee benefit plan" means a plan which gives protection against a risk that could otherwise be obtained by taking out a policy of personal insurance, whether the benefits are partly insured or not.

The following amounts are assimilated to taxable premiums:

(a) the amount of the administration costs in respect of an uninsured employee benefit plan paid to the person administering the uninsured employee benefit plan;

(b) the amount of the interest costs in respect of taxable premiums;

(c) the amount paid to make up a deficit relating to an uninsured employee benefit plan, whether or not it is in force at the time of the payment.

1972, c. 23, s. 876; 1974, c. 18, s. 46; 1979, c. 38, s. 29; 1993, c. 19, s. 150; 1994, c. 22, s. 348; 1995, c. 1, s. 196; 1997, c. 3, s. 68; 1997, c. 14, s. 285; 1997, c. 85, s. 319; 2002, c. 9, s. 134; 2005, c. 23, s. 260; 2007, c. 12, s. 304; 2018, c. 23, s. 811; 2019, c. 14, s. 460

1166.1. In this Part, where a Minister other than the Minister of Revenue or a body replaces or revokes a certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document that has been issued to a person or a partnership, the following rules apply in respect of the document, unless a more specific similar rule applies to it:

(a) the replaced document is null as of the date of its coming into force or of its deemed coming into force and the new document is deemed, unless it provides otherwise, to come into force as of that date and to have been issued at the time the replaced document was issued or is deemed to have been issued; and

(b) the revoked document is null as of the effective date of the revocation and is deemed not to have been issued, obtained or held as of that date.

Where a document is, without being replaced, amended by the revocation or replacement of any of its parts or in any other manner, the document before the amendment and the document as amended are deemed, for the purposes of this section, to be separate documents the first of which (referred to as the "replaced document") has been replaced by the second (referred to as the "new document").

Where, in the circumstances described in the second paragraph, a document is amended only for a part of its period of validity, the new document is deemed to describe both the situation prevailing before the amendment, as proven by the content of the replaced document, and the new situation, as proven by the content of the new document.

BOOK II

INSURANCE

1993, c. 19, s. 151.

1167. Every insurance corporation carrying on business in Québec, except that mentioned in paragraph b of section 998, shall pay for each 12-month period, as tax on capital, on every premium payable to the corporation or its agent with respect to its business in Québec other than an annuity contract, except on any reinsurance premium paid to the corporation by another insurance corporation, a tax equal to 3% of the premium payable.

The tax payable by an insurance corporation, other than such a corporation to which section 61 of the Act respecting international financial centres (chapter C-8.3) applies, shall not be less than

(a) $500 in the case of marine insurance corporations;

(b) $200 in the case of reciprocal or mutual insurance corporations;

(c) $600 in the case of life insurance corporations, corporations transacting both in marine insurance and another kind of insurance except life insurance, and in the case of any other insurance corporation.

For the purposes of this section, any premium due in respect of the following is deemed to be a premium payable with respect to business in Québec:

(a) the insurance of a person resident in Québec if the person is resident in Québec at the time the premium falls due;

(b) the insurance of property situated in Québec if the property is situated in Québec at any time during the term of the insurance contract;

(c) liability insurance subscribed by an underwriter resident or having an establishment in Québec, where the insurance covers in whole or in part the realization of a risk in Québec.

Finally, where a contract of insurance relates to property that is an automobile within the meaning of the Automobile Insurance Act (chapter A-25) and gives rise, in respect of a period, to a premium payable to an insurance corporation or its agent with respect to its business in Québec, the premium payable is deemed, for the purpose of computing the tax provided for in its respect under the first paragraph, to be equal to such proportion of the amount of direct written premiums of the insurance corporation for the period relating to the aggregate of such contracts of insurance, as is represented by the ratio, established in respect of the period and without reference to this paragraph, between the premium payable and the aggregate, for all such contracts of insurance, of premiums payable to the insurance corporation or its agent with respect to its business in Québec.

1168. (1) When a premium is already taxed by another province, state or country, the Minister may, if he considers it to be fair, exempt an insurance corporation from the obligation to pay the tax on that premium.

(2) Where insurance corporations incorporated in Québec are subject in another province, state or country to a tax higher than that exigible in that province, state or country from the insurance corporations incorporated therein, the Government may increase proportionately the tax on such corporations doing business in Québec.

1169. (Repealed).

1972, c. 23, s. 879; 1979, c. 38, s. 29.

1170. For the purposes of section 1167, a corporation may deduct from the premiums payable the return premiums and the cash value of the dividends paid or credited to policyholders to the extent that such return premiums and dividends are in respect of risks covered by the insurance of persons resident in Québec, the insurance of property situated in Québec or a liability insurance subscribed by an underwriter resident or having an establishment in Québec.

The corporation may not, however, deduct from the premiums payable payment to the policyholder of cash surrender or loan values.

1171. (1) The Minister shall be informed of every insurance contract affecting property situated in Québec and made after 1 September 1947 with an insurance corporation that is not resident in Canada and has no office therein. Every person and officer, agent or employee of such person having knowledge of the facts, shall within 30 days notify the Minister in writing, under oath, of the amount of that insurance and of the amount of premiums which would have been required for such insurance had it been placed with an insurance corporation having an office or place of business in Québec.

(2) The person contemplated in subsection 1 shall, upon filing the notice mentioned therein, pay to the Minister the amount which he would be entitled to receive from a corporation having an office or place of business in Québec had that insurance been placed with such corporation. When such insurance is effected directly by the possessor of the property, the notice shall be sent and the tax paid by him; when it is effected through an agent or broker, the notice shall be sent and the tax paid by that agent or broker.

BOOK III

UNINSURED EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN

1993, c. 19, s. 152.

1173.1. Every insurance corporation carrying on business in Québec shall pay, as tax on capital, for every taxation year, on every taxable premium paid in the year to the corporation or its agent in respect of a person resident in Québec at the time of payment, a tax equal to 3% of the taxable premium.

Where a taxable premium in respect of a particular uninsured employee benefit plan is not paid to an insurance corporation, that premium is deemed to be paid to the corporation that pays the premium in respect of the uninsured employee benefit plan.

In no case may the amount of the tax determined under the first paragraph to be paid by an insurance corporation, other than a corporation to which section 61 of the Act respecting international financial centres (chapter C-8.3) applies, be less than $600.

1993, c. 19, s. 152; 1993, c. 64, s. 201; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2002, c. 40, s. 323; 2015, c. 24, s. 161.

1173.2. The tax provided for in this Book does not apply

(a) to the portion of a taxable premium, other than a taxable premium that is a fund of an uninsured employee benefit plan, that corresponds to the payment, by an insurance corporation, of an amount, paid by reason of the loss of all or part of the income from an office or employment and that is income from an office or employment for which a contribution established under the Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases (chapter A-3.001), the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec (chapter R-5) or the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan (chapter R-9) is paid; or

(b) to any taxable premium which, after being paid to another insurance corporation, is a premium or another taxable premium, in the year or in any subsequent taxation year, in respect of which a tax is payable under this Part.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1993, c. 19, s. 152.

1173.3. Where an insurance corporation is required to pay, for a 12-month period ending in a taxation year, an amount determined under the second paragraph of section 1167 and, for that taxation year, the amount determined under the third paragraph of section 1173.1, the aggregate of all amounts payable under the said paragraphs shall be equal to $600.

1993, c. 19, s. 152; 1993, c. 64, s. 203; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1173.3.1. An insurance corporation that is required to pay an amount determined under the first paragraph of section 1167 is not required to pay the minimum amount determined under the third paragraph of section 1173.1.

An insurance corporation that is required to pay an amount determined under the first paragraph of section 1173.1 is not required to pay the minimum amount determined under the second paragraph of section 1167.

2002, c. 40, s. 324.

1173.4. For the purposes of this Part and sections 1000 to 1027 and 1037 to 1079.16, where those sections apply to this Part by reason of section 1175, an insurance corporation that is not a corporation is deemed to be a corporation and, for the purposes of Book III, its fiscal period is deemed to be its taxation year.

1174. Sections 1143 and 1144 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

Furthermore, the Government may make regulations to exempt, on such conditions as it may prescribe, an insurance corporation from paying taxes in respect of a class or a type of business.

1972, c. 23, s. 884; 1973, c. 18, s. 35; 1979, c. 38, s. 29; 1980, c. 13, s. 119; 1995, c. 63, s. 261; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1174.0.1. Section 1174 does not apply to Book III, except in respect of a prescribed insurance corporation or a prescribed taxable premium.

1993, c. 19, s. 153; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1174.0.2. Notwithstanding section 1174, where an insurance corporation is a fraternal benefit society, it is exempt from the tax payable under this Part only in respect of payable premiums other than premiums with respect to a life insurance business.

1993, c. 19, s. 153; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

PART VI.1

TAX ON CAPITAL OF LIFE INSURERS

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

BOOK I

INTERPRETATION

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

1175.1. In this Part,

"amount" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"Canadian reserve liabilities" has the meaning assigned by the regulations under section 818;

"carrying on business in Québec" has the meaning assigned by section 1166;

"contractual service margin" has the meaning assigned by subparagraph z of the first paragraph of section 835;

"foreign insurance subsidiary" of a life insurer, at a particular time, means a corporation not resident in Canada that

(a) carried on a life insurance business throughout its last taxation year ending at or before the particular time and did not carry on a life insurance business in Canada at any time in that taxation year; and

(b) is at the particular time

i. a subsidiary of the life insurer, and

ii. not a subsidiary of any corporation that is resident in Canada, carried on a life insurance business in Canada at any time in its last taxation year ending at or before the particular time and is a subsidiary of the life insurer;

"group of insurance contracts" has the meaning assigned by subparagraph u of the first paragraph of section 835;

"group of reinsurance contracts" has the meaning assigned by subparagraph x of the first paragraph of section 835;

"group of segregated fund policies" has the meaning assigned by subparagraph y of the first paragraph of section 835;

"life insurance business" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"life insurer" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"long-term debt" of a life insurer or of a foreign insurance subsidiary means its subordinated indebtedness, within the meaning assigned by subsection 1 of section 2 of the Insurance Companies Act (S.C. 1991, c. 47), evidenced by obligations issued for a term of not less than five years;

"policyholders' liabilities" has the meaning assigned by subparagraph z.2 of the first paragraph of section 835;

"province" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"reserves", in respect of a life insurer for a taxation year, means the amount at the end of the year of all of the life insurer's

(a) reserves, provisions and allowances, other than those in respect of depreciation or depletion and those for losses, in respect of a contract of lease or of leasing, that a life insurer carrying lease or leasing activities cannot deduct in computing its income under Part I; and

(b) deferred taxes or future taxes, depending on the method followed by the life insurer;

"subsidiary" of a corporation, in this definition referred to as the "parent corporation", means a corporation not less than 90% of the issued and outstanding shares of each class of the capital stock of which belong to

(a) the parent corporation;

(b) a corporation that is a subsidiary of the parent corporation; or

(c) any combination of corporations each of which is a corporation described in paragraph a or b;

"Superintendent of Financial Institutions", in respect of a life insurer, means

(a) the Superintendent of Financial Institutions for Canada, where the life insurer is required to report to that person; and

(b) where the life insurer is incorporated under the laws of a province, the superintendent of insurance or other similar agent or authority of that province, or the Autorité des marchés financiers, according to the person to whom the life insurer is required to report;

"taxation year" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

"total reserve liabilities" of an insurer at the end of a taxation year means the amount by which the aggregate amount of the insurer's liabilities and reserves at the end of the year in respect of all its insurance policies, other than liabilities and reserves in respect of a segregated fund, within the meaning of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 835, as determined for the purposes of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a reinsurance recoverable within the meaning of section 818R53 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1) reported as a reinsurance asset by the insurer as at the end of the year relating to those liabilities or reserves.

1997, c. 14, s. 286; 1997, c. 31, s. 141; 1998, c. 16, s. 249; 2000, c. 39, s. 260; 2001, c. 53, s. 256; 2002, c. 9, s. 137; 2002, c. 45, s. 520; 2004, c. 37, s. 90; 2007, c. 12, s. 304; 2013, c. 10, s. 176; 2019, c. 14, s. 465; 2023, c. 19, s. 126.

1175.2. For the purpose of determining any amount under this Part in respect of a corporation's capital, taxable capital, taxable capital employed in Québec or taxable capital employed in Canada,

(a) the equity and consolidation methods of accounting shall not be used; and

(b) subject to paragraph a and except as otherwise provided in this Part, the amounts that shall be used are the amounts shown on the balance sheet

i. presented to the shareholders of the corporation, in the case of a corporation other than a life insurer to which subparagraph ii applies or, where such a balance sheet was not prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or no such balance sheet was prepared, the amounts that would be shown if such a balance sheet had been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, or

ii. accepted by the Superintendent of Financial Institutions, in the case of a life insurer that is required to report to the Superintendent of Financial Institutions.

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

1175.3. A corporation that has already included or deducted an amount directly or indirectly in computing its capital, taxable capital, taxable capital employed in Québec or taxable capital employed in Canada for a taxation year is not required to include such amount again, or authorized, as the case may be, to deduct it again, either directly or indirectly, unless this Part expressly obliges or authorizes it to do so, or contains words that necessarily imply such obligation or authorization.

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

1175.3.1. In this Part, where a Minister other than the Minister of Revenue or a body replaces or revokes a certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document that has been issued to a person or a partnership, the following rules apply in respect of the document, unless a more specific similar rule applies to it:

(a) the replaced document is null as of the date of its coming into force or of its deemed coming into force and the new document is deemed, unless it provides otherwise, to come into force as of that date and to have been issued at the time the replaced document was issued or is deemed to have been issued; and

(b) the revoked document is null as of the effective date of the revocation and is deemed not to have been issued, obtained or held as of that date.

Where a document is, without being replaced, amended by the revocation or replacement of any of its parts or in any other manner, the document before the amendment and the document as amended are deemed, for the purposes of this section, to be separate documents the first of which (referred to as the "replaced document") has been replaced by the second (referred to as the "new document").

Where, in the circumstances described in the second paragraph, a document is amended only for a part of its period of validity, the new document is deemed to describe both the situation prevailing before the amendment, as proven by the content of the replaced document, and the new situation, as proven by the content of the new document.

LIABILITY FOR AND AMOUNT OF TAX

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

1175.4. Every life insurer that carries on business in Québec at any time in a taxation year shall pay a tax for the taxation year equal to the product obtained by multiplying 1.25% of its taxable capital employed in Québec by the proportion that the number of days in the taxation year after 9 May 1996 is of 365.

1175.5. A life insurer may deduct from its tax otherwise payable under this Part for a taxation year, an amount equal to the amount by which its tax payable for the year under Part I exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount the life insurer is deemed, under Chapter III. 1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, to have paid to the Minister as partial payment of its tax payable under Part I for the year.

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

BOOK III

COMPUTATION OF TAXABLE CAPITAL

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

1175.6. In this Part, the taxable capital employed in Québec of a life insurer that is resident in Canada at any time in a taxation year is, for the year, the amount determined by the formula

$$A - (B + C).$$

For the purposes of the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount obtained by multiplying the aggregate of the capital of the life insurer for the taxation year and the amount determined for the year in respect of the capital of its foreign insurance subsidiaries by the proportion that the Canadian reserve liabilities of the life insurer at the end of the taxation year is of the aggregate of its total reserve liabilities at the end of the year and the amount determined for the year in respect of the total reserve liabilities of its foreign insurance subsidiaries;

(b) B is the life insurer's capital allowance for the taxation year; and

(c) C is that proportion of the amount by which the amount determined under subparagraph a for the taxation year exceeds the amount referred to in subparagraph b that the business carried on by the life insurer in Canada but not in Québec for the taxation year is of the aggregate of its business carried on in Canada for the taxation year, as determined in accordance with the regulations;

(d) (subparagraph repealed).

1997, c. 14, s. 286; 2001, c. 53, s. 257; 2010, c. 25, s. 224.

1175.7. In this Part, the taxable capital employed in Québec of a life insurer that throughout a taxation year is not resident in Canada is the amount by which

(a) the amount by which its capital for the year exceeds its capital allowance for the year; exceeds

(b) that proportion of the amount determined under paragraph a that its business carried on in Canada but not in Québec is of the aggregate of its business carried on in Canada, as determined in accordance with the regulations made pursuant to section 1175.6.

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

1175.8. In this Part, the capital of a life insurer that is resident in Canada at any time in a taxation year is the amount determined by the formula

$A + B + (0.9 \times C) - (0.9 \times D) - E.$

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount of the insurer's long-term debt at the end of the year;

(b) B is the total, at the end of the year, of the insurer's

i. capital stock or, in the case of an insurer incorporated without share capital, the amount of its members' contributions,

ii. retained earnings,

iii. accumulated other comprehensive income,

iv. policyholders' liabilities,

v. contributed surplus, and

vi. any other surpluses;

(c) C is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the contractual service margin for a group of insurance contracts of the insurer at the end of the year other than a group of segregated fund policies;

(d) D is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount, in respect of a group of reinsurance contracts held by the insurer at the end of the year, that is

i. if no portion of the contractual service margin for the group is in respect of a risk under a segregated fund policy, the contractual service margin for the group, or

ii. in any other case, the amount that would be the contractual service margin for the group if the contractual service margin were determined without taking into account any portion of the contractual service margin that is in respect of the reinsurance of risks under segregated fund policies; and

(e) E is the amount of any deficit deducted in computing the insurer's net shareholders' equity.

1997, c. 14, s. 286; 2000, c. 39, s. 261; 2002, c. 40, s. 325; 2023, c. 19, s. 127.

1175.9. For the purposes of this Part, the capital of a life insurer that throughout a taxation year is not resident in Canada is the aggregate at the end of the taxation year of

(a) the greater of

i. the amount by which its surplus funds derived from operations, as defined by subparagraph l of the first paragraph of section 835, at the end of the year, computed as if no tax were payable under this Part or Parts I. 3 and VI of the Income Tax Act (R.S.C. 1985, c. 1 (5th Suppl.)) for the year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is

(1) an amount on which it was required to pay tax under Part XIV of the Income Tax Act for a preceding taxation year, or would but for subsection 5.2 of section 219 of that Act have been required to pay such tax, except the portion of the amount on which tax was payable, or would have been payable, because of subparagraph i.1 of paragraph a of subsection 4 of section 219 of that Act, and

(2) an amount on which it was required to pay, or would but for subsection 5.2 of section 219 of that Act have been required to pay, tax under subsection 5.1 of section 219 of the Income Tax Act for the year because of the transfer of an insurance business to which sections 832.3 and 832.7 apply, and

ii. its attributed surplus, within the meaning assigned by the regulations made under section 818, for the year;

(b) any other surpluses relating to its insurance businesses carried on in Canada; and

(c) the amount of its long-term debt that may reasonably be regarded as relating to its insurance businesses carried on in Canada;

(d) (paragraph repealed).

1997, c. 14, s. 286; 1998, c. 16, s. 250; 2001, c. 7, s. 168; 2001, c. 53, s. 258; 2010, c. 25, s. 225.

1175.10. For the purposes of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1175.6, the amount determined for a particular taxation year in respect of the capital of the foreign insurance subsidiaries of a life insurer is equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is, in respect of a foreign insurance subsidiary of the life insurer, the amount by which the amount that would, had the subsidiary been resident in Canada throughout its last taxation year ending at or before the end of the particular taxation year, have been its capital for that year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is

(a) an amount included in computing that capital in respect of a share of the subsidiary's capital stock or its long-term debt that was owned by

i. the life insurer,

ii. a subsidiary of the life insurer,

iii. a corporation that is resident in Canada, that carried on a life insurance business in Canada at any time in its last taxation year ending at or before the end of the life insurer's taxation year, and that is

(1) a corporation of which the life insurer is a subsidiary, or

(2) a subsidiary of a corporation described in subparagraph 1,

iv. a subsidiary of a corporation described in subparagraph iii; or

(b) an amount included in computing that capital in respect of any surplus of the subsidiary contributed by a corporation described in any of subparagraphs i to iv of paragraph a, other than an amount referred to in paragraph a.

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

1175.11. For the purposes of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 1175.6, the amount determined for a taxation year in respect of the total reserve liabilities of the foreign insurance subsidiaries of a life insurer is the aggregate of all amounts each of which would be the total reserve liabilities of such a subsidiary at the end of the subsidiary's last taxation year ending at or before the end of the life insurer's taxation year if the subsidiary were required to report to the Superintendent of Financial Institutions for that year.

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

1175.12. For the purposes of this Part, the capital allowance for a taxation year of a life insurer that carries on business in Canada at any time in the year is the total of

(a) $10,000,000;

(b) 1/2 of the amount by which the lesser of the following amounts exceeds $10,000,000:

i. $50,000,000, and

ii. its taxable capital employed in Canada for the year;

(c) 1/4 of the amount by which the lesser of the following amounts exceeds $50,000,000:

i. $100,000,000, and

ii. its taxable capital employed in Canada for the year;

(d) 1/2 of the amount by which the lesser of the following amounts exceeds $200,000,000:

i. $300,000,000, and

ii. its taxable capital employed in Canada for the year; and

(e) 3/4 of the amount by which its taxable capital employed in Canada for the year exceeds $300,000,000.

Notwithstanding the first paragraph, where a life insurer is related at the end of a taxation year to another life insurer that carries on business in Canada, its capital allowance for the taxation year is, subject to sections 1175.13, 1175.15 and 1175.16, nil.

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

1175.13. A life insurer that carries on business in Canada at any time in a taxation year and is related at the end of the year to another life insurer that carries on business in Canada may file with the Minister, on behalf of the related group of life insurers of which the life insurer is a member, an agreement in prescribed form under which an amount that does not exceed the total of the following amounts is allocated for the year among the members of the related group:

(a) $10,000,000;

(b) 1/2 of the amount by which the lesser of the following amounts exceeds $10,000,000:

i. $50,000,000, and

ii. the total of all amounts each of which is the taxable capital employed in Canada of a life insurer for the year that is a member of the related group;

(c) 1/4 of the amount by which the lesser of the following amounts exceeds $50,000,000:

i. $100,000,000, and

ii. the total of all amounts each of which is the taxable capital employed in Canada of a life insurer for the year that is a member of the related group;

(d) 1/2 of the amount by which the lesser of the following amounts exceeds $200,000,000:

i. $300,000,000, and

ii. the total of all amounts each of which is the taxable capital employed in Canada of a life insurer for the year that is a member of the related group; and

(e) 3/4 of the amount by which the total of all amounts each of which is the taxable capital employed in Canada of a life insurer for the year that is a member of the related group, exceeds $300,000,000.

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

1175.14. For the purposes of sections 1175.12 and 1175.13, the taxable capital employed in Canada of a life insurer for a taxation year is, in the case of a life insurer that is resident in Canada at any time in the taxation year, the amount obtained by multiplying the aggregate of the capital of the life insurer for the taxation year and the amount determined for the year in respect of the capital of its foreign insurance subsidiaries by the proportion that the Canadian reserve liabilities of the life insurer at the end of the taxation year is of the aggregate of its total reserve liabilities at the end of the year and the amount determined for the year in respect of the total reserve liabilities of its foreign insurance subsidiaries.

For the purposes of sections 1175.12 and 1175.13, the taxable capital employed in Canada of a life insurer for a taxation year is, in the case of a life insurer that, throughout a taxation year, is not resident in Canada, its capital for the taxation year.

1997, c. 14, s. 286; 2001, c. 53, s. 259; 2010, c. 25, s. 226.

1175.15. The Minister may request a life insurer that carries on business in Canada at any time in a taxation year and, at the end of the year, is related to another life insurer that carries on business in Canada to file with the Minister an agreement described in section 1175.13 and, if the life insurer does not file the agreement within 30 days after receiving the request, the Minister may allocate among the members of the related group of life insurers of which the life insurer is a member for the year an amount not exceeding the total that would otherwise be determined under paragraphs a to e of section 1175.13 in respect of the related group.

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

1175.16. For the purposes of this Part, the capital allowance for a taxation year of a member of a related group of life insurers is equal to the least amount allocated to that member for that year under an agreement described in section 1175.13 or by the Minister in accordance with section 1175.15.

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

1175.17. Where a corporation, in this section referred to as the “first corporation”, has more than one taxation year ending in the same calendar year and is related in two or more of those taxation years to another corporation that has a taxation year ending in that calendar year, the capital allowance of the first corporation for each such taxation year at the end of which it is related to the other corporation is, for the purposes of this Part, an amount equal to its capital allowance for the first such taxation year.

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

1175.18. For the purposes of this Part, two corporations that would, but for this section, be related to each other solely because of the control of any corporation by the State or Her Majesty in right of Canada or a province, other than Québec, or a right referred to in paragraph b of section 20, shall be deemed not to be related to each other.

However, where at any time a taxpayer acquires a right referred to in paragraph b of section 20 and it may reasonably be considered that one of the main purposes of the acquisition of the right was to avoid any limitation on the amount of a corporation’s capital allowance for a taxation year, for the purpose of determining whether, for the purposes of this Part, a corporation is related to any other corporation, the taxpayer is deemed to have acquired, at that time, the shares giving entitlement to the right.

1997, c. 14, s. 286; 1998, c. 16, s. 251; 2001, c. 7, s. 169.

BOOK IV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1997, c. 14, s. 286.

1175.19. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 7.14, 11, 11.1, 11.3 and 17 to 21, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549 and sections 1000 to 1027.0.3, 1037 to 1079.16 and 1134 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1997, c. 14, s. 286; 2005, c. 1, s. 294; 2006, c. 13, s. 224; 2009, c. 15, s. 447.

PART VI.1.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO A CAPITAL TAX CREDIT

2005, c. 38, s. 333.

1175.19.1. In this Part,

"filing-due date" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"fiscal period" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

"taxation year" has the meaning assigned by Part I.

2005, c. 38, s. 333; 2006, c. 36, s. 264; 2007, c. 12, s. 288.

1175.19.2. Every corporation that, in relation to the aggregate of the costs referred to in the first paragraph of section 1135.1 for any taxation year and incurred in respect of property described in any of sections 1135.3 to 1135.3.1, has deducted, under section 1135.1 or 1135.2, an amount in computing its tax otherwise payable under Part IV for a particular taxation year, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph, for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", if

(a) an amount relating to the portion of those costs that was incurred by the corporation is, in the repayment year, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation; or

(b) an amount relating to the portion of those costs that was incurred by a partnership of which the corporation is a member at the end of that partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year, is, in that fiscal period, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership or corporation.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is, in relation to the costs referred to in the first paragraph, an amount that the corporation would have deducted under section 1135.1 or 1135.2 for a particular taxation year preceding the repayment year, if the corporation's share of the income or loss of any partnership of which it was a member at the end of the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular taxation year and the partnership's income or loss for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year, exceeds the total of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is, in relation to those costs, an amount that the corporation would have deducted under section 1135.1 or 1135.2 for a particular taxation year preceding the repayment year, if

i. any amount that is, at or before the end of the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the portion of those costs that was incurred by the corporation, had been refunded, paid or allocated in the particular taxation year,

ii. any amount that is, at or before the end of the fiscal period of a partnership of which the taxpayer is a member ending in the repayment year, so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to the portion of those costs that was incurred by the partnership, had been refunded, paid or allocated in the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular taxation year, and

iii. the corporation's share of the income or loss of any partnership for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular taxation year and the partnership's income or loss for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax that the corporation should have paid to the Minister under this section, in relation to those costs, for a taxation year preceding the repayment year, if the corporation's share of the income or loss of any partnership for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the preceding taxation year and the partnership's income or loss for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, an amount referred to in subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of that paragraph that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation is deemed to be an amount

(a) that is refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership; and

(b) that is determined by multiplying the amount refunded, paid or allocated by the reciprocal of the agreed proportion in respect of the corporation for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year.

1175.19.2.1. For the purposes of section 1175.19.2, the amount determined in accordance with the second paragraph, in respect of a property described in any of sections 1135.3 to 1135.3.1 that a corporation has acquired in any given taxation year or that a partnership has acquired in a fiscal period that ends in any given taxation year, is deemed to be refunded to the corporation in a taxation year subsequent to the given taxation year (in this section referred to as the "repayment year") or refunded to the partnership in a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the repayment year if, at a particular time in the period described in the third paragraph, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of its loss, of its involuntary destruction by fire, theft or water, or of a major breakdown of the property, to be used solely in Québec,

(a) if the property is described in section 1135.3 or 1135.3.0.1 or paragraph b of section 1135.3.1, to earn income from a business carried on

i. by the first purchaser of the property and that time is in the portion of that period in which the first purchaser owns the property, or

ii. by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired the property in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1) applies, and that time is in the portion of that period in which the subsequent purchaser owns the property; or

(b) if the property is described in paragraph a of section 1135.3.1, in connection with the activities, described in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 1135.3.1, of a business carried on

i. by the first purchaser of the property and that time is in the portion of that period in which the first purchaser owns the property, or

ii. by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired the property in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act applies, and that time is in the portion of that period in which the subsequent purchaser owns the property.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of the costs incurred by the corporation to acquire the property in the given taxation year, or incurred by the partnership to acquire the property in the fiscal period that ends in the given taxation year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount relating to those costs that, in a taxation year preceding the repayment year but subsequent to the given taxation year, or in a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in such a year, was refunded, otherwise paid or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation or partnership.

The period to which the first paragraph refers is the period that begins on the day after the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year preceding the repayment year and ends on the day that is the end of the period of 730 days following the beginning of the use of the property by the first purchaser of the property or by a subsequent purchaser that acquired the property in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act applies, or, if it precedes the day that is the end of the 730-day period, the corporation's filing-due date for the repayment year.

No tax is payable for a taxation year under section 1175.19.2 in respect of any given amount that is refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation or to a partnership of which the corporation is a member at the end of the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxation year, or that is allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation or partnership, if the given amount is included in an amount that is deemed to have been refunded under this section in that taxation year or a preceding taxation year, or in a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in that taxation year or a preceding taxation year.

2006, c. 36, s. 266; 2007, c. 12, s. 290; 2009, c. 5, s. 568; 2009, c. 15, s. 449.

1175.19.2.2. The tax paid at any time by a corporation to the Minister under this Part in relation to a property, is deemed, for the purposes of Part I, to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the corporation in respect of the property, pursuant to a legal obligation.

2006, c. 36, s. 266; 2009, c. 15, s. 450.

1175.19.3. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 17 to 21, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 and 1129.0.0.2 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2005, c. 38, s. 333; 2006, c. 13, s. 226; 2007, c. 12, s. 291.

PART VI.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO A DEDUCTION IN COMPUTING PAID-UP CAPITAL

1997, c. 85, s. 323.

1175.20. In this Part,

"eligible acquisition costs" has the meaning assigned by Part IV;

"eligible conversion costs" has the meaning assigned by Part IV;

"eligible vessel" has the meaning assigned by Part IV;

"filing-due date" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"fiscal period" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

"taxation year" has the meaning assigned by Part I.

1997, c. 85, s. 323; 1999, c. 83, s. 270; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1175.21. Every corporation that, in relation to a property described in the first paragraph of section 1137.5, has deducted, for a particular taxation year, an amount under paragraph b.3 or b.4 of section 1137 and, if the corporation is a member of a partnership, because of subsection 3 of section 1136, in computing its paid-up capital determined under Part IV for the purpose of computing the tax payable by the corporation for the particular year under that Part, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph, for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which

(a) an amount relating to costs incurred to acquire the property, or to its share of such costs, in respect of which the corporation has deducted an amount for a taxation year preceding the repayment year is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation, or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation; or

(b) ends a fiscal period of the partnership in which an amount relating to costs incurred by the partnership to acquire the property, in respect of which the corporation has deducted, in relation to its share of those costs, an amount for a taxation year preceding the repayment year is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership, or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the amount determined in accordance with the third paragraph is exceeded by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount of the tax that would have been payable by the corporation under Part IV for a particular taxation year preceding the repayment year and in respect of which the corporation has deducted an amount relating to costs incurred to acquire the property referred to in the first paragraph, or to its share of such costs, if every amount that, at or before the end of the repayment year or of the fiscal period that ended in the repayment year, as the case may be, is so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to those costs, had been refunded, paid or allocated in that particular taxation year or in the fiscal period that ended in the particular taxation year, as the case may be, and in the case where the property was acquired by the partnership referred to in the first paragraph, if the corporation's share of the income or loss of the partnership for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that particular taxation year and the income or loss of the partnership for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year, exceeds the amount of the tax payable by the corporation under Part IV for that particular taxation year or, in the case where the property was acquired by the partnership referred to in the first paragraph, that would have been payable by the corporation under that Part if the corporation's share of the income or loss of the partnership for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that particular taxation year and the partnership's income or loss for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year.

The amount to which the second paragraph refers is equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax payable by the corporation to the Minister under this section, in respect of the costs incurred to acquire the property referred to in the first paragraph, for a taxation year preceding the repayment year or that would have been so payable, in the case where the property was acquired by the partnership referred to in the first paragraph, if the corporation's share of the income or loss of the partnership for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that preceding taxation year and the partnership's income or loss for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year.

However, no tax is payable under this section, in relation to costs incurred to acquire the property referred to in the first paragraph, if section 1175.21.0.1 applies in respect of the property for the repayment year or applied in respect of the property for a preceding taxation year.

1175.21.0.1. Every corporation that, in relation to a property described in the first paragraph of section 1137.5, has deducted, for any taxation year, an amount under paragraph b.3 or b.4 of section 1137 and, if it is a member of a partnership, because of subsection 3 of section 1136, in computing its paid-up capital determined under Part IV for the purpose of computing the tax payable by the corporation for that year under that Part, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a particular taxation year, if

(a) at any time between the corporation's filing-due date for the taxation year preceding the particular year and the day after the day that is the end of the period of 730 days following the beginning of the use of the property by the first purchaser of the property or by a subsequent purchaser that acquired the property in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (chapter I-3, r. 1) applies, or, if it precedes the day that is the end of that period, the filing-due date, for the particular year, of the purchaser that owns the property at the end of the particular year, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of its loss, of its involuntary destruction by fire, theft or water, or of a major breakdown of the property, to be used solely in Québec to earn income from a business carried on

i. by the first purchaser of the property and if that time is also in the portion of that period in which the first purchaser owns the property, or

ii. by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired the property in any of the circumstances in which section 130R149 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act applies, and if that time is also in the portion of that period in which the subsequent purchaser owns the property; or

(b) the qualification certificate issued in relation to an activity described in subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 1137.5 for the carrying on of which the property described in subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1137.5 was acquired, is revoked on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the particular year.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the amount determined in accordance with the third paragraph is exceeded by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount of the tax that would have been payable by the corporation under Part IV for a taxation year preceding the particular year if the corporation had not deducted, for that preceding year, in relation to the costs incurred to acquire the property referred to in the first paragraph, or to its share of such costs, an amount under paragraph b.3 or b.4 of section 1137 and, if it is a member of a partnership, because of subsection 3 of section 1136, in computing its paid-up capital determined under Part IV and if the corporation's share of the income or loss of the partnership for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that preceding taxation year and the partnership's income or loss for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular year, exceeds the amount of the tax payable by the corporation under Part IV for that preceding taxation year or, in the case where the property was acquired by the partnership, that would have been payable by the corporation under that Part if the corporation's share of the income or loss of the partnership for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that preceding taxation year and the income or loss of the partnership for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular year.

The amount to which the second paragraph refers is equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax payable by the corporation to the Minister, in respect of the costs incurred to acquire the property referred to in the first paragraph, under section 1175.21, for a taxation year preceding the particular year or that would have been so payable, in the case where the property was acquired by the partnership referred to in the second paragraph, if the corporation's share of the income or loss of the partnership for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that preceding taxation year and the partnership's income or loss for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the particular year.

2007, c. 12, s. 293; 2009, c. 15, s. 451.

1175.21.1. Every corporation that, in relation to an eligible vessel, has deducted, for a particular taxation year, an amount under paragraph b.2 or b.2.1 of section 1137 and, if the corporation is a member of a partnership, because of subsection 3 of section 1136, in computing its paid-up capital determined under Part IV for the purpose of computing the tax payable by the corporation for the particular year under that Part, shall pay the tax computed under the second paragraph, for a subsequent taxation year, in this section referred to as the "repayment year", in which

(a) an amount relating to the eligible acquisition costs or the eligible conversion costs of the eligible vessel, or to its share of such costs, in respect of which the corporation has deducted an amount for a taxation year preceding the repayment year is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the corporation, or allocated to a payment to be made by the corporation; or

(b) ends a fiscal period of the partnership in which an amount relating to the eligible acquisition costs or the eligible conversion costs, as the case may be, of the eligible vessel of the partnership, in respect of which the corporation has deducted, in respect of its share of those costs, an amount for a taxation year preceding the repayment year is, directly or indirectly, refunded or otherwise paid to the partnership, or allocated to a payment to be made by the partnership.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the amount determined in accordance with the third paragraph is exceeded by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the amount of the tax that would have been payable by the corporation under Part IV for a particular taxation year preceding the repayment year and in respect of which the corporation has deducted an amount relating to the eligible acquisition costs or the eligible conversion costs of the eligible vessel, or to its share of such costs, if every amount that, at or before the end of the repayment year or of the fiscal period that ended in the repayment year, as the case may be, is so refunded, paid or allocated, in relation to those costs, had been refunded, paid or allocated in that particular taxation year or in the fiscal period that ended in the particular taxation year, as the case may be, and in the case where the costs were incurred by the partnership referred to in the first paragraph, if the corporation's share of the income or loss of the partnership for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that particular taxation year and the income or loss of the partnership for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year, exceeds the amount of the tax payable by the corporation under Part IV for that particular taxation year or, in the case where the costs were incurred by the partnership referred to in the first paragraph, that would have been payable by the corporation under that Part if the corporation's share of the income or loss of the partnership for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that particular taxation year and the partnership's income or loss for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year.

The amount to which the second paragraph refers is equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a tax payable by the corporation to the Minister under this section, in respect of the eligible acquisition costs or the eligible conversion costs of the eligible vessel, for a taxation year preceding the repayment year or that would have been so payable, in the case where the costs were incurred by the partnership referred to in the first paragraph, if the corporation's share of the income or loss of the partnership for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in that preceding taxation year and the partnership's income or loss for that fiscal period had been the same as those for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the repayment year.

1175.21.2. The tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time in a taxation year under this Part is deemed, for the purposes of Title III of Book III of Part I and the definition of "total taxes" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to be a tax paid by the corporation under Part IV for that taxation year.

2006, c. 36, s. 267.

1175.21.3. If, at any time in a taxation year, a qualification certificate referred to in subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 1137.5 is revoked and, as a result, a corporation is required to pay a tax under section 1175.21.0.1, the Minister may make, as of that time and despite any other provision of this Act, an assessment for the year in respect of the corporation, in relation to the tax.

For the purposes of section 1037 in respect of the tax, the corporation's balance-due day for that taxation year is deemed to be the date on which the notice of assessment is sent, unless that date is later than the balance-due day.

Despite section 1175.22, sections 1000 to 1000.3 and 1002 to 1004 do not apply in relation to a tax that may be the subject of an assessment made under the first paragraph.

2012, c. 8, s. 256.

1175.22. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 17 to 21, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1997, c. 85, s. 323; 1999, c. 83, s. 272.

PART VI.3

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO A MAJOR INVESTMENT PROJECT

2002, c. 9, s. 139.

1175.23. In this Part,

"fiscal period" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

"major investment project" has the meaning that would be assigned by the first paragraph of section 737.18.14 if the word "corporation", wherever it appears, were replaced by the word "person" ;

"person" has the meaning assigned by section 1;

"taxation year" has the meaning assigned by Part I.

2002, c. 9, s. 139; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1175.24. Where the initial qualification certificate issued by the Minister of Finance in respect of a major investment project is revoked, any person in respect of whom an amount has been determined under section 94.0.3.2 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002), in relation to the major investment project, shall pay, for the person's taxation year in which the certificate was revoked, a tax equal to that amount.

2002, c. 9, s. 139; 2010, c. 31, s. 175.

1175.25. Where the initial qualification certificate issued by the Minister of Finance in respect of a major investment project is revoked and an amount has been determined, in respect of a partnership, under section 94.0.3.3 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002), in relation to the major investment project, any person that is a member of the partnership at the end of the partnership's fiscal period in which the certificate is revoked, shall pay, for the person's taxation year in which the fiscal period ends, a tax equal to the person's share of that amount.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, a person's share of an amount is equal to the agreed proportion of the amount in respect of the person for the partnership's fiscal period.

2002, c. 9, s. 139; 2009, c. 15, s. 452; 2010, c. 31, s. 175.

1175.26. Where a qualification certificate issued by the Minister of Finance, in relation to a major investment project, in respect of a calendar year is revoked in a particular taxation year of a person and, in relation to the major investment project, that person deducted an amount in computing the person's taxable income under section 737.18.17, or in computing the person's paid-up capital under section 1138.2.2 or 1141.8, reduced the person's tax payable under Part VI pursuant to section 1170.1, or under Part VI.1 pursuant to section 1175.4.1, or paid or is deemed to have paid wages in respect of which no contribution was payable under the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec (chapter R-5) because of subparagraph d of the seventh paragraph of section 34 of that Act, the person shall pay for the particular taxation year a tax equal to the aggregate of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the tax, in the third and fourth paragraphs referred to as the "notional tax", that would have been payable by the person under Part I for a taxation year preceding the particular year, if, in relation to the amount deducted in computing the person's taxable income, the revocation had been taken into account, exceeds the tax determined by the Minister, in the third paragraph referred to as the "real tax", that is payable by the person under that Part for that preceding year;

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the tax, in the third and fourth paragraphs referred to as the "notional tax on capital", that would have been payable by the person under Part IV, VI or VI.1, for a taxation year preceding the particular year or a 12-month period ending in the preceding taxation year, as the case may be, if, in relation to the amount deducted in computing the person's paid-up capital or to the reduction of the person's tax payable under Part VI or VI.1, the revocation had been taken into account, exceeds the tax determined by the Minister, in the third paragraph referred to as the "real tax on capital", that is payable by the person under Part IV, VI or VI.1 for that preceding year or that 12-month period; and

(c) the amount by which the amount of contribution payable by the person, taking the revocation into account, under section 34 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec, in respect of the wages paid or deemed to be paid in the calendar year, exceeds the amount of the contribution payable by the person, but for the revocation, under that section 34 in respect of those wages, except to the extent that that excess amount has become otherwise payable by the person.

Similarly, a person shall pay, for a particular taxation year, where the initial qualification certificate issued or deemed to be issued by the Minister of Finance, in respect of a major investment project, is revoked at any time in the particular year, a tax equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the tax that would be payable by that person, under the first paragraph, for the particular year, if each qualification certificate valid at that time, issued by the Minister of Finance, in respect of a calendar year, in relation to the major investment project, were revoked in the particular year.

If an amount, in this paragraph and in the fourth paragraph referred to as the "increased amount", in respect of which the person could claim a deduction under a particular provision of this Act in computing the person's taxable income or tax payable under Part I, or in computing the person's paid-up capital or tax payable under Part IV, for a preceding taxation year referred to in subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph, in this paragraph and in the fourth paragraph referred to as the "computation year", for the purpose of determining the person's notional tax or notional tax on capital, as the case may be, for the computation year, is greater than the amount, in this paragraph and in the fourth paragraph referred to as the "deducted amount", that the person deducted under the particular provision for the purpose of determining the person's real tax or real tax on capital, as the case may be, for the computation year, the increased amount rather than the deducted amount may be taken into account, for the purpose of determining the person's notional tax or notional tax on capital, as the case may be, for the computation year, if

(a) the person so requests in writing to the Minister; and

(b) it may reasonably be considered that the amount by which the increased amount exceeds the deducted amount has not been deducted under the particular provision or another provision of this Act for the purpose of determining the person's tax payable under Part I or the person's tax payable under Part IV for any other taxation year, nor for the purpose of determining a tax of the person for any taxation year that is similar in nature to the person's notional tax or notional tax on capital and is provided for in another portion of this Act.

If the third paragraph applies, the amount by which the increased amount exceeds the deducted amount is deemed,

(a) for the purpose of determining the person's notional tax for any taxation year subsequent to the computation year and for the application of Part I to the particular taxation year and to any subsequent taxation year, to have been deducted under the particular provision in computing the person's taxable income or tax payable under Part I for the computation year; or

(b) for the purpose of determining the person's notional tax on capital for any taxation year subsequent to the computation year, for the application of Part IV to the particular taxation year and to any subsequent taxation year and for the application of Parts VI.1.1 and VI.2 to any taxation year subsequent to the computation year, to have been deducted under the particular provision in computing the person's paid-up capital or tax payable under Part IV for the computation year.

1175.27. Where a qualification certificate issued by the Minister of Finance, in relation to a major investment project, in respect of a calendar year is revoked in a fiscal period of a partnership ending in a particular taxation year of a person who is a member of the partnership at the end of that fiscal period and, in relation to the major investment project, the partnership has paid or is deemed to have paid for a pay period included in the calendar year wages, that person shall pay for the particular taxation year a tax equal to the person's share of the amount by which the amount of the contribution payable by the partnership, taking the revocation into account, under section 34 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec (chapter R-5), in respect of the wages paid or deemed to be paid in the calendar year, exceeds the amount of the contribution payable by the partnership, but for the revocation, under that section 34, in respect of those wages, except to the extent that that excess amount has become otherwise payable by the partnership.

Similarly, where the initial qualification certificate issued or deemed to have been issued by the Minister of Finance to a partnership, in relation to a major investment project, is revoked at any time in a fiscal period of the partnership ending in a particular taxation year of a person who is a member of the partnership at the end of that fiscal period, that person shall pay for the particular year a tax equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the tax that would be payable by that person, under the first paragraph, for the particular year, if each qualification certificate valid at that time, issued by the Minister of Finance, in respect of a calendar year, in relation to the major investment project, were revoked in the fiscal period.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, a person's share of an amount is equal to the agreed proportion of the amount in respect of the person for the partnership's fiscal period.

2002, c. 9, s. 139; 2006, c. 36, s. 269; 2009, c. 15, s. 453.

1175.27.1. If, at any time in a taxation year, a person pays tax to the Minister under any of sections 1175.24 to 1175.27, the following rules apply:

(a) in the case of section 1175.24, the portion of that tax that corresponds to the amount determined under subparagraph b or c of the first paragraph of section 94.0.3.2 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002) is deemed, for the purposes of Title III of Book III of Part I, to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the person pursuant to a legal obligation;

(b) in the case of section 1175.25, that tax is deemed, for the purposes of Title III of Book III of Part I, to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership referred to in that section pursuant to a legal obligation;

(c) in the case of section 1175.26,

i. the portion of that tax that is determined under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of that section, or under the second paragraph of that section because of that subparagraph, is deemed, for the purposes of the definition of "total taxes" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to be a tax that the person pays under Part I for that taxation year,

ii. the portion of that tax that is determined under subparagraph b of the first paragraph of that section, or under the second paragraph of that section because of that subparagraph, is deemed, for the purposes of Title III of Book III of Part I and the definition of "total taxes" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.167, to be a tax that the person pays under Part IV, VI or VI.1 for that taxation year, and

iii. the portion of that tax that is determined under subparagraph c of the first paragraph of that section, or under the second paragraph of that section because of that subparagraph, is deemed, for the purposes of Title III of Book III of Part I, to be an amount that the person pays for that taxation year as a contribution under section 34 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec (chapter R-5); and

(d) in the case of section 1175.27, that tax is deemed, for the purposes of Title III of Book III of Part I, to be an amount that the partnership referred to in that section pays for its fiscal period that includes that time as a contribution under section 34 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec.

1175.27.2. If, at any time in a taxation year, a qualification certificate that was issued in relation to a major investment project is revoked and, as a result, a person is required to pay a tax under a provision of this Part, the Minister may make, as of that time and despite any other provision of this Act, an assessment for the year in respect of the person, in relation to the tax.

For the purposes of section 1037 in respect of the tax, the person's balance-due day for that taxation year is deemed to be the date on which the notice of assessment is sent, unless that date is later than the balance-due day.

2012, c. 8, s. 257.

1175.28. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1001, 1005 to 1024 and 1026.0.1, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2002, c. 9, s. 139; 2012, c. 8, s. 258.

1175.28.0.0.1. In this Part, a reference to section 94.0.3.2 or 94.0.3.3 of the Tax Administration Act (chapter A-6.002), to any of sections 737.18.14, 737.18.17, 1170.1 and 1175.4.1 of this Act or to subparagraph d of the seventh paragraph of section 34 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec (chapter R-5) is a reference to that section or paragraph, as the case may be, as it read for the taxation year or calendar year concerned.

2019, c. 14, s. 467.

PART VI.3.0.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE DEDUCTION FOR INNOVATIVE MANUFACTURING CORPORATIONS

2017, c. 29, s. 222.

1175.28.0.1. In this Part,

"corporation" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

"qualified patented part" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 737.18.36;

"qualified property" has the meaning assigned by the first paragraph of section 737.18.36;

"taxation year" has the meaning assigned by Part I.

2017, c. 29, s. 222.

1175.28.0.2. Where a corporation has deducted an amount under section 737.18.40 in computing its taxable income for a taxation year (in this paragraph referred to as a "preceding year") in relation to a qualified patented part of the corporation that is incorporated into a qualified property of the corporation and if in a subsequent taxation year (in this section referred to as the "tax liability year") any of the circumstances described in the second paragraph applies in respect of the qualified patented part, the corporation shall pay for the tax liability year a tax equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the tax (in the second and third paragraphs referred to as the "notional tax") that the corporation would have had to pay under Part I for a preceding year if no amount had been deducted by the corporation in computing its taxable income for that preceding year in relation to the qualified patented part exceeds the tax determined by the Minister (in the second paragraph referred to as the "real tax") that is payable by the corporation under that Part for that preceding year.

The circumstances to which the first paragraph refers, in respect of an invention that is a qualified patented part of a corporation, are the following:

(a) the patent issued in respect of the invention is invalidated in accordance with an Act referred to in subparagraph i of paragraph c of the definition of "qualified patented part" in the first paragraph of section 737.18.36;

(b) the application for a patent, in respect of the invention that is, under the second paragraph of section 737.18.36, the qualified patented part of the corporation, has not resulted in the issue of a patent by a competent authority within five years after the day on which the application was made;

(c) a redetermination by the Minister reduces to zero the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that a corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister for a taxation year under any of Divisions II to II.3.0.1 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I in respect of the scientific research and experimental development work from which the invention derives; and

(d) a redetermination by the Minister reduces to less than $500,000 the total described in the first paragraph of section 737.18.39 that was taken into account for the purpose of determining whether the corporation has made sustained innovation efforts in relation to the invention.

Where an amount (in this paragraph and in the fourth paragraph referred to as the "increased amount"), in respect of which the corporation could claim a deduction under a particular provision of this Act in computing its taxable income or tax payable under Part I for a preceding taxation year referred to in the first paragraph (in this paragraph and in the fourth paragraph referred to as the "computation year") for the purpose of determining its notional tax for the computation year, is greater than the amount (in this paragraph and in the fourth paragraph referred to as the "deducted amount") that the corporation deducted under the particular provision for the purpose of determining its real tax for the computation year, the increased amount rather than the deducted amount may be taken into account, for the purpose of determining the corporation's notional tax for the computation year, if

(a) the corporation so requests in writing to the Minister; and

(b) it may reasonably be considered that the amount by which the increased amount exceeds the deducted amount has not been deducted under the particular provision or another provision of this Act for the purpose of determining the corporation's tax payable under Part I for any other taxation year, nor for the purpose of determining a tax of the corporation for any taxation year that is similar in nature to the corporation's notional tax and is provided for in another part of this Act.

If the third paragraph applies, the amount by which the increased amount exceeds the deducted amount is deemed, for the purpose of determining the corporation's notional tax for any taxation year subsequent to the computation year and for the application of Part I to the tax liability year and to any subsequent taxation year, to have been deducted under the particular provision in computing the corporation's taxable income or tax payable, as the case may be, under Part I for the computation year.

2017, c. 29, s. 222.

1175.28.0.3. The tax paid to the Minister by a corporation at any time in a taxation year under section 1175.28.0.2 is deemed, for the purposes of the definition of "total taxes" in the first paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.166.40, 1029.8.36.166.60.36 and 1029.8.36.167, to be a tax paid by the corporation under Part I for that taxation year.

2017, c. 29, s. 222; 2021, c. 14, s. 197.

1175.28.0.4. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2017, c. 29, s. 222.

PART VI.3.0.2

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE INCENTIVE DEDUCTION FOR THE COMMERCIALIZATION OF INNOVATIONS IN QUÉBEC

2021, c. 14, s. 198.

1175.28.0.5. In this Part,

"legal protection" means a protection described in any of the definitions of "protected invention", "protected plant variety" and "protected software" in section 737.18.43;

"qualified intellectual property asset" has the meaning assigned by section 737.18.43;

"taxation year" has the meaning assigned by Part I.

2021, c. 14, s. 198.

1175.28.0.6. Where a corporation has deducted an amount in computing its taxable income under section 737.18.44 and where, in a particular taxation year, any of the events described in section 1175.28.0.7 occurs, the corporation shall pay, for that particular year, a tax equal to the amount by which the amount determined in accordance with the second paragraph is exceeded by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the tax payable by the corporation under Part I for a preceding taxation year for which it deducted an amount in computing taxable income under section 737.18.44 is exceeded by the tax it would have had to pay under Part I for that preceding year if

(a) such an amount had not been deducted in relation to any qualified intellectual property asset in respect of which an event described in any of paragraphs a to c of section 1175.28.0.7 occurs in the particular year or in a preceding taxation year; and

(b) section 737.18.44 had applied, in relation to any qualified intellectual property asset in respect of which an event described in paragraph d of section 1175.28.0.7 occurs in the particular year or in a preceding taxation year, with reference only to the expenditures referred to in subparagraphs e and f of the third paragraph of section 737.18.44 that were not reduced by a redetermination by the Minister.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the tax that the corporation shall pay under this section for a taxation year preceding the particular year.

2021, c. 14, s. 198.

1175.28.0.7. The events to which section 1175.28.0.6 refers, in respect of a corporation, are the following:

(a) the application for legal protection in respect of a qualified intellectual property asset of the corporation is denied and that decision can no longer be appealed;

(b) the application for legal protection in respect of a qualified intellectual property asset of the corporation has not resulted in the issue of the relevant document by the competent authority within five years after the day on which the application was made, unless the corporation is able to show that the additional delays are not mainly attributable to it;

(c) the legal protection in respect of a qualified intellectual property asset of the corporation was invalidated in accordance with the procedure provided for in the relevant legislation; and

(d) a redetermination by the Minister reduces the expenditures referred to in subparagraphs e and f of the third paragraph of section 737.18.44 for the purpose of determining the amount deductible by the corporation under that section for a taxation year.

2021, c. 14, s. 198.

1175.28.0.8. The tax paid at any time in a taxation year by a corporation to the Minister under section 1175.28.0.6 is deemed, for the purposes of the definition of "total taxes" in the first paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.166.40 and 1029.8.36.166.60.36, a tax paid by the corporation under Part I for the taxation year.

2021, c. 14, s. 198.

1175.28.0.9. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1000 to 1024, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2021, c. 14, s. 198.

PART VI.3.1

SPECIAL TAX RELATING TO THE REVOCATION OR REPLACEMENT OF CERTIFICATES OR SIMILAR DOCUMENTS

2006, c. 36, s. 271.

1175.28.1. In this Part, unless the context indicates otherwise,

"fiscal period" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

"person" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

"taxation year" has the meaning assigned by Part I.

2006, c. 36, s. 271; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1175.28.2. For the purposes of this Part, a document enclosed with a favourable advance ruling or with a certificate, a qualification certificate or another similar document is considered, if it is not in itself a favourable advance ruling or a certificate, a qualification certificate or another similar document, to be an integral part of the document with which it is enclosed.

2006, c. 36, s. 271.

1175.28.3. For the purposes of this Part, the following rules apply:

(a) the favourable advance ruling given in respect of a property for the purposes of any of Divisions II to II.6.15 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I is deemed to be revoked at a particular time if

i. the favourable advance ruling ceases to be in force at that time and no certificate or qualification certificate is issued in respect of the property for the purposes of that division, or

ii. the certificate or qualification certificate issued in respect of the property for the purposes of that division is revoked at that time; and

(b) if the issue of a certificate or qualification certificate, in this paragraph referred to as the "initial document", is a condition that must be met, directly or indirectly, to allow the issue of another certificate or qualification certificate, in this paragraph referred to as the "other document", and the initial document is revoked without the other document being revoked at the same time, the other document, to the extent that it relates to a period for which the revocation is effective, is deemed, unless it is necessary to allow an individual, because the individual is an employee within the meaning of section 1, to deduct an amount in computing the individual's taxable income for the purposes of Part I, to be revoked at the time the initial document is revoked and to be a document to which the same revocation notice applies.

1175.28.4. For the purposes of this Part, if a favourable advance ruling or a certificate, a qualification certificate or another similar document is, without being replaced, modified at a particular time by the revocation or replacement of a portion of that document or in any other manner, the document before the modification and the document as modified are deemed to be separate documents the first of which has been replaced by the second at the particular time.

2006, c. 36, s. 271.

1175.28.5. For the purposes of the second paragraph of sections 1175.28.6, 1175.28.9 and 1175.28.15 and the third paragraph of section 1175.28.12, an amount that must be determined with reference to the revocation or replacement of a favourable advance ruling or of a certificate, a qualification certificate or another similar document must be determined on the assumption that

(a) the favourable advance ruling or the certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document that has been revoked was never given or issued; and

(b) the favourable advance ruling or the certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document that has been replaced was never given or issued, and that the favourable advance ruling or the certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document that replaced it was given or issued at the time the document it replaces was given or issued.

However, in the case of the revocation or replacement of a certificate, a qualification certificate or another similar document that, as specified in the revocation or replacement notice, concerns only a part of the period to which the document related before its revocation or replacement, the certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document must not be considered, for the other part of that period, to have never been issued.

2006, c. 36, s. 271.

1175.28.6. Every person who is deemed, otherwise than because the person is a member of a partnership, to have paid an amount to the Minister, under a particular provision of any of Divisions II to II.6.15 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, on account of the person's tax payable under Part I for a particular taxation year, shall, subject to special provisions of Parts III.0.1 to III.1.7 and III.7.1 to III.10.10, pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "modification year", in which a favourable advance ruling or a certificate, a qualification certificate or another similar document that has been given or issued by a Minister or body and that was required for the purposes of the particular provision for the particular taxation year is revoked or replaced.

year, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the total of the amounts that would be deemed to have been paid to the Minister by the person, under the particular provision, for such a preceding taxation year if every revocation and every replacement of such a favourable advance ruling or of such a certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document that occurred at or before the end of the modification year was taken into account, except to the extent that it may reasonably be considered that the excess amount became payable by the person under this section for a taxation year preceding the modification year, or otherwise payable by the person for the modification year or a preceding taxation year.

Despite the special provisions referred to in the first paragraph, the fact that, because of a special rule or otherwise, no tax is payable under Parts III.0.1 to III.1.7 and III.7.1 to III.10.10 in respect of the revocation or replacement of a document referred to in the first paragraph does not preclude the application of this section in respect of the revocation or replacement.

If, in relation to a taxation year, a person is deemed, under section 34.1.9 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec (chapter R-5), to have made an overpayment to the Minister, this section is to be construed as if that amount were,

(a) for any portion that is an amount that the person would be deemed, in relation to particular wages, to have paid to the Minister for the taxation year under section 1029.8.36.0.3.48 if that section were read without reference to its fourth and fifth paragraphs, an amount that the person is deemed, in relation to the particular wages, to have paid to the Minister, under section 1029.8.36.0.3.48, on account of the person's tax payable under Part I for the taxation year; and

(b) for any portion that is an amount that the person would be deemed, in relation to particular wages, to have paid to the Minister for the taxation year under section 1029.8.36.0.3.57 if that section were read without reference to its second and third paragraphs, an amount that the person is deemed, in relation to the particular wages, to have paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.36.0.3.57, on account of the person's tax payable under Part I for the taxation year.

2006, c. 36, s. 271.

1175.28.7. If a person is required to pay tax for any taxation year under section 1175.28.6, the tax that the person is required to pay for a subsequent taxation year, under a particular provision of any of Parts III.0.1 to III.1.7 and III.7.1 to III.10.10, may not, despite the particular provision, be greater than the amount by which the tax otherwise determined exceeds the portion of that tax that may reasonably be considered to have become payable by the person under section 1175.28.6 for a taxation year preceding the subsequent taxation year.

2006, c. 36, s. 271.

1175.28.8. If, at any time, a person pays tax to the Minister under section 1175.28.6 in relation to the first aggregate referred to in the second paragraph of that section, the portion of the tax that may reasonably be considered to relate to a property, a cost, an expenditure or to other expenses relating to the aggregate is deemed, for the purposes of Part I but excluding the division of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I that relates to the aggregate, to be an amount of assistance repaid by the person at that time in respect of the property, cost, expenditure or other expenses, as the case may be, pursuant to a legal obligation, except to the extent that the aggregate is deemed, for the purposes of Part I and the regulations, not to be an amount of assistance nor an inducement received by the person from a government.

2006, c. 36, s. 271.

1175.28.9. Every person who is deemed, because the person is a member of a partnership at the end of a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in a particular taxation year of the person, to have paid an amount to the Minister, under a particular provision of any of Divisions II to II.6.15 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, on account of the person's tax payable under Part I for the particular taxation year, shall, subject to special provisions of Parts III.0.1 to III.1.7 and III.7.1 to III.10.10, pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for a taxation year in which ends a subsequent fiscal period of the partnership, in this section referred to as the "fiscal period of the modification", in which a certificate, a qualification certificate or another similar document that has been issued by a Minister or body and that was required for the purposes of the particular provision for the particular taxation year is revoked or replaced.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the total of the amounts that, if the rule set out in the third paragraph applied, would be deemed to have been paid to the Minister, under the particular provision, by the person for a given taxation year that is such a particular taxation year in which ends a fiscal period of the partnership that precedes the fiscal period of the modification, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the total of the amounts that would be deemed to have been paid to the Minister, under the particular provision, by the person for such a given taxation year if the rule set out in the third paragraph applied and if every revocation and every replacement of such a certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document that occurred at or before the end of the fiscal period of the modification was taken into account, except to the extent that it could reasonably be considered that, if the rule set out in the third paragraph applied, the excess amount would have become payable by the person under this section for a taxation year preceding the taxation year in which the fiscal period of the modification ends, or otherwise payable by the person for the taxation year in which that fiscal period ends or for a preceding taxation year.

The rule to which the second paragraph refers is the rule whereby it shall be considered that the agreed proportion in respect of the person for a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in a taxation year of the person and at the end of which the person is a member of the partnership is the same as that for the fiscal period of the modification.

Despite the special provisions referred to in the first paragraph, the fact that, because of a special rule or otherwise, no tax is payable under Parts III.0.1 to III.1.7 and III.7.1 to III.10.10 in respect of the revocation or replacement of a document referred to in the first paragraph does not preclude the application of this section in respect of the revocation or replacement.

2006, c. 36, s. 271; 2009, c. 15, s. 454.

1175.28.10. If a person is required to pay tax for any taxation year under section 1175.28.9, the tax that the person is required to pay for a subsequent taxation year, under a particular provision of any of Parts III.0.1 to III.1.7 and III.7.1 to III.10.10, may not, despite the particular provision, be greater than the amount by which the tax otherwise determined exceeds the portion of that tax that could reasonably be considered to have become payable by the person under section 1175.28.9 for a taxation year preceding the subsequent taxation year if the rule set out in the second paragraph applied.

The rule to which the first paragraph refers is the rule whereby it shall be considered that the agreed proportion in respect of the person for a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in a taxation year of the person and at the end of which the person is a member of the partnership is the same as that determined for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the subsequent taxation year referred to in the first paragraph.

1175.28.10.1. For the purposes of sections 1175.28.9 and 1175.28.10, the following rules apply in respect of a person for a taxation year if one or more partnerships (each of which is in this section referred to as an "interposed partnership") are interposed between the person and a given partnership for a given fiscal period of the given partnership, and if the person is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister for a preceding taxation year under Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I, in respect of a cost, an expenditure or expenses incurred by that given partnership in a fiscal period of that given partnership that precedes the given fiscal period (in this section referred to as the "preceding fiscal period"):

(a) the person is deemed to be a member of a particular partnership at the end of a particular fiscal period of the particular partnership and that particular fiscal period is deemed to end in the person's taxation year in which ends the fiscal period of the interposed partnership of which the person is directly a member, if

i. the particular fiscal period is that which ends in the fiscal period (in this section referred to as the "interposed fiscal period") of the interposed partnership that is a member of the particular partnership at the end of that particular fiscal period, and

ii. the person is a member, or deemed to be a member under this paragraph, of the interposed partnership described in subparagraph i at the end of the interposed partnership's interposed fiscal period; and

(b) the agreed proportion in respect of the person for the given partnership's given fiscal period is deemed to be equal to the product obtained by multiplying the agreed proportion in respect of the person for the interposed fiscal period of the interposed partnership of which the person is directly a member, by

i. if there is only one interposed partnership, the agreed proportion in respect of the interposed partnership for the given partnership's given fiscal period, or

ii. if there is more than one interposed partnership, the result obtained by multiplying together all proportions each of which is the agreed proportion in respect of an interposed partnership for the particular fiscal period of the particular partnership referred to in paragraph a of which the interposed partnership is a member at the end of that particular fiscal period.

2009, c. 15, s. 456.

1175.28.11. If, at any time, a person pays tax to the Minister under section 1175.28.9 in relation to the first aggregate referred to in the second paragraph of that section in respect of a partnership, the portion of the tax that may reasonably be considered to relate to a property, a cost, an expenditure or to other expenses relating to the aggregate is deemed, for the purposes of Part I but excluding the division of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I that relates to the aggregate, to be an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the partnership in respect of the property, cost, expenditure or other expenses, as the case may be, pursuant to a legal obligation, except to the extent that the aggregate is deemed, for the purposes of Part I and the regulations, not to be an amount of assistance nor an inducement received by the partnership from a government.

2006, c. 36, s. 271.

1175.28.12. Every person who, for a particular taxation year or at any given time in that year, enjoys any of the benefits described in the second paragraph shall, subject to special provisions of Parts VI.2 and VI.3, pay the tax computed under the third paragraph for a taxation year, in this section referred to as the "modification year", in which a certificate, a qualification certificate or another similar document that has been issued by a Minister or body and that was required to enable the person to enjoy the benefit for the particular taxation year or at that given time is revoked or replaced.

The benefits to which the first paragraph refers are

(a) a deduction in computing taxable income or the tax payable for the purposes of Part I, otherwise than under any of Titles V, VI.3 and VI.9 of Book IV or Title I or III.6 of Book V;

(b) a deduction in computing paid-up capital for the purposes of Part IV;

(c) a reduction of the tax payable under Part VI or VI.1; and

(d) an exemption or a reduction of the contribution provided for in section 34 or 34.1.6 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec (chapter R-5) in respect of wages or another amount.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the aggregate of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the tax, in the fourth and fifth paragraphs referred to as the "notional tax", that would have been payable by the person under Part I for a taxation year preceding the modification year, which is such a particular taxation year, if, in relation to the benefit referred to in the first paragraph and described in subparagraph a of the second paragraph, every revocation and every replacement of such a certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document that occurred at or before the end of the modification year had been taken into account, exceeds the tax determined by the Minister, in the fourth paragraph referred to as the "real tax", that is payable by the person under that Part for that preceding taxation year, except to the extent that it may reasonably be considered that the excess amount became payable by the person under this section for a taxation year preceding the modification year, or otherwise payable by the person for the modification year or a preceding taxation year;

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the tax, in the fourth and fifth paragraphs referred to as the "notional tax on capital", that would have been payable by the person under Part IV, IV.1, VI or VI.1 for a taxation year preceding the modification year, which is such a particular taxation year, or for a 12-month period ending in such a preceding taxation year, as the case may be, if, in relation to the benefit referred to in the first paragraph and described in subparagraph b or c of the second paragraph, every revocation and every replacement of such a certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document that occurred at or before the end of the modification year had been taken into account, exceeds the tax determined by the Minister, in the fourth paragraph referred to as the "real tax on capital", that is payable by the person under this Part for that preceding taxation year or 12-month period, except to the extent that it may reasonably be considered that the excess amount became payable by the person under this section for a taxation year preceding the modification year, or otherwise payable by the person for the modification year or a preceding taxation year;

(c) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the aggregate of the contributions that would be payable by the person under section 34 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec in respect of the wages paid or deemed to be paid in such a particular taxation year if every revocation and every replacement of such a certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document that occurred at or before the end of the modification year was taken into account, exceeds the aggregate of the contributions, determined without taking any such revocation or replacement into account, that are payable by the person under section 34 of that Act in respect of the wages paid or deemed to be paid in that particular taxation year, except to the extent that it may reasonably be considered that the excess amount became payable by the person under this section for a taxation year preceding the modification year, or otherwise payable by the person for the modification year or a preceding taxation year; and

(d) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the contribution that would be payable by the person under section 34.1.6 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec for a taxation year preceding the modification year, which is such a particular taxation year, if every revocation and every replacement of such a certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document that occurred at or before the end of the modification year was taken into account, exceeds the contribution, determined without taking any such revocation or replacement into account, that is payable by the person under section 34.1.6 of that Act for that preceding taxation year, except to the extent that it may reasonably be considered that the excess amount became payable by the person under this section for a taxation year preceding the modification year, or otherwise payable by the person for the modification year or a preceding taxation year.

If an amount, in this paragraph and in the fifth paragraph referred to as the "increased amount", in respect of which the person could claim a deduction under a particular provision of this Act in computing the person's taxable income or tax payable under Part I, or in computing the person's paid-up capital or tax payable under Part IV, for a preceding taxation year referred to in the first instance in subparagraph a or b of the third paragraph, in this paragraph and in the fifth paragraph referred to as the "computation year", for the purpose of determining the person's notional tax or notional tax on capital, as the case may be, for the computation year, is greater than the amount, in this paragraph and in the fifth paragraph referred to as the "deducted amount", that the person deducted under the particular provision for the purpose of determining the person's real tax or real tax on capital, as the case may be, for the computation year, the increased amount rather than the deducted amount may be taken into account for the purpose of determining the person's notional tax or notional tax on capital, as the case may be, for the computation year, if

(a) the person so requests in writing to the Minister; and

(b) it may reasonably be considered that the amount by which the increased amount exceeds the deducted amount has not been deducted under the particular provision or another provision of this Act for the purpose of determining the person's tax payable under Part I or the person's tax payable under Part IV for any other taxation year, nor for the purpose of determining a tax of the person for any taxation year that is similar in nature to the person's notional tax or notional tax on capital and is provided for in another portion of this Act.

If the fourth paragraph applies, the amount by which the increased amount exceeds the deducted amount is deemed,

(a) for the purpose of determining the person's notional tax for any taxation year subsequent to the computation year and for the application of Part I to the modification year and to any subsequent taxation year, to have been deducted under the particular provision in computing the person's taxable income or tax payable under Part I for the computation year; or

(b) for the purpose of determining the person's notional tax on capital for any taxation year subsequent to the computation year, for the application of Part IV to the modification year and to any subsequent taxation year and for the application of Parts VI.1.1 and VI.2 to any taxation year subsequent to the computation year, to have been deducted under the particular provision in computing the person's paid-up capital or tax payable under Part IV for the computation year.

Despite the special provisions referred to in the first paragraph, the fact that no tax is payable under Parts VI.2 and VI.3 in respect of the revocation or replacement of a document referred to in the first paragraph does not preclude the application of this section in respect of the revocation or replacement.

1175.28.13. If a person is required to pay tax for any taxation year under section 1175.28.12, the tax that the person is required to pay for a subsequent taxation year, under a particular provision of any of Parts III.6.4 to III.6.6, VI.2 and VI.3, may not, despite the particular provision, be greater than the amount by which the tax otherwise determined exceeds the portion of that tax that may reasonably be considered to have become payable by the person under section 1175.28.12 for a taxation year preceding the subsequent taxation year.

2006, c. 36, s. 271; 2007, c. 12, s. 295; 2015, c. 36, s. 166; 2017, c. 1, s. 389.

1175.28.14. If, at any time in a taxation year, a person pays tax to the Minister under section 1175.28.12, the following rules apply:

(a) the portion of that tax that is determined under subparagraph a of the third paragraph of that section is deemed, for the purposes of the definition of "total taxes" in the first paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.166.40, 1029.8.36.166.60.36 and 1029.8.36.167, to be a tax that the person pays under Part I for that taxation year;

*(a.1)* the portion of that tax that is determined under subparagraph a of the third paragraph of that section and that may reasonably be considered as relating to a deduction under any of Titles III.3, III.4 and III.5 of Book V of Part I in relation to an expense is deemed to be, for the purposes of Part I, except for that Title III. 3, that Title III.4 and Division II.6.0.1.9 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX or that Title III.5, as the case may be, and the definition of "total taxes" in the first paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.166.40, 1029.8.36.166.60.36 and 1029.8.36.167, an amount of assistance repaid at that time by the person in respect of the expense pursuant to a legal obligation;

(b) the portion of that tax that is determined under subparagraph b of the third paragraph of that section is deemed, for the purposes of Title III of Book III of Part I and the definition of "total taxes" in the first paragraph of sections 1029.8.36.166.60.36 and 1029.8.36.167, to be a tax that the person pays under Part IV, IV.1, VI or VI.1, as the case may be, for that taxation year;

(c) the portion of that tax that is determined under subparagraph c of the third paragraph of that section is deemed, for the purposes of Title III of Book III of Part I, to be an amount that the person pays for that taxation year as a contribution under section 34 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec (chapter R-5); and

(d) (paragraph repealed).

2006, c. 36, s. 271; 2007, c. 12, s. 296; 2009, c. 5, s. 569; 2015, c. 36, s. 167; 2017, c. 1, s. 390; 2017, c. 29, s. 223; 2021, c. 14, s. 199.

1175.28.15. Every person who is a member of a partnership at the end of a particular fiscal period of the partnership that ends in a particular taxation year of the person shall, subject to special provisions of Part VI. 3, pay the tax computed under the second paragraph for the particular taxation year if

(a) in any given fiscal period of the partnership, the partnership paid or is deemed to have paid wages in respect of which an exemption or a reduction of the contribution provided for in section 34 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec (chapter R-5) was allowed;

(b) a certificate, a qualification certificate or another similar document, issued by a Minister or body, was required to enable the partnership to enjoy the exemption or reduction referred to in subparagraph a; and

(c) the certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document referred to in subparagraph b is revoked or replaced in the particular fiscal period.

The tax to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the person's share of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the aggregate of the contributions that would be payable by the partnership under section 34 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec in respect of the wages paid or deemed to be paid in such a given fiscal period if every revocation and every replacement of such a certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document that occurred at or before the end of the particular fiscal period was taken into account, exceeds the aggregate of the contributions, determined without taking any such revocation or replacement into account, that are payable by the partnership under section 34 of that Act in respect of the wages paid or deemed to be paid in the given fiscal period, except to the extent that it may reasonably be considered that the excess amount became payable by a person under this section for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year, otherwise payable by a person for the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, or otherwise payable by the partnership for the given fiscal period.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, a person's share of an amount is equal to the agreed proportion of the amount in respect of the person for the partnership's particular fiscal period.

Despite the special provisions referred to in the first paragraph, the fact that no tax is payable under Part VI.3 in respect of the replacement of a document referred to in the first paragraph does not preclude the application of this section in respect of the replacement.

2006, c. 36, s. 271; 2009, c. 15, s. 457.

1175.28.16. The tax that a person is required to pay for a taxation year under section 1175.27 may not, despite that section, be greater than the amount by which the tax otherwise determined exceeds the portion of that tax that may reasonably be considered to have become payable by a person under section 1175.28.15 for a preceding taxation year.

2006, c. 36, s. 271.

1175.28.17. For the purposes of Title III of Book III of Part I, the tax paid to the Minister by a person at any time, under section 1175.28.15, in relation to a partnership, is deemed to be an amount that the partnership pays for its fiscal period that includes that time as a contribution under section 34 of the Act respecting the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec (chapter R-5).

2006, c. 36, s. 271.

1175.28.17.1. If, at any time in a taxation year, a favourable advance ruling, certificate, qualification certificate or other similar document is revoked or replaced and, as a result, a person is required to pay a tax under a provision of this Part, the Minister may make, as of that time and despite any other provision of this Act, an assessment for the year in respect of the person, in relation to the tax.

For the purposes of section 1037 in respect of the tax, the person's balance-due day for that taxation year is deemed to be the date on which the notice of assessment is sent, unless that date is later than the balance-due day.

2012, c. 8, s. 259.

1175.28.18. Unless otherwise provided in this Part, section 6, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, sections 1001, 1005 to 1024 and 1026.0.1, subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1027 and sections 1037 to 1079.16 apply to this Part, with the necessary modifications.

2006, c. 36, s. 271; 2012, c. 8, s. 260.

PART VI.4

PUBLIC UTILITY TAX

2005, c. 23, s. 261.

BOOK I

INTERPRETATION AND GENERAL

2005, c. 23, s. 261.

1175.29. In this Part,

"eligible asset" of the operator of a telecommunications system means an immovable subject to tax that is part of the operator's system and that

(a) is acquired or leased by the operator after 31 December 2005, but is not an immovable acquired or leased pursuant to an obligation in writing entered into before 1 January 2006 or the construction of which had begun before that date;

(b) begins to be used within a reasonable time after being so acquired or leased;

(c) is used mainly in the course of carrying on a business; and

(d) was not, before being acquired, used for any purpose or acquired to be used or leased for any purpose whatever; or

(e) was not, before being first leased as described in paragraph a, used for any purpose nor acquired to be used or leased for any purpose whatever other than to be so leased and the operator has never ceased leasing the property since its being so leased;

"financial statements" means the financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles which, in the case of the financial statements of a corporation, are submitted to the shareholders of the corporation or, in the case of the financial statements of a partnership, are submitted to the members of the partnership, or, if such financial statements have not been prepared or have not been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, such financial statements if they had been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;

"fiscal period" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

"immovable subject to tax" means an immovable situated in Québec that must not be entered on the property assessment roll under any of sections 66 to 68 of the Act respecting municipal taxation (chapter F-2.1) or land that is the site of such an immovable and that is described in paragraph 7 of section 204 of that Act;

"lessee" of an immovable subject to tax means the person or partnership that pays a remuneration to a lessor, in relation to the immovable, in connection with the use by the lessee of a telecommunications or gas distribution system or an electric power production, transmission or distribution system that includes the immovable;

"lessor" of an immovable subject to tax means the person or partnership that receives a remuneration from a lessee, in relation to the immovable, in connection with the use by the lessee of a telecommunications or gas distribution system or an electric power production, transmission or distribution system that includes the immovable;

"operator" means a person or partnership that operates or has operated a telecommunications or gas distribution system or an electric power production, transmission or distribution system certain immovables of which are immovables subject to tax;

"owner" of an immovable subject to tax means

(a) the person or partnership that holds the right of ownership to that immovable, except in the cases provided for in paragraphs b to d;

(b) the person or partnership that owns the immovable in the manner described in article 922 of the Civil Code, except in the cases provided for in paragraphs c and d;

(c) the person or partnership that owns the immovable as institute under a substitution or emphyteutic lessee, or, if the immovable is land in the domain of the State, the person or partnership that occupies it under a promise of sale, occupation licence or location ticket; or

(d) the person or partnership that owns the immovable as usufructuary otherwise than as a member of a group of usufructuaries each having a right of enjoyment periodically and successively in the immovable;

"person" or any word or expression meaning a person includes a corporation and a trust;

"telecommunications" means the transmission or broadcast of sound, images, signs, signals, data or messages by wire, cable, waves or other electric, electronic, magnetic, electromagnetic or optical means;

"trust" has the meaning assigned by section 1.

In this Part, the reference to a fiscal period ending in a calendar year includes a reference to a fiscal period the end of which coincides with the end of that calendar year.

2005, c. 23, s. 261; 2005, c. 38, s. 334; 2006, c. 13, s. 227; 2007, c. 12, s. 297.

1175.30. For the purposes of this Part, to determine whether an operator is associated, within the meaning of sections 21.20 to 21.25 and 781.1, with another operator in a fiscal period, the following rules apply:

(a) an operator who is an individual is deemed to be a corporation all the voting shares in the capital stock of which are owned by the individual at the time referred to in section 21.20, in this section referred to as the "particular time" ;

(b) an operator that is a partnership is deemed to be a corporation whose fiscal period is the fiscal period of the partnership and all the voting shares in the capital stock of which are owned at the particular time by each member of the partnership in a proportion equal to the proportion that the member's share of the income or loss of the partnership for its fiscal period that includes the particular time is of the income or loss of the partnership for that fiscal period, on the assumption that, if the income and loss of the partnership for that fiscal period are nil, the partnership's income for that fiscal period is equal to $1,000,000; and

(c) an operator that is a trust is deemed to be a corporation all the voting shares in the capital stock of which

i. in the case of a testamentary trust under which one or more beneficiaries are entitled to receive all of the income of the trust that arose before the date of death of one or the last surviving of those beneficiaries, in this paragraph referred to as the "distribution date", and under which no other person can, before the distribution date, receive or otherwise obtain the enjoyment of any of the income or capital of the trust,

(1) if such a beneficiary's share of the income or capital of the trust depends on the exercise by any person of, or the failure by any person to exercise, a power to appoint, and if the particular time occurs before the distribution date, are owned at that time by the beneficiary, or

(2) if subparagraph 1 does not apply and the particular time occurs before the distribution date, are owned at that time by such a beneficiary in a proportion equal to the proportion that the fair market value of the beneficial interest in the trust of the beneficiary is of the fair market value of the beneficial interests in the trust of all the beneficiaries,

ii. in the case where a beneficiary's share of the accumulating income or capital of the trust depends on the exercise by any person of, or the failure by any person to exercise, a power to appoint, are owned at the particular time by the beneficiary, unless subparagraph i applies and that time occurs before the distribution date,

iii. in any case where subparagraph ii does not apply, are owned at the particular time by the beneficiary in a proportion equal to the proportion that the fair market value of the beneficial interest in the trust of the beneficiary is of the fair market value of all beneficial interests in the trust, unless subparagraph i applies and that time occurs before the distribution date, and

iv. in the case of a trust referred to in section 467, are owned at the particular time by the person referred to in that section from whom property of the trust or property for which it was substituted was directly or indirectly received.

2005, c. 23, s. 261.

1175.30.1. For the purposes of this Part, if, in any of the circumstances described in the second paragraph, a particular operator becomes, at any time, the owner of an immovable subject to tax or becomes the lessee of the immovable and the immovable subject to tax was, immediately before that time, an eligible asset of the operator that is the transferor or lessor of the immovable, the immovable subject to tax is deemed to be an eligible asset of the particular operator.

The circumstances to which the first paragraph refers are the following:

(a) the particular operator becomes the owner of the immovable subject to tax in the course of a reorganization in respect of which, if a dividend were received by a corporation in the course of the reorganization, section 308.1 would not apply to the dividend because of the application of section 308.3; and

(b) the operator that is the transferor or lessor of the immovable subject to tax is a person with whom the particular operator is not dealing at arm's length, otherwise than because of a right referred to in paragraph b of section 20, at the time the particular operator becomes the owner of the immovable subject to tax or becomes the lessee of the immovable.

2007, c. 12, s. 298.

BOOK II

LIABILITY FOR AND AMOUNT OF THE TAX

2005, c. 23, s. 261.

1175.31. A person or partnership that is an operator in a calendar year shall pay for that year, on or before 1 March of that year, a public utility tax.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the person or partnership that operates a structure used to produce electric power supplied to another person or partnership operating an electric power production, transmission or distribution system is itself deemed to operate such a system.

2005, c. 23, s. 261.

1175.32. The public utility tax to be paid by an operator for a calendar year is equal to

(a) in the case of the operation of a telecommunications system, the aggregate of

i. 0.70% of the aggregate of

(1) the portion of the net value of the assets forming part of the operator's system, for the operator's last fiscal period that ends in the preceding calendar year, that is attributable to immovables subject to tax that are not eligible assets and that does not exceed $750,000,000, and

(2) the portion of the net value of the assets forming part of the operator's system, for the operator's last fiscal period that ends in the preceding calendar year, that is attributable to eligible assets, and

ii. 10.5% of the portion of the net value of the assets forming part of the operator's system, for the operator's last fiscal period that ends in the preceding calendar year, that is attributable to immovables subject to tax that are not eligible assets and that exceeds $750,000,000;

(b) in the case of the operation of a gas distribution system, the aggregate of

i. 0.75% of the portion of the net value of the assets forming part of the operator's system for the operator's last fiscal period that ends in the preceding calendar year, that does not exceed $750,000,000, and

ii. 1.50% of the portion of the net value of the assets forming part of the operator's system for the operator's last fiscal period that ends in the preceding calendar year, that exceeds $750,000,000; and

(c) in the case of the operation of an electric power production, transmission or distribution system, the aggregate of

i. 0.20% of the portion of the net value of the assets forming part of the operator's system for the operator's last fiscal period that ends in the preceding calendar year, that does not exceed $750,000,000, and

ii. 0.55% of the portion of the net value of the assets forming part of the operator's system for the operator's last fiscal period that ends in the preceding calendar year, that exceeds $750,000,000.

2005, c. 23, s. 261; 2007, c. 12, s. 299.

1175.33. Despite section 1175.32, if an operator is not associated, within the meaning of sections 21.20 to 21.25 and 781.1, with any other operator in a fiscal period and the operator operates, in that fiscal period, more than one telecommunications or gas distribution system or more than one electric power production, transmission or distribution system, the amount of $750,000,000 provided for in section 1175.32 and determined in respect of each of those systems, in relation to that fiscal period, must be replaced, wherever it appears, by the greater of $0 and the portion of that amount that the operator allocates, in prescribed form, in respect of that system, in relation to that fiscal period.

The aggregate of the amounts allocated in relation to a fiscal period under the first paragraph may not exceed $750,000,000.

If an operator does not make the allocation provided for in the first paragraph in relation to a fiscal period or if the aggregate of the amounts allocated by an operator under the first paragraph in relation to a fiscal period exceeds $750,000,000, the amount of $750,000,000 provided for in section 1175.32 and determined in respect of each of those systems, in relation to that fiscal period, must be replaced, wherever it appears, by the greater of $0 and the portion of that amount that the Minister allocates in respect of that system, in relation to that fiscal period.

The aggregate of the amounts allocated by the Minister under the third paragraph, in relation to a fiscal period of an operator, must be equal to $750,000,000.

2005, c. 23, s. 261.

1175.34. Despite section 1175.32, if an operator is associated, within the meaning of sections 21.20 to 21.25 and 781.1, with another operator in a fiscal period that ends in a particular calendar year, the amount of $750,000,000 provided for in section 1175.32, in relation to that fiscal period, must be replaced, wherever it appears, by the greater of $0 and the portion of that amount that is allocated to the operator for that fiscal period in accordance with the agreement under which all the operators that are associated with each other in their fiscal period that ends in the particular calendar year allocate, for the purposes of this Part, in prescribed form, an amount to one or more of them for the fiscal period.

The aggregate of the amounts allocated for a fiscal period under the first paragraph may not exceed $750,000,000.

If the operators that are associated with each other do not make the allocation provided for in the first paragraph in relation to a fiscal period or if the aggregate of the amounts allocated under the first paragraph, in relation to a fiscal period, exceeds $750,000,000, the amount of $750,000,000 provided for in section 1175.32, in relation to that fiscal period, must be replaced, wherever it appears, by the greater of $0 and the portion of that amount that the Minister allocates, for that fiscal period, to one or each of the operators so associated.

The aggregate of the amounts allocated by the Minister under the third paragraph, in relation to operators associated in a fiscal period, must be equal to $750,000,000.

2005, c. 23, s. 261.

1175.35. Despite sections 1175.32 and 1175.34, if an operator is associated, within the meaning of sections 21.20 to 21.25 and 781.1, with another operator in a fiscal period and the operator operates, in that fiscal period, more than one telecommunications or gas distribution system or more than one electric power production, transmission or distribution system, the amount that was allocated to the operator under section 1175.34, in relation to that fiscal period, must be replaced, wherever it appears, by the greater of $0 and the portion of that amount that the operator allocates, in prescribed form, in respect of each of those systems, in relation to that fiscal period.

The aggregate of the amounts allocated in relation to a fiscal period under the first paragraph may not exceed the amount that was allocated to the operator under section 1175.34, in relation to that fiscal period.

If an operator does not make the allocation provided for in the first paragraph in relation to a fiscal period or if the aggregate of the amounts allocated by an operator under the first paragraph in relation to a fiscal period exceeds the amount that was allocated to the operator under section 1175.34, the amount so allocated under that section, in relation to that fiscal period, must be replaced, wherever it appears, by the greater of $0 and the portion of that amount that the Minister allocates in respect of each of the systems operated by the operator, in relation to that fiscal period.

The aggregate of the amounts allocated by the Minister under the third paragraph, in relation to a fiscal period of an operator, must be equal to the amount that was allocated to the operator under the first paragraph of section 1175.34.

2005, c. 23, s. 261.

1175.35.1. For the purpose of determining the amount of the tax payable under this Part by an operator for a calendar year, an immovable subject to tax that is transferred by the operator before the end of the last fiscal period ended in the preceding calendar year is deemed to be an immovable subject to tax of the operator at the end of the fiscal period if the Minister is of the opinion that the transfer is part of an operation or transaction or of a series of operations or transactions, one of the purposes of which is to reduce the amount of tax payable under this Part by the operator for the calendar year.

2007, c. 12, s. 300.

BOOK III

COMPUTATION OF THE NET VALUE OF THE ASSETS

2005, c. 23, s. 261.

1175.36. In this Part, the net value of the assets forming part of a system, determined in respect of an operator for a particular fiscal period, means the aggregate of all amounts each of which is

(a) the excess amount, as shown in the operator's financial statements prepared for the particular fiscal period, that is the amount by which the cost of an immovable subject to tax that is included in the system of the operator and of which the operator is the owner at the end of the particular fiscal period exceeds the accumulated depreciation;

(b) unless subparagraph c applies, the amount determined by the following formula in respect of an immovable subject to tax that is included in the system of the operator and of which the operator is the lessee at any time in the particular fiscal period:

(A × 10) 365 / B; or

(c) the excess amount, as shown in the operator's financial statements prepared for the operator's last fiscal period that ends in the calendar year in which the particular fiscal period ends, that is the amount by which the cost to the owner of an immovable subject to tax that is included in the system of the operator and of which the operator is the lessee at any time in the particular fiscal period exceeds the accumulated depreciation, where the owner is the lessor of the immovable subject to tax, in relation to the operator, and the owner and operator were not dealing with each other at arm's length at the time the operator became the lessee of the immovable subject to tax or, if the owner is not the lessor of the immovable subject to tax, in relation to the operator, where each person or partnership that is a lessor of the immovable subject to tax, in relation to a lessee, and that lessee were not dealing with each other at arm's length at the time the person or partnership became the lessor of the immovable subject to tax in relation to that lessee.

In the formula in subparagraph b of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the portion of the rental cost of the immovable incurred in the particular fiscal period by the operator; and

(b) B is the number of days in the particular fiscal period.

Subparagraphs b and c of the first paragraph do not apply in respect of an immovable subject to tax of which an operator is the lessee at any time in the operator's last fiscal period that ends in a calendar year if that immovable is shown in the financial statements of another operator that is the owner of that immovable, prepared for that operator's last fiscal period that ends in the calendar year.

For the purposes of this section, an operator who uses an immovable subject to tax in a capacity other than owner during the operator's last fiscal period that ends in a calendar year is deemed to be the owner of that immovable subject to tax at the end of that fiscal period and is deemed not to be a lessee of that immovable subject to tax if that immovable constitutes an asset of the operator shown in the operator's financial statements prepared for that fiscal period.

1175.36.1. Despite section 1175.36, if an operator transfers, in a calendar year, to a person or partnership an immovable subject to tax that forms part of a system of the operator, the following rules apply:

(a) in the case where the person or partnership is also an operator and

i. the immovable subject to tax is transferred by the operator in a fiscal period that ends in the calendar year, in this paragraph referred to as the "particular fiscal period", the amount that is the excess amount, as it would have been shown in the operator's financial statements had the operator still owned the immovable subject to tax at the end of the particular fiscal period, that is the amount by which the cost of the immovable subject to tax exceeds the accumulated depreciation at the end of the fiscal period that precedes the particular fiscal period, must be added to the net value of the assets forming part of the operator's system for the operator's last fiscal period that ends in the calendar year, unless the immovable subject to tax forms part of a system of the person or partnership and is shown in the person's or partnership's financial statements for the person's or partnership's last fiscal period that ends in the calendar year, at the end of which the person or partnership owns the immovable, or

ii. the immovable subject to tax forms part of a system of the person or partnership and is shown both in the person's or partnership's financial statements for the person's or partnership's last fiscal period that ends in the calendar year, at the end of which the person or partnership owns the immovable, and in the transferor's financial statements for the transferor's last fiscal period that ends in the calendar year, the amount that is the amount by which the cost of the immovable subject to tax exceeds the accumulated depreciation, as shown in the person's or partnership's financial statements for that fiscal period, may be subtracted from the net value of the assets forming part of the person's or partnership's system for the person's or partnership's last fiscal period that ends in the calendar year; and

(b) in the case where the person or partnership is not an operator and the immovable subject to tax is transferred by the operator in a fiscal period that ends in the calendar year, in this paragraph referred to as the "particular fiscal period", the amount that is the proportion of the excess amount, as it would have been shown in the operator's financial statements had the operator still owned the immovable subject to tax at the end of the particular fiscal period, that is the amount by which the cost of the immovable subject to tax exceeds the accumulated depreciation at the end of the fiscal period that precedes the particular fiscal period, that the number of days in the particular fiscal period in which the operator owned the immovable subject to tax is of the number of days in the particular fiscal period, must be added to the net value of the assets of the operator for the operator's last fiscal period that ends in the calendar year.

2007, c. 12, s. 301.

1175.37. (Repealed).

BOOK IV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

2005, c. 23, s. 261.

1175.38. A person or partnership that is required to pay a tax provided for in section 222 of the Act respecting municipal taxation (chapter F-2.1) in a fiscal period, in relation to an electric power production system the person or partnership operates, and that consumes all the electric power the person or partnership produces is exempt from the public utility tax for the calendar year in which the fiscal period ends.

A person or partnership that is required to pay a tax provided for in section 222 of the Act respecting municipal taxation in a fiscal period, in relation to an electric power production system the person or partnership operates, and that sells part of the electric power the person or partnership produces is required to pay the public utility tax for a calendar year to the extent that the amount of that tax exceeds the amount of the tax provided for in that section 222 that the person or partnership is required to pay in the fiscal period that ends in the calendar year.

For the purposes of this section, the power consumed by a person or partnership related to the person or partnership that produces it is deemed to be consumed by the latter person or partnership.

2005, c. 23, s. 261.

1175.39. The following operators are exempt from the public utility tax for a particular calendar year:

(a) a municipality; and

(b) a corporation all of the shares of the capital stock of which, or a partnership all of the interests in which, are held, throughout its last fiscal period that ended in the calendar year that precedes the particular calendar year, by

i. a municipality,

ii. a corporation all of the shares of the capital stock of which are held, directly or indirectly through one or more corporations or partnerships, by a municipality, or

iii. a partnership all of the interests in which are held, directly or indirectly through one or more corporations or partnerships, by a municipality.

2005, c. 23, s. 261; 2022, c. 23, s. 154.

1175.40. An operator must, for each calendar year for which tax is payable under this Part, file with the Minister, in the prescribed form, without notice or demand, a fiscal return containing prescribed information and the operator's financial statements prepared for the operator's last fiscal period that ends in the preceding calendar year.

An operator, other than a municipality, that is exempt from the payment of tax under this Part shall, for each calendar year for which such tax would otherwise be payable, file with the Minister, in the prescribed form, without notice or demand, a fiscal return containing prescribed information.

The documents must be filed by the following persons and within the following time:

(a) in the case of an operator that is a corporation or a partnership, by the corporation or partnership, as the case may be, or on its behalf, within six months after the end of the operator's last fiscal period that ends in the preceding calendar year;

(b) in the case of an operator that is a succession or a trust, by the liquidator of the succession, the executor or the trustee, as the case may be, within 90 days after the end of the operator's last fiscal period that ends in the preceding calendar year; and

(c) in the case of an operator who is an individual, by the individual, on or before 15 June of the calendar year.

Despite subparagraph c of the third paragraph, if the operator is an individual who dies in the calendar year but before 16 June, the documents mentioned in the first paragraph must be produced by the individual's legal representative within six months after the death.

If the documents are not filed in accordance with the first, second or third paragraph, they must be filed by the person who is required by notice in writing from the Minister to file the documents, within such reasonable time as the notice specifies.

1175.41. If the fiscal period of a person or partnership exceeds 365 days and for that reason the person or partnership does not have a fiscal period ending in a particular calendar year, the first fiscal period of the person or partnership ending in the calendar year following the particular year is deemed, for the purposes of this Part, to end on the last day of the particular year.

2005, c. 23, s. 261.

1175.42. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 17 to 21, the first paragraph of section 549, section 564 where it refers to the first paragraph of section 549, 1002 to 1014 and 1037 to 1079.16 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

2005, c. 23, s. 261; 2006, c. 36, s. 272; 2007, c. 12, s. 303.

PART VII

LOGGING TAX

1972, c. 23.

BOOK I

INTERPRETATION

1972, c. 23.

1176. In this Part, unless the context indicates a different meaning,

(a) "taxation year" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

(b) "taxpayer" means any person or trust carrying on logging operations in Québec and includes, as the case may be, the liquidator of a succession, the executor, the trustee or the agent of the person or trust;

(c) (paragraph repealed);

*(c.1)* "fiscal period" has the meaning assigned by Part I;

(d) (paragraph repealed);

(e) "forest products" means logs, even if they are flatted, railway ties and spoolwood.

1972, c. 23, s. 885; 1979, c. 38, s. 30; 1993, c. 64, s. 205; 1994, c. 22, s. 349; 1997, c. 3, s. 70; 1997, c. 14, s. 290; 2004, c. 21, s. 501; 2006, c. 13, s. 228; 2007, c. 12, s. 304.

1177. In this Part, the expression "logging operations" means:

(a) the cutting of standing timber in Québec or the acquiring of forest products derived therefrom, when such products are sold in Québec;

(b) the cutting of standing timber in Québec or the acquiring of forest products derived therefrom, when such products are sold outside Québec;

(c) the sale of forest land, timber limits or timber-cutting rights in Québec;

(d) the cutting of standing timber in Québec or the acquiring of forest products derived therefrom by a taxpayer where such products are processed in a sawmill, pulp or paper plant or other plant for processing forest products in Canada by the taxpayer or on his behalf.

Where a taxpayer is deemed, under a provision of Part I, to have disposed of a property described in subparagraph c of the first paragraph, the taxpayer is deemed, for the purposes of that subparagraph c and section 1178, to have sold it.

1972, c. 23, s. 886; 1990, c. 59, s. 364; 2004, c. 21, s. 502.

1178. For the purposes of this Part,

(a) the income of a taxpayer from logging operations for a taxation year is equal to the excess of the aggregate of all his income over the aggregate of his losses, determined in the following manner:

i. when the taxpayer carries on the operations described in subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1177, the taxpayer's income or loss, as determined under Part I for the year, from the cutting, acquiring, transportation and sale of forest products,

ii. when the taxpayer carries on the operations described in subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1177, the taxpayer's income or loss, as determined under Part I for the year, from the cutting, acquiring, transportation and sale of forest products, computed on the value of the forest products sold as established by the Minister, less the cost of cutting, acquisition, transportation and sale,

iii. subject to subparagraph iii.1, when the taxpayer carries on the operations described in subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 1177, the taxpayer's income or loss, as determined under Part I for the year, from such operations, iii.1. where subparagraph iii applies in respect of the sale by the taxpayer of forest land or a timber limit, the income or loss referred to in that subparagraph iii in respect of that sale is deemed, except for the purposes of subparagraph iv, to be equal to the portion of the income or loss of the taxpayer, determined under Part I for the year, from the sale that can reasonably be attributed to standing timber,

iv. when the taxpayer carries on the operations described in subparagraph d of the first paragraph of section 1177, the taxpayer's income or loss from all sources, as determined under Part I, without taking into account any amount included or deducted in computing the income or loss contemplated in subparagraphs i to iii or from sources other than logging operations and the processing in Québec by him or on his behalf, transportation and sale of forest products, timber and products derived therefrom, minus the deduction described in subparagraph v,

v. a taxpayer may deduct from the income determined under subparagraph iv an amount equal to 8% of the original cost to him of the depreciable property under Part I used by him during the year for the processing of forest products or products derived therefrom; but such amount shall not be less than 35% nor more than 65% of that income before the deduction under this subparagraph, and

vi. when subparagraph iv applies and the taxpayer cuts standing timber outside Québec or acquires forest products derived therefrom, he may deduct from the income resulting from the application of subparagraph iv a portion equal to such proportion that the quantity of such timber cut outside Québec and of the forest products derived therefrom is of the total quantity of standing timber cut and forest products acquired by him during the year; and

(b) a taxpayer's share in the income of a partnership carrying on logging operations of which the taxpayer is a member is equal to the agreed proportion of the income (computed under paragraph a as if the partnership were, for the purposes of subparagraph d of the first paragraph of section 1177 and of this section, a taxpayer and as if paragraphs a to c and g of section 600 applied to this Part) in respect of the taxpayer for the partnership's fiscal period that ends in the taxpayer's taxation year.

1972, c. 23, s. 887; 1975, c. 22, s. 252; 1990, c. 59, s. 365; 1993, c. 64, s. 206; 1995, c. 63, s. 259; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1997, c. 14, s. 287; 2004, c. 21, s. 503; 2009, c. 15, s. 458.

BOOK II

LIABILITY TO TAX

1972, c. 23.

1179. Subject to section 1180, every taxpayer shall pay, for a taxation year, a tax of 10% of the aggregate of his income from logging operations and of his share of the income of a partnership which carries on logging operations for a fiscal period of the partnership ending in that taxation year.

1972, c. 23, s. 888; 1993, c. 64, s. 207; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1180. No tax shall be payable for a taxation year in respect of

(a) the income of a taxpayer, computed in the manner prescribed in paragraph a of section 1178, if that income does not exceed $65,000 for that taxation year; or

(b) the share of a taxpayer in the income of a partnership carrying on logging operations of which the taxpayer is a member, if the income of the partnership, computed in the manner prescribed in paragraph b of section 1178, for a fiscal period of the partnership ending in that taxation year, does not exceed $65,000.

Where the taxation year referred to in subparagraph a of the first paragraph or, where the fiscal period of the taxpayer referred to in that subparagraph does not coincide with the taxpayer's taxation year, the period determined in the third paragraph in respect of the taxpayer for that taxation year, or the fiscal period referred to in subparagraph b of that paragraph is less than 12 months, those subparagraphs are to be read as if the amount of $65,000 were replaced by the proportion of that amount that the number of days in the taxation year, period or fiscal period, as the case may be, is of 365.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, the period to be determined in respect of a taxpayer for a taxation year, where the taxpayer has only one fiscal period ending in the taxation year, corresponds to that fiscal period or, in other cases, to the period covered by the aggregate of months in the year or in the previous taxation year included in the fiscal periods ending in the taxation year.

1972, c. 23, s. 889; 1993, c. 64, s. 207; 1995, c. 63, s. 260; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 2017, c. 1, s. 391.

1181. For the purposes of section 1180, all logging operations carried on by the same taxpayer as owner, lessee or operator, or of which the income from logging operations accrues to the benefit of the same taxpayer, are deemed to constitute a single logging operation and not separate operations.

1972, c. 23, s. 890; 1993, c. 64, s. 207.

1182. When logging operations are carried on by two or more affiliated or associated corporations, under the same general management, or of which the bulk of the profit accrues to the same shareholders, the income from logging operations of each such corporation shall be regarded as the income from logging operations of a same taxpayer for the purposes of section 1180.

1972, c. 23, s. 891; 1993, c. 64, s. 207; 1997, c. 3, s. 71.

1183. Every taxpayer may deduct from the tax payable by the taxpayer under Part I for a taxation year, one-third of the tax paid or, but for paragraph a of section 1184, that would be payable by the taxpayer for that taxation year under this Part.

1972, c. 23, s. 892; 1975, c. 22, s. 253; 1988, c. 4, s. 144; 1989, c. 5, s. 246; 1993, c. 64, s. 207; 1997, c. 85, s. 324; 2005, c. 1, s. 295.

1184. Where the tax otherwise payable by a taxpayer under section 1179 for a taxation year exceeds the aggregate of the amounts that he may effectively deduct for the year in respect of that tax under section 1183 and section 127 of the Income Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter 1, 5th Supplement),

(a) the excess must be applied in reduction of that tax in the case where it does not result in a decrease in the amount that the taxpayer may effectively deduct for the year under the said section 127; and

(b) in any other case, the excess must be applied to reduce, in addition to the amount provided for in section 1183, the tax otherwise payable under Part I, for the year or for any subsequent taxation year.

1184.1. (Repealed).

1997, c. 85, s. 326; 2005, c. 1, s. 297.

1185. Except where inconsistent with this Part, sections 1000 to 1024, 1037 to 1079.16 and paragraph a of section 1144 apply, with the necessary modifications, to this Part.

1972, c. 23, s. 893; 1973, c. 18, s. 36; 1987, c. 21, s. 97; 1993, c. 64, s. 209; 1995, c. 49, s. 236; 1995, c. 63, s. 261; 2009, c. 5, s. 570.

1185.1. Every taxpayer shall, subject to the second paragraph, pay to the Minister

(a) one-half of the tax for the taxation year, estimated in accordance with section 1004, at or before the end of the taxpayer's taxation year, and

(b) the remainder of the tax so estimated for the taxation year, on or before the taxpayer's balance-due day, within the meaning of section 1, for that year.

However, subparagraph a of the first paragraph does not require, where an individual dies in a taxation year, the payment of an amount, in respect of that individual, which would otherwise become payable under the said subparagraph on the day of his death or after that day.

1993, c. 64, s. 210; 1995, c. 1, s. 198; 1997, c. 3, s. 71; 1997, c. 31, s. 142.

1185.2. The taxpayer required to make a payment under section 1185.1 is deemed, for the purposes of sections 1038 and 1040, to have been liable to make payments based on the lesser of

(a) the taxpayer's tax payable for the taxation year, and

(b) the taxpayer's tax payable for the preceding taxation year.
